Chapter 2295

And outside at this time, with Ao Shane's joining, after a short trial, Lu Wushen confirmed that Ao Shane was indeed serious about helping George, and he also increased his energy. .

Seeing Lu Wushen's full power, Ao Shane sneered.

He did seem to be trying his best to help George, but only on the surface.

Maybe others will be seen through when they play in front of Lu Wushen, but Ao Shane, who is also a true god, is really hard to notice if Lu Wushen wants to play with this, especially when Lu Wushen is eager to save people.

In addition, it happened that Molong and George reached a reconciliation at this time, and his physical condition improved, which made Lu Wushen think that the combined force of the two had an effect, so he would not doubt Ao Shane even more.

Seeing that Lu Wushen was so serious and realizing that the time was ripe, Ao Shane smiled lightly with no change in his hands, but directly changed the power that helped George into a destructive power, and through George's body, directly Counterattack Lu Wushen.

Lu Wushen didn't know that Ao Shane had moved his hands and feet, and when he was using all his strength more and more, he suddenly realized that something seemed to be wrong.

George suddenly had an extremely strong force in his body to counterattack him frantically, and he was extremely domineering.

This made Lu Wushen very puzzled and surprised, but at this time he had no choice but to continue to strengthen his resistance, what else could he do?

Such a strong force can either stop the loss in time, but the price is the backlash of one's own power. The only thing that can be done is to rely on the huge power of the true god to slowly suppress it.

How did Lu Wushen know that George's power of the evil spirit is extremely heavy now, and his true god's power can indeed cope with it, but it is also very reluctant, but at this time, another true god's power is added to attack him, even if it is as strong as He can't bear it at all.

Lu Wushen also quickly noticed what seemed to be two energies, and he looked at Ao Shane strangely.

Ao Shane's side was already prepared. He looked at him with the same shocked eyes, and said anxiously, "Brother Lu, what's the matter? Suddenly there was a surge of power in Hong Guang, and he was extremely domineering. , Bit me tightly."

Lu Wushen immediately dispelled a lot of doubts, could it be that there was something else in the red circle that neither of them had noticed before? !

"Could it be that there is any mystery in this evil spirit? Will it disrupt the energies of the two of us and attack each other?" Ao Shane wondered at this time.

Lu Wushen suddenly realized that at the moment, it was indeed extremely possible.

Thinking of this, Lu Wushen's remaining doubts also disappeared, and said, "Brother Ao, we can't go on like this anymore. I will count one, two and three. Let's do our best together and then withdraw at the same time."

"Never mind, keep going like this. , Both of us are overwhelmed. As for whether George is dead or alive, he can only be resigned to his fate." Although Ao Shane looked uncomfortable, he was happy in his heart.

The two nodded to each other, and then, as one, two and three fell, they each roared, increasing the strength of the whole body and struggling to enter the red circle.

With the hard work of the two of them, the golden energy circle with their own arms is directly as thick as a century-old tree.

The power of the true god rolled away.

The world is trembling slightly...

"Boom!!!"

Poor Han was sent out from the Soul of the Devil Dragon with great difficulty, just about to wake up, he was instantly bombarded by the explosion of the power of the two true gods. Fainted.

If it weren't for the power of these two true gods to fight against each other, they would directly hit George, because he now has the body of a loose immortal, but he still can't stand such power.

"Puff!"

Above the air, Lu Wushen spurted blood, and his body flew backwards, making Ao Shane's eyes suddenly happy.

He exerted a little force in front of One Two Three, earlier than Lu Wushen, and only a little later after Lu Wushen withdrew his energy. This is equivalent to Lu Wushen's first effort lately and secretly suffered a loss and was attacked by Ao Shane. Because of the early withdrawal, he suffered the backlash alone.

Lu Wushen was seriously injured. Although Aoshi was also injured, it was much lighter.

In order not to be discovered by Lu Wushen, he pretended to fly back hundreds of meters, spraying blood.

“Grandpa!”

Both sides shouted together, and then the Ao family and Lu family each rushed to their true gods.

