Chapter 421: Negotiations 3!

After Lyra Talon left the room, Zarek Talon spoke "Well, let's continue our discussion... Mr.Tian. we were talking about how this will drain your star."

"A fair concern, Mr.Tian. But rest assured, the resources we require are a small price to pay for the safety and prosperity we offer in return."

"Ebon Luohe has overseen the rise of many worlds like yours, guiding them to greatness. We do not seek to strip your star bare, but to cultivate it—to help it realize its full potential as a high star."

"But it will all be done in the name of Ebon Luohe, just like an Emperor having many kingdoms under him."

"We will take good care of that and protect it, but you just have to pay tax to the Emperor."

Zhao Tian frowned slightly and he was really pleased by the offer, and... he has no reason to refuse it.

But right now, he is just trying to milk if he can get any other generous offers from this star.

He knows that he is asking for too much and Zarek Talon, who is obviously a powerhouse doesn't have to listen to him, who has not even stepped into the Emyreal realm.

However, Zarek Talon is still calm and respects his decisions and Zhao Tian doesn't even respect him properly...

This left him wonder, is the Ebon Luohe Emperor too generous and kind-hearted for letting a weak man like him speak against him or...

Is he afraid of this woman beside him?

He was sure it was the latter...

Sorion Kalen was increasingly getting frustrated seeing Zhao Tian's reluctance and his Emperor had to sit and talk this out.

With a thoughtful look, Zhao Tian spoke "The situation in the star is quite complicated."

Zarek Talon gave a nod "Hm, I am all ears."

Zhao Tian began to explain, how normal humans were not aware of this thing called 'cultivation' till now.

And because of the sudden astral beasts' wave, the star evolved into a High star and of course, he hid about the barriers sucking astral energy till now.

And now the complete star is in frenzy being suddenly bathed in these new events in just over a week.

Hearing this, Zarek Talon's gaze narrowed "So... that's how your star evolved, truly a miracle as they say."

Artoria Evelynne who was beside him also heard the story and gave a nod "That's indeed the second way for a star to ascend."

Zhao Tian moved his eyes to her asked "Second way? is there a first way?"

Looking at his curious eyes, Artoria's gaze softened 'He is so cute...'

"Well, this second way is like a manual way..."

"You may think, then why don't you just release a large number of astral beasts into a middle star and inject a high concentration of astral energy into it and trigger its ascension."

Hearing this, Zarek Talon let out a sigh and spoke "With our advanced technology, we tried to do that by injecting high concentration into a middle star, but there were no results."

Artoria Evelyne's gaze narrowed and she looked at Zarek Talon "Can't you see I am explaining..."

Zarek Talon panicked and lowered his head "My apologies..."

She then turned to Zhao Tian and uttered with a warm smile "So, Mr. Zhao Tian..."

Zhao Tian was quite surprised by the sudden 180-degree personality change.. damn

"Usually, a middle star ascends when it enters the high Star circle by itself."

"By itself?"

With a soft giggle, Artoria continued "You know that stars revolve around the sun, and the sun revolves around the galaxy and the galaxy also moves at a slow pace across space."

"So... while moving like this, some stars in the galaxy may enter this High Star circle which is rich in astral energy and it triggers ascension."

"This is the first way, Natural Ascension."

"And what happened in your star is in the second way..."

"Though in this manual ascension, it is only one in a million chances it triggers the ascension."

Artoria Evelyne knows, that though a star meets all requirements for ascension... at the end, it is decided by the heavens if it wants to ascend or not.

'And this time the heavens have ascended the star where the Honoured One was residing...'

After hearing the explanation, Zhao Tian nodded his head and glanced at Zarek Talon "So Mr.Zarek, you might have already guessed... people in the star are awakening as cultivators."

"But there are very less cultivators, so we need people from your star to aid the new cultivators... and we also need resources like cultivation scrolls, pills, weapons and many other things."

"And want you to teach about your technology to the people of my star."

Hearing the demands, Sorion Kalen's jaw almost dropped 'T-This... This guy is just asking too much. What the hell?'

'We are already providing protection from other stars and from space pirates. And this brat is asking too much... greedy bastard.'

Zarek Talon felt a cold stare on him and he already knew who it was.

With a 'warm' smile he spoke "Haha, sure... Mr.Tian, after all, your star is special and speaking with you... I already consider you as my friend."

"So of course we can do that for your star..."

Seeing his face, Zhao Tian laughed in his heart, and both of them stood from their seats as they shook their hands, sealing the deal.

Keeping his smile, Zhao Tian spoke "If there are any other requests, I will tell Mr.Zalek in the future...."

Again feeling the cold stare, Zalek Talon sighed in his heart 'We are not the ones exploiting him. he is the one exploiting us...'

"Yeah, sure.. Mr.Tian, it was a pleasure meeting you..."

Zhao Tian retracted his hand and spoke "Then I am taking my leave Mr.Zalek for now. I need to convey the good news to other people in the star."

However at this time, Artoria Evelyne intervened "Wait, Mr.Zhao Tian... I still have some things to talk with you."

Chapter 422: With Artoria 1!

Smiling, Zhao Tian looked at Zarek Talon and spoke "Then I am taking my leave, Mr.Zalek for now. I need to convey the good news to other people in the star."

Zarek Talon nodded his head "Yes, Mr.Tian... Sorion, guide him."

"As you say, Your Highness."

However at this time, Artoria Evelyne intervened, "Hold on a moment, Mr.Zhao Tian... I still have some things to talk about with you."

Looking at her, Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "You want to talk to me?"

With a nod, she stood up from her seat and glanced at Zarek Talon in the corner of her eyes "When will you be leaving from this star?"

Zarek Talon replied with a thoughtful face "When my daughter returns... like within few hours we will leave this star."

"After that I shall send groups from my star to aid this star according to Mr.Tian's demands."

Hearing this, Artoria Evelyne nodded her head in satisfaction and moved her eyes to Zhao Tian, a smile gracing her lips.

"Follow me... Mr.Zhao Tian." She uttered before leaving the room.

Sighing in his heart, Zhao Tian also followed her to leave the room.

Before long, the two of them stepped out of the ark and appeared outside, floating in the air and Zhao Tian checked the time on his mobile and saw it is past morning.

The helicopters, which were rounding around the large ark also turned their cameras to Zhao Tian.

"Quick, Quick... it is Mr.Zhao Tian..."

"He is out now."

The people who were waiting in the stream were also excited to hear this and wondered.

"Is he alright?"

"What happened inside."

"ZHAO TIANNNN!!!"

Artoria Evelyne who was beside him giggled faintly looking at the helicopters and muttered in a soft tone "Mr. Zhao Tian certainly seems to have a lot of admirers."

Zhao Tian smiled dryly and replied, "You can just call me Tian... Artoria."

Artoria Evelyne's gaze softened upon hearing this and a gold light shot from her ring as a space ark appeared in front of them.

swish The door opened and Artoria Evelyne stepped in "Welcome, Tian..."

Zhao Tian also entered the ark after her and the door instantly closed.

Hm. Zhao Tian looked around curiously and it was like a small living room inside the ark with two couches and a small round white table at the side which has three chairs.

