Chapter 3142

“I don’t see any danger.” After flying into the red soil, after several hours, a group of four people gradually relaxed from their initial vigilance, and the surrounding terrain has been ups and downs. , Although there are no mountains, but the hills are continuous like a desert.

But fortunately, everything seemed normal except for the bones along the way.

As soon as the pangolin talked, the old man and Xia Wei didn’t talk to each other, but they almost had this idea in their hearts.

Although they have heard of the viciousness of the red earth, they have never set foot here, and naturally, they have no way of knowing the situation here.

“Don’t be happy so early.” George Han smiled wryly, and then accelerated, rushing to the front faster.

Although they relaxed their vigilance, George Han didn’t have it from beginning to end. His divine consciousness had been all over the surrounding area. Right now, he had detected the situation ahead.

When George Han slowed down again, the three of them were dumbfounded.

“What the hell is this?”

A high wall like the Great Wall lay in front of everyone. The wall was not wide enough to see to the left and right, the wall was high and towering into the clouds, without seeing its top, like a moat, tightly blocking the line. In front of four people.

The exterior of the high wall is like piled up with huge rocks, but there are no gaps between the rocks. It is more like bricks.

At the very center, there is a huge gap, like a city gate.

Intuition tells George Han that this is not simple.

At this moment, Xia Wei shook her finger forward, looking at the gate of the city in panic.

Looking in her direction, I saw about a hundred meters in front of the city gate, a woman crouching disheveled in a corner of a low hill, dragging a large long wooden box next to her. Kneeling there, it seemed a little dying.

“Be careful of fraud.” The old man hurriedly reminded George Han.

George Han nodded, no need to remind the old man, George Han also knew that something was going to happen. After so few hours, let alone people, even a living creature could not even be seen.

It just so happens that when it comes to this kind of bayonet, you see a woman kneeling there. Isn't this bizarre enough?

Where did she come from?

Where are you going again?

George Han smiled slightly and took the three of them directly to the ground.

It's just that George Han didn't fall by her side, but deliberately fell on the path about tens of meters behind her, and then walked slowly in the direction of the city gate.

Along the way, George Han didn't even look at the woman at all, but instead just stared straight ahead.

George Han was like this, and Xia Wei and others naturally followed suit.

Although, the woman looked at them pitifully from beginning to end.

Soon, the group of four people was getting closer and closer to the woman, and the woman's eyes turned more eager and eager when she looked at them. When she was a few meters in front of her, she couldn't help but waved at the four of them. .

However, George Han and the others still ignored them, seeing that the four of them passed directly in front of them and walked all the way forward.

At this time, the woman seemed to have plucked up her courage, exhausted her strength, and called out anxiously: "Several people, help me, help me."

Xia Wei is not deep in her affairs, how can George Han be so steady when she hears a woman calling for help , She hurriedly raised her head to look at George Han: "Brother George Han, she is calling for help."

George Han smiled bitterly. He is not deaf, so how could he not hear what the woman said?

Xia Wei is still too kind.

"Brother George Han, do we really leave her alone?" Seeing George Han not answer, Xia Wei urged.

George Han remained silent, but accelerated his pace. Although Xia Wei was anxious, she had no choice but to follow George Han closely.

Soon, a group of four people went farther and farther.

Seeing this, the woman panicked, ignoring the bloody wounds on her legs, let alone the bruises on her body, and forcibly got up like a desperate, chasing George Han and the others.

However, maybe the injury was too deep, she fell to the ground feebly as soon as she was together, but she still gritted her teeth, crawled forward with difficulty, and even more unwillingly shouted towards the back of the four people. "Please help me, please? I...I can give you these things."

After speaking, she pulled the wooden box behind her with all her strength, and a strange sound came from the wooden box...

Chapter 3143

the voice is very strange.

It looks like some metal is installed, but it doesn't look like it.

It's like pretending to be something both soft and hard, but when you listen carefully, it's not quite the same.

At this time, George Han finally stopped slightly.

“Save me, save me.” The woman saw George Han and the others stop, her eyes suddenly lit up, and she continued impatiently: “Really, as long as the four of you are willing to save me, these things will help me ...I will give it all to you.”

After she finished speaking, she yanked her wooden box vigorously to bring it closer to herself.

George Han smiled softly, but his face returned to calm when he turned around.

Glancing at the woman, she was about twenty-eight or ninety-nine. She was quite mature, and she looked delicate. Although her skin was not fair, her wheat-colored skin gave her a wild and wild beauty.

She was wearing a shirt, but the outside was torn, her arms were completely exposed, and even her shoulders were clearly exposed, making her clothes look like wearing a T-shirt at this time.

The lower abdomen is flat, and there are even some faint muscles, showing a beautiful vest line, and the trousers on the lower body are quite damaged, revealing her well-proportioned and slender legs.

This woman, let alone a place where birds don't shit, even if she is placed in the world of Central Plains with many beauties, she is absolutely symmetrical as a big beauty.

Is there any man who wouldn't be moved by seeing her?

Especially under her rather wild appearance now, she is looking at you with a pitiful look.

I am afraid that most men have fallen on the spot when they see her.

At least, the eyes of the pangolin next to him are straight.

It's just that George Han, who has been accustomed to seeing all kinds of big beauties, is not only not attracted by her at all, but is looking at her more vigilantly.

"Let's talk about it." George Han looked at her, but quietly looked around from the corner of his eye.

"Say..." The woman was taken aback for a moment, but immediately reflected in the next second, saying: "I wanted to spend the red earth together with my brother and a group of friends and go to the central city of the demons to do some business. But I didn't know that soon after I came in, I was suddenly attacked by a group of bad guys."

"The group of people got out of the mud, but my brother and others couldn't respond, and soon suffered heavy casualties."

"Brothers joined forces for my safety. A friend worked hard to take me out of the encirclement, and they..." At this point, the woman burst into tears, apparently recalling the sad past.

"So, I took the things my brother gave me and fled all the way here, but all the way, I was really exhausted, plus the injuries from the previous attack, I..."

"Please, send me a message Mercy, can you help me?" As she said, she hurriedly pulled the box open.

Suddenly, as the box opened, all kinds of shining gold wares dazzlingly attacked, and beside the gold wares, there were also various precious elixirs, rare mountain foods, and the eyes of the people who watched them were on the spot. .

At least the pangolin at this time, if it hadn't been suppressed by George Han with invisible power, I'm afraid it would have already walked over unconsciously.

"As long as you are willing to help me, I will give you these things, okay?"

George Han was about to speak, and the pangolin, who was restricted by invisible power, hurriedly urged: "Damn, promise. Look at the various treasures in that box..."

Before he finished speaking, George Han was already looking at him faintly. The guy immediately didn't dare to continue speaking, so he could only shut his mouth and chose to silence.

However, the urination of this product is obviously not over. Just when George Han turned his head and looked at the woman, he muttered again: "According to me, you are too worried, Lao Han."

"That's just a woman, even if she has some bad thoughts, we can still be afraid that she will not succeed? Humph, then I am afraid that she will not steal the chicken, but the pangolin grandpa will eat her millet..." The pangolin seems to still think of it. What a wonderful thing, an indescribable smile even appeared on his face.

But at this time, George Han suddenly turned around, ignored the woman at all, and headed towards the city gate, leaving only a cold word: "Go!" The three pangolins suddenly became dumb, what do you mean?
