

Chapter 4321

"Miss Su, please speak."

"You keep saying to protect the reputation of the old family owner, let me ask you, in us, in you As the most important partner of the Pei family, does the old owner still have a reputation?" Amelia Su asked.

"This..." He was dumbfounded, not knowing how to answer.

"I'll answer it for you." Amelia Su said softly: "Actually, when we found out about this, we were really surprised, and even had a hard time accepting it. But think about it carefully, anyone who is not a sage can be blamed, and so is the old family owner."

"It's not scary when a person makes a mistake. What's scary is that he doesn't admit it, and even uses dirty and despicable means to keep covering it up."

"In the end, this person is really stinky. I think you shouldn't want to see it. Is that the case with the old master?"

He nodded: "What does Miss Su mean?"

"It's Shanyan who made it up on the spot

."

"I think, restore Pei Mu's identity. However, I can also understand you. Let's take a step back, you see?"

"How to take a step back?"

"Pei Gu is the head of the family, he should know. We will tell him this, and then, in some name or form, we will Give Pei Mu a name."

"It doesn't have to be the son of the old master, it can be Pei Gu's adopted son, or even his own son. How about it?"

George Han nodded: "You have your reasons, but Pei Mu There is also Pei Mu's innocence, and besides, he is also the son of the old family owner after all, isn't he?"

"Amelia Su's method can not only preserve the reputation of the old family owner, but also prevent you from making mistakes in this matter, otherwise, paper will not be able to cover the fire. Once this matter is known to outsiders, your Pei family will The reputation at that time will only be hit harder than you imagined." The shadow nodded and tore off the veil, and it turned out to be an old man.

"Actually, for many years, I have always felt guilty for Pei Mu. Whenever I want to help him, I always know that I can't do that. For many years, I can't sleep at night."

"Since the VIPs have said this, then I don't have anything to say, so let's just act accordingly."

He himself had no choice, after all, Han 30 million was not happy, so why should he tell everyone about it? Wasn't the Pei family's reputation ruined at that time?

Besides, George Han is a VIP, and the most important person in the Pei family at the moment. Since he can let go of the past, it is not a bad thing for this matter to come to an end.

The most important thing is that Pei Mu will have an identity in the future, at least...you don't have to be so sad.

"Let's go, and discuss with Pei Gu when you go back. After all, this is your family matter. If I go to intervene, it will make the situation even more embarrassing." George Han said.

"Yes."

"Wait a minute." George Han stopped him.

"What else is going on, Han Shaoxia."

"What happened tonight, we will treat each other as not happening."

"Got it." After the words were finished

, the old man jumped directly onto the high wall, and soon disappeared into the night. .

"It's time for us to rest." George Han looked at Amelia Su and said.

Amelia Su nodded, but was still a little worried: "You said, did Pei Gu answer our request?"

"Let's seal something else. I'm a little too sorry for Pei Mu's suffering, but it doesn't seem appropriate to recognize a son. After all, doesn't this mean that Pei Gu admits that he has an illegitimate child

?"

George Han nodded: "I know what you are worried about, but don't worry, I have my own arrangements."

"What are your arrangements?" Seeing George Han say this, Amelia Su became interested.

George Han didn't answer, turned and walked towards the bedroom.

Amelia Su murmured angrily: "Three thousand dead, and then sold out." After a night, there was no news of the fire in the backyard of Qifeng Pavilion. Even when George Han and his wife woke up, the houses in the backyard were basically on fire. Almost repaired.

It can be seen that the efficiency of that person's work yesterday was very high.

After getting up, the two couples went to see Ziqing again. After the repairs were almost done, the two left Qifeng Pavilion and headed towards Pei Mansion.

Today's Pei family is already crowded, because today, the Pei family has two extremely important things to announce.

Chapter 4322

. "Yesterday, I have assigned the answers, the five of you, please hand in the papers."

Five people.

Look at me, I look at you, and then, one by one, they handed all their answers to George Han in an orderly manner.

After taking the paper, George Han sat back in his seat and looked at it.

None of the five sons dared to say a word, and waited quietly.

It was rare to find peace in the audience. Even if there were some discussions, most of them were very quiet, for fear of disturbing George Han.

Pei Gu was also a little nervous. After all, these five were his sons, and he was also excited by them.

The first, the article is very long.

The impression of seeing George Han can be described as amazing everywhere.

The second part is relatively short, but the rhetoric is exceptionally beautiful.