There are also glass windows to see what's happening outside.

In that closed space there are two doors, one in the front and another one in the back, which has an intricate design.

Artoria Evelyne gestured towards the couch and uttered "Please be seated, Tian..."

With a nod, Zhao Tian walked to the couch, letting his body sink in the soft fabric and Artoria opened the front door to go to the front of the ark.

Hm? Zhao Tian turned to look outside the window and saw that the ark was already moving.

"Woah..." he was totally surprised, as he didn't feel the ark move even a bit and now they are already flying.

Artoria Evelyne exited the control room, a subtle smile gracing her lips as she paused for a moment. "Hold on a second, Tian. I'll just go and bring something for you to drink. It'll only take a minute."

She uttered and walked to the back door, leaving the room.

As she left, Zhao Tian's curious eyes glanced around the luxurious room, and he noticed that they had stopped moving.

Hm? He turned around to look at the window and saw that they were currently in the atmosphere of Earth.

Letting out a soft sigh, he walked towards the back door and held the handle firmly, pushing it open.

There he saw a small corridor with one door at the end of the corridor and another one at the right side of the wall.

He turned his eyes to the left and saw the jambs of the doorframe, but there was no door there.

Frowning slightly, he entered and saw that it was actually a kitchen with utensils.

There he saw, Artoria Evelyne pouring tea into a cup from the tea pot as steam rose from the cup.

Artoria Evelyne also noticed him and turned her head "Tian..."

Zhao Tian showed a faint smile and walked close to her as the sweet aroma of the tea tickled his nose.

His eyes then wandered around and then his gaze landed on a refrigerator-looking thing.

Intrigued, he walked to it and opened the small door to look what was inside.

He was quite surprised to see the colorful assortment of sweets and cakes neatly arranged on the shelves.

Artoria Evelyne looked at his surprised face in the corner of her eyes and giggled in her heart finding his antics so cute.

'As she said... he does like sweets and have a quite weird habit of eating cake with tea and sweet tooth.'

Zhao Tian looked around and took a plate and spoon. Then he sliced a piece of cake and placed it on the table.

Artoria Evelyne blushed faintly as she felt like they were being Husband and wife as he is doing things on his own, inside her ark without the awkwardness of being a 'guest'.

He took the plate and shot a glance at Artoria before leaving the kitchen and entering the living room.

A little later, Artoria Evelyne followed him to enter the living room and saw him eating the cake, sitting on the couch.

She went and sat beside him, placing the teacup on the glass table in front of the couch.

"Here, Tian..."

With a nod, Zhao Tian took the tea cup in his hand and took a sip of it.

'Woah...' Zhao Tian was impressed by the taste of the tea and uttered "The tea is great..."

Artoria Evelyne gave a nod and spoke "Thank you... and how is this ark?"

Zhao Tian smiled faintly and replied "It is also great..."

With a giggle, Artoria Evelyne asked "You like it?"

"Yeah..."

"Then you can take it."

Zhao Tian was quite surprised "Eh?"

Seeing his reaction, Artoria Evelyne giggled and spoke "You can take it if you like it, Tian."

A soft sigh escaped Zhao Tian's lips and he shook his head helplessly before taking another sip of the tea.

"So... what are your intentions with me?"

Hm? Artoria Evelyne raised an eyebrow upon hearing his words.

Chapter 423: With Artoria 2!

A soft sigh escaped Zhao Tian's lips and he shook his head helplessly before taking another sip of the tea.

"So... what are your intentions with me?"

Hm? Artoria Evelyne raised an eyebrow upon hearing his words and tilted her head like an innocent lamb "What are my intentions with you?"

Seeing this, Zhao Tian spoke with a light chuckle "Come on... don't act like that. You suddenly appeared out of nowhere and is being so kind to me."

"Because of your presence... I could seal a great deal with Zarek and now, you are offering this ark to a man you just met today."

"All because you want to get a good place in my heart and get brownie points?"

"What could the reason be?"

Smiling, he glanced into her purple eyes "I am not sure if I have anything that I can offer to a woman who is from the Astral Realm."

Artoria Evelyne was quite surprised that he even guessed that she was from the Astral Realm and calmly took a sip of her morning tea.

"Well, I do have some ill intentions."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian frowned slightly and asked "And... what are those?"

With a soft smile gracing her lips, Artoria Evelyne asked "Can I be straightforward?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Please be blunt and straightforward."

Nodding her head, Artoria Evelyne muttered in a soft tone "I have fallen for you Tian... it was love at first sight."

What the hell?

Zhao Tian was taken aback to hear this, as obviously, this was not the answer he was expecting to hear.

However, his gaze narrowed and he uttered "I find it hard to believe... you just saw me like an hour ago."

Giggling, Artoria Evelyne asked in a teasing tone "Why, Tian? Are you not confident in your looks?"

Zhao Tian shamelessly nodded his head and replied "I know I am damn handsome and confident in my looks... but to charm a woman from Astral Realm in an instant?"

Artoria Evelyne took a sip of the tea "Oh.. please have more confidence in your looks, Tian. You have such a charming face... I am sure women would flock to you."

Zhao Tian still has doubts because he simply can't believe that she is doing all of this to earn his love.

But then he realized something and asked "Maybe... this is not the first time you have met me, do you?"

Artoria Evelyne was surprised and seeing her surprised face, Zhao Tian frowned slightly.

Letting out a sigh, Artoria Evelyne spoke "Ok, you caught me. This is not the first time... I have seen you, Tian."

With a nod, Zhao Tian asked "Tell me the details..."

Artoria Evelyne took another sip and began to explain "Well, you see this ark is so good, right? I felt really bad for always keeping this ark idle... so I began to wander around the universe with this ark."

"And when I was traveling like that, I was surprised when I saw a solar system in this galaxy where it was not supposed to be."

"So I got curious and I later realized that this star must have ascended from a middle star."

"And I checked this star..."

"When I entered, I first saw you... slaying some beasts and I was instantly charmed by your handsome face."

novel-hosted-MvLeMpYr

Zhao Tian was surprised but then he realized that he couldn't sense her presence because she was stronger than him and at the same time... he felt it was creepy to stalk him like that.

"I continued to watch over you and saw how you effortlessly slain those Astral beasts to save your star."

"Seeing your heroic deeds, I instantly fall in love with you.. You were so cool." She said with a wide smile on her face.

"But since your star has just been ascended... it is vulnerable and can easily be invaded by other forces revolving in the High Star circle."

"How could I let anyone destroy the star my lover fought hard to protect... so I decided that I should help him and his star."

With a shy smile, she spoke "You will surely be creeped out if I suddenly appear in front of you and say 'I love you and I will save your star.' right?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Of course, I would be."

Artoria Evelyne shrugged her hands "See? That is why I contacted Ebon Luohe Star and asked them to occupy your star... so that your star would be in safe hands."

"Ahem... and with that, I thought I could appear in a cool ark and impress you."

"But when I saw you, I couldn't hold myself back and hugged you there."

"And after that, you know what happened."

She completed her 'real' story and again began to drink her tea like an innocent child.

Zhao Tian who heard her whole story was actually dumbfounded as that shit actually made sense.

