Chapter 521

Chapter 0521 Larry's only idol in his life was the Lord of the Temple of War? Alexander looked at Larry, who was struggling in front of Maxine. He could not help but chuckle silently.

Although pretending to be tough had its merits, at least he knew how to uphold the dignity of the Lord of the Temple of War... Oh well! "During the war years, your family suffered greatly, with few surviving relatives." He stopped dwelling on it, quietly watching Maxine before softly saying, "Since he's your cousin, let's just let this matter pass. He's already received quite a few slaps just now, which should be sufficient." With that said, his gaze lightly swept over the four supervisory officers kneeling nearby. Then, his lips parted, and his voice echoed clearly in Maxine's ears. "Tell him who I am." Maxine suddenly trembled.

His Lordship had intentionally turned a blind eye in order to uphold her familial bonds, sparing Larry's life! This was a great favor!! "Larry! n With a grateful expression on her face, she bowed to Alexander, then grabbed Larry's ear, her voice so low that only Larry could hear it. "Listen well, the gentleman standing in front of you is Your Lordship, your idol, the invincible

Lord of War!" "His Lordship's current identity is the husband of Amber Chesire, the general manager of the New Chesire Group. He is the son-in-law of the Chesire family and the head of the security department of the group, understand?! "Now, never reveal it; otherwise, even if His Lordship shows mercy, I will personally kill you." Boom!!! Maxine's voice rolled like thunder, and it exploded in Larry's ears. It turned his world upside down, freezing him completely.

The young man in front of him was actually the legendary supreme existence, the Lord of the Temple of War, who sat on equal footing with the ruler of the Wyverna?! He had just offended the Lord of War and had to have someone handcuff the Lord of War and keep him locked up...

'Damn the six household heads! How dare you make me shut down the Lord of War's factory and steal the production formula of Northern Beauty. Don't you know how to spell the word death? 'T wish I could skin you alive!" "Mister Kane!" After the initial shock, Larry finally regained his senses. He bowed frantically to Alexander, blood streaming from his forehead, crying out, "I have been blind and disrespectful, offending you in the process. The six major families had asked for it, that's why..." At this point, he shuddered, suddenly looked up at Alexander, and, with a fierce expression, bit his finger, drawing blood. "Mister Kane, I swear to you with my blood, I will never coexist with the six major families!" ""Please, Mister Kane. [want to personally destroy the six major families. They dared to disrespect you and must pay with their blood!" Was this an attempt to atone for his sins? Alexander smiled and nodded gently.

"Granted. Just as well, Maxine is here.

Let's pay a visit to the six major families!"

The events at the branch factory were unknown to the six major families.

Just as darkness was beginning to fall, Neo, the head of the Laurel family, sat in the backyard of his mansion. He watched the sky fall from the pavilion, and the smile on his face grew wider.

It was almost time.

Larry should have shut down the factory by now. The formula for the Northern Beauty skincare products would soon be in their hands! Rumble...

Under the dark night sky, the sound of a powerful engine gradually approached. The Blizzard Crimson Dragon aircraft's lights flickered as it descended vertically over the Laurel family mansion.

"Hmm?!" Neo's pupils suddenly contracted. He dashed out of the pavilion, shouting loudly, "We have intruders! All members of the Laurel family, be on high alert! Swish, swish, swish! Within the mansion, the Laurel family members swiftly responded to the alarm. More than 70 male members of the family, along with 5 Grandmasters and over 50 vital energy bodyguards, quickly gathered around Neo. They looked up at the descending aircraft, their fighting spirit surging.

"Mister Laurel..." The aircraft was ten meters above the ground when Larry's voice echoed slowly from the recorded loudspeaker.

"Such a grand reception for me? I'm flattered!"

Chapter 0522 Larry? When Neo heard the voice, he first froze, and then his face lit up with joy.

Mission accomplished! The factory must have been shut down.

