Chapter 3206

Boom!!!

With the sound of the sky, the moon wheel and the sky, the front door was blown into ashes by the front gang of monsters, and Han's three thousand eight golden bodies also followed.

Magic energy explodes, and the light and shadow are brilliant.

Accompanied by this, the ground fire was burning, and the thunder dragon roared above the sky.

George Han didn't intend to have anything to hide with this group of people, so he hit them until they were weak.

"What?"

Seeing the change in the heavens and the earth, George Han himself went in and out of the crowd more like a mad dragon entering the sea, killing ghosts crying and roaring. At this time, the corners of Gui Zun's eyes were shrinking, almost unbelievable.

Although George Han had the power to kill the nearly half-human being surrounded by a thousand people when he was only talent, there are some things, how do you feel the power if you don't see it with your own eyes?

Moreover, it is still so prestigious?

"Is this guy really so strong?" Hong Luan had never seen such a terrifying enemy with ten thousand enemies.

Seeing George Han as a god descended from the sky, he was also glaring at this moment.

How terrible? But so.

It is not so much that Wan Jun encircles him now, but it is a super solo show where he is alone as the protagonist and tens of thousands of people accompany him.

"A trivial tiger, the deity really underestimated him." Gui Zun smiled coldly, and shook his head helplessly.

On the contrary, he admired George Han more and more, which at least proved that his vision was right at the beginning, but it was a pity that he really didn't know the heights of the sky, and he provokes people who shouldn't be offended like the Pei family.

"Speaking of his dragon general, don't you also underestimate him?" Hong Luan couldn't help but sigh.

At almost the same time, George Han's performance did not end, or rather, it was just the beginning.

"Phaseless magic!"

Suddenly, George Han moved his hands, and the various spells issued by the monsters over there suddenly seemed like a match that was blown out, and there was no movement.

“Give it back to you!”

But in the next second, as George Han yelled, his hand suddenly turned over, and hundreds of rays of light crashed directly down.

boom!

Suddenly, the entire ground exploded everywhere, and there were originally several layers of monsters inside and outside. They were suddenly swayed, dead, wounded, roaring, howling.

It was miserable and the scene was extremely spectacular.

“Bang!”

Almost at the same time, on the other end, the flying sword of the small black stick was also invincible as pointed by the sharp sword. The pangolin followed closely behind and walked away.

“Honorable Lord, this...”

Encountered on both sides, Hong Luan even felt that their crowd of 10,000 people seemed to be surrounded by dumplings and playing.

Gui Zun’s expression is cold, why doesn’t he have such an illusion?

But returning to rationality a little bit, these hallucinations brought him only shame and nothing good.

Because, this guy George Han killed his own people and hit his own face.

“It seems that the deity has to play in person.” When the words fell, the black energy on the ghost suddenly began to madly...

and at the other end of the Devil Cloud Ghost City.

A team of about hundreds of people dressed in red is accelerating towards Devil Cloud Ghost City.

Although the number of them is not large, in addition to some ordinary servants, there is also a team of about fifty elite troops among them. Even though the number is small, in fact, any one of these fifty people is They are by no means ordinary people. They are restrained and seem indifferent, but they are not.

The leader of the crowd is a driving car with a red roof and a light cover. The bead curtain is lightly hanging. The front of the car is four strange creatures with dragon horns and tiger tails.

This creature is also a mount for everyone in the team behind him.

It is extremely fast and travels like a shadow.

In about half a day from the north to the city, a group of people waited just a few minutes to reach the gate of Devil Cloud Ghost City.

However, just when a group of troops was approaching the city, suddenly, on the leading car, a pair of jade hands stretched out of the bead curtain, and then it slowly lifted, and the entire fast-moving unit suddenly stopped completely. live.

“Princess Seven, why did you stop suddenly?” As soon as the car in front stopped, a rough-looking but elegant man walked to the side of the car and asked in a low voice.

Looking at the trembling ground, a female voice came from the car: “What happened? Why is the movement so huge?”

“I think, it should be the people from Devil Cloud Ghost City and the kid have already started fighting.” The person replied. road.

