

His Mistress My Nightmare Novel

Chapter 9

Chapter 9 Before the police arrived , Troy showed up , stepping protectively in front .

of me .

Antonio demanded coldly , Kid , its time for you to leave .

Grace isnt your mother .

She is like a mother to me , Troy replied calmly and firmly .

Antonio was furious , but someone was even angrier than him .

From around the corner, Fraser charged out .

He shoved Troy hard , roaring , Grace is my mother ! Who the hell do you.

think you are ? Ill kill you ! Fraser had long abandoned his manners .

Lately , his temper had worsened .

But Troy wasnt one to be bullied .

He fought back immediately , and the two started wrestling .

Fraser had come prepared .

He pulled a rock from his pocket and swung it at Troys head .

My heart dropped .

I grabbed a shovel and smacked Fraser right in the face Frasers nose broke on the spot , blood spilling onto the ground .

Sitting in the dirt and bleeding , he stared blankly at me .

Antonio , both shocked and alarmed , rushed to support Fraser , anxiously checking if he was okay .

I helped Troy up , brushing the dust off him .

Mom ... you hit me ... Frasers voice faltered , blood oozing into his mouth and staining his teeth red .

You hit me for an outsider ... Frasers eyes turned red , tears welling up in an instant .

I snapped .

Are you out of your mind ? Were you trying to kill him with that rock ? Frasers lips quivered violently .

My harsh reprimand seemed to have crushed whatever strength he had left .

He crumbled , wailing , Mom , youre my mother ... Youre my mother ! You cant love anyone else ! Come back to me ! Antonio , still composed , shot a fierce glare at Troy before hurriedly taking Fraser to the hospital .

I turned to ask Troy whether he was hurt .

He shook his head , hesitated for a moment , then said , Grace , my biological father has found me .

Troy was found by his biological father ! After Troy became famous , I joined a charity organization to help him and his family .

Now , I finally found it ! Just this morning , his biological father had already met with him and confirmed the blood relationship .

Troy came to the villa to specifically tell me .

Chapter 1 My fathers name is Jeremy Horton , he was from California , and he was going to take me home .

Troy blinked his eyes , his tone filled with reluctance .

I stared for a moment , Jeremy Horton ? California ... Was your dad the wealthy businessman Jeremy from California ? As the hostess of the Kaufman Group , I had heard about Jeremy before .

He was a business tycoon , much stronger than Antonio .

I didnt know , but he seemed to be very wealthy , Troy said , not caring about it .

He stared at me intently and said , Grace , come with me , Ill take care of you ! Puff .

Children grow up quickly .

Do I look like Im short of money ? I dont need you to support me , I patted his head , Go back , practice the piano well , and one day , you will reach the peak ! Troy stopped speaking , looked at me deeply , and left .

I stretched and continued planting my roses .

Planted the roses , and just waited for them to bloom and bear fruit .

But it was a long process , and I wasnt foolishly waiting.

I had plenty of things to do now .

Playing the piano is just one of them .

I want to shine like Roses , naturally , I have to do brilliant things .

I did whatever I wanted to do , such as exercising , traveling , dancing , and painting .

I no longer needed to console myself .

A year later .

I completed a global journey and set foot in my homeland .

The roses bloomed .

I was overjoyed , touching and taking photos , even crying with happiness .

Someone rang the doorbell .

I thought Antonio was still lingering , so I immediately frowned .

At first glance , it was Emilia .

She did not wear the butlers uniform anymore , but instead , she was in the attire of a free person .

I was a bit surprised : Emilia , were you back ? I resigned on my own , it has been almost half a year since I left .

Emilias emotions were complicated , she wanted to speak but hesitated .

I let her speak if she had something to say .

She sighed and said , The young masters temperament changed drastically .

He would often hit and scold us , even beating us to near death .

We were all scared and ran away .

I didnt speak .

Emilia continued to explain , The young master looked for you many times .

He even stopped going to school and would mention you every day , but he could never find you .

The company also collapsed , it is said to have offended a big boss in California and was targeted .

California big boss ? Jeremy Horton ? I casually asked Yes , yes , thats what its called , Emilia said sympathetically .

The young master had been to California and I heard he put the bosses son in the hospital , which caused a feud between the two families .

Was Troy taken to the hospital ?