Larry was there to deliver the Northern Beauty formula! "Larry!" Neo, brimming with confidence, pushed aside the nearby family disciples and looked up at the descending aircraft, laughing heartily.

"Oh, who do we have here? Is this your private plane? So impressive!" As he spoke, he waved his hand and motioned for several Locksong family disciples, who immediately ran out.

In no time, the aircraft finally landed! "Mister Laurel." The cabin opened, and Larry, accompanied by four enforcement officers, stepped out of the door. He glanced at Neo, who was beaming with joy, his face turning icy cold.

"You and five other family heads sent me to shut down the New Chesire Group's factory, using me as a tool! How do you intend to settle this? There must be an explanation. My family is not a pushover. Not just anyone can manipulate us at will!" Huh?! Neo's expression froze, looking at Larry with suspicion. After a moment of hesitation, he forced out another smile. "Larry, is this some kind of joke? Isn't shutting down the New Chesire Group's factory your task?" As he spoke, several Locksong family disciples who had just run out returned carrying wooden boxes.

Neo's eyes lit up as he took the boxes from them. He grinned at Larry and said, "Larry, we had a deal. The formula of Northern Beauty belongs to me, and all these gold bars belong to you!" Snap! The boxes opened! There were a total of four boxes, each filled with gleaming gold bars produced by the Wyverna Silver Union, guaranteed in quality and quantity, with a total value of no less than 750,000! "Damn you!" Larry could bear it no longer and roared, "Neo, do you really think I'm a fool? Do you think a few bars of gold can buy me? Dream on!" "I'll tell you the truth: the Locksong family is bound to be ruined today. The Locksong, Rathbone, Saunders, Weiss, Kramer, and Laurel families, none of the six major families can escape!" Swish! Neo's face turned ashen in an instant! "Larry, have you gone mad?" His pupils contracted, staring fiercely at Larry, and he snorted. "The governor personally appointed you to oversee the duty. Of course, you have some influence behind you, but you underestimate our six major families!" "If the six families join forces, even the three major powers will have to be cautious, let alone you, a mere market supervisor? If it weren't for..." He could not finish his sentence! The cold voice of a young man came slowly from the rear cockpit, echoing over the Locksong family's courtyard.

"If it weren't for your excessive greed, perhaps there would still be a chance for redemption." "Now, the opportunity has been buried by your own hands. The fate of the six major families is already sealed. After today, they will be completely eradicated from the north!" Voice and figure appeared simultaneously! At the door of the cockpit, Alexander stood with his head bowed, followed closely by Maxine. In the rear were 12 members of the direct guard of the Lood, all armed to Temple Lord, all armed to the teeth with the most advanced individual combat equipment in Wyverna! "Are you... are you people from the mayor's office, or are you the governor's personal guards?!" Neo's body suddenly shook, looking incredulously at Larry. His face was cold, but now it had a flattering smile again. "Larry... no, Mister Larry, there must be some mistake. We are friends, aren't we?" Read the latest chapter there!

"Is it because you think the gold bars are too little? I'll have someone prepare more of them immediately! As long as you're satisfied, not to mention four boxes of gold bars, even if it's ten boxes, forty boxes, our Locksong family..." How foolish! Larry spat, then turned around and bowed deeply to Alexander. He then straightened his chest, exuding an overwhelming aura.

Neo Laurel, use your eyes and take a good look at who this is?!" The content is on Chapter 0523 Who was he? po Neo was momentarily taken aback, his neck slowly turning as his gaze shifted away from Larry and settled gradually on Alexander. Just moments ago, his attention had been primarily focused on the heavily armed guards and Maxine's armored figure. He paid little heed to Alexander. With a lithe figure, a straight nose, sharply defined eyebrows, and eyes that gleamed faintly...

"It's you, Alexander Kane!" At that moment, Neo was shaken to the core, his eyes widening abruptly.

