

HIS SECRET MILLIONAIRESS WIFE (LAUREN)

Hapter 51

Chapter 51

Lauren thought for a while and then shook her head, saying, “No.”

“You don’t know?” Leo raised his head in shock and looked at Lauren with helplessness. His chest rose and fell, and his eyes quickly turned red. “You really don’t know?” Leo almost cried.

Lauren’s head went blank for a moment. Then she said, “I know a little.”

“What do you mean by a little?” Leo was very nervous and his little hands grabbed her clothes.

Lauren explained softly. “I knew a little before, but I forgot.”

“So, does this count as ‘yes’ or ‘no?’” Leo was a little confused, He decided to ask his father when he was back.

So Leo became happy again, leaned into Lauren’s arms, and said to her, “My Dad told me that my mother was an angel, and after giving birth to me, she goes back to the heaven. She will come back when I grow up.”

After saying this, Leo quickly raised his head to glance at Lauren, then lowered his head, and crossed his little fingers, “I met many people, but I didn’t tell them that I was looking for my mother.”

Lauren now realized that Leo asking her whether she was his mother.

Lauren didn’t know how to reply. She saw the expectation in Leo’s face so she didn’t want to disappoint him.

Fortunately, Daphne came over with the last dish. Lauren handed Leo fork and knife and said, "Let's have lunch."

"Alright." Leo was a little depressed without getting a reply from Lauren. However, when he saw so much delicious food, he immediately became happy again.

Though he was only four years old, he could take care of himself well.

Today's dishes were very appetizing, so Lauren had a lot until her lips turned red. Leo was also very happy, and while eating, he watched carefully Lauren eating spicy food.

"Dad said that Mom likes to eat spicy food!" Leo thought happily.

After lunch, Daphne brought a glass of coconut milk, saying that it was for Lauren.

After taking a sip of it, Lauren was surprised. There was familiar medicinal fragrance in it.

Lauren could taste well and when she was a child, whatever Grandpa Bach made, she could distinguish the medicinal properties as long as she tasted a little. So after drinking the coconut milk, she could taste every kind of medicinal herbs.

Lauren pinched her fingers but didn't change her expression.

"How could it be so coincidental?" She thought.

Chapter 52

Chapter 52

On the way back, Lauren had been absent-minded.

Kelly, who was driving, glanced at Lauren quietly through the rear view mirror and thought, "Lauren looks so great even if she was just thinking."

Kelly couldn't help but peek repeatedly, and when she peeked for the third time, Lauren turned her head and said to Kelly. "Keep focused."

"I am sorry." Kelly straightened.

Lauren left Leo at about four o'clock in the afternoon and because his house was far from Lauren's college, it would take Lauren a long time to arrive. She leaned back, lowered her head, and looked at the jade that Leo gave her.

She was familiar with this jade in the shape of cat's paw. But strangely, no matter how hard she tries, she couldn't remember where she saw this jade. She also looked at the name KITTY on the blue bead.

She once had a cat when she was a child, and its name was Kitty. Lauren closed her eyes and pondered that the Frank family seemed to have a lot to do with her, but she couldn't remember anything.

After thinking for a while, she had a headache again so she quickly pressed her temples and stopped thinking.

Noticing Lauren's expression, Kelly took a glance at her. But just at this moment, she hit a Land Rover in front of her. Fortunately both cars' speed was not fast, and they did not cause major damage.

As soon as Kelly stepped on the brakes, she got out of the car to deal with this accident.

"Hey, do you know how to drive? Where are your eyes?" Out of the car in front of Kelly, a beautiful woman with big breasts came with a strong attitude.

Kelly immediately calmed down. Though she was young, but since she could be selected as Lauren's assistant among so many candidates, it showed she was sophisticated enough to help Lauren deal with things.

After getting out of the car, Kelly closed the door so as not to disturb Lauren. Then, she said to the woman, "It was your fault. Don't you know that?" It was not Kelly's fault but because the other car forcibly changed lanes.

The woman patted her car and said, "See? You rear-ended me!"

"Rear-end?" Kelly was amused. "You are talking nonsense."

"You are talking nonsense? It was your fault," the woman took a look at Kelly, and then at the Bentley behind her. That was an expensive car, but she was not wearing any big brands so the woman believed that Kelly was not the car owner and guessed Kelly was just a mistress of the car owner.

Chapter 53

Chapter 53

Thinking of this, the woman looked at Kelly with scorn. She was impatient to talk to Kelly and took out her phone, ready to find someone to deal with this.

