Chapter 533

Chapter 0533 Erick was dead, and Brock was next! The two major families' heads died less than half a minute apart. They died without a chance to retaliate, like ordinary and uninteresting beings! "Alexander..." The remaining five family heads looked at the calm Alexander, and an absurd idea suddenly occurred to them.

They believed Alexander was neither human nor a martial artist. He must be a demon from hell, wielding the scythe of death! "Two of the seven family heads are gone."

Alexander returned their death stare as if he were looking at a swarm of insignificant ants. He slowly shook his head. "Six supreme grand martial, 24 apex grandmasters, and one half-step Martial Overlord from the Xanthos family.

"Is that all you have? That's weak!" Were they weak? That lineup was enough to destroy an apex Martial Power, and the Duke of War, who had personally enthroned Wyverna's ruler, was only in the Martial Power realm! "He can't be a Lord of War!" Theodore Chivers, the leader of the North Sahra Iron Gang and aide to the Weiss family, was also there. His palms churned with inner strength as he stared viciously into Alexander's eyes.

"There are only five Lords of War in Wyverna, and each was unapproachable. We're not so unlucky to have encountered one here! "As long as he's not a Lord of War, the Sea of Humans technique is unconquerable. Let's strike together; we will wear him down!"

Theodore believed his judgment was correct! The road to martial arts strength was difficult and bumpy. Only one in ten thousand people could become a vital energy grandmaster. A supreme martial artist was even more rare, like a phoenix feather.

Martial Overload was considered the pinnacle of martial arts. The Lord of War realm was even more unattainable, with only one out of hundreds of millions of martial artists.

How could Alexander, an outcast from the Kane family, become the legendary Lord of War? "Theodore is right!" An executor from the Laurel family seconded the idea. His gaze remained fixed on Amber's petite body, and his tongue licked the corner of his mouth, revealing a sardonic smile. "Alexander is not a Lord of War. He is, at best, a Martial Overlord! "Let's launch a group attack, tire him out, and cut him into a thousand pieces! As for his wife, Amber..." The man chuckled. "The martial arts technique I cultivate is pretty special, so I can't pass up that beautiful woman! "After I'm done with her, everyone else I can have a go!" id The crowd roared with laughter, clearly agreeing with the Laurel family executor. They began hurling profanities at Amber. "That's right, Amber's beauty is indeed outstanding.

Let's keep Alexander alive so he can watch us play with Amber. It will be so much more fun!" "Have you all noticed how Amber looks like Chrissy? Being with Amber is no different than being with Chrissy!" "Isn't Alexander Chrissy's son? Then, let's not hold back. Let's go hard on Amber and let Alexander cheer us on. It will feel like we're making out with his mother!" The men laughed.

Amber grabbed Alexander's arm anxiously. "Alexander, don't fall into their trap. They're deliberately provoking you, attempting to make you lose your mind! "Calm down. You must stay calm!" Alexander shook his head slowly, gazing tenderly at his wife's beautiful face. "They are right about one thing.

You resemble my mother in my memories. Both of you are the most e important women in my life.

"Anyone who dares to insult you, my mother, or my relatives and friends will end up with only one consequence.

Chapter 0534 No one knew Alexander's true strength or how terrifying his rage was.

Even the other four Lords of War in Wyverna had never seen Alexander at his most powerful, and they knew he was truly invincible! "He fell for our trick. He's furious!" More than 30 martial arts experts gathered at the office building's entrance, excited. They glared at Alexander and Amber, shouting, "Everyone, let's make a move together. Chapter 0534 No one knew Alexander's true strength or how terrifying his rage was.

Even the other four Lords of War in Wyverna had never seen Alexander at his most powerful, and they knew he was truly invincible! "He fell for our trick. He's furious!" More than 30 martial arts experts gathered at the office building's entrance, excited. They glared at Alexander and Amber, shouting, "Everyone, let's make a move together. Senior and the six supreme grand martial artists will attack Alexander while we capture Amber!" "Yes, Alexander will have to surrender

after we capture Amber!" "Senior, please make your move!" 5 | The senior they mentioned was the Xanthos family's deaf old servant responsible for cleaning the family's ancestral hall! The old man's internal energy surged! @ The old servant's face was expressionless, but his cloudy old eyes showed a few moments of fire blazing. He slowly swung the broken broom in his hand as if holding a massive tree. His movements were incomparably slow, and the broom appeared extremely heavy. The second level of the stance realm involved lifting something light as if it were heavy! According to Wyverna's ancient martial arts records, the stance realm had three levels-Lifting Heavy as if It