After reading it, George Han also showed these to Amelia Su.

In terms of answers, it seems that the person who wrote the first four articles has the greatest advantage, and Amelia Su also handed George Han his favorite article.

"This article is really well written." George Han smiled lightly.

The writer who was named and praised was the third of the five sons.

Seeing the current scene, his face was filled with countless joy.

Many people also immediately cast envious glances at him. After all, getting George Han's praise means that he is only one step away from becoming his apprentice.

"However, it is also the worst." Of course, George Han's words changed, and everyone was immediately shocked on the spot.

"Why?" the man asked puzzled.

George Han smiled slightly: "Let me ask you, you and I are only one-on-one, how can you write so many impressions of our first meeting?"

"But we met by chance, right? You wrote so much, In fact, more of it is just something you deliberately render."

"This..." The three sons were suddenly embarrassed.

This is true. After all, he and George Han are only meeting for the first time. It is too difficult to write something based on this.

In order to win, he really made up a lot of things.

And then piled up with rhetoric to form the article that looks perfect today.

But I didn't expect... to be seen at once.

"So, from the perspective of the most authenticity, this article is relatively the best."

George Han finished his words and picked up the fifth article.

There are few words, and the description is extremely reluctant.

All of a sudden, the most lost fifth son, Fangfo, took a trip from hell to the world. One second, he was still bowing his head and felt that he had no chance. The next second, he suddenly became an absolute favorite.

How can ordinary people feel such a difference.

"But..." George Han still changed his words: "The description is too reluctant, which also shows that the writing skills are too poor."

"I will also do some other things in order to perfunctory me."

When the words fell, George Han was a little disappointed.

At this moment, a figure slowly came up from the stage.

When everyone saw this figure clearly, they couldn't help but turn pale.

"Pei Mu? Damn, what is that evil star doing here?"

"Can he come here now? Grandma, what are you doing? Get someone to coax him down."

"Shaxing, don't come. Make trouble in this place, get out of here."

Many people were surprised, but they scolded in anger.

For them, Pei Mu should stay in a no-man's corner, not to show shame on such an occasion.

Pei Gu's eyes shrank suddenly

, a little shocked and a little puzzled, what is he doing here at this time? !

For the first time in his life, Pei Mu was a little timid when facing so many people, but he was brave enough to walk slowly in front of George Han.

George Han smiled lightly: "How did you prepare for the thing you were asked to answer last night?"

Pei Mu bit his lip, and then took out a piece of white paper from his cuff. On the paper, a simple wrote a few words.

When the crowd saw such a scene, they were all shocked.

“What do you mean? Pei Mu’s evil star also got the exam paper? Damn, no, he was also selected by George Han into the category of disciple selection?”

“fu**, what’s going on? Pei Mu’s evil star What qualifications do you have?”

“Damn, he will kill everyone.”

Everyone was cursing wildly, in stark contrast to the silence when the other sons handed in the papers.

George Han took his answer sheet...

Chapter 4323

volume, a few simple words, George Han, male and some basic characteristic information, nothing else.

“Pei Mu, this thing you wrote is also called an answer sheet?”

“Yes, write the most basic information above, who are you perfunctory here?”

“Even if George Han can’t be our master, that’s still the case. VIP of the Pei family, why do you treat me so carelessly?”

Although the young masters couldn’t read the details above, they could basically get a general overview because they were so close. When they saw these words , could not help but despise one by one.

From a written point of view, Pei Mu’s answer sheet is indeed quite simple, and it can even be said to be hasty.

George Han smiled lightly: “But from my point of view, this thing from Pei Mu is the answer I want the most.”

Everyone suddenly looked at George Han in disbelief, and even Pei Gu was slightly surprise.

Actually, this time I am giving you the answer sheet. My purpose is not to test your writing and writing skills. What I test is your heart.”

“Accepting an apprentice is actually like a carpenter looking for the most perfect wood. Do you agree?”

Everyone nodded.

“It doesn’t really matter what the wood looks like. It doesn’t matter if it’s a semi-finished product or a whole piece of wood that needs to be developed. It’s just that the carpenter spends more energy on carving and grinding.”

“However, if the wood is fundamentally , is not solid, or the inside is already rotten, so what’s the use?”

“This answer sheet, the reason why you do this is actually because I want to see your temperament.”

