

I alone am the Honoured One!

Chapter 6: Meeting the old man!

While sitting in the classroom, Zhao Ying couldn't help but steal a glance at Zhao Tian, who seemed completely engrossed in his own thoughts.

As she reminisced about the morning kiss, a faint blush tinged her cheeks, and her eyes were drawn to his lips almost involuntarily 'Did he give me a sisterly kiss or...?'

Her heart fluttered at the thought of him loving her romantically and she couldn't help but smile 'Oh, the butterflies in my stomach are flapping their wings...'

Zhao Tian's blue eyes glimpsed around the classroom and he felt the astral energy in the air 'Now I can sense them, as Shenyi said the energy is low here...'

Thinking about Xia Shenyi he frowned his eyebrows 'I wonder why I didn't get stuck into this pendant again... only Shenyi got sucked in. Is it because of the golden tattoo?'

A small sigh escaped his lips 'I'll look into that in the evening... I still have other things to do here.'

At this time, he felt Zhao Ying's gaze on him and he turned to look at her "Big sis?"

Zhao Ying snapped out of her daze, "N-Nothing Tian'er..."

Mei Xiu who is teaching the class spoke "Highlight those things which are important." her gaze subtly shifted towards Zhao Tian and saw him talking with Zhao Ying.

As the teacher's voice resonated through the classroom, Zhao Ying hurriedly took the highlighter to highlight the words in the book. Zhao Tian lazily leaned on the desk and closed his eyes to doze off.

However, out of nowhere, he felt a chilling touch on his cheek and opened his eyes only to see Zhao Ying marking his face with the highlighter.

Zhao Ying's eyes were filled with tenderness as she spoke softly "Teacher said to highlight the things which are important to me. So I have to mark my precious little brother, right?" she left a small mark on his cheek.

Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle seeing her adorable silliness and with a playful gleam in his eyes, he gently took the highlighter from her hand "You are special to me too.." he spoke and wrote 'dumb' on her forehead in tiny words.

With a sweet smile, Zhao Ying gently brushed her fingertips against her forehead "You marked me too, hehe..." Zhao Tian laughed in his mind seeing her being clueless.

Meanwhile, Mei Xiu's lips twitched seeing the siblings playing with the highlighter in her class.

Zhao Tian strolled casually down the long, winding hallways of the University reaching a specific door. On the door "President" is engraved on it.

*thud* He smiled and kicked the door open "Oi, Oldman!" he exclaimed stepping in. As he made his way inside he saw two people sitting around the big table, An old man was sitting on one side, and opposite to him another woman was sitting.

The woman stood up startled by the sudden noise, but seeing it was Zhao Tian, she frowned "Student Zhao, is this how you enter the room of the President of our University?"

"Oh, Mei Xiu... what are you doing here?"

Mei Xiu yelled frustrated, "Call me Miss Mei, Student Zhao."

But the old man stood up letting out a hearty and exuberant laugh "Haha, Tian... it's been a while." he exclaimed with genuine delight.

Zhao Tian chuckled and walked towards the table, "It's really been a while, Old man." The old man looked at Mei Xiu "Miss Mei, you can leave now."

Mei Xiu hesitated for a moment before responding "Um.. yeah, Mister President." As she uttered those words, she couldn't help but steal a quick glance at Zhao Tian, her mind filled with curiosity. Do they know each other?

As Mei Xiu walked past him to leave the room, Zhao Tian deftly extended his hand softly pinching her waist. *gik* "Kyahh!" Mei Xiu's body stiffened, letting out a cute voice and her face quickly flushed in pink.

"Y-You... What are you?" Mei Xiu shouted at him rubbing her waist in mild pain. Zhao Tian smiled "That's for always annoying me." looking at her angry blushing face.

Anger raised in her heart even more seeing him teasing her and at this time the old man, Li Jie intervened "Miss Mei, I told you to leave."

Mei Xiu was surprised that the President was in his favor, but she could only nod and say "Yes, President."

As she left, Zhao Tian comfortably sat on the table and Li Jie just smiled wryly "Why are you teasing young women like them?" he asked sitting on the chair.

"Talking about her old man, how did she enter here as a teacher? Isn't she quite young for this job?" Zhao Tian asked curiously.

Li Jie let out a deep sigh "He lost her parents at a very young age. Since then her grandmother has been taking care of her. Mei Xiu is really a smart girl and topped the exams."

"Her grandmother is an old friend of mine and she asked me to give her this job. Mei Xiu also eagerly joined as she needs money to treat her Grandmother who is ill now."

Zhao Tian was quite surprised, he didn't know that irritating Mei Xiu had a sad side to her. He turned his eyes at Li Jie "Old man, are you trying to woo her grandmother in the name of helping her granddaughter?"

Wtf? -_- Li Jie looked at him blankly "Tian, do I look like someone who would do that? If my wife heard about this, she would beat me to hell..."