Were Light, Lifting Light as if It Were Heavy, and the No Self Phase! The historical record of King Xavier, the Hegemon King of Western Chivana, indicated that he wielded a weapon weighing around 80 kilograms. A single swing of his arm generated thousands of pounds of force, but the weapon in his hands appeared as light as a feather. That was the first level of the stance realm - lifting heavy objects as if they were light! At the second level, holding a feather in one's hand was as destructive as wielding a powerful heavy weapon capable of breaking rocks in the mountains! As for the third level -the No Self Phase...

From ancient times to the present,) even Cadel's world-famous founding ancestor Zoflick and the legendary Master Domo could lift light as if it were heavy, approaching the level of No Self Phase! "The Lifting Light as if It Were Heavy level -he mastered it!" When the deaf old servant struck, the martial arts elite were ecstatic. They cheered him on. Such was the strength of a martial artist! The old servant clearly had half a foot in the Martial Power realm. The dominant power in his body was gradually condensing, eventually forming a tangible and qualitative internal energy power, sufficient to perform spiritual energy. His strength was greater than that of a supreme martial artist.

A martial artist's spiritual energy, combined with the Lifting Heavy as if It Were Light technique, could unleash the terrifying power of destroying mountains with a single movement of his hand! "This alone is enough to annihilate Alexander!" "Everyone, don't stop. Let's get Amber first!" "Together!" Following the deaf old servant's lead, the six supreme grand martial artists and more than 20 apex grandmasters waved their weapons or leaped forward while others shot through the air.

Some of them gathered their strength into an internal power rope and frantically wrapped it around Amber's body. —

"Alexander!" Amber's beautiful face turned pale, and her thin body trembled in fear.

"Don't worry about me; just go! I know you're powerful and capable of escaping.

Escape!" Alexander laughed! "Amber, you will soon know how powerful I am." He raised his hand and patted his wife's hand before stepping forward, gradually raising his right palm to meet the broom the deaf old servant was swinging casually.

There was a loud bang! The wind raged! The already broken broom exploded in the hands of the deaf old servant. The spiritual energy of a Martial Power combined with the Lifting Light as if It Were Heavy technique lacked power.

Alexander shattered the old servant's frail body like a completely weathered rotten wood! That was not all! The six six supreme grandmasters and more than 20 apex grandmasters who confronted

Amber and unleashed their inner power used powerful and dominant martial arts techniques.

Their weapons, made of rare materials, I appeared subtle in their attacks.

Alexander's palm attack enveloped them all in its power. They tumbled and tossed in the air like a pile of loose and messy tofu, eventually landing in front of the lobby entrance! "No! No way! Impossible!" re Outside them lobby, the six supreme grandmasters struggled to stand while the 20 apex grandmasters collapsed to the ground, curled up and crying with nearly identical expressions on their faces.

They were shocked, horrified, distraught, bewildered, and terrified! Alexander's casual palm attackm lacked dominant strength and spiritual energy. It also did not generate any energy waves. It was not even a stance; how could it have such terrifying power? Unless it was the legendary third stage - the No Self Phase. That was the most powerful realm that even Zoflick and Master Domo could not master.

Chapter 0535 While the six supreme grandmasters and more than 20 apex grandmasters were stunned, everyone in the Kane family mansion 200 kilometers away was equally shocked! The sound of the miniature harp rang out! The sound of the miniature harp that appeared out of nowhere silenced everything in the Kane family mansion. It also suppressed their physique, vital energy, and dominant power. Even Caleb and Antonio could not help but sweat and tremble with fear as they felt the powerful suppression in the sound of the miniature harp! "Sir." A Aside from Caleb, Antonio did his best to withstand the pressure of the mini harp's sound. His body was soaked in sweat. "The owner of this mini harp seemed to have left an impression in my mind about 15 years ago..." Fifteen years ago? Caleb's body stiffened, and his face changed completely. He remembered the details. In that battle, his father, the former head of the family, Cedric, and his wife, Chrissy, had fought together against dozens of northern forces and had already secured victory. At the last moment, however, they collapsed at the sound of a miniature harp! "It's him! He made a move!" After a short period of shock, Caleb took a sharp breath, his back bent by the sound of the mini harp slowly straightening up. His body seemed to have awakened some kind of strange power. Then, he glared in the northern direction and shouted, "Over there!" There? Antonio was startled. The pressure on his body appeared to have vanished, and he looked north with dismay. "Sir, there's nothing there. Could it be on A sudden rasping laughter interrupted Antonio. The laughter echoed in the sky above the Kane family mansion. ""Caleb, I've underestimated you. You freed yourself from the bondage of the Heavenly Silence Melody! "You must have a life-preserving trump card left by Chrissy in your body. Oh, Chrissy has been dead for 15 years now, but the Kane family is still responding to something left by a woman to survive. What a shame!" Caleb clenched his fists, and his eyes { burned.