'What on earth is going on?! Wasn't Larry supposed to deal with Alexander? How come he had brought Alexander to the Laurel residence instead? And who's the woman beside Alexander, clad in that unmistakably extraordinary crimson battle armor? 'And what about this fighter jet, adorned with patterns of snowstorms and crimson dragons...' The Temple of War! During the victorious battle of Wyverna, when the northern nations submitted their surrender, this fighter jet streaked across the sky on television screens. According to the news anchors, it seemed to be the Lord of the Temple of War's personal transport.

How did this fighter jet end up here? Who wielded such power to ride in this aircraft? Alexander Kane, the woman in battle armor, Larry... What was their connection to the Temple of War? The Laurel family had never offended the Lord of the Temple of War! "You don't need to know who we are." Maxine stared coldly at Neo, disdainful of the Grandmasters and vital energy bodyguards behind him. "Neo, the New Chesire Group is under the governor's protection!" "The Laurel family's malicious competition, disrupting the market economy, will be investigated and confiscated according to the law. Will you comply?!"

Investigation, confiscation! Neo staggered, retreating step by step, his face drained of color. px He clenched his fists tightly, staring fixedly into Alexander's eyes, his teeth grinding audibly.

He understood! Aside from the Temple of War throughout the north, the highest authority was the provincial governor, Theo Grossman! Who could provoke the wrath of the provincial governor, risking the ire of the Temple of War's higher-ups, to strike against the six major families? Only the three major clans! Ever since the New Chesire Group ventured northward, rumors had abounded, suggesting that the Chesire family and the Xanthos family were colluding in secret, intending to dominate the entire northern region.

Besides Ywain, who else would dare to confront the six major families? That damned Ywain, he was the true mastermind behind the scenes! "Execute the decree." At the doorway of the cabin, Alexander did not bother to glance at Neo. His voice seemed to come from beyond the heavens, devoid of any emotion. "Seize all of their businesses, estate treasures, fixed assets, liquid capital and market value shares" "Publicly announce the crimes of the Locksong family as a warning to others."

Swish, swish, swish! Maxine's longsword was unsheathed, its aura pressing down on the scene.

Twelve members of the direct guard unit raised their firearms intimidatingly. They shrouded the estate in a veil of martial power! This was the unparalleled dominance of the Temple of War. Who would dare to resist? "The Locksong family surrenders!" Neo's body trembled as if on the brink of collapse. He uttered these words with quivering lips, and then everything went dark before his eyes as he lost consciousness.

In his mind, the last thought echoed, just two words repeated endlessly.

"It's over".

This night was destined to be restless.

Chapter 0524 "Tacker!" Bi The madness in Ywain's eyes faded as he picked up the phone from the bedside table and dialed his son Tacker's number. "Return to the manor immediately. This is a matter of life and death! There's no time to lose!" Tacker, who was lying in the lounge next to the CEO's office at the time, sat up abruptly from his bed in the Xanthos Industrial Park.

Something huge had happened! Callie, his sister, had been recovering at home after being attacked by the Jess family.

Xanthos Industrial Park lacked a leader at the time. As a result, Tacker temporarily took over as CEO while Ywain remained at Xanthos Manor.

Ywain, the head of the Xanthos family, was a talented man. He was educated and proficient in martial arts. He had ~ attained the rank of supreme grand martial with dominant strength, and his mental state was as calm as still water, allowing him to maintain a straight face when confronted with an unpredictable situation! Tacker was taken aback when he heard his father mention a life-and- death situation. He wondered what had made his father so nervous.

"Six major first-tier families were wiped out in one night!" In a bedroom at Xanthos Manor, Ywain gripped his phone tightly, his forehead muscles twitching. "The news we have received so far is that the Governor has taken action and invited Maxine Griffith of the Temple of War to take inventory and confiscate the possessions of all six major families.

