

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3050 - 3051

Chapter 3050

What does this mean? Supplement to the language in the hexagram? !

George Han was completely dumbfounded. First, what was in this hexagram? Second, what was the requirement that the Phoenix clan actually gave themselves the treasures of the earthquake clan one after another?

This is really incredible, but at the same time, I am curious as to what is being said in this hexagram.

“Have you collected everything?” Xia Ran glanced at the two of them.

The two of them looked at the things in their hands and couldn't help nodding their heads.

“Okay, then I officially announce that from today, Phoenix's new patriarch Xia Wei will follow George Han to the death.”

“What?!”

Not to mention George Han and the pangolin, even Xia Wei on the side is also hearing about Xia Wei. After that, he couldn't help being shocked.

“On the way out, Xia Wei, you must remember that everything obeys George Han's words.”

“As for George Han, I have only one sister in my life. Although you don't want to marry her, I don't want to force you, but I hope you I can treat her well.”

“No, wait a minute.” George Han hurriedly said: “You want me to take Xia Wei away? I didn't say...”

“I didn't want you to marry her, I just did. I said, didn't you?” Xia Ran dissatisfied: “Although my Phoenix clan is not so good, at least I belong to the orthodox Phoenix clan. Since we mentioned it and you don't want it, we won't be shamelessly clinging to our faces. I want you to marry.”

“Your walk is only between friends, nothing more. Secondly, this walk is also the language of the hexagram, otherwise, do you think I am willing to let you take my sister?”

“Don't do it yet? Blame me for not reminding you, there is a cloud in the hexagram, if you don't bring it, this time to go to the Demon Race to burn the bones will inevitably pass through the whole body. Not only will you have no bones, but it will even affect your wife and daughter, yes, It's called Amelia Su in the hexagram?"

"Secondly, there is no luck in the seal of the earth in your body. You are alone, but you are looking for death. If Xia Wei is with you, even if you do not do things between men and women, if you encounter danger, her phoenix blood can temporarily suppress you. The seal makes you barely cope with it."

"But remember that you can't just simply intersect like the first time, but you need to absorb a lot, because they can suppress each other. If the Phoenix blood is too little to suppress the seal, it will Just like the first time you fainted, it will only hurt you but not good." "If you feel warm after you absorb it, it will be enough. It doesn't take long, but at least half an hour is okay. With your George Han's ability, half an hour may not be enough to kill Enemy, but enough to escape." After the words fell, the pangolin had reached George Han's ear: "Although you told them that you have a wife and daughter, they don't even know what your wife's name is. The technique should not be false."

George Han nodded, the most important thing is that she can even know the destination of her trip.

Secondly, there is no reason why someone will fake the words of the divination, and then give out a lot of things to cheat themselves, right? !

In the end, it was the look in Xia Ran's eyes, she was indeed full of dismay at Xia Wei's eyes.

Putting everything together, George Han also believed in the words in this hexagram.

Besides, don't you believe it is useful? How could George Han dare to care about Amelia Su and Han Nian's safety? !

Nodded, George Han said, "If it is the meaning in the hexagram, George Han will obey it. Here, Miss Xia Wei, please rest assured that sister Xia Ran, although George Han has no intention of marrying her, he will definitely treat her as My sister generally thinks that unless George Han died, she would never have any accidents."

"That's great. Also, although she is your life-saving charm, it does not mean that you can use it at will. You simply use the phoenix. Although the force to obtain the power of the phoenix can indeed temporarily suppress the seal of the earth in your body, after each use, the seal in your body will develop resistance, which means that the time will be shorter and shorter each time.

" For you, this is a risk, but for my sister, as I said before, the blood that helps you suppress the seal of the earth will cost a lot, and she may not be able to carry it."

Han three thousand points Head: “George Han will naturally do his best to unlock his seal.”

“The Heart Sutra of Earth Fire and the Phoenix Sky Fire Pill will help you in this regard. This is what I said earlier is a supplement for the words in your hexagram.”

George Han knows it, and now he finally understands all this. , It’s just that I’m afraid that all of this will break his head.