“You are only in contact with me for the first time. In fact, everything you know about me is only one-sided. Naturally, the answer should be simple and basic information. “

What? The whole article is gorgeous, and I think I have known you for a long time.” “Apprentice, the apprentice I like must have original intentions, so on this point, Pei Mu and Xiao Wu’s answer sheet is I am most satisfied.” As soon as these words came out, the scene was silent. Many people were completely in shock. Obviously, they did not expect that the test paper given by George Han had such meaning behind it. Pei Gu smiled bitterly, this George Han really did not reveal anything. Even the old fox, he didn’t see the real meaning behind this answer sheet at first. However, now that he understands it, Pei Gu can’t help but smile knowingly, because what George Han said is indeed the truth. As for accepting apprentices, the apprentices themselves are used for training. Although natural talent accounts for a large proportion, the character of an apprentice is undoubtedly the most important . Who doesn’t want to clean up under their own door? “In view of this, Xiao Wu and Pei Mu stay, and the others can go down.” George Han said. Hearing this, the other four sons’ faces were obviously filled with loss and frustration. A good opportunity, just like this slipped from the eyes, the five sons came from hell to heaven, they just fell from heaven to hell. However, the results have come out, and even if their hearts are unwilling, the four of them can only get off the stage angrily. Soon, only the fifth son and Pei Mu were left in the audience. “What’s your name?” George Han asked. The fifth son held back his happiness and said softly, “Pei Yuan.”

George Han nodded.

“Okay, congratulations to the two of you who basically passed my first test.”

“However, accepting apprentices is not a simple way to get started with a sincere heart. If this is the case, everyone in this world is a disciple of the sect . “

The second test is also the final test.”

“Ability test.”

Hearing George Han’s words, Pei Mu and Pei Yuan glanced at each other, and then gave George Han a salute, indicating that the two were ready. complete.

George Han got up gently, and then walked to Taichung with the two of them.

With a move of his hand, a black energy shot out directly from his hand, and then two oval black energy shields were drawn in Taichung.

“The yin qi in the energy circle is extremely heavy and dangerous. After you enter, you can find a way by yourself.”

“If one of you can come out by yourself in the end, whoever passes the test will pass the test.”

If you can’t stand it, you can cry out for help, and I will let him out, but he is also equivalent to giving up this test, understand?” The two sons understood, and then each walked into the energy circle...

Chapter 4324

they entered it, the two only felt that the anti-Buddha had entered some strange and terrifying place.

The surrounding aura is abnormally disordered, and there is a very strong danger in the disorder.

In the next second, the two of them barely got used to it.

boom!

Countless strange breaths directly wrapped the two of them, and then attacked their bodies as quickly as countless locusts.

They only felt that their whole body was being bitten by crazy addiction.

And this is not over yet, as the feeling of the skin being torn became stronger and stronger, their internal organs began to be bitten.

In the two small energy circles, the heart-piercing screams of the two sons soon came.

Hearing these screams, all of them felt the scalp tingling.

Pei Gu went to George Han's side worriedly: "Brother Xian, it's just a trial, will the current scene be a little too brutal? I heard the pain of these two children, it seems... I'm afraid it is I can't stand it." George Han shook his head: "Don't worry, in fact, many of them are just illusions. Do you really think I'm some kind of poison, and if you accept an apprentice, you have to torture the apprentice to half death first?"

Pei Gu was a little embarrassed He smiled, this point, he is indeed a little suspicious.

"Actually, what I want to test more is the coping ability of the two of them."

At this moment, the energy shield on Pei Yun's side was the first to stop crying, and everything seemed to be calm in an instant.

George Han smiled lightly, and with a move of his hand, the black energy shield suddenly lost its color, and everyone could see Pei Mu inside with the naked eye.

At this time, Pei Mu sat cross-legged, very safe.

A pair of eyes were gently closed, like an extraordinary master.

And as he became so calm,

the auras around him were actually not that violent.

Pei Gu understood it, and smiled lightly: "He is quite smart and knows how to use fusion to resolve crises."

George Han nodded: "Yes, in fact, the test of apprenticeship between sects is most likely to look at the root. , and I'm more concerned with xinxing."

"Actually, Big Brother Pei, you know that some of my methods are both righteous and evil. In this regard, if the xinxing of the disciples is not well grasped, then the teachings are very likely to be harmful. The devil on one side. If that's the case, George Han thinks it's better not to accept it."

Pei Gu nodded with a smile, he finally understood why George Han's first test was a written test, and why it was screened out Those who write well.