Zhao Tian laughed light-heartedly upon hearing this and Li Jie smiled dryly seeing him laughing "Tian, people of your age are getting love bites and lipstick marks... but you got a highlighter mark?"

Only then did Zhao Tian remember his sister's marking and rubbed his cheeks "It's my Big sis doing..." Li Jie laughed seeing him rubbing the highlighter mark.

"Well, this superhuman has come to see me... any important news?" Li Jie asked leaning back leisurely on the chair.

Zhao Tian gave a nod "A very important thing." Hearing his serious voice, Li Jie squinted his eyes "What is it, Tian?" "I am asking you this because you have lived more years than me and have more experience... Oldman, Do you know about the existence of Cultivators?"

Li Jie was taken aback, his eyes widening in surprise, but then a chuckle left his lips "Seems like you also know some secrets of this world... haha."

Zhao Tian looked at him with a frown "You know about this before, but you have never talked about this with me..."

"Secrets are called secrets because they shouldn't be told to anyone, Tian." Li Jie spoke with a little shrug of his shoulders.

"Spill the secrets now, I want to know about these cultivators in our world!" Zhao Tian spoke narrowing his eyes.

A weary sigh left Li Jie's lips "Since you know about their existence, it is really not a secret anymore."

"You don't know Tian, but I am a retired war veteran." Li Jie said with a smile.

"You've been in the military?" Zhao Tian asked in amusement. Li Jie laughed "Those are old times, Tian. Working tirelessly to join the military and ranking up in the hierarchy."

"I reached the General position and was told about the secret of this world which was known only to the high officials of the military and government."

"There are people called 'cultivators' who exist in this world and they can use supernatural powers!"

DROPPP POWER STONNES RAHHHHH!!!

Chapter 7: About Cultivation world!

Li Jie spoke in a serious tone "They are fricking monsters... when I saw their powers in real life, I was so shocked... even our tanks or any firepower didn't stand a chance in front of them."

"Some of them are walking nuclear powerhouses which could easily destroy a city."

Zhao Tian frowned inquisitively "If our country has that much power, wouldn't it have been the ruler of this world? World wars and countless global conflicts, triggering widespread devastation would surely happen plunging humanity into an era of unrelenting chaos."

A chuckle left Li Jie's lips "Our country does not have a monopoly on this kind of energy they call astral energy, Tian. There are strong cultivators in most of the powerful nations in the world."

"Every country has signed a peaceful treaty with the cultivators refraining them from damaging public properties and keeping their existence as a secret."

"In every nation, there exists an individual known as the 'Ombudsman', who serves as the highest authority in the realm of cultivation and is responsible for supervising the actions and operations of fellow cultivators within the boundaries of the country."

Hearing all of this, Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes "It all seems so complicated."

Li Jie laughed with a casual shrug "Well, they are dangerous entities. Cultivators are even hired as bodyguards for some high-profile people and government officials."

Zhao Tian spoke, "Then there will also be people who could hire cultivators to assassinate a person."

Li Jie gave a nod "Yeah, you are right. There is also a large secret organization within the government to keep an eye on these cultivators."

"A secret organization to keep an eye on them?" Zhao Tian asked intrigued.

Li Jie thought for a moment and spoke "Let's say, you are joining a boxing match, and if the opponent is secretly a cultivator. Can you beat him? The answer is no."

"So that's why this organization exists to supervise these fields so the cultivators don't get in the way of normal people. If not, cultivators would dominate in every field... and the Olympics would turn into a war haha."

"That makes sense..." Zhao Tian muttered under his breath.

Li Jie's smile widened "I even had doubts about you first because of your impressive display of strength and speed in basketball. But later I found out that you are not a cultivator, you just have great physical strength."

Zhao Tian could only smile bitterly, speaking about basketball he suddenly remembered something "That's right. Old man... do you know Quon Chen? Is he also a cultivator?" he asked as he had a small match with him before.

"Quon Chen..." Li Jie murmured his name in thought and spoke "Oh, him... that junior student. He begged me so that he could play basketball."

"Since he is a cultivator, he really couldn't play in major games but he really likes to play the game, so he asked me to at least let him play within the university and I agreed."

'So that's why he is holding back against the match with me...' Zhao Tian realized and a sigh left his lips.

"Seems like you are getting so interested in this cultivation and stuff." Li Jie asked with a curious smile and Zhao Tian nodded "Anyone would be interested to know about people who use superpowers."

Li Jie sighed heavily "Well, then since it's you..." he stood up and walked to the side. With a practiced hand, he reached for a concealed lever, causing a hidden door to creak open and there was a safe locker in the space.

Typing the password, Li Jie opened the safe and took the white box that was inside the locker. He then came and placed it on the table "Here are some important secrets only very high officials inside the military and government know."

Curiosity piqued, Zhao Tian slowly opened the box and saw two kinds of crystals inside the box. One is shining in white like a diamond while the other is black like Biotite.

"Valuable minerals?" Zhao Tian asked but then feeling a spark of astral energy from the crystals his eyebrows frowned "What is this?"