Alexander's mother, Chrissy, had left a token before her death, allowing Caleb to keep it in his name and pass it down to Alexander when he grew up.

However, Alexander had long been cast out of the family, so the token remained with the Kanes, becoming the family's greatest secret! It was a secret and a shame! The raspy voice was right-without the mark, the Kane family would have been destroyed during the northern forces' siege. Chrissy had protected the Kane family, allowing them to survive! "What? Am I right?" To the north, the black-robed masked man with a mini harp in his hand sneered as he looked at the Kane family mansion from a distance. "Caleb, you're trash. How could you expel your outstanding son from the Kane family?" "Unfortunately, no matter how outstanding he is, your son is completely useless. Look at the time- my team should have finished their task. Your son, Alexander, is dead!" Amidst the hoarse, maniacal laughter, the masked man jumped and vanished into the night sky, leaving no trace!

Was Alexander dead? Caleb stood motionless in the gazebo, his lips moving involuntarily as his face paled.

ngjr!" Antonio clenched his fists. His eyes were filled with blood, and he burst into tears. "With Young Master gone, there's no one left in the Kane family to succeed you. He was your only bloodline!" No one left to inherit...

Caleb turned his head slowly, and he appeared to have aged a dozen years.

Then, as if he remembered something, his eyes brightened. "No!"

He reached out and covered his chest, his face flushed with m excitement. "The token left by Chrissy is on my body; it contains a drop of Alexander's blood.

It's closely related to Alexander. If Alexander were killed, the token m would have reacted.

"So far, the token hasn't shown any abnormalities, so I'm sure Alexander is alive!" Antonio's tears quickly dried up, and he turned his head to face Deephaven, muttering, "Since he's not dead, he must have escaped. But with Miss Callie dragging him down, where can he flee to? "Or has Young Master won?"

Chapter 0536 Did he win? Of course, he did! In Deephaven, at the New Chesire Group's branch entrance, Alexander held Amber's hand and stood at the top of the stairs, looking down at the martial arts elites below with a condescending, indifferent expression.

Six supreme grand martial artists and more than 20 apex grandmasters were a formidable lineup that could not be easily matched anywhere in Wyverna.

However, in Alexander's opinion, they were simply a swarm of ants that could be easily exterminated! "Alexander, you can't kill us!"

Neo had blood frothing at the corners of his mouth. He had just wiped it clean and yelled at Alexander, "We and the Xanthos family have already defected to the Black Maple Organization, and it was the Black Maple Master who told us to kill you! "If you dare to attack us, he will avenge us and kill you and Amber!" Black Maple Master? Alexander's face was expressionless.

He raised his palm and said, "You deserved to die! Joining the Black Maple Organization is even more unforgivable!" His palm struck down! The palm strike felt like the sky was collapsing. The air in front of the office building appeared to condense, forming a compressed wall visible to the naked eye like the valley of a towering mountain crushing down on them all.

Whoosh! Three blurry figures appeared and disappeared near the end of the city streets, appearing to be in an incomparably bizarre posture. They approached quickly, waving their hands and emitting a large amount of fine and broken shimmering light, which seemed to be some sort of tiny special weapon! The masked man had reinforcements -the Black Maple Organization's core members, the Three Fiends! It was a truly deadly sneak attack! They struck with skill at the same time

ER ee that Alexander struck his palm. They seized the opportunity before Alexander's palm landed, exposing the front of his body. It was only a split second before the new power overtook the old power! If it were an ordinary martial artist, that precise sneak attack would seriously injure, if not kill, even a Martial Overlord! However...