"Alexander was involved in the whole process! "Regardless of what happened, the most important thing is that the six major families held 60 percent of Xanthos Industrial Park shares, which now belong to Alexander!" Tacker's heart trembled, and his body stiffened! The Xanthos family worked hard for many years, eventually becoming successful in most industries. Their focus, however, was the Xanthos 1/8

Industrial Park, which provided the majority of the Xanthos family's wealth.

It was frightening to learn that Alexander wielded the most power in the Callie Group after all that! "Tacker." Ywain held his phone, his eyes blazing, and his voice as cold as an ice cellar as he said, "When you return to the mansion, keep the door closed and don't see any visitors for the time being. I'm going somewhere and will be gone for a day at most." "Father!" Tacker's body tensed, and he asked, "Where are you going? Shall I come with you?"

The conversation ended abruptly! Ywain hung up before giving Tacker a chance to respond!

"Where's he going?" Standing at the entrance to a bedroom at Xanthos Manor, Ywain looked north, his eyes narrowing into a thin slit and his mouth slowly exhaling a long breath.

Master! I Only the Black Maple Organization's leader, the Black Maple Master, could help the Xanthos family reclaim their lost shares from Alexander.

As for Alexander, regardless of whether he was Caleb Kane's son or Callie's lover, if he took something he should not have, he must die!

That same night, near Devil Rock Mountain, in the far north of the northern region.

The wind was howling! Erick Jess held a large machete as he stood above the rocks outside the entrance to the mine where the Jess family was hiding, quietly gazing at the dense forest in the darkness ahead of him. He suddenly cupped his fist and said, "One of the Eight Great Angels of the Black Maple Organization, Angel Erick, pays homage to Master!" Hundreds of meters away, the dense forest's branches and leaves rustled and shook. A black-clad masked man stepped on delicate leaves and drifted in, slowly landing in front of Erick and laughing raspily and deeply.

"Angel Erick-that's a good

The Black Maple Master was trustworthy, as he commanded the six major first-tier

"The Jess family has been hiding here for long enough. I'm sure your friends miss you. Would you like to meet them?" "Everyone, come out!"

Chapter 0525 The grasses in the distant dense forest rustled at the command of the masked man, and six figures dressed in black robes emerged side by side from "beneath the pitch-black night.

"You! You" Erick was shocked.

Those people were the heads of the six major families! Head of the Laurel Family -Neo Laurel. Head of the Rathbone Family- Timothy Rathbone. Head of the Simoes Family- Jim Simoes. Head of the Weiss Family- Carter Weiss. Head of the Kramer Family- Lincoln Kramer. Head of the Langley Family-Brock Langley!

"Master!" The six men bowed to the masked man in unison before turning to look at Erick in surprise. "Erick, I didn't expect you to join the Black Maple Organization as well." The man's tone shifted, sounding murderous. "It was all because of that old brute, Ywain. To reclaim the shares of Xanthos Industrial Park, he persuaded the governor, Theo Grossman, to seize all our assets! "On the surface, Alexander acquired all 60 percent of the shares. I am afraid it has already been given to the Xanthos family. They must be working together!" Had the assets of the six families been confiscated?

Erick was shocked, his face filled with disbelief.

The scouts he had sent out had brought him the most recent news that afternoon and had not reported anything from the evening, so he had "no idea until then. He was stunned but regained his composure.

What an enormous defeat! The Black Maple Master's earlier plan had failed, and the heads of the six great families had joined forces their goal was clear. They intended to destroy the Xanthos family and Alexander in one fell swoop! "Erick, your family has been hiding in the mines, so there shouldn't be any loss of power." Neo narrowed his blood-red eyes at Erick. "Even though my family's assets have been confiscated, we are still powerful. We have three apex grandmasters and a supreme grand martial artist of overwhelming strength. They are our trump cards! "If all seven families play their trump cards and launch a sneak attack in the middle of the night, Alexander and the Xanthos family will surely die!" Erick looked at the masked man next to him, who did not react in any way, implying that those seven family heads should consult among themselves.