Li Jie smirked "This diamond-like one is called Astral stone, which is used as a currency between cultivators and this black one is beast stone which is gained after killing an astral beast."

"Astral beast?" Zhao Tian asked in surprise as he hadn't heard about this. Li Jie nodded his head "Just like humans, there are some beasts that also absorb the astral energy in their body gaining strength. But they only appear in regions where the astral energy is dense."

"Is there any place on Earth where astral energy is dense?"

Li Jie nodded "In our entire world, there is only one place where the astral energy is concentrated and is very dense. Cultivators call it their Holy Land or motherland."

"In the cold Northern Pole... it is called Zhenzhu."

"Northern pole, Zhenzhu..." His eyes again fell on the two crystals in the box and he took the Astral stone in his hand. "This is used as a currency among cultivators." he mused, his fingers touching its soft surface.

Li Jie smiled "For them this is just a currency but for us, it is the future power source."

"Huh? Power source?"

Li Jie gave a nod "Scientists are deeply analyzing these minerals and have discovered many things. The first thing is that they are good power sources as good as Hydroelectric energy or even better than that..."

"They are also found traces of healing exuberance from this which could potentially be used to treat diseases in the future and another important thing is this beast stone..."

"It is very explosive and world governments are secretly doing research to create a mass nuclear weapon with these minerals even without telling the cultivators."

Zhao Tian was startled hearing this "Old man, is it... really okay for you to say all these confidential things to me?"

Li Jie shook his head "Not okay at all. If the government came to know about this, there would be a news tomorrow 'The Ex-General committed suicide with eight bullets in his back' Hahah..."

Zhao Tian smiled dryly hearing this and Li Jie spoke with a smile on his face "I owe you a favor for saving my granddaughter and my daughter... it's alright."

Zhao Tian moved from his table and hugged him "Oldman..." Li Ji hugged him back with a heartfelt chuckle.

At this time, Li Jie remembered something "Tian, there are some influential families here which you shouldn't provoke..."

...

"Haah!" Zhao Tian stretched his hands as he came out of the President's room and took the mobile phone from his pocket. "Oh, it's already time..."

As he reached the parking space, he saw his sister Zhao Ying standing near the car with her arms crossed and an angry look on her face. Casually walking closer towards her, a faint smirk danced across his lips "Come on, Ying'er... let's go." he said entering the car.

Ying'er? "Tian'er, calling me affectionately won't calm me down. You know what you did right?" Zhao Ying asked in a frustrated voice.

"First come inside the car." Hearing this, Zhao Ying entered the car. Zhao Tian spoke, "So, what happened to my precious big sister?"

"Huh? You really don't remember writing 'dumb' on my forehead?"

"Oh? that? It's because you marked me, I also marked you as my important person." Zhao Tian chuckled.

"is that so?" Zhao Ying swiftly took the highlighter which she kept ready in her pocket and kneeled on her seat.

As she was sitting in the front seat, she leaped on top of him who was in the driving seat "Let me mark on your forehead too."

But Zhao Tian caught her hands and smiled playfully "No.."

Zhao Ying struggled violently "Let my hand go. I will get my revenge..." The whole car shook because of her twisting her body and Zhao Tian saw her knee slipping toward the gear "Oi, idiot... don't damage the car."

"Then don't resist..."

Zhao Tian let out a soft sigh and loosened his grip letting her hands go. Zhao Ying smiled and moved to his seat sitting on his lap crossway placing her foot on the front passenger seat. As she settled herself comfortably on his lap, she affectionately wrapped her left arm around his neck and began to mark his cheek with the highlighter. 'Precious' 'Idiot' she continued to write on his skin in small letters.

"Have you finished? Move to your seat... I need to drive the car." But Zhao Ying shook her head still clinging to him like a koala "No, this is like a punishment... drive while I am like this. I will also move my legs so you could change the gears." she snorted.

"Seem like I spoiled you so much...." Zhao Tian said with an amusing chuckle and started the engine. *vroom* *vroom*

Zhao Ying nestled into his embrace, buried her face on his neck finding solace. In that tender moment, a cascade of thoughts flooded her mind, 'Yeah, it's your fault for spoiling me so much and making me feel this way, Tian'er... so take responsibility.' an impish smile crept onto her lips, unable to contain the sheer joy that consumed her.

'Haah... Tian'er~!'

DROPPP POWERSSSSSSSSSSSS!

Chapter 8: Inside the artifact!

A sigh left Zhao Tian's lips as he glanced at the phone screen and saw the money that had been transferred to his account.

Placing the phone on his PC table, he glimpsed at the green pendant on his neck. "Just who is my Dad actually?" he mumbled quietly.

"I should ask her..." He has never asked anything about his Dad to his mom, and likewise, his mom has never initiated a conversation about it. Therefore, he is considering whether or not he should finally ask her about it.

