Chapter 15

Chapter 15

Leo was waiting at home. He not only prepared several paintings he painted, but also asked Daphne to make some food that girls would like to eat.

The first time Daphne saw Leo so excited before seeing a girl so she asked him, "Do you know what girls like to eat?"

Leo shook his head. He didn't know, but he could check it on the Internet. Then he asked Daphne to help him search it on the Internet. He pointed at her phone and said, "Could you help me?"

Daphne thought Leo was so cute. She has been taking care of Leo since he was little, but she was always overwhelmed by his sudden whimsy.

Sometimes, Daphne would secretly wonder who could give birth to such a cute little boy.

Daphne nodded and then sat down on the sofa. She input: What food do girls like to eat?

Then a lot of answers came up, including bubble tea, chocolate, cake, and so on.

Leo smiled when he saw those answers, and said, "It turns out that Lauren and I like the same food."

The two things they had in common was that they both loved to dance and draw paintings. Now, he realized that they liked to eat same food.

Everything was prepared, and Leo sat obediently on the sofa, waiting for Lauren's arrival.

Everything was perfect. The only thing that wasn't perfect was his dad sitting next to him. Leo was a little dissatisfied, and wondered why his father was still here.

"Dad, aren't you going to work?" Leo wanted to drive away his father.

Charlie took a glance at Leo and folded his legs. He had already saw through Leo and asked him, "Do you want me to leave?" Leo didn't say anything.

Charlie looked directly at Leo and said, "Your friend Lauren is an adult, so the adult must be entertained by an adult. If there is only you, she might not be unhappy."

Hearing this, Leo immediately became nervous, and his hands clenched into fists, asking, "Then what should I do?"

Charlie sat up straight, stretched his long legs, and said in a casual voice, "So I am here with you."

Leo was very moved because he thought his father was very considerate.
