

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3026 - 3027

Chapter 3026

“Do you have a way to deal with Lan Fu?” Hearing George Han’s words, the pangolin suddenly became energetic and hurriedly looked back.

“Because you are a native of the earth, so even if there are tens of thousands of powers between the earth, you can still be unaffected.”

“Even, they will not cause any trouble or harm to you, but will make you move more. Freedom, you are so, so are earthworms, right?” The pangolin nodded, this is indeed the case.

“That’s right, using one word to summarize your situation is like a fish in the water.”

“So, do you understand?” The pangolin seems to understand it, but it doesn’t seem to be: “You mean...”

“Water So deep, when did you drown a fish? When did the waves of the sea shoot a fish?” George Han chuckled.

The pangolin slapped his head and completely understood what George Han had said. He was immediately overjoyed and said, “You mean, the blue mallard has a lot of water energy, but you don’t want to choose to contend, but to be one of them. Fish!”

George Han nodded, and said, “Yes, that’s the case.”

If you want to fight, you don’t have to go the other way.

“It seems that I still have to rely on you.” George Han took out his Five Elements Divine Stone, and said with a chuckle.

And in the cave at this time, facing George Han who suddenly disappeared in place, Lan Fu stared at the ground, it knew where George Han had gone.

“He thought that only by drawing the wind and using the wind to blow the sand up and show him, in fact, besides saying that others are stupid and less knowledgeable, what else can he say?” Qing Luan laughed coldly.

Lan Fu didn’t speak, and when his figure moved slightly, his wings moved again.

But then, suddenly heard shouting loudly light, back to look up to, that was actually three thousand Han returned to the place: “Do not bother, I own it,”

“I’d nothing to hurt, hurt these waters The flowers and grasses, big fish and small fish, that’s not good.”

“Little man, I’m full of words.” Hearing George Han’s words, Qing Luan gave a cold smile, and then looked at Lan Fu: “Let one The best way for people to shut up is to beat them more.”

“The best way to make a person in awe is to let him know the horror of death.” “I’ve handed it over to you.”

“Om!” There was a huge muffled sound in the entire space, the eardrums that were shaking, the head was dizzy, and even the ground was shaking.

Damn, is this guy really so perverted? Just a whisper at random, as if a special thunder came.

“Come on, it’s better to be harder. They all say that the nine young birds of the Phoenix are extraordinary. I think they are nothing more than that. No wonder the dragon has crushed the Phoenix underneath for thousands of years.” George Hanqiang was shocked in his heart. , Dismissively.

Sure enough, when he heard this, Qing Luan became angry: “Rebel kid, you are full of nonsense, which is really annoying.”

“Lan Fu, you are welcome, give me a severe lesson to this ignorant fellow.”

“Om!”

Lan Fu immediately took his command, and the next second his body suddenly increased in frequency, turning his eyes back to the top of the hole, like a blue cloud walking everywhere.

George Han could obviously feel the pressure in the cave rising crazily. He knew that this guy, like Qingluan, was completely irritated by himself.

“Hehe, I’m just telling the truth. In the world, you have heard of dragon slaying warriors, but have you ever heard of phoenix slaying warriors? Everyone regards slaying dragons as the highest honor, although this is a bit hurtful, oh no It hurts the phoenix, but it is the truth.”

“Asshole thing!” Qing Luan yelled angrily: “Why is the phoenix worse than the dragon? The Dapeng loves to eat dragon meat. How many dragons die in the world? Dragons? What kind of thing!”

“You are only talking about individual cases. With a high probability, the dragon and the phoenix will always be the dragon and the phoenix. The dragon is in the front and the phoenix is behind. You see those statues are also the dragon on the top, you are on the bottom.” George Han still said nothing. Surprisingly dead, continue to talk about it.

“You guys, really damn, you and notes, the Buddha also has fire, blue teal, I take back what I just said, for such outrageous person, not just to the lessons that simple.”

