

Honey, Please Love Someone Else

Chapter 49 - Touching Body

Stella was sitting there, her eyes went up to see me. She raised her eyebrows upward while her hands rested on the keyboard of her laptop.

" Nah I'm almost done. Just sit here for a bit, then we will go have dinner."

" Fine by me." I sat down on the couch and my eyes were observing her. She was very focused with her work and I didn't wanted to disturb her. After few minutes she finally stopped typing. Her arms were raised up to stretch out.

" I'm done. Let's go have dinner." I followed her to the dinner table. Lucy served us the dinner. Since Stella had to work she asked Lucy to stay and help her with dinner. We ate our dinner and talked about how we had spent the evening.

" Are you going to sleep now?" Stella asked me.

" Yeah. You should go to sleep too since you have a meeting tomorrow." Since we had finished eating, we stood in front of the stairs.

" Hmm. I know."

I stood there like log. I thought I'll start to walk when she will, but both of us stood there and kept on looking at each other.

" You wanna do it?" Stella spoke with a hint of hesitation.

" Like now?" She nodded her head to say yes.

" Well, if you say so." I had no reasons to turn down her offer.

Technically this will be the first I will have sex with her in a sober state. I mean I have no clear memory of last night. There's some hazy images of that night. I was feeling pretty nervous.

We walked towards my room and entered there. Two of us were alone, inside my bedroom. There were times when we watched movies together here. We had played video games right here, sitting on my bed. My heart beat became faster than usual.

Okay!

Calm down!

I got this.

Easyyyyyyyyyy.

I kept on telling those words to my inner self. My anxiety was making me feel so worried. I was shaking from inside.

Should I start with kissing?

Will that be okay? I mean it's only natural to start things slowly rather than going wild like beast.

I'm not that much of a freaky person.

Stella was sitting on the edge of my bed. She stayed quite and probably waited for me to take the first action.

Gosh! Here goes for nothing!

I sat down beside her then grabbed her chin with my finger. Her soft smooth skin was captured by my palm. I pulled her face near mine. She didn't hesitate at all, instead she followed my lead. Our foreheads touched as we were only few inches apart from touching our lips.

My eyes went on looking up and down, capturing the beauty of my dear angel. Our breathing was heavy and the sweet scent of her, filled my nostrils with honey like aromatic.

I felt my lip was being dry which made me lick it quickly. I can hear her heart beats so clearly. It sounded like a sweet melody. I guess she was also nervous.

My lips touched her Cupid's bow then pressed onto her lips. Our lips began to move in a harmony as if we had done it so many times. Suddenly I wasn't nervous anymore. I was filled with confidence. The movement of lips became more rapid. I opened my eyes to see what was her reaction but she kept her eyes shut. It was then, our tongues went to explore the inner parts.

I felt that my little guy started to rise up inside my trousers. Without any delay I grabbed her slim body then placed her on my lap. Even at that time, we did not let go off each other's mouth. My hands were gently holding her petite waist. Stella's hips felt so soft as they were pressed onto my thighs. I did not reckon any heavy weight, keeping her on my thigh.

My hands roamed around her body and pulled out her t-shirt. Her body was exposed and her breasts were covered by the bra. I undo the strap with the help of my fingers then I fell on the bed, dragging her with me. She was on top of me, pressed onto my board chest. I wanted to observe her body in every way. Since she was on top of me I could only see her face.

So, I rolled over on bed, making her come beneath my body. As I got on top, I was able to view her perfect body. Her body rested on the bed. She had her eyes open, looking at me. We were gazing at each other and I was lost into those eyes. Those eyes had taken me to a journey of starry Milky Way. I wonder what type of expression I had on my face that time. Stella looked like she was lost into her thoughts.

I gently pulled her pants, making her body free from rest of her clothing. As I tugged open her underwear, her naked body was represented to me. Her female part wasn't cover with hair. It was smooth and clean like the rest of her body.

My crotch started to poke inside my pants. I can't keep it on hold any longer. I needed to be inside hers.

Undressing my clothes, I grabbed the pack of condom from my nightstand drawer. I had some left in there and since I had broke up with Regina they were kept unused. Besides that I don't want Stella to take pills. Taking emergency pills are okay but if you want to continue you better consult with a doctor.

I opened the pack and put it on my penis. My hand trailed on her thighs. It made her body shiver. A soft moan escaped from her mouth. Her nipples were pointed upwards which signifies that she's also ready.

Stella's body is very sensitive. It didn't took her long to get her clitoris drenched with her body fluids. I stretched out her legs and slammed my penis inside her. Even though it seemed a little tight in the beginning, her body fluids made it slippery to thrust inside her.

I started to move my body in a slower motion at first. I did not want her to feel any pain because of my rough attitude. Her vaginal wall was making my penis suck into it. It fitted around my penis as if I was meant to be hers. We continued to pleasure ourselves. She was moaning with passion and desire. Every time I shoved myself inside, her smooth skin touched mine. Our body became sweaty after the intense workout of physical activity.

I almost reached to the climax so I pulled out. Both of us were breathing fast. We did started in a slow motion but at the end we became more rough. I stood up from the bed and threw the cōndōm onto the dustbin.

" You okay?" I asked her as she was still quite, laying down on the bed.

" Yeah. Never felt better." She let out a sigh and chuckled.

" Me too." I replied back with a smile. Getting inside the sheets, I laid my body beside her. She tuned her whole body to my side. Her brèàsts were half covered by the sheets.

" Can I sleep here?" The question came so suddenly from her. I was not expecting it though.

" Yeah. Why not." I replied back calmly. That moment I knew it's not the end. It's the beginning of a new day.