"The Black Maple Master must look up to me, but unfortunately, he doesn't even know what true power means!" Alexander's expression did not change.

The palm strike stopped, and his wrist flipped smoothly to meet the fine shimmering light that struck his face with a gentle shock.

Boom! The Lord of War's Domain! In the empty streets of Deephaven, time, space, street lights, and everyone's breathing seemed to have paused for a moment. The domain's power crushed any fine shimmering lights easily as if they had never existed!

There was also the black wind produced by the Three Fiends! All of them collapsed - the Three Fiends with their lofty and bizarre postures, their refined and incomparably strong bodies, and their clothes, shoes, black face scarves. So did the six supreme grandmasters and more than 20 apex grandmasters.

Like weathered and decayed sand l sculptures, their bodies shattered under the crushing Lord of War's Domain. Their flesh, bones, skin, and clothes became invisible to the naked eye-not a single hair remained!

"It's over." The Lord of War's Domain appeared instantly and then vanished silently.

Alexander shook his head and smiled softly at Amber beside him. "Are you afraid?"

"There's nothing to be afraid of around me. Neither the Black Maple Organization nor the Northern Tycoons can cause you any harm.

That's my promise to you!" Amber trembled. She looked at the familiar, determined face in front of her and remembered the words she had heard earlier about him being expelled from his own family 15 years ago. She felt his pain.

I "Alexander!" Amber clutched Alexander's chest and cried. "You must never take risks again. You must flee if you find yourself in a situation like this. What if you can't beat them?" "If they kill me, you can avenge me.

Stay strong, and don't be afraid. Even if I die, I don't want to see you hurt!" Since the establishment of the Temple of War and the completion of the martial realm, the scars on his body had healed completely. Nobody could hurt him in the slightest! "Don't worry." Alexander laughed and wrapped his arms around his wife's slender body, tilting his head to look far north, a flash of light flickering in the bottom of his eyes. = The Xanthos family! The Xanthos family and the seven major families had played their cards, but Ywain and Tacker were nowhere to be seen. They were no longer Alexander's friends since they had already defected to the Black Maple Organization.

Except for Callie, the Xanthos family had never been friends with the Kanes! At Deephaven Mountain on the other side of Deephaven.

After a dozen private helicopters had landed, Ywain stood at the top of the mountain, looking down at the New Chesire Group branch building in the center of town, his brow furrowing.

Something was wrong! So much time had passed, and even if Alexander was more powerful than they suspected the battle should have been over by then. Besides, it was a sneak attack in the middle of the night.

They should not have taken so long! "Sir! n The pilot of the Langley family's helicopter panicked. He reached out, pointed to the cockpit's electronic screen, and stuttered, "No, it's gone.

"It's all gone!" Huh?

wy TY OVIWe Ywain's heart tightened. He dashed into the cabin and gazed at the electronic display. He said, "Speak clearly! What's gone?!" "The people. All of them are ОП gone!" The pilot trembled. "Sir, we're in an industry that consists mainly of precision equipment and electronic devices, including remote life detectors." "Just a moment ago, the family heads and those martial arts elites, as well as the Langley family's elite squad, breathed their last!" What? Ywain's body shook as if a thunderbolt had exploded in his head, and his entire body froze. Then he turned to look far away at the office building under the night sky. He felt as if his blood had frozen.

Electronic instruments would not lie, and the pilot was terrified of lying. All seven family heads, supreme grand martial artists, and apex.com grandmasters who launched a surprise attack that night had perished! "Go! n Ywain looked like a madman. He grabbed the pilot's collar and roared, "All helicopters should take off and return to their families. Everyone, run! "Immediately! Immediately!"

Chapter 0537 The long and torturous night had finally ended! Ywain had already returned to Xanthos Manor via helicopter. He sat alone in the center of the ancestral hall, staring at the ancestral tablets on the sacrificial table, his face filled with despair. It was over! In a single night, all four of the Xanthos family's great executors were killed, including the deaf old servant.

The Xanthos family had no trump cards left except for himself, a half-step supreme grand martial artist, and Tacker, who had just entered the grandmaster realm!

"Father!" At the entrance to the ancestral hall, Tacker's face turned pale as he stumbled and rushed to Ywain, his voice trembling as he said, "Our scouts have just returned with word that the seven major families are gone. They're all gone.