Yes, after studying with people like George Han, xinxing is indeed above everything else.

Immediately afterwards, he set his sights on the fifth son Pei Yuan.

It's a pity that Pei Yuan is not as calm as Pei Mu. On the contrary, he is relatively impatient and has been struggling with those breaths.

From this point of view, it seems that there is no need to say much about the gap between him and Pei Mu.

"Well, if Pei Mu wins in the end, I will definitely support him as the new head of the Pei family."

"My father himself owes him too much, and it may not be a problem for me as a brother to pay it back. Good thing."

Hearing Pei Gu's words, George Han was a little surprised.

After all, what Pei Gu gave was not a little bit, but what he gave was the entire Pei family.

Although it is true that Pei Mu is his brother, the brotherhood between them must be relatively indifferent, but Pei Gu can give in like this. This kind of temperament has to be admired.

However, Han

George Han never intended to do this.

Although there is no problem objectively, this sequence of renunciation does not work everywhere.

At least, the Pei family currently seems to be the father and son.

If they are forced to break this rule, they will inevitably lead to chaos.

Many of George Han's actions are actually for the good of Pei's family. How could he suddenly insert a knife at these times? !

Therefore, from the beginning, George Han had no intention of asking Pei Mu to be in the position.

Although Pei Mu should be compensated, it doesn't have to be compensation like the head of the family.

"Patriarch Pei, isn't Pei Yuan still here? He didn't admit defeat, but you did?" George Han smiled softly and looked at Pei Yuan.

Pei Gu wanted to say something at first, but he lowered his eyes again, and his doubtful eyes were full of surprises!

Chapter 4325

At this time in another energy hood, although Pei Yuan is unusually impulsive and frantically attacking those energies, it seems to be a bit hysterical.

But in fact, if you look carefully, you can clearly find that he is not doing useless work.

Those frantic black qi had been dissipating continuously at this time.

After that, with a violent explosion, all the energy exploded instantly.

Pei Yuan used different methods to complete his defense-breaking journey.

He succeeded!

George Han smiled with satisfaction.

The same thing has different ways to break it. Pei Mu is relatively peaceful and let it go, while Pei Yuan is full of steel and will always move forward.

This is what George Han is happy to see, and it is also a different way that George Han wants most.

"They are all doing well." Han

George Han nodded: "One yin and one yang, each has its own merits."

Pei Gu's face was full of joy, after all, his son also passed the assessment, which is certainly something to be happy about.

But then came the problem.

There was no winner or loser in the battle between the two.

Then, this most likely means that the competition will continue.

"Three thousand, what is the third assessment?" Pei Gu asked.

Although he did not participate in the assessment, if he could know the assessment items in advance, he would at least have some confidence in his heart.

"There is no third assessment." George Han said.

"Then...this..." Pei Gu was a little embarrassed: "How do these two get together?"

"I didn't say I had to accept only one apprentice." George Han laughed.

In fact, George Han's original intention was to only accept one.

But unfortunately, he met Pei Mu on the way.

He quite likes this child, obedient and sensible.

Therefore, George Han temporarily changed his mind.

The number of people increased to two, not only accepting what they liked, but also fulfilling the promise to Pei Gu.

“You... you mean... accept both?” Pei Gu’s eyes were shining.

How could he not be happy? How can you not be excited? !

There are two places, and they are all children of his Pei family. What does this mean?

This means that his Pei family will have two powerful generals, and the Pei family will be infinitely crazy in the future.

“Yes.” George Han nodded, then blinked at Pei Gu, and whispered: “However, the seniority may be messed up, don’t you mind?”

Seniority?

Come on, that’s a shit.

As long as the Pei family can have a good chance, not to mention his mother’s chaotic generation, what if he makes him Pei Gu call Uncle George Han?

But it’s just a shout, the mouth can’t suffer, and people can’t suffer.

Seeing Pei Gu shaking his head frantically, George Han smiled knowingly, which was what he expected.

After all, if this matter were replaced by himself, he would agree to it.

“Okay.” George Han pulled up the two of them and walked to the front a few steps: “Then I also announce that from today, Pei Mu and Pei Yuan will officially become my George Han’s disciples.”

“Pei Mu will break first . The shield is naturally a senior brother, and when Pei Yuan breaks the shield, he is a junior brother.”

“Roar!” The audience burst into cheers with George Han’s announcement.

The crowd was very happy.

