

When His Eyes Opened Read Novel Chapter 3160

Novel Chapter 3160 -Mr. Hogan was taken aback for a moment.

Isabela didn't continue, so Mr. Hogan followed Hazel out.

When Mr. Hogan looked at Hazel, he restrained himself a lot.

"Have you found your biological parents?" Mr. Hogan asked.

Hazel nodded.

Mr. Hogan continued to ask: "Your biological parents are rich?"

Hazel nodded.

Mr. Hogan heaved a sigh of relief: "Apart from Lucas, you didn't mess around with other men, did you?"

Hazel continued to nod.

Mr. Hogan showed a smile on his face: "That's good! Siena, I believe you are a good girl. After all, you have stayed in our house, and I am very relieved of you. And you have also been with Lucas... ..The two of you must know each other very well. You are so beautiful now, and your family is in good condition. I will definitely not stop you from being together. When you are free, call out your family members, let's meet and have a meal together!"

Hazel: "My family is in Aryadelle."

Mr. Hogan looked surprised: "Ah? You are from Aryadelle? Aryadelle is quite far from us!"

Hazel: "Yes."

Mr. Hogan: "Then let's talk about it first! If you decide to get married, we have to meet your parents."

"I know."

The more Mr. Hogan looked at Hazel, the more satisfied he became: "I didn't realize that you are so beautiful! No wonder Lucas likes you."

Hazel smiled politely, but did not speak.

Hazel knew very well that Lucas didn't like his father.

Therefore, Hazel and Mr. Hogan would not have too much contact.

After Mr. Hogan left, Hazel and Niko also left the hospital.

In the evening, Niko, Lucas and Hazel had dinner together.

Niko told Lucas vividly what happened during the day.

"Lucas, you don't know your stepmother's face when she saw Hazel buying a bag. It's so exciting!" Niko continued, "And your father went to the hospital to find your mother. He planned to ask your mother about Hazel, it turned out that Hazel was in the ward. So your father had a cordial conversation with Hazel."

Lucas looked at Hazel: "What did he tell you?"

Niko: "I heard it! Your father wants to ask Hazel's parents to come out and talk about your marriage."

Lucas's face suddenly turned cold.

Hazel: "No. Your dad didn't mention the marriage. He thought I was from Thopiavelle, so he asked me to bring my family out when I was free, and the two families had a meal together."

Lucas: "Don't talk to him from now on. Even if I get married, I won't invite him."

Hazel: "Oh, okay. I didn't plan to talk to him at first, because he was in your mother's ward, and I was afraid that he would disturb your mother, so I called him out to talk."

Lucas: "Okay."

Niko: "Lucas, don't blame Hazel. Hazel bought a lot of gifts for your mother today, and your mother is very happy. I have never seen her smile so happily."

Lucas looked at Hazel, a little awkward: "Thank you."

Hazel: "Now your family members know that I am your girlfriend. Since we are in this kind of relationship, why are you being so polite?"

Lucas did not speak.

Niko poured Lucas a glass of beer: "Lucas, don't think too much. Work hard and try to give Hazel an explanation!"

Lucas picked up the beer glass and drank it down in one gulp.

Back at the hotel, Hazel was lying on the bed, wanted to take a bath but was a little tired, so let's just sleep like this, thinking about not taking a bath.

She picked up her phone and planned to play with it for a while before going to take a shower.

After turning on the phone, she saw a message from Joanna.