As soon as she took out her phone, another woman came down from the Land Rover and stopped her,

"Dana, let's go." Dana turned her head and frowned. "I can deal with this."

Kelly was standing in the middle of the two cars, taking a picture with her phone as evidence. When she saw the woman who got out of the car, Kelly was surprised and stared at the woman for a long time, asking. "Are you Sally Bennett?"

"Do you know me?" Sally was a little surprised.

In order to be a competent assistant, Kelly made all the preparations. She got all the information about everyone in the Bennett family, and knew everything well. She had seen Sally's photos but never saw her in person, so Kelly was not very sure.

But Kelly now was sure that the woman in front of her was Sally Bennett. Kelly subconsciously looked at Lauren. At this moment, Lauren opened the car window. Sally saw Lauren sitting in the back seat.

"Lauren?" Sally was also very surprised.

Kelly ran to Lauren and introduced herself to Sally. "My name is Kelly and I am Miss. Bennett's assistant." Hearing this. Sally took a glance at Kelly and then at the Bentley. She smiled and said, "I didn't expect to meet you here!"

Then, Sally pulled Dana and said to Lauren, "It's our fault and we are so sorry about that. I'll ask someone to repair your car."

Lauren was still having a headache so she didn't want to talk with Sally anymore. Lauren nodded and then asked Kelly to leave.

"We are leaving, Miss. Bennett," Kelly said to Sally. After this, the car window slowly closed.

When Dana and Sally returned to the car, the round-faced woman sitting in the co-pilot looked excited and said, "She is your sister? Good-looking but a little proud, I think."

Dana sneered coldly and said, "I guess it was because she dared not to meet Sally face to face."

The round-faced woman nodded and said, "You are right. Since she had been lost for eighteen years, she couldn't be compared with Sally at all."

Then she turned to Sally who sat in the back seat, "Do you see that Bentley? A few days ago, she was still a poor student and today she drives a Bentley... But this car isn't a new car. Why do your family get a second-hand car for her?"

Hearing this, Sally took a look at Lauren's Bentley and frowned, "Mom bought her a Ferrari."

"How much is it?"

"About 2000,000 dollars."

"But her Bentley was about 5000,000 dollars."

"Such a greedy woman," Dana sneered.

His Secret Millionaire's Wife

Chapter 54

Chapter 54

When the three of them were talking, a girl sitting in the back seat remained silent, as if she was invisible. The other three used to this because she didn't like to talk

But when Dana called Lauren a greedy woman, the girl raised her head. She frowned and seemed that she became impatient and was not happy about what Dana said. "Look at the license plate. Her index finger arched and knocked twice on the window, and then she said, "This is Herman Shaw's car."

Immediately the car turned silent.

“Lisa Walter, are you sure about this?” Dana asked Lisa in shock, “How could it be Herman Shaw’s car?”

Lisa was already impatient. Though her face had no expression, her voice was very cold, “You can check it yourself. That license plate obviously showed that Herman was the owner and you only cared about sneering at Lauren.”

If it weren’t for the fact that they grew up together and had a good relationship, Lisa didn’t want to stay with them at all. They were all in their 20s but they still behaved like children. Though they can’t help with their family business, at least they should know where the bottom line was. How could they not recognize Herman’s car? Lisa thought.

Herman Shaw, not a local of this city, was a very special person. He was not a famous business leader, and only a professional manager, working at MY company. But no one afforded to offend him because he had a very powerful family behind him.

He was very low-key so few people knew about his identity, but most top families were very well-informed and as soon as Herman arrived in this city, they all knew it. They would tell the juniors in the family not to offend him.

Although Herman did make his identity public in this city and was extremely low-key, no one would forget how powerful his family was.

Herman was different from the rest of the Shaw family, most of which were engaged in politics, education, industry and commerce, and so on. It was said that Herman's father might be the next President.

When Herman was a child, he followed the path designed by his family. Herman did everything that his family expected him to do. He studied extremely hard and then was admitted to a prestigious university.

People thought he was the one who would go into politics. His future was bright ahead of him.

Unfortunately, when he was 22 years old, he had a serious car accident, which destroyed his life. He couldn't walk since then! Lisa didn't know more details about that accident but she heard that after Herman was paralyzed for half a year, the Shaw family found a hermit doctor and healed his leg.

Chapter 55

Chapter 55

Though Herman could stand up and walk, because of the effect of previous car accident, he didn't walk like a normal person. It was not obvious when he walked slowly, but once he walked faster or ran, he would limp.

After Herman could stand up, he did not follow the path planned for him by his family but entered the business circle. The Shaw family didn't force Herman to do anything, hoping that he could live freely. Herman's father still has decades to go in politics, so he could still support his family.

