

HIS LORDSHIP ALEXANDER KANE BY USELESS CAESAR

Chapter 481

Chapter 0481 If the two supreme grand martial and the six Apex of Grandmaster attacked at the same time, their power would be tremendous and overwhelming! Right after Alexander invited them to attack, the old man's chest and abdomen suddenly swelled up, and his hands suddenly seemed to thicken and double up in size. The green aura in the palm of his left hand and the fiery red energy in his right hand burst out at the same time, intertwining to form a rapidly rotating spiral of energy that shot toward Alexander's chest. Frost and ice fused! The Two Pole technique that he had practiced for years contained the dual power of extreme cold and extreme heat. The surrounding air was severely affected. Ice flowers were visible to the naked eye, and vague updrafts appeared, fully displaying the power of a grandmaster.

At the same time, another supreme grand martial also joined the fun! The supreme grand martial was also around sixty years old. His two fists were like fine iron, with an extremely faint metallic sheen flowing under his dark skin! Boom! He punched into the air, and the air more than ten meters in front of his fist seemed to compress, forming a powerful fist that was invisible to the naked eye. Almost at the moment of the shot, the invisible fist struck right in front of Alexander's chest!

At the same time, the six Apex Grandmasters did not stand idly by.) Each of them used their best-kept skills, advancing through the air or on the ground. Two of them also used their weapons, a sheathless iron sword and a stubby barrel staff, which they aimed to smash violently into Alexander's forehead.

All eight of them struck together! The empty and wide soccer field seemed like the end of the world. The howling wind tore the grass from the ground. The violent onslaught of the two supreme grand martial, like an invincible and amazing force, aimed to completely tear Alexander's body to pieces! "This is the last light you see in the world."

Alexander sighed softly, slowly raised his right palm, then pressed the palm down and shook his head indifferently.

"All of you who have helped the dark side have refused to repent. No matter how powerful you are, you deserve this punishment.

"Let's get this over with!" Soon, all had come to an end.

As Alexander lowered his palm, the chaotic air above the soccer field calmed down. The Two Pole Fist of the old man in red, the invisible fist of the other supreme grand martial, and the violent attack of the six Apex of Grandmasters disappeared like the dirt on the surface of the dining table wiped clean by an invisible cloth.

The eight martial arts experts were pressed into the ground, turning into eight pools of flesh and blood mud.

All this happened in a single move! The Lord of War's power could easily destroy everything, leaving a palm print on the ground with a radius of more than ten meters and a depth of five meters! ""If you all knew this before, why did you even bother trying?" After a single palm attack, Alexander slowly shook his head. Without even looking at the corpses of the eight martial artists, he took out his phone and sent a text message.

[Clean up the scene] The recipient was the Mayor of Blossomtown, Benjamin Rivera! "Sorry, the person you have dialed is currently unavailable..." The battle was over. Four hundred kilometers away in the north, Zayn y y Lay Simmon was sitting in a cafe with a phone in his hand, still frowning and trying to call the old man in red.

""Zayn, stop calling." Facing Zayn was the head of the Waine family, Ryder Waine. He laughed and waved his hand. "Martial arts grandmasters often have a strange temperament. Maybe he turned off his phone a long time ago, so it's normal if you can't get through to him." Ryder made sense! Zayn breathed a sigh of relief and the smile on his face gradually widened.

Chapter 0482 In the elegant and secluded private cafe, Ryder's face immediately turned grim, and the voice on the other end of the phone became completely inaudible.

The two supreme grand martial arts and the six Apex Grandmasters, a total of eight experts, all turned into a pool of flesh mud.

How was that possible? "Damn it! Damn it!" Ryder went crazy, throwing his cell phone to the ground and smashing it to pieces. He then jumped up and down, frantically stepping on the broken cell phone. "Lying to me, damn it, you must be lying to me!"

"Who could have killed the er supreme grand martial artists? It's impossible for the Xanthos family and even more for the New Chesire Group! Alexander, Alexander... It must be impossible for Alexander too!" Swoosh! On the other side of the table, Zayn stood up and looked at Ryder, who had gone completely berserk, his heart slightly tightening. "Ryder, what happened? Why are you..." "Dead. They're all dead!" Ryder could no longer control himself. He seemed to have pulled every bone in his body. He sat down softly on the mat and smiled bitterly at Zayn. "The two supreme grand martial and the six Apex Grandmasters are all dead. They are all dead. No one survived."