And with this explosion, the red beam of light in George’s camp disappeared suddenly. After the red light dissipated, George’s body was carried by the explosion, and it slammed on the ground with a bang.

“It does not matter.” Godless land landing after being surrounded by his family land, he choked back pain, next to look to hit the ground not far from three thousand Han: “Go take a look at Han three thousand.”

Side of the head, Ao Shane also fell from the sky, and the disciples of the Ao family who cared about him and Yaoshen Pavilion Wang Yanzhi and others shook their heads slightly, and looked at George as well: “Go and see George.” The people on both sides immediately collectively moved towards George ran away quickly. Lu Ruoxin was the first person among all the people. At this time, for her, she probably cared about how George was.

However, what will happen to George at this time? !

Chapter 2296

When he arrived a dozen meters away from the camp, George’s body that had been blown up lay peacefully there, the clothes outside his body had long been torn to rags in the explosion. The whole body was darkened by the explosion, which can be described as terrible.

In the battle between the two true gods, George, who was at the center of the explosion, had a predictable result.

In that space, the Soul of the Devil Dragon had just adjusted its aura. Obviously, he had spent a lot of effort just sending George out.

But as soon as he adjusted his breath, only a white light flashed by, and then George returned.

“Damn, why are you back again?”

George was embarrassed, got up with an awkward smile, and said: “On the way out, I suddenly missed you, so I came back to see you.”

“Look at me?” Long Yi was stunned, but as long as he wasn’t stupid, he knew how George came back to see himself.

Seeing the look in the magic dragon’s eyes, George knew he couldn’t hide it, and said bitterly: “Someone outside saves me, but I don’t know what’s going on. The two of them fought, and when the spell exploded, I happened to be caught by you. Send it out... and when it exploded, I fainted again and came back.” The dragon looked at George a little speechlessly, but he was speechless for a while.

“I think you’ve finished reading it too, so what, can you give me another time?” George smiled wryly, looking like you are embarrassed if I am not embarrassed.

The Devil Dragon couldn’t help rolling his eyes: “You are really embarrassing. I suddenly regret the sh!t soul contract with you. Just like you, can I stay in peace?”

“Damn, Shane I always have to worry about whether you are dead outside.”

Hearing this, George rolled his eyes speechlessly: “Damn, you think I think, the one who is doing me outside is the true god, you know the true god. No? And it’s still two!”

“I’m good enough. If I were replaced by someone else, I would have died a long time ago. I don’t know how many times.”

“Sit down! Don’t talk nonsense, I will send you back. However, I have carried you twice in a row. If you want to go back this time, I am afraid that you will suffer a bit.” As soon as the voice fell, the magic dragon directly lifted the black energy in his hand. Then he slammed George.

And outside at this time.

Lu Ruoxin flipped George over, then put his head in his arms, and he could really slap George’s body abruptly.

“How is it?!” Lu Ruoxuan said anxiously.

“There is still a breath, but the pulse is very weak.” Lu Ruoxin shook his head, rather disappointed.

Although George’s body hadn’t completely died yet, he was actually not far away from death, and the situation was very bad.

Lu Ruoxuan waved his hand, and several masters hurriedly sat down to help Lu Ruoxin rescue George together.

The Ao family, Yaoshenge and others, at this time, raised their eyebrows lightly. They rushed over, on the one hand to cooperate with Ao Shane in acting, on the other hand, they just wanted to see George died.

Now that George is in this situation, everyone in this group is secretly happy, only the last helper has mixed feelings in his heart. For a while, he is both happy and a little disappointed.

Lu Wushen and Ao Shane also slowly walked over with the support of their servants.

The two looked at each other, and each sent out a body that was capable of reaching George, but what disappointed them was as Lu Ruoxin said.

George is already at stake.

“Remove it.” Lu Wushen instructed all the masters of the Lu Family with great pain. Even if he had only exhausted his full strength, it would still be difficult to save him in the end.

This made him feel regretful at the same time, but he also regretted it. Simply, Ao Shane was also injured, which gave him at least some comfort.

“Yes!” The master Lu Jiazhong nodded, and then a group of people worked together to withdraw their energy.

