

HTC 4241

Chapter 4241

subordinates listened, frowned and looked at Zhu Yanshuo.

Zhu Yanshuo smiled lightly and nodded again affirmatively.

The subordinates hurriedly retreated.

In less than a moment, more and more elites poured in, almost filling the entire city lord's mansion, and at this time above the sky, several monks sat around, built high platforms, and read the scriptures for a long time.

Around the high platform, there are not only several master guardians, but also several phalanx troops.

The army is surrounded by black energy, like soldiers of death, each holding a long spear high, and adding a bit of strangeness while being extraordinarily powerful.

"I report to the city lord, according to your instructions, the mansion has sent more elites, and there are all kinds of strike support around and in the sky."

"Well done." Zhu Yanshuo smiled coldly, then, took a step forward, moving towards The shadows suddenly shouted: "Stop!"

Wow!

All the troops stopped at the same time.

And the shadow slowly stopped after beating a few more people.

"Senior, look around." Zhu Yanshuo said confidently.

The shadow swept around lightly, and there were already people everywhere.

What is ambush on all sides, I am afraid this is the best interpretation.

Hei Ying smiled lightly: "What? Do you think I didn't kill enough? Send more people to die?"

"Senior, I know that you are very powerful, and I can be sure that among so many people in our city, no one can be you. Your opponent."

"However, sometimes even the strongest people need helpers, and even the Longquan Shoal has to be played by shrimps, let alone a peerless expert like you?"

"Yes, these people, you may not pay attention to them, this is also true."

"But anyway, when the number of people is large enough, they will be seriously threatened."

"You have such a cultivation base, want to come. It's also been practiced for many years, the juniors don't need to say more about these principles, I think the seniors should also understand, right?"

Zhu Yanshuo's words were very polite, because he had his own selfishness.

Hei Ying smiled softly: "I don't know what it is."

"Senior, if you are willing to intervene in these matters, I can guarantee that your glory and wealth will be inexhaustible. Moreover, you will not only be able to avoid suffering twenty You can even dispatch these people at will. Because they are your subordinates." The words are somewhat secretive, but the meaning they express is so attractive.

The shadow didn't speak, the anti-Buddha was thinking about it.

Seeing this, Zhu Yanshuo smiled: "The prestige of the predecessors must be the top priority of all parties, and the treatment you receive is naturally supreme, so why waste your own cultivation here?"

"Do you think so

"Zhu Yanshuo, You have a good tongue." Hei Ying sneered: "To be honest, I was really moved by what you said."

Zhu Yanshuo was very happy on the spot when he heard this compliment, so he completely ignored it. The tone of voice in black shadow's words is disdain. "Senior is wrong, and Zhu is just analyzing the situation for the senior. I can't bear the prestige of the senior, so it's wasted." Zhu Yanshuo said: "Senior, it is better to take action. We are waiting for you."

Thinking, as if thinking about something else.

"Senior?"

Seeing that he didn't speak, Zhu Yanshuo couldn't help reminding him.

Hei Ying suddenly smiled and then opened his mouth: "Your proposal is very good, but unfortunately, I don't want to surrender, and even if I surrender, you will not accept it. For you and me, we are on the same page. You can't pee in a pot at all." After the words fell, the shadow looked coldly towards Zhu Yanshuo.

Upon hearing this, Zhu Yanshuo's smile froze for almost half, while the other half was full of puzzlement: "Senior, what do you mean by this? As long as you are willing, just open your mouth, and we will definitely accept you. There is no such thing as water and fire."

"According to me, as long as the seniors are willing to join us, not only are we not incompatible, but we are glued together and connected!"

"Hahahaha." The shadow burst into laughter: "Zhu Yanshuo Ah Zhu Yanshuo, your mouth... tsk tsk."

Zhu Yanshuo gave a complimenting smile, but suddenly he frowned, because at this time he suddenly understood something was wrong: "Senior...Senior, you... ..how do you know the name of the next one?"

He stared at the shadow in horror...

Chapter 4242

not right.

This is the first time he has seen the main city of the Pei family. Before that, he had never appeared nearby.

Naturally, it is impossible to have any intersection with the Pei family.

The Yu Pei family is still unfamiliar, let alone the head of the Pei family. Naturally, it is impossible for the old seniors of the Pei family to have any understanding.

So, in this case, how did this senior know his name?

Thinking of this, how can Zhu Yanshuo not be shocked? !

How not to be afraid? !

Although he is confident, he cannot be so arrogant that everyone knows his name, right? !

“Hehe, it seems that now, you finally found the problem.” Hei Ying laughed softly: “To be honest, you are a senior, and I’m embarrassed to call me.”

After speaking,

Zhu Yanshuo’s whole People were startled.

What does this mean?

