HIS SECRET MILLIONAIRESS WIFE (LAUREN)

Chapter 5

Chapter 5

Lauren nodded and got into the RV. In addition to cosmetics and styling products, there were also two spare dresses, both of which were from the YM brand.

Lauren was an important shareholder of YM and also the backbone of the R&D department so she enjoyed great privileges.

Sitting on the seat, Lauren closed her eyes and said, "Let's to the Bennett family's house."

The RV started smoothly and the makeup artist and stylist started working.

The assistant sat in the co–pilot, turned around, and asked Lauren. "Lauren, do you need a personal assistant?"

In the past, Lauren would stay in the laboratory most of the day, and she seldom had a social life. But now since she went back to the Bennett family, maybe she should have an assistant to help her deal with many trivial matters.

"I am okay with that," Lauren said.

She didn't come back to the Bennett family for benefits but for Grandpa. But Sally repeatedly harassed her, which crossed her bottom line. Lauren hated plots and hypocrisy most!

Wendy's purpose was so obvious. She wanted to make her late for the dinner party or take photos of her when she was on the subway. Suddenly, coldness appeared in Lauren's eyes. Let's wait and see!

Lauren thought.

Monica was very anxious because those reporters didn't see Lauren on the subway at all. She called Wendy and asked, "Did she go to the subway?"

Wendy was still negotiating with the people from the insurance company and was stunned when she heard this, "Yes, I saw her get into the elevator. What's wrong?"

"Those reporters said that they didn't find her and they kept guarding the elevator entrance," Monica was very anxious. Wendy was confused and also became anxious, "Could it be that she changed her clothes so they didn't recognize her?" "Impossible!" Monica was excited, "I even showed her photos to them and every one of them knows what Lauren looks like." Monica did want to make Lauren lose face but she didn't want her to disappear. If the Bennett family found out this, she would be in big trouble!

The Bennett family was powerful and if they send someone to investigate this matter, they will find out

Monica and Wendy behind this matter. It would not be good for Sally! In the end, people would think that it was Sally who wanted to frame Lauren.