'So... she really loves me?'

'Because there is no way, Ebon Luohe star found our star which is somewhere in the corner of High Star circle within a week and they also seemed to fear her when she first appeared.'

'So, it was sure that she was the one who called them.'

'And I don't have anything valuable for a woman from Astral Realm, other than my... physique.'

'But not everyone can see through my Honoured One physique unless they have Astral Constellation physique.'

'The Astral Constellation Physique holders have the power to see through other people's physiques and in my knowledge, only two people have this, Shenyi and Freya's mother.'

'And even if this woman has this Astral Constellation Physique... she is so much stronger than me, so if she wants, she can kill me or even take me from here.'

'So... she really loves me?'

'There is only one way to find out...'

tak he gently placed the tea cup and moved close to her, softly uttering her name "Artoria..."

Artoria Evelyne was surprised by his sudden approach and Zhao Tian reached out, gently grasping her delicate waist and pulling her close to him.

Her face instantly became red in embarrassment and Zhao Tian glanced down at her lips which were covered by the purple veil.

He didn't bother and leaned forward, placing a soft kiss on her lips over the soft fabric of the veil.

gasp Artoria Evelyne was shocked, but she unconsciously closed her eyes, giving in and reciprocating the kiss.

Huh? Zhao Tian was shocked to see this 'So she really..'

He pulled back from the kiss and Artoria Evelyne opened her eyes, a soft smile appearing on her lips "Tian..."

But seeing his shocked face, she quickly realized "Did you just kiss me... to test my feelings?"

Clearly getting annoyed by this, she placed the teacup on the table and pushed him from her.

"Let go of me, bastard... you are the worst."

Chapter 424: With Artoria 3!

Seeing Zhao Tian's shocked face, she quickly realized "Did you just kiss me... to test my feelings?"

Clearly becoming increasingly irritated by his behavior, she set the teacup down on the table with a slight clatter and firmly pushed him away from her, creating a noticeable distance between them.

"Let go of me, bastard... you are the worst."

Pushing him from her, she moved and sat on the edge of the sofa, frustrated by the little stunt he pulled just now.

After waiting for a thousand years, she has finally come to meet him and their first kiss is fake and he was just testing her.

Zhao Tian was sitting on the couch, still surprised, looking at Artoria Evelyne.

He expected her to push him in the last moment or something like that, so he could prove that she doesn't actually like him and was simply bluffing.

Because women like Artoria hold their chastity at high value and won't let any man touch them easily.

However, he didn't expect her to actually reciprocate his kiss.

He really didn't expect his face would charm even an Astral Realm woman at first glance.

Seeing that the woman was in a bad mood, Zhao Tian sighed in his heart and could understand why she was angry.

Not knowing how to approach as he felt really awkward to talk to her right now after what he did.
"Uh..."

Artoria Evelyne's eyes trembled as she looked at him in the corner of her eyes and she hesitated for a moment, her heart racing, "Come on, at least try to console me..."

With a faint smile, he moved closer to her and wrapped his arm around her shoulder, pulling her closer.

"Actually... I didn't think you would kiss me back."

Artoria Evelyne pouted her lips upon hearing this, but then a sigh escaped her lips and she uttered "I know... you wanted to be cautious, when a woman suddenly appeared and said she loves you."

"But kissing her to test her feelings is just... worst."

Sighing in his heart, Zhao Tian replied "Well, I apologize for that..."

With a playful glint in her eyes, she lightly nudged his chest with her elbow, a teasing smile dancing on her lips. "You better be, you charming rascal," she said, her tone a mix of affection and mock severity.

"That hurts..."

As Zhao Tian felt her playful hit, he put on a dramatic show, smiling dryly while rubbing his chest as if he were genuinely hurt and Artoria Evelyne couldn't suppress her giggle upon seeing his reaction.

"Hahaha..."

-content

Seeing her laugh, Zhao Tian let out a sigh, a wave of relief washing over him "Seems like you have forgiven me..."

Artoria Evelyne's gaze softened as she raised her hands, bringing them to her face and with deliberate care, she brought her delicate fingers to the edges of her veil, slowly pulling it away from her face

As the fabric fell away, she revealed her full face to him for the first time.

Zhao Tian smiled looking at her gorgeous face and his gaze fell on her velvety cherry lips, which are practically screaming and begging for him to kiss and bite that tender flesh.

Artoria Evelyne also noticed his gaze lingering on her lips and a warm feeling blossomed within her heart knowing that he was charmed by her beauty.

Zhao Tian saw her lips curl into an enchanting smile and sweet, teasing words escaped her lips "Who said... I have forgiven you?"

Hm? Zhao Tian raised his gaze from her lips to her purple eyes and saw the playfulness dancing in her eyes.

With his hand still around her shoulder, he leaned in closer "How can I melt the anger of this... beautiful lady here?"

Hearing his words, Artoria Evelyne smiled fondly and asked "Tian... let me ask you this..."

"Do you love me?"

Zhao Tian smiled back and replied honestly "No..."

Artoria Evelyne's gaze quivered upon hearing this and she again hit his chest yelling in a soft voice "Why not bastard... why would you not want me?"

"I love you, so you should love me too..."

Zhao Tian could only sigh and smile wryly "You are crazy enough to think that I would say okay to a woman who suddenly appeared today."

"We have just met today..."

Sulking her lips in his arm, she replied "But see, I love you... I also met you just recently... It was love at first sight."

Whilst saying this outside, her heart clenched in pain looking at his face 'Tian... Tian... I have been waiting for you for years...'

Zhao Tian gave a nod and replied, keeping his smile "But we barely know each other, Artoria..."

Artoria Evelyne raised her hands, placing them on his shoulders "If there is anything you want to know, I will tell you anything. My bust size is-"

"Wait, not that... you idiot."

Zhao Tian couldn't help but laugh and ask "What would you do if I am actually a misogynist?"

Artoria Evelyne nodded without hesitation. "If you told me to welcome you back on my kness when you come home, I will do that. I will cook meals for you daily and walk three steps behind you."

"And I won't say no to anything in bed... you can explore all kinds of kinky stuff with me."

Wait, wait... what?

He can already feel another Zahra Ashante in the making...

Looking into her purple eyes, Zhao Tian was dumbfounded "Artoria?"

Artoria Evelyne took a deep breath to calm her heart and uttered "Tian... I am serious. I love you... I know it might be ridiculous for you to hear."

Zhao Tian smiled dryly in his heart because he knew someone who directly came to him and sniffed him on their first meeting and said she loves him.

At least, Artoria is better than her in that case.

Zhao Tian reached out tenderly caressing her cheek with his fingers and muttered in a soft tone "Artoria... I am still not in love with you, but I am surely attracted to you and-"

A wide smile appeared on Artoria Evelyne's face and she jumped into his arms like a cat and hugged him "Thank you so much, Tian..."

"Don't worry.. This is enough... I will surely make you fall for me with my charm."

Zhao Tian was amused in his heart as to how fast she changed from an elegant woman to this now "You seem confident..."

Artoria Evelyne nodded her head "Of course..."

Chapter 425: With Artoria 4!