On George’s body, Lu Ruoxin was the only one who was struggling to support him soon.

Stubborn, she kept gritting her teeth and silently refused to give up.

For her, she didn’t want to watch George die just like this. This was the only man who could make her at least look straight.

Perhaps, it used to be more of use, and it is still, but it is more recognized.

“Grandpa...” Lu Ruoxin said bitterly.

“Xin’er, let’s stop, there are days for life, and George’s life is exhausted, no matter how to toss it, it will be a waste of energy.” Lu Wushen sighed bitterly, shaking his head.

“Yes, Xin’er, your grandfather and I have tried our best, but there is really...no way.” Ao Shane said with sorrow.

“No, grandpa, George won’t die so easily. You don’t know how many times this guy has escaped from the dead, even the endless depth...”

Lu Wushen was equally distressed, facing Lu Ruoxin so “unreasonably making trouble” Naturally irritated, so the anger was interrupted directly: “Enough, Xin’er, don’t you even believe what Grandpa said?”

“Xin’er, George has a trace, but it’s just a body. The basic reflection of his own soul has disappeared and is useless.” Ao Shane pretended to be helpless.

“Grandpa and Grandpa Ao are the strongest people in the Octagonal world. Even if they can’t say enough, you don’t want to insist on meaninglessly.” Lu Ruoxuan persuaded softly.

Lu Ruoxin’s eyes suddenly felt desperate. Yeah, even the two true gods couldn’t help it. The death of George was the inevitable result.

Lu Ruoxuan gently lifted the energy, opened Lu Ruoxin’s hand that saved George, and immediately afterwards, he pulled up Lu Ruoxin, who was still a little bit unwilling and unwilling.

George’s body was placed on the ground like this, motionless.

“Brother Lu, since George has no cure, then I also leave.” Ao Shane saw that the scene was already like this. He knew that he was successful. It would be meaningless to stay. On the contrary, it would be easier to say that he did more and made more mistakes. Pretending to be quite uncomfortable when he was injured, and said in a difficult tone.

Lu Wushen nodded slightly, clasped his fists and said, “Okay, Brother Ao, go back and take more rest. Today, you are firmly in your hands.”

Ao Shane shook his head politely: “Brother Lu is polite. Although you and I have a competitive relationship, they are also rare confidants and friends. I should also help.”

After that, Ao Shane looked back and looked down. The disciples of the family and the Yaoshen Pavilion all collectively rushed to Lu Wushen and the others to salute, and then helped Ao Shane to leave slowly.

Lu Wushen smiled bitterly: “You have always been cold in the next life, and you can even say that you don’t care about the world. Why do you care about George? Xin’er, you have moved your true love?”

Lu Ruoxin’s face was slightly taken aback: “Xin’er is not, Xin’s. I just think that George is very important to the Lu family. That’s why...”

Lu Wushen nodded and looked at George: “There is another way.”

Chapter 2297

Hearing this, not only Lu Ruoxin was overjoyed, even Lu Ruoxuan's eyes brightened.

possible? !

"Grandpa, what can you do?" Lu Ruoxin said anxiously.

"Yes, grandpa, you don't want to sell it." Lu Ruoxuan also hurriedly said.

Lu Wushen shook his head bitterly, looked at the two grandsons, sighed, and said, "I don't know if this method will work or not. To me, it can only be said to be dull. However, from a certain angle. In terms of its existence, there must be a reasonable place for it."

Seeing the two people puzzled, Lu Wushen let out a sigh of relief and slowly said, "The reason why people are human is because they have seven passions and six desires that other races don't have. These seven emotions and six desires, invisibly, are the fundamental and incentives for humans to derive various directions. Some people become hate and degenerate because of love, some people become monks and become Buddhas because of bad heart and compassion, and some people are unrestrained and unrestrained. And muddy."

"Grandpa, what do you mean?"

"Although a person's seven emotions and six desires are invisible, they are very powerful. One can use these to go different ways. On the contrary, they can also use these to awaken his fighting spirit. Soul. It is the one who controls the seven emotions and six desires, and the two complement each other. Now his soul is closed, if you want to wake him up, you can try to start from this aspect."

