

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 26

Dormitory.

[九爷九爷~ Why haven't you answered me yet? How well did I write~ I beg for compliments and praise and mua-da~]

After sending the text message, Ye 000 saw that there was no response from the other side, so she added this one just to be on the safe side.

In fact, she was still somewhat apprehensive in her heart, because she was not sure whether Si Ye Han would eat that or not.

There was also that fugue, which was actually written by a man to his beloved beauty.

Being treated like a woman with such a carnal confession, a certain pervert wouldn't be angry, right?

In her previous life, she was caught straight back at school in the middle of the night by people sent over by Si Yeh Han, causing the whole school to be abuzz with all sorts of rumors about her, some saying that she was adopted by a rich businessman and was only caught because she ran away, some saying that her family had borrowed from loan sharks and the other party was going to take her and sell her to that kind of place

The rumors have no substance, but the mouths of the people fuse gold and destroy the bones.

Recalling all kinds of things in the past, Ye's body was chilled for a while

At this time, the mobile phone in the palm of his hand suddenly buzzed and vibrated.

Ye 000 shuddered slightly and slowly looked at the newly received text message

The new text message was a "Yes" reply from Si Yehan.

The new message was a "good" one, and she was frozen in her tracks.

Si Yanhan seems to be a little different from the she knew in her previous life

Almost as soon as she sent this message, the other party replied in seconds: [hmm.]

Staring at that incomparably dry "hmmm", Ye 000 blinked in dismay once again.

This was okay?

She had just said that she wouldn't contact him for a week! And this is a promise?

She could not have imagined that a casual pout would be so useful

She was stunned for three seconds and knocked her head on the table, wishing she could kill herself.

Well, it was good to find a secret weapon to deal with the big devil.

In the blink of an eye, seven days passed.

In these seven days, she slept only three or four hours a day and finally went through all the revision materials from the first to the third year of high school.

Now she finally knows how painful it is to be sleep deprived. When the exam is over, she will definitely sleep through the night.

On the first day, she had to take the exams for the Arts and Language, and she drifted to the classroom like a wandering soul.

The class, which was still somewhat noisy, was as abruptly quiet as if it had been silenced the moment Ye 00 appeared.

Today, Ye 000 did not wear that green wig and her make-up was perfunctory, but she had stayed up seven days for revision, the dark circles under her eyes were even more frightening than the smoky make-up, and her messy waist-length hair was no less frightening than the green hair

The boy, who was sleeping on his desk as usual, heard the noise of the table and chairs pulling beside him and opened his eyes impatiently.

The next moment, the boy's entire body was startled backwards, and the chair clattered against the floor with an ear-splitting "creak".

The boy stared at the "Sadako" beside him, his forehead covered in cold sweat, and his face darkened as he cursed, "S,h,i,t!!!"

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 27

This damned woman, that face was already scary enough, but she was wearing all white today, she could scare people half to death in broad daylight.

The face of Ye 00 is fatal to his face control!

Because of a memory from his childhood, he has a serious face-control complex and always has a natural affinity for good-looking people.

He grew up only talking to good-looking people, only listening to good-looking people, and he would eat more than a few mouthfuls of food when a good-looking maid fed him.

Once he refused to eat a single bite of rice just because the family had changed to a not-so-good-looking maid, and he almost starved himself to death.

You can imagine how painful it was for him to see this face on the other side of the table every day.

And when Ye Xia saw her, she was in a pretty good mood.

She had been bored in the dormitory for seven days and seven nights reading books and her eyes were going blind.

This kid is nothing else, but that face that inherited the Si family genes is very eye catching.

Ye 000 grinned at the other party, "I didn't expect that our schoolmaster lord was afraid of ghosts?"

The smile was simply more frightening

Si Xia took a deep breath and tragically looked away, coldly humming, "Rather self-aware, you also know you look like a ghost?"

This time, no matter what, he had to take the test far away!

He couldn't stay in this hellhole for another day!

The bell rang and the invigilator started handing out examination papers.

On the first morning, the test was the Arts and Letters, and Ye 000 read the paper from beginning to end, and then began to answer the questions.

Si Xia's afterglow noticed that Ye 000 beside him was actually picking up a pen and working on the paper, and a trace of surprise crossed his eyes.

Being surprised, after seeing how Ye 000 was doing the questions, the corners of the boys' mouths twitched.

Where was she answering the questions, she was clearly filling them in indiscriminately.

ABCD was filling in the questions quickly, probably without even looking at them, and she was just trying her luck.

The boy made a sarcastic remark about being an idiot.

If he wanted to try his luck, he might as well have filled in all the B's to get the correct answer, but if he was so unlucky, he might have avoided all the correct answers.

The boy didn't pay any more attention to the hot-eyed idiot beside him and started to concentrate on the exam.

The exam was a hundred and fifty minutes long and lasted all morning, followed by an English exam in the afternoon.

The next day, the language test was in the morning, and the last test in the afternoon was in mathematics.

Ye ÒÒ stared at the maths paper, looked at it and looked at it again, those functions, algebra and geometry were like a virus churning her brain to the point of smoke.

