

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3143

Novel Chapter 3143 -Avery: "Hazel, mom didn't say anything about you."

Hazel: "But Lucas is also his mother's baby. If his mother knows that others expect him, she will definitely be very sad."

Avery blamed herself: "I'm sorry."

"Mom, I don't blame you. You haven't seen Lucas before, so it's normal to have prejudice against him. If any man wants to abduct me in the future, I will be full of vigilance." Hazel quickly adjusted her mood.

Avery smiled: "It's really hard for me to maintain a normal mind towards him."

"If he doesn't come to Aryadelle with me, I won't be with him." Hazel repeatedly assured, "Don't worry, I won't leave you and Dad."

Avery smiled and nodded.

After looking at the room, Avery held Hazel's hand: "I'll take you to see the room where the gifts are placed."

Hazel: "What gift?"

"Souvenir." Avery said, "This time the gift is very creative."

"I saw the picture. On the box of the gift, there is a photo of the oldest brother, Joanna, and the two children. The design of the box is really beautiful."

Avery: "Well, your second brother designed it. The gifts inside are basically sponsored by your sister."

Hazel: "Hahaha! What are there?"

Avery: "There are wedding candies, aromatherapy, skin care products, etc., and there is a coded card in each box. You can go to your sister's company to get a new drone for free. Because when your sister got married, your elder brother gave her a souvenir and sponsored a car."

When Hazel arrived at the room where the souvenirs were placed, she picked up a gift box and opened it.

This box was quite big. When it was opened, the bottom layer was covered with dried roses, and various small gifts were placed on it.

More variety than mom said.

There was also a group photo of their family of four, with their names signed on it.

“Hazel, wait until your elder brother’s wedding is over before returning to Thopiavelle!” Avery said, “Otherwise, if you go to Thopiavelle after the Mid-Autumn Festival, you will come back to attend your elder brother’s wedding soon. “

Hazel: “When is my brother’s wedding scheduled?”

“It should be October 7th. Your father asked someone to count the day, and that day will be auspicious.” Avery replied with a smile.

Hazel couldn’t help laughing: “Dad still believes in this!”

Avery: “I was shocked too. He never believed this before.”

Elliot coughed lightly: “The main reason is that the time for the wedding on October 1st will be a little tight.”

Hazel: “Okay! Then I’ll go to Thopiavelle after my brother’s wedding is over.”

After Hazel agreed to come down, she stayed directly on the island at night.

In the evening, Joanna came to the island with her two children and her mother.

Avery and Elliot brought a child, and Mrs. Picard brought a child. When Joanna was free, she came to Hazel’s room.

Hazel: “Sister Joanna, is my brother not here?”

“He’s been a little busy at work recently. He has to finish his work before the wedding, and then he can take a month’s vacation.” Joanna recalled the honeymoon period of one month after the wedding, with a happy expression, “Your brother is very worried about you! The main reason is that we don’t know Lucas well, and he is afraid that you will make trouble with your family because of Lucas.”

Hazel: "I know. Sister Joanna, I know where my bottom line is."

Joanna: "That's good. If Lucas fails your brother's assessment, you must not hate your brother."

"Haha, how could it be? I like Lucas, but I like my brother even more!" After Hazel finished speaking, Joanna breathed a sigh of relief.
