

C78 Who Was He Trying to Scare

Zhao Qian quickly returned to the car and asked again, "Hong Xiu, are you sure you're alright? Do you want to go to the hospital to take a look? "

Hong Xiu quickly shook her head and replied, "It's fine, there's no need to go to the hospital. It's just that my house has been destroyed and there's no place to live. "

Zhao Qian's River View villa was very big, so it shouldn't be a problem for her to stay the night.

"If you trust me, come and stay with me for the night. I'll get someone to help you fix the house tomorrow and come back when it's fixed. "

Hong Xiu lowered her head slightly and stole a glance at Zhao Qian. Then, she nodded and acknowledged in a soft voice.

Zhao Qian immediately drove her home and arranged a room for her. He pointed to the cabinet beside the bed and said, "The quilts are all in the closet. You can make the bed yourself, so I won't be helping you."

Hong Xiu nodded gratefully and replied, "I can make it myself. You can go rest now. Thank you so much tonight, or I don't know what the consequences would have been. "

Zhao Qian smiled and said, "Why are you being polite with me?" After all, you are my man, and it is my duty to protect you. "Don't worry, I won't let this go so easily. I'll definitely give you an explanation."

"I believe you, but don't do anything illegal. It's not worth it."

"Haha ..." Don't worry. As a law-abiding citizen, I would never do anything against the law. "I'm going to sleep. If you're done, then go to sleep."

Hong Xiu nodded with a smile as she saw Zhao Qian out the door. A warm feeling rose in her heart as she watched him walk away. Ever since she was young, she had always been a strong and independent girl. Now that she suddenly experienced what it was like to be cared for, she was naturally very touched.

Zhao Qian returned to his room and immediately sent a WeChat message to Yang Hu.

"Yang Hu, prepare yourself. If Liu Bao doesn't fulfill my request, just screw him! However, don't get into a large-scale fight, just use your Special Forces brothers. It was neat and clean, leaving no traces behind. As long as they don't die, nothing will be a problem. "

"Understood, I will immediately prepare it," Yang Hu quickly replied to Zhao Qian. "Don't worry, Young Master. Either he hands over the fingers of his subordinates, or I go and get them."

When Zhao Qian saw the message, he put down his phone in satisfaction and went to sleep.

At this moment, Liu Bao wasn't having an easy time. He was teaching Liu Xi and the four thugs who kidnapped Hong Xiu a lesson.

Liu Xi had been beaten black and blue, and he kept begging Liu Bao.

Liu Bao was very angry and shouted, "I'm in a dilemma right now! If I cut off the fingers of these little guys, will I, Liu Bao, be able to survive in the future? If he doesn't do as Yang Hu says, he'll fight me to the death. Yang Hu's strength is not weaker than mine. If he is determined to fight me, then I will not have a good ending. Before I accepted the order, I specifically asked you if you knew anything about that woman's background. "You're f * cking telling me that she doesn't have a damn background, why would such an awesome person suddenly appear to protect her?"

Liu Xi quickly explained, "Mr Bao, I really didn't know she had such a background. That Yang Ming also didn't say that she had an important figure behind her back. He only said that she was an ordinary little boss. "If you want to blame someone, blame Yang Ming. This matter is all his fault and should be resolved by him."

Liu Bao knew Yang Hu's strength. If he decided to fight with his life on the line, Yang Family would definitely not be able to resist. It was better to rely on the heavens than on Yang Ming.

However, Liu Xi had a different view. He analyzed to Liu Bao: "Mr Bao, although Yang Ming can't beat Yang Hu, but his family is rich ah. He could spend money to hire even more powerful people to help, but if it really wasn't possible, he could hire international assassins or something like that. No matter how strong Yang Hu was, how could he be stronger than those kings, princes, presidents, etc.? Wouldn't those mercenary killers still be able to kill them? As long as we give Yang Ming enough pressure and force him to do this, we don't have to worry about anything else. "

After listening to Liu Xi's analysis, Yang Hu felt that it made sense. The cause of this was Yang Ming, and they had to drag him into the water.

"Liu Xi, call Yang Ming right now and tell him the situation. He has to take responsibility."

Liu Xi quickly nodded in agreement and quickly took out his phone to call Yang Ming.

Yang Ming was waiting for Liu Xi's good news. The moment he saw Liu Xi calling, he immediately picked up the call.

"Hey, how was it? Did you let that slut have enough? "

"Young Master Yang, you are so mean!" You told me that the woman had no background, and Yang Hu wanted to protect the woman with all his might. You've caused us so much trouble by spending so little money. What do you think we should do? "

Yang Ming was stunned and quickly asked: "What do you mean? I'll pay you guys to do something, and you want me to take responsibility if anything happens to you? Is there such a rule in the martial arts world? "

Liu Xi retorted without reservation, "I don't care what the rules of the martial arts world are, I only know that you lied about the military intelligence, causing us to misjudge the situation. In short, you are responsible for your dishonesty. "

Yang Ming sneered, and replied with a cold tone: "Brother Xi, I, Yang Ming, am not some country bumpkin who has never seen the world. It won't be that easy for you to scam me."

Liu Xi was feeling wronged, but when he heard Yang Ming's ungrateful words, he immediately became angry.

"Yang Ming, you must think this through. You must take responsibility for what you have said!"

"Hehe ..." Liu Xi, stop scaring me! I, Yang Ming, have plenty of money. As long as I have money, I will find someone to deal with her. Don't tell me you think you're the most powerful bastards in the world? Worse comes to worst, I can find someone from abroad to deal with you street hooligans. So don't scare me, and don't make me angry. "

Liu Xi was so scared that he did not dare to speak anymore. If Yang Ming really did spend a high price to invite assassins from overseas, then not to mention him, even Liu Bao would not be able to survive.

But if he didn't drag Yang Ming into this, then Liu Bao would surely hold him responsible. Therefore, Liu Xi could only moderate his tone and continue to mediate with Yang Ming.

"Young Master Yang, we are partners, why do we have to be like enemies? Since you are willing to spend money to find assassins from abroad, that would be for the best. Why don't you find someone to get rid of that girl and her backer? "

Yang Ming sneered and replied, "Is it that easy to hire an assassin from abroad? "I can't be bothered to tell you that. Since you've accepted my money, you must handle this matter well. Otherwise, you will have to bear the consequences."

Liu Xi also went up a little and said resolutely, "Heh! You're still trying to get ahead of yourself, aren't you? What kind of consequences do you want us to bear? Do you really think that you can be arrogant just because you have two coins? "

"Haha ..." I'm sorry, money can really do whatever it wants. "

Liu Bao couldn't bear to listen any longer. He went up and snatched the phone away and said in a gloomy tone, "Yang Ming, you purposely concealed the real background of the target, this is..."

"Mr Bao, you're a professional in this field, why do you say such unorthodox words?" Shouldn't you investigate the background of your target before you act? If I understand everything, why would I spend 500,000 to invite you all? "

Liu Bao suppressed his anger and asked, "Then you don't want to take any responsibility?"

"That's right, I have no responsibility, so how can I bear it? After you receive the money, you will not be able to handle the matter properly. Be careful, no one will find you to do anything in the future. "

After Yang Ming said that, he hung up the phone. Liu Bao threw the phone away in anger.

"F * ck, little red jackal, you actually dare to talk to your father like that!?" Did they really think that they would die just because they had money? Ali, pick a few of your brothers who are more nimble and tie Yang Cheng up. Don't hurt him, I want to teach Yang Ming a lesson. "

Ali was Liu Bao's most capable fighter, and Shaolin was a vulgar disciple.

He took a step forward and replied respectfully, "Okay, Mr Bao, I'll do it right now."

Just as Ali left, Liu Bao received a message from Yang Hu on WeChat.

"Liu Bao, tomorrow night before 10 o'clock, you either have to hand over those 4 trash fingers or hand over yours. "If I don't see it, my men will pick up your fingers any time after eight."

C79 I Can't Do Without You

Liu Bao looked at the WeChat message from Yang Hu and his hands trembled in anger.

"F * ck, this Yang Hu is going too far. Does he really think that I don't dare to fight with him?"

At this moment, the other three gold medal thugs beside Liu Bao spoke up.

Huang Ming said, "Mr Bao, why don't we make the first move first and find a few good brothers to take care of Yang Hu."

Lu Xing quickly agreed, "I think what Ah Ming said is reasonable. Rather than waiting for him to ambush us, why don't we make the first move?" "Anyway, I can't accept Mr Bao's submission."

Liang Hui also nodded and said, "I agree." Let alone not losing to Yang Hu, even if we knew we couldn't beat him, we would still have to fight. Rather than being laughed at by others for living, it would be better to die a violent death. "

Liu Bao knew that the four of them were tough natured people, so they weren't afraid of death. But he couldn't be like them. He had a family behind him and so many people under his command. His decision will affect many people's lives and even their survival.

But even if he hesitated, Liu Bao didn't want to give in. He just couldn't bring himself to go head to head with Yang Hu.

"I understand the meaning of all of you brothers. How about this, you guys give me some time to think about it." I'll definitely give you all a clear answer before noon tomorrow.

Huang Ming and the others nodded and went back to sleep.

Liu Bao did not sleep that night. When the sun rose, he directly got out of bed. After thinking about it, he still couldn't make up his mind to fight Yang Hu to the death.

For the sake of safety, Zhao Qian personally sent Hong Xiu to work at the company and watched her enter the elevator before driving to work.

Last night at Donghai Hotel, Zhang Yang lost face and felt very uncomfortable. All he wanted was to find some trouble for Zhao Qian, so that he could keep his balance. It would be best if he could force Zhao Qian to leave, lest it got in his way.

"Everyone, quiet down. There's a new personnel transfer that I'd like to announce to everyone."

Everyone quieted down. Coincidentally, Wang Qiang also came out, so they all listened quietly.

"It's like this. From start to finish, I feel that Zhao Qian is too wasteful when it comes to planning. This kind of work with no technical content was not conducive to his ability to make use of his talents. I decided to transfer him to the marketing department. To make the best use of the goods and the best of the talent of the people, this will allow the company to go a step further.

"Zhao Qian, what do you think?"

No matter what kind of work he did, it wasn't a problem for Zhao Qian. However, he didn't want to make a receipt for Faang Ni now.

"Mr Zhang must be joking, I am a schemer myself. I only got lucky and got a few orders, I am not talented in this aspect. It's still more comfortable to be in my old job. Don't make things difficult for me, Mr Zhang. "

Zhang Yang was determined to make things difficult for Zhao Qian, so he continued: "Don't be so modest. Your ability is obvious, everyone says that's it? "

The people who came to watch the commotion did not know anything about this. They only felt that Zhao Qian was indeed good at taking orders. The more the list, the better the company's benefits will be, and their benefits will be increased accordingly. Therefore, they also wanted Zhao Qian to go out and pick up the order.

"Mr Zhang is right. I also think that Zhao Qian is a waste of talent in the planning department. He should go out and get more orders for the company. "

"I support Mr Zhang's decision. Zhao Qian, don't be modest. For the sake of the company's development, you should accept the transfer."

"That's right, just accept it ..."

Zhao Qian naturally wouldn't accept the appointment because of these compliments. He immediately replied, "I understand everyone's feelings, but I really don't have talent in this aspect. At that time, he was in a rebellious and fun period. He was interested in the game, so he chose to engage in game planning. My talent and interest are all in this. I really can't do it professionally. "

Zhang Yuan couldn't hold it anymore and immediately said, "Zhao Qian, you failed to become a manager and only became the director of the planning department. You are unhappy, so you don't want to contribute to the company, right?"

Wang Qiang seized the opportunity and followed, "Zhao Qian, you have to be magnanimous and have a long-term perspective. Director Faang only saw that you were still young and didn't want you to reach the peak of your life so early. When you settle in again, you'll definitely be promoted. Don't be in such a hurry. You can't back down when the company needs your talent. You've always been very confident in yourself, but the current you isn't like you. "

Zhang Yuan wanted Zhao Qian to leave the planning department, so he had a chance to be the manager again. That was why he supported Zhao Qian picking up orders.

Wang Qiang was more experienced and knew how difficult it was to pick up orders. As long as Zhao Qian was transferred to receive orders, he would have a lot of opportunities to discipline Zhao Qian in the future. For example, he would arrange some impossible orders for Zhao Qian. As long as he failed to play, he could seize the opportunity to punish him.

