

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2343 - 2346

Chapter 2343

boom!

The explosions continued, and the screams in the Blue Mountain Peak camp continued. Although Lu Wushen quickly caught up to stop George, it was obviously too late.

The most important thing is that when George's figure transformed into Eight Dao, Lu Wushen's single-handedness made it extremely difficult.

After several consecutive shocks, the top of the Blue Mountain was turned over by George's people.

But the big family is always a big family. It is definitely not a coalition army formed under the chaos of the Medicine God Pavilion. They will be defeated under fear, but the Blue Mountain Peak will not.

Soon, under the command of Lu Ruoxuan, this group of people stabilized the situation and showed a tendency to encircle. With Lu Wushen as the core, they besieged George in the opposite direction.

The two sides are fighting endlessly.

Ao Shane's face was cold, with fierce anger in his eyes, he was weighing whether to advance or retreat.

From the point of interest, he naturally wished that George would fight to the top of the Blue Mountain to kill you, and then he could take advantage of it. However, in terms of dignity, he couldn't bear it.

At this moment, Wang Slow walked over slowly, and said softly: "Old Ao, should we also take action?"

Ao Shane's expression was slightly stunned and did not speak.

Upon seeing this, Wang Changzhi continued to speak: "George is really too much. I just ignore you again and again, but it hurts and humiliates you. Just now, he directly and unceremoniously attacked you. We can't swallow this breath. Ah."

"Yeah, grandpa, our faces in the eternal waters are almost lost. If we don't find a spot... how can we convince the public."

Ao Shane frowned and looked back, only to see the soldiers behind him. All were dejected and listless.

“Also, although I don’t know what George is asking Lu Ruoxin for, it can be heard that George is threatening Lu Ruoxin. I’m afraid that if the Blue Mountain top fails and I simply succumb to George, then... ..”

hiss!

Hearing this, Aoshi suddenly took a breath.

Yes, I underestimated the power of George before, and I always felt that he could not be wooed by Lu Wushen, but now I think carefully, what would happen if George had superior abilities and included the Blue Mountain Peak?

“Old Ao, don’t hesitate. George has been asking Lu Ruoxin if he should not. If Lu Ruoxin should not, George will attack. What if he does?” It can be said that Ao Shane’s heart is not mentioned.

This is the case. Even though Wang Changzhi’s understanding is contrary to the facts, from the perspective of others, this is indeed a huge signal and crisis.

Especially for Ao Shane, it is more important.

With the new enemy and the crisis, Ao Shane’s heart slammed: “Notify everyone, prepare to fight!”

“Yes!” Wang Shuzhizang quietly stepped back, suppressing his joy in his heart.

He did this, naturally, not for the consideration of immortal seas, but more for himself.

George is so strong, with his own feast, once this guy pulls out his hand, his fate will definitely be the same as Ye Gucheng’s, this is almost no need to think about it.

Moreover, he would die earlier than Ye Gucheng.

At the moment, encircling George is naturally the best choice, and it is imperative to eliminate this hidden danger.

“Ignorant child, the old man thinks that you are quite talented, and he loves his talents, so that he can let you in every way, but you are arrogant and ignorant, trying to trample on the dignity of my eternal sea. I really can’t tolerate you, the eternal sea. The generals listen to the order!”

“Yes!”

Behind them, the generals of the Immortal Sea responded in unison, majestic.

“Follow me to strike out and destroy that rebellious son.”

“Yes!”

As soon as the voice fell, Ao Shane waved his big hand, and for a moment, the Yaoshen Pavilion and the tens of thousands of troops in the immortal sea, like a vast flood, rushed to the top of the blue mountain and George who were fighting fiercely.

“Brother Lu, I’ll help you!”

Although it was out of his own consideration, Ao Shane still did not forget to be a bltch and stand up at this time!

With the addition of Ao Shane, the whole battle was suddenly reversed.

That day, the siege of the dragon mountain demon dragon suddenly reappeared on George.

Although George was fierce, facing the crazy siege of nearly 100,000 troops, there was the combined force of the two true gods, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane. Flanking, it is really exhausted.