“What are you still doing, hurry up and serve me the tea.” Pei Gu scolded the old man who served the tea.

The old man who served the tea was none other than the old man who broke into Qifeng Pavilion last night. At this time, he had already been immersed in this happy ending, and he forgot to serve the tea, and was scolded by Pei Gu. , he just woke up like a dream.

In the next second, he ran over on top of his ass.

The tea was placed between the two sons, and the two sons each held a teacup on one side. After kneeling down, Qi Li brought the tea to George Han.

“Master, please have some tea.”

“Although I recognize the two of you as apprentices, it is far from over whether I can worship the teacher or not! I have to see if you can let me drink this tea.” George Han Chi smiled.

Seeing the two boys looking at each other in confusion, George Han smiled mysteriously, and then, under everyone's astonished eyes, George Han moved...

Chapter 4326

the next second, Han Sanqian's body was nearly half a meter off the ground.

The body also assumes a semi-inclined posture.

Such a posture, if you want to serve tea, it is definitely not enough in terms of the height of two people.

But Han Sanqian was already standing there, just looking at the two of them quietly. Obviously, that's how he arranged it.

Pei Mu and Pei Yuan looked at each other, and then they had a preliminary idea in their minds.

"Pei Mu, if the two of us want to honor Master's tea, there is only one choice."

Pei Mu also nodded: "I'm standing below, you step on my shoulders."

Pei Yuan shook his head: "You step on On me, you go to respect. You are thin and weak, I am strong enough, and I have the inner strength to make a base." After the words were finished, before Pei Mu seemed to agree, Pei Yuan had already walked under Han Sanqian, and then his body He squatted, patted his shoulder, and motioned Pei Mu to step on it.

Pei Mu

hesitated for a while, bit his teeth, held the teacup, and started to act cautiously.

Although Pei Mu is very light to a certain extent, he always has bones, and he bared his teeth and grinned when it was still painful against Pei Yuan's back.

But Pei Yuan never uttered a word from beginning to end, gritted his teeth and forcibly supported.

Even, in order to make Pei Mu pass the tea to Han Sanqian more stably, he even made a horse step, and then kept his body as stable as possible.

Pei Mu, who was on his body, was also working hard, trying his best to ensure that the teacup in his hand would not shake or shake.

Finally, a cup of tea was finally handed to Han Sanqian.

Pei Mu lightly used his foot to push against Pei Yuan's back. After reminding him, the two of them said in unison, "Master, please drink tea."

Hearing this chorus, Han Sanqian laughed. Satisfied, he took the teacup and drank it happily.

Immediately afterwards

, a burst of energy shot out from Han Sanqian's hand.

In a blink of an eye, the three of them collectively landed steadily.

"Do you know why you want to serve tea like this?" Han Sanqian asked.

Pei Mu and Pei Yuan both shook their heads, not knowing what it meant.

"Think again!" Han Sanqian smiled and said, "No hurry."

"Master wants us to work together, right?" Pei Yuan said tentatively.

Han Sanqian nodded: "Yes, I, Han Sanqian, don't have any apprentices, and it is unlikely that I will accept any more apprentices in the future. But the two existing apprentices, I hope you both love each other."

"One person After all, your strength is limited, even your master and I have always relied on the help of my brothers."

"So, this is also your first class to get started."

Hearing this, Pei Mu and Pei Yuan nodded.

Pei Gu couldn't help laughing, and walked over a few steps: "Master is worthy of being a master , Sanqian you not only taught them a lesson, but also taught a lesson to all of our Pei family."

"Yes, in this world . There are many capable people, but those who are united are not the most important part."

"One chopstick is easy to break, but a hundred chopsticks are as strong as a tree."

Han Sanqian smiled lightly: "Brother Pei is serious. ."

Pei Gu smiled, then walked to Pei Yuan and Pei Mu, and said, "Since you have already worshipped the teacher, then in the future, everything must be obedient to the teacher's words."

"The Pei family put the words here. If the two of you dare to be disobedient, don't blame the entire Pei family for turning their backs on you."

"Remember?" The

two nodded.

"Okay, just remember it. In addition, the two of you must study hard in the future. You also know that there are as many people in this world who want to worship Han Sanqian as a teacher.

The . You must cherish it even more."

"The future of the Pei family is all in your hands. If you cultivate well, the family will be more prosperous. You know?

" Whatever the master asks the child to do, the child will do."