"Alexander has destroyed all seven major families. Next, it will be us." Ywain slowly closed his eyes before abruptly opening them again. "No, we're not the same as the seven major families. We have the Callie Group and also Callie! Callie and Alexander were childhood friends. Alexander will not kill us for Callie's sake. Where is Callie? Bring Callie here immediately!"

Callie? Tacker froze, and then bitterness spread across his face. "Father, Callie left to deliver a message to the Kane family last night and has yet to return.

Besides, even if Callie were here, I doubt that would change anything.

Alexander never admitted to being of the Kane family bloodline!" The Kane family.

Ywain stood up without hesitation, "I will personally visit the Kane family.

Caleb is Alexander's father, and I've known him for a long time. He'll help us! You must return to the Callie Group immediately, and remember that Alexander owns 60 percent of the group's stock! Before I return, you must first stabilize the situation. The Callie Group is the foundation of the Xanthos family!" Tacker dared not slow down. He rushed the helicopter to the Callie group.

There was no time to waste, no time to wait! The fate of the Xanthos family hung in the balance! About an hour and a half later, in the north, at the Xanthos Industrial Park.

People were in a state of panic! Almost everyone in the industrial park, including the department manager and workshop workers, had left the company. They flooded the HR department.

Many workers received their final pay in the finance department and then fled, unwilling to stay in the industrial park for another second. It was as if they were fleeing a plague rather than their workplace where they had worked for years! The large industrial park was disorganized! "What are you all doing?" Tacker was furious. As the helicopter landed in the industrial park, he rushed out of the cabin, shouting, "Everyone, get back to the office. The Xanthos family hasn't collapsed yet!" The news had already spread that the governor had annihilated the seven major families for repeatedly committing serious crimes, and that the Xanthos family was also involved and would face consequences soon! "Young Master." One department head could not bear the sight of the deteriorating situation and dashed over to Tacker, sighing.

"You have run. We can't save the Callie Group, but that's okay as long as we're alive. We'll get an opportunity to rise again in the m future." Can't save the group? Who said that?" Tacker's face was furious. He reached out and grabbed the department head's lapel like a maniac. "The Xanthos family is fine. Nothing happened. My father, me, my sister-we are all alive and well!"

"The Callie Group can't be saved? Who said that? Come out and show ve yourself. Come on!"

Chapter 0538 "The Callie Group can't be saved? Who said that?" "did!" Just as Tacker was yelling angrily, a young voice slowly emerged from the Xanthos Industrial Park entrance. "All employees of the Callie Group should vacate the Industrial Park today. "I delivered the orders personally.

Why? Do you have something to say about that, Young Master Xanthos?" Alexander! Alexander held Amber's hand as the couple walked toward Tacker. Alexander had a document containing the same stock certificates confiscated from the six major families! "Alexander, Amber..." Tacker clenched his fists. His heart was filled with an overwhelming sense of powerlessness.

Tacker finally realized that they owned 60 percent of the Callie Group.

"Why? Why?" Tacker growled, wishing he could go back in time and tell Ywain that he would rather mess with the King of Hades than Alexander because the latter was not to be messed with.

The terrifying lineup that included seven supreme grand martial artists, 2/, apex grandmasters, and a deaf old servant of the Martial Overlord realm had been eliminated.

What did Alexander do? How did he do it? He was not human! "Time is precious." Alexander looked at Tacker indifferently, ignoring the hideous expression on the latter's face, and said without emotion, "Tacker, the Xanthos family has done many wrongs.

You guys should be uprooted.

"However, you did nothing wrong last night, so I will be lenient and let you live. I will dissolve the Callie Group and remove them from the northern market! "Now, get lost!" The announcement struck Tacker like lightning, sending his mind into overdrive.

Alexander planned to dissolve the Callie Group, the company the Xanthos family founded! Since the Callie Group's inception, the Xanthos family had devoted all their efforts to it. Its total market value had long exceeded 100 billion dollars. Once its dissolution was announced, the loss would be incalculable.

Tacker questioned the point of continuing his life after losing the Callie Group. Building a second Callie Group would be impossible, even with tens of billions of dollars! [t was no exaggeration to say that the Callie Group was the Xanthos family's lifeblood!

"Alexander, you are a bully!"