After five years of settling down, Zhao Qian was no longer that impulsive teenager. He would not change his mind just because of a few words from the other party.

"My apologies, but my interest is not on the receipt. I just want to settle down and plan things out."

Zhang Yuan changed his tone to a provocative tone and said, "Are you afraid that you are not up to the task?"

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "You can understand it that way."

It was useless to try to goad him, so Wang Qiang and Zhang Yuan didn't know what to do to get Zhao Qian to accept the appointment.

Zhang Yang was determined to find an opportunity to deal with Zhao Qian, so he said: "Let's put it this way, the planning department is overcrowded, I've decided to cut the staff. But for the sake of your dedication to the company, I don't want anyone to leave, so I want to transfer you to the marketing department. If you refuse, I'll have to cut you out. You can decide for yourself whether you're being kicked out of the company or whether another department is continuing to work for the company. "

Zhao Qian laughed loudly and replied: "Mr Zhang, do you think you can make me compromise just like this? If I say I don't do it, then I won't do it, and you can't affect my decision by doing these things. Since the company doesn't need me, then I'm leaving. However, before I leave, I hope Mr Zhang can transfer the money that the company owes me to my account. "

At this moment, Faang Ni, who had been eavesdropping in the office, couldn't help but open the door and come out.

"What are you doing? It was already time for work, why were they still chatting? I'm forgiving you guys, you shouldn't be so idle. "

Faang Ni knew what had happened and was just playing dumb.

Wang Qiang quickly replied, "Director Faang, Zhao Qian wants to resign. We were trying to get him to stay. After all, he has done a lot for the company and the company can't do without him. "

Faang Ni glared at Wang Qiang, turned her head and said to Zhao Qian with a smile, "Zhao Qian, come to my office. We will have a good talk."

It was purely a personal preference to work here. If you are not happy with what you have done, there is no need to stay. Besides, Zhao Qian wanted to let Zhang Yang and co. know if the company could continue to operate without him.

Zhao Qian shook his head with a smile and refused, "Director Faang, I don't think there's anything else to talk about. I don't like the atmosphere of the company. Leaving might be the best choice. I don't have any excessive requests, just give me what you agree to. However, I will also say the ugly things first. If Director Faang is unwilling to part with the money, I will make Director Faang lose even more. I've already left the company, so I'm not afraid of bringing any trouble to the company. "

Faang Ni was extremely scared. If Zhao Qian said a few bad things about the company to Xingyuan and stopped giving orders, the company's management would be in trouble.

Faang Ni was about to ask him to stay, but Zhang Yang smiled arrogantly and said, "Zhao Qian, where did you get your confidence from? How dare you say such words? Without you, the company wouldn't be able to continue? I'll let you see now. If you leave, the company will develop even better. "

Zhao Qian chuckled and didn't continue talking to him. He turned around and went to pack his stuff.

Faang Ni quickly chased after him and persuaded him to stay, "Zhao Qian, don't be angry, don't lower yourself to the same level as them. They don't understand your importance, how can I not understand? At the end of the day, this company is called Faang Ni Producer, I'm the boss. It doesn't matter what the others say, I'm in charge. I said you have to stay, and no one in the company can do it, not without you. "

Zhang Yang was furious. Didn't Faang Ni say that she was going to slap his face? He said the company could grow better without Zhao Qian. However, she said that without anyone, she could do it, but she couldn't do it without Zhao Qian. The meaning behind his words was that he could do without him, but Zhao Qian had to stay.

C80 Obtain as You Wish

"Faang Ni, why are you so scared of him?" Zhang Yang couldn't stand Faang Ni disagreeing with him in front of so many employees. I told you, customers look at the company, not the salesmen. You don't have to worry about losing your order. The investment from Wang Hanxu will be on the books soon. If we have the money, why should we be afraid of the company's bad development?"

Faang Ni quickly explained, "That's not what I meant. I just don't want to let the employees who have done meritorious service leave like this. I want to let everyone know that as long as it is beneficial to the company, I will absolutely not let him go. "

Zhang Yang became even angrier and continued: "It's not that the company let him down, it's just that he didn't follow the company's rules and would rather leave than cooperate. This type of employee who only cared about their own interests and did not care about the company's interests, no matter how big of a contribution he made, could not be left alive. Xiao Ni, if you still regard me as your husband and you still believe in my ability, can you let me manage you as much as you want? At most half a year, if the company doesn't go up another level or even get worse under my management, you can do whatever you want, even if you want me to quit the company. "

Faang Ni instantly lost her temper. She had waited for so long with great difficulty for her husband, so of course she didn't want to lose him. If she had to choose between Zhao Qian and Zhang Yang, she would definitely choose Zhang Yang.

Zhang Yang was like a university student who had just left his university. He was full of ambition and ambition, and his eyes were higher than the sky. He always thought that he could do something big. If he didn't touch the wall, he would understand what a society was. He wouldn't place anyone in his eyes.

Zhao Qian smiled and said, "I think it's better for Director Faang to listen to Mr Zhang's suggestion. After all, Mr Zhang has just returned from learning in the United States, so he definitely has a very advanced management and management method. Under his wise leadership, the company will definitely develop rapidly. As for me, I don't have any ambitions. I just want to eat and wait for my death with money. Director Faang, as long as you don't owe me money, that's fine. Alright everyone, I'll see you guys again. "

Zhang Yuan was even more impolite now that he was sure that Zhao Qian was leaving the company. He immediately laughed complacently, "We'll meet again. What, do you still want to come back?"

Zhao Qian laughed and replied: "It's hard to predict the outcome of the world, you can't say for sure. "Maybe I'll be back in a while. Don't be so harsh with your words."

Zhang Yuan immediately laughed out loud and asked: "Then what are you looking for? Isn't it fine to accept Mr Zhang's arrangement now? "

Zhao Qian shook his head and replied: "That's not the same. I'm staying because it's a compromise and it's not my style. In the future, if I return, it will definitely be because the company cannot do without me. Some people will ask me to return. "

The moment Zhao Qian said this, Zhang Yang and the rest started laughing out loud.

Wang Qiang mocked, "No... Zhao Qian, where did you get the confidence to say such words? With only a few orders, do you really think the company won't be able to handle you? Aren't you overestimating yourself? "

Zhang Yuan then echoed, "Ever since you won the lottery, you've drifted away. You really think of yourself as Wan'er! "No matter who is missing, there will be no problem on this earth. Without Director Faang and Mr Zhang, there will be problems in the company, but without you, there won't be any effect at all."

Zhang Yang held back his smile and pretended to be serious as he said, "Don't say that, just in case he has something good and does it well, our company will be happy to cooperate with him in some other way. Nothing is absolute. Furthermore, we all have colleagues here, so it's best to bless him. "

As soon as Zhang Yang said this, Wang Qiang and others gave Zhao Qian their blessings. Zhao Qian returned a smile, packed up his things and left.

Zhang Yang got his wish and chased Zhao Qian away, then quickly announced the new appointment.

"The planning department is lacking a supervisor right now. I've decided to let Zhang Yuan take over. Zhang Yuan, do you have the confidence to lead the colleagues in the planning department to create a new glory? "

Zhang Yuan was extremely excited. He was looking forward to the stars and the moon. He had finally looked forward to this day. He quickly promised Zhang Yang, "Thank you for Mr Zhang's trust, I will work hard and definitely won't let you down."

Zhang Yang nodded with satisfaction and encouraged, "I believe in my eyes, and I also believe in your ability. I believe that under your leadership, the planning department will definitely be better off. "Alright, let's all go to work."

Everyone returned to their respective positions. Faang Ni called Zhang Yang into her office.

Zhang Yang was very unhappy. As soon as he closed the door, he asked, "Xiao Ni, what do you mean by that? If you disobey me in front of so many people, would I still have any dignity in the company? Will they listen to me? "

"Hubby, I think you're being a bit reckless in your actions. Zhao Qian was the one who asked Xingyuan for the company's big orders. If he were to speak ill of us to Xingyuan when he was angry, Xingyuan would definitely not order us again in the future. "What's the use of having money alone? If you can't get the bill, there's no money to earn!"

Zhang Yang laughed and replied, "Xiao Ni, I feel that your thinking is wrong. Why do we have to be substitutes? Why can't we be like Xingyuan, able to create and operate a dragon? "

Faang Ni explained, "I know what you mean, but the current competition in the gaming industry is fierce. It's just a little game that catches the eye, but if you move it will cost hundreds of millions, or even hundreds of millions. If the market had reacted well, that would have been fine. If you fail, you only need one project to bankrupt the company. "

Zhang Yang held Faang Ni in his arms and comforted her, "You don't have to worry about the capital. Wang Hanxu has plenty of money. We just need to make the book better, and we don't have to worry about money. For at least the last two years, we've been able to produce a very nice financial statement. This was enough for Wang Hanxu to take the reports and request more investment from the headquarters. While we're doing it, we're liquidating the shares. "Even if we can't do it in the future, with billions of dollars in our hands, we can definitely build a company."

Faang Ni looked at Zhang Yang in surprise. Was this still the Zhang Yang that she had honestly and honestly back then? Why would there be such shameless thoughts?

"Hubby, Faang Ni's production has coalesced too much of my blood and sweat. Even if it's something that can only be maintained for the rest of my life, I don't want to lose it completely. I can only accept being a second shareholder at most, that's my bottom line. "

Zhang Yang sneered in his heart, calling Faang Ni a country bumpkin. She's just an idiot, and doesn't know how to operate the capital market at all. Many technology companies rely on good financial results to attract investment, the equity to cash out, and then to set up a new company. After repeating this a few times, he would soon be able to accumulate over a hundred million funds. What can't I do with money? If you can't do it, you can also do it. As long as you invest in it and wait for the dividends, it will be very easy and cozy.

Zhang Yang felt that Faang Ni would not be able to accept such an "advanced" concept of capital operation. For the time being, she wasn't in a hurry. In the future, there would be plenty of time to slowly change her.

So he replied, "I know the company is your hard work, and I'm not willing to give it to anyone else. If we do it well, of course we'll keep doing it. If he could not continue the business, of course, he would break it. When I say 'I can't get my hands on', the premise is that I really can't manage it anymore. As long as there is still a sliver of hope, I will definitely not allow you to give your painstaking efforts to anyone else. "

Faang Ni was stunned by Zhang Yang's coaxing. She smiled and nodded while hugging him tightly.

Zhao Qian drove back home and found Huang Yingmeng carrying a suitcase.

"What a coincidence, are you leaving now?"

Huang Yingmeng nodded and replied, "Yes! I'm going to the airport now. "

Zhao Qian quickly helped her carry the luggage to the car and told her to get in while he drove her to the airport.

Huang Yingmeng didn't hold back and nodded in acceptance with a smile.

Not long after they drove out, Yang Hu called Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian picked up the phone and asked, "What's the matter?"

"Young Master, Liu Bao replied, not handing it over!" He also said that if I wanted to start a war with him, I would meet him at 12 o'clock in the evening at the abandoned warehouse at the East Harbour Pier. "

"Oh, I see. I'm driving now, so I'll tell you later. "

Zhao Qian then hung up the phone. His eyes revealed a strong killing intent. Since this Liu Bao didn't know what was good for him, he definitely couldn't let him off easy this time. Even if they didn't kill him, they would at least make him lose a layer of skin.

C81 Do as You Say

As soon as Zhao Qian hung up the phone, Huang Yingmeng asked, "Mr Zhao, are you busy? "Why don't you put me down in front of you and I'll take a taxi to the airport."

Zhao Qian shook his head and said that it was fine. It was just a trivial matter and there was no need to be in such a hurry to deal with it.

Huang Yingmeng nodded and said no more. She could tell that something was wrong with Zhao Qian. He definitely didn't want her to know that he was unwilling to admit it, so she decided to just leave it at that.

Soon, they arrived at the airport. Zhao Qian waved goodbye to Huang Yingmeng and called Yang Hu as soon as they got back to the car.

"Hey, Yang Hu, don't wait for the night after three days. Send someone to take action tonight."

"Okay, Young Master."

"Be careful. Use your advantage, be clean, and do things quietly. Never leave behind evidence, let alone a massive fire. As long as you break the government's bottom line, I can always protect you. See what I mean? "

"Understood. "Young Master, don't worry, I'll pick a few brothers who have carried out assassination missions, there won't be any problems at all."

"Yes." "Then I'll wait for your good news."

Yang Hu acknowledged and hung up the phone. He quickly went to pick his men and took action against Liu Bao tonight.

