Chapter 111: Thrashing Hun Chen!

swish As Zhao Tian was about to attack again, he felt several people approaching the scene. A frown appeared on his face as he sensed many cultivators who were in Spirit Astral Stage and below.

Seems like they also felt the battle happening and came to check on it. Zhao Tian guessed that there would be people from the government within the group and for the meantime, he didn't want to pique the interest of the government or other sect people.

woosh He took a black robe from his ring and wore it, hiding his face with the hood. Hm? Heaven Stage cultivators? He turned his gaze towards the two people who were hovering in the distance.@@novelbin@@

One of them yelled in fear "Fucking Shit! It's an Emperor level threat and it is in the center of the city! This is the worst!"

But the other one had a calm face "Don't panic, that guy fighting there has already set things up. There is a barrier here and it's quite advanced than us it seems..."

"The normal people can't see the both of them fighting. We should thank him."

Both of them are from the Astral Cultivation Legion, a secret organization under the nation's government that oversees this country.

The other guy spoke again "But still, it won't hide the destruction in that building how to explain this to people."

"Don't care about that now... Call the ACL headquarters and request for an Emperor Stage cultivator or call the Lord Ombudsman! We have no other choice... see that creature healing itself."

"Is this that Lycan Syndicate's work?"

Zhao Tian had already retrieved the sword back into his ring and Hun Chen glanced around "KIKIKIKI, seems like your weak friends are here... eh? Why are you hiding your face... lacking confidence in your looks? KIKIKI" woosh Hun Chen's mocking tone dripped with arrogance as he dashed at Zhao Tian, a sly smirk on his face "Now, I am in the Emperor stage.... what can you do? You are in the 9th level of Sovereign Stage."

Hun Chen extended his hand, pointing his two fingers "I'll rip your eyes first!" His sharp claws inched closer to Zhao Tian's eyes.

Zhao Tian just turned his head dodging his claws and raised his fist as blue energy swirled in his fist swish boom his punch blasted Hun Chen away again crashing through the building and causing the top floor to explode into a shower of debris that rained down around them.

cough cough Hun Chen's body convulsed with violent coughs, blood spattering from his lips as his eyes widened with disbelief, he didn't expect Zhao Tian would counterattack. "I am sure he is in Sovereign stage... but still...urgh!" he mumbled through gritted teeth, the taste of blood still lingering in his mouth.

woosh Zhao Tian didn't stop and dashed toward Hun Chen as he grabbed his face and hurled him on the floor with a powerful blast. boom boom boom "Aaarghhhh!" Zhao Tian trashed his face as he crashed through multiple floors of the building leaving a trail of destruction in his wake.

tremble The whole building began to shake as Zhao Tian plummeted Hun Chen across the floors causing utter devastation, and shaking the foundation of the building.

The cultivators who were watching were scared shitless seeing the devastation of the huge company building as they are witnessing the fight between high cultivators for the first time.

The two men from ACL who were floating had a frown on their face "It would be good if he could reduce the destruction, so we could explain this to the public somehow..."

"Well, it can't be helped... members like these related to the Lycan Syndicate are really annoying as hell. And this creature seems different from the regular ones from that group."

"And what happened? Did you contact them?"

"Lord Ombudsman is on his way!"

booom Hun Chen's body crashed on the floor his spine broke as blood splattered from his body and his jaw disheveled as he lay on the floor utterly helpless.

shish But his body began to regenerate again. Seeing this Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes 'Ripped his heart, and blasted his brain... still not dead. hmm...'

"Maybe I should try using that." He flicked his finger and the temperature around the building went below zero. thriish The cultivators who were standing above the nearby buildings felt the chill emanating in the air. What is this?

Some people in the building who were taking videos of the explosions happening were also startled feeling the sudden coolness in the air.

The two men from the ACL raised an eyebrow as they saw a huge spear-like structure made of ice materializing in the air in front of them.

HUH? Their pupils dilated in shock "I-Is he going to use that attack right here? In the city?" one of them muttered looking at the 150m ice spear in the sky.

"What the hell is he thinking? It would obliterate the other buildings nearby!!!" swish They floated away in fear seeing that gigantic spear.

The cultivators gasped in horror as they watched the massive spear soar through the air. "Fuck! Fuck!" The other cultivators in the nearby building also quickly jumped away from there as they didn't want to get In the midst of such an attack.

"The spear is even bigger than that building."

Meanwhile, the normal people were confused as they couldn't see the attack and they could only see the building exploding itself.

"Hmm... Not this big!" Zhao Tian muttered and the ice spear quickly shrunk in size reaching 20 meters.

"Haa..." The men from ACL breathed a collective sigh of relief as they watched the spear gradually decrease in size. "Phew! He scared me for a second there."

The other cultivators also stopped in their tracks looking at this and again hopped over the building wanting to know the result of the battle.

Hun Chen's body gradually recovered from his injuries, and as he gathered enough strength to lift his head, he saw the gigantic ice spear in the air. What's that?

Zhao Tian waved his hand down and swish BOOMMM Again an ear-piercing explosion echoed through the surroundings, rippling shockwaves across the air startling the people.

"ARGHHHHHH!!!" Amidst the chaos, Zhao Tian heard Hun Chen's blood-curdling scream of pain. Even though he is immortal, he should still feel the pain after all.

thrish As the building began to freeze, Zhao Tian turned the ice to water as splashes of water appeared on the building turning it quite wet.

""cough* "Arghhhhhh~!" Amidst the destruction, Hun Chen's painful screams were echoing through the building his body almost blasted into pieces away from that attack. But he somehow survived.

"Haa! Haa!" Hun Chen took in deep breaths, his body pulsating as the energy within him again began its healing process. thud Kicking away some debris, he stood up shaking his head in a slight dizziness.

clank Appearing in front of him, Zhao Tian gave a kick at his face, with the intention of keeping Hun Chen's body in a state of healing.

boom Zhao Tian threw Hun Chens across the building, breaking the walls and floors in a haphazard way... the building kept trembling under his constant attack.

boom Hun Chen was blasted across the pillars causing the entire building to tremble in response to the immense impact, he didn't get a chance to even attack as Zhao Tian continued thrashing him across the building.

"Urgh!" Hun Chen clenched his teeth tightly, enduring the relentless onslaught that left his entire body throbbing with pain. "My whole body hurts... you damn bastard... Argh!" he muttered under his breath, slowly standing up.

swish Zhao Tian appeared in front of Hun Chen, a smile on his lips "Seems like you are at your end."

Hu Chen chuckled as he wiped the blood from his lips, a sly smile playing on his face "KIKIKIKI, at my end? Sure... you keep attacking me, but I am immortal I will- cough"

His words suddenly stopped as Hun Chen's eyes trembled in utter shock "ARGHHHHHHHHH! What is this??" He let out a loud cry of agony, feeling a sharp pain coursing through his body and his legs gave up, kneeling on the floor thud.

"AWOOOOOOO!" Hun Chen howled looking at the sky. "W-What?" Hun Chen turned to look at his hand and saw that it was skinny now.

"KRAARGHHH!" Every muscle in his body tensed and convulsed as he experienced the draining sensation, as his life force got sucked away, leaving him weakened.

Zhao Tian frowned 'So that tremendous burst in strength and the regenerative powers actually originated from his life energy?'

Hun Chen's eyes shook in fear as he saw his body slowly getting skinnier. "No, NO!! THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING! I AM IMMORTAL!!! NO!!!!!!!" he cried out in desperation as his body continued to wither away until he collapsed to the ground.

"..rgh!" Hun Chen clutched his heart in pain and his pupils shrunk, the blood and flesh in his body completely drained.

Looking at the dry corpse a sigh left his lips. In that moment, he sensed a strong presence and couldn't help but smile "She is quite late!"

Chapter 112: The Aftermath!

The two men from the ACL were startled looking at the scene below "He killed that creature by beating the shit out of him..."

"Hm, it's great... now the situation is cleared."

The other cultivators also sensed the battle was completed and were still in awe of the power of the black robes cultivator.

swoosh Zhao Tian leaped out from the almost collapsed building floating in the air and turned his head to look at the wreckages.

As Zhao Tian appeared the two men from the ACL approached him nervously. One of them spoke "Um, thank you for clearing the threat."

gik Seeing his blue eyes amidst the shadow of his hood, one guy flinched and hid behind the other one in fear "H-He is scary..." he muttered in a low voice.

Zhao Tian didn't care about them and raised his head above and dashed toward the air. swoosh

The men smiled wryly seeing this "Of course, he doesn't give a fuck to us... we are just cannon fodder for powerful cultivators like him."

Zhao Tian flew above near the clouds "Hm... you are quite late." he spoke looking at the woman floating in front of him as he lowered his hood.

Cai Luo had a deep frown on her face "Are you the one who caused commotion in the Ancient Ruins recently discovered?"

Huh? Zhao Tian squinted his eyes "How do you know that?" Cai Luo glanced at his robe "I heard that intruder had black robes and a pair of gleaming blue eyes."

woosh Zhao Tian retracted the robe in his storage ring "Hm... you also got that information huh." Cai Luo gave a nod looking at his storage ring "Yeah, I heard about the guy who easily broke the barrier and entered before the top sects."

