

His True Colors Novel Chapter 1403 - 1406

Chapter 1403

Liu Fang understands the truth of Liu Yanjun's remarks, but compared to Xiao Fu, Mo Yang's sense of danger to her is not so strong. Even Liu Fang can feel a sense of security from Mo Yang. Yang does not have much rejection.

And if it hadn't been for Mo Yang to come forward, how could Xiao Fu give up entanglement with her? For Liu Fang, it was a great thing.

In the hotel.

Mo Yang looked at George Han with a grimace, because George Han had just told him that he had to return to Basin City first, which made Mo Yang feel like he was abandoned.

"You leave me alone, don't you worry about my safety?" Mo Yang said to George Han with a sad face.

Facing a shameless guy like Mo Yang, George Han chose to ignore it and said, "Between you and Liu Fang, it was a matter of two people. What did I do with you, and I went back to Basin City. I have my own things to do."

The relationship between Mo Yang and George Han has heated up so fast that Mo Yang doesn't have that much fear of George Han, so he dared to make a faceless face in front of George Han.

"I am alone. In case Xiao Guan wants to deal with me, I am not his opponent." Mo Yang continued.

"Don't worry, give him a hundred courage, he doesn't dare to do this." After saying this, George Han took out something similar to Ye Mingzhu and continued: "If you are really in danger, Just smash this thing and I will show up immediately."

Mo Yang played with what George Han gave him, and said with a puzzled face: "Is this glass ball so powerful, can I still summon you?"

"I hope you don't have the chance to try, otherwise, I will kill again. This is not what I want to do." George Han said.

After Mo Yang carefully collected the glass ball, he said to George Han: "Don't worry, it's not a last resort, I will never use this thing, since you must go, I will give it to you."

George Han waved his hand and said, "You should go to Liu Fang. Such a hypocritical side doesn't make sense to me."

Mo Yang fished his head in embarrassment. His true thoughts were indeed looking for Liu Fang, but he didn't expect to be seen through by George Han so easily.

After the two left the hotel together, they parted ways.

George Han didn't waste any extra time, so he directly called a car back to Basin City.

In the past few days in Tongyang County, for George Han, he was completely wasting his energy. If it were not for Mo Yang, he would never do such boring things, but it also shows that Mo Yang The position in his heart is indeed not low.

"Kid, you go to such a far place alone, do your family know?" The driver asked George Han on the way, obviously because he was afraid that George Han would run away from home.

"My family is from Basin City, and I went to Tongyang County, just to find a classmate." George Han said with a smile.

When the driver heard this, he felt relieved and stopped asking more questions.

George Han looked at the busy traffic outside the window, and soon reached the destination, and he did something no one noticed.

When he was sitting in the car, he found that the driver had years of stubborn illness in his body. George Han helped him heal him inadvertently. For George Han, it was just a small effort, but for the driver, It is a life-saving grace.

"Hey." After getting out of the car, George Han sighed and said with a wry smile: "It seems that I am still not suitable for killing, but it is saving people, which gives me a sense of satisfaction."

In George Han's heart, he has never been a murderer. He is not a last resort. George Han is absolutely unwilling to go this far, but there are always people in the world who do not see the coffin without crying, so George Han does not have any Other options.

George Han went to Fengqian's office building. Currently the company is still recruiting people, but most of the departments have been formed, so that when George Han arrived at the door, he was stopped by security.

"I'm sorry, but for the time being, no other people are allowed to enter." Although the security guard stopped George Han, his attitude was very polite, and he didn't feel like a dog looks down on others.

"I am a friend of your boss, if you don't believe me, I can ask him to come downstairs to pick me up." George Han said.

The security guard did not show disdain, but said: "If this is the case, you'd better let him come forward. The company's task is not to let anyone in. I can't distinguish your identity. I hope you can understand."

George Han smiled. The security guard can be so patient with a kid like him, and he has a very good attitude, so he doesn't mind.

Called Xiaolong.

Although Xiaolong had taken the position of Fengqian's boss, he knew exactly how this position came, so the first time he received a call from George Han, Xiaolong rushed downstairs.

When the security guard saw Xiaolong, he was still a little surprised. He didn't take what George Han said just now. He didn't expect this little guy to be able to call the boss out.

Xiaolong did not embarrass the security, but told him: "He is my friend, and he can come and go as he pleases when he comes to the company."

"Yes, boss."