At 8 o'clock in the evening, Yang Cheng came home from dinner and got drunk. Halfway there, the tire exploded. The driver opened the door and came out to change the tire. When he switched back into the car, he found that the owner was gone.

The driver was scared out of his wits and quickly called Yang Ming to report the situation.

Yang Ming was furious. Just as he wanted to curse at the driver, Liu Xi called him. He ended his call with the driver and quickly picked up Liu Xi's call.

"Hey, Young Master Yang, is Old Man Yang still not home?"

Yang Ming got angry the moment he heard that. He quickly asked, "Did you kidnap my dad and take him away?"

Liu Xi laughed and denied it, "Young Master Yang can't be so unfair to people. I just said hello. What? Old Master Yang was kidnapped? Oh, what a pity it is to be tormented at such a young age. But then again, it's your fault. If you didn't cause trouble outside, how could they kidnap your father? I think it's better for you to think about who you've offended recently and quickly call them to apologize. "Haha ..."

With that, Liu Xi hung up the phone. This made Yang Ming anxious, so he quickly called him back.

"Hey!" Liu Xi, did you capture my dad or not? What do you want? Aren't you afraid that I'll call the police? "

"Aiya, Young Master Yang, saying something like that will scare me!" I think you should call the police. However ... What if the other party is a vicious and merciless person? If you call the police and they immediately tear up the tickets, what will we do? "

"You ... What do you want, money? "Tell me how much you want."

"I don't understand what Young Master Yang is saying. I'm going to go to the Night Pearl Hippie now, I don't have time to talk to you like that, so don't disturb me. "

Liu Xi hung up again, but he purposely let Yang Ming know where he was going. With Yang Ming's impetuous personality, he would definitely go directly to him.

As expected, the moment Liu Xi entered the Night Pearl Nightclub, Yang Ming followed him in.

Liu Xi was about to find a seat, but Yang Ming walked over and pulled him to a presidential box.

"What do you want? If you want money, just ask and I'll give it to you. You must not hurt my dad. His health is not good, and he can't bear the torment. "

"Young Master Yang is such a filial son, even I was touched by you. Actually, we could have avoided alarming the old man, but since you're being tactless, we had no choice but to drag him into the water. "

Since Liu Xi had already admitted kidnapping Yang Chen, Yang Ming didn't waste any more words with him, and directly asked, "How do you plan to let my dad go home?"

Liu Xi didn't say anything, he just used his finger to write a set of numbers on the table.

Yang Ming was shocked and immediately questioned, "Are you crazy? It actually cost 100 million! Why don't you just snatch it? "

Liu Xi wiped off the water on the table and sneered: "If you think your father is not worth this price, then you can not pay. "No one knows who kidnapped your father anyway, maybe he drank too much and fell into the river and drowned."

Liu Xi had even thought about how Yang Cheng would die, so Yang Ming didn't dare to not pay. However, 100 million is really too much, so he asked, "Brother Xi, can you reduce it a little? A hundred million was too much. My family has more than 100 million, but we don't have that much money right now. If I raise a hundred million in a short period of time, it will definitely arouse suspicion from the banks. Once they call the police, we're all in trouble."

Actually, Liu Bao didn't really want the money. He just wanted to teach Yang Ming a lesson. However, from the looks of it, it was definitely not a problem for Yang Ming to ask him for eighteen million.

"It's not impossible, but it depends on your performance."

"I understand, I will definitely pay a killer to deal with Yang Hu."

"Haha ..." Young Master Yang was a smart person. You only have two days, on the third day before midnight, if Yang Hu doesn't die, your father will fall into the river and die! In addition, compensate us for the total loss of our lives, which amounts to ten million dollars."

"Two days? Isn't it too short! I don't even know where to find a killer. It's not enough if you give me two days."

At midnight the day after tomorrow, Liu Bao and Yang Hu were about to have a life and death duel. Liu Xi naturally could only give Yang Ming two days time.

"I don't care. How you do it is your business. I only want the result. If Yang Hu doesn't die in two days, then your dad will die."

"But I really don't know where I can find a killer! Can you introduce me to something?"

Liu Xi used his hand to write a number on the table. Yang Ming quickly wrote it down and Liu Xi immediately erased the number.

"Alright, that's all I can help. The rest is up to Young Master Yang himself. I'm going to go out and have fun with you."

"Feel free, Brother Xi. I'll contact this person right away to ask him about the situation."

Liu Xi walked downstairs. Just as he was about to dance on the dance floor, Hong Li called him.

"Come back quickly, something happened to Mr Bao!"

"Ah!" What happened?

"We'll know when we get back!" "Hurry up!"

"Oh, okay. I'll be right back!"

Liu Xi quickly ran out and rushed to Liu Bao's house as fast as he could.

Before he even reached Liu Bao's room, Liu Xi already heard his cries of pain. He quickly ran inside and found out that someone had chopped off Liu Bao's right thumb.

"Mr Bao, how are you?" This... "Who did this? You're too brave to actually dare to touch you, Mr Bao!"

Liu Bao stretched out his left hand and pinched Liu Xi's neck.

"It's all your fault! If it wasn't for you bringing me Yang Ming's order, how could laozi do this! "

"Cough, cough ..." "Mr Bao, I was wrong, I was wrong. Let go, I'm going to die ..."

Wu Tie was so angry that he threw Liu Xi to the side. Then, he asked Hong Li if he had found out who those people were.

Hong Li lowered his head and replied timidly, "Also ..." Not yet... Those people were all unfamiliar faces. They had never seen them before. And they did it so neatly that they left no trace behind. Judging from their style of doing things, they should be professional killers, or at least people who had gone through rigorous training. "Such as the special forces."

Liu Bao's eyes lit up the moment he heard the word "special forces" and cursed, "Fuck, Yang Hu is from the special forces." Those people must be his people, he really did make a move on me! "

Upon hearing that Yang Hu was the culprit, everyone became excited.

"Mr Bao, fuck him!" I can't bear it! "

"We made an appointment with him three days later to make our move tonight. He didn't follow the rules, so we will make our move today. We have enough reason to fuck him! "

"Mr Bao, don't be like this anymore. If you continue enduring it, how are we going to mess around in the future?"

Liu Bao gritted his teeth, not knowing what to do. He was only guessing and did not have any evidence. If he made a move on Yang Hu first, no matter what the result, he would be the one who started the fight, and he would definitely bear the brunt of it.

But after all, his thumb had already been chopped off. If he could endure this, how could he bring along his little brothers in the future?

C82 Do Not Act Recklessly

Liu Bao thought about it all night and finally decided to take Yang Hu on. However, the news of his duel with Yang Hu had spread, and the Director of the Division had personally called the two of them and asked them not to mess around, or else they would be dealt with in accordance with the dark forces.

Yang Hu and Liu Bao looked like the club bosses in the movies, but they were both in the right profession now. For example, opening a bar, bathing area, game arcade, and other places of entertainment.

However, he still had many subordinates. If they were to fight, the consequences would be severe. If they were dealt with as evil forces, the two of them would be organized into criminal gangs. They would have to spend the rest of their lives in prison.

He definitely wouldn't be able to fight, but since Liu Bao suffered so much, he wasn't willing to accept it. He asked Yang Hu and the director to come out and have a talk with them.

The director would never meet them. It was a matter of position. If someone took the photo, he would be in trouble. However, he had thought of a way. The three of them would chat via video.

The bureau chief first told the two of them about the current government's determination and progress to eliminate evil and reminded them not to screw themselves over. Do your own business, get government support, and protect the law. Once you cross the line, you have to bear the consequences.

Liu Bao originally didn't want to fight to the death with Yang Hu, but now he just so happened to be a donkey, so he said: "I can not fight with him, but he cut off one of my fingers, so he must give it back to me!"

Yang Hu immediately replied with a smile, "Liu Bao, don't f*cking frame people. What proof do you have that I cut off your finger? "You have proof?"

"My people have checked, those few people are most likely from the special forces. You are a member of the special forces, and you have many brothers under your command. You dare to say that this has nothing to do with you?"

"Liu Bao, your words are so brainless. I still have some money, is your family's money mine too? What do I have that others cannot have? What kind of logic is this? If you have solid evidence, I'll chop it off right now and give it to you. If you have no proof at all, don't say that in front of the Commissioner, I can sue you for slander. "

Liu Bao was sure that Yang Hu had sent someone to cut off his fingers, but he had no proof and could only suffer.

"Alright!" Today, I won't argue with you in front of Director Li. "What if I find evidence in the future?"

Yang Hu stretched out his thumb and replied, "If you find evidence, I will still cut off my compensation."

"Good!" We'll see. "Director Li, please tell me. I will not directly clash with him until I find the evidence."

Yang Hu also quickly expressed his stance, saying, "I am just a serious businessman. My emperor KTV is the most luxurious and best-selling KTV in the Lu Family." I can't live such a good life, why should I risk my life against others! As long as others don't offend me, I will absolutely not provoke others. I'm afraid that someone like Liu Bao, even though he knows that he's my customer, he still wants to touch him. I can't tolerate that. If I can't even protect my old customers, who would come to my place to spend a lot of money in the future? "

Yang Hu was also a smart person. Although it seemed like he was saying that he would not cause trouble, in reality, he was putting all the blame on Liu Bao.

Liu Bao quickly explained, "How would I know she's your client! "Besides, after you call me, I'll immediately ask someone to release her. Isn't that enough to give you face?"

Yang Hu immediately pointed at Liu Bao and said to the bureau chief, "Director Li, listen to this. He admitted kidnapping my client. Aren't you going to deal with it?"

"Yang Hu, you bastard, don't talk nonsense!"

The two could not come to a conclusion even if they kept arguing. Chief Li interrupted them and ordered, "As long as you continue to operate your business peacefully and pay taxes on time, the law will protect you. You two shake hands with each other. "

Liu Bao immediately refused: "We can't write it off! If he really sent someone to cut my finger off, how could I get rid of him? I lost a finger for nothing? "

Chief Li replied, "If he did it, I will personally lead people to bring him back for trial. I will let the law punish him and forbid you all to settle your personal grudges. Like I said, now is the time to fight against the dark and get rid of the evil. Don't bring me any trouble, and don't give me any trouble either. The law will protect you. If the two of you are involved in this, I will definitely catch both of you in one fell swoop! Can you remember my words? "

Yang Hu was a proper person to begin with. After all, he was a member of Zhao Fu and was backed by the Rich International Group. It was just that there were some matters that couldn't be resolved through proper means, which was why Zhao Fu had asked him to accept many of his subordinates, saving them for the crucial moments to solve the problem.

Yang Hu replied: "Don't worry, Director Li. I will definitely keep my guard up."

Liu Bao was indeed a hoodlum from birth, but he had started to wash white after becoming famous ten years ago. Now he was also, on the surface, a serious businessman.

Liu Bao also replied: "I still have to say, as long as my finger has nothing to do with him, I will not get into conflict with him. If I find out that he did it, then he must cut off his own finger to compensate me! "

Commissioner Li's eyes turned cold and said to Liu Bao, "What? Do you think my words are bullshit? Or underestimate a sub-bureau chief like me? I said that there was a law against him, and he forbade you all from settling your grudges on your own. You didn't understand my words? "

Liu Bao was immediately scared to death. He quickly nodded and replied, "Understood. I know what to do now, don't worry, Chief Li. "

Director Li nodded in satisfaction and hung up the video.

Liu Bao immediately asked, "Yang Hu, tell me honestly, did you send someone to do it?"

Yang Hu replied with a smile, "If you think so, then so be it. "I'm tired, let's not talk anymore. I'm hanging up."

Yang Hu hung up the video and immediately called Zhao Qian to report the situation.

"Young Master, just now, the bureau chief gave me and Liu Bao a video chat, asking us not to act recklessly. If in the future it turns out that I sent someone to chop off Liu Bao's finger, he will personally lead people to capture me and have the law punish me.

Zhao Qian acknowledged and replied, "We're just serious businessmen to begin with, so we're not afraid."

"Yes." Does Young Master still have any orders? "If there's nothing else, I want to sleep. I'm just too sleepy."

"It's fine now. You can go to sleep, it's been hard on you these two days. "

"Young Master is joking. It's not hard, I'm just a little sleepy. "Then I'll die."

"Yes."

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Qian started to think about how to teach Yang Ming a lesson. Since this grandson dared to touch Hong Xiu, he must have a good memory.