"Tian..."

Artoria Evelyne plunged into Zhao Tian's arms, her arms wrapping around his neck, and sighing in his heart, Zhao Tian hugged her back.

As she raised her head, Zhao Tian gazed into her gentle purple eyes and saw the genuine love for him... the same kind of eyes he had seen in his other women.

He slowly began to understand that she really likes him as she even went to such extent to bring the Ebon Luohe people to help his star.

Looking at his blue eyes, Artoria Evelyne muttered "I told you I still haven't forgiven you..."

With a light hearted chuckle, Zhao Tian asked "Oh, what amends should I do for you to forgive me?"

A smile graced her lips as she replied "Kiss me... Compensate for the fake kiss with a real kiss."

Zhao Tian glanced down at her juicy lips and raised his left hand, gently caressing her lower lip and she opened her mouth gently allowing him to play with her lips.

"Hm? you like my lips?"

"They do look edible..."

As he leaned forward to take a bite, Artoria Evelyne's lifted her hand and placed her palm on his lips, stopping him from kissing her.

Zhao Tian kissed her palm and she giggled "What? You want to kiss my lips?"

"You are the one who asked me to-" she pressed her palm on his lips stopping him from speaking another word.

With a seductive smile dancing on her lips, she licked her lips and asked "That's not how you answer that question. Do you want to kiss my lips?"

Looking at her lips, Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah..."

As she got the answer she was expecting, she retracted her hand and Zhao Tian moved forward, capturing her lips in a sweet kiss.

smooch Artoria Evelyne's breath hitched, her heart beating faster as she leaned into him, savoring the soft texture of his lips.

Zhao Tian's hands slid down from her waist, slowly reaching down as he opened his palm softly grasping her ass.

gasp Feeling his sudden touch, she gasped under the breath of his kiss, however, Zhao Tian didn't let her lips go and delicately bit on her upper lip.

Zhao Tian moved slightly, lifting her effortlessly onto his lap, and she followed, her knees resting on either side of him as she straddled him, her body molding perfectly against his.

Artoria's fingers threaded through his hair as her lips molded perfectly against his, soft and full, enticing him.

Their lips moved in a delicate movement, gentle at first but quickly growing more passionate as they began to suck on each other's lips.

Zhao Tian's lips parted, his breath mingling with hers as he kissed her harder, more insistently, as if he'd been holding back for too long.

She moved forward, pressing herself even closer to him, feeling the firm muscles of his chest beneath her breasts, pulling her flush against him.

With a delicate touch, Zhao Tian's other hand caressed her cheek, tracing the outline of her jaw before trailing down her neck.

"Tian..." she whispered, her voice laced with desire and affection.

Zhao Tian broke the kiss briefly, his lips hovering just a breath away from hers as he gazed into her eyes. His blue eyes, normally so calm and composed, were now filled with desire

"You really haven't forgiven me... did you?"

Artoria smiled, her eyes gleaming. "I might... after a little more convincing." Her fingers trailed along his chest, teasing him, as she clutched his shirt drawing him closer once more.

Before she could respond, he leaned in again, capturing her lips in another kiss, this time deeper and slower.

Artoria's heart pounded in her chest, her body responding to him in ways she couldn't control.

She wrapped her arms around his neck, holding him closer as their kiss intensified "Tian..."

When his hand reached her jaw, he tilted her head slightly, his lips leaving a trail of soft kisses from her lips to her cheek, then down to her neck.

Artoria's breath hitched, her skin tingling at his touch as his lips grazed her throat, soft but deliberate.

He lingered there for a moment, his breath warm against her neck, before pressing a gentle kiss to the base of her throat.

"Haah..." Artoria gasped softly, her body responding to his touch as she tilted her head to the side, giving him better access.

Zhao Tian took his time, his lips trailing along the curve of her neck, his kisses soft but filled with a growing intensity.

"You're enjoying this, aren't you?" she teased, her voice soft and breathless.

Zhao Tian chuckled softly, his lips still pressed against her neck. "More than you know."

Artoria shivered as he spoke, his breath hot against her skin, his lips trailing lower along her collarbone.

Her body responded to him, her fingers gripping his shoulders as she pressed herself closer, feeling the heat of his body against hers.

His hands moved up her back again, one hand tangling in her hair as he kissed her deeply, passionately.

In the heat of the moment, Zhao Tian decided to take a big step and slid his left hands from her cheek, reaching down to her chest as he softly pressed her boob.

"Hmnngh~"

Her eyes fluttered open, but she didn't mind that and closed her eyes, focusing on his lips which are raining her neck with kisses.

-read-first

"Tian..."

Zhao Tian's hands gracefully moved behind her, and with a deliberate movement, he began to remove her robe, taking his time as he carefully unfastened the fabric.

Feeling the clothes loosening around her chest, a soft breath escaped her lips "Haah... Tian...."

She could feel her robes slowly slipping down her shoulders and Zhao Tian's lips trailed from her collarbone to her bare shoulder as he pressed a deep kiss there.

His heart beat quickened as he turned his gaze to her chest and saw the robe slowly slipping away, beginning to reveal her enticing cleavage.

He found himself momentarily entranced, unable to look away as the delicate material continued to fall, revealing the soft contours of her figure.

"Artoria.."

Breathing her name, he brought his lips closer to her cleavage and kissed her chest inhaling her intoxicating scent.

The desire to ravish this woman swirled in his heart and as the robe slipped down further, he could see the deep cleavage.

He could feel his throat getting dry and not being able to control his urge he grabbed the left side of the robe, his fingers curling around the fabric and pulled it along with the white cloth surrounding her chest.

"Mmngh~~"

His hazy blue eyes glanced at the left curvy boob, with a sweet pink nipple on top of it.

Feeling his gaze, Artoria was embarrassed, and as he moved his face closer to her breast, she could feel his hot breath hitting her sensitive nipple.

As he moved his lips to suck on her nipple, Artoria Evelyne suddenly remembered something and her eyes snapped open.

'W-Wait... i interfered with the destiny?'

Chapter 426: Leaving Artoria!

Artoria Evelyne snapped off from the mood and opened her eyes 'Did I interfere with his destiny? I-I... have this bad feeling of doing something I shouldn't.'

As Zhao Tian was about to suck on her nipple, Artoria Evelyne grasped his shoulders and pushed him from her.

Zhao Tian was startled by her sudden push and she got down from his lap, panicking in her heart as she stood up.

Seeing her being nervous, Zhao Tian also rose from the couch "Sorry, did you not like it?..." he apologized as he felt like he really went overboard there.

He just met her today and is already grasping her boob so he thought he was being pushy with her.

Hearing his apology, Artoria Evelyne hurriedly shook her head "No... No, Tian, i_" she closed her eyes and took a deep breath.

She took a step forward and hugged him "Tian... I didn't hate it when you touched me... I am even ready to give my chastity to you right now, b-but I suddenly remembered an important thing and I need to go back to the Astral Realm."

Huh? Zhao Tian was surprised and Artoria Evelyne retracted the hug as she began to correct her dress, properly wearing it.