After entering the company, George Han saw a lot of busy people. He had only been away for a few days. The company seemed to be on the right track, which made him somewhat unexpected.

"It seems that you have adapted quite quickly. I didn't expect FengQian to have changed a lot in just a few days." George Han said to Xiaolong with a smile.

Xiaolong was embarrassed and said softly, "Boss, it's not that I adapt quickly. Thanks to the help of Heavenly Father, otherwise, I don't know what department the company is divided into. Most of these people are recruited by the father. ."

George Han is not surprised. After all, with Xiaolong's personal ability, it is indeed a bit difficult for him to do these things, and he has never worked in a serious company, how can he know what department the company should have.

After coming to the office, George Han did not sit in the position of Xiaolong. Since he handed over the company to Xiaolong, he would not deliberately display his position.

Moreover, Fengqian will eventually fall into the hands of Xiaolong in the future, and George Han will not interfere too much.

Of course, if Xiaolong betrayed George Han during this process, it would be another matter.

"Nothing special happened recently, right?" George Han asked Xiaolong.

"Boss, don't you know?" Xiaolong looked at George Han in astonishment.

“What should I know?”

Chapter 1404

In Xiaolong's view, George Han should be very concerned about the Su family's affairs. He should know everything that happened to the Su family, but he didn't know anything now, which made Xiaolong a little surprised.

“Boss, don't you know something happened to the Su family?” Xiaolong said.

George Han's expression instantly became cold, and he asked in a deep voice, “Is it related to Amelia Su?”

“That's not the case, it's the old man of the Su family, who entered the hospital seriously ill. I heard that it seems to be dying.” Xiaolong said.

George Han frowned. In fact, he had discovered this a long time ago, but he was very strange. Before he was reborn, the old man had lived for ten years. Why did his condition become more serious after he was reborn?

“I'll go to the hospital.” George Han said.

Xiaolong sent a driver to send George Han a ride.

After arriving at the city hospital, George Han saw the Su family outside the VIP ward, including Wilson Su with a haggard face.

For Wilson Su, the Su family's old man suddenly became seriously ill, which was a huge blow to him, because his position in the company has just begun to change. If the old man dies at this juncture, he will not have time to control the power. .

Although Su Guolin has been kicked out of the Su family and the company, the old lady of the Su family has always valued him very much. Once the old man dies and the old lady takes control of the company, Su Guolin will definitely return to the company. At that time, Wilson Su's position , Will be greatly threatened.

When Wilson Su saw George Han, he was a little unexpected, and hurriedly walked to George Han: “George, why are you here.”

“How is the situation of the old man?” George Han asked.

Speaking of this matter, Wilson Su sighed. The experts in the city had all come to see it, but they were helpless with the situation of the old man. Now they have basically announced the ending, just waiting for the old man to take his last breath.

“According to the doctor's words, it should not work, it depends on when to breathe.” Wilson Su said.

"I'll go and see, maybe there is still a chance to reverse." George Han said.

Wilson Su looked at George Han in surprise. He knew who George Han was and knew that he couldn't brag casually.

But does he really have research on medical skills?

And the old man is already so sick that experts from all walks of life can't help it. Can George Han still save him?

At this time, several doctors happened to come out of the ward, but looking at their expressions, they were not very clear. Obviously, the father's situation was very difficult.

"How is it, is there any help?" The old lady was the first to walk to the doctor and asked.

The attending doctor sighed and said: "The patient's body functions have begun to degenerate. Based on the current situation, you can start preparing for the future."

The old lady did not show too much sadness, because she knew that sooner or later she would face this day, and once the father died, she would have a legitimate reason to be in charge of the company.

During the period when Su Guolin was kicked out of Su's house, Su Guolin looked for the old lady several times and wanted to redeem his identity, but when the old man was there, the old lady didn't say anything, but if the old man died, this One thing can be changed.

So in the heart of the old lady, because of pity for Su Guolin, she still hoped that her father would die.

"In this case, we..."

The old lady hadn't finished her words, and a sudden voice rang: "Can I go and see?"

When everyone turned their heads and looked at George Han, everyone had a puzzled expression on their faces.

"Boy, this is not the place where you messed up, hurry and go away." Su Guolin looked sad on the surface, but in fact he was delighted, because he knew that only if the old man died, he could return to the Su family. , So he wished the father died sooner.

"Kid, go see what's the use, can you still save people?" the attending doctor said to George Han disdainfully.

