

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3180 - 3181

Chapter 3180

“Yes, it is the negligence of the subordinates. In this Devil Cloud Ghost City, what can escape the eyes of the ghost?”

Gu Ye answered respectfully, and smiled coldly. Looking sideways at George Han, are you fucking alive this time?

How proud he was, how terrified Xiao Chunhua over there, she knelt on the ground powerlessly.

She knew that everything she was determined to bet on was completely lost by now.

Even, it is the kind of bet that never has the chance to turn over.

Everyone knows exactly what Gui Zun means to the entire Devil Cloud Ghost City. He acted viciously, even though many people in this city hadn't really seen him, but they all deeply felt his vicious and vicious rule in their hearts and carved them into the bones.

He is the master here and the most terrifying demon in everyone's hearts.

“Master Guizun, I...” Xiaochunhua wanted to ask for mercy, but she was not afraid of death. After all, what she had committed was already a capital crime.

She just wanted to take this, at least to be happy when she died.

“You don't have to say too much.” In the darkness, the black shadow slowly came out again.

Immediately afterwards, he transformed into a human form.

He was nearly two meters tall and he was covered with a black hedgehog. On top of his head, he had a pair of strange tentacles, both like horns and dragon horns. His eyes were extremely big and his complexion was pale.

With a slight smile, it turned out to be extremely evil.

With a slight movement of him, his figure slowly fell from a height and turned into a black shadow, and in the next second, it was in front of George Han.

Looking at George Han, he seemed to smile but not.

“Fuck, brat, don’t you kneel when you see the ghost?”

When the ghost is here, how can the lone master not seize such a rare opportunity to flatter him? Immediately he shouted angrily, and immediately resisted the pain, and got up directly.

Even though there is a huge tearing pain in the body together, but the lonely master at this time does not feel any uncomfortable feeling at all, because his heart is beautiful.

Seeing that George Han would be tortured by Gui Zun inhuman, it was too late for him to be happy.

George Han smiled disdainfully: “Call someone to kneel down to heaven and earth and kneel down to your parents.”

Upon hearing this, Gui Zun didn’t get angry. Yinyin was about to laugh, but saw that at this time, how could the lonely master stand this?

“Fuck you, in front of my ghost, anger still dared to be arrogant.” He was furious, and kicked George Han on the knee, trying to make him kneel directly.

However, although his kick was strong, George Han was not bad at all. With this kick, George Han’s knees were just like cement, and they didn’t move.

Seeing this, Gui Zun was taken aback and looked at George Han slightly.

“Fuck you.” The lonely master felt embarrassed, especially when he looked at Gui Zun staring at George Han at this time, he naturally didn’t dare to figure out Gui Zun’s heart.

On the spot, he condensed his fists again, and was about to hit George Han.

“Fuck off.” As soon as the words fell, George Han whispered dissatisfaction, and hit the lone master who was about to attack with a backhand punch.

The punch hit the guy’s abdomen, and a sharp pain made the already very painful internal organs even more into a state of splitting liver and gallbladder.

Pain, pain, it’s so fucking painful.

Blood even flowed out of his mouth uncontrollably.

He looked at George Han unwillingly and unbelievably. At this time, in front of his top boss, George Han actually dared to beat himself? !

He glanced at Gui Zun, he still looked at George Han indifferently.

“You fucking dare to beat me?” The lonely master was angry: “As the saying goes, you still look at the owner when you hit a dog. My ghost is here, so you dare to be presumptuous? You scumbag, you don’t even look at his old man at all. inside?”

The dignity of the lonely master is completely gone. He was in front of a group of people just now, and now he is in front of his own boss.

Just now he could bear it, but now, he absolutely couldn’t bear it anymore.

Because obviously the latter also affects his future.

“You bastard, if I don’t kill you today, it’s hard to say that you are disrespectful.” When the words fell, this guy was desperate, biting the blood flowing out of his mouth, and furiously, he hit Han directly with a punch. Three thousand.

George Han was about to start his hands. Suddenly, at this moment, there was a muffled noise behind him, and then the whole body of Gu Ye retreated several meters on the spot, and after falling to his knees, he vomited blood all over the floor.