Yang Ming had already contacted the killers, and even called the deposit. Liu Xi called him to cancel the plan to deal with Yang Hu, as long as the money was given.

Yang Ming immediately wanted to contact the killers to cancel the order, but at this moment, an idea popped up in his mind. Why not ask these killers to do it for Zhao Qian? He could just say that he wouldn't kill them and teach them a lesson. Therefore, he contacted the killer and changed the target's character and task level. He changed from killing to maiming. Then he quickly raised the money to redeem his father.

Although Yang Cheng was unhappy about it, he was happy to be able to get away with it.

Yang Hu quickly made a call to Zhao Qian and reported, "Young Master, Yang Ming gave 10 million to Liu Xi to redeem Yang Cheng. Yang Cheng did not seem to have made any movements.

Zhao Qian laughed heartily and said, "We can't let this matter end like this. We have to help Yang Cheng to call the police." Send the photos taken by your brothers to police station and newspaper, make things bigger, force Yang Cheng and the law to hold Liu Bao accountable. "

"Understood. I'll do it right away. "

Yang Hu sent the photos and videos taken by his paparazzi to the police and reporters. The next morning, the headlines of all the major media outlets in Donghai City reported this news.

"The chairman of Feiyu Group, Yang Cheng, was kidnapped. The kidnappers were extorting ten million, and the kidnappers were probably the owner of Ming Zhu Bar, Liu Bao."

"The owner of Ming Zhu Bar, Liu Bao, is involved in this. He kidnapped Feiyu Group Chairman Yang Cheng and extorted 10 million."

"He disappeared for two days. So he was kidnapped. Why didn't Feiyu Group Chairman Yang Cheng call the police?"

In the face of the overwhelming news coverage, the police could not afford to keep quiet. They summoned Yang Cheng and sent someone to bring Liu Bao back for questioning.

C83 There Is No Way out

With the photos and videos as proof, Yang Cheng had no choice but to admit that he was kidnapped, and even gave 10 million in ransom to the kidnappers.

Yang Ming was also brought back to be interrogated by the police. Seeing that this matter could no longer be covered up, he decided to bite Liu Xi out.

Liu Xi was then brought back for investigation. He denied kidnapping and extortion and claimed that Yang Ming framed him.

The police then asked Yang Ming if there was any evidence to prove Liu Xi's kidnapping and extortion. Yang Ming shook his head and replied, "I didn't think about calling the police at that time, so I didn't leave any evidence. But I did give him ten million, and then my father was thrown out into the country. If it wasn't for his kidnapping and extortion, how could he have received the money and sent my dad back? "

The police felt that this was a presumption of guilt and could not be used as evidence. Plus, he didn't have any evidence to give Liu Xi ten million, so he was just talking to himself.

Liu Bao was scared to the point that he broke out in a cold sweat. Luckily, he did not have any conclusive evidence, otherwise, he would have suffered a huge loss this time.

However, something unexpected happened. The police received an anonymous letter and sent a photo and video of Liu Xi's men abducting Yang Cheng. At the same time, electronic photos and videos were received in the submitting mailboxes of various media outlets.

The evidence was conclusive, and Liu Xi couldn't be shameless even if he wanted to. The police asked him if he had a backer, and they could ask the court for a mitigated sentence as long as he could get it out.

Liu Xi thought about it for an entire night and finally gave up on Liu Bao.

"It was Liu Bao who told me to do that. Yang Ming provoked him, so he told me to kidnap Yang Cheng and teach him a lesson."

"Do you have evidence?"

"Evidence?" What kind of evidence was this? I am a witness! "

"You have to have evidence to prove what you said. The law and the police don't need to do that. Everyone will testify against each other, and since there's no evidence either, then wouldn't this society be in chaos? "

Liu Xi was stunned. He did accept Liu Bao's order to kidnap Yang Cheng, but he didn't have any evidence. Even with a note, or a text, or something, but he had nothing.

Liu Bao's side was in a mess, while Zhao Qian's side was very happy. Yang Hu had already set up a spy beside Liu Bao, and he was well aware of Liu Bao's every move. This time, it was just to teach Liu Bao a lesson and tell him to be a little more obedient.

In the morning two days later, Zhao Qian was looking over the business reports of Tianxiu and Tianxiu when Faang Ni called him.

"Hey, Zhao Qian, do you have time now?"

"That depends on what you want."

"It's like this, the Xingyuan has sent someone to check on the progress of the project. They're extremely unsatisfied and want us to push them all down and do it again. This project didn't make any money when we first took it, and if we push it back to redo it, we will lose a lot of money. Can you please go over to the Xingyuan to talk about it, and modify the foundation we have now so that we don't have to overthrow it and start over again? "

"Oh, that. You should let Zhang Yang and Wang Qiang do this! One of them was the manager and the other was Deputy Manager. They couldn't just take up their positions, but not stand up when the company needed them. I still have some matters to attend to, so let's not talk about it anymore. "When I have time, I will come out for some tea."

Zhao Qian smiled and hung up the phone. This was only the beginning. The good show was yet to come.

Two days later, Faang Ni called Zhao Qian again.

"Hey, Zhao Qian, do you have time to come out for a meal?"

"Director Faang, just say what you have to say. There's no need to be so polite."

"It's like this, in terms of Xingyuan, they said that we did not meet their requirements, so we decided to terminate the contract and asked us to compensate them for the loss of a total of five million yuan. I want to ask you to help us out here. Give us a little more time, and we'll immediately push them down and start over. "

"Oh, so it's like that. Director Faang, I'm really sorry. I've been very busy lately and I can't spare the time. I'll hang up first when I have time to drink some tea. "

Zhao Qian hung up the phone and a few seconds later, Faang Ni called again. It seemed like she had nowhere else to go, so she probably thought of all the ways she could think of. Now, the only way left was to ask Zhao Qian to help.

Zhao Qian hung up the phone. After a while, Faang Ni called again, but he rejected her call.

Faang Ni sighed and hung up the phone. Now, she could only personally go out and plead with Xingyuan. She came to Zhang Yang's office and asked him to accompany her to the Xingyuan.

Zhang Yang was also thinking of a good way, but so far, he couldn't think of any good way. He could only nod his head and prepare to go to Xingyuan to plead with Faang Ni.

At this moment, Wang Hanxu called Zhang Yang. He said anxiously, "Hey, Zhang Yang, has the problem been solved? I trust you so much, don't scam me! "If I screw up on my first project, the headquarters will definitely fire me."

Zhang Yang was extremely guilty, but in order to stabilize Wang Hanxu, he still pretended to be calm and replied, "Don't worry, I'm thinking of a way."

"How can I not be anxious!?" You told me that the company could make tens of millions in at least two years, and even gave me so many reports so I could report back to headquarters to invest in your company. Although the amount is not large, but it is related to my career. "

Zhang Yang was a little annoyed and replied: "Then what do you think we should do? I'm already thinking of something, not that I'm going to sit back and do nothing. With our relationship, can it be that we can't even withstand such a small test? "

Zhang Yang's question made Wang Hanxu speechless. After a moment of silence, he replied with a little guilt, "Anyway, hurry up and finish the question. Otherwise, my career will be ruined. The first one was a big problem, and I can't explain it to headquarters. I promised the headquarter that your company will make at least ten million dollars in the next two years.

"Now that the customer has to cancel the order and all cooperation, it's already good enough that you can maintain the operation. Where can you go to earn 10 million?"

"Alright, I understand. I will settle this matter. You can rest assured."

After Zhang Yang finished speaking, he hung up the phone and quickly brought Faang Ni to Xingyuan Headquarters, wanting to have an interview with Guo Mingda.

Guo Mingda knew that Zhao Qian was driven out by Faang Ni's production because he wanted to vent Zhao Qian's anger. When he heard that Faang Ni wanted to talk to him, he rejected her directly.

Faang Ni and Zhang Yang didn't want to give up, so they waited at the Xingyuan entrance for Guo Mingda to come out from work. The two of them quickly went over and asked Guo Mingda to give them five minutes.

Guo Mingda shook his head and replied, "I'm sorry, but I have a very important guest that I want to meet. I really don't have time for you. Furthermore, we are only following the terms of the contract and do not make things difficult for you. There is actually nothing much to discuss. "

Faang Ni quickly explained, "I know Guo always follows the contract. The staff responsible for this project left not long ago, and I just found out that there was a problem when I took over. Therefore, it's not that we're deliberately neglecting your company's project, nor is it that we're weak. It's just that no one is supervising us and the technicians are recklessly causing this situation. I hope Director Guo will give us a chance to start anew, and not disappoint you. "

Guo Mingda still shook his head and refused: "Sorry, we've already given the order to another company. If you feel you are at a disadvantage, you can sue us in court. Alright, I won't tell you anymore, I really have to go. There will be a special employee to negotiate with you guys for the breach of contract fee. You can just talk to them and stop looking for me. "

With that, Guo Mingda called the security guards over. Faang Ni and Zhang Yang didn't dare to get into a fight and could only watch him get on the car and leave.

Faang Ni burst into tears and said anxiously, "There's really nothing we can do now. We have to get Zhao Qian to come back. Husband, just throw away your so-called face and invite him back. Otherwise, if the company is ruined, then it's a small matter, how are you going to explain it to Wang Hanxu? "

C84 I Still Have to Ask Zhao Qian to Step Forward

Zhang Yang's biggest worry was that he couldn't explain it to Wang Hanxu. He didn't want to lose a friend that had money in his hands. But he felt that Faang Ni, as the boss, couldn't even meet Guo Mingda face to face, so what could Zhao Qian do?

"You think too highly of Zhao Qian, you can't even do it yourself, what right do you have to deal with him? Not... Why do I feel like you really can't bear for him to leave the company? You want to get him back when you get the chance, don't you? "

Faang Ni replied angrily, "What nonsense are you spouting? I just want to get the company out of trouble right now. He's the only hope. "

Zhang Yang let out a helpless wry smile and replied: "You and I came personally, but they didn't even give us a chance to meet. Who the hell is he? Why would they just give him a chance? "

Faang Ni explained, "He has his way. The last time the order failed, he came alone to ask for it. You can't do it, but that doesn't mean he can't. You have to give him a chance. If he can get us a chance, the company can get out of trouble and your friend won't hold you accountable. "

Faang Ni purposely emphasized the word "responsibility" in order to remind Zhang Yang to think clearly about the consequences and not to be impulsive.

As expected, the moment Zhang Yang heard the word "responsibility", he was immediately terrified. However, he still did not believe that Zhao Qian could solve this crisis. He still had to think of another way.

"If you want to call him back, then call him back. I'm against it anyway. I will think of a way, and I will definitely help you solve your problem. "

Faang Ni also didn't want to hurt her husband's self-confidence, so she smiled and replied, "I believe in your ability. I'm only looking for Zhao Qian to think of an additional solution. I've called him, but he won't come back. Why don't we call Wang Qiang, Zhang Yuan, and Jiang Xiaoqing along to meet him. If you say something nice to him, it will definitely coax him back. "Let's solve the problem first. We can talk about other issues later."

Zhang Yang immediately shook his head and rejected: "What qualifications does he have to have me invite him? If you want to go, go, but I'm not going. "

"Aiya, husband, why don't you sacrifice yourself for me? I'm begging you, okay? "

In such a public place, Faang Ni hugged Zhang Yang's neck and acted so coquettishly, making him feel very embarrassed.

"Fine, fine, fine. I'll go with you. Let me go quickly. It's embarrassing to have so many people watching. "

Faang Ni turned her head and looked around, and said coquettishly, "What if someone was looking? We are a legal couple who have received a certificate and are protected by the law. "

"I know that I'm protected by the law, but when these people see me, they still feel a bit embarrassed. This sort of thing had to be done at home. Alright, stop talking, hurry up and go to the company to find them and Zhao Qian. "

Faang Ni nodded and happily pulled Zhang Yang back to the car. When the two of them returned to the company, everyone quickly gathered around to ask about the situation. Would Xingyuan give them the chance?

Faang Ni sighed and replied, "We haven't even met each other's CEO. Right now, his only hope was to ask Zhao Qian to come forward and let him try out the Xingyuan. The last time the order was cancelled, he could get it back if he went. He might even be able to solve the problem after he went over this time. So I want Zhang Yang, Wang Qiang, Zhang Yuan, Jiang Xiaoqing, we go see him together. "You should understand my intention. I hope that for the sake of the company, you can put aside your personal grudges and come with me to invite him back."

