When His Eyes Opened Chapter 3176-Mr. Hogan didn't expect Hayden to be so direct, and he was caught off guard.

He really wanted to ask Hayden for money, but he didn't know how much he wanted.

After all, Hayden was so rich. If he wanted less, he felt like he was losing money. If he wanted more, he was worried that Hayden wouldn't give it to him, so he was very confused.

After struggling for a while, Mr. Hogan said to Hayden, "I know that your family is one of the top wealthy families in Aryadelle, so it is up to you to decide the price! I believe you will not treat my son and our family badly."

Hayden frowned slightly.

Joanna looked at it and immediately said, "Uncle, you'd better make a price! We don't know much about this. If you insist on us making a price, then we may have to go back and discuss it with my father-in-law."

Mr. Hogan: "Are you talking about Mr. Elliot Foster?"

Joanna nodded. "My father-in-law is not as easy to talk to as my husband. After all, he wouldn't want his daughter to marry an ordinary man, right?"

Mr. Hogan nodded quickly and said, "That's true. Then let's talk!"

Joanna: "You can start thinking about it now. We won't leave for the next two days."

Mr. Hogan: "Okay, okay! Let's exchange contact information! You can contact me more if you have anything to do in the future."

Joanna glanced at Hayden, who then picked up his phone and exchanged contact information with Mr. Hogan.

In the hospital.

Hazel accompanies Lucas to deal with Isabela's funeral affairs.

Lucas called the funeral home to transport his mother's body out of the hospital.

Hazel asked Lucas, "Are you planning to make things simple?"

Lucas: "I don't have any relatives on my mother's side."

Hazel: "Oh. Do we have to pick a cemetery?"

Lucas: "My mother asked me to send her ashes back to her hometown and scatter them directly into the pond."

Hazel: "..."

Lucas: "She doesn't want me to spend money."

Hazel: "Are you really going to listen to her?"

Lucas: "I don't want to listen to her."

Hazel: "It's better to buy a cemetery for your mother! Then you can come back to see her in the future."

Lucas: "Yeah."

At night.

Hayden and Joanna were eating in the restaurant on the first floor of the hotel.

Joanna asked, "Husband, Lucas's father wants $100 million from you. Are you really going to give it to him? This is not a small amount."

Hayden: "No."

Joanna: "But didn't you agree to him?"

Hayden: "I'm talking about giving it to Lucas when he and Hazel get married. It's still early for them to get married! Moreover, Lucas will not marry Hazel until he has made a career. Wait until Lucas's career is successful. Let Lucas pay for the 100 million by himself."

Joanna couldn't help but laugh: "I see that Lucas hates his father so much, so he may not be willing to give his father so much money!"

Hayden: "But he is willing to give it to Hazel."

Joanna: "We'll see what happens then! It's still early."

Hayden: "Um."

cemetery.

Hazel and Lucas buried Isabela's ashes next to their mother-in-law's grave.

It would be more convenient if they visited the grave in the future.

When they returned to the city from the cemetery, it was already 10 o'clock in the evening.

The two of them stood at the door of the hotel.

Lucas said to Hazel, "You go back to the country with your elder brother first. Give me some time. When I take care of things here, I will go to Aryadelle to find you."

Hazel: "I want to accompany you."

Lucas: "I'm fine. I've been mentally prepared since the doctor told me that my mother had terminal cancer."

Hazel: "Yeah. You still want me to leave with my brother first, right?"

"Yeah," Lucas replied.

"Okay! Then I'll go back to Aryadelle first. I'll wait for you to go to Aryadelle to find me." Hazel took a deep breath and grabbed Lucas's hand. "You must find me."

Lucas: "Yeah."