"You can't save good people, it doesn't mean that I can't either." George Han said lightly.

Facing George Han's rants, the attending doctor frowned. He has a very high status in Basin City's medical world, like some people with more powerful identities, who are looking for him to see a doctor. When will it be a little ass? The child speaks without shame in front of him.

"Little friend, you know how to treat diseases and save people, so don't joke with us," the attending doctor said.

"Can it be cured, can't you try again?" George Han said.

"Boy, I warn you, don't make trouble here, otherwise, I'll be rude to you." Su Guolin said angrily. Although he doesn't think George Han can cure the old man, he doesn't think he can cure him at this critical moment. Hope anyone makes trouble.

Wilson Su hesitated for a long time, and said, "Mom, let him go and have a look. Anyway, Dad will be dying. If there is a chance, you won't want to watch Dad die."

The old lady didn't want to be extravagant, but Wilson Su's remarks were spoken in front of so many Su family relatives. If she refused, wouldn't she admit that she wanted to watch the old man die?

And even if you let George Han see how it is, he has been judged by such a powerful doctor that there is no cure, is it possible that a little kid can save him?

"Children, you shouldn't attract attention in this way, because in the end it is still a shameful ending, why bother?" the old lady said.

"I just want to save people. As far as Guan is not concerned, it doesn't make sense to me." George Han said lightly.

Attracting the attention of the Su family, they too valued themselves too much. With George Han's status, do they still need to value the Su family?

The reason why George Han did this was that he didn't want the Su family's structure to change so much that it would cause unnecessary trouble. Moreover, once the old man dies, the Su family's company will definitely undergo radical changes. George Han does not want to see the position that Wilson Su had just acquired become a void again.

After all, only Wilson Su's position in the company can increase his income.

With Wilson Su's income, Amelia Su can have a better life.

In the final analysis, everything that George Han did was for Amelia Su.

With the attending doctor full of anger, George Han walked into the ward.

"I treat people and don't need anyone to watch, so you just stay outside." George Han said to the doctor who was about to enter the ward together after entering the door.

The attending doctor became more and more angry and said to George Han: "If the old man dies at this time, do you know what trouble you will face?"

"Is it possible that you have to bite me back, saying that I killed someone?" George Han smiled.

Chapter 1405

The attending doctor was speechless, but George Han directly closed the ward door and locked it back.

"Wilson Su, if something happens to my dad, you are the only one who asks. Only you can help this little kid." Su Guolin gritted his teeth and said to Wilson Su. He seemed to want to shift the blame to Wilson Su.

Wilson Su now understands a truth, that is, people are good at being bullied. The more he behaves kindly, the more he will be bullied. So now facing Su Guolin, Wilson Su no longer keeps his breath.

"Su Guolin, hasn't an accident happened yet with my dad? What do you call an accident? Did your dad die or he was cured? What are the results you want to see?" Wilson Su asked one after another. Su Guolin was silent immediately.

Almost all the Su family knew that Su Guolin wanted the old man to die, because he would never have a chance to return to the Su family one day when he was there.

On the contrary, the old man is dead, and the power of the Su family is controlled by the old lady. He still has a chance to return to the Su family or even the company.

"Why don't you speak anymore, do you want your father to die? You can't answer such a simple choice?" Wilson Su continued.

"You fart." Su Guolin was almost on the verge of jumping the wall, even if everyone knew that he wanted the old man to die, he couldn't admit this idea.

"Okay, don't fight, when is the time, is it still useful to say this?" The old lady opened her mouth and shut them up in one sentence.

In the ward, when George Han walked to the bed, he had already felt the old man's dying state, and his body function had almost come to an end. Under this circumstance, no matter how skilled the doctor was, he would be unable to recover.

Unless Da Luo Jinxian comes to the world, the old man will be able to tide over this difficulty.

Coincidentally, although George Han is not the Great Luo Jinxian, he has the power of the Great Luo Jinxian.

As long as he didn't swallow his last breath, no matter what kind of serious illness was, George Han could be cured easily.

With the strength of a powerhouse in the gods, this disease was in George Han's eyes, no different from a common cold.

"Father, you can be considered lucky. If I come back later, I'm afraid I can only sweep your grave." George Han said with a smile.

Holding the old man's hand, George Han's internal strength was continuously transferred to the old man's body and repaired his internal organs.

For George Han, this was a huge consumption of strength, so cold sweat soon oozes from his forehead.