If you think about it carefully, it is not difficult to find that the meaning of this black shadow’s words is to tell himself that he is the same generation as himself.

But...

peers? !

There are people in the same generation with such a cultivation level, even if Zhu Yanshuo wants to break his head, he can’t think of a few candidates.

Except for one person!

Han three thousand!

Only that kid was astonished, and only that kid’s cultivation was significantly higher than his peers.

But the shadow in front of him will be George Han?

As long as Zhu Yanshuo is not killed, Zhu Yanshuo will never believe it.

Hei Ying’s cultivation is far more powerful than George Han’s. Since that’s the case, how could he, George Han, have this ability? !

It’s time to end the battle. Although that bastard barely won, he also paid a huge price . Just like him, being able to recover his life is already a blessing that he has cultivated in his three thousand eight lifetimes.

How could he still have such a fierce attitude? !

Therefore, he absolutely ruled out this possibility.

“Why, do you have an answer in your heart?” Hei Ying laughed softly: “With your City Lord Zhu’s wisdom, you should be able to guess who I am, right?”

“No, no, no, it’s impossible!

” Only rejected this possible Zhu Yanshuo, and now when he hears what the other party says, it can’t help but be even more difficult to accept.

It seems that more and more evidence is proving that the person in front of him is very likely to be George Han.

But he still did not want to believe the result.

“Why is it impossible?” The shadow continued to laugh.

“As far as I know, your meridians are completely broken, and you are almost like a waste person . Even if you come to this Pei family, you want to rely on the Pei family to heal your meridian injuries.” Zhu Yanshuo shook his head and said hesitantly.

Hei Ying smiled lightly: “Is there a possibility that I rely on the Pei family to really heal my meridians?” Hei Ying laughed.

“It’s even more impossible!” Zhu Yanshuo’s mentality began to collapse, and Douda’s sweat kept dripping down his forehead.

“Why?” Black Shadow asked curiously.

“The forbidden area of death has completely exploded, and its explosive power can be felt in a radius of dozens of miles, even hundreds of miles away. If you are really George Han, then you must be at the center of the explosion at that time.”

“In terms of such an explosion, don’t say that you are George Han, even if you are a true god, it is difficult to resist such an explosion, isn’t it?”

Hei Ying smiled lightly and nodded:

“You are a well-rounded analysis, but, In fact, you also know that this is not necessarily 100%. You keep asking me back, but it is precisely your guilty conscience. The source of your guilty conscience is also very simple, that is... Your prejudice suppresses you more. Reason. I said that, right?”

Dah!

A larger piece of sweat fell directly from the forehead to the ground, and it seemed as if something had hit him directly in the depths of his heart.

Yes, he does have a huge prejudice, and he doesn't want the shadow in front of him to be George Han. He was unwilling, and he was even more reluctant to admit it.

At this moment, Hei Ying smiled again: "But there are some things, no matter what you don't want to face, you have to face them. We call it growth!" After the words were finished, the black qi on Hei Ying gradually dissipated, revealing it. The original face...

Chapter 4243

Everyone almost held their breaths and waited quietly.

And Zhu Yanshuo was almost reluctant to jump in his heart, so he stared at the shadow so tightly.

The shadow is getting lighter and lighter, and after a few seconds, it quickly shrinks into the body of the figure, as if the shadow before the Buddha did not exist at all, all that is left for everyone is a tall and straight body, and that perseverance And handsome face.

But these are obviously nothing, because compared to the shock of the appearance to everyone, it is far more than the gap between the ground and the sky.

"Han... Han... George Han!"

Zhu Yanshuo felt that his heart not only stopped, but also exploded in that instant.

He couldn't understand, and he couldn't believe it, why the person in front of him was George Han!

Shouldn't he be dead?

The kind that doesn't even have scum left!

But why is he still alive , and what is even more abhorrent is that he appears in front of everyone in such a posture?

The huge fear and disbelief made him stagger several steps and almost fell to the ground.

And the four masters who were fighting next to them couldn't help but start to step back after they stopped.

That's George Han.

The four masters have been doing evil for many years and have looked down on them for many years, but George Han has fallen into a big fight every time. For them, George Han is their nightmare!

Every time they see George Han, they will be afraid.

In particular, the current George Han is still a more ferocious shadow!

The four masters are not cowards, but at least in front of George Han, at this moment, they are cowards.

"Three thousand!"

Some people are sad, and some people are happy.

Pei Gu, the head of the Pei family, who was already exhausted , suddenly saw the sun at this time, as if after years of **.

His spirit became extremely good in an instant, and he didn't need any magic medicine!

He smiled, revealing the upper and lower rows of gums. Although he was silent, he had already laughed to the fullest, better than sound.

No one can be happier and happier than Pei Gu at this time, because the appearance of George Han and the return of the king mean that the things he suppressed have had the desired effect.