Tacker became hysterical, and his eyes were red with rage. A layer of turbulent inner power emerged from his right fist, which he aimed violently at Alexander's chest. "I'll fight you! Come on!" The strength of Tacker's fist attack was impressive! Tacker had used all his strength to deliver the blow, even going beyond his potential. The air in front of his fist whistled and raged, and before it hit Alexander, it rustled his and Amber's clothes! "You are attempting the impossible." Alexander's expression remained unchanging in the face of such a devastating blow. Even Amber, who was standing next to him, showed no signs of fear. Alexander slowly raised his right palm, gently probing forward.

Slap! Alexander's palm casually clasped Tacker's fist as if made of steel, and the fist's energy building up around him vanished! No! No! No!" O Tacker's forehead veins throbbed, his arm muscles writhing and twisting, and wave after wave of vital energy flowed into his fist, launching a desperate attack against Alexander's palm. Nonetheless, it was useless.

His powerful vital energy could shatter a stone. However, when it struck Alexander's palm, it caused no damage!

One second, five seconds, and ten seconds had passed.

After half a minute, Tacker's vital energy had been completely depleted, and he stood on the same spot, trembling! "That's all you can do?" Alexander looked at him calmly, threw his palm out gently, and tossed Tacker over 20 meters away before saying softly, "You have two options-leave or die. You have three seconds to give me your answer!"

Chapter 0539 Leave or die? Tacker, at 20 meters away, was paralyzed. He struggled to get to his feet.

The disparity in strength was so great that it was difficult to estimate how powerful Alexander was! Tacker used all his strength, including the Xanthos family's secret martial arts technique. Despite being only an entry-level apex grandmaster, he could transcend his realm and unleash the power of a supreme grand martial.

Yet, it did not hurt Alexander at all! "It's no surprise that so many people were unable to kill you. You are a Martial Power; you must be an apex Martial Power!" Tacker no longer had any doubts, He looked into Alexander's eyes and yelled angrily, "Why? How can you become a Martial Power when you're not even 30 years old? "There are no warriors under the age of 30 in Wyverna. There are none in the whole world. No, except for the Temple of War, no one else has achieved Martial Power at such an early age. You can't possibly be from the War Temple.

No way!" Alexander laughed at Tacker's speculation.

"I gave you three seconds to make a decision. Now it's time to tell me your decision." (Pa a aa Alexander held Amber's hand and stared at the crazy Tacker, his voice cold.

"Since you haven't made a choice, I will help you decide.

"I announce that your destiny is..." Buzz! Tacker's heart was racing as he instinctively retreated in the face of danger. His mind jerked as if he had seized the last straw to save his life.

"Alexander, you can't kill me!" "My father has already gone to the Kane family. News will soon spread that you are Caleb's son, and Caleb will not let you kill me. He will not!" Caleb Kane? Amber was momentarily stunned. She tilted her head to look at Alexander and gently bit her lips. Then she whispered,

"Alexander, why don't you wait a little longer to hear what he has to say? He's your father, after all." E "He is neither my father nor your father-in-law!" Alexander sulked but quickly returned to his calm demeanor. He smiled at Amber, assuring her not to be afraid, and then slowly turned his head to look far away, toward the Kane family mansion. His eyes gradually narrowed.

'Caleb. I want to see if you, the head of the Kane family, are still as cowardly and heartless as you were back then.

Are you still as cold and heartless as you were back then? Are you still the same person who chose to abandon your son for the sake of your family?"

Meanwhile, at the Kane family's manor in the north.

"Caleb!" Ywain had just entered the Kane family's study and looked anxiously for Caleb, who was sitting on an antique chair. He immediately clenched his fist and pleaded. Caleb, the survival of the Xanthos family is in your hands, Please have mercy on us, Caleb. Please save us!" Caleb had a thread-bound book in his hand. He noticed Ywain's terrified expression, shook his head, and laughed. "What are you talking about, Ywain? Are you confused? "The Xanthos family has deep roots in the business community. The Callie Group has hundreds of billions in assets, and you have four great supreme grand martial executors and a deaf Martial Power. Who would dare to mess with the Xanthos family? "Don't joke!" Xwain was stunned at first until he realized Caleb was pretending to be confused! The Xanthos Family and the seven major families had conspired to assassinate Alexander, and the Black Maple Master had taken action to suppress the Kane Family, so Caleb must have been furious. He wanted to see the end of the Xanthos family! "Caleb." Ywain felt he had nothing to lose after what had happened, so he stepped Read the latest chapter there! a EEctrt dhe 2 4 forward, knelt on one knee before Caleb, and pleaded earnestly. "The J Xanthos family is in danger, and I can't afford to wait even a minute.