Knowing the car where Lauren was sitting was Herman's, Dana and others dare not say anything about the car. There were many things that money could not buy.

The round-faced girl was called Theresa Hood and she knew many luxury brands, Her family was not as powerful as others, but she had a good personality, so she often hung out with other girls. Although Theresa did not dare to talk about Herman's car, her face turned gloomy when thinking of Lauren.

She glanced back at Sally and said with malice, "Sally, I didn't expect your sister Lauren could drive Herman's car. What's her relationship with Herman? His mistress?"

After Theresa's family got rich, many women approached her father and some of them everr offended her mother. Theresa thought that Lauren might be Herman's mistress, and she hated her even more.

"You were saying that Lauren was Herman's mistress?" Dana, who was driving, couldn't believe it and continued, "Did you say that she studied at a top university?" Dana's family even praised Lauren for this.

"So what? Education does not show her character," Theresa looked down at her newly made nail art and said, "Her college is great but that doesn't mean she is great. I admit that she is pretty but she is just a poor student. Why would Herman let her drive his car? There must be something between them."

Lisa, at this moment, said, "Herman Shaw is not married yet."

Theresa glanced back at Sally and they said at the same time, "Connected by marriage!"

"Lucky girl," Theresa's eyes widened. Since now Lauren came back to the Bennett family, there would be no obstacles to her marriage with Herman. Hearing this, even Dana admired Lauren. The Bennett family would not have a problem with their marriage. What a lucky lady!

Chapter 56

Chapter 56

“She is so lucky.” Theresa shook her head and sighed. And soon she turned around to talk to Sally.

“Sally would deliberately reveal her relationship to the Bennett family?”

Sally raised her head and looked at Theresa with confusion.

Seeing this, Theresa was more worried about Sally and said. “You are so pure. Be careful with your sister. I don’t believe she is kind person.”

Sally had always been a knowledgeable and well-known lady in front of everyone but she rarely made the judgement and never talked about her jealousy of others. Most of the time she was a quiet and elegant lady of the Bennett family. But in fact, she was the backbone of her group and many decisions were made by her.

She rarely talked, but her words were organized and impressive. Therefore, she got along with almost everyone.

Theresa was worried about Sally and said, “I think you’d better marry early, otherwise, Lauren would definitely bully you in the Bennett family.” Dana nodded and agreed too. They thought Sally was too kind.

Lisa did not agree with them and she put down her phone, saying: “You guys underestimate Sally. Sally will not take the initiative to harm people, but she would also not allow people to bully her. You don't have to worry about Sally. I think she is smarter than Lauren. Lauren had just returned to the Bennett family and there was not much she could do to harm Sally"

Hearing this, Theresa nodded and said, "I agree with you but I am still worried about Sally because she is so soft-hearted. I am afraid that she would not fight back after Lauren bullies her. Lauren is just a barbaric person and knows nothing about decency

"Let's not talk about that at this moment," Theresa looked at Sally and said, "I guess Lauren will definitely let the Bennett family know her relationship with Herman. Then the Bennett family might put pressure on Herman and ask him to marry Lauren

Dana nodded and she agreed with Theresa that Lauren was a sophisticated woman.

Theresa continued, "Since she can be admitted to a top university and climb the social ladder, it shows that she is not a fool. She definitely knows how to seek benefits for herself.

Although she is a member of the Bennett family, she just came back. She had been missing for 18 years and it is not possible that she had a deep relationship with the Bennett family. She might now use the Bennett family's power to approach

Herman."

Theresa felt that Lauren was very scheming and she knew how to plan for herself.

Sally didn't agree with what Theresa said. She didn't think Lauren was Herman's mistress. But after all,

Herman was a great one and no woman wanted to miss him.

"How about making a bet?" Theresa looked at Dana.

Dana raised her head and asked, "About what?"

"I guess after Lauren arrives today, she would immediately tell her relationship with Herman to the Bennett family." Ther quite sure about that.

Chapter 57

Chapter 57

Theresa thought, "Lauren was even driving Herman's car. She mist want to tell the Bennett family about her relationship with

Herman."

Dana sneered, "I think you overhear this. I don't think Herman would like her. Maybe she is not Herman's mistress." After saying that, Dana looked ahead and drove the car

The other three girls in the car looked at each other and couldn't believe this. In the end, Theresa asked Diana, "Do you like

Herman?"

Dana immediately admitted, "Yes, I like him. We were both single and there is nothing wrong with that."