"Even though the number of direct descendants of the Jess family is quite large, very few practice martial arts." Erick pondered for a moment, his eyes full of malice. "I believe all the executors we hired previously would be willing to help. This would give us four apex grandmasters. I am a half-step supreme grand martial artist. But that's all we have in the Jess family!" "The Rathbone family can contribute three apex grandmasters and an early-stage heavyweight grand martial!" "The Simoes family doesn't have a supreme grand martial artist, but we have six apex grandmasters!" "The Weiss Family has always had a good relationship with the North Sahra Iron Gang. I can ask their sect masters and elders for assistance. We will have one supreme grand martial and four apex grandmasters!" "The Kramer family doesn't need an executor because my son and I have already attained the supreme grand martial realm. The two of us are two supreme grand martial artists!" "Everyone in the north knows that the Langley Family uses precision machines and has secretly created a new batch of thermal weapons that can seriously injure even a supreme grand martial artist!" The red-faced seven family heads spoke, one after the other, revealing their trump cards. They were in unison! "You are all worthy of being a first-class family. You have great advantages." Next to him, the masked man stroked his mini-harp, emitting resounding zither tones. Then, he laughed incessantly. "When I first took all of you under my wing, I had no idea about your strength. I didn't expect you to produce so many martial arts experts.

This is a surprise." He smiled as he looked at the seven family heads. "Tell me about your plans. Who is the first target of this sneak attack?" "Ywain, of course!" The most violent of the seven family heads was Timothy. He let out a roar.

"Ywain conspired with Alexander and tricked us all! "We will launch a sneak attack and go straight for the Xanthos family, uproot them, then go to Deephaven and exterminate Alexander and Amber!

"Don't be too surprised. I certainly won't stop you from taking revenge, but because...

"ywain, come out here!"

Chapter 0526 Ywain? The seven family heads were startled and unconsciously turned to look.

Ywain's figure zoomed into view like the wind! A middle-aged man dressed in a black robe, nearly identical to the clothing of the seven men, jumped from over 50 meters away and landed lightly beside the masked man.

It was Ywain! "Ywain!" Timothy froze for less than a second before erupting in a furious roar. "How dare you show up here? All of us want you dead.

"Hey guys, let's strike together and finish this bastard off right here!" Without hesitation, the rest of the family heads jumped forward and faced Ywain in various directions, surrounding him. Some of them carried machetes. Their inner strength surged through their bodies, generating incredible power.

"Wait! We've all been tricked!" Ywain shook his head, raised his hand, and swung it, ripping the black robe on his body to shreds before saying, "Look at this!" Everyone took a sharp breath! Despite the darkness of the night, all the martial arts experts had exceptional vision, allowing them to see the Black Maple Organization's exclusive blood-red mark on Ywain's back.

"I, like the seven of you, have been under Master's wing for a long time. If it weren't for that reason, would I've let you have the Callie Group shares so easily?" With his back exposed, Ywain slowly swept his gaze over the seven men and said quietly, "The operation to seize your assets has nothing to do with the Xanthos family. We have nothing to do with Alexander! "His true identity is not the Chesire family's son-in-law, but the Kane family's outcast son, a bastard born to Caleb and Chrissy! He was cast out of the family 15 years ago." What?

All seven men were stunned; they could not believe what they had heard.

They looked pale as if they had seen a ghost.

About 15 years ago, the Kane family was the dominant force in the northern region. Cedric, the family's elder, had attained the strength of an apex supreme grand martial, just one step away from becoming a martial overlord. The northern region's market was dominated by one family.

At the time, many forces in the north were fighting for power, and dozens of families banded together to attack the Kane family. Cedric eventually died of exhaustion, and Caleb, the current family head, took over. Alexander was just nine years old at the time! Chrissy, Alexander's mother, was a gentle and beautiful woman. She was also a supreme grand martial artist with overwhelming strength, collaborating with Cedric to repel numerous attacks. She sustained severe injuries and died less than three months after the great battle.