George Han was puzzled, whose shot was this? But when I looked back, I saw him, and couldn't help being taken aback on the spot...

Chapter 3181

turned out to be him!

The ghost who has been standing opposite to him!

This was a little unexpected by George Han. After all, even if he wanted to break his head, I am afraid that he would never think that this so-called gangster, who looks extremely gloomy and evil, would beat his own men because of him.

Not only was George Han surprised, even the lonely master at this time was full of doubts.

He wondered why his boss suddenly beat him.

"Gui Zun, it is the incompetence of his subordinates." Thinking about it, I am afraid that only because of his unfavorable work will the ghost beating him. Therefore, when I think of this, Gu Ye is not as strong as George Han, but instead Also unusually humble.

"I don't know why you were beaten. You are just a waste." Gui Zun said coldly, and then moved his hand.

"Bang!" There was another loud noise, and Gu Ye's body quickly moved back again. After everyone dodged with fright, he hit the edge of the earth with a muffled noise and stopped.

The blood was sprayed several meters high from his mouth on the spot as if he didn't need money, and the whole person was almost dizzy, unable to move anything.

Previously, if it was said that the five internal organs were damaged, then at this time, Gu Ye could clearly feel that several ribs in his body had broken.

Many of the ribs are very delicately inserted into his liver and lungs.

Unbiased, neither completely fatal, but absolutely to the point where it hurts the most.

This is the style of Ghost Zun!

“The subordinates are stupid, I don’t know where to do something wrong, if the Lord is so unhappy.” Although the lonely master could not move his body, he still asked cautiously.

“Ghost is here, when will it be your little supervisor to do it at will?” A sharp female voice came, but the silence came from, but it made people feel unusually quiet.

George Han studied it carefully, but was shocked to find that the voice came from behind Ghost Zun.

This made George Han feel a little unbelievable. It seems that Gui Zun is just a person’s body, unlike other people.

But if this is the case, is it possible that he is talking to himself?

This seems to be a bit more ridiculous.

“The subordinates are just teaching the stinky boy for the ghost.” The lonely man was not surprised at all, and forced his body to feel uncomfortable.

“Lesson?” The female voice smiled coldly: “Gu Hai, this is the reason you are dying today.” When the words fell, a black shadow suddenly crossed, and by the next second, there was already a hand transformed by black energy. The lonely master was stuck tightly by his throat, and his whole body was lifted up like a dead dog.

“The subordinate... the subordinate is really... really unknown.”

“To you, but a small supervision, just a dog, to him, it is the guest of the ghost, I ask, a dog dare to be rude to the guest, How will it end?” The female voice sneered.

“The dog is rude to the guests, so naturally it should be a thousand cuts.” The lonely master who was stuck in his throat, almost didn’t even think about it, he blurted out.

Upon hearing this, the female voice smiled coldly.

Of course, the lonely master at this time suddenly opened his pupils after he finished speaking. There is no doubt that he is a dog under Guizun, but the guest...

George Han?

Yes... is that kid? !

how is this possible?

How is this possible?

He was just a little white face that Xiaochunhua used to bring back to the house to enjoy.

How could he be a guest of such a level as Guizun?

He reluctantly raised his eyes to look at George Han in the distance. He was astonished and unwilling. Following the black hand’s hard work, he finished the last journey of his life, perhaps the most confusing journey.

As the lonely master died and the words of the female voice, all the people present were completely devoid of talents, and looked at George Han with horror. At the same time, the large troops almost unconsciously moved toward George Han. Backed away and kept a distance from George Han for an instant.

“What are you all doing in a daze?” The female voice gave a cold voice.

In the next second, everyone present heard the sound and knelt on the ground in panic, and then suddenly kowtow to George Han: “I wait for the untouchables, like the distinguished guests, I hope the distinguished guests forgive me.”

Shocked in unison, The audience was shocked.

Xiaochunhua looked up at George Han and Gui Zun incredibly, and not to mention her, even at this time George Han turned her eyes back in confusion, and looked at that ghost.

What does it mean.....?