He has already carried too much for this, the doubts of his family, and even the rebellion and contempt within the clan.

But now, all the negativity has vanished, George Han is here, and at the most critical moment, the real me has exerted its due value and saved the Pei family from fire and water.

"You've come." Xiji naturally cried.

Even Pei Gu has seen countless storms in his life, so he is not happy or angry
, but at this moment, he can't help but burst into tears.

The grievances that have been pressing in my heart have been too long.

It was naturally the Seventh Princess who was having fun with her father. She stared blankly at the man standing in the small mid-air. The Seventh Princess had a faint smile on her face.

It was him, that man, the man who he believed must be a dragon and a phoenix.

He is here, with a dashing dash to compete with the world.

"That's George Han from the Seven ** Gubao?" The eldest princess, looking at George Han at this time, couldn't help being a little stunned.

He looks handsome and has an incomprehensible temperament, which seems to be both good and evil, but what will never change is the domineering arrogance that looks down on the world.

The prince in the dream, but that's it.

"So handsome." The sixth princess was about the same age as the seventh princess. Looking at George Han at this time, the girl couldn't help but be moved.

From childhood to adulthood, she has the same outstanding beauty as the Seventh Princess, and is the most similar in age.

Even the aesthetics are quite similar. The two sisters often like the same things.

When the Seventh Princess brought back George Han, she always wanted to see the real face, but in Pei's family, most of the female family members were in the harem, and it was difficult to have the opportunity to go to the front hall. Besides, George Han was arranged after that. Arrived at Qifeng Pavilion. But no matter what, today, I finally saw it.

However, some things will always be missed for life at first sight. At least the sixth princess knows that she has fallen.

The fourth princess didn't speak, her seemingly beautiful face was completely indifferent, but her eyes had already betrayed her, and only she was completely clear about her heart.

It's not that she has no expression, she just completely fell into the man who is like a god of heaven Looking slowly at Zhu Yanshuo, he opened his mouth...

Chapter 4244

"Huh?"

Zhu Yanshuo, who was called out by George Han, suddenly woke up and looked at Han in confusion. Three thousand, his eyes are full of fear and unwillingness.

"Now, I want to surrender, are you still willing?" He grinned slightly, obviously full of ridicule.

Zhu Yanshuo knew that both sides regarded each other as a bloody feud, and surrender was an impossible thing to happen!

So, from the beginning, George Han was playing with himself!

Thanks to myself, I seriously wanted to negotiate with him, and even fantasized about recruiting him so that he could teach him the method, and he was invincible in the world.

Now that I think about it, I am afraid that I am a clown from beginning to end!

"How could you be here?" Zhu Yanshuo shouted unwillingly. "How is that possible? The fact is that you think it's impossible, but now, your senior, I am standing here."

, Zhu Yanshuo, do you think you are qualified to know?"

In a word, Zhu Yanshuo was directly angry, at any rate he was also the deputy commander of the 200,000 troops, but he was worthless in George Han's mouth, how could he not be popular? !

"George Han, you don't want to look down on people. What? Do you think it's amazing that you can come out of the forbidden area of death alive? Hmph, surrounded by my army of 200,000 people, it's okay, the forbidden area of death can't kill you. , I can still make up for the knife."

"All generals!"

"Drink!"

Everyone responded, and suddenly, shouting loudly.

Many people who had already been shocked by George Han were finally boosting their morale one by one.

The four masters no longer retreated, and looked at George Han, eyeing them.

“Joke, if I’m afraid of losing in your hands, I won’t enter this main city, Zhu Yanshuo, what about your brain?” Facing the generals so drunk, George Han didn’t have the slightest fear, but Yun Dan A clear response.

Zhu Yanshuo smiled coldly: “What? With you alone, do you want to kill my army of 200,000 people? George Han, I know you have some skills, but if you want a pair of 200,000 people, you are fooling around!”

George Han haha A smile: “I can’t kill 200,000 people, but I want to ask, who do I want to kill, can the people here stop me?”

George Han smiled evilly.

However, with this smile, Zhu Yanshuo, who was angry, completely chose to mute his voice.

In terms of George Han’s current situation, what he said is not false at all. No one can stop him now who he wants to kill.

Because of this, Zhu Yanshuo didn’t want to be the first unlucky person to be slaughtered and shown to monkeys.

Silence

is the best way to stop being provocative.

George Han smiled slightly, how could he not know Zhu Yanshuo’s mind, he didn’t care, and then turned his eyes to the four masters around him.

He shook his head lightly: “Since some people are silent, then we have to shoot the first bird, four, what do you think?”

If there were not so many soldiers, the four masters would have run away. He has a psychological shadow on George Han, and now when he turned into a shadow, he let the four masters know how powerful he is, how dare he take on more challenges!

