

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3142

Chapter 3142-After Hazel followed her parents to the room where the dresses were placed, she chose a pink dress to put on.

“Mom, I’ll wear this dress when the time comes!” Hazel liked this dress very much.

“You can choose a few more outfits! The wedding will be held for two days, and you can change your outfit every day!” Avery liked to dress up her daughter beautifully.

Hazel smiled and said, “No! It’s not that I’m getting married, I just wear one set every day.”

Hazel didn’t want to steal the limelight from the bride.

In the closet, Hazel took out a set of light blue gifts: “Adding this set is enough.”

Avery: “Okay! Do you want to go and see the room where your brother will sleep on the night of his wedding?”

Hazel couldn’t help laughing out loud: “I want to see it! I want to see how you have arranged the room.”

Avery: “Haha, we didn’t arrange the room they slept in. It was Joanna’s mother who arranged it.”

Avery respected her in-laws more. Of course, Joanna’s family was more reserved in front of them, and basically let them decide everything, but the room on the wedding night was arranged by Joanna’s mother according to the habits of Joanna’s hometown.

The place to stay was not far from the place where the wedding would be held, and it took only five minutes to walk there.

Avery opened the door of the room, and Hazel’s eyes were filled with redness, occupying the main line of sight.

The room was covered with happy characters, as well as red and gold balloons. The bed was covered with a red wedding six-piece suit, covered with red rose petals and some nuts.

“It’s so festive!” Hazel said with a smile, “Did brother come to the room to see it?”

Avery: “He has seen it! He came to see it after it was arranged.”

Hazel couldn’t help but ask, “What’s his reaction?”

She must know that the oldest brother was a person who liked minimalist style. His room was either monotonous gray or monotonous white, and there were few elements of other colors in the room.

Now that the room was full of gold and red, it really didn’t match his usual cold impression.

“He should have been shocked, but he is very adaptable. He is only allowed to live for two days, not for a lifetime. Even if he doesn’t like it, he won’t say anything.” Avery said with a smile.

“Okay! Mom, how will Liam and Gia sleep when the time comes?” Hazel was very concerned about this issue.

After all, the hotel was not as convenient as at home.

“At that time, your father and I will bring Liam, and Joanna’s mother will bring Gia.” Avery replied, “Joanna’s mother is very careful with the children, and I can’t compare to her!”

Hazel: “Mom, you are so humble.”

“It’s really not modest. When Joanna’s mother took Gia, she read a lot of parenting books! Joanna’s father is also a very reliable and down-to-earth person. Although their family has no money, their family members are very simple.” When Avery said this, for some reason, she thought of Lucas again, “In this regard, Lucas’s family can’t compare.”

Hazel: “Mom, are you trying to say that Lucas’s father’s family is unreliable?”

Avery: “Do you think they are reliable?”

Hazel: "But Lucas has not been with his father's family for a long time. He is with his mother now. His mother is sick and has been living in the hospital. It means that he lives alone."

Avery: "Mom isn't talking about his current situation. It's his native family that has shaped and influenced his character. You see, Joanna grew up in a normal and healthy family, and she has such a good personality!"

The expression on Hazel's face was a bit sad: "Mom, if you say that, then my growing environment should be worse than Lucas's."
