Chapter 3164

a surprised question, for a long time, the dark front seemed to fall into deathly silence.

“How many people are here?” He said coldly and slowly.

“The Lord, there are four people in total.”

“Four people?” He was obviously taken aback when he heard this:
“But as far as I know, there are 24 people in the bear people.”

“The Lord is right. , The bear man occupies the gate of the city and is one of the four evil spirits. According to the agreement, there are twenty-four people including himself. But...”

“Say.”

“Yes.” The black shadow lowered his head: “Twenty-Four People have all sacrificed.”

“All sacrifices?” Hearing this, Ghost Zun was obviously stunned.

The four evils guard at the entrance of the city, and the bear man is obviously one of them, and its strength naturally does not need to be said.

His subordinates are naturally extraordinary. After all, the people of the evil spirits, which one is rubbish?

But it is such a team that has won a hundred battles. Today, it is nothing more than a defeat, and it was directly given a pot.

This is rare in the history of Devil Cloud Ghost City, and it can even be said to be the only huge shame in the four evil spirits.

“Who are they?” Demon Lord asked.

“I’m not a member of the Demon Race. You can’t tell which Demon Man is based on your appearance, but...”

“But what?”

“The Demon Lord, the leader is not the Demon Race, but the Central Plains Human Race.”

“Central Plains Terran “hearing this, a ghost statue of the whole person surprised:”??? Central Terran, at most, into the city into the nether, when it dares to go deep into the magic cloud ghost town you will not be wrong, “ throughout the ages, the human family The scope of activities is limited to the secluded city on the edge of the Demon Race. Most of them do business here, but they absolutely dare not jump the thread.

Nowadays, not only did people jump the line, but they even dared to cross the red earth, the Devil Cloud Ghost City, which even the people of the Demon Race dared not cross. This sounded too incredible.

“Lord Lord, naturally my subordinates dare not say anything. They can see clearly that the leader is definitely from the Central Plains, and he is quite young.”

“Young?” Gui Zun was silent, and then turned to a sudden smile: ” it is in a curious, others can also have a family so young people will be so mighty? ” “

I’d have some interest, to which of them? ” “

n go inside, intends through the city, when another war, because the gate Fa Neng exploded, hundreds of meters was destroyed, and the gate of the city was moved a lot.”

“Where’s the ghost?”

“Immediately.”

“Interesting.” Ghost Zun chuckled, it seemed that he suddenly became not angry, but was very angry. Happy: “Let the ghosts gather quickly, I would like to take a closer look at who this so-called young Central Plains is.”

“Subordinates do it.”

” Right , Lord, then they... “

No hurry.” Gui Zun smiled softly, seeming to be lost in thought.

The shadow did not dare to bother, and retreated slightly...

At this time, in the city, George Han and his gang found a dilapidated house and reluctantly sat down. But they swept around vigilantly.

Looking back, even though the pangolin and Xia Wei were holding some fish, they still refused to say anything.

They understood very well that although George Han did kill an extremely huge fish, the effect of these fish meat was so important to George Han. Therefore, they simply couldn't bear to eat these things.

On the contrary, Xiaochunhua, George Han actually gave her the most, but she also ate the fastest. The appearance of eating Haiyan wildly, Fangfo hadn't eaten anything for a long time.

Or perhaps for her, in this kind of living environment where she is stubborn and drinking blood, she has long been accustomed to this opportunity to seize everything to fill up her stomach.

Seeing that she gobbled it up a few times before eating it up, George Han laughed bitterly, took another piece of fish from the space ring, and handed it to her: “Eat slowly, it's not enough for me.”

“Old Han, this fish... ..”

“Yes, Brother George Han, you...”

Seeing George Han took out another big piece, the pangolin and Xia Wei were too anxious. After all, these things were so precious that they both couldn't bear to even a bite. eat.

“Thanks...thank you.” Xiaochunhua nodded, her eyes full of gratitude, and took the piece of fish.

George Han smiled slightly, not feeling distressed at all, but just when he was about to pull away and sit upright, suddenly a mouthful of blood flowed out of his mouth, and the person's eyes were dark, and he fell to the ground with a bang..