"But... "Theresa said in disbelief, "he has a mistress."

Dana sneered when she heard this, "This is man. I can pretend to know nothing about this."

"You are right." Theresa leaned back and said, "my father has a young mistress too. This is man."

Lisa glanced at Dana and said, "However, Lauren is different. She is not a normal person but the eldest lady of the Bennett famil "Lauren?" Dana looked disdainful and said, "She didn't compare with me at all." Dana didn't say this because she looked down on Lauren. That's because it was the truth for her.

After all, Dana was raised in a rich family, not like Lauren, who had been missing for eight years. The three other girls agreed with Dana.

They never saw Lauren wearing any luxury brand. To be Herman's wife, they didn't think Lauren was qualified. The ladies of the pig families had been trained to behave properly since they were little but Lauren was not.

"Since Dana likes Herman, let's not go out to play today but go to the Bennett family," Theresa said,

"We have to stop Lauren from ending her relationship with Herman to the Bennett family."

Dana said, "I don't care." She never treated Lauren as an opponent at all and she didn't believe Herman would like Lauren. "I agree with Theresa," Lisa said.

Sally looked at Lisa in surprise because Lisa seldom got involved in their plan.

Lisa smiled and said, "Since the matter can be resolved peacefully, then why not seize this opportunity to do it? We shouldn't underestimate the enemy, and you should take the initiative."

"That's it!" Theresa applauded and then said to Dana, "Go, let's go to Bennett's house."

They had to hurry up and arrive before Lauren.

Chapter 58

Chapter 58

When they arrived in Bennett's family, the maids were very busy. Dana was a little impatient, and the said to Sal leave." Sally nodded and ordered the maids to leave.

Theresa looked around and asked, "What about your family? Where have they gone?"

Sally didn't know and she raised her head to look at the housekeeper

Sally used them

Leithame

The housekeeper soon said. "Mr. Bennett senior went fishing. Mr. Bennett and Mrs. Bennett went to a party Lauren and jeffery did not live here recently, as for Darren..."

The housekeeper shook his head and continued, "I don't know where he went."

"Sally" Hearing this. Theresa gossiped. "Is Darren really going abroad in the second half of the year?"

Sally nodded, "It's true. He will leave after this semester."

Theresa sighed twice and said in surprise, "I thought it was just a rumor. Didn't he say something or refuse to leave? Although Theresa and the other girls had a good relationship with Sally, they were quite afraid of Darren, who seemed to become angry anytime and anywhere. They didn't know what word would irritate him. Lisa was now a little curious about Darren Speaking of Darren, Sally also felt strange. Since he ran out of the house that day, he didn't return.

They were worried about Darren but they were not afraid that he would have no place to live. Mrs.

Bennett thought he was in a bad mood and did not want to go home, so she sent a maid to take care of him.

Sally frowned and said, "It was useless for him to say no this time. He didn't come back home these days."

"Probably he was angry," Theresa guessed.

Sally did not speak and she agreed with Theresa.

They sat in the living room, chatting while eating fruit. Theresa even felt tired but Lauren didn't come back. Then she turned hi

yes to Lisa and asked, "What time is it?"

"Why hasn't Lauren come yet?" Theresa thought.

Lisa shook her phone and said, "It's almost six o'clock."

"It's too late!" Theresa's eyes widened and she rubbed her stomach, saying, "It is almost time for dinner. I feel so angry now The housekeeper said immediately, "Dinner is ready. You can go to the dining hall."

Sally stood up and said, "Let's go to have dinner." Then they went to the dining hall, and Theresa said,

"Will she come back?" Sally didn't care at all whether Lauren came back. It was none of her business if Lauren said that she liked Herman, after all, ally loved Sandy. But Sally knew that Dana liked Herman.

So Sally raised her head and looked at Dana, wondering what Dana was thinking.

Dana was already impatient and said angrily, "Let the housekeeper call and ask. Will she come back or not?"

"Do you want me to call Lauren?" the butler overheard their conversation.

Sally smiled at the housekeeper and explained, "We met Lauren on the way so I thought she would go home tonight." The housekeeper nodded, and then asked, "So do I need to give her a call?"

"I'll call her," Sally took out her phone and called Lauren.

Lauren was nestled on the sofa reading. She had a terrible headache today so she didn't want to work.

There were a few call om the laboratory, but she didn't want to pick them up. She just wanted to nest on the sofa alone. The book she was reading wa ne with the Wind.

us years, she would often read it, but after she went to college, she had less time to read.

Chapter 59

Chapter 59

Lauren picked up the phone.