"Patriarch, so does Pei Mu."

Both children nodded.

"Okay, okay!" Pei Gu looked at the two children and was very relieved.

Han Sanqian smiled and was about to speak. At this moment, a servant rushed in in a hurry. After walking to Pei Gu's side, he seemed to have something to say.

Pei Gu is very annoying. What is the occasion?

However, he came all the way, and from the look on his face, he seemed to have something important to do, so he nodded and told him to say something.

The man looked around, then lowered his ears and said softly, "Pei... Young Master Pei Hu's body... no... gone."

Chapter 4327

"What?" Hearing

this, even in such a situation, Pei Gu suddenly lost his voice.

Seemingly feeling that something was wrong with him, Pei Gu hurriedly closed his mouth, and then his eyes glared at the person: "Didn't I ask you to set up a mourning hall for his body and keep it under strict supervision?"

Pei Hu died, although He is the son of great disobedience, but after all, he is a prince, and after all, he is also Pei Hu's son.

Therefore, after the incident, Pei Hu's funeral was still being prepared in an orderly manner.

Just in order not to cause the transitional reflection and the attention of outsiders, these things are carried out very low-key.

But no matter how low-key it is, this place is always the palace of the Pei family. How could a good-looking corpse suddenly disappear? !

"There are guards at the mourning hall all the time, and the old officials of Mr. Pei Hu's death have been mourning in the mourning hall all the time, but... but that's it, but , the son's body is..."

"That is, Fang Cai, Some elders wanted to put beads in the mouth of the young master, so they were surprised to find that the corpse was gone."

Pei Gu's face was cold: "So, you don't even know when Pei Hu's corpse walked away?

" One low, indeed.

Although the voices of the two of them were very low, with Han Sanqian's consciousness, they could basically hear them clearly.

In fact, he was very suspicious about this matter.

Now that the foreign aggression has disappeared, to be precise, the entire Pei family should be the only people from the Pei family.

In this case, it is impossible to say that the body was stolen.

Moreover, Han Sanqian has been in and out of Pei's house for the past few days, and he didn't notice any abnormality in Pei's house.

This is really outrageous.

In addition, Han Sanqian is actually a little strange, Pei

Huren is dead, what is the purpose of stealing his body?

This is absolutely useless.

“Strange.” Han Sanqian couldn’t help sighing, and then he walked to Pei Gu in a few steps: “Is there anything I can help with?”

Pei Gu did not intend to hide Han Sanqian, seeing that Han Sanqian had already taken the initiative. When he came to ask, he shook his head: “It’s nothing to lose a corpse, but it’s a bit too strange.”

Han Sanqian nodded: “Exactly.”

“When Pei Hu died, his cronies also It’s basically impossible to come up with any kind of moth, after all, what’s the use of taking a corpse?” Pei Gu was puzzled.

“Besides, who would steal a corpse?”

“Or, will Sanqiandai accompany me to see it?” Pei Gu said.

Anyway, there is a celebratory feast in the evening. First, the whole city celebrates to announce the victory.

The second is that Han Sanqian succeeded in accepting apprentices. The Pei family not only celebrated the selection of their own children, but also thanked Han Sanqian with a feast.

Therefore, in terms of affection and reason, public and private, Han Sanqian is the absolute protagonist of two of them. Han Sanqian’s original intention was to rest for a night tonight, and he should leave for tomorrow.

Moreover, the two children also need to be prepared eventually, and they also have people or things they need to say goodbye to.

So, there is nothing else going on at the moment anyway. Since this is a bit weird, it’s okay to follow along.

Seeing that Han Sanqian agreed, Pei Gu sent his servants.

After that, he instructed others to continue the process of today’s apprenticeship ceremony.

Amid the cheers of the crowd, after ten minutes, the entire apprenticeship ceremony finally ended successfully.

After the end, the group did not idle, but under the leadership of Pei Gu, they dared to go to the mourning hall all the way.

The mourning hall is located in the hall where Pei Hu lived in the main mansion.

In order to keep a low profile, no elegiac couplets for funerals were hung in front of the door of his Prince's Palace.

Same as usual.

Only after entering, it is barely visible that there is a mourning hall erected inside.

Too low key indeed.

However, if it is Han Sanqian, I am afraid that he will arrange it like this.

"It's really a bunch of rice buckets, a bunch of living people, even a dead person can't keep it, what do you want to eat?" As soon as Pei Gu entered the hall, he suddenly shouted angrily.