"Think about what can stimulate him, although the possibility of this method is extremely low. , But if his soul is awakened, and the evil spirit of his body has dissipated, maybe he can be saved." Lu Wushen said.

"Xuan'er, help me go back to the inside for a rest, I'm tired." Lu Wushen knew that Lu Ruoxin might have this method, so he dismissed Lu Ruoxuan, leaving Lu Ruoxin alone, and the dead horse as a living horse doctor.

Lu Ruoxuan nodded, beckoned, motioned to the other subordinates to return to their posts, and then assisted Lu Wushen to leave slowly.

Looking at Lu Wushen's back, Lu Ruoxin murmured Wushen, and said slightly: "To stimulate him?"

Then, she turned her gaze to George.

For a long time, she smiled bitterly, but didn't know how to speak.

And at this time, George inside, the Devil Dragon is obviously extremely uncomfortable being suppressed by the golden body, maybe once, but twice, it will take a lot of effort. When George's soul squeezed the hideous face and finally broke through the encirclement, Three thousand own souls were squeezed uncomfortably.

Whenever I want to, I will be so uncomfortable when I belong to my own body.

But it was precisely relying on the guardian of the golden body at the final moment that the Devil Dragon could not break through the body's confinement at all, and that George had the bargaining chips and qualifications to regain the game.

Just about to open his eyes, George heard Lu Ruoxin's murmur beside him.

"George, do you really intend to die like this?"

"Didn't you say that you love Amelia a lot? Do you love Han Nian? Are you planning to abandon them like this?"

"And your Senior Sister Qin Shuang? Although you are merciless to her, I know that she never forgets you, and even loves her forever. Are you planning to leave her alone?" "And your little disciple Qiushui? Where's your brother, Dao Twelve, Mo Where's the Yang? Do you care about them?"

"I promised you, as long as you help me get the yoke of the gods, I will release them, and I will release them, but without you, do you think they would be released by me? , Can they be happy?"

Upon hearing this, George suddenly became puzzled.

What does it mean? !

It is not surprising that Lu Ruoxin knew that Amelia and Han Nian were missing. She naturally knew the situation of Dao Twelve and Mo Yang, but, for one thing, George felt extremely confused in an instant.

That's right, Qin Shuang and Qiushui!

Qin Shuang and Qiushui were on the road with Amelia and Nian'er that night, but how many people can know that they are on the road together?

Thinking of this, George simply didn't open his eyes.

"George, do you know? Amelia is really stupid and naive sometimes. She is still thinking about it today. You will always find her and save her. That little girl is just like her mother. Stupid, saying that his father was just out busy and will come to pick her up soon?"

“Where would they know that you are like this now? If you let them know that you are dead, would their behavior change very much? Stupid?”

“And your elder sister, who is beautiful in appearance, turned out to be in a daze with a pot of soil all day long, and she said nothing all day long. It is said that she only said a word during the period, and she still said to the pot soil. , Said let it hold on, George will come to rescue them.”

“Haha, but, you are about to die, what can you do to save them?”

“George, are you really not talking? “

You really died like this, didn't you?”

“If you really intend to die, then you simply disappoint me. Don't blame me for not warning you. If you really die like this, I swear, even if you do. After hell, you should never want to see your brothers and friends, your senior sister, and even your Amelia and your Han Nian!” Lu Ruoxin suddenly shouted coldly.

After Lu Ruoxin finished speaking, his cold eyes stared at George, but as soon as he turned his head, he was stunned...

Chapter 2298

George stood beside her with a cold face, staring at her with eyes like a god of death.

“You!” Lu Ruoxin obviously didn't expect that while she was talking seriously, George beside her opened her eyes for unknown reasons, and even stood up, staring at her like a god of death: “When will you wake up? Yes?”

“I have been awake since you said the first sentence.” George's eyes were full of anger, and the cold breath even solidified the surrounding air.

“The mysterious person who attacked Zhu's family in Flint City and snatched Amelia and others from their hands is you, right?” George drank coldly.