Listening to the voice on the other side of the phone, Sally was a little surprised and then she asked

Dana asking "Will you come back today?"

"I didn't come back either yesterday," Lauren said.

It meant that Lauren was asking Sally not to beat around the bush

Sally explained, "I want to ask someone to repair your car as soon as possible."

Lauren closed her eyes, and her tone was careless, "Kelly has already had it repaired, and she will send the bill to you later Sally had thought Lauren might use this opportunity to let everyone know about her relationship with Herman but surprisingly she didn't.

After a moment of silence, Sally said, "Your car looks good. Even if it is repaired, it may not be as good as before. If you need to assess the damage, you can tell me."

Lauren nodded and said, "Well, Kelly will contact you later." After speaking, Lauren hung up the phone.

"Did she just hang up the phone?" Theresa's eyes widened and so did the other two girls.

Dana stared at the phone and didn't speak for a long time.

Lisa tilted her head and thought about it, and then she suddenly burst out laughing.

Theresa looked at her and asked, "What are you laughing at?"

"I laugh at you," Lisa said, "You guys are immersed in making up a story while Lauren didn't take it seriously at all Hearing this. Theresa's face was a little red because of embarrassment. She couldn't believe that Lauren would be so calm. It such a great opportunity for her but she didn't seize it!

Sally put down her phone, raised her eyes to look at the housekeeper, and signaled him to take the maids to leave. So there only four of them left in the dining hall. Sally said, "We got it wrong. Lauren has nothing to do with Herman."

"Then why did she drive Herman's car?" Theresa was puzzled.

"Could it be..." Dana turned to Lisa.

"Don't look at me," Lisa knew what Dana wanted to say and her voice was affirmative, "That was

Herman's car and I am pr sure about this."

"Could it be that she was waiting for Herman to make their relationship public," Theresa said.

Dana held her phone, without saying anything. Lisa was silent too,

In the end, it was Sally who concluded the matter, "She should know Herman, but they are not close to each other." After this, Dana looked at Sally.

Sally explained, "The Bennett family once investigated her in order to find her and I saw her information in my mother's "Go ahead," Theresa urged.

Sally thought for a while and said, "Her background is very clean. She was adopted by an old doctor called Mr. Bach and always the top student in school. Then she was admitted to a top university with excellent grades and has been in the laborat since. If she and Herman are very close, Jeffery will know that. So I guess she knows Herman but is not very close to him.”

Chapter 60

Chapter 60

“So far, there is nothing wrong with Lauren but this doesn’t mean anything.” Theresa thought and raised her eyebrows. She ce believed that if a person was powerful enough, he or she could know everything in the world but that was not true

Theresa believed that the investigation done by Jeffery was not thorough and there must be something that they didn’t know about Lauren. So Theresa didn’t believe what Sally said and Dana and Lisa didn’t believe either. They didn’t believe that Lauren was a simple woman.

Since Lauren sat in a man’s luxury car, there must be a reason. So Theresa came up with an idea,

“Maybe we can ask a private detect to keep an eye on Lauren and Herman.”

Lisa immediately glared at Theresa and said, “Are you crazy? If Herman knows...”

Theresa’s face turned pale, knowing she went too far so she quickly said, “I am just kidding.”

Dana frowned and said, “If Lauren really has a relationship with Herman, we will know.”

Lisa, Dana, and Theresa stayed until after seven o’clock in the evening. Sally did not leave with them

but went back to her room to rest.

Before Lauren came back to the Bennett family, she was a little wary of her but after these days, Sally had already lost her defense. Lauren was completely different from what Sally imagined. She was super cool and calm as if she cared about nothing.

Even though the Bennett family was one of the most powerful families, Lauren still decided to move out and did not show up for more than half a month, as if she had nothing to do with the Bennett family.

These days, Sally even sometimes forgot Lauren.

Jeffery rarely returned home, but it was because he had a lot of work to do so Sally could often hear his name at home. Lauren was different. She had nothing to do with the Bennett family. She didn't stay in the Bennett family and she didn't want work at Bennett's company. Even the shares of the company that Grandpa gave her were entrusted to Jeffery.

Sally was a little confused. Didn't Lauren care about money at all? Holding the pillow on the bed, Sally's mind was a mess and she really couldn't think of any answer, so she took her phone and called her mother Mona.

Deep down in her heart, Sally looked down on Mona, feeling that she was simple-minded and foolhardy, but Sally admitted that Mona had great intuition. Although Mona was not smart, she had good instincts. The reason why Mona could stay with Mr. Bennett for so many years was that she knew what to do in the critical moment.