After struggling for three seconds, she decided to plop her head down on the paper and started to sleep.

Why did the world have to have such a terrible thing as maths!

Although she couldn't forget anything, seven days to go through three years of textbooks was tight enough, and it was absolutely impossible to review maths in the short term, so she simply chose to give up.

The bell rang, and the last exam was over.

Si Xia glanced towards the next door, only to find that someone had already fallen asleep with a completely blank maths paper on her pillow.

I thought she had started doing the paper more or less because she wanted to change, but really, it's still easy to change one's nature!

After handing in their papers, all the students already had an expression like their bodies had been emptied.

"Finally, the exam is over! Relief!"

"The most important thing is that the male god can finally sit back in his original position! That ugly monster Ye ÒÒ is so ugly it's getting scary, and Si Xia is miserable too, her face is so white from being scared this morning!"

"Didn't she get the bottom spot on her own merit? Let's see how she's still clinging to Sischa this time!"

“You’re thinking too much, she’ll be kicked out of school before the exam results come out! Before it was because all the teachers were busy with the exams and didn’t have time for her, but now that the exams are over, how can they not deal with her?”

“It’s just a pity we couldn’t get rid of her before the exams, our class average is going to be lowered by her again this time!”

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 28

After the exams were over, the teachers began to mark the papers overnight.

Because it was a mock test, the marking process was largely modelled on that of the entrance examinations, with students’ names being sealed and teachers marking papers other than those from their own classes, and the sealed lines not being opened until the marking was completed and the marks and rankings were tallied.

This night was destined to be a sleepless one, with everyone nervously matching their answers and estimating their marks.

As for Ye Qì, as soon as the paper was handed in, she immediately wandered off to the dormitory and began to catch up on her sleep.

The next morning.

Liang Lihua walked into the classroom in a joyful mood.

She had gone to the Political Education Office in the morning before she even had a chance to look at the students’ results.

“Quiet, classmates! The exam results and rankings are now out! However, before announcing the results, I need to take care of one thing first!”

Hearing these words, immediately everyone’s eyes excitedly looked towards the direction of the last row.

Sure enough, as Liang Lihua spoke, she took out a notice and slapped it on the podium, “I’m sure many of you already know about this matter, our classmate, Ye Qì, has been expelled after a school resolution because she has repeatedly violated school rules and regulations, her conduct is unbearable, and she has repeatedly failed to change, seriously damaging the image of our Qinghe Secondary School!”

There was a burst of cheers from below the podium, especially from the girls.

“Hahahaha, I told you so! No sooner do the results come out than that ugly bastard has to be kicked out of school!”

“Finally, we won’t have to see that horrible face again!”

Liang Lihua squinted her eyes and looked impatiently towards Ye ÒÒ, “The effective date is today, pack your things and go now!”

The mocking gaze and the calm, almost provocative look immediately caused Liang Lihua to become furious, “ÒÒ`Ye! What other questions do you have now? Don’t you want a written notice stamped by the school? The notice has already been given to you! Everything is done according to the rules! Save you from saying that the school is my one word again!”

I seem to remember that there is a clause in the school rules stating that if there is a significant demonstration of remorse, the student may be appropriately exempted from punishment and given the opportunity to reform.”

Liang Lihua laughed coldly, “So what if there is such a rule? What does it have to do with you? Look at you, you’re not a human being, do you look like you have any semblance of repentance?”

Ye ÒÒÒ raised her eyebrows, a justifiable tone, “Yes, I am ugly, so what? Is it my fault that I’m ugly? Is judging people by their appearance something a people’s teacher should do? So, I think it’s better for you, teacher, to take a look at my results before you say anything, just in case I come first in the class this time.”

Liang Lihua first froze for a moment, then was gasped on the spot, and all the other students also laughed out loud.

“Hahahahahahahaha crap! What did that ugly bitch Ye ÒÒà? She came first in the class? Who the hell gave her the courage to say such things?”

“She’s not an idiot! If she’s top of the class, I’ll eat fucking shi!”

“Hahaha, you’re going to eat shi, because the bottom of the class is still the top!”

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 29

In the midst of laughter, Liang Lihua said with a gloomy expression, “Ye ÒÒÀ”, you don’t have to play lip service to me anymore, it’s too late to be afraid or regretful now! Qinghe is a famous school for a hundred years, which one of them is not a dragon and a phoenix among people, a pillar of society! You are a disgrace to Ching Wo, a scum of the society!

If you have any shame at all, take your things and leave now and stop this nonsense! Or, do you want me to call your parents, who have severed their relationship, to come and take you away?”

When she spoke of Ye's parents, Liang Lihua deliberately stretched her tone, her face full of mockery and disdain.

When she heard the words "severed relations", Ye's pupils suddenly tightened!

This was something she had avoided and dared not face since her rebirth.

In her previous life, she had blamed her parents for her inability to be with Gu Yueze, argued with them constantly, said countless excessive words, did countless excessive things to break their hearts, and finally even broke off her relationship with them, not allowing them to interfere in any of her affairs, so as to get rid of the so-called "stain" on her body. The only reason is for Gu Yueze to see her one more time

Little did she know how much truth her parents had hidden and how many disasters they had endured for her

After her rebirth, the one thing she wanted to see most urgently was her parents and brother!