Then her gaze fell on the destroyed building below, a look of curiosity in her eyes "How did you kill that guy from Lycan Syndicate?"

"Lycan Syndicate? Is that an organization?" Zhao Tian asked with a frown and Cai Luo raised an eyebrow "You are a cultivator at the Sovereign stage, equal to the Empror stage and you don't know about the Lycan Syndicate organization?"

Zhao Tian shook his head "No, care to explain?" With a small sigh, Cai Luo spoke "It is an organization from the Western nations under a King and multi-trillionaire called Miles Williams."

Zhao Tian frowned "Then Zhenzhu is not the only organization on earth with cultivators, there are many others?"

Cai Luo shook her head helplessly "You really don't know anything? Haa! Holy Land Zhenzhu is the strongest organization in the world and it is also situated in a place where Astral energy is dense. It more likely belongs to the Eastern nations."

"But there are still many organizations out there in different powerful nations and one of them is this Lycan Syndicate Organization."

"And the one you killed looks different from the ones I once encountered in the past."

Zhao Tian asked intrigued "Different from others?"

Cai Luo gave a slight nod "I remember those creatures having white fur and regeneration abilities. They didn't suddenly raise in cultivation like this one did and this one withered away drained from life energy, right?"

"You were watching from the start?" Hearing this, Cai Luo giggled softly "Of course I am in this city, if anything I came only after you and watched your fight from the sidelines."

"I revealed my presence, so you would come and talk with me."

Zhao Tian's lips twitched "I will beat you after getting stronger than you."

"Haha!" Cai Luo laughed hearing his words "It will take years for you to reach Monarch Astral Stage and by that time, I will be even stronger than you."

'I'll surely beat your ass' Zhao Tian just smiled faintly "Well, keeping that aside tell me about this Lycan Syndicate."

Cai Luo again glanced at the wreckage "Lycan Syndicate is a group of non-humans who artificially became half beasts after experimenting the astral beasts and the beast stones."

"They mainly use Fenrisulfr wolf's abilities for regeneration power and strength. You can't even consider them cultivators and gauge their powers."

Zhao Tian narrowed his gaze "The government is okay with them doing experiments like these?"

Cai Luo just shrugged "Our nation's government can't do anything about this and their nation's government is also on their side... as the Organization leader is a King there."

"And the world government is also silent because they are not harming normal people and even congratulated them saying that they found a new way to increase their powers even without cultivation."

Zhao Tian spoke, "I don't think our nation's government would be silent this time after this ruckus caused by one of them."

Cai Luo shook her head gently "No, from what I can guess... the one who you killed is from this nation, the serum is from that organization... so I can't be sure if our nation would take action."

"Hm." Zhao Tian mused pondering, it seems there are still many things he doesn't about this world and organizations.

At this time, Cai Luo spoke "If you don't want to catch the attention of the government... you should probably leave right now. An old man is coming this way."

"Ombudsman?" Zhao Tian guessed and Cai Luo gave a nod "Yeah..."

Zhao Tian spoke looking at the building "Well, now he owes me a one for this." He turned his gaze to the woman "And Miss Cai, you still owe me a kiss."

Cai Luo's eyebrow twitched "I was just teasing you at that time." Zhao Tian chuckled "I'll surely get my kiss one day." swoosh

"This guy!" Cai Luo muttered in frustration and at this time, she felt a presence approaching from behind. woosh An old man appeared there with a deep frown on his face "Who are you?" a cold voice escaped his lips.

"Huh? You want me to break your old bones once again?" Cai Luo spoke turning her head. The old man's body shivered in fear feeling the familiar cold eyes "Y-You... what are you doing here?"

Cai Luo squinted her eyes "Why? can't I be here?" The old man hurriedly shook his head "No, you can be wherever you want to be... who am I to ask."

The old man glanced at the destruction below and frowned "What happened here?" Huh? But at this time he felt similar astral energy and he was quite confused.

"This fluctuation of energy, I have sensed it before... it is that guy who cleared the Assassination headquarters."

Cai Luo raised an eyebrow 'Zhao Tian is the one who cleared that Blood Blade Organization?'

The old man spoke "But I was sure it was a fire elemental, but why am I feeling Ice elemental?" Cai Luo who heard this frowned 'Hm, two elements...'

She spoke, "Well anyway, seems like the Lycan Syndicate is doing some things behind the scenes, warn them."

The old man gave a nod "Ok!" woosh And with that Cai Luo disappeared from there. The old man sighed "What a terrific woman!"

As he floated near the building he saw some people from the ACL were already there "Hm? The one who helped has placed a barrier here... Hoh, the barrier is even better than us. Interesting!"

Seeing the Ombudsman, three people quickly flew near him and bowed "Lord Ombudsman!"

The old man gave a nod "Status?"

"The cultivator has cleared the Emperor level threat and it seems like a guy from Lycan Syndicate."

Lord Ombudsman spoke, "We can talk about that later, about normal people?"

"None of them died, there are some injuries because of the debris and dust is still settling. I have already contacted the higher-ups and requested no one from the media should come here at this moment."

After a few hours~

"Haha!" Two middle aged men who were levitating in the sky laughed seeing the police cars and helicopters around one of the largest companies in the city.

"As our Prince Orlando's idea, to do this in a chaotic way was more interesting..."

"Yeah, we knew that Hun Chen was aiming for the new serum we created and we lured him...Haha, he really became our scapegoat."

"But still, it is a disappointment that our new serum didn't work... it sapped away the life energy, huh? we have to report this back to our base."

"Let's go and meet our Prince first!"@@novelbin@@

As they were about to depart, feen they suddenly felt a strong pressure rendering them immobile and their eyes shook in horror. Shit!

"You got a nerve to meddle inside my country!" The ombudsman appeared in front of them.

Recognizing him, their bodies shook in fear "This nation's Ombudsman?"

One of them frowned and spoke in a calm voice keeping his fear in his heart "You know what will happen if you tried to do something to us!"

The old man narrowed his eyebrows "Threatening me? Your Prince is in this country right now... he is technically in my palm, I can crush him whenever I want."

"You dare! And then you will see your country being erased from the world map!" The man erupted back in anger hearing the old man saying that he would kill their prince.

The oldman was displeased in his heart but what was said is true. If a fight really erupted it would be dangerous for their country if the Zhenzhu didn't help their nation.

The old man spoke "This is the final warning for your group. Ask your Prince to stay quiet if he wants to leave this country alive." swoosh

As he disappeared, the pressure was also lifted "How dare this oldman threaten us??"

"Clam down, let's report back to the Prince what happened here."

swoosh Zhao Tian appeared inside his artifact and saw Fei Lingxi sleeping on the couch while Fei Ziyu was sitting beside her.

Seeing Zhao Tian, fei Ziyu stood up "Master!"

tap tap "Tian!" At this time, Xia Shenyi rushed there with a smile on her face "I found what's in the rune!"

Chapter 113: A lil talk with Shenyi!

Sitting in the hall, Zhao Tian looked at the rune in his hand and then glanced at Xia Shenyi who was sitting behind him with a wry smile "A rune for storage ring!"

All that build-up just for a storage ring? A sigh escaped Xia Shenyi's lips as she leaned back on the couch "Haah! Who would have thought it was a rune for a storage ring... I expected something interesting."

Zhao Tian frowned, quite intrigued by this storage ring "So if I place this rune on a ring, it would become a storage ring?"

Xia Shenyi nodded her head "Yeah, but you need proficiency and quite knowledge in this thing called 'space' to truly create this storage ring... I told you, even among high stars it is a great secret and only some people are capable of this."

Zhao Tian turned his eyes to the next woman sitting beside him "Yixian, do you know anything about this?" he asked because he found Shi Yixian in the same Ancient Ruins as these runes.

Shi Yixian shook her head "I don't know, My Liege!" Zhao Tian frowned as he remembered Ling Xin saying that there was a cultivator in the past who created storage rings and he suddenly disappeared.

'Yixian's tomb also had no doors to enter or exit and the place looked quite different from the Ancient ruin. So the Ancient ruin was actually built by a cultivator above Yixian's tomb?'

Xia Shenyi raised her head and leaned on Zhao Tian "What are you gonna do? Tian." Zhao Tian spoke, "Just gonna learn some rune language and use this rune."

"Hm? You are gonna create storage rings?" Zhao Tian nodded his head "I am using Space ripple steps, so I know the gist of this space energy and I can also create storage rings for Ying'er and Miya!"

His eyebrows frowned in contemplation "And if I could grasp this space energy, I can do even greater things."

Xia Shenyi gave a slight nod "But, it is not easy to learn runes... even I don't know that proficiently. I searched for similar sentences in the previous books for translating the runes. So, it would be very hard."

Zhao Tian shook his head and stood up "It's just a language right? I can learn it." he headed to the warehouse and Xia Shenyi followed him there.

Shi Yixian took a glimpse at Fei Lingxi and Fei Ziyu who were standing behind the couch and left the place as a sword appeared in her hand.

Fei Lingxi sighed "Master didn't tell me about the blast." Fei Ziyu spoke, "Maybe we can check on mobile what happened."

"Oh, that's right, we have service inside the artifact right?"

With a smile, Fei Ziyu took her mobile and searched for trending news. Looking at the explosions in a building news, she clicked on it.

