Chapter 3166

“This...”

three of them stood up almost simultaneously from the ground with shocked faces, and looked straight ahead incredulously.

In front of them, a huge underground world suddenly appeared in front of everyone.

The space is huge, with all kinds of earthen houses hung around them. These earthen houses are all built on the soil. A large number of people are busy outside the earthen houses. They are either carrying heavy objects, smashing iron tools, or chopping wood and adding fire. , A busy scene.

“Pop!” From

time to time, the whip sounded loudly and very loudly. The three of them were surprised to find that there were huge monsters holding weapons standing in many places. They supervised these busy people like soldiers. If someone is found to be slow, the whip will immediately be drawn directly on that person.

The whip was strange. It was neither made of iron nor the usual leather whip. Instead, it was a white whip with a very hard texture.

And in the center of this group of people is a huge cylinder of soil, with white smoke curling up on it, and a fire hole below. Many people are adding firewood to the hole to make the fire in the hole. The burning is more violent.

“Wow!” There was another ringing sound of iron chains, and everyone raised their eyes, only to find that there was a chain hanging directly above the mound, extending all the way from the other side.

There are many iron hooks on the iron ropes, the upper iron ropes, and the lower hooks some long things in white bags. Following the iron ropes directly into the high mound, everything is over with a sound of water.

“What are you doing?” The pangolin looked at the mound suspiciously, full of curiosity.

Xia Wei was about to speak. At this time, the last Xiao Chunhua who came in had already slipped down from the hole. She glanced at the four of them, then looked at the monsters with weapons, and whispered: “Come with me, hurry up. “When the words were over, she walked around the earth wall next to her and hurried over to the side.

The three of them glanced at the high mound strangely, although they were puzzled, but at this time they could only quickly follow Xiaochunhua, and quickly disappeared in place.

There is a lot of space in the ground, and the busy noise is also loud. Under the leadership of Xiaochunhua, a group of people turned left and moved right. After going around for a few minutes, they finally climbed up a few meters along a dilapidated staircase and arrived. In front of an earthen house. After glanced around and confirmed that there was no one, Xiao Chunhua hurriedly opened the door and asked the three of them to take George Han into the house.

Later, after they entered, she swept around again vigilantly, and then closed the door of the earthen house.

“Huh!” As

soon as she entered the house, Xiaochunhua took a breath. The temperature underneath was not too high, but rather suitable. But even so, Xiaochunhua was already sweating.

“What’s wrong with him?” Xiao Chunhua took off her coat freely, and asked with concern while looking at George Han.

“The outside of the city is full of eyeliners, and his minions are everywhere. If they find that he is injured and unconscious, they will definitely launch an attack.” The pangolin nodded, and finally reluctantly let go of worry. At least for now, Xiaochun Hua did not deceive herself as she did last time.

“He’s getting sick.” The pangolin said, thinking for a while, as if he felt wrong, and hurriedly said: “However, after a short rest, it will be all right.”

After finishing speaking, he glanced at Xia Wei and the old man, obviously hoping that they would not say anything wrong. .

After all, you must be careful when you are born on someone else’s land.

Xiaochunhua seemed to believe the pangolin’s words, turned around for a long time in the room, and finally barely made a bed on the ground with a rag, and helped George Han up with the pangolin.

“By the way, this is...” Xia Wei asked.

“This is my home.” Xiaochunhua replied.

“No wonder there are houses above the city, but no people are seen. It turns out that most of the people live under the ground.” Xia Wei said in relief.

“Most people?” When Xiaochunhua heard this, she suddenly smiled bitterly: “Are you talking about the people who work outside?”

Seeing Xiaochunhua’s expression like this, Xia Wei was a little at a loss. Could it be that she said something. Is wrong?

But the fact is that there are many people in the underground world who are busy?

Xiaochunhua had no choice but to laugh more bitterly, and shook her head: “They... are not human.”