Following Chrissy's death, Caleb worked hard to establish political and diplomatic relations. He banished nine-year-old Alexander from the family and married a woman from one of the three tycoons, the Fosters. The union of two strong and powerful families provided stability to the Kane family while preserving the family business.

That was the secret 15 years ago! "Alexander from Ol' Mare is the son of that bitch, Chrissy?"

Erick gripped his machete tightly, his face contorted with hatred. "Chrissy's palm attack shattered my father's nerves. Where the hell did that bitch learn martial arts? She was more powerful than Caleb.

Chapter 0527 Alexander was Chrissy's son and the Kane family's heir apparent.

The news caught the seven family heads off guard. They realized they were in trouble!

They had gathered in the Inkstone Mountain Range to join forces against the Xanthos family and Alexander.

However, it appeared that they were mistaken about Ywain-he was one of them.

In that case, Alexander was their common enemy. However, if they laid hands on him, the Kane family would undoubtedly intervene to stop them.

The entire northern region would be in chaos if they were not careful!

Family feuds, power struggles, and minor disagreements were no big deal. I Wyvena would not bother to intervene.

However, if it became a significant issue, the ruler of Wyvena would be notified. If that happened, the seven major families and the Xanthos family would face severe consequences! "Don't worry, you can do whatever you want with Alexander. I'm sure the Kane family will not make a move." The masked man, who appeared indifferent, finally said in a hoarse voice, "I will take care of this and ensure that no one from the Kane family can leave their manor.

"As long as the Kane family doesn't intervene, you can launch a sneak attack at night and finish Alexander and Amber off completely. I suppose the ruler of Wyverna wouldn't mind the death of a woman and her husband who married into the family for money!" Hmm? Ywain and the seven family heads exchanged looks of surprise. They were hopeful after hearing from their master.

They were confident that if their master could keep the Kane family out of the way and allow them to focus solely on one target-Alexander-they would be able to kill him regardless of his power! "Let's get on with it." The masked man clutched the strings of his miniature harp, chuckling coldly.

"Go straight to Deephaven. Alexander and Amber are there in the New Chesire Group branch. Kill them once and for all, no mercy!" - Swoosh! Ywain and the other family heads bowed and left to carry out their plans separately. They quickly contacted the family executors and powerful sect masters they knew, then set out for Deephaven overnight to attack Alexander! "Alexander!" After a few low laughs, the masked man narrowed his eyes and waved his hand. "Three Fiends, come out!" Whoosh! A hundred meters away, deep in the inconspicuous dense forest, three figures leaped forward, knelt on one knee, and saluted together. "Yes, Master!" "Go to Deephaven." i The masked man's eyes flickered as he looked far away toward Deephaven, his voice cold as ice as he gave the order to the Three Fiends. "Alexander's strength is unfathomable. Ywain and the others may fail to kill him. Observe the situation. Act when it is time to deal a fatal blow. Return to me with Alexander's head!" The Three Fiends were the Black Maple Organization's main powerhouses, so their strength was unparalleled. When they received the order, they cupped their fists together and replied, "Yes!" That same night, back at the Xanthos family mansion in the north.

"Father!" Tacker held his phone in the study { while listening to Ywain's order, his expression grim. "Don't worry. The four executors and the deaf old servant who cleans the ancestral hall have been ordered to leave and meet you at Deephaven Mountain on the outskirts of Deephaven.

"Father, why do you need the old servant to go with you?" The future of the Xanthos family was at stake, of course! "Tacker." On a private helicopter above the Inkstone Mountain Range, Ywain held his phone with a murderous expression in his eyes.

"Remember this you can't tell anyone about what's going to happen tonight! "Alexander will die tonight! We'll take over the New Chesire Group in OI" Mare and split their business with the seven major families!" After that, Ywain hung up! Tacker pondered the idea of his father and the seven major families banding together to attack Alexander that night.