'One of the largest companies in the city, Hun Company was seen suddenly exploding and the workers left the company in panic because of the explosions.'

'Today there is also an accident that happened on the highway where two cars chased a semi-truck and stealing something from the inside,'

'And the same cars are seen entering the Hun company in a CCTV footage. The police also found traces of explosive substances inside the collapsed building.'

'It is concluded that the Hun Company's chairman may be in relation with some illegal groups and smuggled the explosives. And due to a misuse, it blasted the whole building'

'The police investigations are still going on...'

tap Zhao Tian entered the warehouse and Xia Shenyi walked beside him "This is the rune section, you can find simple runes here that are used in artifacts and there are the books I used for research."

"Hm..." Zhao Tian nodded and took a book Xia Shenyi researched with. Xia Shenyi glimpsed at the book "That's the start of the basic..."

"Well, that's what I need." Zhao Tian walked to a sofa inside the warehouse and sat on it. Xia Shenyi also walked near him and gently moved the book in his hand, sitting on his lap.

Zhao Tian just smiled and let the book go as it floated in the air, his hands gently wrapping around Xia Shenyi's waist.

With a fond smile, Xia Shenyi leaned in softly pecking his lips. As she pulled back the kiss, she brushed his soft white hair and a slight frown appeared on her face "How are you in the 10th level Tian? I am sure you just entered the 8th stage a few days ago."@@novelbin@@

Zhao Tian spoke casually "I had sex with my mom!"

H-HUH?! WHAT THE ACTUAL? "U-Uh.. u huh?" Xia Shenyi stammered in disbelief and her words shuttered seeing him being so cool about it.

"W-What did you just say? You had sex with your Mom?" Xia Shenyi's jaw dropped to the ground and Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle seeing her face "Well, technically she is my aunt... so it's okay!"

Xia Shenyi closed her eyes and took a deep breath still reeling in his shock. But then she remembered something "Tian, then your energy would have nourished her meridians and made her a cultivator, why didn't you bring her here to cultivate then?"

A sigh escaped Zhao Tian's lips "She doesn't want Ying'er to know about our relationship... and Ying'er will be here cultivating most of the time, so..."

Xia Shenyi frowned her eyebrows pondering "Tian, maybe we can help her cultivate in my room and we can also place a barrier there to hide her presence. Even without the array, the astral energy is quite rich and she can cultivate quickly."

Hm. Zhao Tian narrowed his gaze upon hearing her suggestion "En. I'll talk with her..." Xia Shenyi rolled her eyes "Then you currently have three women, huh... Ying, Miya and your Mom."

Zhao Tian pinched her waist softly "You are also my woman..." This caused Xia Shenyi to giggle as she pinched his nose "You have yet to make me completely your woman..."

"Hoh?" With a playful smile, Zhao Tian raised his hand, gently sliding it into her robe. Xia Shenyi raised an eyebrow seeing his naughty acts.

Zhao Tian lowered her robes to one side revealing one of her boobs. "Hmm..." Zhao Tian fondled her soft boob, his finger gently caressing her nipple.

"Hnngh~!" Xia Shenyi moaned faintly and Zhao Tian spoke "You see the red mark here, this means that you are already my woman. Need more proof?" he asked groping her boobs tightly.

"Haangh~!" Xia Shenyi parted her pink lips letting out a kittenish moan and a smile appeared on her face "I won't give in... you still have yet to make me your woman."

"Is that a challenge?" Zhao Tian asked and Xia Shenyi didn't back away "Of course..."

Zhao Tian smirked as his hands went down taking a nice squeeze of her ass "Then don't blame me if you can't sit for another day..."

"E-Eh?"

pakh pakh Zhao Tian rammed his cock into Xia Shenyi's ass which was already beet red with full of handprints.

Meanwhile, Xia Shenyi was burying her head in the pillow, her eyes rolled back and her tongue let out as she continued to get her pounding from behind.

The room was filled with the sounds of her moans and the thrusts that brought her closer and closer to the edge of bliss, with each thrust pushing her further into a state of euphoria.

squirt Her body trembled and she again squirted from her pussy as she gained some clearance in her eyes "T-Tian... Anghhhhh~ no more..." she has already lost count how many times has she came.

"Urgh!" Zhao Tian who is also on his edge groaned in pleasure at the tightness of her ass and splurt unloaded his hot stuff loading her ass hole with hot magma.

"Anghhh~!" Xia Shenyi moaned in ecstasy and fell on the bed her chest rising up and down feeling mentally tired "Haa! Haa!"

Zhao Tian crouched down, his breath warm against her skin as he whispered softly in her ear "Now tell me, dear..."

"I... am completely y-yours..."

Chapter 114: Some time with Xiu!

vroom Zhao Tian drove his Roles Royce to Mei Xiu's apartment and stepped out of the car. Walking close to the door, he can smell the tantalizing aroma of good food that is made inside.

creek As the door creaked open, he entered the room and was met with the sight of Mei Xiu sitting at the dinner table waiting for him as she continued scrolling through the mobile in her hand.

Hearing the door pushed open, she turned her head and seeing Zhao Tian, her eyes brightened "Tian!" she stood up and walked near him.

Zhao Tian smiled faintly seeing her excitement and walked past her sitting on the chair. H-Huh? Mei Xiu, who approached him with the thought that he would hug her was startled... Why he didn't hug me?

She moved and sat beside him on the chair "Tian, are you tired? You had a bad day?" she asked, her eyes crescenting in concern. Zhao Tian shook his head "No, I am fine..."

"Oh, ok!" Mei Xiu gave a weak nod and glanced at the dinner table "Here Tian, since you mentioned... I made the dish you like." she said with a sweet smile, opening the lid and showing the meat.

With a nod, Zhao Tian smiled "It looks good." Mei Xiu giggled softly and began to serve the food to him.@@novelbin@@

As they kept eating, Mei Xiu took a quick glimpse at Zhao Tian who was sitting beside her savoring the food. She let out a deep sigh calming her heart and mustering the courage as she took a spoonful of food in her hand.

'Give it to him. Give it to him.' She yelled in her heart. Despite her strong desire to do so, she couldn't bring herself as she was too shy to do this. All these romance things, hugs, and kisses were new to her and she was obviously embarrassed to do them.

Zhao Tian also glanced at her struggling and chuckled in his heart thinking she was cute. He also knew that she was shy in expressing herself that's why he didn't hug her when entering the room.

Because he wanted Mei Xiu to take the initiative to hug him and kiss him on her own accord. So, Zhao Tian deliberately pretended as if he didn't see her and continued his meal.

As Zhao Tian was about to take another spoonful of food, "T-Tian..." he heard a faint mumble and he turned his eyes to see, Mei Xiu shyly holding out a spoonful of food towards him, her cheeks flushed with embarrassment as she avoided making eye contact "Hurry!" she again muttered.

Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle and ate the food from her spoon. A beautiful smile spread across Mei Xiu's cheeks as she saw him eating her feeding and retracted the spoon.

She looked at the spoon in her hand and discreetly glanced at him to see if he is watching. Seeing that he is not watching her, she quickly munched on the spoon "The taste of his lips..hmmm..." she indulged in her own secret pleasure.

-_- Um what? Zhao Tian looked at her with a dry smile. Seeing him looking at her. Mei Xiu was startled and hurriedly retracted the spoon "I-I actually like the taste of the spoon..." She stammered, trying to cover up her embarrassment.

"Haha!" Zhao Tian chuckled hearing this and Mei Xiu's cheeks flushed as she tried to regain her composure in front of him. "D-Don't laugh!"

chuckles

After they had completed their meal, Mei Xiu collected the dirty plates and made her way to the kitchen to wash them. A little later, Zhao Tian entered the kitchen to see what she was doing.

"He will surely like it! Hehe!" He heard a soft whisper and he entered in curiously. H-Huh? Seeing him entering, Mei Xiu who was placing chocolate truffles on the plate was startled "W-Why did you come in?"

Chocolate truffle? He looked at the plate and seeing this Mei Xiu quickly hid the Chocolate truffles from his vision "Nooooo! This was supposed to be a surprise... whyyyy..." she cried like a child.

Zhao Tian walked near her and draped his arm around her shoulder pulling her closer to him "Well, I am very much surprised... I didn't think you would have made choco truffle for me." he said in a soft tone.

A slight blush adorned Mei Xiu's cheeks "T-That day, Miss Daiyu said that you like desserts... so I tried to make one. Geez, this is a surprise... but you found it."

Zhao Tian let out a soft chuckle before taking the chocolate truffle in his hand eating it. Mei Xiu asked curiously tilting her head "How is it?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Hmm.. great!" he said taking another one to eat. Mei Xiu smiled upon hearing this, a sigh of relief in her heart "That's good to hear..."

Zhao Tian quickly ate all the chocolate truffles leaving Mei Xiu dumbfounded and she couldn't help but giggle "You really love sweet things huh?"

"Is there any more?" Zhao Tian asked and Mei Xiu shook her head "No. But don't worry... I'll make many of this next time you come."

Zhao Tian nodded his head and after talking a bit he prepared to leave.

smooch Mei Xiu closed her eyes feeling his soft lips caressing her lips. Zhao Tian retracted this kiss, a warm smile gracing his face as he lovingly ran his fingers through her hair. "Take good care of your Grandma and spend some time with her."