I don't blame him for being angry. Within his sphere of influence, it is still the main city or the main mansion, and the body of his own family has been lost. It is shameful enough to spread it out.

Everyone present kept their mouths shut, and no one dared to make a sound.

Han Sanqian didn't speak, he followed behind Pei Gu, and while Pei Gu taught them a lesson, he looked around seriously.

He wanted to see if there were any clues.

Suddenly, his eyes stopped at a certain place...

Chapter 4328

It was deliberately hung in the hall, surrounded by various white flowers, and when viewed from a distance, it looked like a suspended ceiling.

"Abrupt? Brother Sanqian, what did you find?" When Han Sanqian made a voice, Pei Gu hurriedly asked.

"What's that for?" Han Sanqian asked, pointing at the hanging wood.

At this time, someone hurriedly stood up: "This is the funeral hall. The hanging wood is mainly used for decoration, and some decorations used in funerals are hung. Do you have any comments?" When the prince was alive, he did not deal with Han Sanqian. , these old princelings are naturally not friendly to Han Sanqian's tone.

Han Sanqian smiled coldly: "There are various beams in the house. If you need to decorate, you can mainly use the beams. Why do you need to do it?"

Just like the ceiling can obviously be chandelier, why should a suspended object be hung separately for the chandelier? ?

Isn't this superfluous?

"The second elder said that doing this will make the mourning hall more warm and not empty. There is no way, our son is dead, and the master likes some people. Naturally, our son is also in front of the door.

It ended up being deserted, and the second elder's method has reserved some respect for the son."

"Yes, Maokui spent a lot of money and fake compassion, and even came to point fingers at our mourning hall." Upon hearing this, several senior executives of the Pei family around Pei Gu were not happy on the spot.

Many of them now support Fifth Young Master, who is Han Sanqian's apprentice. Naturally, no one can slander Han Sanqian.

"You guys, shut up immediately, what the fuck are you? You dare to speak rudely to Mr. Han here

. I warn you, if you hear another half of it, I will kill you on the spot. Even if the head of the family is here."

"Yes, where is the guard, draw the sword for me!"

Wow!

Sure enough, several guards drew their knives on the spot and prepared to start.

The Patriarch of the Pei family is indeed here, but they all know that with Han Sanqian's current status, even if they are angry for Han Sanqian and do it privately, the Patriarch Pei will never say a single word.

Therefore, the most important thing is to flatter Han Sanqian well.

Seeing the other party draw a knife, some people are afraid, but some people are disdainful.

However, after all, the situation has reached this point, no matter how disdainful a few people are, they can only shut up obediently.

"Three thousand, I will teach these gangsters a lesson in the future. Today, we are here for something important, I think..." Seeing that the scene was quiet, Pei Gu hurriedly said to Han Sanqian.

Han Sanqian nodded, a group of ants thought they were farting.

"Go and call the second elder." Pei Gu ordered.

The subordinate took the order and was about to go down, but was stopped by Han Sanqian: "No need."

"If my guess is correct, the second elder should be no longer in the main city by now. Before the corpse succeeds, I am afraid he will He has already left and flew away."

As soon as Han Sanqian's words came out, everyone present couldn't help but be stunned.

The second elder is gone? !

Or in other words, Han Sanqian means that the second elder is the one who stole the corpse?

how can that be? !

"Full of nonsense, Han Sanqian, you killed my son first, and then insulted my second elder, what is your intention? Do you want to drive all the people around our son out of the Pei family? If so, we will. If you can't fight you, just say the last sentence, and all of us will leave the Pei family."

"The master listened to an outsider's slander, and we had no choice but to choose to prove our innocence in this way. It's just that it's all the Pei family. , I have to advise you, if you are sold by Han Sanqian in the future, don't regret listening to him today."

"That's right, Han Sanqian, stop playing tricks, what to do, just say it directly, Come on and have a good time. Cover up, what kind of man are you?"

Looking at the hot-headed dogs in the old prince's family, Han Sanqian was really helpless and extremely stupid.

They think they are smart, but in fact it is their self-righteousness that is often used as a gunman.

"Stupid and don't know it yourself, so let's go and find the second elder now. If you find it, what do you say? How about it?" As soon as the words fell, a few princelings turned around and went out to find someone. Want Han Sanqian to look good...

Chapter 4329

Pei Gu wanted to explain a few words, but Han Sanqian was very indifferent, standing quietly waiting.