But it was already midnight, so he decided to ask her about this tomorrow and left the room to grab a glass of water. As he came out into the hallway, he heard some noises from downstairs.

So he came downstairs and saw his mom watching TV sitting on the couch. He walked over to the sofa and called her "Mom?"

Zhao Suyin turned her head and smiled "Tian'er..." He sat beside her leaning on the couch "You are watching TV now...?"

Zhao Suyin giggled "I couldn't sleep so I came to watch some TV, by the way, what about your tournament... did you win?"

Looking at her, Zhao Tian smiled tenderly "You know me." Zhao Suyin laughed and patted his head "Of course my son would win."

"As I said, it is my responsibility to look after you and sister now..." Zhao Suyin could only sigh and ruffle his hair "Don't stress too much, dear."

Zhao Tian hesitated for a bit and seeing the hesitation in his eyes, Zhao Suyin smiled and brushed his cheek with her fingers, "Tian'er, what's wrong? You seem to be hesitating about something... huh?"

Zhao Tian spoke, "I know it's out of the blue, but can you tell me about our dad, Mom?" Zhao Suyin's smile stiffened upon hearing this and she slowly retracted her hand "H-Huh? Tian'er?"

Seeing her reaction, Zhao Tian sighed in his heart, He knew it was a sensitive topic for her, that's why he hesitated "Like his name... or what he was doing..."

Zhao Suyin's body quivered hearing his words, her heart flooding with emotions. *shrik* She abruptly stood up from the couch her eyes moistening with tears "I-I am sorry, Tian'er..."

Zhao Tian also stood up and Zhao Suyin turned around showing her back as she rubbed the small tears in her eyes "P-Please, Tian'er... don't ask about him."

With a soft sigh, Zhao Tian took a step forward softly hugging her from behind feeling a little guilty for making his mom cry "Mom I won't ask about him again."

Zhao Suyin took a deep breath controlling her emotions and touched his hand giving a small nod "E-En..." With that Zhao Tian let go of her and Zhao Suyin turned her head showing a small smile "I'll go and sleep, Tian'er. Good night..."

"Good night!" Zhao Tian said and saw her entering her room. Although his mom always had a calm and motherly smile, he knew she was an emotional woman... that's why he didn't force her to say things. "I couldn't get any information about Dad. Hm.. this little bug." Zhao Tian mused and directly walked towards his Sister's room forcefully opening the door "It is a bad habit to eavesdrop, you know?"

"Tian'er?" Zhao Ying was startled by his sudden entrance and tried to run away but Zhao Tian quickly moved and caught her in his arms. "Where are you running? hm?"

"Ah! Tian'er!" Zhao Ying struggled against him but she couldn't free herself from the iron grip and stopped fighting back. Instead, she hugged him back tight, her boobs clashing with his chest, their bodies intertwined.

With their faces mere inches apart, their lips approached dangerously close, teasing the possibility of an intimate kiss.

As they gazed deeply into each other's eyes, their lips drew closer, almost touching, creating an electric tension that radiated between them. "Haahhh~!" They could sense the warmth emanating from their bodies, and in that delicate instant, their breaths intertwined, sharing an intoxicating sensation.

A sudden romantic atmosphere rose in the room and Zhao Ying's cheeks turned a little red. Her heartbeat quickened and she couldn't help but steal glances at his lips which were very close to her 'I want to bite those lips so bad...'

She wrapped her arms tighter around his neck, pulling him closer "My little brother is so bad... he directly entered his big sister's room at this time of the night."

"Does this cute little brother want something from me?"

Zhao Tian couldn't help but let out a chuckle "And this big sister is hugging her little brother so intimately wearing such skinny revealing clothes. I can feel your breasts hitting my chest... was that intentional?"

A sweet giggle left Zhao Ying's lips "This is called skinship between siblings." Zhao Ying knew that they were not normal siblings, they had been very close since childhood spoiling each other and constantly showering each other with love and affection.

Their relationship has far crossed normal siblings just below couples.

Zhao Tin spoke pinching her cheek "Keeping those things aside, did you overhear my conversation with mom?"

Zhao Ying gave a nod "I heard, but it was really not intentional Tian'er. I was watching your tournament live till now and thought of grabbing some water."

"But seeing you and Mom talking, I got curious and..."

"So that's it huh..."

Zhao Ying spoke "Tian'er. I also once tried to ask Mom about our dad. But she refused to speak anything about him. I think she is hiding something from us..."

Zhao Tian gave a small bonk on her head "Don't say such things. Maybe she just doesn't want to talk about him."

Zhao Ying sulked her lips because of the bonk and Zhao Tian let go of her from his arms "Go and sleep. We can talk tomorrow."

Zhao Ying nodded and retracted her arms from his neck. As Zhao Tian left the room, Zhao Ying followed him into the kitchen to drink water.

Lying on the soft bed, Zhao Tian looked at the green pendant in his fingers. "I wonder what is Shenyi doing," he said and brought the pendant near his eyes to take a closer look.