"Haa!" Stretching her arms Mei Xiu entered the kitchen with a happy smile on her face and she was contented with Zhao Tian enjoying her cooking.

As she cleaned the kitchen, she looked into the oven and saw there was still a Choco truffle inside it. "Hm? One missed? Probably I missed when he entered..."

She took the chocolate truffle and casually tossed it in her mouth and continued her work. But when she bit it, a bitter taste spread through her tongue.

"Bwah!" she quickly spit it down "D-Did I add too much cocoa powder? This damn Ytube." gasp She gasped in surprise as she realized something "He ate... all of this bitter chocolate."

"Urgh, sorry Tian... I'll make pudding next time."

-- Zhao Tian who was driving his Rolls Royce touched his stomach "Seems like my body is quite strong.. phew! First, I need to go and read some runes."

swoosh Zhao Tian appeared in his room and walked downstairs to the hall. Seeing him, Ying'er who was sitting on the couch smiled "Tian'er!"

Zhao Tian sat near her on the couch and Zhao Ying pushed him, getting one top of him. "Tian'er!" Softly calling him, she pressed her lips onto him, sliding her tongue in his mouth.

Zhao Tian too reciprocated the kiss embracing her waist. As they retracted their kiss, a thin strand of saliva lingered on their lips "It is already late at night. You are still awake?"

Zhao Ying took the mobile in her hand and showed Zhao Tian "I was just going through the pictures of our actual Mom."

Zhao Tian looked at the blonde woman on the picture "And? Did you find something?" Zhao Ying spoke "Tian'er, do you know that hair color is inherited and my hair is pink, yours is white... while Mom's is blonde?"

"Well guess that Dad had white hair, then how come my hair is pink? And I asked Mom and she said this blonde is our Mother's natural hair color."

Zhao Tian gave a bonk on her head "What is this hair color research? Go and sleep. You already had dinner, right?"

Zhao Ying gave a nod rubbing her head "Un, i already had. But Mom didn't, seems like she is in a bad mood!"

Chapter 115: Mom learns about cultivation!

After letting Zhao Ying go and sleep in her bed, Zhao Tian walked to his mother's room and pushed open the door. "Mom?" he called out softly.

Walking inside the room, he saw Zhao Suyin lying on the bed showing her back to him. Why is she pretending to sleep?

With a wry smile, he approached the bed and softly grabbed her waist turning her upward. "Mom!" But Zhao Suyin closed her eyes tightly refusing to open them.

Seeing her still reluctant, he grabbed both of her hands pinning them above her head in the pillow. He leaned in and gave a tender kiss on her cheek "Maybe I should just ravish you when you are sleeping."

Zhao Suyin's eyelashes quivered feeling his hot breath on her skin and Zhao Tian raised his hand gently groping her boob his touch grazing over the fabric of her dress "mmngh~!" a muffled moan escaped between her lips.

Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle and ask "Why didn't you eat dinner? Ying'er said you were in a bad mood."

Zhao Suyin stayed silent still closing her eyes, Zhao Tian gave a tight squeeze on her boob "I know you are pretending, so tell me what happened?"

"Haangh~!" A loud moan slipped past Zhao Suyin's lips and she slowly opened her eyes stopping her act. "Hmph!" She playfully snorted and looked away "I don't want to talk to a guy who rejected me for a whole day."

Huh? Zhao Tian softly placed his body on top of her nuzzling his face in her neck "When did I reject you?"

Zhao Suyin pouted her lips, her hands hugging him "Where did you go after this morning? huh? I am not saying that you shouldn't go anywhere... i-its, that, yesterday after our relationship, we are like a new c-couple..."

"So I wished you could have spent some time with me... but you are gone... hmph. I hate you!"

Zhao Tian was surprised to hear this and he turned his gaze to look at the woman cutely sulking her lips. His eyes softened "You are still angry?"

"yeah, I am..."

Zhao Tian chuckled faintly "Then what do I need to do for your anger to go away?"

"Hm?" Hearing this, Zhao Suyin raised an eyebrow and thought about what she could ask. And as she thought of something, a light blush colored her cheeks "I want you to spend a whole day with me, a d-date?"

Zhao Tian smiled and nodded his head "Ok then, we can go on a date." Hearing this, a smile bloomed on Zhao Suyin's face. He got down from the bed and slowly scooped her in his arms.

"Tian'er?" Though surprised, Zhao Suyin wrapped her arms around his neck. "You still haven't had dinner, right?"

Zhao Suyin nodded her head "Hm... yeah."

"Then let's go and have dinner."

...

num num Sitting on Zhao Tian's lap, Zhao Suyin continued eating her food "Tian'er, you really don't want food?"

Zhao Tian gave a nod "Yeah, I already had it at Miya's place."

"Miya..." Zhao Suyin muttered as she remembered the blue-haired woman who was respectful in front of her and called her Auntie. 'What would she think if she came to know about my relationship with Tian'er?'

Zhao Tian hugged her waist tightly "And I have something important to talk with you!"

"Something important?" Zhao Suyin asked curiously and Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah!"

Ehhhh? Sitting on the bed Zhao Suyin blinked her eyes confused by his words "What are cultivators, Tian'er? Is it a game group you joined?"

Zhao Tian smiled dryly seeing his Mom's lack of knowledge about cultivation novels "Um, they are people who can harness astral energy in their body and can use supernatural powers."

Zhao Suyin raised an eyebrow "Like old monks cultivating Qi energy to prevent their bodies from diseases, channeling some energy through their meridians... like martial arts? You are gonna do martial arts? I have read some books about that.. saying how you need to unite your body with mind."

Not that Chinese traditional concept of cultivation! Zhao Tian sighed in his heart "No, Mom... not that, this is different."

Zhao Suyin was even more confused, she thought she finally grasped what her dear son was explaining "Something different? Is it some Gen Z trend, Tian'er? Sorry, Mom is not updated with the current trends. But tell me I can learn that trend."

Her words were accompanied by a warm smile, and a genuine effort to bridge the generation gap between them and show her support for her son's interests.

Seeing her innocent smile, Zhao Tian chuckled in his heart "Come with me." he spoke getting down from the bed. Zhao Suyin followed him as he walked to the terrace.

"Tian'er?" She called looking at his face which was glowing in the moonlight. Zhao Tian smiled and pulled her in his hand and Zhao Suyin also placed her hands on his shoulders and tilted her head in confusion.

swoosh Zhao Tian flew in the air. gasp Zhao Suyin's eyes dilated in shock and she hurriedly clutched onto his neck tightly "T-Tian'er, Tian'er, Tian'er..." she yelled his name closing her eyes as she felt the speedy air hitting her face.

"Did you jump? Did you jump? What happened?" she hurriedly asked in panic but Zhao Tian just chuckled and Zhao Suyin who heard his chuckle slowly opened her eyes.

Uh? She was quite confused by the things happening and only then she realized. "I am flying?" she looked down and saw the glowing cities beneath her feet,

Awed by the beauty she raised her head to look at Zhao Tian "Tian'er, you can... fly?" Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah, just recently I learned about the existence of cultivators in this world and they also have superpowers."@@novelbin@@

"So this is what you meant by superpowers." She let the shock sink into her heart causing her heart to race with excitement and disbelief. She again glanced down and saw how high she was in the air and instinctively tightened her grip on Zhao Tian.

"There are many... people like you who could fly in this world, Tian'er?" Zhao Suyin asked and Zhao Tian nodded his head "You need to cross some stages to fly... but people in the lower stage are still stronger than normal humans."

Zhao Suyin asked curiously "Stages? like in levels in some small games we play on mobile, Tian'er?"

Zhao Tian gave a faint nod "Well, something like that... the higher your level is the more powerful you are."

"Ohhhh!" Zhao Suyin was amused hearing this "Then what level are you in, Tian'er..."

Zhao Tian frowned slightly and explained in a way she would understand "There are ten levels and I am in the 9th level of power."

Zhao Suyin giggled softly in his arms "I know you will soon reach level 10, cause Tian'er.... you have never lost in a game."

Zhao Tian's eyes softened seeing his Mom's innocent giggle and he couldn't help but place a kiss on her forehead. Zhao Suyin smiled warmly feeling the lingering touch of his lips on her forehead.

Zhao Suyin tilted her head looking at the night sky "Then... is there a way I can also fly like this, Tian'er? If I had this power, I could go anywhere without a Visa."

Zhao Tian nodded "Yeah, I will teach you... I also want you to be powerful like me and cultivate."

Zhao Suyin squinted her eyes "Hmm, Tian'er you said something about astral energy right? we need to use it?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah, you need to harness this astral energy to cultivate your body with a cultivation technique."

"Shall we go to cultivate?"

Zhao Suyin spoke "Wait Tian'er. let's fly a little more in the sky..."

"While flying, what if you accidentally hit an airplane or maybe tw- ahem"

"Wait, what if Elon is watching through the satellite."

"What if normal people saw us and think us as aliens?"

"Will we be sent to Area 69?"

Chapter 116: Mom's cultivation!

swoosh Zhao Suyin's eyes fluttered open and saw the beautiful world in front of her.
"Woahhhhhh!" She exclaimed in astonishment seeing the vast beauty in of landscape and grassfield.