"Our plan has failed, and we have lost both Blossomtown and Veridian!"

Zayn's face changed drastically. He collapsed, slowly falling onto his chair. slalh thì Findlevel.let website on Google to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

The luster in his eyes was completely gone.

It was over! Two supreme grand martial and the six Apex of Grandmasters was the strongest lineup that the Simmons, Waine, and the six major families could come up with! No wonder the phone call did not go through just now. It turned out that they were all dead.

Who could have done this? "Alexander is the only one who knows how to fight in the New Chesire Group.

It has to be someone from the Xanthos family."

Ryder reached out and grabbed the corner of the tea table, turning his head in the direction of 01' Mare as if he could see the Xanthos family from where he stood.

Suddenly, he spat out a mouthful of blood. He felt a sharp pain in his heart.

""Zayn, we have been tricked. This must all be part of the Xanthos family's plan!" "We are in the light while the Xanthos family is in the dark. They used the New Chesire Group's advance to the north as an opportunity to sneak up and kill all the experts from our two families and the six major families."

"We've been tricked!" Zayn closed his eyes, the sky spinning before him.

He agreed with Ryder that the Xanthos family tricked them. Alexander alone could not kill the two supreme grand martial and the six Apex of Grandmasters.

On second thought, Alexander was not necessarily involved, and the Xanthos family was the mastermind behind the scenes! However, even if they were right, it did not help the situation. The Simmon and Waine families were severely damaged, and the foundation of the six major families was shaken. These were facts that could not be changed.

What was even more terrifying was that on the same night, all the dark forces in Blossomtown and Veridian were also wiped out. The mayors of the two cities acted at the same time, instantly wiping out all the hideouts.

I After talking to himself, the man I quickly left the industrial park in an unlicensed black car driving north.- I His next destination was Inkstone Mountain Range up in the north!

Chapter 483

Chapter 0483 At around two in the morning, the black car, with no license plates, stopped slowly at the foot of the Inkstone Mountain Range.

Walter opened the door and got out of the car, making sure there was no pursuit from behind, then walked along the rough and windy mountain road halfway up the mountain.

From a distance, he saw the picturesque pavilion standing among the dense forest and immediately dropped to the ground. He knelt and said, "Master, I've successfully completed the task! Whoosh! The trees in the dense forest rustled. A ghostly, illusory figure wearing a dark black veil silently appeared under the pavilion and slowly played the mini harp on the stone platform. He said in a hoarse voice, "Go on. Continue." "Yes, sir!" Walter remained on his knees, speaking respectfully, "I posed as an undercover in the Callie Group and used my position to acquire a large amount of cosmetic raw materials and then sold them to the New Chesire Group at low prices, causing misunderstandings among all parties." "Now, many people see the Xanthos family as a common enemy. If I do not come forward to clarify, all the forces will not be able to find out the truth anytime soon!"

Those naive families in the north had been deceived.

The man nodded quietly and then spoke again in his hoarse and deep voice, "You have done a good job. Now [will give you eternal life.

Walter could not believe what he was hearing.

On the mountain and deep in the forest, Walter knew what eternal life meant, and he was shocked. Forgetting the etiquette, he tilted his head and cried, "Master, why do you want to kill me? I have completed the task and haven't violated the rules of the organization!" "Please spare my life, Master!" The illusory man snapped his fingers and played a killing note on his mini harp, then sneered hoarsely, "Only a corpse can keep a secret forever. Only death can the secret in the north last longer. Do I need to remind you of that?" With that, his fingers rose again and were about to land on the strings of his miniature harp.

"No! n Walter's face turned pale. He knelt on the ground and cried desperately, "Master, you can't do this to me. My uncle is Jaquin, one of the Four Guardians, and is your right-hand man! "Twill always keep the secret and bring it to my grave. I swear!" 'Guardian Jaquin? Was it Yevgen Jaquin? He is dead!"