It’s just that they have no choice but to stand here for the sake of face.

Now that Zhu Yanshuo suddenly chose the dog, he naturally led the cannon fire on the four of them.

The four of them are also in the lake, how can they not see this.

You Zhu Yanshuo can be the first one, we can’t be fifteen? !

The four of them gave George Han a bitter smile, almost without any communication.

Although he didn’t speak, his intentions were clearly expressed at the moment.

Brother, we are just working part-timers, this has nothing to do with us, we will not be aggressive.

George Han smiled lightly. He never cared about the four old fried dough sticks. George Han already knew their urine nature from the previous battle.

They are typical people who play tailwinds, and they cherish their lives like gold. Once the headwinds go against them, these guys are simply a bunch of rubbish.

Therefore, George Han's reminder was more of a hint to them. After the effect was achieved, George Han naturally stopped entanglement.

"Is that still you?"

George Han didn't stop, raised his eyes slightly, and looked at all the elite soldiers present.

This time, like a ferocious tiger looking at a flock of sheep, all the elite troops collectively took a few steps backwards exaggeratedly...

Chapter 4245

originally tight encirclement has become loose in an instant.

When an army is marching to fight, if the generals do not rush ahead, how can the soldiers have morale.

They are not fools, how can they be as indomitable as they are in TV dramas.

No matter how brave you are, it is also for military exploits, but your life is gone, so talk about military exploits.

George Han sneered, deterrence has been reached.

The two battles should be repeated. Although it is extremely exhausting and tragic for George Han, when God closes a door for you, it will always open a window for you.

Behind the tragic, is the fear of the enemy, and the fear of the enemy.

Today, George Han doesn't even need to do much. As long as the king returns, many people will be terrified.

Who doesn't love their own life ?

The generals and masters are like this, and so are the soldiers.

"Oh, there are some monks!"

George Han glanced at the monks who had been meditating on the surrounding high platforms, and smiled contemptuously.

When it was time to fall into the city, George Han had already experienced it. They did have some power, and they were often able to constantly riot the enemy.

If the shadow was someone else, this group of monks would indeed have some magical effects, but for George Han, it was almost no longer fresh.

And the monks are not stupid. Although some of them were added later, some of them had personally experienced being broken by Han 3000 in Jiluocheng.

On the spot, there were two timid people who stared at it directly, moved their butt back, and accidentally fell off the high platform.

Zhu Yanshuo's complexion was ashen, and the army, which was still in perfect order just now, was in chaos in the blink of an eye.

Although there are not too , but there are at least thousands of people surrounding the mansion, how could they have been defeated without fighting? !

"Quick, inform Elder Shenlong!!" Zhu Yanshuo instructed his subordinates softly.

The subordinate nodded, and quietly retreated before George Han's eyes swept this way.

In just a moment, when Ming Yu outside the city saw Zhu Yanshuo's subordinates, he frowned slightly.

She has already retreated outside the mansion for safety, and Zhu Yanshuo also transferred a large number of troops in. Now, seeing Zhu Yanshuo's subordinates again, Ming Yu naturally believes that the situation is not very good.

"Why, that black shadow is not easy to deal with?" Ming Yu asked lightly: "I heard that the house seems to be very quiet, and it doesn't look like a fierce battle."

"Report to Elder Shenlong, there...there was indeed no war inside, but...but... The situation is even worse."

"There is no war, and City Lord Zhu has dispatched more people, how could it be..." Ming Yu couldn't understand .

"The shadow he appeared." The subordinate said.

"Oh? Go on."

"As soon as he appeared, both the four great masters and the soldiers were all shocked. No one dared to do anything at will, or even retreated unconsciously. City Lord Zhu also ordered me to come out quickly to find out. Guild elder, you."

Ming Yu didn't get angry, and said coldly: "That black shadow is indeed very powerful, and I know this well, but why are the generals more fearful when their identity is revealed?"

" Elder, that shadow... the shadow is... he is... George Han."

Boom!

Mingyu only felt that his brain suddenly exploded, and there was a large darkness in front of him that covered his eyes, and his whole body was obviously soft, and he was about to fall to the ground on the spot.

Fortunately, his subordinates hurriedly helped him up, so that Ming Yu would not be too embarrassed.

Rubbing his temples, Ming Yu really felt that the world was spinning, and even his breathing became extremely uncomfortable.

She didn't understand, and she couldn't understand why George Han was alive, and it was still that terrifying shadow.

In other words, he not only survived, but his power has far exceeded the previous at least half a grade.

You must know that George Han was already difficult to deal with before, and now, if he survives the hardship and is even more powerful, it will be a great nightmare for them.

"How about the army outside to stop the reinforcements in Mengxue City?"

"My subordinates will check it out."

"Stop!" Ming Yu snorted softly and made a slight sound, saying: "Order the troops, at all costs, we must keep the reinforcements out of the city for me."

