

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3086 - 3087

Chapter 3086

“This is...”

“What’s wrong?”

Pangolin and Xia Wei murmured in surprise, and then they looked at the old man aside.

The old man was also at a loss at this time. He glared at the two of them dejectedly. You guys asked me, who would I ask?

“The things I gave him won’t have such an effect...”

Boom!

Suddenly, the colored golden light on George Han’s body suddenly became bigger, not only directly illuminating the whole room like a golden world, but more importantly, the huge inner strength of this golden light directly knocked the pangolin and Xia Wei on both sides to the ground. , Together with the surrounding objects are all blown flying around, and the old man sitting at the table flying upside down with the table several meters.

When the three of them sat up from the ground in a panic, George Han was already standing directly on the completely collapsed bed, his body shining around, Chiguo’s upper body was like steel and iron bones, and the imprints of Xiaobai and other beasts on his arms were renewed. With radiance, George Han’s tough and handsome face is even more pretentious without anger.

Like a god and Buddha!

Pangolin and Xia Wei were both shocked and extremely surprised. What happened to George Han? !

And almost at this time, along with the loud noise inside the house, a violent impact sounded in time outside the house.

“Bang, bang, bang!” The sound was so loud that it shook people’s eardrums pain in the whole room.

At this time, the old man looked at the door, and suddenly looked panicked: “No, it’s the old lady who came to the door.”

Hearing this, the pangolin and Xia Wei were stunned, and waves of unrest began.

Although George Han woke up and even stood up now, it was too peculiar and unpredictable, but the disgusting old female worm suddenly came, saying that the room leaked even night rain.

“What the hell did this young man do to this old female bug?” The old man glanced at George Han in confusion and confusion.

For many years, how could the old man know the evil of this old mother worm. It’s just that for many years, this old female worm is only looking for food outside, and most of the choices are detours when encountering such a hard house. Even if he snatched the food from its mouth thirteen years ago, it only hovered outside the house for a few days before Yu Yu left. But this time... it’s obviously different.

It even took the initiative to attack this sturdy hut of its own.

“Although this hut is sturdy, it is only relatively speaking. If compared with the old female bug, I...” The old man was deeply worried.

He didn’t know if he could live in this cabin, because he had never encountered such a critical situation.

The pangolin glanced at Xia Wei, and then looked around the room: “The old female worm can dig out several holes in such a big hole.

Obviously it is not a general thing. If he wants to force it, I am afraid I will insist here. It won't be long."

Xia Wei nodded.

"I went out to fight him. He played underground. Isn't Lao Tzu? You take care of George Han." After the pangolin finished speaking, he had to rush out.

But as soon as his foot took a step, he suddenly felt only a moment of light and shadow passing in front of his eyes. When he fixed his eyes, the door had been opened by someone, and the light and shadow rushed out directly.

He subconsciously glanced back slightly, where is George Han on the bed right now? But only a broken bed and a few cloth strips tied to his wound by Xia Wei were messy in the air.

"Damn, George Han..." The pangolin was surprised.

It took a long time for Xia Wei to come back to her senses slowly, but compared to pangolins, she was already considered good, because at this time the old man was in a posture of prohibition on the spot, froze there as if frozen, with big eyes. open eyes.

He...

what did he see just now?

He couldn't help but wiped his old eyes. He really wondered if he had read it wrong just now. He just saw a light and disappeared suddenly.

people.....

Is it possible to reach this speed?

Or is it an ordinary person who had to rely on others to take care of him before flying?

"Boom!"

Almost at the moment when the three of them were stunned, through the small doorway, they saw fire everywhere in the outside space, strange lights flashing wildly, and there was a terrifying popping sound...

The three looked at each other, opened their mouths, and rushed towards the door almost at the same time in the next second...

Chapter 3087

the faces of the three people suddenly became bright and colorful because of the reflection.

In the space, George Han's colored golden light flashed wildly, making fists with both hands, facing the tentacles coming from all directions again, grabbing one in his left hand, and blasting directly with one punch.

Suddenly, the tentacles were slammed directly onto the soil wall, shaking the mountain for a while, and a pit with a depression of nearly half a meter appeared directly where the tentacles were hit.

Back to the hand, the right hand bends, one elbow directly meets the other tentacle, this elbow is pushed, and the tentacle is directly pushed into the earth wall several meters deep.

At almost the same time, four or five tentacles attacked George Han's feet, and one of them directly entangled George Han's right leg.

The three of them were suddenly anxious to exclaim!

George Han had no expression on his face, he directly wrapped his legs around one leg, wound all his tentacles around his feet, and then suddenly lifted it up.

"Puff!"

The tentacles were directly uprooted, and only the end hidden in the soil was spraying sap frantically.

"Is this guy... so fierce?" The pangolin's eyes were straight, and he even vaguely felt that George Han at this time was even more ferocious than his previous heyday.

Not to mention Xia Wei, this is the first time she has seen George Han really show his ability.

Outrageously handsome!

Not only is he handsome, but he is so handsome with every move and every move. If Xia Wei was moved by George Han before, it was more because of his good-looking and elegant style, then now, Xia Wei's heart for George Han was not just a heartbeat, but a young girl was deeply attracted by George Han's domineering and Sui Sui, and was crazy infatuated.

"Damn, is this really the young man just now? Except for the young and the old... the old man doesn't think there is any difference between him and the old man?" The old man on the side was also completely dumbfounded at this time.

Or, is this young man in front of him still a human? Obviously he was dying just now, maybe he died before himself. But in a blink of an eye, it was alive and well, and it was invincible.

"Year... it's nice to be young," the old man murmured.

In the space, several tentacles were chopped down one after another, and the old female worm seemed to be also angry, new hatred and old hatred, instantly igniting anger. Only heard a strange scream in the cave, and in the next second, rustling sounds suddenly came from those caves, without waiting for any reaction from everyone.

Suddenly, countless bloodworms that looked like giant pythons drilled directly from the hole and rushed towards George Han frantically.

Have you ever seen a snake under a fish? I'm afraid this is the scene at this time.

Not to mention the people around, even the three people watching by the side suddenly had scalp tingling.

"Brother George Han, be careful!" Xia Wei yelled anxiously.

Even the pangolin at this time faintly squeezed a sweat for George Han, because not only countless bloodworms came to the sky, but also dozens of tentacles were the last companions in the cave.

How can we not worry about the urgency of this situation?

However, George Han didn't have the slightest fear on his face, he just showed a faint smile.

"Boom!" A

red fire, a purple-blue electric light, suddenly flew out of George Han, and suddenly attacked the blood worms.

Countless bloodworm fires turned into ashes in the fire, or trembled several times in the purple electricity, and finally cavitation. The scene was both tragic and extremely spectacular.

The three of them stared with wide eyes and opened their mouths slightly.

But when the three of them marveled at George Han's epic performance, George Han didn't make any more moves at this time. More than a dozen tentacles stretched out towards George Han quickly as if they were in a no-man's realm.

"What is Brother George Han doing?" Xia Wei was shocked and anxious. She didn't understand why George Han didn't move.

Could it be that the seal of the earth triggered again?

The pangolin also looked blank, wondering what he was going to do.

"Wow!"

Almost the same as before, a dozen tentacles suddenly entangled George Han, trapping him to death.

But what was different from before was this time with George Han, but the corners of his mouth reappeared with a smile that was just now, or to be precise, a sneer.

In the next second, the tentacles used force again, trying to drag George Han into the hole. George Han also moved, and the whole ground was shaking like crazy.

The three of them suddenly understood...

“He... he wants... to... pull out the old female worm?”