Lu Ruoxin froze for a moment, but did not panic at all, and slowly stood up: “Yes, you are right, that person is me.”

“You arrested Amelia and the others!” George said coldly. Anti-Buddha in those eyes will eat people.

Those who move Amelia, even if it is the king of heaven, George will never treat him in the slightest.

“What if I caught her?” Seeing that George knew the truth, Lu Ruoxin made no secret of it, and the whole body returned to the coldness of the past, and an invisible killing hit George directly.

George clenched his teeth, angered from his heart, and suddenly clenched his fists.

Lu Ruoxin sneered, not afraid, and drank coldly: “Sure enough, you will turn your face with me for that b!tch, but, George, you try to move me?”

“Are you qualified to get angry with me? Amelia The matter is nothing more than my small punishment and great admonition to you. If I am not satisfied, she will die at any time.”

Hearing this, George couldn’t help but stunned. “What do you mean?”

“Humph.” Lu Ruoxin smiled disdainfully: “Is it weird?”

“I arranged the entire plan, including telling Amelia’s whereabouts to the medicine god pavilion and the immortal sea area. It is also me.” Laughed.

“Mingyu is your spy.” George said coldly.

“Of course, otherwise when the Voidzong tens of thousands of people besieged you, did you really think that it happened to be here to help you?” Lu Ruoxin said coldly, “After you got rid of the cicada from Wang Suzhi, I guessed that you weren’t that way. It’s easy to die, so I kept making Chi Meng pay attention to the situation of the rivers and lakes. It really did not come as I expected.”

“When you develop in secret, I not only let Chi Meng spread the news to tell you that the Twelfth Dao people are safe, but also give you peace of mind. I have also done a lot of things secretly for you. When necessary, I am always ready to help you. How about it, George. Although I regard you as my dog, I still treat you as if I don’t take care of you. Right?”

“However, you are very satisfied with me. You have fought back again and again, and even the Yaoshen Pavilion has no power to fight. However, the dog is always a dog, and my master still has to beat you when necessary. , Let you know who you are.”

“The thing about Amelia is my voice to warn you, let you understand that even if your George is strong, in front of my Lu Ruoxin, it is just an ant that can be pinched to death. , Don’t be as disobedient as you were at the top of Qishan.” Lu Ruoxin sneered.

George understood, so she deliberately sent a spy named Mingyu, and when necessary, she suddenly attacked herself. However, this woman is really brilliant.

He told the news to the Medicine God Pavilion and the Immortal Sea, but what he got was that he didn’t need to use the slightest hand to teach George.

Such an arrangement, even George, had to admit that it was very clever.

The most important point is that this matter can also successfully make George look for Amelia and launch a counterattack against Yaoshen Pavilion and the Immortal Sea, which also invisibly weakens the opponent's strength. In a disguised form, George can do it for the top of the blue mountain. One thing.

Such a plan is not vicious.

"Are you kidding me?" George said coldly.

"What about you? Amelia, Han Nian, and all your friends are in my hands, George, do you have a choice?" Lu Ruoxin smiled coldly, and then said leisurely: "Originally, I was watching you. While getting along well with me during this period of time, I wanted to reward you and promised you to let go, but unfortunately, George, you made the wrong choice."

"Remember the question I asked you on Sleepy Fairy Valley?"

"On one side are Amelia and Han Nian, while on the other are Dao Twelve and Mo Yang, so I asked you two questions, but it was a pity that you told me. Faced with a threat, it is necessary to eliminate it. For me, Amelia is the threat of robbing you with me. When you answered the second question, you also affirmed this answer, remember?"

Hearing these words. Looking at Lu Ruoxin's cold ridicule, George recalled the scene of the day, and instantly understood the true meaning of her two questions in the original trapped fairy valley.

This b!tch woman, from beginning to end, is playing aloof herself, and even forcing herself to give up the choice of rescuing Amelia!

Thinking of this, George was furious, his body suddenly black, anger appeared in his eyes, George was angry... and, unreasonably angry.

"Sorry!" In the body, the soul of the dragon also felt the abnormality of George's mind, and suddenly couldn't help but wake up from his dream!