After tidying her clothes, she looked at him, a soft smile spreading across her lips "Tian... just remember that I love you from the bottom of my heart. However... right now... I don't have enough time to spend with you."

"I have to return to my clan..."

Feeling the urgency in her tone, Zhao Tian nodded his head "Ok... then, when can we meet again?"

Upon hearing this question, Artoria Evelyne's gaze trembled as she lowered her head "I don't know... but I am sure, we will meet again in the future."

"And when I have time, I will come for you, Tian."

She leaned forward and pecked his lips before taking a storage ring from her own storage ring.

Smiling, she reached out to take his palm and placed the ring on his palm "Keep this in memory of me, and inside it, there are a lot of Divine Astral stones."

"This ark is from the Astral Realm, so High and Middle Astral stones don't work in it. You should use these Divine Astral stones as the power source."

Before leaving, she hugged him for one last time and whispered in his ear "Don't forget that I will always love you... and will miss you."

Hearing her soft words caressing her ears, Zhao Tian's gaze grew tender and he hugged her back "I hope to see you soon, Artoria..."

gasp Artoria Evelyne was taken aback to hear this and her eyes trembled as tears moistened, blurring her vision.

'I-I also... want to stay with you, Tian... but I shouldn't just interfere in your destiny. I have waited for a thousand years... I don't mind waiting for a little longer.'

Zhao Tian felt her hug on him becoming tighter and she uttered "Tian... let me stay like this for a while."

A sigh escaped Zhao Tian's lips as he nodded "Yeah... as long as you want."

After a few minutes, Artoria Evelyne pulled back from the hug and Zhao Tian saw the tears scorching down her cheeks "Ar... toria?"

Artoria Evelyne showed a big smile and uttered "I am leaving, Tian. See you later..."

As she spoke, she moved towards the door and pushed the small button near the door and it swung open. swish

She dashed out of the ark and levitated in the atmosphere as another ark appeared there from her storage ring.

Entering the ark, she cast a final glance at Zhao Tian and the door of the ark closed.

Zhao Tian watched as Artoria Evelyne left him and took a deep breath.

thud He slowly stumbled back to sit on the couch and he felt a weird sensation in his heart.

He never thought a woman he saw today would leave a great impact on him.

Raising his hand, he placed the palm on his beating heart as a smile appeared on his lips.

"Seems like... I got another reason to become stronger and reach the Astral realm..."

As he said, he looked down at his crotch and saw the boner.

"Haah, I never expected her to leave me hanging like this. First, I have to go and see my wives to cure this."

flick Zhao Tian appeared back in the artifact and looked at Xia Shenyi, Zhao Suyin, Zhao Ying, Ning Zuiye, and Ning Yueli waiting for him.

"Tian'er."

"Tian..."

"Brother Tian..."

Smiling, he sat between Xia Shenyi and Zhao Suyin on the couch, letting out a deep exhale.

Xia Shenyi patted his head and hurriedly asked "Tian... how did it go?"

However, Zhao Suyin intervened "More than that, Tian'er... what were you doing in the ark that gave you a boner?"

Huh? The women looked at his crotch and saw the huge bulge.

"Well, something happened."

MVLeMpYr-chapter

Ning Yueli giggled playfully "As I said, Brother Tian is cheating on us."

Looking at his bulge, Zhao Suyin gently got down from the couch and kneeled in front of him, as she raised her hands to tie her hair into a ponytail.

With a seductive smile, "Well... I have to take good care of my son. This is not good for his health..."

She reached out and pulled down his pants along with his boxers, as his dick popped out like a raging dragon.

The others stared at her blankly seeing her pulling out his dick in the middle of the living room.

"Hehehe." Giggling, Zhao Suyin grasped his hot dick within her delicate fingers and leaned forward giving a kiss on the tip of his cock.

"Tian'er..."

She let out her tongue and began to lick his dick moistening it with her saliva.

"Haah..." Zhao Tian let out a satisfied groan feeling his Mother's moist tongue rolling on the sensitive tip of his dick, giving him pleasure.

Ning Zuiye and Ning Yueli were embarrassed to see this scene, as they had never tried to pleasure him orally.

Zhao Ying stood up and began to remove her pajamas.

Along with her, Xia Shenyi also began to unfasten her robes "Considering how much of a pervert you are... we can't have a talk without satisfying that thing."

The robes slipped down and pooled around her legs as she pushed her boobs on his face "You goddamn pervert..."

Zhao Tian hugged her waist and opened his lips to suck on her nipples and at this time, Zhao Ning also moved forward, kissing his neck.

"Tian'er..."

Chapter 427: Subduing the bulge in his pants

"Haargh... Mom...."

Zhao Suyin raised her gaze to look at Zhao Tian and keeping her eyes in contact with him, she let out her tongue, licking his dick from the base of the cock to the tip.

With a sultry voice "Tian'er... you like your Mom's blowjobs the best, right?" she asked stroking his hard dick up and down.

Looking down at her, Zhao Tian smiled and opened his lips to speak, however, Xia Shenyi turned his chin and kissed him.

She pulled back the kiss, her lips hovering an inch from his "This woman... Suyin is always taking your attention..."

Giggling, Zhao Suyin rolled her slippery tongue on his tip tasting the precum "Say you are jealous that Tian'er loves me the most."

Xia Shenyi again kissed his lips and Zhao Tian's right hand slid to her waist as he groped her ass.

On the left side, Zhao Ying leaned forward, kissing his neck, her dainty fingers running through his chiseled chest teasing him.

"Urghh.." As he felt a sudden pleasure hit him, Zhao Tian retracted his lips from the kiss and looked down at his Mom who had his whole dick inside her mouth.

Feeling her throat muscles twisting on his tip, Zhao Tian felt a pleasure of satisfaction wash over him and he sighed in contentment.

"Haah..." He grunted again as Zhao Suyin began to twirl her tongue on his shaft, giving him pleasure with her slippery tongue.

slurp slurp She raised her head up and down, giving him a blowjob, and Zhao Tian closed his eyes in bliss.

Xia Shenyi again captured his lips in a kiss and Zhao Ying let out her tongue licking his ear making it redder.

Zhao Tian felt at the peak of pleasure being serviced by three women on all sides and relished in the heavenly feeling.

Ning Yueli and Ning Zuiye glanced at each other, embarrassed to see them making out so shamelessly.

Ning Zuiye was the first one to stand up and leave there "L-Let them... in peace."

Following her Ning Yueli also escaped from the room, so mortified by the situation.

Pulling back her lips, Zhao Ying whispered in a husky voice "Little Brother, I can smell... another woman's fragrance from your body."

Xia Shenyi who was kissing him, pulled back the kiss and mumbled under his breath "Yeah... I also got that sweet fragrance from you...."

With a sly smile, Zhao Ying mumbled "This is no good, Little Brother... it seems like, as Yueli said you were cheating on us."

"This calls for a punishment, my cute little brother..."

A playful smile appeared on her face as she opened her lips, biting his ear while licking his earlobe at the same time.

Her fingers which were caressing his abs, slowly trailed up to his chest as she teased his nipple with her fingers.

"Bad little brother..."

With a playful glint in her eyes, she pinched his nipple twisting it and Zhao Tian felt a shiver run down his spine "Ying'er?"