"Yes!"

"We must never let the Pei family and George Han see reinforcements, otherwise..."

Chapter 4246

Otherwise, the morale of the other party will be greatly increased, while your own party will rise and disappear, and fall into the abyss!

At that time, the army of 200,000 people will no longer be tigers, but become trapped beasts.

Mingyu will never allow this to happen!

"You go and tell Zhu Yanshuo that everything is mainly about procrastination, and those who can avoid George Han's sharpness will be avoided."

"Yes!" The subordinates hurriedly wanted to retire.

Ming Yu seemed to remember something again: "By the way, since the opponent is George Han, you tell Zhu Yanshuo to remember to be careful. This is what I said."

Ming Yu pointed to his own brain.

The subordinate nodded and hurried down.

Not long after, a large number of troops started to withdraw from the mansion.

However, no troops and horses were still withdrawn from the periphery of the mansion. On the contrary, the soldiers who had withdrawn quickly filled their positions, consolidating the peripheral defense even more terrifying.

Not long after, Zhu Yanshuo withdrew with a group of cronies and the four masters.

Before, how fierce the coming, now, how quickly the crowd retreated after waiting.

When Zhu Yanshuo withdrew, he was actually sweating profusely.

He was very numb.

For fear that when people were evacuating, George Han would suddenly engage in himself.

But fortunately, George Han didn't move from beginning to end.

"Elder, I have ordered people to withdraw." Zhu Yanshuo walked to Ming Yu and reported softly, "However, I also asked everyone to tighten their siege to the periphery."

Ming Yu nodded: "According to the original plan, the reinforcements of Mengxue City should arrive soon. Because of the accident in the main city, we have not been fully unified, so it is no longer realistic to use the city defense to resist. So I have already sent more people to the city. Raid their reinforcements from outside."

"Right now, there are only tens of thousands of people in the city, we are not in a hurry to attack, and it is not a good idea to trap them inside."

Zhu Yanshuo also nodded: "This subordinate also thought of it. It is very likely that most of them will need to defend against external reinforcements, and we will not get much benefit if we are afraid of coming. They can resist us for a while."

"So, it's better to trap them in it first, and when we knock out the reinforcements outside, 200,000 people will suppress the mansion. Even if George Han is really powerful now, he has nothing to say, but it will inevitably become our turtle."

Ming Yu nodded: "I can rest assured that you do things."

Zhu Yanshuo was praised, but he was no longer happy, and sighed helplessly: "I really don't know how George Han came back alive. Damn, his life is so cheap?"

Ming Yu didn't answer, in fact, when she heard that George Han was alive, she was really shocked and annoyed at first, but she didn't deny that she was a little happy.

"I am an enemy of George Han. In fact, I knew from the beginning that he is not a good bone to chew." Ming Yu said: "I am tired and want to rest for a while. Here, I will leave it to you."

"Elder, rest assured, although I won't take the initiative to attack, it doesn't mean that George Han can come in and out at will."

“By the way, I didn’t bring out Pei Hu’s gang. What my subordinates think is... “When the words fell, Zhu Yanshuo came to Ming Yu’s side and gently revealed his plan.

After listening to Ming Yu, he was slightly stunned for a moment, and finally nodded: “You are right, Pei Hu is Pei Hu’s son after all, he spent so much effort to cultivate it, he should not be easily killed.

” Well, if this is the case, then act according to your opinion, even if we really evacuated here, it is definitely not in vain.” After the words fell, Ming Yu took a few people and slowly withdrew.

After Zhu Yanshuo sent off Mingyu respectfully, he looked at the Pei family’s mansion and couldn’t help sneering softly.

At this time, George Han in the courtyard slowly fell, and the Pei family came back to their senses...

Chapter 4247

“Hoo, ho, ho!”

Pei Jiajiading and soldiers who had originally supported Pei Gu were cheering, and they looked at the enemy. Having retreated to the door, it means that the danger is temporarily lifted. Naturally knowing that this is the credit of George Han, he can’t help shouting one by one!

Those female relatives also looked at George Han who was slowly falling from the sky with grateful eyes.

Fortunately, fortunately, George Han appeared in time, otherwise, they would be perpetuated by those nightmares.

Although some female relatives have been insulted, but in any case, they picked up a lot.

As for those female relatives who were not violated, obviously after wiping away their tears, their faces were full of smiles and the gratitude and admiration for George Han.

The seven princesses were also safe, and immediately ran to their father Pei Gu, or in other words, where George Han fell.

“Patriarch Pei

.” As soon as

George Han landed, he was not idle. He helped Pei Gu, who was struggling to get up, to get up. After that, a burst of energy slammed into Pei Gu’s body from the peak of his palm.