Chapter 3165

the four people present were shocked.

The pangolin, Xia Wei, and the old man rushed to George Han's side and surrounded him. The pangolin grabbed George Han's meridians, probed it slightly, and then looked back at the two of them: "I passed out. , It should be that the seal of the earth has been restored again."

"Then what should I do now, I..." When the words fell, Xia Wei had already pulled up his sleeves and was ready to donate blood to George Han at any time.

But at this moment, Xiao Chuntao at the outermost periphery slowly spoke: "This is not a place to save people, come with me." The three looked at each other, thinking about the authenticity of Xiaochuntao's words, after all. She is not her own kind, and she has tricked herself into deceiving herself before. At this time, George Han has fainted, and the situation is not optimistic. If this woman deceives herself again, the consequences are likely to be extremely serious.

The old man, after hesitating for a moment, nodded first.

"If she wants to harm us, this is her place, isn't it?" The old man smiled.

Xia Wei also nodded: "Since Brother George Han used her, you shouldn't doubt her."

"Okay." The pangolin gritted his teeth and looked at Xiaochunhua: "You lead the way."

Xiaochunhua said nothing, wait. After the pangolin carried George Han on his back, he looked around quietly and vigilantly, and then led the four people directly over the main street, moving quickly towards the prosperous dilapidated houses on the side.

There are hardly any intact houses here, and every house is extremely badly damaged. Even many houses are completely dependent on each other before they collapse.

This is simply a gathering place for a group of high-risk buildings.

A group of five people passed through these buildings one after another, and went deeper and deeper, farther and farther away from the main city road.

The pangolin carried George Han on his back, looking at Xiaochunhua running all the way in front of him, saying that it is impossible to have no worries in his heart. Perhaps he was bitten by a snake, and he was afraid of straw rope for thousands of years.

However, just when the pangolin was carrying more and more emotions like this, even when it was about to explode, Xiaochunhua suddenly stopped at this time.

The pangolin looked around, and there were ruined walls everywhere, and the moist red soil under his feet was even covered with an extremely disgusting moss. was considered secluded before, then here, it can be described as a ghost who can't even describe it.

"Where are you taking us?" The pangolin finally couldn't help but said.

Xiao Chunhua didn't answer, she quietly looked behind them, and after making sure that no one was following, Xiao Chunhua suddenly walked towards a broken house next to her.

Although the three of them were confused, they still followed with George Han on their backs.

The cabin is not bright, although there are many holes and pits, and even the line of sight is widened, but due to the overall dark clouds here, it is still very dark when entering the room.

"Gah!"

At this moment, he first went to Xiaochunhua in a corner of the room and heard a soft noise.

Under a broken jar, a wooden board was covered on the ground, and this sound was exactly the sound of the wooden board being lifted.

As the plank was lifted by Xiaochunhua, a small hole appeared in front of several people under the plank.

“Go in.” Xiao Chunhua glanced at the three of them, and said anxiously.

“Go in?” The pangolin was taken aback for a moment, and it felt so small no matter how you looked at it, let alone people entering through this hole, he believed it even if it was a python hole.

“Hurry up, it’s too late.” Xiaochunhua urged anxiously.

The pangolin glanced at Xia Wei and the old man, and seeing the two finally nodded, he gritted his teeth: “I’m going in.” When the words fell, George Han dropped, and the pangolin jumped directly into the small hole.

The outer hole is obviously quite small compared to the pangolin’s body shape, but the rest of the hole is empty. In addition, the pangolin itself can drill into the soil, almost just staying in the hole for a few times and then directly entering the hole.

Xia Wei and the old man looked at each other and waited for the signal from the pangolin.

After a while, the pangolin made a noise, and the two hurriedly sent George Han off.

When the unconscious George Han was sent down, Xia Wei and the old man followed along the entrance of the cave.

The inside of the cave is quite wide, and the depth of the cave is several meters. With the depth of the cave, it falls all the way, until after landing, when the four of them look around again, they can’t help but collectively dumbfounded...