"Please, Caleb. We are like brothers, m aren't we? For the sake of our help us friendship, would you please beg Alexander for mercy? He's like a nephew to me. I've made a mistake, Would you please forgive me?"

Chapter 0540 'Nephew? When you sent the deaf Martial Power and the four apex grandmasters and teamed up with the seven great families to sneak up on Alexander, did you think of him as your nephew then?" I Caleb pretended to be confused. He put down the thread-bound book and looked at Ywain, surprised.
""Ywain, you've confused me even more. What nephew? If he were your nephew, how could he possibly betray the Xanthos family? "You must be joking. I have something to do for the Kane family, so I can't stay here with you!" Caleb stood up from the antique chair and motioned to leave the study.

"Caleb!" With the Xanthos family's safety at " stake, Ywain no longer cared about his appearance. He dropped his other knee to be on both knees and pleaded.

"Alexander is your son, isn't he?" "Please, Caleb. As long as you can tell him to leave the Xanthos family alive...

Caleb, Callie adores Alexander. They had a marriage contract when they were younger.
We're like family!" Finally, Ywain brought up the subject! Caleb paused, looked down at Ywain, shook his head, and laughed. "Ywain, I finally got you. So, you're talking about Alexander from Ol' Mare! "I also have concerns about this young man. He's young and talented, exquisite in martial arts, but unfortunately, he's nothing more than someone who shares the same name as that rebellious son of mine! My son died in the wilderness 15 years ago.

How could he be Alexander of Ol' Mare?" Same name, same surname.

Ywain laughed bitterly.

Why bother? What was the point of begging Caleb? Even if Caleb played dumb, he could not change the facts! Caleb had no intention of disowning Alexander but instead chose to remain idle and allow the Xanthos family to die! "When you mentioned Alexander, I remembered something." Caleb looked at the distraught Ywain, and the smile on his face widened. "I heard that Alexander holds 60 percent of the Callie Group's shares and has the power to make important decisions! And he is now at the Callie Group with Amber to dismiss all the employees.

"What a waste of Callie's efforts. Such a pity!" Ywain trembled. He jumped to his feet, his face pale. "No, that is impossible! The Callie Group's assets exceed 100 billion. How can Alexander destroy them? Where's Callie? Where's Callie? I know she's here. Tell her to come to me!" They were in the Kane family mansion, not the Xanthos family mansion. Caleb no longer felt sympathy for Ywain. His face became cold, "Ywain, last night, a peak Martial Power used the melody of his mini harp to suppress the entire Kane family.

Why is that?" = "There's no going back on spoken words and actions taken. Callie was affected by the music and is now recovering in my mansion. Ywain, please go. I will not see you off!" Caleb left without looking back at Ywain! "A mini harp? Master! It must be the Black Maple Master!" Ywain stood still, staring at Caleb's back, before turning and running as fast as he could out of the Kane family mansion. He jumped into a private helicopter and flew northwest.

The Inkstone Mountain Range was located there, as was the Black Maple Organization's leader! Meanwhile, in the Kane family's guest room.

Callie sat near the head of the bed, watching a news report on her phone about the Callie Group laying off employees. Tears welled in her eyes.

Her entire life's work with the Callie Group was gone! Destroyed by her beloved husband! "Callie." Caleb gently knocked on the door to the guest room and said softly, "The Xanthos family is the Xanthos family, and you are you. I will not make it difficult for you; you may leave whenever you want.

"For your sake, I've already given the head of the Xanthos family a chance, and he has finally revealed his connection to the Black Maple Organization. Please don't blame me.

You should know I made a grave mistake back then, and my rebellious son" He sighed.

Caleb's face sank, and he said

nothing else, Then he turned to leave.

"Alexander..." Callie sobbed quietly. After a long time, she picked up her at phone and typed a text message with trembling fingers, pausing for about ten minutes before sending it.

It was only one sentence.

[Mr. Kane, please have mercy on us.)