The black breath walked around Pei Gu’s body, and then he let out a slight sigh of relief.

“Fortunately, there is no internal injury, but the trauma is relatively serious, and it can be recovered after proper conditioning.” George Han finished his words and slowly withdrew his hand.

Pei Gu smiled softly: “If I can watch you come back, even if I only have half my life left, I will definitely get better.”

“The Pei family is in trouble, how dare I die casually.” George Han laughed.

Hearing this, Pei Gu's heart warmed: "Okay, okay, just come back, just come back."

"By the way, why did Mingyu's gang attack the city at this time? Moreover, just in time for the explosion of the forbidden area of death?" George Han asked.

"I don't know, I can only say that this group of guys just happened to have shit luck." Pei Gu glanced at George Han.

Although Pei Gu didn't say anything, his eyes made George Han instantly understand that Pei Gu believed that there was a traitor in the Pei family!

George Han pretended to be calm, but in reality he was secretly startled.

According to Pei Gu's statement and the concealment method he told himself, it is estimated that the traitor of the Pei family is not small. He must be in an important position and have a lot of minions. Otherwise, how could such a secret matter be quickly spread to the enemy's ears.

Even let the enemy army break through all the way to the main city.

However, Pei Gu's approach was right, and there was no need to startle the snake.

"By the way, let me introduce you. These are all the daughters of the Pei family." Pei Gu was a little embarrassed, but he still felt that it was necessary for George Han's gift at this time.

For no other reason, George Han is still his most respected guest.

It's just that most of the female relatives are not well-dressed, and some are even more disheveled!

All the female relatives bowed slightly to George Han.

"These are my seven daughters."

Pei Gu introduced the seven princesses who came over.

The seventh princess, George Han, naturally knew each other, but it was the first time that George Han met the other six princesses.

The fourth princess, the sixth princess, and the seventh princess are the most beautiful, but the eldest princess is obviously more powerful.

George Han smiled politely at them, and the seven princesses responded with their own polite smiles, trying their best to impress George Han with me

, including the seventh princess who was already familiar with George Han. .

"Let's take the female relatives to rest first." Pei Gu instructed the eldest princess.

The eldest princess glanced at George Han with a bit of contentment, and gritted her teeth: "Yes." After the words were finished

, the eldest princess took a group of female relatives and slowly left.

“As for the six of you, go and clean up the front hall, and then instruct the servants to prepare some good wine and food.” Pei Gu continued.

The six princesses were obviously quite happy to have the opportunity to continue contact with George Han.

“Yes!” After the words were finished, the six girls were about to leave.

However, George Han waved his hand: “Patriarch Pei, we’ll talk about these courtesies later. Right now, the disaster is at stake, so don’t be hasty.”

Pei Gu smiled, of course he knew this, but he just wanted to treat himself Do it with the highest etiquette to George Han.

“If that’s the case, then listen to Mr. Han.”

George Han glanced around, and then turned his gaze on Pei Hu, who was lying on the ground like a mourning dog. Suddenly, he frowned and raised his head to look at Pei Hu. Gu: “I’m a little thirsty, how about Patriarch Pei, let’s have some tea?”

Chapter 4248

Pei Gu was obviously taken aback, but since George Han opened his mouth, he was of course willing to accompany him.

The six princesses who originally thought they would not have the opportunity to get along with George Han for a while, but now they were very excited when they heard the news.

“Let’s go to prepare tea.” The six princesses quickly ran towards the hall.

Seeing the six daughters being so active, Pei Gu couldn’t help but smile bitterly.

My own daughter knows that although she is not a lazy person, she is a lady of the family.

But it happens to be such a person, and now, each of them is eager to bring tea and water.

This is not a girl’s pregnancy, what else could it be? !

Not to mention, Pei Gu hopes that if any daughter of his own can gain George Han’s eyes, then the Pei family will be able to gain a more consolidated position and strength.

“What are you all still doing? Why don’t you hurry up and defend yourself?” Pei Gu looked at the group of people who had been following Pei Hu, and couldn’t help but snort softly.

If it was before, these people would definitely not take Pei Gu's words seriously.

After all, for them, Pei Gu is just a useless old man after all.

But now, the situation is different, George Han is back.

Some of them have played against George Han, and of course they know how powerful George Han is, and even those who have never played against each other are not stupid. Seeing that so many soldiers of the Mingyu Department have retreated collectively at this time, do they still dare to trouble George Han? !

And with the support of George Han, Pei Gu is naturally the head of the family that they can't afford to offend now.

Hearing Pei Gu's order, everyone quickly picked up their weapons and began to act according to the order.

At this time, Pei Gu did not liquidate them.

Obviously, he was very kind. How could they dare to slack off? !