*swish* But suddenly he got sucked into the pendant and disappeared from the room.

*woosh* Huh? Zhao Tian looked around the room he was in "This is the same room, I talked with Shenyi..."

*thud* "Tian!" Opening the door, Xia Shenyi quickly came inside sensing Zhao Tian inside the room "You're back?" she exclaimed, unable to hide her excitement. Zhao Tian gave a nod "Seems like I am."

*tap* Xia Shenyi's face lit up with a big smile "Haah, I thought I was left here alone once again... glad you are back." she spoke walking towards him.

Zhao Tian smiled wryly "Shenyi this artifact works so randomly... sucking me in."

"No, Tian... hear me out." She pulled him and made him sit on the chair as she sat on the table. "Did you find something?" Zhao Tian asked looking at the excited smile of Xia Shenyi.

Xia Shenyi chuckled "Yeah, do you remember the golden tattoo?" Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah, I do."

"Now manifest it again, concentrate your astral energy on your wrist. Even though you have not begun cultivating, you can manipulate a small amount of astral energy."

"Well, I'll try." Zhao Tian spoke and concentrated the energy on his wrist and the golden tattoo again appeared. "Oh, that was surprisingly easy..."

Xia Shenyi had a frown on her face "No, that's because of your special body you can control very well even though it's your first time."

"I see... so what's with this tattoo?" Zhao Tian asked curiously Xia Shenyi extended her arm and the black tattoo appeared on her wrist "See mine is black, yours is golden. Do you know why?"

"No. I am not an Artifact specialist, you are."

Xia Shenyi smiled "Hehe, let me enlighten you. That's because you are the owner or master of this artifact. This artifact has recognized you as the master."

"Means I have complete control over this artifact?" Zhao Tian asked squinting his eyes, 'So if my guess is right...' *tweek* A space crack appeared in the room and Zhao Tian smiled "As I thought."

A look of surprise flashed in Xia Shenyi's eyes and she grinned "You caught up to it huh..."

Zhao Tian nodded "I had a vague guess, because the last time the space crack appeared after I wished to leave..."

Xia Shenyi stood up "Come with me, let me show you another thing." Zhao Tian followed her and they left the home coming outside.

As they reached outside, Zhao Tian saw a huge pagoda-like tower and another huge building beside it both were built in old style.

Xia Shenyi and Zhao Tian walked towards the building "These two buildings were not here at first but they appeared after you left this place."

"I tried to enter them but I couldn't because there is a powerful seal placed on the door."

"Maybe I could." Zhao Tian spoke and walked near the building. Looking at the grand door, he pushed the doors open.

As the door swung open, its golden hue shimmered and it slowly crept open. With a smile etched across her face, Xia Shenyi eagerly entered the building. "This place is huge..." she muttered in disbelief.

Her black eyes darted around in excitement and saw a lot of valuable things in the huge place. There are some artifacts and weapons in that huge place.

Xia Shenyi's eyes were full of stars as she looked around excitedly. She looked at the huge stand at the end of the hall and saw a lot of books there.

"Oh? there are even cultivation techniques here..." Xia Shenyi muttered glancing at the shelf "Tian, I think this must be the collection or warehouse of a powerful cultivator in the past."

After scanning the surroundings, her gaze eventually landed on a secluded room tucked away in the corner, and hastily walked toward it. As she tried to push the door, it repelled her and she took a step back.

"Tian, will you come here for a second?" She called and Zhao Tian who was looking at an artifact walked near her "What happened, Shenyi?"

"Tian, try to open this door." Zhao Tian looked at the door in front and pushed it open. *creek* Xia Shenyi's jaw dropped looking at the things inside the room "Tian, you just became rich!"

Zhao Tian looked at the large number of astral stones, beast stones, and many other valuable things inside the room.

Xia Shenyi frowned looking at the wealth "Who created this artifact and placed such valuable things in it? Maybe during the time of the old realm war?"

Chapter 9: A scene in cafeteria!

"The one who created this artifact is surely wealthy." Xia Sheyi spoke entering the room. Zhao Tian, intrigued by the sight of a stack of astral stones, leisurely approached them and carefully picked up one in his palm.

"Hm? This astral stone seems more powerful than the one I found out in the Earth." Xia Shenyi spoke "Oh? That's because this astral stone is a higher grade."

"It only appears in stars with high astral energy density, that's why the quality is low in your middle star."

"Does that apply to the astral beasts too?" Zhao Tian asked and Xia Shenyi gave a nod "The higher the cultivation of the astral beast is, the more refined the beast stone."

As Xia Shenyi looked through the contents, her eyes were drawn to a small golden box in the middle. "Hm? What's this?"

She took the box in her hand and with the box held firmly in her grasp, she attempted to pry it open "This also needs the owner's permission? Tian come here for a second..."

"Hm? Need my biometrics again?" Xia Shenyi smiled wryly "Everything here belongs to you after all so only you can open it."