But the old man's complexion gradually became ruddy.

The old man who was just the last step to report to the Temple of the Kings, in just a few minutes, all his body functions were restored, and he opened his eyes.

When the old man saw George Han, he still looked confused and didn't know what happened.

"You... why are you here?" The old man asked George Han slowly.

"If I'm not here, you might be dead." George Han said.

The old man knew his condition quite well, even he was ready to go to death at any time.

But now, the old man was surprised to find that there was no pain in his body, and his limbs were also full of strength, as if he was much younger.

"This...what's going on!" The old man asked George Han in horror.

"I cured you." George Han said.

The old man stared his eyes wide, and looked at George Han in disbelief.

Cured?

The impact of these three words on the old man is extremely huge, because he is very clear about his physical condition, and he is almost certain to die, which is to see how long the medicine can support him.

The old man didn't dare to dream that he could be better.

But now, what seems to have happened.

“How did you do it?” The old man asked George Han suspiciously.

“How I did it, you don’t need to know, but although you are good now, it is not too obvious on the surface. Otherwise, I am afraid it will cause me a lot of trouble.” George Han said.

The old man is a wise man. He knew what George Han meant and said, “Do you mean to let me continue to pretend to be sick?”

“Yes, and the process of this matter, you can’t let anyone know, otherwise, I can save you or kill you.” George Han said.

These words made the old man feel an incomparable firmness. He knew that George Han was not joking with himself.

Nodding subconsciously, the old man said: “Don’t worry, I won’t tell anyone. Only the two of us know about this.”

“But.” After hesitating for a long time, the old man continued to ask: “Why are you saving me?”

“I don’t want too much change in the Su family. Once you die, your wife will be in charge, and the Su family company, I am afraid there will be earth-shaking changes again.” George Han said.

“Are you for Wilson Su?” The old man asked curiously. One thing he didn’t understand was why George Han wanted to help Wilson Su?

He seems to have been doing this since Fengqian’s cooperation, but Wilson Su, what is worth his help?

“He?” George Han smiled and shook his head, and said, “Wilson Su’s life and death have nothing to do with me. What kind of life he faces is not what I will care about. I did this for Amelia Su.”

The old man’s expression stiffened for a long time.

George Han is still a child, and so is Amelia Su.

Is it possible that George Han likes Amelia Su, so he does so many things?

But it’s just a girl, is it worth George Han to do so much?

In the eyes of the old man, George Han is definitely not just a friend of Fengqian, so if he wants a woman, it must be countless, why did he spend so much energy on Amelia Su.

“I know you have a lot of doubts, but you are not qualified to know about these things. You only need to remember what you should do and how to do it.” George Han warned.

The old man nodded, he didn't even dare to ask how George Han cured himself.

Walking to the door of the ward, George Han opened the door and saw the attending doctor with a gloomy face.

When the attending doctor saw George Han's expression unfavorable, he immediately smiled triumphantly, and said, "Little guy, I've touched my nose, are you satisfied? The person I can't treat, how dare you say anything," Do you regret it now?"

"Who told you, I touched a gray nose, where are you confident?" George Han smiled faintly.

The attending doctor sneered. It's this time, this little guy is still stiff mouth, can he still cover up the facts?

Of course, the facts will not be concealed!

Chapter 1406

Just when everyone was glaring at George Han, the sound from the ward made the outside of the ward instantly quiet.

Every Su family had an expression of disbelief on their faces.

The diagnosis and treatment team led by the attending doctor almost fell to the ground with its chin.

"Don't bother me to rest." Simple five words, but full of breath and slight dissatisfaction.

If this was said from other people, it would not be surprising, but the voice came from the Su family, which made people feel unbelievable and even a little frightened.

Because the Su family father was almost sentenced to death by the attending doctor, how could he speak?

Moreover, the attending doctor knew better than anyone else about the old man's condition. He relied on the instrument to take his last breath, and it was impossible for him to be sober enough to speak.

Looked at George Han!

The attending doctor looked into the ward again, pushed George Han away, and rushed into the ward.

Immediately, everyone in the diagnosis and treatment team followed into the ward, and everyone in the Su family was no exception.

When they saw that the old man on the hospital bed had taken off the instrument and his face was ruddy, no one could believe it was true.

“How is it possible, how is it possible!” The attending doctor widened his eyes, as if he had seen a ghost.

“How is it possible, do you want me to die?” The old man frowned and said dissatisfied.

