

HIS LORDSHIP ALEXANDER KANE BY USELESS CAESAR

Chapter 459

Chapter 0459: Boom! The moment Alexander spoke, Yevgen did not hesitate for even half a second.

He stomped the ground, causing a massive crater with a diameter of over two meters to explode open. Blood sprayed into the air from his body as he transformed into a blurry phantom, madly fleeing toward the base of the mountain.

How decisive! With formidable strength and an exceptionally cautious mind, he had no intention of engaging in a battle with the monstrous youth in front of him.

His sole objective was to escape

Yewspire Mountain and disappear into the surrounding desolate hills and wilderness. - Once he entered the wild mountains and valleys, leveraging the treacherous terrain, he was confident he could escape the pursuit of this youth.

It was his blood-burning secret technique, a self-immolation of vital blood energy, unleashing an astonishing burst of speed in a short period. This life-saving trump card was personally taught by a master.

He achieved unparalleled speed.

Almost the moment he activated the secret technique, his speed reached its peak. With a single rise and fall, he had already appeared more than 100 meters away. Even Zane, the supreme grand martial powerhouse, could not keep up with his pace. Unfortunately...he was still too slow.

Just as Yevgen landed, an incredibly indistinct illusory figure slowly solidified about five meters in front of him.

Alexander, with his left hand behind his back and his right hand poised in the air, struck down, saying, "Go back to where you came from!" Bang! Yevgen's robust body, weighing over 190 kilograms, with a physique tougher than gold and iron, was sent flying by Alexander's slap.

He involuntarily somersaulted continuously, spinning at least 30 or 40 times before landing perfectly in the large pit he had previously created with his foot.

The world spun, and stars filled his vision.

With this slap, half of Yevgen's chest collapsed completely. Countless ribs and sternum bones broke. Blood was mixed with fragments of internal organs, and it sprayed out.

If Alexander did not still need to extract information from him, he might have died.

"M-Martial Overlord... He's truly a Martial Overlord..." In the deep pit, Yevgen lay limp on the ground. His ferocious and contorted face finally revealed a hint of fear.

A Martial Overlord.

In the realm of martial arts, only those who reached the level of Martial Overlord could shatter the sound barrier, surpassing even the swiftness of his blood-burning secret technique, and could halt his advance.

This young man, an anomaly in every sense, was indeed a Martial Overlord - one with such a youthful vigor.

"May I inquire, sir, as to who you truly are?" He coughed up a few mouthfuls of congealed blood, and his waxen, unsightly face improved slightly as he slowly raised his head from the large pit. He fixed a stern gaze upon Alexander standing at the pit's edge. "I have no grudges with you, no conflicts. Why would you..." He was interrupted by another involuntary expulsion of congealed this Martial Overlord, and with the Yanker family's strength, they were not even qualified to associate with such a powerhouse "Don't ask why. Just answer my questions."

Alexander towered over the severely wounded and dying Yevgen, calmly speaking, "Who is the leader of the Black Maple Organization, and where is he? Alexander shook his head inwardly but did not dwell on this topic. His gaze remained fixed on Yevgen's face.

"Answer my previous question. Don't doubt my methods. You..." At this point, his voice abruptly ceased.

Chapter 0460 At some point, Yevgen's mouth's bloodstains ceased to be a vibrant red, transforming into a pitch-black expanse. Evidently, he had ingested some potent poison that annihilated all vitality within him.

His body decayed, disintegrating visibly at an alarming rate, leaving behind only a pile of bleached bones.

Even his tattered clothing had been dissolved by the toxic blood.

"W-What..." Around him, a large group of Yanker family disciples, the surviving nine Grandmasters, including Zane, instinctively took a few steps back.

They gazed in shock at the gaping hole in the ground.

forehead, her delicate face filled with weariness. During the last meeting, Alexander explicitly stated that they needed to develop skincare and health products tailored to the skin characteristics of the northern populace.

However, such a massive workload, especially the data collection, was not something that could be completed in a short time.

"Now is the era of big data. In Zabaleta, Duncan Corporation's Daily Chemicals Research Institute has comprehensive data research materials."

Afred presented an investigation report, solemnly handing it to Amber.

"Miss Chesire, to compete with the Xanthos family, we must race against time. I believe now is a critical

"In this way, we strike first and have patent protection; even the Xanthos family wouldn't dare infringe!" After a moment of contemplation, Amber's gaze gradually became resolute.

Alfred was right, buying out the research institute's data was the most effective competitive strategy at the moment.

"Wait until Alexander comes back." Turning towards the floor-to-ceiling window, she spoke with an

What kind of poison was this? When I did Yevgen ingest the poison? Clearly, he had prepared thoroughly before venturing up Yewspire Mountain. Even if captured, he would never reveal any information about the Black Maple organization. Reckless and fearless to death; it was sheer madness.

"This lead is completely severed," Alexander withdrew his gaze, paying no further attention to Yevgen's remains. His brows slowly furrowed as he said, "This poison should be the ancient 'Sinew-melting Blood - dissolving Powder".

extinct in the modern world. The fact that the Black Maple organization possesses such a toxin makes keeping anyone alive for future interrogation quite challenging."

It was not just challenging.

Sinew-melting Blood - dissolving Powder was activated upon contact with blood, and it could be ingested in advance. Once internal energy was triggered, it blended with the blood.

Should its effects take hold, no antidote could neutralize it.

If all high-ranking members of the Black Maple organization were equipped with this poison, even if captured alive, they could choose to end their lives, making investigating the organization nearly impossible.

"M- Mister Kane..." Zane hesitated, choosing this form of address.

He bowed slightly to Alexander, expressing gratitude for saving his life, then spoke in a low voice, "Given the