Zhao Tian took the box in his hand "But why did this recognize me as the master but not you." Xia Shenyi nonchalantly shrugged her shoulders "Maybe because of your Honoured One's physique."

"Huh? Why are you saying my physique might be the reason for everything?" Zhao Tian asked inquisitively.

Xia Shenyi reached out, her delicate fingers caressing his face "As I said, no one knows what this physique holder can do... There is no history of the first physique holder who became the God."

"And the second one was killed before learning the full potential of this physique. So no one knows what the person who has this physique can actually do."

Zhao Tian just sighed and opened the small box. As the lid lifted, there was a golden ring nestled perfectly in the center of the box.

"Is this also an artifact?" Filled with excitement, Xia Shenyi reached out her hand eagerly to touch it. *woosh* But as if having a consciousness, it flew away floating in mid-air. Xia Shenyi was dumbfounded "An artifact that has a sense of awareness? No..."

The ring levitated and circled Xia Shenyi's body. Then it flew encircling Zhao Tian's body and as if recognizing him, the golden ring trembled and in the next instant it disappeared.

"Huh? It's gone?" Zhao Tian and Xia Shenyi glimpsed around the room in surprise. *woosh* But it reappeared on Zhao Tian's ring finger and Zhao Tian raised his hand to look at the ring.

"Here it is."

Xia Shenyi brought her face closer to the ring "This ring doesn't have a consciousness, when you opened it, it searched for a potential master and it chose you."

At this time, Zhao Tian felt some information flow in his mind and he frowned "Empyreal space ring?"

Xia Shenyi was startled "Space ring? Did you just say space ring, Tian?" "Um yeah, seems like it can store things..."

"You are really lucky, only noble people in the high star could afford this... I also had one but I lost it." Xia Shenyi spoke and looked at his ring finger, but now there is no ring in it.

"Huh? Where did that space ring go?"

Zhao Tian chuckled "It can disappear and it can manifest if I want." "Oh...." Xia Shenyi was amused hearing this because she never heard of an artifact that could disappear.

"Is there something inside the ring?"

Zhao Tian gave a nod "Just like here, there are many astral stones, beast stones, and some valuable items I guess. But most of the astral stones look different."

"Look different?"

"Yeah!" Zhao Tian took an astral stone from the space ring. Looking at the astral stone. Xia Shenyi's eyes trembled in utter shock "N-No way, D-Divine Astral stone? these are more valuable than High astral stones."

'Divine Astral stones belong to the Astral realm and it is super rare to form in the high star. Then the creator of this Artifact is...' Xia Shenyi thought in her heart.

"Tian, did you get any information about your father?"

Zhao Tian shook his head "Unfortunately no. My mom is not ready to talk about it..."

Xia Shenyi narrowed her eyes "Tian, there is no way your Honoured One's physique is formed on this middle star. There seems a secret lies in your origin. You need to find your dad and who you are."

"And this artifact too. It is very complicated and the artifact creators in the high star couldn't even make this green pendant. You are really mysterious, Tian."

Zhao Tian squinted his eyes, he wanted to know more about his dad who went to buy milk... but his mom was not cooperating with him. So how could he...?

Seeing Zhao Tian sighting, Xia Shenyi smiled "We can talk about those things later. First, we have to find a suitable cultivation technique for you to cultivate so that you can fully enter the cultivation world."

Zhao Tian shook his head "No, I want to have a good rest first. We can do those things tomorrow." He is kind of tired after playing the game for hours.

Gah! Xia Shenyi's jaw dropped hearing this, Everyone would be excited to find a new cultivation technique and practice it but he.. "You little brat, why are you so lazy... if only I had your physique I would never stop cultivating. And we are already in the ninth chapter so you should start cultivating."

"But I am tired Shenyi. So, you search these rooms and find a good cultivation technique for me... I'll come and see you tomorrow."

Xia Shenyi's lips twitched in frustration "You-" *swoosh* but before she could utter a word, Zhao Tian swiftly vanished from the scene, leaving her speechless.

A weary sigh escaped her lips as she glanced at the room and the glimmering astral stones surrounding her. "Well, since I have no other things to do... I'll search."

Next day~

Sitting in the university Cafeteria, Zhao Tian and Zhao Ying were eating their food. Zhao Tian glimpsed at Zhao Ying who was sitting beside him "Do you want anything else?"

Zhao Ying shook her head "No, Tian'er..." Zhao Tian nodded and continued eating.

At this time, a woman approached their table "Tian." Zhao Tian raised his head "Fei Ziyu..." Fei Ziyu pouted her lips "How many times have I told you to call me Ziyu?"

Zhao Ying didn't mind her and continued eating 'Here comes the bitch... now she will blabber things with Tian'er until we leave this cafeteria.'

A little later, Zhao Tian, Zhao Ying, and Fei Ziyu left the cafeteria. Fei Ziyu spoke looking at Zhao Tian "You know Tian, my birthday is coming soon and we are arranging a big party. I hope you will come to attend the party."