"As for this villain!" Pei Gu snorted coldly, and glanced at Pei Hu on the ground: "Throw it into the firewood room and get some treatment." After the words were finished, Pei Gu turned around, his angry face turned into a smile, and rushed to Han three thousand Said: "Let's go, let's drink tea in the main hall." The two slowly walked towards the main hall one after the other.

In the main hall, the six women who had never done rough work had already cleaned the hall, and two cups of good ginseng tea were just served.

Pei Gu was not polite at all, and directly invited George Han to the main seat.

The six women stood beside George Han secretly, and they all wanted to squeeze out a position closer to George Han.

However, this position is obviously the closest to the Seventh Princess.

On this point, several women have a consensus, only two or three are fighting.

"Three thousand, you have seen the situation now.

Although your bravery can indeed resist them for a while, there are more than two hundred thousand enemy troops in the city. This..." Pei Gu finished his words and looked at George Han: "You have a precedent that less wins more when it's time to fall. Can you give me some pointers?"

"For example, how should I defend the mansion."

George Han shook his head, took the tea from Pei Gu, and said: "No need to do anything defensive, I guess within a day, the house will be safe."

"Oh?"

“Although Han is brave, he is not so big that one person can withstand a whole army of 200,000. The other party also knows this. The reason why they retreated, I was afraid that I was on the one hand, and on the other hand, I am afraid it was not It’s that simple.” George Han said with a wry smile.

Pei Gu frowned: “They are...”

George Han smiled and said, “If you guessed correctly, they are going to resist the reinforcements who came to support you.”

Before coming to the city, Han

George Han had seen a group of people from afar . Head towards the main city.

Seeing the large number of troops, George Han believed that it should be the Pei family army who came to the main city specially.

In this case, it is impossible for Mingyu’s group to not know the news.

To avoid being pinched, their only option was to clear the threat of reinforcements.

Therefore, the retreat of the inner city was also expected.

After hearing this, Pei Gu nodded again and again: “Then what should we do now? It’s peaceful for a while, but it’s equivalent to sitting still, but if we want to take the initiative to attack, with our current strength, I’m afraid...”

George Han nodded: “Indeed It’s hard to gain momentum.”

“Then you...” Pei Gu looked at George Han eagerly.

Now he has no choice but to pin his hopes on George Han.

I hope this man who descends from heaven can show God again.

At this time, George Han frowned tightly...

Chapter 4249

can we rescue the crisis in the city?

In fact, George Han has been thinking about this question all the time.

It’s just that George Han didn’t have a good way to solve the problem.

“How many people are still available in our city?” George Han asked.

“About a few thousand people, but...”

Pei Gu didn’t say anything, and George Han also knew his dilemma. The general idea is that the hearts of these people are already uneven, so whether it can be used or not is a huge unknown.

And if there are too many people who can’t use it, this matter is no longer the so-called subtraction, but a complete pairing method.

Half of the 10,000 people can’t use it, then all of them can’t be used.

“Patriarch Pei, right now, I need at least a team of elites to help me support.”

“Otherwise, even if there are all kinds of clever tricks, it will be impossible.” “But there are only a few people in the army in the city, and you can see the situation.” Pei Solid is also a bit difficult.

“Do you know why they didn’t take Pei Hu away?” George Han looked at Pei Gu.

Pei Gu was stunned, but he hadn’t thought about this.

Because of this matter, it seems normal not to talk about it, but if you want to ask it out individually, it seems that you can ask a question.

“Pei Hu has the heart of rebellion, or in other words, he doesn’t want to betray the Pei family, he just wants to betray you and be the king himself.” George Han said.

Pei Gu gave a wry smile: “This is all my own useless son, and I am ashamed to say it. However, what you said is the truth, he is indeed a traitor.”

“According to the words of Patriarch Pei, how do you want to punish?”

“This?” Pei Gu didn’t know how to answer for a while.

From the momentary emotions, of course, he wanted to kill him directly, disobedient and unfilial, how could he be worthy of being a human being.

But from a more rational point of view, he couldn’t make this move.

In the end, it is his own son, and whether it is himself or his family, he has invested a huge amount of blood to cultivate him.

If it was said to be cut, it would be a vent of anger, but what should the entire Pei family do next? !

Not to mention those henchmen who have always supported him, he is really not easy to deal with just from his own lineage.

After all, Pei Hu is the future of the Pei family.

If even the future is cut off, where will the Pei family, which is already riddled with holes, go in the future? !

It’s just that, he was embarrassed to say it, for fear of being scorned by others, saying that he shielded his son for the sake of this pervert.

“Actually, at most, it’s just to teach some lessons, right?” George Han smiled: “Actually, you don’t have to be embarrassed, I can think about it.”

Some consolation.

George Han shook his head: "What do you think of Zhu Yanshuo?"

"This person is gentle on the surface, but he has a bad stomach, but what I have to say is that he is indeed a smart person."