"This place looks so beautiful, Tian'er," she muttered in awe and Zhao Tian just smiled standing beside her.

Zhao Suyin turned her gaze looking at Zhao Tian "This is in that artifact... green pendant?" Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah..."

Zhao Suyin frowned slightly upon hearing this "That pendant was on your neck since the day Sister gave you to me..."

Zhao Tian gave a slight nod "The disappearance of my mother for some years and my Dad, there are still many doubts in my head. I am guessing now that my mother is a cultivator and my father is a person from High Stars."

"High Stars? What is that Tian'er?"

"Come, I will explain on our way."

As she listened to all the explanations, Zhao Suyin's eyes glimmered in wonder "This world is so bigger than I thought." she muttered, her eyes glancing around the place.

Eh? But her gaze fell on a woman with long white hair, her face full of gruesome scars training with her sword. Seeing her emotionless and cold face as she swung the sword, Zhao Suyin shivered in fear and hid behind Zhao Tian "T-Tian'er, who is that?"

"Oh, that is Yixian..."

As Shi Yixian's eyes landed on Zhao Tian, she stopped her training and walked over to Zhao Tian, kneeling on the floor "My Liege!" her voice filled with loyalty and respect.

Ehhh? "Why is she kneeling in front of you, Tian'er?" Zhao Tian spoke casually "That's because she is my slave."

H-Huh? Zhao Suyin was startled hearing this and grabbed Zhao Tian's hand "Tian'er, how can you do a cruel thing to a woman? She is your slave? I don't remember raising you like a bad guy like this... release her, Tian'er."

Zhao Tian shrugged "She almost killed me many times, so I made her my slave so that she wouldn't harm me and others."

Almost killed Tian'er? Zhao Suyin turned her gaze to Shi Yixian, her eyes narrowing "Tian'er, why is this woman still alive then? Kill her." she spoke in a soft voice, a mad look in her eyes.

Zhao Tian chuckled and pulled Zhao Suyin's hand as he knew that his Mom can be quite obsessive sometimes "Come, Mom, she won't harm me anymore... Yixian, you go back to training." Shi Yixian gave a nod "Yes, My Liege."

Being pulled by Zhao Tian, Zhao Suyin gave a look to Shi Yixian and snorted "Hmph! I hate you!" Shi Yixian tilted her head and again went back to her training not minding what Zhao Suyin said.

"Ah! You built a mansion here, Tian'er?" Zhao Suyin raised her head looking at the huge mansion and they quickly entered the mansion.

Fei Ziyu, who was scrolling on her mobile quickly stood up seeing Zhao Tian, and was surprised to see the beautiful woman accompanying Zhao Tian. Master's new woman?

Zhao Suyin also glanced at Fei Ziyu and asked "Tian'er, who is she? Don't tell me she is your woman?" Zhao Tian shook his head "No, Mom, she is also my slave."

M-Mom? hearing this, With a mix of surprise and excitement, she quickly bowed her head in front of Zhao Suyin "It's very good to see you."

"Oh, she seems humble..." Fei Ziyu smiled in her heart hearing Zhao Suyin's words, at least she got recognized by Zhao Tian's Mom.

"Why is she your slave, Tian'er." Zhao Tian spoke, "She tried to kill Ying'er."

Fei Ziyu hastily raised her head to explain as she didn't want to give a bad impression to Zhao Suyin "Um, actually..." But Zhao Suyin snorted coldly "I hate you too!"

Urgh! Fei Ziyu's face darkened... Now she also hates me too? A deep sigh escaped her lips, the only one who treats her better is Chi Miya, the others still hate her.@@novelbin@@

Zhao Tian brought Zhao Suyin to Xia Shenyi's room. As Zhao Tian pushed the door, Xia Shenyi who was standing there smiled as she placed this scroll on the table.

Zhao Suyin was taken aback by the beautiful woman and the weird set of clothes she was stunning. "You are gorgeous." Zhao Suyin muttered to which Xia Shenyi responded with a gentle smile "Thank you!!"

Zhao Suyin turned to Zhao Tian "Tian'er, who is she?" Zhao Tian spoke "Xia Shenyi. She is also a woman from High Stars who was stuck inside this artifact for years and she is the one who taught me about cultivation."

"Oh!" Zhao Suyin mused and looked over at Xia Shenyi "Thank you for helping out Tian'er." Xia Shenyi shook her head with a smile "No, in fact, he is the one who is helping me... Come and sit please."

"Tian'er!" Zhao Suyin sat on the couch and beckoned Zhao Tian. Zhao Tian sat beside Zhao Suyin and smiled "Why are you standing Shenyi, sit."

Xia Shenyi's eyebrows twitched hearing his remark and she moved sitting on his lap placing her thighs, not her ass. Zhao Suyin frowned seeing this and glanced at Zhao Tian "She is..."

Zhao Tian nodded his head with a smile "She is also my woman." Zhao Suyin's frown deepened "You have many women... Tian'er, Ying'er, Miya and now her... this is."

Xia Shenyi giggled "You don't have to worry, actually powerful and handsome people in High Stars have hundreds of women."

Zhao Suyin was kinda confused hearing this "I-Is that so? But is it really okay?"

Xia Shenyi squinted her eyes "Are you trying to say, Zhao Tian, this handsome guy who is your SON is incompetent? Do you think your son is not powerful enough to have a harem? Those kings have hundreds of women and your SON is not qualified enough to even have five women?"

"You have no trust in your son? Are you saying that your son is inferior to those guys in the High Stars? Even people in this star have many women, is Tian under them?"

Hearing all the bombarding questions, Zhao Suyin hurriedly shook her head "No, No... my son is the best. he should have everything... if what you are saying is real I don't mind Tian'er having many women. Hmph! My son is the best after all and he is very much capable of having many women."

What the fuck? Zhao Tian was actually surprised to see Xia Shenyi's brainwashing and gaslighting skills. She even brainwashed his obsessive sister and allowed her to have a harem.

Xia Shenyi playfully winked at Zhao Tian and muttered with her lips 'You owe me two, now' Zhao Tian shook his head helplessly seeing her antics.

Zhao Suyin placed her hand on his cheek "I don't mind Tian'er having many women, I... guess. But what about Ying'er and Miya? I am not sure if Ying'er would..."

Xia Shenyi waved her hand "Don't worry, I have already brainw- ahem talked with her and now she is also okay with Tian having many women."

"Ehhh? Really? That girl accepted? Honestly a surprise."

Xia Shenyi smiled in her heart seeing Zhao Suyin's adorable and innocent reactions. "Then we shouldn't delay our time and start cultivation, let's start with checking your affinities."

"O-Oh, okay, let's cultivate!"

Chapter 117: Going where?

: Going where?

"Uh, Is this how it is?" Zhao Suyin asked placing her hand over the affinity orb and Zhao Tian smiled "Yeah, and channel the energy just as I told you."

Zhao Suyin closed her eyes flowing her astral energy through the affinity orb and Xia Shenyi also looked at the orb keenly.

whoosh With a sudden gust of swirling wind, green energy rounded inside the affinity orb. "Tian'er, Tian'er., see see... green light." she exclaimed in excitement. Zhao Tian and Xia Shenyi muttered at the same time "Wind!"

Zhao Suyin retracted her hand, happy in her heart "Me, wind." swish A scroll appeared in Zhao Tian's hand "Mom, this is a great wind technique for starters, you can start cultivating with this first."

"Okay!" Zhao Suyin excitedly took the scroll from her son's hand and looked at him puzzled "But Tian'er, how to cultivate?"

Zhao Tian chuckled "I will help you!"

...

Xia Shenyi couldn't help but be amused as she watched Zhao Suyin sitting cross-legged on the bed with Zhao Tian teaching her the basics of cultivation. What intrigued her was that Zhao Tian was teaching it himself, because even for Zhao Ying she was the one who taught her.

Seems like he loves her a bit too much.

Zhao Tian smiled gently "You understood, right?" Zhao Suyin gave a determined nod "I understood, Tian'er... I am ready to cultivate."

smooch Zhao Tian placed a kiss on her forehead "Now, I'll completely remove the seal and you will feel a sudden surge of astral energy in your body and you need to use that to cultivate."

Huh? Zhao Suyin was confused "Sudden energy?" Zhao Tian nodded "I'll explain that later, now concentrate."

Zhao Suyin quickly closed her eyes and began to cultivate as the astral energy in the air slowly began to get pulled by her body.

Zhao Tian took a step back and Xia Shenyi muttered with a light laugh "She is quite thrilled about this cultivation as I can see the joy in her eyes."

With a nod, Zhao Tian spoke "If she doesn't want to get discovered by Ying... she can come like this and cultivate in your room."

"En!"

swish A few minutes later, a burst of energy emanated from Zhao Suyin's body and her eyelids quivered struggling to maintain the absurd amount of astral energy around her.

Zhao Tian narrowed his gaze as he observed the situation, while Xia Shenyi commented "She is struggling..." but both of them didn't intervene as they knew that cultivation is best learned through experience rather than taught.

A few more minutes passed and a smile appeared on Zhao Tian's face seeing the constant flow of energy around her body.

"Ok, all good now!"

After a while of cultivating and stabilizing her cultivation, Zhao Suyin opened her eyes, letting out a soft sigh "Ah, cultivation feels good..." she said clenching her fist.

