Chapter 71

Chapter 71

“Don’t worry, I won’t go too far. I will just warn her not to be so greedy.” Sandy said in a very cold voice.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps came, which startled Lauren and Sandy who were behind the tree. They turned their heads and saw Kelly running to Lauren who said, “Lauren, why didn’t you go into the house yet?”

pale.

It turned out to be Lauren! Sally and Sandy widened their eyes. Did she hear their conversation?

Sally’s face immediately turned Sandy grabbed Sally’s trembling hand and comforted her silently. Even though Lauren heard their conversation, what she can do? There was nothing wrong to call her greedy. Sandy walked from behind the tree, intending to argue with Lauren.

Dressed in a casual suit, Sandy walked out and blocked Lauren’s way.

“Did you hear our conversation?” Sandy said with his hands in his pocket. He raised his chin and his expression was arrogant. He was ready to argue with Lauren and he would take responsibility if Lauren blamed Sally.

Lauren raised her eyes and glanced at him. She just passed by him and walked toward the house.

Lauren was rather calm as if she didn’t hear anything. She ignored Sandy completely.

Sandy was surprised! No one had ever neglected him like her. He walked quickly and blocked in front of Lauren.

“Why didn’t you say anything?”

Lauren was a little confused and she looked a little innocent. “What should I say?” Lauren asked.

Suddenly, Sandy didn’t know what to say. He had always been the center of his social life and the best among his peers. It was the first time that he didn’t know what to say in front of a woman. However, he quickly restarted the topic. “Did you hear my conversation with Sally?”

Lauren thought for a while and said, “If you mean what you and Sally said behind the tree 3 minutes ago, then I did hear it Hearing this, Sandy sneered, “I didn’t expect that you have a hobby of eavesdropping on others.”

Lauren raised her eyebrows as if she was saying, “So what?”

Again, Sandy didn’t know what to say. He deliberately wanted to anger Lauren and then argue with her.

But he didn’t expect Lauren would act like this. She was not a normal person.
