

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3149

Novel Chapter 3149 -Hazel nodded: "If we are together, it will only be you and me going to Aryadelle."

Lucas shook his head.

Hazel: "Don't reject me so quickly. And my family is not the kind of difficult people you think. They are very nice and respect me. If they don't respect me, they won't let me come here to see you."

Lucas nodded: "It's good to see you living so well. But I won't leave here."

This was his hometown, and his mother was still here, so he wouldn't leave here.

In fact, he did not love this land as deeply as others do for his hometown. Even so, he was not willing to go far away for a woman.

His self-esteem had always been strong.

No matter how rich Hazel's family was, it was impossible for Lucas to sell his dignity for money.

"Let's not talk about this for now. We haven't seen each other for so long, let's get along as friends first!" Hazel was very optimistic, with a bright and bright smile on her face.

Lucas nodded.

Hazel leaned in front of Lucas, and said suddenly: "Master."

A few black lines flashed across Lucas's head: "Don't tease me."

Hazel laughed loudly: "I haven't called you young master for a long time, it's a bit awkward to call you now."

Lucas: "Stop yelling like that. I have already left the Hogan family."

Hazel: "Then what am I calling you? Should I continue calling you boss?"

Lucas: "Whatever you want, as long as you don't call me Young Master."

“Lucas, I have been to your university before! I even left a message for you on the wish card.” Hazel said happily.

Lucas looked helpless: “I know. You really know how to think, and you actually threw the wish card into the principal’s suggestion box.”

Hazel laughed loudly: “My uncle Mike gave me the idea. He said that there were too many signs hanging on the wishing tree, so he took me to put the wishing signs into the principal’s suggestion box. He said that the box, people generally don’t open it.”

Lucas: “That uncle of yours is wrong. I was found by the principal’s assistant not long after.”

Hazel: “It’s not that you voted in, they didn’t criticize you, did they?”

Lucas: “They told me to tell my friends not to randomly throw wish cards in the suggestion box.”

Hazel laughed even happier: “Did you guess that I wrote it? Were you scared?”

Lucas: “You are very happy to play a prank?”

Hazel: “To be honest, I don’t want you to forget me.”

Lucas: “I can’t forget it. After all, the scar on your face at that time is very difficult for people to forget.”

Hazel laughed loudly: “Just call me ugly!”

Lucas: “I thought about a question at the time. Most of the girls with disfigured faces like you have low self-esteem, but you don’t have low self-esteem. I once thought you were very strong inside. Unexpectedly, the disfigurement is fake, no wonder You are being silly every day.”

Hazel: “Is this the image in your eyes?”

Lucas: “Otherwise what image do you want?”

Hazel: “Hmph! My mother-in-law said that I am smart, sensible, diligent and capable!”

Lucas: "I didn't say you couldn't do it."

Hazel: "Okay, but now my cooking skills have degenerated, and the cooking is not as delicious as before."

Lucas: "I ate it."

Hazel: "After I was taken home by my parents, they didn't let me do any housework. In addition, I went to college and was busy studying, so I haven't done any work in the past few years."

Lucas: "Don't do any housework for me in the future."