Zhao Tian gave a faint nod "I will come if I am free..." Fei Ziyu patted his shoulder "Come on, Don't say that. You should definitely come and Ying you too."

Zhao Ying spoke bluntly looking at her "I am not interested." Fei Ziyu smiled awkwardly "W-Well..."

"Ahhhhhh!" At this time they heard a sudden piercing scream and Zhao Tian quickly turned his head looking at the stairs on the left.

*thud* "Urghhhh!" A woman was rolling down the stairs and beside her *clank* a wheelchair was also cascading alongside her.

Shocked by this chaotic scene, Zhao Tian quickly moved reaching the stairs, and before the woman's body could hit the floor, he managed to swiftly catch her body in his arms.

It was only at that moment he took a clear look at her, short slight blonde hair and a cute face. However, his gaze quickly shifted to the rest of her body, which appeared to be covered in bruises, and her body contoured in pain "Aaarghhh!! M-My leggg...urgh" She let out a cry of pain, clutching her injured leg.

"Aaarghh!" The excruciating agony coursing through her leg caused the woman to emit a piercing scream. Her body trembled in overwhelming pain and she instinctively clung to Zhao Tian's clothes desperately "URGHHH!"

Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes 'Seems like she has sprained her legs, but how did she fall off the stairs? Isn't there a special way for disabled people...' his gaze shifted to the damaged wheelchair which just fell on the floor.

As he lifted his head to gaze up the staircase, he caught sight of three girls wearing smirks on their faces. However, as soon as they noticed Zhao Tian's piercing gaze, their expressions suddenly froze and they quickly averted their eyes.

Zhao Ying also quickly approached Zhao Tian "Tian'er what happened to her?" Fei Ziyu walked up the stairs looking at the three girls "You three bitches, weren't you the one who pushed her?"

She walked in front of them and without hesitation, she raised her hand and delivered a slap across the girl's cheek "How cruel, to push a disabled girl off the stairs." the girl stood silently lowering her head.

Zhao Ying squinted her eyes looking at Fei Ziyu but then she shook her head and looked at Zhao Tian "Tian'er let's quickly take her to the infirmary."

Zhao Tian stood up taking the woman in a princess carry "No, I think it is best to take her to a hospital." Zhao Ying nodded her head "Ok, then..."

Taking her in his arms, Zhao Tian quickly walked away. Fei Ziyu saw this and hastily came downstairs "Wait, Tian let me come too..."

But Zhao Ying interrupted her "No need. I and Tian'er are enough..." she spoke and followed Zhao Tian as they went to the parking space.

Fei Ziyu let out a heavy sigh, her frustration evident as she approached the three girls once more "What are your names and which major are you from? huh? I will get a suspension for you."

Chapter 10: The Chi Sisters!

"Seems like she already had an accident in the past too and had a severe fracture in her right leg. And now this injury has worsened even more... and there is also some internal bleeding."

"Currently she is unconscious, she will wake up after a while..." Hearing the doctor speak, Zhao Tian gave a nod "Thank you, doctor." The doctor nodded his head and left the hospital room.

Zhao Tian's eyes fell on the blonde woman sleeping on the bed and a soft sigh left his lips. "Ying'er, you stay here and watch her. I'll go and buy something to drink and eat."

Zhao Ying nodded her head "Okay, Tian'er!"

Zhao Tian came out of the hospital room and entered the elevator to go downstairs. *ring* At this time, his phone rang, and took the phone out of his pocket.

Accepting the phone call, he spoke "Tell me, old man." Li Jie talked from the other side of the phone "Tian, her name is Chi Shui, and seems like she is the younger sister of Chi Miya who is the owner of the Chi company... one of the major companies in our city."

"She is from a wealthy family? Then why is no one with her to take care of her in the university?" Zhao Tian asked and Li Jie replied "I don't know about that Tian."

"Well, thank you for the information, old man." "En." *click*

...

*blink* Chi Shui's eyes slowly opened, her eyelids fluttering and as she stirred she felt a mild pain all over her body. "Don't stress yourself." she heard a voice and she turned her head only to see a handsome man sitting near her his blue eyes gazing into hers.

H-Huh? She was taken aback seeing his face. Isn't he? "S-Senior Zhao?" she tried to sit on the bed but she again felt pain all over her body. "urgh!" A groan escaped her lips.

It was only at that moment she looked around the room and frowned 'Am I in a hospital... urgh those girls. Then, is Senior Zhao the one who helped me there?' At that time, although she vaguely recalled the sensation of someone embracing her, the excruciating pain coursing through her body overwhelmed her senses, causing her to lose consciousness.

"As I said don't stress yourself... and how did you know my name?" Zhao Tian asked taking the water bottle beside him. Chi Shui smiled wryly "You are popular in our university, Senior Zhao."

"Here drink this." Zhao Tian extended the bottle of water. and with a nod Chi Shui raised her hand but her hands were also bruised when she fell down the stairs and felt a stinging pain.