"I feel like my body has become light and I feel more energetic than before." She muttered looking at her palm.

Her thoughts were interrupted by Xia Shenyi's voice "Congratulations on reaching the 2nd level of True Astral Stage."

Zhao Suyin showed a sweet smile "En." she then turned her eyes to Zhao Tian and asked with a proud smile "How is your Mom, Tian'er?"

He just smiled softly "What can I say, As expected of my mom."

"Haha" Zhao Suyin laughed, but then remembered something. "Ah, Tian'er... where did that sudden energy come from?"

Xia Shenyi glanced over at Zhao Tian and with a sigh she began to explain to Zhao Suyin.

"Eh? Honoured One?"

"The Heavens?"

"Dual Cultivation?"

"W-What? Cultivate through sex?"

"Sexual Urges?"

After hearing all of this, Zhao Suyin found herself unable to fully process the information as she sat on the bed, lost in a whirlwind of emotions. She didn't expect Zhao Tian to be so special.

She got down from the bed and ran hugging Zhao Tian "I always knew, my son was the best hahaha! " she exclaimed in joy and Zhao Tian chuckled hugging her back in his arms.

Pulling back the hug, she softly kissed Zhao Tian's lips and he too reciprocated her tender kiss.

A little later, Zhao Suyin retracted the kiss and saw Xia Shenyi looking at them which made her embarrassed. Zhao Tian gently patted Zhao Suyin's head "Mom, now on... I'll bring you here when you have time and you can cultivate in this room, without Ying'er knowing."

Zhao Suyin gave a firm nod "Ok, Tian'er"

A few more days passed-

With a slight furrow in his brow, Zhao Tian looked down at the book he held in his hands "Shenyi what do you think?" Xia Shenyi who was sitting beside him on the couch nodded her head "This is really a great pill!"

"Haa!" At this time, Zhao Ying walked inside the hall only wearing a white towel after her bath in the waterfalls. Seeing them discussing, she asked "You guys are still searching for that pill."

Zhao Tian nodded "Yeah, we have finally found it."

"Oh?" Zhao Ying's curiosity was piqued as she raised an eyebrow and leisurely sauntered over to where they were, sitting on the lap of Zhao Tian's "Soul Consolidation Pill?"

Zhao Tian gently moved his hands closer to her waist, pulling the towel and showing her ample boobs adorned with pink nipples at the top.

Zhao Tian fondled her boobs in his palm enjoying the softness along with the lingering wetness from her bath. smooch he placed a kiss on her shoulder inhaling the fresh fragrance of her skin after the bath.

Zhao Ying just smiled feeling his hands groping her boobs and leaned back on his "Tian'er."@@novelbin@@

As they were enjoying each other, Xia Shenyi had a deep frown seeing through the contents to create the pill "Tian, we have all the other herbs we need for the pill, but we don't have Phoenix blood Astragalus flower!"

Zhao Tian asked "We don't have that even in our warehouse?"

Xia Shenyi shook her head "No, this herb is quite rare and you need to find it." Zhao Ying had another idea "Actually, Tian'er... why don't you just plant some herbs inside this world... since it has a denser astral energy, the herbal plants will grow quicker, right?"

Xia Shenyi was quite surprised hearing this "Yeah, why didn't I think of that? Tian, you and others would definitely need more pills for breakthrough in the future and as Ying said, I think it is better to create a Herbal Garden here."

"So even when you find rare herbs, you can plant them here and get more of them."

Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes in contemplation "Hm. We can do that and about this Phoenix blood Astragalus flower, how should we get this?"

Xia Shenyi let out a sigh "Honestly, I am not so sure. this flower is grown from the blood of a Phoenix and this is rare even in the high stars."

"So it is very hard to find in this middle star and if it exists it should be in a place dense with astral energy!"

"So, the only place is Zhenhzu?" Zhao Tian muttered under his breath. Seems like he needs to go to the Holy Land of Zhenhzu this time.

Zhao Ying tilted her head "You can't just go in blindly in a new place full of dangers. Do you know anyone from Zhenhzu, Tian'er?"

A smile graced Zhao Tian's lips as he remembered a pink-haired woman "Oh, I do!"

Chapter 118: Entering the Zhenzhu!

threik The ground trembled a little as the soil parted. Fei Ziyu, whose body was brimming with brown energy smiled seeing this and Xia Shenyi spoke "Now plant the herbs."

"Yes, Lady Shenyi!" Fei Ziyu nodded her head and began to plant herbs and seeds in the soil. Xia Shenyi waved her hand and sprinkles of water flowed on the herbs.

"From now on taking care of this is your job." hearing Xia Shenyi's words, Fei Ziyu bowed her head "Yes, Lady Shenyi!"

Xia Shenyi nodded her head and walked away. Seeing the walking figure of Xia Shenyi, a sigh escaped Fei Ziyu's lips "Is Lady Suyun again here today? Master told me not to speak about her to Lady Ying."

She looked up at the sky and closed her eyes "It's quite lovely here... Mom is in the company. Hmm, guess I'll just go and cultivate."

Xia Shenyi went to her room and opened the door. As she entered she saw Zhao Suyin sitting in her room cultivating.

"She is really enthusiastic!"

swoosh Zhao Tian was dashing through the air at full speed clearing the clouds. After some hours of traveling, he finally reached a forest and the sun was high in the sky as it was already noon.@@novelbin@@

Hm? he looked down at the snow-filled forest with a frown on his face. "There are so many astral beasts in this forest. Is this really the way to Zhenzhu? I can feel the density of the astral energy in the air increasing."

He used his astral sense and glanced around some kilometers and it was full of forest area. "Is Zhenzhu inside the forest?!" he muttered and flew through the air searching for any cultivators.

After some minutes of searching through the forest, he finally found a way that looked like a clear path cutting through the thick, icy wilderness.

He landed on the path and walked through it looking around the beautiful forest bathing in the noon light sun. "The astral beasts around this area are rather low-level."

As he continued walking, he suddenly found some presence emerging from the dense forests approaching him... from all sides.

A sigh escaped Zhao Tian's lips "There are always people like this." he muttered looking at the people who just came out of the forest surrounding him.

They are all wearing black robes and hiding their faces with masks. Some people even have weapons in their hands with killing intent in their eyes. It's the usual bandits' cliché.

The bandits were also quite perplexed looking at Zhao Tian's unfamiliar attire "His clothing seems different."

They are puzzled looking at Zhao Tian's black pants and white hoodie "Is he from the human world?"

"From the human world? But how did he enter the forest filled with astral beasts if he was a human?"

"Never mind that, let's just do our thing and loot him."

One of them stepped forward and spoke "Give m-" flick Zhao Tian flicked his finger and a spark of fire was shot at the bandit.

The sound of sizzling flesh filled the air as the bandit's body ignited in a blaze of fiery red. frisshh "Argggghh!" The bandit's body began to burn in scorching red fire and the other bandit's eyes dilated in horror hearing his scream of pain.

The smell of burning flesh mingled with the acrid scent of smoke, created a nauseating atmosphere of fear and despair. The bandit writhed in pain, his skin blistering and blackening as the flames consumed him, leaving nothing but charred remains.

thud The burnt body fell to the ground, and the rest of the bandits stepped away in panic. Zhao Tian spoke "That's your warning. Get lost!"

His murderous intent is already high now after killing so many people. So he decided to refrain from killing people mindlessly.

fwoosh Hearing his cold voice, the bandits didn't hesitate and fled from there with fear gripping their hearts. "W-What is he?"

"Don't worry our Boss is in the Qin village, he will take care of him."

Zhao Tian walked through the path and he soon reached a big entrance in front of him. With curiosity, he entered through the entrance and saw the village in front with some people and even bandits walking around brazenly.

But as Zhao Tian made his way to the entrance, the villagers were taken aback by his presence, their eyes fixed on him in astonishment. A handsome young man has entered their village but has strange clothes on him.

Zhao Tian was confused seeing the village, What actually is this Zhenzhu? He just thought there would be a group of sects or an organization. but seems like a whole country is inside Zhenzhu.

His eyes darted around and saw an old shop, its weathered sign barely visible through the overgrown plants.

He walked towards the shop and as he opened his mouth to speak, the old woman cut him off with a warning, her eyes darting nervously "Youngman, I don't know who you are, but you better leave before they come." she urged, her voice trembling with fear.

"Oh? Who do we have here?"

Zhao Tian heard a voice and he turned his head to look at some men wearing the same robes same as the bandits who he just saw in the forest.

The old woman shrunk in fear and rushed back into the shop. Zhao Tian frowned seeing them, he just wanted to know some information about Zhenzhu but the bandits were making his work hard.

The men in black robes were also surprised looking at the clean handsome boy in front of them. "How did this guy come here crossing our men?"

"Are those guys drinking and slacking off?"

Zhao Tian looked at the men and only one of them was in the True Astral Stage and the others were even below him.

The man who seemed to be the leader spoke in a calm tone "Brat, you are from the human world... how did you enter here Qin village?"

Zhao Tian frowned slightly and spoke "I just want some information about Zhenzhu."

"Huh? Information about Zhenhzu? Hahaha! Chain and drag him." The leader spoke with a chuckle and two men standing beside him nodded "Yes, Boss."