Not to mention grabbing Lu Ruoxin, even if you look at it, you can’t see exactly where Lu Ruoxin is.

“Fighting hard with them won’t have any advantage!” George’s eyes were faint, and the eight real bodies were golden.

Breaking out and finding Lu Ruoxin is the best and only choice.

“Come on!” George roared angrily, and the eight golden gods turned into eight lights and shadows, and they turned into cyan lights and shadows in their hands with the Pangu axe. Wherever they went, the sword broke and the shield was shattered, and a sigh of relief.

It’s just that the human wall is too thick. George’s Pangu axe cut people like mud, and he still couldn’t break through the seemingly innumerable layers of human walls. When George settled down, hundreds of swords and guns were directly inserted horizontally. come.

George retreated abruptly, and there was a lot of blood on his body because of the knife and gun. However, there was no fear or fear on George’s face, only a playful smile and bloodthirsty eyes. .

“I want you to feel Shura hell in advance before you die.” As soon as the voice fell, George suddenly shot from all directions!

Chapter 2344

Boom!

Eight lights and shadows, like eight bombs, exploded wherever they went.

The dust was gone, and the crowd slashed with swords and swords.

Suddenly, the eight lights and shadows retracted again, gathered in one place, and attacked again!

Retreat again!

Attack again!

The eight attacking shadows are indestructible, and they continue to bomb the surrounding area.

Lu Wushen and Ao Shane incarnate as two streams of light, constantly attacking George separately from both sides.

With the previous experience and lessons, the two of them did not dare to be big, and they almost used all their strength to fight George. However, because they were too careful, the two of them almost did not fully compete with Han from beginning to end. Three thousand head-to-head.

It is nothing more than using the involvement of the disciples under his sect to continuously attack George from the side.

Facts have proved that this method is extremely effective. Although George has eight avatars, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane can defend the two. At the same time, there are countless disciples who defend George's every attack and launch a counterattack. Even if the eight avatars share the same hatred with each other and share the damage, they can't stand George's constant offensive and constant counterattacks.

With the passage of time, although George was brave and unstoppable, where did the eight figures explode, even Lu Wushen and Ao Shane could hardly hold him.

But the real problem is also that the Shuangda True Gods are extremely difficult to deal with. Although they can't stop George, but on the other hand, George can't get rid of the stalking of the Shuangda True Gods. Although the true power is large, the loss is also extremely high. Great.

Coupled with the wear and tear of the hundreds of thousands of elite soldiers, George became exhausted over time.

Although the eight real bodies can indeed withstand a lot of damage, in turn, the energy consumed by the eight real bodies is doubled as much as possible.

But compared to this, there is an even worse situation.

The masters of the top of the Blue Mountain, the Immortal Sea, and the Medicine God Pavilion also joined the fight.

This group of masters, represented by Xian Lingshi Tai and others, can reach the Kongtong realm at the worst level, and the evil realm occupies a large number, and there are many masters of the Eight Desolation level in the faint.

Maybe these people are just rubbish in George, but if there are too many ants, they can still kill elephants.

What's more, these people are much better than ants.

Like wild dogs, sneaking on a lion, although no one dared to approach George, they could always rely on the number of advantages to continuously attack when George was not paying attention.

George was attacked by the enemy, but there was really no way to open up all these flies. After all, these are masters. Wanting to win in a short time is equivalent to dreaming!

However, relying on the blood of the dragon in his body, George's eyes were red, and he gritted his teeth still insisting.

Roar!

Explosion!

One after another!

Screams!

Tearing roar!

Unstoppable.

It was a sleepy valley of green land, but it abruptly became a world of fire.

Heaven and earth burn!

boom! !

Once again, while George impatiently opened up the many masters behind him, and when he was a clone, Lu Wushen and Ao Shane, who had been entangled with the other two clones, immediately seized the opportunity and went on the backhand. Dao Shenmang directly hit George on the back.

Even with the Sky-Splitting Xuanwu Body Protector, it is obviously not effective against the true god's absolute divine power.

