

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2870 - 2871

Chapter 2870

, in the midst of the violent shaking, the two almost fell to the ground, but through the window they vaguely saw a behemoth popping out of the ground and attacking.

Although the window is too small to see how big it is, according to the speed at which it rises and jumps, and the time it takes to pass by the window, it can be clearly guessed that the size of this guy is even compared to the entire huge flower boat. Not weak at all.

Now, let alone Amelia Su, Qin Shuang couldn't help but feel surprised.

“Senior Sister Qin Shuang, I don't have time to explain to you. You hurried to help George Han. No matter what Amelia Su and him, Amelia Su's wish is that he can be happy. If George Han has any accident, Amelia Su will also

She will never stay alive.” Amelia Su yelled anxiously, while trying to push Qin Shuang out of the house, asking her to quickly help George Han.

Qin Shuang pushed Amelia Su away and put his arms around her shoulders tightly: “You calm down.”

After saying that, after Amelia Su's mood stabilized, Qin Shuang said seriously, “You have this kind of thought. What about the three thousand?”

“If something happens to you, do you think George Han can survive?”

“Do you know that, let alone you die, it's just the time when you were missing, you know How did he come here?”

“The desperate bloodbath of Flint City, one person against the three forces of Immortal Seas and Fujia, even if he is doubled by hundreds of thousands of people, he has no fear, just to help you Revenge, just to inquire about your whereabouts!”

“You also know that George Han's soul was destroyed in that battle. If it weren't for the help of an expert, Amelia Su, George Han would have already died!”

Qin Shuang said coldly. Swearing, the tears in his eyes kept falling unconsciously.

“died!”

Amelia Su stared at Qin Shuang in a daze. It was as if she had been in that majestic scene and saw the George Han who was besieged by hundreds of thousands of people.

“Even if he comes to this desert land, he is doing it for you. He follows Lu Ruoxin’s arrangement to go to the far north and goes deep into the magic cave. He doesn’t even want his life for you. What do you want me to say?”

“Amelia Su , I envy you, I envy you for having all the love of George Han, no other love, why? Why do you still have trouble with him?” Qin Shuang tears like rain, almost shouting at Amelia Su, she wants to wake Amelia Su, although the relationship between Amelia Su and George Han is better, the more representative Qin Shuang is, the less likely it is to have a relationship with Han. Three thousand together.

But she didn’t want George Han to lose his soul, she just wanted to see George Han happy, so even if she never had a chance, Qin Shuang still had no regrets!

Amelia Su also burst into tears, sobbing all over her body.

When she heard what George Han had done for her, how could she not be moved?

“There are so many things you don’t know.” Qin Shuang sighed helplessly.

“This time I went to the Demon Clan. In fact, not only three thousand people, including us who followed him, actually understand in my heart that there are almost nine deaths, but it is difficult to have a life.”

“Especially me, I know that three thousand people are now even Pangu axe. It’s useless. If I go, it’s even more...”

“But I still choose to go with him and entrust this life to him, not only because I like him, but also not only because I feel guilty for you, but also because ...”

Speaking of this, Qin Shuang looked at Amelia Su seriously with a pair of eyes:

“Because what I want to see is that you two will go on forever.” Go on lovingly for the rest of your life

Amelia Su staggered suddenly, she stared at Qin Shuang in a daze. She never thought that Qin Shuang would forget her life for herself and George Han.

Shocked, moved, but also warm!

All kinds of emotions smashed into her heart for a while, she couldn’t help it anymore, and threw herself into Qin Shuang’s arms, crying bitterly.

And at this time, George Han, who was on the top of the ship, was holding the Skyfire Moon Wheel, and the jade sword gently surrounded him. Almost when the behemoth suddenly rushed up, the whole person subconsciously regressed slightly!

boom!

The monster soared into the sky, with rolling yellow sand, and suddenly pounced on the dock, causing the entire dock to sink instantly, while George Han's brows were tightly locked, staring at the giant in front of him...

chapter 2871

What kind of monster is this? !