The illusory man shook his head, and his fingers casually gripped the strings and played an abstract sound that cut directly into Walter's neck. S-ah the lindNovel.let website on Gøøgll to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Chug! Blood gushed, and the headless corpse fell weakly! The man looked at Walter's body, then turned his head to the south and whispered hoarsely, "The King of Ol' Mare, Alexander, is it you? The abandoned son of the Kane family, the invincible Lord of War. Hehe, interesting, interesting..." The northern tycoons were oblivious to what was happening in the Inkstone Mountain Range.

Everyone's attention was on the Xanthos family, except for the Redwine family, who always had their eyes on Alexander! "The other families think that everything that has happened lately is because of the Xanthos family, but I don't think so." Frank Redwine, the head of the Redwine family, was at his mansion.

He held an invitation in his hand and looked at the half-kneeling subordinate in front of him. "Bill, do you think Alexander's strength is enough to kill the two supreme grand martial arts and the six Apex Grandmasters?" Chapter 484

Chapter 0484 Meanwhile, in Deephaven's New Chesire Group branch office. "Mister Kane." The General Manager's office was on the top floor of the office building.

Bill looked at Alexander, who was sitting in the swivel chair and bowed respectfully. "The Redwine family has organized a banquet for tomorrow, and the head of the family invites Mister Kane and Miss Chesire to attend the banquet!" Alexander waved his hand and motioned for Bill to return after delivering the invitation. Then he picked up the invitation card on his desk with a playful expression on his face.

How interesting! It had been less than a month since Frank had personally traveled to Zabaleta and pledged his allegiance to Alexander. In that short time, Frank successfully rose to become the current head of the Redwine family.

'I must say that, except for the three tycoons, it might be difficult to find such talent among the younger generation in the entire northern region. "Mister Kane." Alfred stood respectfully in front of Alexander's desk.

"Frank invites you and Miss Chesire, but Miss Chesire is at the company's headquarters, overseeing the research and development and improvement of new products. Do you think..." ! Alexander waved his hand gently.

Since the New Chesire Group began to move into the north, Amber had been staying in Ol' Mare. The research and development and upgrading of new products was nearing its end. There was no need to interrupt her work schedule for the Redwine family banquet.

"Tomorrow, you will come with me to the Redwines." Alexander got up, left the swivel chair, and walked slowly to the floor-to-ceiling window, looking off to the north with a smile on his face.

"I want to see who else Frank, the new head of the family, has invited!"

The news of Frank's succession as head of the Redwine family continued to spread. The celebration banquet was solemnly held, and the invitations were widely distributed, which shocked almost the entire young generation in the north.

The reason was obvious! Over the past ten years, the big families in the north had been developing steadily, and the position of the head of the family had rarely changed.

As an upper second-tier family, the Redwine family's internal power struggle was extremely fierce. No one thought that the little-known Frank would be the ultimate victor.

There was no doubt that the banquet was not only a celebration but also a good opportunity for the younger I generation of the entire north to I socialize. Almost all of the wealthy children had been secretly preparing to I shine at this banquet.

Especially the two young masters from the Waine and Simmons families! The Waine and Simmons families had suffered heavy losses after losing Veridian and Blossomtown. Even many powers believed that they had retreated from the ranks of the top second-tier tycoons and were ineligible to attend the banquet.

They would show up just to prove that they could not be easily beaten! The next day came. Frank had reserved the entire Grand Tour Five-star Hotel for his banquet. No one, except for his guests, was allowed to enter the hotel.

Chapter 485

Chapter 0485 There was an endless stream of wealthy guests at the entrance of the five-star Grand Tour Hotel.

The ushers politely checked the guests' invitations with broad smiles on their faces, and then respectfully let them into the hotel. The reception was orderly. "Hey, gentlemen." Xerxes and Troy had just walked up to the door when a beautiful young usher immediately bowed and said with a smile, "Please show..." Before the usher could finish speaking, Xerxes ignored her and continued into the hall with Troy.

"Hey, sir!"

The usher's face changed and she hurried to stand in front of them, still smiling. "This is a rule set by the head of the family himself. No matter who the guest is, you must..." Slap! This time, Xerxes did not move forward. Instead, he raised his hand and swung it abruptly, landing firmly on the usher's face and pushing her back three steps in a row, leaving a clear five-finger print on her face! "Are you blind?" Troy stood next to Xerxes and sneered at the usher. "Troy Waine, Xerxes Simmons, we came together from two great families! You go and ask Frank if he dares ask us for an invitation?" The usher held her swollen cheeks as tears welled in her eyes.