But she didn't dare, and she couldn't!

She had no qualifications and no face to meet them now!

Seeing that Ye Lihua was still standing there, Liang Lihua slapped the table in anger, "ÒÒÒÒ! Don't you challenge my patience!!!"

Liang Lihua took a deep breath, forced down her anger and spoke, "Fine! Look at your results! I'll look for your test papers now! I see that you are not going to see the coffin without tears!"

The students at the bottom were all speechless at the sight

"Is this ugly bitch out of her mind! How many marks did she get on her own test?"

"She's just insulting herself!"

"She's just looking for a sense of existence! Ugly people are so ugly!"

.....

Liang Lihua was preparing to give out the test papers for each subject in the morning, so all the papers had now been carried over.

The first thing she looked for was maths.

After flipping out Ye Lihua's maths paper, Liang Lihua was full of cold smiles as she spread her paper in front of all the students, "Maths, 0 marks! Ye Qiao, this is the exam result you had to show me? And the top of the class?"

Ye Qiao's entire maths paper was blank, apart from a name written on it, not a single question was done, and the big zero on the mark column was unusually blinding.

"Hahahaha this ugly bastard really scored 0 again!"

"That's a big slap in the face! How can you be top of the class when you got 0 marks in Maths? You're blowing your brains out!"

"Number one! There's nothing wrong with being number one at the bottom!"

As if she hadn't heard the taunts around her, Ye Qiao, expressionlessly spoke, "There's also Language, Literature and English."

She remembered that the maths paper this time was so hard that it was sick, and everyone's scores were so low that they basically couldn't pull in too many points, so if she could score high marks in other subjects, even with zero marks in maths, although she couldn't get the first place in the school, the first place in the class was extremely possible.

Hot Meets Cold Chapter 30

Wasting so much time here with a student who was sick in the head, Liang Lihua's patience was about to reach its limit.

She went on to find out Ye Qiao's language test paper.

The students under the podium all looked at each other in disbelief when they heard Liang Lihua's words.

"What did the class teacher just say? 142 marks what the hell?"

"Misread it, right?"

"Uh, 0 marks and 142 marks, can this be misread too?"

What was the concept of scoring 142 points in a language test? Even the top students, who were always very good at languages, rarely scored above 140.

Liang Lihua endured her suspicion and turned over Ye Qiao's Literature Synthesis one after another.

The results were even more outrageous! A full score of 300 points, and Ye Qiaoqiao scored 296 points!

Finally there was still English left.

After seeing Ye Qiaoqiao's English score, Liang Lihua had completely frozen in place, completely speechless.

"150 points in English How is this possible!"

She taught English class, and this time she was marking English for Class A. In the entire Class A, she hadn't marked a single full mark, and the highest mark was only 148. Qiaoqiao The English shown on Ye Qiaoqiao's report card was actually a full mark?

Liang Lihua fumbled around again and found the ranking sheet which she had tucked at the bottom.

"Teacher Liang, may I ask, what is my ranking?" On the last row, the girl opened her mouth with a clear and cold gaze to ask a follow-up question.

Liang Lihua squeezed the thin ranking sheet to death, her face becoming increasingly gloomy, and finally, bursting into a rage, "Heh, Ye Qiaoqiao! You've really grown up! How dare you cheat!!!"

Seemingly anticipating Liang Lihua's reaction, Ye Qiaoqiao asked unhurriedly, "What makes teacher think I cheated?"

Liang Lihua's face turned ugly and she said sternly, "Heh, you didn't cheat? You didn't cheat, you scored 142 in language! 296 points for the Arts! 150 points in English! Ranked first in the class!"

Hearing Liang Lihua's words, the whole class exploded.

"Crap! What? The score is so high?"

"And the number one in the class? Ye Qiaoqiao? You're kidding! How is this possible!!!"

"This is definitely cheating!"

"Teacher said I cheated, do you have any proof?"

Liang Lihua's face was full of cold smiles, "This still needs evidence! Ye Qiaoqiao, do you think everyone else is stupid?"

“Then may I ask, apart from Mathematics, is there anyone else who scored so high in these classes? If I am the only one, may I ask how I have sinned?” Ye Qianqian continued to ask rhetorically.

Just when there was a noisy discussion in the classroom, the maths teacher, Zhao Xingzhou, happened to pass by.

When he heard the commotion in the classroom, he wandered in, “Teacher Liang, what’s going on here? Why are you so angry so early in the morning?”

Liang Lihua looked at the other party’s unkempt appearance and immediately frowned, “Teacher Zhao, this is a school, you should pay more attention to your image!”

Zhao Xingzhou yawned, “It’s not like I have a class in the morning

Although Liang Lihua was not used to seeing him, she didn’t say much after all, although this Zhao Xingzhou was unkempt, but the mathematics result of class F was the best in the school every time, even the headmaster was turning a blind eye to him.