If George hadn't had the indestructible profound armor protection and the share of damage from the same enemy, I'm afraid he would have to vomit blood and die on the spot.

"Despicable!" George spit out the blood in his mouth, paused the offensive, barely stabilized his figure, and could not help but curse coldly.

The three strongest families in the dignified and dignified world, the so-called three true god families, are all sorts of encirclement and fight against George, which is shameless!

The absolute divine power of the true god is indeed well-deserved. Even with so much resistance, George still felt that the divine light penetrated his body directly, causing severe damage to his meridians.

However, the Five Elements God Stone was hiding beside George's body, exuding a faint light, quickly repairing the wounds that George suffered from being attacked by masters such as Wang Xiaozhi and the spiritual master.

brush!

"Huh, the evil spirit is the demon way, everyone gets it and punishes it. My generation is the way of life under the world. If you are a scum, naturally people in the world want to eliminate harm for the people. You are less bloody." The siege is just fine. , But this group of people still does not forget to set up an archway for themselves.

Where are the generals!" "Yes!"

"Follow me to charge into the battle, kill the demons and kill the demons!"

"Yes!" The

shout was loud, but it was clearly because he was afraid of George, fearing that one person would be forced by George. Staring, but for these people who are used to flagging themselves, they find an excuse but they are familiar with it.

As everyone responded, the so-called righteous way, the so-called three big families, once again collectively attacked George.

“Although George is fierce, but he can’t stand so many people doing it.”

“Don’t say George, even Lu Wushen and Ao Shane, if they face so many people and so many masters, it will be equally difficult. . George is really enough to do this. “

Boom! !

The sky was shaking again, and the ground was already scorched. The figure of George was still like eight tigers, rushing across the camp of nearly 100,000 people, unstoppable.

Hundreds of masters united with the two true gods, and they continued to separate and attack George’s true body.

“Pangu Axe Formation!”

shouted angrily, once again tens of thousands of black axes gathered in the sky. Compared with the previous ones, the axe was more powerful.

“Broken!”

Wan Axe fell in unison.

“Joint resistance!” Wang Suzhi roared, and immediately led his subordinates to emit magic powers, and directly placed the golden light iron cover in the middle of the space.

“Brother Lu, you come to help, I’ll entangle him.” Ao Shane shouted, seizing the opportunity, waited for George to charge, and attacked suddenly.

George had the Pangu axe in his hand, and no one dared to avoid its sharp edge. Ao Shane could only take this form.

Lu Wushen squeezed his hands, and a divine energy hit directly under the golden light iron cover in the air. After a while, the attack of the ten thousand axe was directly resisted by Dashu.

Stabilizing the Pangu Axe Formation, a group of masters suddenly became extremely excited, and directly attacked George.

“Papa Papa!”

Between George’s backhands, two masters in the early stage of the evil spirits died directly under George’s Pan Gu axe.

But almost at this moment, Ao Shane, who had been secretly looking for opportunities behind him, seized this rare gap and suddenly slapped it directly with a palm.

That palm almost possessed the power of Ao Shane's strongest true god, and it contained a very vicious killing breath. If it was hit by a zhang, the consequences would not be considered.

At this time, the sleepy fairy valley center.

When Fu Mang and the others saw the flames blasting into the sky and the sky and the earth were changing, the group of people would have been dumbfounded. They hadn't noticed a certain place at all. At this time, a surprising change was happening.

Chapter 2345

The most central area of Sleepy Immortal Valley is hidden in the chaotic grass, chaotic and unexplored, it is extremely difficult to find.

Above it, there are turbulent grasses, piles of rocks, and some vegetation has even dried up due to lack of water. It is the most desolate place in the whole green and trapped fairy valley.

It's just that it is in a small area and relatively hidden. It looks more like a messy corner.

But it is such an inconspicuous place, at this time, it is already quietly undergoing tremendous changes.

In the area centered on it, those withered and dead vegetation suddenly bloomed with vitality, one by one not only rejuvenated, but also quickly stood upright and lined up side by side.

The flowers and trees around it were withering and dying at the same speed, and spreading towards the periphery little by little.