The moment Faang Ni said that, Wang Qiang and the rest became unhappy. They didn't want Zhao Qian to come back, and even more so, they didn't want to invite him back.

Wu said, "Director Faang, for the sake of the company, I am willing to give up personal grudges. The key thing is that you and Mr Zhang did not even get any results after going to Xingyuan, so what's the use of marrying him? He has more face than you and Mr Zhang? "

Wang Qiang also agreed, "Director Faang thinks too highly of him. Rather than counting on him, why don't we think of another way now?"

However, Jiang Xiaoqing did not behave normally and actually supported the idea of bringing Zhao Qian back.

"I think what Director Faang said makes sense. Zhao Qian being able to find the lost order means that he has some way to convince the person in charge that we don't know. Maybe this time, too, we won't be able to do it, and he can do it his way. "Since I don't have a better way, I might as well try it. It's not like I'll lose anything."

Once Jiang Xiaoqing said this, everyone looked at her. Everyone thought she would object, but she did the opposite.

Wang Qiang looked unhappy and asked coldly, "You want to get back together with him, right? Stop dreaming, he can't possibly be compatible with you. "

Jiang Xiaoqing immediately replied, "I'm doing it in the interests of the company. I don't treat people right." If the company fails, we will all lose our jobs. I suppose everyone has to pay off the mortgage, the car loan? Once they lost their jobs, everyone's lives would be greatly affected. It's better than not trying at all, isn't it? "

Actually, she wanted Zhao Qian to come back so that she could have a chance to take revenge. If she could never see Zhao Qian again, who would she take revenge against?

Everyone immediately expressed their support for Jiang Xiaoqing's view, trying it without losing anything. If Zhao Qian could handle it, everyone would be happy. If he can't do it, there's no loss for the company, so think of another way.

Seeing that everyone was so supportive of Zhao Qian's return, Zhang Yang became more and more uneasy. He is now in the position of manager in the name of his boss's husband, and has not proved his ability. If he were to ask Zhao Qian instead of him now that he had encountered a difficult problem, everyone would doubt his ability even more.

Zhang Yang thought for a while, then said to everyone, "Why don't we give up on this customer and compensate them? I don't believe that Wu steel can take care of a company as large as Xingyuan, and I don't know why you guys have so much confidence in him. "

Everyone immediately explained to Zhang Yang how Zhao Qian followed Xingyuan to return the lost orders and how he received several large orders. If Xingyuan could steadily place orders on them, the company wouldn't have to worry about its profits for the next few years. If the company lost its Xingyuan, it would be in trouble. They don't want to live half the salary they get in a month.

After everyone finished speaking, they all looked at Faang Ni, asking her to express her feelings. After all, she was the boss and everyone should listen to her orders.

The moment he said that, Zhang Yang's situation became awkward. Apparently, no one wanted him to get involved and let Faang Ni take charge of the situation.

Faang Ni said without hesitation, "Jiang Xiaoqing can put aside her personal grudges. Why can't you? "In a word, either come with me and ask for money, or go straight to Finance and get your salary and get lost!"

Zhang Yang felt a burning pain on his face. Faang Ni did not care about his face at all. It was such a slap on his face.

Wang Qiang and Zhang Yuan had no choice but to nod in agreement.

Faang Ni nodded and sent a WeChat message to Zhao Qian. She called him after a while.

"Hello, Zhao Qian. I will bring Zhang Yang, Wang Qiang, Zhang Yuan, and Jiang Xiaoqing to find you. "Just meet us once."

Zhao Qian pretended to be very surprised and asked, "Why did Director Faang bring them to find me? Has the company's problem been resolved? "

"Sigh ..." No! "So I want to take them to accept the punishment. I hope that you can get back to the company and help the company get through this crisis."

"No ..." He was just a customer, at most he wouldn't do it. "Why does Director Faang care so much?"

"Sigh ..." To be honest, Zhang Yang pulled in Wang Hanxu's investment. If the company couldn't guarantee that it would make tens of millions of dollars in the next two years, Wang Hanxu couldn't explain to U.S. headquarters that his career would be ruined. I hope that you can make a move. "

Zhao Qian wasn't interested in charity and wouldn't help Faang Ni's production out of trouble for nothing. If he wanted to return, then he would have to show his sincerity.

C85 Up to 10

Zhao Qian didn't want to continue chatting with Faang Ni, so he directly stated his condition.

"I'm not interested in saving a company that has nothing to do with me unless I own a stake in the company. If you want me to make a move, it will depend on whether Director Faang's sincerity is good enough. "

Faang Ni knew that Zhao Qian was brooding over the matter of the shares. If she didn't let him resolve this issue, he definitely wouldn't be willing to help.

But now, there was a problem. When Zhang Yang and Wang Hanxu signed the cooperation agreement, one of the terms was that without Wang Hanxu's consent, the company could not absorb any other funds to buy shares. In other words, Mr Liu has a veto on shareholder composition.

Although she didn't know what grudge there was between Wang Hanxu and Zhao Qian, but Faang Ni knew that there was definitely friction between them. How could Wang Hanxu agree to let Wu Steel acquire a stake?

Faang Ni explained the situation to Zhao Qian and then explained, "As long as you don't want a share, you can raise any other conditions. There's nothing I can do about equity issues. I hope you understand. "

Zhao Qian didn't care about that. He immediately replied, "Then I'm powerless. Don't look for me. I won't help you."

Faang Ni was in a dilemma. She could only ask Wang Hanxu for his opinion before giving a reply to Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian nodded and immediately hung up.

Everyone quickly asked Faang Ni how she was and what Zhao Qian said, and if he was willing to help.

Faang Ni sighed and replied, "He has his conditions, so I have to consider them carefully. All of you should work hard. I'll go back and think about it."

After saying that, Faang Ni gave Zhang Yang a glance and brought him back to the office.

Seeing Faang Ni's serious face, Zhang Yang asked, "Zhao Qian is not willing to help?"

"Sigh ..." It wasn't that he didn't want to, it was that he had conditions. He wanted the shares in the company. However, since Wang Hanxu has a veto, he definitely won't agree to give him a share."

Zhang Yang flew into a rage as he scolded, "This grandson is too dishonest. No matter what, he worked here before, and he actually took advantage of the fire to rob us!"

Faang Ni shook her head and defended Zhao Qian, saying, "I feel that his request is understandable. If it was me, I would definitely want the shares too. After all, we shouldn't have done that to him. If the company were in trouble, he, as a shareholder, would certainly not sit back and do nothing. Why don't you contact Wang Hanxu and explain the situation. Rather than seeing the company in trouble, why don't you give a share in the company to Zhao Qian. As long as he can solve the problem, everything is worth it."

Zhang Yang immediately shook his head and refused. He firmly refused to give Zhao Qian a stake in the company. Faang Ni was getting more and more dissatisfied with him. She had expected him to learn to use it to help the company grow. However, after he joined the company, not only did his actions not help the company, they had even put the company in a difficult situation once again.

However, now was not the time to talk about this issue. The most important thing was to solve this problem as soon as possible.

"Oh, husband, we have to think about the future. Think about it, we have a company that can make money, do you think you don't have to worry about eating and drinking for the rest of your life? If the company goes yellow, we go to work for someone else, can we be as free as we are now? Do you want to be controlled by someone else? "

Zhang Yang is a high-flying, overconfident guy. He certainly didn't want to be manipulated. Therefore, he nodded and replied, "Then I'll give Wang Hanxu a call and ask him for his opinion first."

"Yes."

Faang Ni's face was full of smiles and her eyes were filled with love.

Zhang Yang called Wang Hanxu, told him about Zhao Qian's request, and asked if he could give out some of the shares.

Wang Hanxu immediately refused: "Of course not. "If he really wants to get a stake in the company, that's fine. But if he gives us 10 million yuan, we can give him 10% of the shares."

Zhang Yang sighed and replied, "If he's willing to do this, then it's easy. He wants to return that 51% share."

"That's impossible! I invested 10 million into it and I only got 30% of the stock. He wants to get back 51% of the shares, I definitely don't agree with that. "

"But for the time being, he's the only one who's got any hope of getting his hands on the client. If the customer is gone and the company is out of profit, when will you get your ten million back? What will you do when you report your results to headquarters at the end of the year? "

Wang Hanxu gritted his teeth in anger and complained, "Isn't this all your fault?! I thought you wouldn't cheat me out of your relationship with you, but you just had to trick me. "

"What are you saying!?" How did I scam you? I showed you the report at the time. The company is doing very well indeed. The amount of money you invest can be recovered in at most three years. But who would have thought that the Xingyuan would suddenly find trouble with us, we can't do anything either. "

Wang Hanxu snorted and replied, "I don't care about that. My attitude is very firm. I definitely won't allow him to acquire that much stock. At most, he would be given 10%. An extra point wouldn't do. "I don't understand. You and Faang Ni can't even go, what's the use of him going?"

"Sigh ..." They said that when Xingyuan cancelled the order, Zhao Qian went over and asked for the order back. It was possible that he had some special relationship or ability that allowed him to get rid of the person in charge of Xingyuan. In any case, there's no loss in letting him try. If he can settle the deal, then we can give him a stake. If he can do it, we can't give him anything. "

Wang Hanxu hesitated for a while, then sighed and replied, "Alright then, you tell him that you can only give him a 10% share in the company, that won't do. If you really can't do it, then don't bother with this customer. Hurry up and develop other customers. You can call the whole company and meet him. If he lost face, he would definitely accept it. If you go there yourself, he'll be sure to put on airs and disapprove. "

Zhang Yang felt that this made a lot of sense. If everyone went together, Zhao Qian should consider everyone's face, right?

"Alright, I understand. "I'll hang up first. I'll call you if there's any news."

Zhang Yang then hung up the phone and quickly said to Faang Ni, "Wang Hanxu said he can only give 10% of the shares to Zhao Qian at most, not even a little bit more. He also suggested that everyone in the company should come and look for him. He would be embarrassed to come back out of respect for everyone. I think this suggestion is pretty good, so we can try it. "

Faang Ni nodded and immediately went out to call everyone over to Conference Room. He gave everyone a meeting, telling them to sincerely invite Zhao Qian back. Whether the company could get back on track, the only hope lay with Zhao Qian.

The staff did not have any objections, after all, it was related to their own personal interests, so no one would object.

Faang Ni asked Jiang Xiaoqing, "Jiang Xiaoqing, do you know where Zhao Qian lives?"

Jiang Xiaoqing shook her head and replied, "I don't know. He had already retired from the house we had rented. If it really isn't possible, then think of a way to trick him out of it. "

Faang Ni sighed helplessly, walked out and called Zhao Qian.

"Hey, Zhao Qian, come out when you have time. The money is in place and you can have your ten million. However, we must sign an agreement that you are not to claim any equity interest in the future. "

"Sure." We'll meet at Starbucks in People's Square in half an hour. "

"Alright. "I'll see you later."

After Faang Ni hung up the phone, she quickly told everyone to get ready and set off for Starbucks.

The staff quickly stopped what they were doing and took a bus or taxi to Starbucks. Even the cleaning lady went with them.

Half an hour later, Zhao Qian arrived at Starbucks. Faang Ni, who had been waiting for a long time, immediately called Zhang Yang and told him to bring everyone here.

Five minutes later, Zhang Yang and his employees arrived. Everyone quickly surrounded Zhao Qian.

C86 If You Meet the Requirements Get out

Zhao Qian looked at everyone with a face full of displeasure. He turned to Faang Ni and said, "You want to use this method to threaten me to go back? Don't you think it's a bit ridiculous? "

Faang Ni quickly explained, "Don't misunderstand, I did not mean to threaten you. It's just that everyone believes you have the ability to save the company, so they came to ask you to go back. "

As soon as Faang Ni finished her sentence, everyone went up to Zhao Qian to persuade him to go back to the company.

"Zhao Qian, only you can save the company right now. Only you can let us be safe. For the sake of our colleagues, you can go back. "

"Look, everyone is here. Even the cleaning lady is here. It's enough to see how sincere we are. "

"We are not the only ones who are sincere. Wang Deputy Manager and Jiang Xiaoqing are also very sincere. Especially Jiang Xiaoqing. She offered to let everyone come and meet you. It was only after you left that everyone realized how important you were. "

At this moment, Jiang Xiaoqing walked over. She said to Zhao Qian with a serious face, "Come back, if you're not here, Wang Qiang and I will have no interest in spending our days together. "Without us, I think you would have had no taste for each day."