“If you are alone, can you make such a big noise?” She frowned and ordered: “Going into the city, I would like to see what he is capable of.”

Chapter 3207

Because of this guy, she would marry away for this, or even marry a notorious but unmasked trash man.

As the seventh princess of the Pei family, how can this not be uncomfortable?

And all this uncomfortable is only because of this guy, otherwise, why should I be so? !

Although his father also deliberately used the marriage method to win over one party, he had been hesitant, and that guy was the fuse of all this.

Therefore, she really wanted to see that guy and cut him a thousand times to vent her hatred.

Now that the people in Devil Cloud Ghost City are besieging him, the Seventh Princess is naturally very interested.

Others heard that, they were not in a hurry to set off, but they smiled indifferently, and said: “Seven princesses, Jade-faced Shura has been in the city for a long time, presumably he has already reached a consensus with the ghost of Devil Cloud Ghost City, and the fight with that kid has long been Unfold.”

“I think there is a big movement at this time, but I am afraid it is just the last stubbornness of the kid.”

“You mean...” the seventh princess asked slightly.

“It’s the bow of the powerful crossbow, but dying to struggle.”

“You want to say that he is battering the Nascent Soul?” said the seventh princess.

The man nodded: “When a person is about to die, he will naturally do his best to make a final desperate fight. Although he knows that he is inevitable, he can at least be counted as one.”

“Devil Cloud Ghost City fell in a battle with Kailuocheng.” A miserable defeat, a great loss of vitality, but at least the elite is still there, and the natural combat power is extraordinary. Otherwise, the day it is time to fall into the city, he will go all out and take advantage of the victory to annihilate the devil cloud ghost city in one fell swoop. Why bother to let the tiger go back to the mountain?” The man said softly.

The seventh princess nodded slightly when she heard the words, which was not without reason.

The Devil Cloud Ghost City has been infamous for a long time, and its strength is naturally tyrannical. This skinny camel is also bigger than a horse. Naturally, its strength is still not to be underestimated.

“In that case, why can a small human race kid make a lot of splashes in the Devil Cloud Ghost City? Is it possible that the movement just now can be the movement that he can fight with everyone but can resist it?” The man continued to speak naturally.

Thinking of this person’s words, the seventh princess nodded safely. According to this, it is indeed very likely that the kid could no longer hold on, and chose Yuan Ying to blow himself up to make the last little movement.

“That’s really a pity, this son is simply a hate in my heart. It is a pity that I can’t see this guy die in front of me with my own eyes.” The seventh princess sighed, and helplessly put the bead curtain down. Come down.

The man smiled: “We are at the foot of the beast, the speed is already swift pace, but the frustration is that kid should not get into a mess, nature every minute bell ashes.”

“But, evidently but only just burst Yuan Ying, to belong Seen below, if we speed up at this time, we will be able to catch a glimpse of this guy when his soul is completely gone.”

“By the way, let’s take a look at the future uncle.” The seventh princess nodded, and then the person gave a big hand. With a wave, the entire long line suddenly restarted, and quickly rushed towards the Devil Cloud Ghost City.

At almost the same time, after George Han Wuxiang’s magical skill turned a tooth for a tooth, he swung a long sword in his hand, and the eight figures resembled the eight gods of war, slaughtering wildly and smashing the enemy army.

Of course, just as George Han’s offensive became more and more fierce, suddenly, a black shadow directly collided with him. George Han didn’t resist in time, and he was directly dispelled from the offensive, and the whole person also retreated a few steps.

After looking back, Gui Zun had appeared several meters in front of him, hung coldly in the air, staring at George Han.

Armed with the backbone, the forces that had been in chaos regrouped, and their momentum returned for a while.

One general is the master, and the army is the last!

“You’re almost making trouble.” Gui Zun grinned coldly: “It’s almost time to stop.”

“What I said is to stop forever.”

George Han also smiled back: “Really?” After the words fell, George Han moved suddenly, retracted the jade sword, and gathered a weapon in his hand again.

And the sneer of Gui Zun's face began to solidify slowly because of the weapons in George Han's hands...