It was her duty to check the invitation letter, and there can be no exceptions. However, the identities of the two young masters in front of her were astonishing. Although she dared not offend them, she remained standing firmly in front of them.

"Are you deaf? I asked you to go find Frank!" Seeing that the usher did not move, Troy's face turned sour. He raised his hand and slapped the usher hard across the face again. "Bitch, you deserve this!" The second slap knocked the usher to the ground, and the slap marks on her face turned bloodshot!

"The Waine family and the Simmons family..." Not far away, the other guests who were showing their invitation cards unconsciously turned their heads to look at this scene. They all guessed that Xerxes and Troy were flexing their power.

Both of them did not need to find fault with an usher. The intimidating threat they issued was a trick often used by wealthy people! As the saying goes, they should consider the consequences of their actions. Not only did they slap the usher, but they clearly slapped Frank in the face! "I'm sorry..." The usher struggled to get to her feet, fighting back the tears that well up in her eyes. Although her voice was groggy, she sounded more determined than before, "The head of the family has ordered that all guests be treated equally. Please show me your invitation!" At this point, Xerxes' and Troy's faces changed completely. Troy stared into the usher's eyes and sneered. "Okay, very well. Very well!" "You want to check the invitation card, right? I'll let you check as much as you want!" Having said that, Troy looked fierce as he clenched his right hand into a fist and slammed it into the usher's chest with lightning speed.

It was him! The legendary man was known as the uncrowned King of Ol Mare, the most distinguished guest at the Redwine family banquet, Alexander!

Chapter 486

Chapter 0486 The moment she saw the name, she felt relieved.

Mister Kane! The entire Redwine family knew fully well who Alexander was! Before the banquet, Frank had personally told the staff to treat all the other guests equally, except for one person, Mister Kane from the Ol' Mare New Chesire Group! The Redwine family explained to the world that Frank specially organized the banquet to celebrate his succession to the head of the family. It was meant to be nice to the New Chesire Group and the entire Redwine family to swear allegiance to Alexander!

Compared to the shock on the usher's face, the other guests at the hotel entrance were in an uproar.

Something big had happened! Who was the young man who dared to beat Troy? Although the Simmons and Waine families had lost Veridian and Blossomtown, they were still the best of the second-tier families in the north, and they were still above the Redwine family! Many people thought that the Redwine family would not be able to invite anyone famous. At most, they might be able to get some middle to lower- second-tier families, but none of the first-tier families and the three northern tycoons were there! "Bastard!" Under everyone's puzzled or shocked gaze, Troy finally struggled to get up from the ground, spat out a mouthful of blood, and then glared at Alexander angrily.

Who would dare to touch his hair apart from the three tycoons in the northern region? Even the top ten young masters from the first-tier families would have shown him face and never openly confronted him! "How dare you hit me?"

The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. He raised his finger to Alexander's nose and spoke through clenched teeth, "Do you know how to spell the word death? I swear to God that I will have to cut the flesh from your body piece by piece so that body upside down. He was sent flying for more than ten meters before falling under the stairs at the entrance of the hotel. The bones all over his body snapped! Whoa! All the guests at the entrance of the hotel were stunned! Countless eyes were focused on Alexander's right hand, watching him slowly pull back his palm and his calm expression.

It was a stunning moment! The Redwine family did not have a very high status in the north. Almost all of the guests were minor figures; some were from small third-tier families in the north, and some were the sons and daughters of second-tier families.

There were very few core members of the family.

Their relatively low status made it difficult for them to challenge the power of the major family. They were usually pampered and did not pay much attention to news from the outside world. Of course, no one knew Alexander.

Even if they had heard Alexander, they would be suspicious if Frank could invite the great person! "This boy is probably the younger generation of a small third-tier family, I haven't seen him before." "I can't believe he'd slap Troy to defend an usher. Is he tired of living!" "He had insulted the Waine family, and even the adults in his family would not dare to come forward! The Waine family will smash him to pieces..." A large group of onlookers whispered, some gloating, some secretly shaking their heads, and others still looking at Xerxes.