Fu Mang's gang were all stupid at the same place, raising their heads like fools to look at the periphery of the sleepy fairy valley.

"Damn, what happened there? Hasn't the Dragon Mountain been finished? How could it be like this?" Fu Mang asked inexplicably.

"Huh, how many of those self-proclaimed righteous people are not dressed-up beasts? Obviously, those people must have taken down the Dragon Mountain, but they fought because of the uneven distribution of the spoils." The poetry said with disdain.

Fu Li nodded, this situation is indeed the most likely to occur.

"If there is an infighting, then it is obvious that their true gods have also joined them. Although the sky has been torn apart for four days after the explosion, some of the auras are so strong that they are not like ordinary masters can release." Bai Xiaosheng frowned and said.

“Look at this breath, the pressure is extremely strong, even if we are here, we can feel its aura, it should indeed be the power that the true god can release. Poetry guess, it seems to be correct, these guys should be dogs biting dogs. Now.” Fuli said softly.

“Haha, if the dog bites the dog, it is simply wonderful, we should cheer them up.” Hearing this explanation, Fu Mang was overjoyed.

“Although you are all right, have you ever noticed that there are not only two extremely powerful divine powers, but...three.” After many days, Linlong, who had finally recovered, wrinkled at this time. Raised his brows and said softly.

As soon as Linlong reminded, everyone noticed that among the two divine powers, there is actually one energy that is also extremely strong, but it is wrapped in gold in black, making it look inconspicuous, even on the side of the explosion. Sometimes it seems very difficult to find.

“This energy is...Could it be that the people in the magic way have also come?”

“When did the people in the magic way have such a strong master?” A group of people looked at each other. If the magic way has such a master, then it is obvious that the magic way The day of a comeback will not be long.

Maybe in the past, Fu Mang and Jianghu Baixiaosheng would sneer at the people of the magic way, but now, they won't!

Anyone who can kill the Medicine God Pavilion and the Immortal Sea is their friend!

“The magic dragon in the trapped dragon mountain is indeed very capable, and it is even more shackled by the gods. If you can kill the dragon, you will surely get a lot of treasures. This time, the three major families and many heroes of the rivers and lakes are all It's totally reasonable to make a special trip, the people of the magic way are ready to move, and it is completely reasonable.” Fu Li said softly.

“It's just a little strange that, based on my understanding of the people in the magic way, they would never act so high-profile.” Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng frowned.

“That's right, the people of the Demon Race are extremely oppressed. There are so many righteous and famous doors in the Dragon Mountain. If I were them, even if I were very interested in the treasures here, I was definitely lying in ambush. Waiting for the opportunity to proceed. Sneak attack alone.” Fuli agreed with Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng's opinion, and said softly.

“But that extremely strong energy is indeed the power of the devil. Perhaps the demon clan has become a master and has aspirations.” Fu Mang said.

How did Fu Mang and the others know that this evil spirit was not from any other demon clan at all, but the George they had been thinking about.

“Then what do we do now? There is no trace of the leader’s wife...” Shane Yu said helplessly.

Fu Mang raised his eyes to Bai Xiaosheng in Jianghu, waiting for Bai Xiaosheng’s answer.

Bai Xiaosheng murmured and didn’t know what to do for a while.

He really wanted to go over and watch the excitement. At least he could see the people in Yaoshen Pavilion and Immortal Seas being killed. But he is also well aware of the dangers of the past. The most important thing is that even though he has searched the sleepy fairy valley and there is no trace of Amelia, he does not want to give up this little hope.

However, just as Baixiaosheng hesitated in the rivers and lakes and lowered his head in depressed contemplation, the whole person could not help but frowned:
“You...this...this foot, you...”

The green grass below the foot, this At that time, before not knowing it, all had withered, revealing the black and red ground like scorched earth hidden under the grass.

Chapter 2346

Upon hearing Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng’s words, and seeing Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng’s shocked expression, a group of people immediately looked down.

It doesn’t matter if you don’t look at it.

“This... how can this be like this? Just now, wasn’t it good just now?” In shock, Fu Mang drew his knife and looked around vigilantly.