It is more than ten meters long and several meters wide, like a giant centipede, with hundreds of thousands of feet on its body are long swords like wind.

The head, like iron armor, has two large jaws. Even if there is no moon tonight, the cold light on his teeth can still be seen.

It looked at George Han with a stern eye. Although the eyes on both sides of the head were extremely small, the mouth of the blood basin under the jaws was already telling that it was not good!

“Roar!”

“Hum!”

Almost at the same time, along with its roar of anger, the joints of the whole body made an unpleasant sound, but the huge body directly rushed towards George Han.

George Han ducked sideways one by one, the sky fire moon wheel instantly turned on the two blades of the jade sword, as George Han took advantage of the situation, the sky fire moon wheel also carried the fire and electricity of the thunder power, and coordinated with the jade sword. Smashed the head of this giant worm fiercely.

boom!

With a loud noise, with George Han's power, the jade sword smashed the armor on the giant insect's head for a while, but the armor on the giant insect's outer surface seemed to be extremely hard, not only without the slightest pain. Reflecting, on the contrary, while roaring, he turned slightly to the side, and the feet under his feet directly pierced George Han.

It was naturally impossible for George Han to be stabbed. As he retreated, the worm's feet directly smashed the thick railing of about tens of centimeters in diameter on the ship.

Immediately afterwards, the Thousand-legged Worm rushed towards George Han again.

George Han gritted his teeth, he was not afraid of this millipede, but the problem was that this guy was also extremely destructive, and if he continued to fight him like this, the entire top of the flower boat would have to be destroyed by it.

However, this guy was in armor, even if he even went down with his sword, his mouth was numb, but this guy was not hurt at all.

You know, how terrifying is George Han's power? !

"However, even if you are a piece of iron, I will definitely turn you into molten iron."

"Sixty-two swordsmanship!" As soon as the voice fell, George Han transformed himself into a body, holding a jade sword, and he was extremely strange. Attacked the past. George Han Taixu Shen step plus 72-way swordsmanship, let alone a relatively slow-moving monster, even facing the true god of the eight directions world, George Han's offensive is absolutely outstanding. Don't suffer.

This strange insect is also very strange, and the armor is even more indestructible. Although it was messy and disorderly in the duel with George Han, it actually carried it abruptly.

With a soft drink, George Han had already cut hundreds of swords on the monster in a row, and the mouth of the tiger holding the sword in his right hand was already slightly numb.

However, even though the worm was not injured, it was still very annoyed by the constant attack of George Han but the failure to beat George Han.

Seeing George Han drew away with a sword and "escaped" directly, how could the monster let him go so hastily? With a cold roar, the monster directly chased George Han away.

When one person and one monster fell to the ground, Huazhou continued to drive slowly forward. After a few rounds, dust and smoke billowed on the ground. George Han stood slightly from the dust and looked at the monster that was hundreds or thousands of times bigger than himself. , Smiled softly.

Still succeeded in bringing this guy out.

This is a good thing!

"Little centipede, I think you are not easy to practice. If you retreat obediently, I won't find you for the loss of Huazhou, but if you don't listen..." There was a ruthlessness in George Han's eyes, and the sky fire moon wheel suddenly attached to the jade. Above the sword, the red and blue light trembled slightly, ready to go.

However, although the words were directed at the centipede, George Han's eyes kept rolling around.

Obviously, the sudden appearance of such an invulnerable monster in the desert is obviously not as simple as luck.

Soon, George Han took a sneer from the corner of his mouth: "Come out."

"The temperature in this desert world is quite hot. It must be even more uncomfortable in this sand? Anyway, I feel sweaty when I stand here." As soon as the voice fell, George Han was hundreds of meters around his body and suddenly exploded several times. , Dozens of people in black suddenly jumped out.

George Han smiled coldly...