Chapter 487

Chapter 0487 Which family was he from? At the entrance of the entire hotel lobby, everyone stared at Alexander intently, wanting to hear the answer. But...

"Family? Do I need one?" Alexander looked at Xerxes, then held out his hand, pointed to the receptionist, and said softly, "I'd almost forgotten that you were the one who first slapped that girl in the face, weren't you?" "I am curious. Did you ever think about her identity before you did that?" Identity? Xerxes was slightly startled, and his eyebrows immediately furrowed. It was strange indeed! He sensed that something was wrong.

Why would an usher who knew his and Troy's identities still dare to stop him? No ordinary usher would do that. Could it be that she really had another identity? "Let me tell you." Alexander nodded to the usher, then looked directly into Xerxes' eyes and said in a deep voice, "She is one of the millions of workers in Wyverna, and she is the people of this land!" She sticks to her work, is loyal to her duties, is not afraid of power, and is respectable!" "And you..."

Slap! Having said that, Alexander slapped A Xerxes, knocking him to the ground with a cruel and swift slap, and then he shouted in a low voice, "And you have bullied and abused your power, so this slap is a lesson for you!" Boom! The slap and the righteous speech stunned Xerxes! Not only Xerxes but all the guests at the entrance of the hotel could not help but gasp. Things were getting out of hand! The young man in front of them, who was not afraid of death, had beaten not only Troy but also Xerxes just to avenge the usher. All because she was a hard worker who did her job well? Was that an honorable act or an act of suicide? He probably did not realize how much trouble he was in. He had beaten the sons of the Simmons and Waine families, which meant insulting the two giants at the same time. If he did not have the support of the three tycoons, he would undoubtedly die! "How dare you hit me? How dare you..." Xerxes' face was distorted. He looked at the horrified expressions on the faces of the guests, and then he looked at Alexander, who was indifferent, his teeth clenched. "No matter who you are, I will make you pay the price! You..." Alexander did not give him the chance to continue. Alexander took a step forward and nonchalantly swung his right foot, knocking Xerxes into the air. Xerxes landed next to Troy, who also fell to the ground, weeping! "Both of you are like cockroaches. Staying here will only make people sick." Chapter 488

Chapter 0488 Alexander had entered the five-star Grand Tour Hotel. Behind him, Afred entered the lobby with the usher, who seemed to be in dreamland.

There were only a few onlookers left at the entrance of the hotel, and they were still secretly looking at Xerxes and Troy, who had fallen to the ground. "Damn it! Damn it!" At the bottom of the stairs, Xerxes and Troy helped each other to their feet and looked around the hotel lobby.

Their eyes were red with anger. "Who is he? Who the hell is he?" "How dare he beat me up and make me look like a fool in front of so many people... whoever he is, I want him dead!"

Troy was equally angry; the blood at the corners of his mouth had not dried up, and he was hurting all over. The muscles at the corners of his eyes twitched violently as he shouted, "Xerxes, call someone!" "Executors, elite bodyguards... I want this bastard to pay with his blood, and I want him to kneel on the ground and kowtow to me until he dies!" At almost the same time, the two of them took out their phones and began to contact their families' martial arts masters.

They wanted revenge. That was how the Simmons and Waine families operated!

"Xerxes and Troy have called for someone!" "That guy is surely doomed!"

"Look, he's still so chill, as if nothing has happened. Doesn't he know that he's in trouble? I'm not sure if he'll survive tonight after insulting the young masters of the Waine and the Simmons families..." Since Alexander entered the hotel lobby, many guests had their attention fixed on him. Some were guessing his background, and some were talking to each other, waiting to see what might happen that night.

"Look!" Suddenly, one of the guests was surprised to see an old man clad in a robe from a distance and whispered to his companion, "Isn't he the old housekeeper of the Redwine family? He went looking for that guy who acted rashly!" "How dare the Redwine family get involved with that guy? Don't they want to live anymore?" Of course, it was exactly the other way around! The old housekeeper of the Redwine family ignored everyone in the hall and approached Alexander, deliberately lowering his voice as he spoke with a very respectful expression, "The Redwine family is honored to have Mister Kane here. Would you come with me? The head of the family had respectfully invited Mister Kane for a private conversation."

Alexander smiled and nodded.