George Han nodded: "Since that's the case, you Do you think he can guess what I guessed just now?"

Pei Gu didn't answer immediately, but thought seriously about George Han's question.

In fact, as long as this question is a little deeper, the answer will surely be seen. This is not too difficult, anyone with a little brain can think of it.

Therefore, Pei Gu simply nodded.

"This is the problem." George Han smiled: "I can guess it, and he can guess it, so he kept Pei Hu .

Yes, although Pei Hu can be exempted from the death penalty, it must be a living crime. Zhu Yanshuo's group left Pei Hu

, most likely to make Pei Hu suffer and let him break out with dignity. Do you understand what I mean?"

"What do you mean..." Pei Gu seemed to begin to understand.

"He wants to split your father and son. He knows you won't kill Pei Hu." George Han said.

"At that time, the external crisis is resolved, and you are in chaos internally. For Zhu Yanshuo and others, it must be the benefit of the fisherman at that time, and even..." George Han smiled lightly.

"Even what?" Pei Gu asked anxiously.

George Han patted him on the shoulder. He knew that Pei Gu already knew that Pei Hu might even become someone else's minion and help control the Pei family.

It's just that it is difficult for him to accept the reality and needs someone else to give a positive answer.

"George Han, then according to your opinion, what should we do?"

"Whatever others leave behind, start with whatever." George Han sneered...

Chapter 4250

Since they put Pei Hu as a bomb on their side.

So, the best way now is to keep this bomb from exploding.

"As for the reinforcements on the periphery, I will find a way to save them." George Han said.

"But when the two armies on the periphery are fighting, how can you resist with your own strength? You know, they won't obediently retreat like they did just now."

Of course George Han knew this.

The reason for retreating in the hospital was because there were better options, and killing the reinforcements was their only option. They could only go all out, otherwise they would be annihilated.

Therefore, it is extremely unrealistic to expect them to be frightened away by themselves when they fight for aid.

However, George Han still has his own plan: "Don't worry, I have some people."

"You have some people?"

Pei Gu frowned, a little surprised: "If I remember correctly, you didn't bring people here. "

You don't have to think about this. As long as I can say it, I can do it naturally. At the moment, we don't need to think about it externally. Internally, we need to discuss how to play the game." After the words were finished, George Han glanced at Pei. Gu, said: "Pei Hu is young and energetic, but this kind of person is often a pawn used by others. If we punish him at this time, we will definitely fall into the trap of the enemy. However, if we do not punish him, we will use the heart of the child. , since he has already taken the step of killing his father, it is impossible to be as obedient as before, so he will still become a time bomb in the future."

"Three thousand, you are right." Pei Gu nodded heavily: "Yes With a son like you, I'm afraid any family will not worry about rising, but it's a pity that my dog can't even match your finger."

"I think Patriarch Pei exempts him from punishment and then rewards him greatly, Patriarch Pei thinks?" George Han frowned.

"This son should be rewarded for being so disobedient? What do other people think? Second, he is already the future successor. If I reward him again, won't it become more and more lawless in the future?" Pei Gu frowned. .

"Just don't let others know about it? Again, the reward doesn't necessarily mean a promotion, it may also be a name promotion, giving him a higher position and depriving him of the right to manage."

"Once the situation stabilizes, you will Make a fuss about this issue to achieve the purpose of punishment."

"In addition, this matter, it is best to talk about your father and son. What do you think ?" George Han said.

Pei Gu hesitated slightly, and finally nodded involuntarily: "What George Han said is quite reasonable, so, I will do it."

"Wait a minute!" George Han said.

"Three thousand, what other orders do you have?"

"Let the people who are guarding the mansion not relax and tell them that the enemy may break in at any time. We must convince Zhu Yanshuo that we did not analyze his thoughts, but because Strange and worried people continue to send more manpower to the mansion."

Only in this way can we go unnoticed.

Once Zhu Yanshuo sees that the defenders in the city are not strict, he must know that he has guessed his mind.

At that time, he stepped up his defenses, and it was basically impossible to give George Han other possibilities.

“Yes,

I understand, I’m here to give instructions.”

Nodding, George Han picked up the tea, drank it, glanced at the six princesses who had been standing obediently beside him, couldn’t help but smile bitterly in his heart, what were his eyes pretending to do? did not see.

Knowing that George Han’s cultivation is powerful, and now hearing about George Han’s every step, even if the girls don’t understand the military, but seeing their father’s promises and nodding repeatedly, they must know that George Han’s strategy must be very good.

Such a brave and resourceful man is still good-looking, how can there be a woman who will not be moved? !

However, George Han could only pretend not to see anything and drink his tea silently.

Right at this moment, the other five girls encouraged the Seventh Princess slightly, and the Seventh Princess couldn’t help but take a step forward and rushed out...