Zhao Qian laughed and replied, "You think too much, I don't really care about you two. Everyone can go back. I don't want to go to work right now. Let's talk about it when I want to go to work. "

There were more and more people watching. Those who didn't know what kind of celebrity was doing it.

At this time, Zhang Yang took a step forward, said to Zhao Qian: "As long as you come back, and successfully solve the company's problems, you and I will be on equal footing in the future. I've already won the shares you want, Wang Hanxu can only give you 10% at most. I'll give you the shares for free, and I'll still give you the ten million I promised. "The premise is that you have to make sure to solve the company's problems and make the company at least 30 million yuan over the next three years."

Zhao Qian sneered at Zhang Yang and asked, "If I can guarantee to earn 30 million in three years, why can't I do it myself? "Do I find the money too much to burn?"

Faang Ni quickly pulled Zhang Yang to her side, smiled and said to Zhao Qian, "Don't listen to him, as long as you can help the company through this crisis. What three years and thirty million yuan, that's all nonsense, who can guarantee the future. "

In fact, Faang Ni knew clearly that as long as Zhao Qian came back, he would definitely help the company develop. There was no need for him to make a promise on the surface.

The female staff even grabbed Zhao Qian's arm to act coquettish.

"Zhao Qian, just come back. We need you."

"I feel a lot less fun without you at the company. I even wanted you to invite us to the Donghai Hotel for dinner. Heehee ... The food there is so delicious. "

"Just come back, do you have the heart to make us sad?"

Zhao Qian needs a job to cover up his identity, while passing his free time. He definitely had to go back, but he definitely couldn't just go back like this.

"I understand everyone's feelings, I can also go back. "However, I have a condition that Director Faang must fulfill."

Faang Ni quickly replied, "What conditions? Tell me."

"Let's talk over there."

Zhao Qian and Faang Ni went to a place with no one else around. He immediately asked, "How much money did Wang Hanxu invest? How much stock did you give him?"

"Twenty million and 30% of the shares."

"Is he that stupid? If you invest so much money, you will only need 30% of the shares? "

"Sigh ..." In order to get him to invest, Zhang Yang assured him that the company's profit would not be lower than 30 million within three years. In this way, he would be able to recoup half of his investment after three years. That's why he invested so much money, just 30% of the shares. "

Zhao Qian nodded and continued, "My condition is that my share of the shares is not lower than Wang Hanxu's. He has 30%. I have at least 31%. If you are satisfied, I will immediately go to Xingyuan and promise to help you solve your problem. If you can't do it, then bring them back. "

Faang Ni was stunned. The offer from Zhao Qian was a bit too much for her. Wang Hanxu had invested a lot of money, so he wasn't willing to lower his share price. The only way was to cede 31% of the shares to Zhao Qian from Faang Ni's own hands. But as a result, she had only 39% of the shares in her own hands and had lost absolute control of the company.

"You ... "Let me think about it ..."

Faang Ni seemed to have lost her soul as she stared blankly at the ground before slowly sitting down on the stairs.

Zhang Yang saw that something was wrong with Faang Ni's condition, so he rushed over. He asked nervously, "Ninny, what's wrong with you? "Are you not feeling well?"

Faang Ni shook her head and replied softly, "I'm fine ..."

Zhao Qian knew that Faang Ni couldn't be on her own right now, so he decided to let Zhang Yang know as well and let the couple discuss the matter. Thus, he told Zhang Yang about asking for a share and asked him to discuss it with Faang Ni.

Zhang Yang immediately replied: "No need to talk about that, it's impossible! "Just give up on that thought of yours."

Zhao Qian nodded and turned to leave. Faang Ni quickly pulled him back and pleaded, "Don't go, don't go! Don't listen to him, I'm in charge of the company. I'll give it! However, I have conditions. You can't ask me for that ten million anymore, you have to give me another ten million. Otherwise, I can't explain it to Wang Hanxu. After all, he spent 20 million gold and silver just to get 30% of the shares.

"Is Director Faang joking with me? You asked me to solve the problem for the company, and at the same time you asked me for so much money. I have so much money, why should I give it to you? If I could get an order from Xingyuan, why would I give it to you?"

Faang Ni hesitated for a moment before gritting her teeth and asking, "Then, how much should I give you?"

"If you don't give me money, I won't give you money and then give me a 31% share. Do you understand what I mean? "

"Ah?" You only thought of ten million! "

"That's right. "Originally, I had 51% of the shares in that money. But now, as long as you have 31% of the shares, you would already be able to earn a lot!"

Faang Ni nodded and replied, "Then it's settled! You can go to Xingyuan right now. Once things are done, I will immediately bring you to handle the transfer of ownership. "

"Director Faang's reputation is worthless to me. I won't give you a second chance to betray me. Let's sign an agreement first. "

Zhang Yang grabbed Faang Ni's hand and was about to leave. But Faang Ni broke away and told him to leave the matter to her.

Zhang Yang was furious and shouted: "You believe him that much? Is he your husband, or am I your husband? You don't believe my words, but you do! What do you mean? "

There were even more people watching. They thought it was a dispute over relationships, so they all stopped to watch the show.

Zhao Qian couldn't afford to lose to such a person. He said to Faang Ni, "Let's talk after Director Faang and Mr Zhang have an agreement."

After Zhao Qian said that, he wanted to leave. Faang Ni quickly pulled him back and said, "I agree to your conditions. We will go back to the company to sign the contract now."

Zhao Qian nodded and got on the car to go back to the company with Faang Ni.

Half an hour later, Zhao Qian walked out of Faang Ni's office with an agreement in his hand. His colleagues rushed forward to welcome him back, hoping that he would bring the company to new heights in the future.

Zhang Yang saw this and was angry in his heart. Originally, he should have been the one that was sought after by everyone. But now, it had become Zhao Qian.

Wang Qiang also refused to accept it in his heart, so he urged Zhang Yang, "Mr Zhang, we can't just sit back and let him do nothing. Isn't he going to go to the Xingyuan soon? If he is unable to obtain the Xingyuan, then he will bear all of the company's losses. This way, no matter what the outcome is, the company will definitely not suffer a loss. "

Zhang Yang felt that Wang Qiang's words made quite a lot of sense, but he couldn't say that to Zhao Qian. Thus, he quietly replied to Wang Qiang and said, "It's not convenient for me to say that right now. Go ahead and say it. Don't worry, I'll definitely remember your good points. In the future, I will completely take over the company and definitely not treat you unfairly. After all, I'm Faang Ni's husband. You should know which one is closer to her. "

Wang Qiang nodded and immediately walked towards Zhao Qian.

C87 A Single Phone Call Can Solve the Problem

Wang Qiang walked towards Zhao Qian, and as he walked, he asked: "Zhao Qian, you've obtained everything you want, can you go to Xingyuan now?"

Zhao Qian smiled and shook his head. Wang Qiang immediately asked him what he meant by that.

Zhao Qian shook his head again and replied: "I don't need to go to Xingyuan. I just need to call their CEO and we can have a chat."

Wang Qiang immediately laughed, while his colleagues looked confused. Although they did not have much hope, they still hoped that Zhao Qian could give it a try. But now, if he didn't even go, then what was the point in having him back in such a big scene?

"No ..." Zhao Qian, you're going too far. We have already placed our hopes on you, you can't be so shameless! "

"That's right. I just bought a house, so I can't have any problems at work. If the company is unable to continue, then what is the point in paying back the mortgage? "

"As long as you can solve this problem, I will invite you to my house as a guest. I'm the only one in my house. "

Zhao Qian was speechless. He didn't know if these female colleagues were sincere or just faking it, but they actually chose to use a beauty trap.

At this moment, Faang Ni and Zhang Yang walked out.

Faang Ni asked, "What's going on? What are you talking about? "

Wang Qiang quickly complained, "Director Faang, Zhao Qian is being shameless. He doesn't need to go to the Xingyuan to help the company solve the problem."

Before Faang Ni could say anything, Zhang Yang shouted angrily.

"Zhao Qian, what do you mean? If you get what you want, you won't admit it, right? Look, what did I say? We can't even meet the head of staff, how can he be so sure? I said he couldn't, and you said he could. Right now, he doesn't even dare to go, so what can he do? "

Faang Ni did not believe that Zhao Qian was this kind of person. She told everyone not to argue and then asked Zhao Qian: "Zhao Qian, what's your plan? I definitely believe that you won't go back on your words. The key point is that you have to give us a peace of mind and let us know your plan. "

Zhao Qian sat in his original position, leaned back on the chair, and replied with a satisfied look: "It's not that I'm not prepared to go to Xingyuan, it's just to solve the problem. I just need to make a phone call. "

The moment he said this, the entire hall was shocked. Faang Ni and Zhang Yang went over personally. They didn't even give them the chance to meet. Wu said he needed only a phone call to solve the problem. Was he being too arrogant? Or was he looking down on Faang Ni and Zhang Yang's incompetence?

Zhang Yang's eyes turned cold. He sneered and asked with a gloomy tone, "Zhao Qian, are you trying to humiliate me and Faang Ni? You think your face is big enough for a phone call to solve the problem, and Faang Ni and I don't even see each other. Is that what you mean? "

"If Mr Zhang thinks so, then I have nothing to say. But I do need only a phone call to solve the problem. You think that this is a form of humiliation, but you and I can't do anything about it. "

Zhang Yuan could not bear to watch any longer, so he provoked, "Zhao Qian, you are too arrogant. You are underestimating Director Faang and Mr Zhang. A single phone call would solve the problem. Okay, then you can make this phone call in front of everyone. We'd like to know what you're talking about and how you can solve the problem with a single phone call. "

Everyone agreed with Zhang Yuan's words. They all asked Zhao Qian to make a phone call in front of everyone. They really wanted to know what pleasant words Wu Tie could say to solve this problem.

Zhao Qian wiped the table with his finger and found that there was dust on it. So he said to Zhang Yuan, "If a phone call from me solves the problem, clean up the table and chairs for me. "How about it?"

Zhang Yuan did not believe Zhao Qian's nonsense. Who the hell was he? Why was his phone number bigger than Faang Ni's and Zhang Yang's?

"Alright!" If you can solve the problem with a single phone call, I can clean the tables and chairs for you. If you can't solve the problem, what can you do? "

Zhao Qian took out his phone, dialed, and replied, "Whatever you want!"

After saying that, Zhao Qian called Guo Mingda right in front of everyone. He even purposely pressed the speaker button to let everyone hear.

"Hello, Boss Guo, are you busy? Can you say a few words? "

Zhao Qian's opening remark was completely ordinary. It could even be said to be very amateur and didn't seem like the words that a salesperson should say.

Zhang Yang and the rest had looks of disdain on their faces. Judging from the result from the first sentence, it was impossible for Zhao Qian to solve the problem.

Guo Mingda's voice immediately came through the phone and said, "Little Zhao. You must be doing this for the matter of Faang Ni's Production Company, right? Weren't you no longer there? Why are you still concerned about this? "

"This is where I used to work, after all. I have some feelings for you. Boss Guo, how generous, please give us another chance. "

"Did you go back to work?" I only have confidence in you. If you leave, I'll withdraw the order. When you return, I'll give you two another chance. "

"I'm back. Everyone in the company is waiting for my news, I hope Director Guo can help out a bit. "

"Oh, okay. When I get back, I'll send someone to talk to you about the modification. As long as you don't make any more mistakes in the future, I'm still willing to cooperate with you guys on this Xingyuan. "

"Thank you so much, Boss Guo. When I have time, I'll definitely eat with you."

"Haha ..." You do the project well, better than anything. There was no need for food. I have something to do here, so I won't tell you about it. Someone will contact you later, so be sure to pick up the phone. "

"Ok, Director Guo. I won't hold you up. "Goodbye."

Zhao Qian hung up the phone and stood up. He patted Zhang Yuan's shoulder and said, "I'll give you ten minutes. You must be clean."

No one could react in time. It was solved just like that?

Zhang Yang gaped in surprise. After a while, he turned his head to look at Zhao Qian and asked incredulously, "It's settled like this?"

Zhao Qian nodded and replied: "What else? What do you think we should do?"

"That Guo Mingda didn't even meet with Faang Ni and me, and all you did was call him and say some nonsensical things, and he's willing to give us a chance?"

"What is it? Mr Zhang doesn't believe his ears?"

Zhang Yang was speechless.