11 Alexander, we were close friends as kids. But you must die if Father intends to kill you!" Tacker muttered as he put the phone down.

Then he laughed, turned, and walked to the study's entrance.

He wondered if she would deliver the message to the Kares, but he knew it would be a waste of effort.

The Black Maple Master had promised that the Kane family would not get in the way!

Chapter 0528 About an hour later, at the Kane family manor in the northern region.

"Mister Kane!" Callie wiped her tears in the quaint Kane family study and looked earnestly at a sleeping Caleb. "Please save Alexander. You need to save him!" When Callie woke Caleb, he was still in his gray pajamas. He frowned and laughed softly. "Is this about the feud with the six major families? I've heard about that, "But I remember telling you that this Alexander is from the Mare, and he just happens to share the same name with that rebellious son of mine who died in the wilderness long ago.

"It's late. You should go home!" After saying that, he casually waved his hand, clearly no longer interested in listening to Callie.

"No!" Callie's beautiful eyes welled up with tears as she insisted, sobbing. "Mister Kane, you can fool everyone but me! Even though the scars on his body are gone, I'm certain he is the son of you and Miss Quantz. He's my childhood friend!" "The Kane family is the only one who can save him right now. Please, Mister Kane. "I can't bear to see him killed!" Miss Quantz? Why did the name sound like trouble? It recalled unpleasant memories. Caleb's face turned cold, and with a low grunt, he stopped paying attention to Callie. He turned to exit the study.

"Mister Kane! Mister Kane!" Caleb's footsteps continued regardless of Callie's screams. In the darkness of the night, he vanished into the Kane mansion courtyard.

No one, including Callie Xanthos, was allowed to enter the courtyard without Caleb's permission! A gazebo sat deep in the Kane family courtyard.

"Master." The old housekeeper, Antonio, bowed and clenched his fists in front of the gazebo. He sounded old. "Miss Xanthos' news can't be wrong. Young Master must be in danger. Shall we help him?" Caleb held his phone, and his face paled. He cursed Alexander for not returning his calls. He could not believe Alexander would not answer his call after causing such a scene and putting himself in danger. He wondered if Alexander had his phone in flight mode or if he was so busy for any other reasons.

"Ywain, that old brute, has allied with the seven major families. They are coming at us with full force." Caleb flicked his hand casually and tossed his phone onto the stone table in the gazebo. "If all seven major families go all out, they can get approximately six supreme grand martial artists of dominant strength and 20 apex grandmasters, They also have the Xanthos family's four executors and that deaf old servant.

"Alexander would have no chance but to flee for his life!" Antonio maintained his bowing posture without saying anything.

If it were anyone else, they might be intimidated by such an impressive lineup.

However, the Kanes were not one of those weaklings. They were not to be underestimated, especially with what Chrissy had left behind before her death. "We can't touch that thing." Caleb knew what Antonio was thinking, and his face darkened. "This is the only memento Chrissy left behind. It is the Kane family's final trump card to save our lives. There's no way I'll lose the entire Kane family for my rebellious son." After that, Caleb paused for a moment before waving his hand at Antonio.

"I will go to Deephaven myself." He sighed as he looked toward Deephaven from a distance. "I have a rebellious son. It will undoubtedly be the best possible outcome if I can save him. If I can not save him, the only option would be..." He looked in the direction of Deephaven from afar and sighed.

"This rebellious son is my son. It's certainly the best outcome if I can save him. If I can't save him, then the only way would be-" Caleb paused abruptly!

Just as Caleb was about to leave the gazebo, the sound of a mini harp erupted from nowhere, enveloping the Kane Mansion like a massive N.Q vortex invisible to the naked eye and subduing every martial arts expert! "This! This is-" Inside the gazebo, Caleb and Antonio's bodies stiffened as they looked at each other, both sensing the shock in the other's eyes.