Hearing this, Zhao Ying smirked and hushed in his ear "Call me Big Sister... you are getting punished now...." She twisted his nipple even more.

Zhao Tian also played along with her and wrapped his left arm around her waist, his fingers traveling down to her crotch.

"Hmnggh..." Xia Shenyi pushed her tongue inside his mouth and he also reciprocated her aggressiveness with the same passion.

Their slippery tongues intertwined as they tasted their mixed saliva and Xia Shenyi could feel a tint of the taste of tea from his saliva.

As she pulled back from the kiss, a thin strand of saliva was connecting their lips and Xia Shenyi asked "You were having tea with that woman..."

Zhao Tian gave a faint nod "Yeah..."

"I see..."

With that, she grasped his chin and again plunged in for a kiss, directly inserting her tongue again.

Zhao Ying was kissing her shoulder liking his skin, as her tongue slowly trailed down to his chest.

Looking at his nipple, she grinned and placed a sweet kiss on it before letting out her tongue and licking his nipple.

"Urghh." Zhao Tian whose mind was already muddled by his Mother's lips on his cock, turned his eyes to look at his big sister, who was sucking on his nipple.

"Big Sister..."

Zhao Ying continued to suck and lick on his nipple teasing him, while her fingers are caressing his robust abs.

Zhao Suyin's mind was growing crazy as she continued to suck Zhao Tian's dick 'Ahhh, my son's cock is so good... hmmm....'

squeach squeach Saliva continued to ooze off her lips but she didn't stop.

"Yeah.. he must have returned..."

At this time, Ning Xue and Ning Zhilian walked into the living room and they were curious to hear some noises.

And as they came inside, their jaws dropped instantly looking at the scene inside.

Zhao Tian is sitting on the couch half-naked while the other three are servicing him.

Ning Zhilian's gaze inadvertently fell on his crotch and she gasped in shock looking at the huge dick which is going in and out of Zhao Suyin's mouth.

'W-Woah.. so that is Tian's... wait no... WHAT?'

Ning Xia was flustered and hurriedly turned to Ning Zhilian and grabbed her hand, "Big Sister, let's leave here... "

She uttered and pulled Ning Zhilian out of there who was still in a daze after looking at the heavenly shaft.

Under their stimulations, Zhao Tian quickly reached his edge and grabbed Zhao Suyin's head "Mom.."

gasp Zhao Suyin's eyes widened as Zhao Tian suddenly grabbed her hair and began to ram his dick into her mouth.

squeech squeech Zhao Ying retracted her lips and watched Zhao Tian violently pound his dick into Zhao Suyin's lips.

She was amused seeing his aggressiveness and she even saw Zhao Suyin's throat bulging with each push of Zhao Tian's waist.

Getting turned on by this scene, Zhao Ying bit her lips 'Next time... I am sucking his dick and making him fuck my mouth like this.'

Zhao Suyin's eyes rolled up as she was helplessly ravaged in her mouth and all she could do was receive his thrusts.

gawk gawk She was completely under the mercy of his dick as she grabbed his knees and she felt his hot dick throbbing in her mouth.

Her eyes went blank and splurt Zhao Tian shot his thick magma deep into her throat, directly reaching her stomach.

As Zhao Tian pulled his dick out of her mouth, his thick semen sprayed painting Zhao Suyin's face with his white cum.

"Haah..." Zhao Tian took a deep breath and Zhao Ying moved forward kissing him.

Pulling back from the kiss, "Let's go to my room... since we have guests here in the artifact." he muttered. his eyes glancing at the pink fox in the stairs hiding and watch them till now

Chapter 428: Talk with his women!

Zhao Tian is sitting on the bed in his room, his back leaning on the headboard slat of the bed with both Zhao Suyin and Xia Shenyi sitting beside him, leaning on his shoulders.

Zhao Ying is sitting on his lap, with his dick still inside her pussy while resting her head on his shoulder with his arms around her waist.

"So... that's what happened. After successfully sealing the deal with Zarek Talon, I was going crazy with Artoria for a while and she left."

Hearing the story, Xia Shenyi frowned slightly "So now, a woman from the Astral Realm is crazy over you..."

"I showed the picture of that woman to Yixian and asked her if she know her."

"But she said that she doesn't know about her."

Zhao Tian raised his hand patting Zhao Yiang as he uttered "We don't even know how many years it has been since Yixian left the Astral Real-urgh"

He suddenly groaned and with a chuckle he kissed Zhao Yiang's head "Don't twist the inside of your pussy... while I am speaking."

Zhao Ying grinned upon hearing this and tightened her grip on his cock with her inner muscles.

"Ying'er..."

Giggling, Zhao Ying kissed his cheek "Seems like my pussy has taken the shape of your dick Tian'er... it feels good just to be like this with your dick deep inside my pussy."

Zhao Tian smiled upon hearing this and kissed her lips which she readily reciprocated.

Meanwhile, Xia Shenyi is still thinking over the things she heard "Say thanks to your goddamn face, because of it, your whole star has been saved."

"But if it even attracts a woman from the Astral realm... it will bring you trouble when you reach High Star, Tian."

Zhao Tian glanced at her and raised an eyebrow "Because my handsome face will attract a lot of people?"

With a nod, Xia Shenyi spoke "En, many people's attention will be on you... well, you can also get benefits from that just like now."

"But standing out too much in high stars with that physique of yours is dangerous."

Zhao Suyin who was on the other side raised her gaze and asked "But even powerful people can't see through Tian'er's physique right?"

"Only you and that Elf's mother can."

Xia Shenyi nodded her head "En, my Astral Constellation physique is also rare as even some Sects sought my master back in High Stars to ask my hand in marriage."

"But well I rejected everyone..."

"According to the ancient records, there can exist only four of this physiques at the same time."

"Unlike the Honoured One, which can exist only one at a time."

"So me, Freya's mom and there are two others in this universe with the same physique."

"As long as Tian does not catch that person's eyes... it is all right."

"I see..." Zhao Tian muttered under her breath.

With a nod, Xia Shenyi continued "And it seems like that woman truly loves you Tian... She even gave you an ark from Astral Realm."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian's eyes softened "Yeah... because even after removing her clothes, she didn't protest... but seems like she was running out on time."

Zhao Ying, who was in his arms rolled her eyes "What if she was lying?"

With a chuckle, Zhao Tian replied "if that was a lie, she would win an Oscar award for acting."

"Pfftt Baha..."

Xia Shenyi shook her head "No, I don't see any benefits for that woman from Zhao Tian... other than his physique."

"And you also have to be careful when using that ark... because someone might try to steal it from you."

"Tian, you have to be really cautious in High Stars until you reach a certain level of strength. That is why it is good to accommodate yourself in a Sect."

"And show your talents... but not much, because it can also attract some unwanted people."

"But don't stay very low either..."

Zhao Tian understood her concerns and nodded his head "En. I will do that..."

Xia Shenyi continued "Ok, now that the thing about your star is cleared. You should enter closed cultivation to start cultivating."

Hearing this, Zhao Ying intervened "Wait, before that we have to go on a vacation somewhere."