The sudden change made him have to be careful of the embankment.

But how can there be anyone around?

“Deputy leader, look over there!” A disciple shouted in surprise.

Jianghu Baixiaosheng immediately led everyone to look in his direction, and saw that the surrounding land was indistinguishable from underfoot. At the same time, the green grass on the periphery was withering and spreading further outside.

“What the hell is going on?”

“How could this happen?”

“Look!” The center of the rebirth of the dead grass, the center of the rebirth of the dead grass, couldn’t help but wonder.

Other places have begun to wither, but only there is life, and even some flowers are growing slowly and then slowly blooming.

“It’s strange, what’s going on there?” Fu Mang was very depressed, but at the same time extremely nervous: “It is withering everywhere, but the longer it is, the more vigorous it is. What is going on there? “

Could it be that it can’t absorb all the surrounding nutrients?” Jianghu Baixiaosheng said.

“If this is the case, then there must be some secret there, let’s go and see?” After a group of people looked at each other, they nodded to each other, and then, several people went back and forth, one by one towards the center. Take it away.

That place is not big, at best it is the size of a wooden table. However, the plants grow extremely fast in a moment. Only a few people cautiously cut their bodies in the past ten seconds, and those plants have gone from Qi’s calf grows to the height of a person.

The flowers in the grass have already bloomed. Not only are they gorgeous and surpassing ordinary flowers, there is also a peculiar fragrance that pours into the nose, and the smell is refreshing, and the fragrance is fascinating.

“It smells so good.” Shane Yu couldn’t help sighing.

Poetry has never smelled such a fragrance since she was a child, even when she was in Baguo Palace, the master once gave her some top spices.

But compared with the fragrance of this flower, those spices are simply too far apart. If this flower is a perfume, then the top perfumes that usually look very high-end and atmospheric are like inferior perfumes, not at the same level.

A drunk person, a smelly but smelly person, decided against him.

“Be careful, don’t smell it, it may be poisonous.” Compared with simple poetry, Bai Xiaosheng in Jianghu is much more alert. He has experienced severe beatings in the society, and he naturally knows and understands how important it is to be cautious when running outside Things.

Hearing poisonous, Shane Yu hurriedly covered his nose with his hands.

But when everyone came here carefully and cautiously, they gradually discovered that their worries seemed to be redundant. Not only were these floral fragrances not poisonous, but together with the tall grass, there was absolutely nothing strange.

Except that they grow fast enough and grow tall enough.

When it was determined that it was okay, Jianghu Baixiaosheng and Fumang and the others became more courageous. They simply walked directly into the Qirengao grass and searched around, and even the courageous directly dug some soil here and did it outside Compared.

But what is incredible is that no matter where it is, there is actually no difference. You can even pat your chest and say that it is exactly the same.

This is strange, the soil is the same soil, and the place is the same place, but why is the vegetation withered outside, but the longer it grows, the more vigorous it is here? !

“It’s simply the magic of the deserted world, can we also meet this situation?”

“It is indeed the wonder of the world. If I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes, I would not believe that there are such wonders in the world.”

“Indeed. It’s wonderful. What’s even better is that it happened right in front of our eyes. We tossed around, but we still didn’t know what was going on here, let alone what caused it.” Fu Li was both amused and angry. The way.

But just as they were smiling, the signs of withering had spread and spread to the outside at a faster speed.

In just a moment, the green world of Sleepy Fairy Valley was completely deserted from the center to the half circle. Although the remaining outer circle was still green, but at the current rate of diffusion, it would be completely swallowed in a short time. Drop.

What’s more complicated than this situation is that at this moment, Fu Mang and others felt that the ground under their feet was shaking suddenly, like a strong earthquake preventing the Buddha, the shaking people were dizzy, and they clearly felt a little unstable.

“Damn, what’s the matter?”

Fu Mang and the others in the center were shocked, and George, who was still in the outer circle, was fighting more and more fiercely at this time, and did not notice at all. The withered state has become more and more intense. Coming closer and closer to them, even as long as everyone looks in the direction a little bit, they can find...