The attending doctor did have such thoughts, because the old man’s condition was judged by him, but now, the old man’s condition is getting better. Isn’t this a disguised explanation of his medical skills?

This is not a trivial matter for a doctor, it is very likely that his career will be ruined.

But the fact is right in front of him, even if he doesn’t want to admit it, there is no way.

“Master, how are you doing well?” the attending doctor asked the old man.

“You can’t heal me, can’t you let other people heal me?” The old man said with disdain.

The attending doctor repeatedly shook his head and said: “I didn’t mean that, hello, of course this is a good thing, but... but how can it get better so quickly?”

The old man’s body functions have declined in all aspects, even necrosis. It is also because of this situation that the attending doctor will judge that he will not live for long. But now, the old man is getting better too quickly. This has to be a miracle. The effect of.

“It’s getting better or slower, it has nothing to do with you, I want to rest, you all go out.” The old man closed his eyes with a tired look.

Everyone, you look at me, I look at you, not daring to disobey the old man, so I had to leave the room one by one.

At this time, the attending doctor remembered that the old man was cured by George Han, so he searched for George Han’s figure, but by this time, George Han had already left the hospital.

“What about people, what about others, where are people.” The attending doctor ran away like crazy. He had to find George Han, and he had to know how George Han did it.

Everyone in the Su family was silent, especially the old lady and Su Guolin’s expressions were particularly embarrassing.

Because the old lady was waiting for the old man to take control of the Su family’s power, but now, her thoughts were obviously only lost.

And Su Guolin hopes to wait until the father's death, to return to the Su family and return to the company, but it is impossible now, because the father is in good health, there is absolutely no possibility of him returning to the Su family.

"Su Guolin, are you disappointed?" Wilson Su asked Su Guolin lightly.

Su Guolin suddenly raised his head and said to Wilson Su ferociously: "Wilson Su, what do you mean."

"Don't think I don't know. You want to return to Su's house after Dad's death. Now Dad is cured, you must be disappointed." Wilson Su said with a smile.

"You fart, how could I hope my dad died." Su Guolin gritted his teeth. Even if all the Su family members could see this idea, he would never admit it.

The corner of Wilson Su's mouth raised, and he continued: "It doesn't matter if you don't admit it. I know what you think in your heart. Don't worry, I will never give you any chance to go back to the Su family, and no one can help you. The future is in my hands, Wilson Su."

When he said this, Wilson Su also took a look at the old lady.

He knew that the old lady valued Su Guolin more, but Wilson Su also had to let the old lady understand one thing, the rise and fall of the current Su family is in his hands, not Su Guolin can change.

The old lady did not dare to speak, after all, the Su family's power was not her turn to control, and she was not qualified to teach Wilson Su.

As Wilson Su said, the future of the Su family is in his hands, and only Wilson Su can decide whether to reach cooperation with the Fengqian Group.

At this time, the old man's voice came from the ward: "Wilson, come in, I have something to tell you."

Wilson Su showed a thicker smile and walked into the ward.

Su Guolin's face was pale. The old man usually called him, and only he was qualified to frequent the old man's study, but now, the person that the old man values has obviously changed.

To a large extent, Su Guolin has today and it is his own responsibility. If he did not want to disrupt the cooperation between the Su family and the Fengqian Group, he would never have been driven out of the Su family, and even he would be able to enjoy Su in the future. Honor of home.

It is a pity that Su Guolin is too late even if he regrets it now.

After entering the ward, Wilson Su turned his waist and asked the old man: "Dad, how are you doing? If you feel unwell, take a break."

The old man waved his hand, with a vigorous appearance, and said: "I have nothing uncomfortable. Now I feel like I am full of energy, with inexhaustible power, just like a few dozen years younger."

Wilson Su was a little surprised to hear what the old man said.

It is a miracle that George Han can heal the old man, but the current state of the old man is not just as simple as curing.

"Dad, how did he do it? Even the doctor said that you can't do it. He can cure you so quickly. Wouldn't he give you any elixir?" Wilson Su asked curiously.

Regarding this matter, the father had promised to George Han that he would never reveal it to anyone, and the father himself did not know exactly what George Han did to make him feel better.

"I don't have an answer to this matter, and you don't need to be curious. The most important result is that I'm better." The old man said.

Wilson Su nodded again and again, the old man is fine, so he doesn't need to have other worries. This is the real good thing.
