Chapter 2978

The

Evil Gourmet looked away from George Han's opinion, but was seeing George Han's drooping feet riding on his back.

The feet stretched straight, which was not a normal riding state at all, and then raised his eyes. At this time, George Han, who was riding on it, was already sitting stiff on its back, his eyes widened, as if he didn't even blink. .

"Roar!" With a low roar, the evil glutton seemed to call George Han.

But at this time, George Han stood there motionless, and he didn't hear anything. If it weren't for his slightly opened mouth and eyeballs moving, I'm afraid to say that he is a dead person, and he would not do anything. pass.

Looking at a bunch of eye wolves that are getting closer, and then at the huge and incomparable food, for the evil glutton, it is not in a hurry.

Food means too much for the gluttony of evil.

"Roar!"

However, he was still unwilling to roar, holding George Han, turned around and rushed towards the distant sky, disappearing into the boundless night.

And at some end of the night.

In the ash forest of Black Mountain, there are dozens of tent piles scattered on this land.

They are divided into several piles, and each pile consists of about ten tents, scattered everywhere, and there are bigger tents, more tents in the center, forming a tendency of stars arching over the moon.

In front of the tent of the central tent, there were a few fire racks. On the racks, there were black-roasted animals and some things that looked like human beings.

If someone passes by here, you will suddenly find that although the black animal has been tested, its green eyes have fully explained its identity.

And the humanoid monster on the fire shelf opposite it was huge, and the unscorched parts were faintly visible with ruffled skin, and the color was reddish. It was the gorefiend who often worked with hanging-eyed wolves.

Who would have thought that in the land of the demon race, these things that almost make many people afraid of the wind, everyone avoids them, but here, they completely subvert the public's cognition. They are not only such fierce beasts. Instead, it has become the food of others.

Inside the tent, the lights were shining slightly, and at this time a few cheers sounded indifferently.

In the shadows, four or five people with a height of about two meters, but with strange statures, are pushing cups and changing cups in the house. At this time, a masked man hurriedly arrived, coughed slightly outside the account, and waited quietly.

Soon, the person in the room put down the wine glass and snorted in his nose. The next second, the person quickly got into the tent.

Inside the tent, the low table was not full, but a pot of wine and a large piece of meat. Seeing the man coming in, the people in the room put down their wine glasses and fixed their eyes on him.

This gang of life is back and forth, but the back and the waist are not adjectives, but real.

They are like tigers, even with hair, waists as thick as bears, and their looks are extremely hideous, and their eyes are very human eyes, more like the eyes of some kind of beast.

“What’s the matter?” The man standing in the center, with three colored horizontal stripes on the left and right on his face, with a vicious and ruthless light in his eyes, asked softly.

“Report to the ambassador that something has happened.” The few looked at each other, looked at the man, and waited for his next sentence.

soon as he heard this, the few people who were still calm showed shocked expressions at the same time.

“This Youming City is the largest city nearby, why is it gone?”

“Yes, Youming City has a history of nearly a thousand years, and it has remained untouched for so many years, how can it be now?” The group looked at each other. At this moment, the leading man stood up, frowned and asked, “Then, what about that earthworm?”

“With the destruction of Youming City, they... are destroyed together.”

“Hiss!” Hearing this answer, even the most calm headed man couldn’t help but breathe a breath of air at this time. He knew well about the land worm’s ability. Not only was that guy superior in strength, he was also cunning. Not to mention wanting to kill this guy, even if you want to make money in his hands, it is as difficult as heaven.

This is not only his cognition, but also the various past of Youming City that has been standing for thousands of years.

But at this time, the news that it was killed suddenly came, so why not make a sensation?

“Do you know who did it?” the leading man asked with pressure.

Chapter 2979

The person did not speak, and at this moment, the curtain was pulled open, and a figure slowly walked in... a few people looked around and saw that the figure was covered with green blood, his figure was shaking, and his face was bleak.

“Pei Yuan has seen Elder Elders.” When the man saw the man in charge, he leaned down quickly, endured the severe pain on his body, and said respectfully.

The leading man nodded and raised his hand: “What’s the matter, who killed the worms?”

“Report to the Elder Elders, before dark today, a group of merchants came to the city. Originally, Youming The city has always had the habit of dealing with the human race, which is not a big deal . But unexpectedly, this time, the people in Youming City clashed with the human race .” “There is a young man in the human race that is very powerful, toad and tortoise. People have encountered his poisonous hands one after another. In order to avenge his subordinates, the King of Youming asked him to settle accounts, but he didn’t know... it was not against that person and was given to...”

“Fortunately, when attacking that person, the King of Youming After the fake body was broken, I knew that the situation was not good, so I hurried out, otherwise...” The man in the lead nodded, frowning: “Humans? Merchants?”

“Some of them we know, and have always been with Youming.” The city has some contacts, it is the Su family in the desert land, but that young man...seeing you for the first time.”

“Su family, young man?” The leading man was even more confused.

In particular, a young man could kill the King of Youming, who was the overlord, that is, the worm in his own mouth: “Really?”

The man hurriedly said: “The subordinates will never deceive the Elder Elder.

” Eleven brother, although the King of Youming is nicknamed Earthworm by us, its true strength can’t be overstated. In addition, this old thing is old and cunning, it is really surprising that a young man can deal with him. Very much.”

“Is this Terran really the land of Crouching Tigers, Hidden Dragons? It’s really surprising that a young man in such a small area has such abilities.”

“In the future, the demons want to return to the world, it seems to add another resistance.”

Several people next to each other said one after another. raised his hand and signaled them to stop talking about this kind of ambition and destroying their own prestige. He glanced at the kneeling man on the ground, and said: “This matter, the ancestors can know “

The King of Youming was killed, the gold seed changed hands, and the ancestor and the gold seed have the same root and the same root, so they must know the first time.” The person hurriedly said.

The leading man nodded his head. This is because he was negligent. He glanced at the brothers next to him and said: “Since we already know about this, the ancestor will send someone to inquire soon and immediately notify the other twenty-seven. Wide eyeliner, thorough investigation into the affairs of Youming City, especially the identity of the young man and his current position, understand?”

All of them bowed their heads and said in unison: “Yes!” The words fell, one The helper didn’t dare to delay, so he went out to work in a hurry, and even the guy kneeling on the ground was taken out of the camp by others at this time.

After everyone left, the leading man looked back in a certain direction, frowned for a while, and seemed to be plunged into deep shock and contemplation.

“Human race, young man?”

“Where are you... sacred?”

And in the dark outside night, the streamer passed through, but it was extremely dim and completely hidden in the darkness, so even if there are some fierce beasts in the wilderness The wild bird did not notice its flying.

Its direction is toward a low mountain in the distance, but the mountain is also extremely quiet, only occasionally I hear a few croaks in the eyes.

“Boom!” The

streamer stopped, but George Han fell to the ground by the evil glutton.

However, almost as soon as the person and the beast stopped, there was a slight movement among the rocks in the distance, and then a head slowly came out.

When he saw the evil unicorn, he was startled at first, but when he saw George Han on his back, he was even more stunned, because at this time George Han had changed...