At this time, Wang Qiang spoke, "You're not just looking for someone to take care of you, are you? Was the person who called you just now really Xingyuan's CEO Guo?"

Zhao Qian replied in a bad mood: "If it wasn't for him, and if Xingyuan didn't come, wouldn't I have exposed myself? Can you think of anything before you start talking?"

Wang Qiang was a bit embarrassed, but he still replied, "Anyway, I don't believe that he will continue to cooperate with us just based on that conversation you had with him."

"It seems like Wang Deputy Manager also wants to make a bet with me? How about this, let's make a bet. If the person from Xingyuan recovers their cooperation, in the next week, you will be in charge of cleaning the office. If you don't have anyone from the Xingyuan to resume cooperation, just say whatever you want, I will definitely satisfy you."

Everyone was watching the show and encouraged Wang Qiang to accept the bet.

Wang Qiang couldn't back down, so he could only nod and say: "Alright! Since everyone is so supportive, I'll accept this bet. If you lose, I won't make things difficult for you, so just invite everyone to the Donghai Hotel for a meal. "

"Wang Deputy Manager, good job. You still haven't forgotten about us at this time."

"Hee hee ..." Wang Deputy Manager is indeed a good leader who sympathizes with his subordinates. "

"Zhao Qian, are you alright here?"

Zhao Qian laughed and replied: "What problems can I have?" It's decided. Everyone, just wait. "

Actually, no one believed that the phone call from Zhao Qian could solve the problem, only Wang Qiang could say it out loud. They all had their own plans. If Zhao Qian succeeded, then anything would be fine. If he was lying to everyone, this time, he would definitely not let him off easy.

C88 The Feeling of Impending Doom

Faang Ni didn't say anything. She waited until everyone was done, then called Zhao Qian into the office.

"Zhao Qian, you... Are you kidding? That phone call just now was enough to settle everything? "

"Director Faang doesn't believe it either? Then, does Director Faang want to make a bet? "

"Hehe ..." "I won't bet on that. I was just casually asking about it."

Director Faang asked casually. She obviously doesn't believe me. Let's make a bet. If I win, kiss me. If I lose, just say what you want. "

Faang Ni immediately gave Zhao Qian a supercilious look and replied, "I'm already married, stop joking. If my husband had heard, he would have misunderstood. "

Zhao Qian leaned back in his chair with a big smile on his face and said, "Director Faang is so boring. Wang Qiang and the others dared to bet with me, but you didn't."

Faang Ni lowered her head in embarrassment. A few seconds later, she suddenly raised her head, tiptoed and kissed Zhao Qian.

Zhao Qian only wanted to tease her, he didn't really want to kiss her. No matter what, she was someone with a husband. Zhao Qian wasn't interested in women, he was only interested in girls.

"Director Faang, you're serious! I was just joking with you. I didn't expect you to be so serious.

"Aiya, you ..." "You bastard!"

Faang Ni was so shy that her cheeks turned red. At this time, Zhang Yang entered without knocking. He was worried that Zhao Qian and Faang Ni would do something unfair to him in the office, so he couldn't help but barge in.

When Faang Ni saw her husband had arrived, she suddenly panicked and knocked away the cup on the table. Such an abnormal action instantly made Zhang Yang suspicious. Looking at her blushing cheeks, Zhang Yang felt even more that she and Zhao Qian were doing something that let him down.

Zhang Yang asked coldly, "What are you two doing?"

Zhao Qian didn't say anything, but Faang Ni hurriedly explained, "Nothing much, just discussing the future development of the company."

"Hehe ..." Is that so? Then why didn't you call me over to discuss it? It seems like as a manager, I'm just a nobody. I don't have any authority, do I? "

"Hubby, don't misunderstand. Zhao Qian and I have discussed it, we will definitely tell you. "

"Oh, so I don't even have the right to raise an opinion. I can only passively accept orders, right?"

Zhao Qian was not interested in listening to the couple's argument, so he got up to leave. However, Zhang Yang immediately grabbed him and asked angrily, "Tell me honestly, what are you doing with Faang Ni?"

"What is it? Mr Zhang thinks that Director Faang and I must do something to let you down, right? Then if you think so, from now on I will really dig a hole in your wall? I'll give you a green hat every day from now on. Are you satisfied? "

"You f * cking dare!"

Zhang Yang was furious, he raised his fist and was about to attack. Faang Ni rushed forward to stop him, pushing him aside with all her might.

"Zhang Yang, what are you trying to do? There is really no unclear relationship between him and me. How many times do you want me to explain before I believe you? Before, you were a considerate boy. Why do you like to make trouble now? "

Zhang Yang had a wry smile on his face, and said: "I made trouble for nothing? Haha ... I make trouble for no reason! Your face is already so red, and you're still telling me I caused trouble? "

"So what if I blush? That proves what I did to him? "

"You know it well!"

"I'm not sure!"

Zhao Qian quickly interrupted their argument and said, "I don't care if you two are going to fight, but don't pull me down. "I'm not interested in listening to your argument. Bye bye."

Zhang Yang wanted to catch up to Zhao Qian and ask him more, but Faang Ni ran up to him and hugged him.

"What do you want? This is the company. You want to make the employees laugh at us, right? You have proof, you can say whatever you want. Just tell him I have something to do with him. Is this what you meant by loving me? Is this what you meant by waiting for me for ten years? "

"You touched your conscience and said, what did you and him do?"

The man's intuition was quite accurate. Zhang Yang was certain that Faang Ni and Zhao Qian had done something to let him down. Otherwise, she definitely wouldn't have blushed.

Faang Ni wanted to thank Zhao Qian with a kiss, but she didn't think much of it. However, looking at Zhang Yang's current state, confessing to him was no different from courting death. He would definitely cause a ruckus.

"What can I do with him? I have told you that there will be some disagreement in discussing the future development of the company. We were just having an argument, how could we do anything! So in your heart, I'm just a water flower? "

Zhang Yang was speechless, but he still firmly believed that Zhao Qian and Faang Ni had done something to let him down. Even if there had been no substantive relationship, there would definitely have been an act of hugging and rubbing.

Zhang Yang didn't know what to say, so he could only turn around and return to his office. He thought to himself that if he did not send someone from the Xingyuan to resume their cooperation, he definitely would not let Zhao Qian off easy.

Faang Ni sighed helplessly, feeling a little regretful that she married Zhang Yang.

Zhao Qian returned to his seat while Zhang Yuan wiped the table for him.

"Zhang Yuan, thank you."

Looking at Zhao Qian's smiling face, Zhang Yuan was so angry that he rolled his eyes. Then he kept wiping his face with his head, not saying anything.

Soon, Zhang Yuan wiped the table and was about to leave with the basin. Zhao Qian hurriedly called out to him, "Don't go! The chair hadn't been wiped yet. For a clean basin of water, wring out the towel. "

Zhang Yuan stared at Zhao Qian for a few seconds. Then, he went to the bathroom to change the water and wiped the chair according to Zhao Qian's request.

"Young Master Zhao, can I go now?"

"No way!"

"What else do you want?"

"Look at the water stains on the floor, go and get a mop to clean it up."

Zhang Yuan was so angry that his nostrils flared. He went to grab a mop and pulled it clean.

"Young Master Zhao, do you still have any orders?"

"It's gone. You can bet with me next time you don't like me. "

"Hehe ..." Don't be happy too early. If no one from Xingyuan comes to resume cooperation, I will definitely work with everyone to drive you out! "

"Hehe ..." Then you will be disappointed. You can go back to work. "

"Ha!" "Let's wait and see!"

Zhang Yuan walked away with the mop unwillingly. Zhao Qian sat down with a smile and was not worried about Xingyuan at all.

Time passed very quickly. Everyone was waiting for someone from the Xingyuan to arrive, but even though they were about to get off work, they still did not see anyone.

Zhang Yang was in a hurry to punish Zhao Qian, so he walked over to his desk and asked: "Zhao Qian, didn't you say that Xingyuan will send people over to resume cooperation? It's almost time to get off work. Why aren't there any visitors? "

Seeing Zhang Yang make a move on Zhao Qian, Zhang Yuan couldn't hold back anymore. He quickly walked over and threatened Liu Tie, "Zhao Qian, if you're lying to everyone, you won't get anything good."

Zhao Qian's expression remained unchanged as he replied with a face full of smiles, "You two are too impatient and can't hold it in anymore?" What about Wang Qiang? He should be coming over to make trouble for me, right? "

Just as Zhao Qian finished his sentence, Wang Qiang walked out of the office. Seeing that Zhang Yang and the others were surrounding Zhao Qian, he felt that the opportunity had come.

"Zhao Qian, what happened to you?" Are you sure you want to play with me? It's almost time to get off work. Where are the people from Xingyuan? You said that you have too much guts, to actually dare to play around with all of us.

Zhao Qian laughed and replied: "I already said that you definitely won't fall behind. Didn't you say it was almost time to get off work? If they send someone here before they get off work, I won't be lying to you. "

Zhang Yuan pointed at his watch, and said: "There are only five minutes before work. Do you think Xingyuan people would be so bored that they would specially push their time to come over?"

"That's hard to say. People in large companies are always good at this. "Only by appearing in the finale will you seem more important."

Wang Qiang sneered and said: "You're still being stubborn!" Okay, we'll wait for the last five minutes. If no one comes, then just wait and spend a few million to invite everyone to eat at Donghai Hotel! "

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "No problem! I like the feeling of killing the most. Wang Deputy Manager will wait to clean up everyone for a month. "

C89 Equal to Me

Just as Zhao Qian was confronting Zhang Yang and the others, three people in Xingyuan and work clothes walked in.

"Excuse me, who is Mr. Zhao Qian?"

Everyone quickly turned their heads to look, and upon seeing the two words "Xingyuan" embroidered on the chests of those three people, everyone became serious.

Zhao Qian smiled and raised his hand: "I am Zhao Qian."

The three quickly walked over and greeted Zhao Qian with a smile, showing their intentions.

"Hello, Mr Zhao. We are from Xingyuan. We are here to re-establish our cooperative relationship with your company. Director Guo had said that they had to sign a new contract this time, strictly restricting their actions. Is Mr Zhao free right now? Let's discuss the contract. "

Zhao Qian nodded and replied, "No problem. Mr Zhang, I will bring these three gentlemen to Conference Room, go call Director Faang over. "

After he finished speaking, Zhao Qian called for the three employees of Xingyuan to head over to the Conference Room.

Zhang Yang was very unhappy. He was the manager and Faang Ni's husband. Why would Zhao Qian order him around? However, this was not the time to be fooling around. First, he had to solve the company's problem. He quickly went to find Faang Ni and went to the Conference Room together with her.

"Wah!" Zhao Qian was amazing! "He really solved the problem with just one phone call!"

"Why do I think he didn't say anything special on the phone, but they just wanted to give us a chance? Director Faang and Mr Zhang went over personally, and they didn't even meet face to face. Isn't the difference too great? "

"Could they have made a mistake and thought that Zhao Qian is our boss, while Director Faang and Mr Zhang are just salespeople?"

Everyone began to enthusiastically discuss while wearing smiles on their faces. Since someone from Xingyuan had arrived, that meant that the company's crisis had been resolved. As for the bet between Wang Qiang and the rest of them and Zhao Qian, they'll just treat it as watching a good show.

Wang Qiang was completely shocked. He thought to himself: "He really solved the problem with just a phone call. Why on earth is he doing this?" He didn't say anything nice, so why is it so useful? "

Zhang Yuan was also stunned. He was still waiting to join forces against Zhao Qian. They didn't even have enough time to thank Zhao Qian.

Jiang Xiaoqing was also confused. Could the owner of Xingyuan be a fool? If Zhao Qian was a beauty, he could understand why he agreed so easily. How could a man accept a few words that were neither painful nor itchy?

Zhang Yuan walked to Wang Qiang's side and whispered, "Wang Deputy Manager, do you think those few people could be the children that Zhao Qian hired?"

Wang Qiang rolled his eyes and replied, "Are you stupid? The contract has to be signed and sealed. Does Zhao Qian, in order to act tough, dare to forge an official seal? "

"That may not be the case. He is someone who likes to act cool. In order to act cool, he could ask millions to treat everyone to a meal. What's the big deal about forging the official seal? Instead of losing the bet, they spent several million to invite everyone to dinner. I might as well forge an official seal. Worse comes to worse, I might just have to compensate him with hundreds of thousands of yuan.