“I want him dead!”

After saying After falling, Lan Fu moved faster at the top of the cave, and the pressure was suddenly so strong that even breathing was extremely difficult, but George Han showed a faint smile just so inadvertently...

Chapter 3027

Om!”

There was a big movement in the water, even the sandy ground began to tremble slightly, and the eardrum was full of humming sounds.

George Han knew that at this moment, this huge Lan Fu was already at the stage of its strongest energy storage. The next blow could almost be imagined with his feet, and it must be overwhelming.

When thinking of this, George Han’s throat was sweet, and the huge pressure directly caused him to sip blood down his mouth.

However, George Han did not have the slightest pain or fear on his face. On the contrary, the whole person was completely in a state of excitement, as if this guy had actually been waiting for this scene for a long time.

“Is it time to come?” George Han smiled faintly, then looked at Lan Fu, and said in a cold voice, “Is this your strongest strength? It’s quite strong, but it was against me last time. From the point of view of the magic dragon, it is indeed not a little bit worse.”

“I’ll just say, the phoenix is the phoenix, and the dragon is the dragon. How can they speak the same day.”

Hearing this, Lan Fu suddenly raised his wings, and suddenly, the water swam. While moving, the previous gravity that can swallow everything strikes again.

“Is it possible? It depends on this time.” George Han gritted his teeth. Although the top of his mouth is full of provocations, George Han is actually more serious than anyone else.

With George Han’s personality, how could he be so sloppy at the present time.

Everything is done for the sake of one game.

Lan Fu is too strong, and he is in the water, completely above his home court, George Han thinks he is not his opponent. Therefore, George Han had a countermeasure against pangolins in the soil.

However, there have been countermeasures in ancient times. One is fictitious and the other is real. The reason why a surprise attack is strange is that it suddenly kills unexpectedly and makes the opponent busy and confused, but if it is the second time, it will be Actual attacks and surprise attacks are not only absent, they may even encounter difficulties.

Therefore, George Han didn't think that he could be under Lan Fu's hands, and he would suffer from it over and over again, so he could only play a trick to surprise him.

This is the root of George Han deliberately irritating them, making them angry, and even showing no mercy to himself for the sake of face. Only in this situation, their attacks will be desperate, and only if they desperate, they will Will not calmly leave behind and not be attacked by myself. Right now, whether this attack can be carried is not only an important part of paralyzing the opponent in this matter, but also the key to all success or failure.

Success or failure in one fell swoop.

Activating all the true energy in the body, directly pouring it into the legs, the whole person straddles, like a squatting Buddha, stuck in place.

No matter how big his wave is, George Han is still steady here.

He didn't have any thoughts, and he was satisfied just standing in place. Therefore, even if Lan Fu creates another big storm, George Han is in a confrontation with him, although he has a slight disadvantage, but at least he has to shake it, like The seaweed generally stabilized the figure.

George Han resisted the embarrassment, gritted his teeth and raised his head with difficulty.

What makes people desperate is that the wave is still there, but what makes him happy is that Lan Mo is already full of wings at this time and is about to pounce.

This means that George Han's persistence has been victorious.

roared angrily, biting his teeth, and even his gums were bleeding from too much force, and the whole mouth was full of fishy smell.

George Han was extremely vicious and painful.

“Come on.” With a cold voice, he slammed into the sky, domineering and invincible.

How could the ants offend the power of the phoenix, Qingluan suddenly looked at Lan Fu, and at this time Lan Fu also let out a loud roar, the next second, with a wave of the big wings, the long wave that was pulled up suddenly took him The general aura of destroying the world is pressing down.

The earth was cracking and dust was everywhere. George Han had hardly any reaction time before he fell heavily on his knees with his legs, and the huge pressure made blood flow like water in his mouth.

“Well... it’s now!” George Han spurted blood, but at this time, he still moved slowly...