The hall was full of young children of the wealthy northern tycoons. Their conversations did not pique Alexander's interest at all. As the Lord of War, how could he possibly be interested in making friends with these people? Frank invited Alexander to the banquet. Of course, there were other more important things on the agenda.

Otherwise, Alexander would never have attended such a boring banquet!

"Mister Kane!" Alexander followed the old housekeeper to the VIP guest reception room. When he entered the door, he saw that Frank was already waiting inside. Frank immediately rose respectfully from the sofa. "It is an honor and pleasure for the Redwine family to have you here, Mister Kane. Please take a seat!" After the old housekeeper closed the door and left, Frank welcomed Alexander to the main seat.

"So, tell me about it." Alexander wasted no time beating around the bush.

"You must be exceptional to be the head of the Redwine family. Why did you invite me to this banquet?" Frank did not beat around the bush. He quickly picked up a folder from the coffee table and held it in front of Alexander with both hands. His face showed utmost respect. "I, the current head of the Redwine family, represent the Redwine family. We are willing to swear allegiance to Mister Kane for the rest of my life!" "Oh? Is that an oath of loyalty?" Alexander seemed to smile but did not answer immediately. He reached for the folder, took out the documents, and looked at them. His eyes lit up slightly.

The content of the document was the distribution of power and the assets of the major families in the northern region, as well as all industries and stocks under the Redwine family, which came to a total of about 1.5 billion dollars.

That was all Frank could afford! "I know that the New Chesire Group is about to move up north. Mister Kane has passed through five customs in a row, and your journey to the north is about to begin."

Frank saw the faint smile on Alexander's face and breathed a sigh of relief. He quickly added, "Please don't blame me for speculating what's on your mind, Mister Kane. I think this information might save Mister Kane some trouble." "In addition, although the Redwine family has no business in many industries, I hope Mister Kane will accept us. I hope I can serve on your team and I will do my best for Mister Kane!" Alexander put down the document, the smile on his face widening.

Those who knew the situation were the best to work with! Almost all of the wealthy northern tycoons speculated that the Xanthos Family was behind the fiasco of the six major families. They assumed that the downfall of the Waine and the Simmons families was a result of the Xanthos family plot.

Frank was different. He knew that it was all Alexander's doing that the six major families, the Waine and the Simmons families were going downhill.

It meant that Alexander had already agreed to Frank's proposal for the Redwine family to join his force. "Thank you, Mister Kane!" Frank was excited. He was half kneeling on the floor in front of Alexander, and his voice began to shake involuntarily. "I, Frank, swear that I will do my best for Mister Kane. Chapter 489

Chapter 0489 When the noise died down, about to 80 men, led by two martial art grandmasters, burst through the revolving glass door of the hotel and entered the lobby! They all looked ferocious. Close behind them were Troy and Xerxes, who had been taught a lesson by Alexander earlier in the day! Get out of here unless you want to die! Troy had just been badly wounded, and there was still blood at the corner of his mouth. He stared at the guests in the hall with bloodshot eyes. "I will int to three. Whoever dares to stay here will be killed without mercy

There was an uproar in the lobby.

The guests were marginal I representatives of the second and third-tier families in the northern region. They had not seen much before and were terrified. Some of them were so frightened that they ran out of the lobby without turning their heads to take a second look. Others were so frightened that their legs and feet gave way, and they had to rely on their companions to help them stand.

Some guests were close to the Waine and Simmons families. They approached Troy with trepidation and said, "Mister Waine, please calm down. We are friends! It's not worth it for such a trivial matter." Slap! Troy was furious. He slapped the young man's face hard and hissed through clenched teeth, "If you dare to speak again, I will kill you! Tell me, where is the guy who hit me? You will die if you don't tell me where he is!" The young master from a third-tier family was so scared that he did not even dare to raise his hands to cover his swollen cheeks. He held out his hand and pointed to the VIP reception room not far away. ""He should be over there. I just saw the old Redwine housekeeper take him there..." Troy narrowed his eyes and raised his hand, waving it vigorously in the direction of the VIP reception room.

"The bastard's in there, go get him!" The two grandmasters led the way, followed by the 70 to 80 men waving weapons as they rushed frantically into the VIP reception room.