Wang Qiang really did not want to talk to this pig of a teammate anymore. No wonder Zhang Yuan could not compare to Zhao Qian. How could he expect Zhang Yuan to be better than Zhao Qian when he had such idiotic thoughts?

Wang Qiang turned around and returned to his office. A few seconds later, Jiang Xiaoqing came to find him. He glanced at her and asked, "What are you doing here?"

The two of them were very tense right now. Wang Qiang couldn't accept what happened at Jiang Xiaoqing's house that night, but Jiang Xiaoqing insisted on pestering him. The two of them weren't able to differentiate between the two, neither was it possible for them to be neither.

Jiang Xiaoqing immediately replied, "I have a question to discuss with you."

"What problem?"

"Don't you feel that Zhao Qian has changed a lot recently? He must have come across some sort of opportunity, unlike the him of the past. "

Wang Qiang sneered and replied, "What opportunity could he have? Wasn't it because he won the lottery and earned a sum of money? What? Now that she felt that he was powerful, she wanted to return to his side? Go ahead, I won't stop you. "

Jiang Xiaoqing stared angrily at Wang Qiang, replying without any trace of politeness, "Wang Qiang, I'll tell you this, that was the only reason I followed you back then when you seduced me with money and status. It was also because of your mistake that I was bullied by Yang Ming. You want to get rid of me now, there's no door. Unless I want to leave you someday, you'll never get rid of me in this life. I already have nothing, I can do anything, so don't force me. "

Wang Qiang was afraid that Jiang Xiaoqing would go all out against him, so he didn't dare to break up forcefully. He slightly softened his tone and replied, "Don't think too much about it, I just think that Zhao Qian is definitely richer than me right now. It is reasonable for you to want to return to his side. Just like you left him and me, I can really understand you. As for whether he has any opportunities, I am not sure. In the future, we will pay more attention and see who he has to deal with before we judge him. "

Although it was already time to get off work, the employees had not left yet. They were all waiting for news from the Conference Room.

When it was seven o'clock, Conference Room's door finally opened. Zhao Qian led the Xingyuan staff out, and Faang Ni and Zhang Yang followed.

After sending off the Xingyuan staff members, Faang Ni immediately ran back and announced happily: "Everyone, Xingyuan has resumed its cooperation with us, and has given us an additional order. Everyone stood up and clapped. "Thank you, Zhao Qian!"

The office immediately erupted into thunderous applause and cheers.

"Young Master Zhao, I love you! "Ma Da ..."

"Young Master Zhao, there's no one at my house tonight. Come to my house for dinner."

"Are there any other entertainment activities after the meal?"

"Haha ..."

The employees were truly happy, but Zhang Yang and the others weren't. Since Zhao Qian was so popular, their position in the company could not be preserved.

Faang Ni was very happy. She signaled everyone to be quiet and then announced, "The group construction activity that Mr Zhang mentioned previously has been delayed due to the company's problems. I announce that the event will continue to be effective. We will gather at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and go to Chongdao together. For three days and two nights, the company covers all expenses except personal shopping. "

As soon as Faang Ni finished her sentence, everyone started cheering excitedly.

"Long live Director Faang!"

"Director Faang, Director Faang, I love you like a mouse loves rice!"

Faang Ni quickly motioned for everyone to quiet down and then said, "You shouldn't love me. You should love Zhao Qian. If he didn't come back and solve the problem, we wouldn't have had the chance to go out and play. "

"Young Master Zhao, I love you!"

"Young Master Zhao, I want to give birth to your baby!"

"Haha ..."

Zhao Qian smiled and signaled everyone to be quiet. He said, "No need to be polite everyone. Since I'm back, I can't watch the company get into trouble."

In the future, we will help each other and work together to make the company a whole new level. "

"What Young Master Zhao said is really good. He has the demeanor of a leader!"

"Director Faang, what position did you arrange for Young Master Zhao?"

"That's right! With his ability, he should at least be at the manager level, right? "

"We have to be the manager or we won't agree."

"Yes!" Director Faang, you can't treat Zhao Qian unfairly. If I leave after feeling wronged, we will still have more troubles. "

Looking at this, Zhao Qian felt like he was wearing a yellow robe. Faang Ni could not go against the wishes of the employees of the company, she could only declare that Zhao Qian's future position in the company was not fixed. He could do whatever he wanted and be on the same level as her.

The moment he said this, the entire audience burst into cheers. However, Zhang Yang and the others were not happy. Wasn't Zhao Qian about to ascend to the heavens?

C90 Here's What I Want to Eat

Zhang Yang immediately objected, "Little Ni, it's not appropriate for you to do that, right? You're the company's boss, and he's just an employee. How can we even compare him to you? "If Wang Hanxu finds out, he also wants to be on the same level as you, what will you do?"

Wang Qiang quickly followed, "Director Faang, I think Mr Zhang is right. An employee was an employee. They could never be on the same level as their boss. "Director Faang doing this will only make Zhao Qian more distant from everyone else, and it's not a good thing for him either."

However, Faang Ni ignored him. She felt that Zhao Qian should enjoy the highest treatment. If anyone else could come forward at the most critical moment for the company, she would give him the same treatment. To put it bluntly, the greater one's ability, the better treatment one would receive. This made sense everywhere.

Zhang Yang felt that this was a great humiliation, so he snorted and left after getting off work.

Faang Ni let out a sigh of relief. Right now, she could only treat the company as her priority. She would coax him when she returned home.

"Alright, it's getting late. Everyone, let's hurry up and go home. We'll meet downstairs at the gate at eight in the morning.

Everyone quickly bid farewell to Faang Ni and Zhao Qian, packed their stuff and went home.

After everyone had left, Zhao Qian came to Faang Ni's office and joked, "Should we kneel on the washboard when we go home? I think he's very angry. "

Faang Ni rolled her eyes and complained, "Isn't that your fault? Why would I be shy if you didn't want me to kiss you? If I wasn't shy, he wouldn't have noticed anything was wrong. Originally, I merely wanted to thank you. If he were to know about it, he would definitely misunderstand that there's something going on between you and me. "

"Haha ..." I was just saying it casually, but who would have thought that you would actually believe it? "Alright, let's not talk about this anymore. I want to ask when you are going to make the share transfer."

"We'll have to wait a little while longer. I'll have to go through some operations before I can transfer the shares to you."

"Oh? How do you want to operate it? "

"According to the agreement I signed with Wang Hanxu, without his consent, I cannot unilaterally absorb funds to buy shares. So your shares can be granted or transferred by way of debt service. "

Zhao Qian looked as if he had expected this to happen. Everything was exactly as he had expected it to be. The agreement between Faang Ni and Wang Hanxu forbade absorbing funds to buy shares, and it didn't say that she wasn't allowed to transfer shares. This was also why Zhao Qian dared to ask Faang Ni for a stake in the company. It was because he came up with this idea. Fortunately, Faang Ni had also thought of this, or else he would have to tell her how to operate it.

"Director Faang is really a smart person. I really need to be more careful when working with you. If I'm not careful, I might fall into your trap."

"Go!" Weren't you the one who forced it? "You almost forced me to my death, and you still have the nerve to say that."

"Haha ..." Alright, let's cut to the chase. I'll be waiting for Director Faang to go through the transfer procedures with me. "This time, I hope Director Faang won't do something that will embarrass everyone."

"Don't worry." I've finally seen your true ability. I can't bear to lose such a talented person like you. "

Zhao Qian smiled and waved goodbye to Faang Ni. Then, he went out to pack his stuff and leave. He had just arrived at the main entrance when his colleague Liu Mei walked over.

"Young Master Zhao, what shameful thing are you doing up there with the boss?"

"Wah!" Don't speak nonsense! No matter how much I don't pursue her, I can't possibly tangle with a married woman! If I am to pester you, I will definitely pester a girl like you. "

After saying that, Zhao Qian blinked his eyes at Liu Mei.

Liu Mei burst out laughing, then retracted her smile, and put on the look of a strong woman, asking, "Then do you dare to come and bother me? My parents are not home, and there's no one at home. Come and eat at my place. "

"Sure. What are you making for me to eat? "

"What do you want to eat? As long as I can cook, I'll make it for you. "

"How about... "You can give it to me to eat now."

Liu Mei immediately rolled her eyes and walked up to Zhao Qian and gave him a few punches, saying coquettishly, "Can you be more serious? I sincerely want to treat you to a meal, why are you so impetuous? "

Zhao Qian put on a very serious look and replied: "I'm also very serious! I want to eat noodles so that you can give them to me. What do you make of it? Could it be ... Wow! "Little Plum, you've changed. You were very innocent in the past, but I didn't think that you would be able to understand something so yellow now."

Liu Mei laughed out loud and gave Zhao Qian a few more punches. Coincidentally, Faang Ni came out at this moment.

"I never would have thought!" You two actually got along well. When did this happen? "

Liu Mei quickly explained, "Aiya, Director Faang, you misunderstood. The two of us didn't get along well. I wanted to invite him to dinner. He was joking with me, so I responded. "

"Oh, then why did you invite him to dinner for no reason at all?"

"Director Faang is also a woman, you know."

Faang Ni chuckled. With a look of 'I understand', she immediately waved to bid farewell to the two of them.

Zhao Qian could tell that Liu Mei wanted to court him. Zhao Qian didn't have any feelings for Liu Mei, so it was impossible for him to be on good terms with her. Rather than letting her sink deeper and deeper into the abyss, it was better to cut her off as soon as possible.

"Alright, I have to go back as well. If there's time another day, I'll treat you to a meal alone. "

The smile on Liu Mei's face immediately disappeared. Apparently, she could tell that Zhao Qian had rejected her and didn't even give her the chance to try.

At this moment, Zhao Qian's phone rang. He took it out and saw that it was his mother.

"Hello, Mom. What's the matter?"

"I just left the airport and am on my way to your place. "Wherever you are, you must get home before I get there."

"Oh, got it."

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Qian quickly said to Liu Mei, "Sorry, my mom came to see me. I really don't have time to eat at your place tonight." If you have free time, I will definitely invite you alone. She's almost there. I have to get back. "You should also go home early. Be careful on the road."

After Zhao Qian said that, he rushed to the parking lot and drove back. Liu Mei's face revealed a smile again. She felt that Zhao Qian didn't reject her. It was just a coincidence that his mother came over today. He would definitely agree to invite him again when the time comes.

Zhao Qian drove home as fast as he could, and by the time he arrived, his mom was already there.

"Mom, long time no see! How come you're young again? In the future, when we're on the streets together, they would think that you're my sister. What if they ask me for your WeChat signal? "

Yu Guifeng laughed at her son's words. With a roll of her eyes, she replied, "You, child, are still so dishonest. However, what you said was rather pleasant to listen to. "Heh heh heh ..."

"What I have said is the truth, I will definitely listen. Come on, let's hurry in. "

When Yu Guifeng saw her son drive a Jaguar, she immediately complained, "Why are you driving such a cheap car? If others knew about this, they would think that my son was a beggar. Mom can't afford to lose that guy, you're not allowed to drive in the future. Don't you have a few decent cars in your garage? "Why not?"

"Mom, did you forget about the TV show? Many of the robbers would kidnap the son of a rich man. Say, if I was too high-profile, or if people knew my dad was Zhao Fu, would I be able to go out? Although this car is trash, it's just convenient for me to conceal my identity. Do you think my face or my safety is more important? "

Yu Guifeng immediately nodded in agreement, "You're right. You're right." It's better if you stay out here by yourself. Son, why don't you go back to Yanjing? At least no one will dare to touch you in the Yanjing, you can do whatever you want. "

"I'm not going back. It took me five years to change myself, and I didn't want to be that evil kid again. I'm doing fine right now, and I'm pursuing my own life value. "

Yu Guifeng immediately laughed out in satisfaction. "I heard your father tell me that you have been working on a few projects recently and that you have done them in a way that is even more outstanding. You have inherited his talent in business. However, son, you don't have to work so hard. You just need to go home and inherit the family business, why work so hard? "

Online, it was often said that some celebrities or rich second generations were very hardworking. If they couldn't do it well, they would have to go home and inherit billions of dollars.

Zhao Qian was in a similar situation. If he doesn't do something, he will have to go home and inherit 2 trillion yuan.

"Mom, let's not talk about this anymore. Hurry up and go in. If my dad knew that you came to visit me, and I didn't even let you in, he would definitely call me that. "

"Only you can speak!"

The mother and son walked into the yard, smiling.