The owner of the mini harp was terrifyingly strong—a martial overlord!

entering the Lord of War realm, and he had already mastered the highest level of martial power there!

Chapter 0529 While the mini harp echoed throughout the Kane family manor, Ywain and the seven major families were on the move! On the northern outskirts of Deephaven Mountain, a dozen private jets slowly flew in from various directions. More than 70 people jumped out of the cabin and landed steadily on the mountaintop. Their momentum was strong! The Xanthos family and the seven major families brought seven supreme grand martial artists with dominant strength, 24 apex grandmasters, 40 heavily armed martial arts elites from the Langley family, and a hunchbacked, deaf old servant with a broken broom. The old servant resembled an old tree trunk, emitting a decaying and strange aura. "Everyone has arrived!" Ywain stood atop the mountain, his eyes gleaming as he gazed far away at the New Chesire Group branch building in the heart of Deephaven. His murderous gaze settled on the light box logo at the top of the building.

"Alexander and Amber are there. Let's go!" Swish! All 31 martial arts powerhouses and 40 martial arts elites did not hesitate and immediately took off. However, there was another swishing sound! The deaf old servant in charge of cleaning the Xanthos family's ancestral hall waved the broken broom in his hand casually, gently stopping Ywain's figure before opening his mouth and signing with his fingers.

""""Are you asking me to stay and stop the pursuers?" Ywain was fluent in sign language and signed back to the deaf old servant before his gaze sank in determination.

"Twant to kill Alexander with my own hands!" The old servant shook his head slowly and swung the broom he held again, forcing Ywain to take a half-step back.

Then, without hesitation, the old man walked to the foot of the mountain as if he weighed nothing.

His pace appeared slow, but he was extremely fast. Soon, his body merged with the darkness and was no longer visible!

"What technique was that?" All the martial artists on top of the mountain looked in the direction where that deaf old servant had gone.

They were shocked and then filled with hope.

Even though they did not know where the old man came from, they could tell that his strength had reached the pinnacle of the supreme grand martial realm, and he might have even reached the realm of Martial Overlord! If such a powerful person made a move, Alexander would surely die! The night felt unusually long.

Under the night sky of Deephaven, as if the city were unaffected by the impending danger, office employees working overtime continued to work hard in an office building, and those who had already left work had long since gone to their dreamland. The city looked peaceful.

The new branch of the New Chesire Group, located in the lounge next to the General Manager's office, was unbelievably cozy.

"Amber, look." Alexander sat on the edge of the bed, smiling as he looked at Amber's blushing face. "This is what we got tonight. All six major families' assets have been seized, as have 60 percent of the Callie Group's shares. I think you'll like it." Amber's pretty face flushed; she did not have the strength to sit up. She looked extremely shy.

They had been separated for many days, and Amber had just returned to the northern office building for a few days. However, Alexander had not tired of doing the deed. Her limbs felt limp and weak. She even turned off her phone and strictly forbade disturbances so they could enjoy some time to themselves.

Amber initially perceived Alexander as a slacker and unproductive individual.

She had no idea he could accomplish great things and seize the wealth of the six major families! Even though these shares are good, they belong to the Xanthos family. It feels like we are holding a hot potato."

Amber grabbed the blanket and wrapped it around her petite body. She took Alexander's stock certificate and looked at it briefly before returning her gaze to Alexander. Then she said, "Why don't we return these shares to the Xanthos family? This is their family business, so they must be the primary shareholders.

"And isn't Callie your childhood best friend? You might as well help her out." "Childhood best friend? Is she ve jealous? Alexander smiled faintly and was about to say something when his expression became solemn.

Someone was coming! "You should rest."

He touched his wife's pretty face before turning and walking toward the door as if discussing something trivial.

"A few little insects are here, but don't let them spoil your mood.

"I'll be right back."