"Let me help you..." Zhao Tian put the tip of the bottle close to her lips and asked her to drink it. Chi Shui hesitated for a moment, but she could only comply so she opened her pink lips to drink some water.

After she drank the water, Zhao Tian grabbed a tissue and gently dabbed away the surplus droplets of water that had escaped her soft lips.

This caused Chi Shui to feel a wave of embarrassment wash over her, and she bashfully lowered her head in gratitude "Thank you so much for saving me there, Senior Zhao."

Zhao Tian responded by shaking his head, a gentle smile gracing his lips. "It's alright," seeing his soft smile, Chi Shui couldn't help but feel a slight flush creeping up on her cheeks 'No wonder he has many female fans...'

At this time Zhao Ying entered the room "Tian'er? Oh, you woke up?" she exclaimed, her voice filled with both surprise and relief.

"Um, yeah... thanks for saving me." Zhao Ying chuckled and waved her hand "Don't fret it." Zhao Tian took his mobile from his pocket "Here, call your sister."

Chi Shui blinked her eyes in surprise "Senior Zhao, you know about my sister?" she asked, her curiosity piqued. Zhao Tian gave a nod "Yeah, I asked the Uni president..."

Zhao Ying reached out and delicately grasped the phone from his hands "I will help her, tell the digits, Chi Shui." Chi Shui called her sister and informed her about the current situation.

"My sister will be here in a few minutes..." Chi Shui said with a smile. Zhao Ying helped her sit on the bed making her lean on the backrest.

Zhao Ying took a granola bar and peeled the cover to eat it. Zhao Tian shook his head wryly "Those are not for you to eat."

"I-I know, I just opened them so Chi Shui could eat it..." With a slight pout on her lips, she gave the granola bar to Chi Shui. Chi Shui chuckled in her heart seeing Zhao Ying pouting her lips.

After a while, *thud* the hospital room was abruptly opened and a beautiful woman with long blue hair and blue eyes wearing office attire entered the room. "Shui'er.." she called in concern.

With concern etched across her face, she approached the bed where Chi Shui lay. "Shui'er, how are you feeling?" she asked, her voice filled with both worry and relief. Chi Shui let out a faint giggle "I am okay now, Sister."

A sigh of relief left Chi Miya's lips and patted her head "Thank god, you are okay..." Chi Shui shook her head "No, sister you should thank Senior Zhao." she spoke gesturing at Zhao Tian and Zhao Ying.

Chi Miya's gaze fell on Zhao Tian and a look of surprise flashed through her eyes seeing his handsome face. But she snapped out of it and bowed "Thank you so much for saving my sister."

Zhao Tian shook his head with a small smile "Take good care of your sister," Chi Miya gave a nod "I will, thank you again..."

"Then we are leaving, come on Ying'er let's go.." "Hm, let's go.."

"W-Wait a minute..." Chi Miya stopped them and called her PA "Xue." The woman who had been patiently waiting just outside the room, promptly entered upon hearing her name being called "Maam?"

Chi Miya brought a card from the woman and wrote something behind the card. She then extended it to Zhao Tian "This is my business card and I have also written my personal number, if you want any help in the future please contact me..."

Zhao Ying took the card "Chi companies, huh.. That's a pretty big company.. isn't it?" Zhao Tian, noticing Zhao Ying's awe, smiled and turned his attention towards Chi Miya "We will take our leave..."

Chi Miya bowed and both of them left the room. Chi Shui sighed and sat on the bed beside Chi Shui "I was really scared, Shui'er. Those hoes who pushed you... I will talk about this with the president of your University"

Chi Shui giggled "Don't worry sister, Senior Zhao said that they were already suspended from the college."

Chi Miya was pleasantly surprised "O-Oh? By the way, who is he? That handsome boy?"

With a smile, Chi Shui spoke "He is a senior in our University. He is really popular and everyone knows him. Many women hit on him trying to be his girlfriend. Haha..."

"Then the one beside him, the pink-haired girl is his girlfriend?" Chi Miya asked curiously and Chi Shui shook her head "No, sister... she is his sister. But I heard rumors that he and Fei Ziyu are dating and a secret couple... I am not sure."

"Fei Ziyu? The princess of that Fei corporation?" Chi Miya asked in shock and Chi Shui gave a nod "Yeah, her..."

"I am shocked, but given his good looks and kind personality... I am not surprised." Chui Miya spoke and Chi Shui couldn't help but chuckle at her sister's comment "Kind personality? Sister you just saw him..."

"Shui'er, he saved you and took care of you till now, right? So you think he is not kind-hearted?" Chi Miya asked and Chi Shui rolled her eyes "Yeah, he is kind...haha."

Outside the hallways, Zhao Tian casually wrapped his hand over Zhao Ying's shoulders "Sister, it is already evening, shall we go to a cafe?"

Zhao Ying also leaned on him "Hmm, yeah let's go... I am also quite hungry."