“Besides...” Xia Ran suddenly looked at George Han, her eyes were very solemn, as if something important was announced: “Come here, I will tell you alone.”

Chapter 3051

George Han nodded, and then obediently moved to Xia Ran’s side.

But as soon as he approached, suddenly, Xia Ran slapped George Han’s neck with a palm, and then smiled coldly: “This is the phoenix palm, which is effective for everything, Xia Wei, if he treats you in the future If you are not good, or if you are bullying you, you will recite the Phoenix Secret Order, which will definitely make him worse than death.”

“This method is effective regardless of his skill level. Xia Wei, you can remember.”

“You! “George Han was angry. I thought she had any secrets to tell, but who would know that it was this? !

“Sister.” Xia Wei was obviously also quite dissatisfied with this approach, looking at her sister depressed a little.

“Your heart is too kind, and it is difficult to meet good people and bad people. If he bullies you in the future, you will at least have a self-defense technique.” Xia Ran said.

Xia Wei didn’t want to be like this. Just thinking about it, George Han had already put away his short-lived dissatisfaction and anger. He looked at Xia Wei and said, “Your sister is also a sister-in-law, it doesn’t matter. , I can do it, so what if I have this secret palm? You may not have the opportunity to use it.” These words are not only used by George Han to comfort Xia Wei, but in fact, it is also George Han’s words of questioning, Xia Ran and Xia Wei. Generally speaking, the sisters also have a life-saving grace to herself, so George Han will naturally not treat her badly.

Hearing George Han’s words, Xia Ran finally had a faint smile on his face, and beckoned to signal George Han to get closer.

George Han frowned slightly, come back?

Xia Ran smiled slightly: “This time, it’s true.”

George Han glanced at her, and moved his head over.

“In the heart of the Golden Phoenix, there are many secrets of the Phoenix family. If you can crack it, this blood box will definitely be able to be opened. Secondly, the Phoenix Heart Sutra can also be improved. You can try to use the Heart Sutra to practice your fire art at that time. At first glance at Extraordinary Fire, if you can practice with it, you will be more fierce in the future.”

“Also, the power of the phoenix is extremely helpful for opening the heart of the golden phoenix. Originally, if you are combined, this heart can be opened, but in view of how you are now...you can think of other ways.” George Han frowned, other ways?

“Xia Wei is the true daughter of the Phoenix, but the daughter of the Phoenix is so slow to learn something because of the seal of power, it can be said that nothing, but the strength of the seal is the basic strength, so the internal strength is enough. You have chaos in your body. The qi, and the power brought by dragon blood, are catalyzed by the two. In fact, they are the most suitable to pass on her merit. If you can help her cultivate something, it will also help you open the heart of the golden phoenix.”

George Han understood. Nod.

Seeing George Han nodded, Xia Ran sighed: “If you don’t have the seal of the earth, these are actually trivial things. It’s a pity that now you seem to be a mud bodhisattva crossing the river, and you can’t protect yourself. Nothing. You can only do whatever you want.”

“It’s too early. I have opened the door to the outside world for you at the pond in the water. You can leave quickly.”

After speaking, she looked up at Xia Wei on the side: “My sister won’t send you out anymore. It’s better to say goodbye than to be parting.” When the words fell, Xia Ran’s hand moved, and the pangolin and George Han were lifted by a gust of wind. In the next second, the door was pressed tightly, and the three of them also directly flew out.

“Wow!”

Flying across the hall, the seemingly fierce wind suddenly stopped obediently, and slowly sent the three of them to the side of the pool.

In the center of the pool, the illusion of color revolves.

Xia Wei wanted to turn her head, but she heard Xia Ran Kongkong’s voice in the air: “Leave, don’t look back.” The words fell, and another breeze struck, and the three fell into the rotating illusion, and there was no more movement. .

At this time, at the door of the ancestral hall, Xia Ran gently opened the door and looked towards the sky.

Suddenly a spot of light hit the sky suddenly, and it became more and more dazzling, until the entire source of peach faded under the intense light, and finally turned black and white.

“he’s gone?”