Zhao Tian gave a nod "En, we can think of that later... Now, I need to bath before leaving to meet the world leaders and explain the situation."

"Ok, let us go all together."

swish

With that, the four of them teleported to the lake within the artifact and fell in the middle of the vast lake. splash

"Fuuuu...." Feeling the cold water hit his skin, Zhao Tian let out a sigh of satisfaction.

The others also giggled swimming up to the surface of the lake and at this time, a golden light shot from Zhao Tian's storage ring.

woosh A golden-silver tinged spaceship like ark appeared above the enormous lake casting a large shadow on them.

"Woaaaahhh!!!" Zhao Ying and Zhao Suyin were amazed by the ark floating close to them in the air.

With a slight frown, Xia Shenyi nodded her head "Hm, this looks like a great ark. Better than the ones you could find in High Star."

swish Zhao Ying jumped from the lake splashing the water around her in excitement and floated close to the door of the ark.

The door automatically opened and Zhao Ying stepped inside butt naked.

Zhao Suyin's lips twitched "Ying'er, why are you entering that... when you are wet like this?"

"Mom, it's okay... come on let's go..."

The three of them floated to the door and entered inside the ark.

"Ohh..."

Entering in, Zhao Suyin was amused by the beautiful living room and looked around in wonder.

She then glanced at the back door and walked toward it, while Zhao Suyin and Zhao Ying walked to the front door.

As she pushed open the door, she saw the kitchen on the left, one door to her right, and another door at the end of the narrow corridor.

"Oh, what is this door?"

She opened the door to her right and saw the lavish room inside with a luxurious bed, table and many stuff inside.

"Oh, not bad..."

She entered inside to look around the room and saw a small door at the corner of the room "Is that a bathroom?"

A short while later, Zhao Tian decided to follow her into the bathroom, curious about what she was doing and saw Zhao Suyin playing inside the shower.

Chuckling in his mind, he entered the shower and saw her looking at the blue button the wall "Is this to turn on the shower?"

As she clicked the button, suddenly water sprinkled from above like rain, cascading down her body and Zhao Tian walked towards her, hugging her from behind.

"Mom..."

"Tian..."

Feeling his hug, she smiled but at this time, she felt his cock hitting her asscheek and she turned her eyes over her shoulders to look at his erect cock sandwiched between her ass.

"You are always horny..."

Zhao Tian smiled and softly grasped her boobs "Of course, because my mother's body is so hot..."

Hearing this, Zhao Suyin smiled in satisfaction and walked to the wall as she placed her hands on the wall, raising her ass.

She spread her legs, showing him her pussy walls as a bit of his cum from their sex earlier leaked out.

She turned to look at Zhao Tian with a seductive smile "Come here, my dear..."

Chapter 429: Examining the ark!

Xia Shenyi and Zhao Ying walked towards the front door, which was thicker, and seemed to withstand any large attacks.

"Hm, this must be the control room for this ark." As she muttered, she glanced at the biometric verification panel near the door.

Zhao Ying also noticed that and uttered "Only Tian'er can enter now?"

With a shake of her head, Xia Shenyi spoke "No, this ark seems new, so there must be no biometric locks applied yet."

She pressed the blue button, which is above the biometric panel and the sturdy door slid open.

"Woah..."

Zhao Ying stepped inside cautiously, her breath catching at the sight before her. The control room was larger than she had expected, with a curved, panoramic window offering a breathtaking view of the lake they were in.

She was quite amazed by the futuristic setting of the control room.

Rows of sleek, high-tech control panels lined the walls, each one lit with glowing buttons, levers, and holographic interfaces.

Floating consoles projected three-dimensional models of the ark's systems, from its engines to its navigation routes.

In the center of the room, a massive holographic display showed a rotating image of the ark itself, detailing every section in minute detail.

Zhao Ying's eyes were wide with wonder. "I've never seen anything like this," she whispered, stepping forward curiously.

She glanced down at her naked body which is still wet with lingering waterdrops and uttered "It is okay to step here wet, right?"

"It should be okay..."

Xia Shenyi walked to the rotating holographic image of the ark and raised her hand, as she gestured her finger to zoom in the ark's structure.

Zhao Ying was dumbfounded to see such advanced technology and hurriedly walked near Xia Shenyi "Sister Shenyi... these High Stars are so advanced that us."

"Honestly, after seeing you, I thought the High Stars would be like old Chinese style... still using carriages and stuff like that."

Hearing this, Xia Shenyi let out a chuckle and shook her head "No, actually, our star is also quite like what you said... because the Emperor of our star refuses to accept the technological advances from other stars and he wants the star to be as if it is now."

"Not only our star... there are some other stars too, who like to live in that old style. Well, i also like that."

Zhao Ying shrugged her hands "It is really dumb to not accept the technology when it can make your life easier."

Looking at the holographic structure of the ark, Xia Shenyi replied "Oh, we do utilize some technology... like this ark, which is very essential to travel in space after all."

"I see..." powered-by-NovelBin

A slight frown creased Xia Shenyi's face as she muttered "As I thought, this ark consumes Divine Astral stones for energy."

"Hm? Is that different from regular Astral Stones? Sister Shenyi?"

Xia Shenyi gave a nod "En, Divine Astral stones are only available in the Astral realm and Tian's warehouse also had these Divine astral stones."

"That's how we concluded that the artifact was created by someone in the astral realm."

"Hoh..."

Xia Shenyi turned the holographic ark and continued to investigate it "Hm, the engine room is in the back. There is a living room, a kitchen, a bedroom in this ark."

"Very convenient for Tian and can travel very quickly."

Meanwhile, Zhao Ying turned to look at other things in the rows of control panels, very curious about this technology.

"Be careful, Ying... don't touch everything."

Xia Shenyi walked to her and glanced at the throttle, lever and stick on the main driver seat.

At this time, a button caught her attention and Xia Shenyi pressed it to see what it does.

flick With a sudden light, the whole control room is filled with stars and galaxies floating mid-air in different colors along with a holographic keyboard to the side.

"Woahhh... this is a decoration thingy?"

Zhao Ying chuckled as she reached out to touch the holographically colorful galaxies but her fingers easily passed through them.

"Eh... why is this here? If this is in the bed room, we can sleep with this decoration around us."

However, Xia Shenyi was deep in thought looking at the hologram and muttered "This is not... decoration."

Her gaze narrowed as she realized "This is the map of the whole High Star circle."

What? Zhao Ying was taken aback to hear this and muttered, "Then, does it show where we are now?"

Xia Shenyi shook her head "No, this artifact is in a separate dimension, so it can't detect its own position."

Giggling, Zhao Ying spoke "Then show me your star right now, Sister Shenyi."

With a nod, Xia Shenyi walked to the holo keyboard which just appeared, her boobs jiggling with her each step.

"Hm.. this must be it."

She began to type the name of her star on the keyboard "Ja.. de Ecli..pse Star."

As she clicked enter, the hologram of stars began to zoom into a galaxy as it zoomed even closer, ending in a blue-green star.

"Ohh, this is your home star, Sister Shenyi?"

With a soft smile, Xia Shenyi nodded her head "Yeah..."