Meanwhile, in the VIP reception room, Frank was halfway through his oath of allegiance when he was suddenly interrupted by Troy's loud voice.

"That voice probably belongs to the third young master of the Waine family, Troy." His gaze turned cold, annoyed by the commotion. He hastily reassured Alexander, "Please wait a moment, Mister Kane. I will send them away immediately." With that, he immediately turned and walked to the door of the room.

Suddenly, boom! A mighty force shattered the ve intricately carved solid wood door. The two grandmasters of the Waine and Simmons families rushed into the room, followed by their group of 70 to 80 followers, filling the huge VIP reception room! With such a group of underlings clearing the way for them, Troy and Xerxes kicked the broken wooden door aside and stared at Frank. Then he spotted Alexander sitting on the sofa. The bastard who had hit them was actually in the room! "Troy, Xerxes!" Frank's face became morose, and his voice sounded cold as he said, "You two are causing trouble at my banquet.

You're way too arrogant! Do you really think that the Waine and Simmons Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

families can do whatever they want because their families are powerful?"

Frank sounded confident as he spoke, showing a blatantly rebellious and domineering aura. He was very different from before! Before, he was just Troy and Xerxes's little helper. He did not dare to speak up against them. However, he had become the head of the Redwine family, representing the dignity of the entire Redwine family. More importantly, he had already sworn allegiance to Alexander, and behind him stood the legendary man, the invincible King of Ol' Mare! "Frank, how dare you speak to us in that tone?"

Chapter 490

Chapter 0490 Troy and Xerxes were extremely arrogant because of their confidence! The people they summoned were all elite members of the Waine and Simmons families, especially the two grandmasters. Such a line-up was more than enough to deal with the Redwine family, which was a second-tier family! "The Redwine family will be buried..." Frank chewed on the meaning of this sentence and then looked back at Alexander with a calm expression. He was still a little uncomfortable but immediately became extremely determined.

Why should he be afraid of the Waine and Simmons family with Mister Kane's support? The eight powerful martial artists dead in Veridian and Blossomtown were a good example to quote! "For the sake of our former friendship, I don't want to go too far." Frank stared into the eyes of Troy and Xerxes. His demeanor never wavered.

"Let's work together to resolve today's conflicts." "Otherwise, the Redwine family will not hesitate to fight to the death. Even if our family is destroyed, we will gnaw a bloody bone from you!" Troy and Xerxes looked at each other, then sneered. "You want a solution, right? Okay!" As he said that, he reached out his hand again and pointed at Alexander on the sofa, his smile becoming increasingly maniacal. "Make this guy kneel in front of me and Xerxes and kowtow a hundred times, and then kneel and crawl out of the hotel while telling everyone out there that he's an idiot who doesn't know any better!" Frank's heart suddenly sank, and his expression went completely cold.

"Troy and Xerxes, those two idiots want to humiliate Mister Kane like that? Oh... yes, they probably don't They're just looking for death themselves!" = "What do you think?" While Frank pondered, the arrogant expressions on Troy and Xerxes' faces were already unmistakable. "Frank, don't you want a solution? We told you our solution, but it depends on whether you can do it!" "If it cannot be done, then don't blame us for being cruel. The banquet celebrating you becoming the head of the family might turn into a funeral for your entire Redwine family!" That was crazy! They needed a harsher lesson.

On the sofa not far away, Alexander, who had been quietly drinking tea, finally put down the teacup in his hand and slowly stood up from the sofa. "Are you done with your Pp nonsense?" Completely ignoring the two grandmasters and the underlings, Alexander looked at Troy and Xerxes and said quietly, "That's it, let's go with your decision. Kowtow a hundred times and then crawl out of this hotel.

When you leave, make sure you chant loud enough so that everyone knows you are self-humiliating idiots!" Troy and Xerxes smiled; instead of being angry, they mocked Frank.

"Frank, did you see that? We are trying to help you, but this guy is killing himself!" Troy's eyes were murderous as he shouted angrily, "Enough time has Wy ""VOBUNUS been wasted; now smash his every limb! Push him to the ground and make him kowtow to me and Zayn for a hundred times!" Whoosh, whoosh! At Troy's command, the two grandmasters went left and right, one leaning in like a hawk pouncing on a rabbit. He aimed a fierce kick at Alexander's chest.