Chapter 3167

the three people, including the old man, obviously reacted greatly, almost in unison.

Xiaochunhua hurriedly made a shushing gesture, and whispered to remind her, "Keep it down, if you let the monsters outside hear it, it will be dangerous." The three of them immediately stopped talking, and then they remembered their gaffe, and she was embarrassed in a hurry.

"However, don't blame us for being too fussy. After all, when we arrived just now, it was clear that many people in this underground space were busy." The pangolin touched his head awkwardly.

"Yeah, when you say that they are ghosts, it is indeed a bit too permeating." Xia Wei also nodded.

"They are not ghosts either." Xiao Chunhua shook her head.

Damn, isn't this a bit of a slap?

It's not a person, it's not a ghost, what's that?

"Xiao Chunhua, are you kidding us?" The pangolin was a little depressed.

Xiaochunhua helplessly: "I don't know how to explain it to you. In short, they are human, but they are not human, just like me." The pangolin was even more dumbfounded when he said that. The same as Xiaochunhua?

Although it doesn't take long to know Xiaochunhua, there is a lot of contact with each other. The pangolin is almost certain, that is, Xiaochunhua is definitely a big living person.

Although it is not necessarily an authentic Central Plains human race like George Han, but at least it is also a big living person of the Demon race. This is absolutely not wrong.

However, she said that she is not a human being. What does this mean?

Every member of the Demon Race, no matter how weird they look, is always a human being.

But just when the three monks Zhang Er were puzzled and were about to continue to ask questions, suddenly, an urgent knock on the door suddenly sounded.

The four sober people in the room were suddenly shocked, especially Xiao Chunhua, whose eyes were full of fear.

“Xiao Chunhua, you fucking come out for Lao Tzu, don’t think that you are hiding in the house, Lao Tzu doesn’t know you are at home.”

“I just heard something in your house, please come out quickly, don’t make Lao Tzu angry. “

Outside the door, a violent shout suddenly came.

The tone is arrogant, leaving no room for it. However, upon hearing this angry voice, Xiao Chunhua and her fearful eyes suddenly dropped a lot, and there was even a slight breath in her mouth.

Xiaochunhua said to the three of them. Then, she gave a shushing gesture to the three of them not to speak. After the three of them were determined, she turned and walked towards To the door.

The pangolin was very lucky, and if he found anything wrong, he immediately prepared to do it.

Huh!

With a soft sound, the door of the earthen house slowly opened.

Although the light inside the room is insufficient, the light outside is also very dark. Therefore, from the angle of the inner room, only a dark shadow can be seen standing outside, and he can’t clearly see his appearance.

As the door opened, the black shadow smiled coldly: "Little Chunhua, can you give it up?"

"Master Gu, as soon as you call me, I will come out immediately." Xiaochunhua replied humbly.

"Twistingly, since I'm back, why don't you report? I have to invite you in person?"

"I just came back from work and want to change clothes." Xiaochunhua said.

"Change clothes?" Hearing this, he couldn't help but look into the back room, and then joked: "What kind of clothes do you look better without clothes."

Seeing him finally set her eyes on her, Xiao Chunhua felt that it was extremely uncomfortable, but at least he let out a sigh of relief. Then he closed the door lightly with a twist: "

I will watch if I want to see the other day." "I want to see now, hehe." The words fell. Outside, I thought of Xiaochunhua's struggling voice and the lonely laughter.

The three people in the house almost shouted in unison: "Beasts."

"Okay, Master, another day, another day." Xiao Chunhua urged.

Gu Ye nodded, and was about to turn around and leave with Xiao Chunhua, but at this moment, there was a sudden noise in the house.

The three people who were scolding Gu Ye were also suddenly startled. They looked at the voice and saw that George Han got up because he woke up, and bumped into the stuff in the earthen hut, and made a huge noise...the three and the people outside the house. The two of them opened their pupils slightly at the same time...