Zhao Ying reached out and touched the blue green planet and the whole hologram disappeared as only the holo of the Jade Eclipse star appeared.

The details of the Jade Eclipse star began to appear beside the revolving star.

Looking at this, Zhao Ying was quite puzzled "Eh? Why is it not showing... how long it will take from here and what is the distance from here... the numbers are glitched."

Xia Shenyi replied "That is because the Ark's system can't register the current location it is in right now. So it is glitchy..."

"Ohhh..."

"This is really convenient for Tian. That secret lover did a good job. It is as if destiny called her to give this ark to him."

"Hahaha yeah..."

Xia Shenyi turned to look at the rows of control panels "Let's see what else is here..."

Zhao Ying went and pressed a button. click feen She heard a weird sound and looked around in confusion.

At this time, Xia Shenyi turned to look at the hologram of the arc and muttered "You turned on a defensive mechanism."

"The ark's outer shell is getting covered by a thick metal, but this will slow down the ark."

"Hoh, see that Sister Shenyi... we also have guns in this ark."

"Sitting on the driver seat, we can aim and shoot these guns at other arks."

"Wow, this is cool."

"Hehe, let's try even more buttons."

Chapter 430: Examining the ark 2!

Zhao Tian and Zhao Suyin were bathing in the sprinkling water of the shower, the cold water cascading down their bodies as they stood holding each other in their embrace.

His arms were wrapped around Zhao Suyin's waist, his fingers gently tracing the contours of her back, as though memorizing every inch of her.

As his fingers traveled to her ass cheeks, his head lowered just slightly, his breath warm against her wet hair.

The sound of the droplets echoed softly around them as Zhao Suyin, held on to him, her arms looped around his neck, her cheek resting against his chest.

"Yin'er..."

Zhao Suyin's gaze trembled upon hearing her name from Zhao Tian's lips and a wave of sweet happiness washed over her heart.

"Husband..." a soft mutter escaped her lips, filled with affection.

Smiling in his arms, she gently swayed her hips crushing his erect dick which was pressed between her thighs.

Zhao Suyin couldn't help but chuckle and muttered "What a big pervert you are, Tian'er? We just had two rounds and you are horny again."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian smiled dryly "Why is everyone calling me a pervert?"

"Are you not a pervert?"

Zhao Tian nodded without hesitation "Well, I am, but still..."

"Hahaha..."

Zhao Suyin leaned back just enough to meet his eyes, a smile playing on her lips.

The cold water had caused goosebumps to rise along her arms, but the warmth in Zhao Tian's body made her forget the chill entirely.

"Well, I am also a pervert... lusting after my son."

Zhao Tian grasped her ass squeezing them "Me too ... lusting after my Mom and loving her."

Hearing this, Zhao Suyin raised her thigh as she lowered her hand, gently grasping his cock and guiding it into her pussy.

"Hmnngh~~" As his cock pierced in, she hummed a moan and lowered her thigh, letting the cock push deeper.

"Haangh~ We both are perverts and see how I am moaning to my son's cock in my pussy... Uff... Tian'er..."

"Hngh~~ Since we are perverts, we both are so perfect to each other..."

Feeling her pussy twist and coil around his cock, he grunted in pleasure and grasped her thighs picking her up in his arms.

"Mom...."

"Tian'er... fuck me... more"

...

"Ah, Sister Shenyi can you see me?"

Zhao Ying asked dancing in front of one of the surveillance cameras inside the control room.

Xia Shenyi who was looking at the big monitor showing different cameras across the ark smiled gently "Yeah, I can see you..."

"Oh, good..."

Zhao Ying then turned to Xia Shenyi and uttered "Come on Sister, let us go and check other rooms."

"Yeah..."

Both of them stepped out of the control room and walked through the living room reaching the back door.

Inside there, they saw the kitchen to the left, and the right side door was still open.

"Did Mom and Tian'er go inside the room?"

As both of them stepped inside the room, they heard Zhao Suyin's erotic moans from the bathroom.

"Angh~ Angh~~~ Tian'er... Tian'er... ANGHH~~~"

-- Xia Shenyi shook her head helplessly and stepped out of the room to take a look at the engine room of the ark.

Zhao Ying also followed her to the end of the corridor. NovelBin-chapter

The last door also slid open as Xia Shenyi pressed a button and entering in, they could hear the faint sizzling noises of the engine running.

There were small steps in front of them and they climbed down the stairs reaching the lower deck of the ark.

Inside there, they saw the small divine astral stone flowing with energy.

The structure that is holding the Divine Astral Stone was a marvel in itself—sleek, metallic arms reached out in a circular formation, covered in glowing runes that pulsed with the stone's energy.

Each rune was inscribed with symbols, etched deep into the metal, amplifying and controlling the power the stone emitted.

Above and below the stone, intricate gears and mechanisms moved with silent precision, adjusting and calibrating the flow of energy.

Delicate tendrils of light extended from the stone, reaching out to the intricate web of machinery around it, channeling its immense power into the ship's core systems.

"Oh, wow... isn't this amazing?"

"Yeah, it is..."

Zhao Ying reached out to touch it but Xia Shenyi quickly grabbed her hand and pulled her "Don't touch it... Ying."

"Uh.. okay."

Looking at the stone, Xia Shenyi muttered "Well, it won't always be like this... we need to replace it with a new Divine astral stone as soon as this one loses its energy and breaks away."

"I see..."

swooshhhh At this time, a beautiful ark is dashing through the air at light speed, and with a blur it appeared, hovering in front of the majestic golden gates.

Sensing the ark's arrival, the golden gates opened and the ark entered inside.

The ark levitated in front of the Golden Palace and the door of the ark opened as Artoria Evelyne stepped out.

Walking through the corridors of the luxurious palace, Long Yelan who was crossing that way noticed her "Lady Artoria?"

Looking at her Artoria smiled "Yelan, where is Sister Shi?"

"Master is back in her room."

...

Artoria hurriedly walked to Qian Shi's room to explain to her the things she did, which she fears she should not have done.

Walking to the grand door, she knocked on it "Sister Shi."

Qian Shi who was lying on the luxurious bed rolled down the quilt from her body and muttered in a lazy tone "Artoria, Come in..."

creek Pushing the door, Artoria Evelynne entered in and saw Qian Shi wearing a shirt and pants.

"Sister Shi... I saw some arks belonging to that Jiu Yang circling around the periphery of your domain."

"They noticed me coming here, but didn't seem to have any ill intentions."

"That guy is still obsessed with you?"

Qian Shi's golden eyes fluttered open as she nodded her head "Yeah..."

"Well, Sister Shi is beautiful as the heavens... so, it is normal for even the Ruler of the Astral Realm to court you."

Qian Shi let out a yawn and replied "My beauty is only a part of his reason, the main reason he is courting me is different."

Artoria walked and sat on the edge of the bed "What is it, Sister Shi?"

"He is searching for the Third Honoured One, Vester Maverick and thinks that I can find him."

Hearing this, Artoria was dumbfounded "E-Eh? isn't that Tian?"

"Yeah... even more, Jiu Yang was the one who killed the Second Honoured one!"

"WHAT?"
