

Chapter 0051

Fiona's Pov

"You don't have a wolf?" Tiana blurted out again, this time much louder than the first.

The entire pack members gasped in shock as all eyes were on me waiting for a response. Tiana made her way towards me with her arms folded, a smug expression on her face, and clear mockery in her eyes.

"Is what Tiana says True?" Elder Spencer asked in an authoritative tone. I just stood where I was not able to say a word in my defense. Even my own voice betrayed me, just like Tris did.

"Answer the question!" Elder Freya thundered, but I still didn't utter any word.

The pack members soon began to whisper amongst themselves.

"Luna Fiona, please give us an answer," Elder Jay said calmly, and that was the final resolve. I couldn't hold back my tears any longer as they streamed down my cheeks shamelessly.

I couldn't even bring myself to look at the pack members, who looked at me with so much admiration just a few minutes ago, because I could already smell their disgust and disappointment.

"Did you know about this Alpha Izaak?" Elder Freya asked.

Everywhere became silent like a graveyard as everyone awaited his reply. My head remained bowed, not daring to look at Alpha Izaak. His anger filled the air making it hard to breathe, and most of the pack members were already shuddering in fear, while some kids cried their lungs out.

"I had no idea," Alpha Izaak finally replied, tightening his jaw, with his fist clenched together.

I raised my head a little trying to sneak a peak at him, and saw that he was in his human form, as he stared at me with murderous intention, making me avert my gaze quickly.

"There is no way we will have a Luna who does not have a wolf!" Gamma Tony said, adding fuel to the already burning fire.

Some of the pack members soon began to voice out their anger, instead of just whispering it amongst themselves.

"We can't accept her as our Luna!"

"This is unacceptable!"

"What is an alpha without a strong Luna?!"

"If word gets out about this, the entire pack will appear weak!"

"Our alpha will appear weak before his enemies!"

"Send her back!"

With every word they say, it felt like my heart was being stabbed over and over again, shattering it into irreparable pieces. I can't believe how easy it is for people to just switch up on you. Just a few moments ago, I was their beloved beautiful and strong Luna, but now I meant absolutely nothing to them.

They've forgotten so quickly how I took it upon myself to grant their various wishes for the festival, instead of doing the traditional boring type they were used to.

As they continued to throw hurtful words at me, I just wished the ground would just open up and swallow me. There's no point being alive when no one wants you? At least when I'm gone I won't be missed at all.

I couldn't stand their hurtful words anymore, so I covered my ears with my hands, and shut my eyes. It didn't really have much effect, but at least their hurtful words were bearable, because it was no longer as loud as it was before.

I suddenly felt a presence behind me, which sent cold shivers down my spine, and made all the hairs in my body stand.

I opened my eyes slowly, and turned my head around gently to see who, or what was behind me. Only to see Alpha Izaak staring at me with that same murderous intent, and for a few moments I could literally see why he was feared by many.

"I..." I opened my mouth to say something but he just grabbed me by my wrist, and pulled me aggressively.

Cora and Rick followed suit as they saw him dragging me along.

"Alpha Izaak!" Rick called out to him but he didn't respond, he just kept pulling me along. "Izy!"

"Alpha Izaak you are hurting me," I whimpered, but he didn't budge, instead his hand tightened around my wrist the most.

Alpha Izaak kept on dragging me, till we got to the pack house.

"If you dare take another step forward!" He warned, and for the first time since I knew Rick I saw fear in his eyes. Cora was already crying and sweating.

Inside the pack house, alpha Izaak still continued dragging me till we got to his room and he threw me on his bed, like a weightless piece of cloth.

"How dare you lie to me again!" He yelled, and a growl escaped his lips. I just sat on the bed with tears streaming down my face. I tried to speak, to defend myself, but the words felt like a lump in my throat.

"Don't, Don't do that, do not give me that pity look, I won't buy it!" He snarled.

What pity look was he talking about? I'm hurt that I broke everyone's trust, but it's not like it was intentional, if only Tris had shown up just once, I wouldn't be here in the first place.

"Not only did you deceive me to be your sister Stella, you also lied about having a wolf?!"

Lie? Did he just say lie? For fucks sake! We've never had a conversation about my wolf before, so how did I lie? And see who's talking about deceiving someone else, what happened to the games he and Tiana were playing with me? Is that not deceiving? At least mine, I did it to save my sister from a loveless union, but what's his excuse?

"What exactly about you is true?!" He barked. "What part of all the things you told me is true? Have you been feigning innocence all this while?!"

Feigning innocence? The nerves of this man to throw blame. I was really getting disgusted by his words already.

"Answer me, you lying"

"Lying what?" I interrupted him, as I stood up from the bed. A bitch?! A scum?! A worthless piece of trash?! A sorry excuse for a werewolf?! A shame and disgrace to the entire werewolf race?! What else do you want to say to me that I do not know, have not heard, or haven't been called before?!" I yelled at the top of my lungs, with fresh tears streaming down my face. "And yes, Alpha Izaak, Yes. I did lie to you about my name, and I also didn't tell you that I didn't have a wolf, and I'm sorry for ruining your life, because I know that's what you already think, but do not speak to me in this manner! I am so so sorry I had to keep the truth from you, it hurts like hell to keep it from you or from anyone else that I care about but..." I paused, trying to catch my breath.

Chapter 0051

"I will accept whatever punishment I get, if I have to return back to my pack I will, but do not speak to me that way, I will not take it from you or anyone else for that matter!"