"As I thought you guys are not cooperating at all." Zhao Tian spoke in a cold voice and thriishh Ice crystals burst forth from his feet and spread through the ground instantly freezing the men who came forward to tie him.

"What the-" The others and the village people were shocked to the core seeing this and their jaws dropped leaving them speechless. "D-Did he just froze them?"

"He is not a normal human?" They gasped in surprise and crassh the ice pillar broke into tiny ice particles leaving a mush of blood.

'Here I go killing again.' he thought of killing only when it was necessary but problems keep coming after him and it seems like he couldn't stop his killing streak.

thrishh A sudden sound of cracking ice filled the air as sharp spikes of ice formed around the area, the sharp icy spikes piercing through their bodies and leaving them in terrific pain. "ARGHHH!"

The leader stammered in disbelief "W-Who are you? What a powerful cultivator like you ... doing here?" thissh kichik As he spoke, the sound of icy spikes piercing through the air could be heard, striking down another bandit.

Zhao Tian didn't have time to hear the leader's bullshit and soon killed all of them.

The villagers who were still in shock snapped out of their daze and slowly walked out of their homes. "H-He killed them?"

"HE KILLED THEM!!!"

"Finally, we can live peacefully from the bandits! Hahaha!" Laughter and echoes filled the air as smiles bloomed on the people's faces after years of struggling.

Filled with joy, they cried out in excitement and hurried towards Zhao Tian. But Zhao Tian raised his hand and they all stopped in their tracks confused.

Zhao Tian spoke "I know you are all happy that the bandits are killed. But I just want some information about Zhenzhu! If you guys have any map or..."

As soon as they heard his request, confusion spread among the people and they exchanged bewildered glances with one another.

At this time a middle-aged man walked forward from the crowd and bowed his head. "Thank you for saving our village from the bandits and helping us. I am the village head of this village."

"Seems like you are on your way towards the core of Zhenzhu..." the middle-aged man turned to look at a young man "Go and take that map!"

"Yes, Dad!" The young man quickly went inside and came back with a map in his hand which was well-preserved.

"This is the map we have which was given to us by our Ancestors." Zhao Tian took the map in his hand and saw the drawings in it.

'So the Zhenzhu is actually covered by forest on all sides with astral beasts within them?' he muttered looking at the map and as he thought, Zhenzhu was like a small kingdom with many villages and cities.

Seeing a red dot in the center, he saw the marked place "Royal capital?"

The middle-aged man who was standing near him spoke "That is the royal capital of the Royal Ning family and top sects and families also live there."

Zhao Tian scanned the whole map and saved it in his memory. "Here, thank you!" Zhao Tian handed over the map.

Buying the map, the middle-aged man shook his head "No, young man we should be the ones thanking you." As he bowed all the people standing around him also bowed.

Zhao Tian smiled gently and a pouch of astral stones appeared in his hands. "Here you can have this." he placed it on the Village head's hand.

The middle-aged man was shocked as he felt the heft of the object in his grasp, causing his body to shake with disbelief "T-This much...?" But before he could finish, Zhao Tian already disappeared from there flying through the air.

The village people were startled seeing Zhao Tian flying "The one who came is actually a cultivator above Heave Stage Realm?"

Chapter 119: At the Pill shop!

woosh Zhao Tian dashed through the air his gaze lingering down on the ground. From the majestic landscapes to the intricate buildings, bustling sects, lively shops, and cozy homes in the Zhenzhu.

"There is snow and very cold outside but inside Zhenhzu it has normal weather. Hmm.." he pondered as he glanced up and his eyebrows frowned "Is there a barrier around Zhenhzu? Even I couldn't sense that."

He glanced down and saw many people walking through the bustling streets, disciples in the Sects training their techniques.

With a soft sigh, he raised his hand feeling the astral energy in the air. "The astral energy in the north pole is dense but not as much in the artifact but still good."

His eyes looked in the distance, a small smile appearing on his lips "Let's go to the royal capital."

"H-Huh?" The people stopped whatever they were doing to take a glimpse at the handsome young man walking through the streets of the Royal Capital and whispers spread through the crowd.

His long white eyelashes, snow-white hair, glowing blue eyes and thr small smile tugging at the corner of his lips are enough to melt any woman's heart.

The guards who just let him inside the capital, smiled wryly looking at the back of Zhao Tian "As I thought, that brother is getting a lot of attention, see everyone gawking their eyes at him."

"Well he is so handsome and those clothes... do you think he is a cultivator from a different country?" Unlike the people in the villages, the people here are quite knowledgeable about the outside world.

"I am not so sure, he does not look like a person from another country, And he has such a powerful aura around him. I am sure he is a cultivator above Heaven Astral Stage."

"Really? That's... terrifying."

Walking around, Zhao Tian also felt the gazes on him from all directions. Well, he doesn't mind that, he was born with good looks and he doesn't feel the need to hide that. But it's still annoying sometimes.

"The Royal Capital is surely large..." he mused in his heart looking at the buildings and the restaurants and shops around him.

As he strolled further along the streets, his gaze eventually landed upon a large building which piqued his curiosity "A shop for pills? I wonder if I can buy herbs here." Muttering under his breath, he walked inside the building.

Looking at the handsome young man stepping in their shop, the woman who was in the reception was surprised. But she soon came out of it and came in front with a smile on her lips her eyes fixated on his face "Welcome to our shop Esteemed customer, do you need help?"

Zhao Tian gave a faint nod "I want to buy some ingredients for making pills." The woman gave a nod and gestured her hand "Please follow me, young master."

Zhao Tian walked behind her, his eyes glancing around the large number of pill bottles on their way and sensing their grade a sigh escaped his lips 'Trash.'

The woman glanced at him in the corner of her eyes looking at his weird outfit "Is youngmaster not from Zhenzhu? Are you from the outside countries?"

"Yeah, kinda..." Zhao Tian said and the woman nodded her head "Maybe you should buy some dress, Young master... you stand out too much, haha." Her laughter filled the room as she playfully teased Zhao Tian.

Zhao Tian looked down at his clothes 'After buying the pills, I should buy some robes.'

They quickly reached the place and the woman spoke "Young master, here you can find the ingredients you need."

The young man who was standing inside the shelf was amused seeing Zhao Tian "Brother, welcome!" Zhao Tian nodded his head and the woman smiled "Young master, he will take care of you from now on so let me take my leave." she spoke and retreated from there.

The young man spoke with a smile "Brother, what ingredients do you need, or if you said what pill you want to make I can suggest the ingredients."

Zhao Tian spoke "Do you have a flower called Phoenix blood Astragalus flower?"@@novelbin@@

Hearing the name, the young man frowned in a little thought and shook his head "No, brother.. I haven't heard such a name. It sounds like a rare herb."

"You can check the main branch which is close to the Royal Palace, this shop is just one of the branches of Shun company under the Golden Flame Sect!"

Golden Flame Sect? Zhao Tian remembered the middle-aged man he met back in the Ancient Ruins saying that most of the pills in the world are created by the Golden Flame Sect.

Zhao Tian nodded his head "I'll buy the other ingredients then." He also needed many other ingredients to create pills.

The young man nodded his head "Okay!" Zhao Tian chose the ingredients and the young man was surprised to see Zhao Tian buying all of the remaining rare herbs in the store.

"Um, Brother... is it really okay? These are all so expensive." woosh A pouch of astral stones appeared in Zhao Tian's palm and the young man was shocked to the core "S-Storage ring?"

He quickly bowed his head "Sorry for being presumptuous and calling you Brother, Young Master. Forgive me..." he spoke in a respectful tone.

Zhao Tian waved his head "No need to be concerned. You can call me brother" The young man was kinda surprised that he is easygoing and smiled "Thank you, Brother."

"I will quickly pack all of this into one." The young man said and began to pack all the ingredients.

tap tap At this time, someone walked near the store and Zhao Tian turned his head to look at the beautiful woman, her long lustrous black hair cascading down her back, perfectly complementing her deep, enchanting black eyes.

The woman was also captivated by Zhao Tian's face and her eyes were full of curiosity looking at his attire. She steadily strolled near him "You look so handsome and your dress also looks weird. Who are you?" she asked with a tilt of her head.

Seeing her innocent eyes, Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow and at this time, the young man spoke "Miss Chao, welcome back."

Ling Chao looked at him and spoke "Caishen, you have a weird customer today and he is not even saying anything."

The young man spoke "Don't call our esteemed customer as weird, Miss Chao. Just now he bought many of our herbs."

"Oh?" Ling Chao was amused hearing this and at this time she remembered something "Wait, did he also buy Golden Sunflower?"

The young man nodded his head with a smile "Yeah, he just bought the remaining ten Golden Sunflowers."

"Wha-" Ling Chao quickly turned to Zhao Tian and pouted her lips extending her hand, demanding "Give me my Golden Sunflower!"

"Your Golden Sunflower?" Zhao Tian asked looking at the innocent girl. "Of course, my Golden Sunflower, I have been eyeing that for some days to buy, and now I need to create a pill with that."

"Hmph! I can give you money so give me my Golden Sunflower!"

Zhao Tian shook his head looking at her cute pout "No, I already bought them, so it's mine, and I am not giving you!"

Ling Chao was surprised "A beautiful woman like me is asking and you couldn't give? Hmph! Do You even know who I am?"

At this time, the young man moved to Zhao Tian and whispered "Brother, she is the Core disciple of Luna Blossom Pavillion, one of the top five Sects. You don't wanna mess with her."

Lunar Blossom Pavillion? Zhao Tian smiled faintly "I can give you the Golden Sunflower..." Ling Chao smiled "Oh, you are giving me after you came to know about me? Hehe..."

Zhao Tian continued "But you have to bring me to your Sect."

Huh? Ling Chao and the young man were also startled by hearing this. Ling Chao shook her head "No, No... how can I bring you there? No man has ever set foot in our Lunar Blossom Pavillion."

Zhao Tian shrugged "Then forget about your Golden Sunflower... you continue packing." he said looking at the young man.

Ling Chao's eyebrows twitched in frustration 'I wanted the Golden Sunflower no matter what, the competition is also nearing.'

She looked at the young man "Caishen, when will the next stock of Golden Sunflowers arrive?"

The young man shrugged his shoulders "I don't know... that flower is quite rare."

A concerned frown appeared on Ling Chao's face and she again glanced at the handsome young man. After a moment of thought, a sigh escaped her lips "Give me the sunflower and I will bring you back to my Sect."

Zhao Tian glanced at the young man and the young man gave a nod as he took a Golden Sunflower from the pack and handed it over to Ling Chao.

A sweet smile appeared on Ling Chao's face looking at the Golden Sunflower in her hand. She raised her head looking at Zhao Tian "Ok, Mister. Thank you for the flower, now I will take you back to my sect."

"Bah!" She showed her tongue and with a mischievous glint in her eyes, dashed out from there "I am not guiding you, hehe!" swoosh as she disappeared in a flash.

The young man facepalmed himself "She clearly fooled you, Brother." he sighed.

Zhao Tian chuckled "Where do you think she is going?" The young man frowned hearing this "Obviously back to her sect."

"Then I'll just have to follow her right?"

"Nice, Brother!"

swoosh Ling Chao quickly ran through the streets and jumped from the buildings reaching near her sect. After a while of hopping and running, she finally reached a mountain and raised her head looking at the hundreds of steps leading up.

She couldn't help but let out a gentle laugh, "Poor guy, seems like he is new to Zhenzhu and scammed by me."

"So here is the Lunar Blossom Pavilion!" a charming voice reached her ears and she instantly turned her head to look at Zhao Tian standing beside her.

Her eyes dilated in shock "H-How?"

Zhao Tian chuckled faintly "Come on show me around!"

Chapter 120: Entering the Lunar Blossom Pavillion!

Ling Chao hastily grabbed Zhao Tian's hand "N-No, what are you doing here? Did you follow me here?"

Zhao Tian smiled "You are the one who said you would show me the way to your Sect for a Golden Sunflower. As per the deal, I gave you the flower and you showed me the way." he muttered stepping on the steps.

Ling Chao desperately tugged at his hand, "Y-You shouldn't come here." she pulled him with all her strength but she found herself unable to budge him an inch.

A look of surprise flashed across her face seeing his strength. Narrowing her eyes in confusion, she couldn't help but wonder 'He looks the same age as me, but why is he so strong? urgh'

"You. can't. go!" Ling Chao pulled him even more but Zhao Tian just walked the stairs chuckling at her futile struggles.

After a while of walking, Zhao Tian reached the mountaintop, and looking at the place, a smile stretched across his lips "This place looks beautiful."

The place is not that big, just a few traditional practice buildings, a sect hall, and a dormitory for disciples. He looked around with his astral sense, and a slight frown appeared on his face "There are only like 46 members in the sect, how is it the top 5 sect?"

His eyes glanced at the small mountain peak behind the buildings. At the top, there is a small Pavillion and a woman is gracefully sitting inside the Pavillion. Ling Xin!

"Haah! Haah!" Meanwhile, Ling Chao was panting heavily after her struggles to pull Zhao Tian. Her chest heaved up and down as she glanced at Zhao Tian "Y-You better leave... haah before the Elders or Sect Master arrive here.. haah"

"Heh? Why should I leave? I came here to meet them." He said and walked into the premises. Ling Chao took a deep breath and a sigh left her lips as she quickly walked behind him.

The disciples who were training on the outside were startled as they saw Zhao Tian walking inside their Sect's area. They all looked at each other bewildered and whispers began to circulate within the groups.

"How did he come here?"

"N-No, why is he here?"

"Don't he know that men are not allowed inside our Sects area?"

"Wait Miss Chao is with him."

"Did she bring him?"

"Did she think she could bring a man in just because she is the core disciple?"

"Why are you hating? That man looks handsome!"

"And see his different clothes."

Ling Chao also looked at the disciples gossiping and spoke to Zhao Tian "This is your final warning! Leave now! Immediately!"

Zhao Tian just smiled and walked forward woosh As he took another step forward, a sharp ice spike darted toward his face at breakneck speed.

As it inched closer to his face, Zhao Tian simply caught the ice shard and shattered it in his palm thrash He glanced at the silver-haired woman who gracefully descended from the air before him with a cold gaze.

"How dare you step into our Sect!" Her icy voice reverberated through the air and the disciples shook in terror. "It's Elder Chen!"

Ling Chao also lowered her gaze seeing Ling Chen, her eyes trembling in fear. Ling Chen spoke, "Chao'er, when did you begin to bring males into our Sect? Seems like Sect Master spoiled you a bit too much."

Ling Chao shuddered in fear, her heart pounding in her chest as she struggled to find the right words to defend herself "N-No, Elder Chen... the thing is...."

Zhao Tian spoke with a faint smile playing on her lips "Why are you scolding her, I am the one who barged in the sect." Ling Chen turned her icy glare at Zhao Tian "I already gave you a warning, if you took another step..."

Zhao Tian didn't mind her and walked in front. Ling Chen narrowed her eyes and thriiisshh blue energy spiraled out of her body as a large number of huge ice spikes formed in the air.

shish The ice shards quickly dashed toward Zhao Tian, but he just waved his hand, and with a surge of astral energy the ice shards were broken into pieces.

Huh? Ling Chen's frown deepened seeing this and as she blinked, Zhao Tian was right in front of her. gasp Her eyes dilated in shock and she instinctively took a step back.

thrishh An ice sword materialized in her palm and he swung at Zhao Tian aiming at his neck. click However, just as the blade was about to make contact, Zhao Tian caught it within his fingers and crack small cracks appeared on the sword and it bursted.

The students were bewildered seeing the man who just come effortlessly breaking their Sect Elder's techniques. And even more, that man looks the same age as them.

Ling Chao stood frozen, her jaw dropping in disbelief seeing the scene happening before her "H-He is easily destroying Elder Cehn's ice technique who is in Heaven Astral Stage!"

fwoosh At this time, a large hand made of earth hurled toward Zhao Tian. As it dashed closer to him, with a surge of astral energy from Zhao Tian, the earth hand blasted away.

"Wha-" The black-haired woman who was hovering in the air was dumbfounded seeing this and swiftly landed beside Ling Chen. Ling Chen turned her eyes "Elder Meiying!"

Ling Meiying gave a nod and looked at Zhao Tian, curiosity dancing in her eyes "How did this young man come here? And this frightening aura around him..." she asked in a soft voice.

"Oh! my! Little Brother, you look so fine!" Ling Chen and Ling Ming suddenly heard a beautiful voice and stared at a woman with light purple hair standing in front of Zhao Tian and examining his face.

Ling Huang's eyes were drawn to Zhao Tian's captivatingly handsome face, leaving her intrigued and unable to look away. Zhao Tian smiled, playing along with her "You also look beautiful."@@novelbin@@

Hearing his compliment, Ling Huang smiled sweetly "Hehe, Thank you, Little brother. But what are you doing here? If others saw you, you would be chased out, especially Elder Chen."

Zhao Tian spoke keeping his smile "I came here to see the Sect master of this Lunar Blossom Pavillion."

Ling Huang nodded her head in understanding "To see the Sect master, huh." She turned and pointed her hand at the small mountain peak "Sect master is at the top of that Pavillion."

gik But suddenly Ling Huang felt a sharp glare and she immediately turned to Ling Chen "Um, Elder Chen." Ling Chen frowned her eyebrows "Elder Huang, what are you doing?"

Ling Huang playfully hid behind Zhao Tian and pointed out at Ling Chen "Little brother, see how Elder Chen is glaring at me."

Ling Chen's lips twitched seeing Ling Huang being aloof "Elder Huang, this is not the time to play around. We have to chase him out!"

Ling Huang tilted her head "Is that so, but little brother looks cute and he doesn't seem like he has bad intentions, right little brother?."

Zhao Tian let out a soft chuckle as he replied "Yeah!" amused by her playful character.

Meanwhile, a disciple was hastily running on the stairs, her heart racing in fear and she quickly reached the peak, entering the pavilion in it.

There she saw a pink-haired woman cultivating and sensing the presence of someone, Ling Xin opened her eyes "What happened?"

The disciple spoke "Sect Master, there is a man in our Sect's area."

Ling Xin narrowed her eyes "They dared to enter after knowing our Sect is under Her Majesty's protection?"

And as she felt the strong aura emanating from the Sect, her eyebrows frowned "I have to go!"