He believed that it was absolutely impossible for the second elder to still be in the main city.

Sure enough, just ten minutes later, the old princelings who rushed out just now came back with their heads lowered one by one.

"I know, you guys really want to slap me in the face, but unfortunately... you don't have such a chance, Second Elder, you shouldn't be able to bring it?" Han Sanqian sneered softly.

"The second elder is the elder of the Pei family. He is busy with official business on weekdays. Do you think he is as busy as you are?"

"He will have to go out now, and you don't have to be too proud. When he comes back, he will be Let's slap you in the face."

A few people were still not soft

-mouthed, and they insisted on replying to Han Sanqian.

Han Sanqian smiled and looked at Pei Gu: "Patriarch Pei, things are already obvious."

"Sanqian, please enlighten me."

Han Sanqian pointed to the floating platform with one hand and said, "I have observed all around, There are high walls all around, and guards stand guard outside the main entrance. Anyone who wants to enter the mourning hall to steal corpses is almost like a dream."

“The floating board, although it looks like a decoration, is actually a hiding place for thieves.”

“During the day , when people are not paying attention, he hides on the top, and when the time is right, he gets down from it, and then steals the body and leaves.”

“You can even send someone to check, I believe that there must be him on the board. The footprints.”

Pei Gu waved his hand, and a few cronies immediately rushed over with a few soldiers

It didn't take a while to hear the cronies who climbed up shouting from the inside: “Footprints are indeed found on it.”

“The murderer, the second elder, actually wanted to take Pei Hu's body out from the beginning, but, the mourning hall There are so many people, it's not easy for him to start.”

“So, before setting up the mourning hall, he already found a hiding place for himself.”

Hearing Han Sanqian's words, and then contacting the current evidence, even those hard-mouthed people, this It was all silenced for a while, unable to argue for a while.

“Second elder...he...how could he do such a thing?”

“He really used us to steal the son's body?”

Han Sanqian smiled: “Because there are many people in the mourning hall, He stole the corpse and made no sound, so he walked with the corpse long time without us noticing it.”

“I thought about it, and it is very likely that he came out of the city last night.”

“Send someone to various places immediately . Check out the city records at the city gate.” Pei Gu ordered.

“Hold on, by the way, let the people from all the city gates go all the way north to chase. I believe that the second elder with Pei's corpse must be heading towards the route that the Mingyu troops evacuated.” Han Sanqian added.

The subordinate glanced at Pei Gu, and Pei Gu nodded.

“Brother Pei must be very strange, why is it in that direction? Or, did you suddenly think of something while being strange?” Han Sanqian looked at him with a smile.

Looking at Han Sanqian's eyes, Pei Gu was stunned for a moment. In the next second, he suddenly thought of something: “You mean, the death forbidden area

?”

That's right, after the death forbidden area happened, the Mingyu Department just dispatched troops. Attack the main city of the Pei family.

Moreover, the marching speed of the Mingyu Department is still like a ghost.

All of this shows that the Pei family has a traitor. Not only did he tell Mingyu about the forbidden area of death for the first time, but he even secretly planned a route to the main city.

In this way, they will be unknowingly, and they will arrive around the main city at the right time, so that the Pei family is almost completely annihilated in this catastrophe.

“Three thousand, you mean... the second elder is a traitor in the Pei family?” Pei Gu asked suspiciously.

Han Sanqian nodded and asked with a smile, “Could it be that Patriarch Pei doesn’t think so?”

“Report!”

At this moment, an urgent shout resounded outside the hall again...

Chapter 4330

Everyone looked back and the soldiers had arrived in a hurry.

“Report to the Patriarch, the second elder did disappear suddenly as expected by Mr. Han...”

“This is impossible! The second elder is a very important person in the Pei family, how could it be possible to do something like stealing the teacher?!”

“Yes, bastard. Can you find out the things? I can warn you that the identity of the second elder is extraordinary and should not be played with, if you talk nonsense, you will surely die without a place to be buried in the future.”

For the *** people, This kind of news is like a bolt from the blue.

After all, if the prince is the absolute core of the ***, then the second elder is definitely the spiritual totem in it.

The prince is dead, if even the second elder is missing, then the so-called *** is only a nameless death.

The soldier hurriedly lowered his head: “If the subordinates don’t check it out, they will naturally not feel nonsense.” After the words were finished, the soldier handed a booklet with both hands and handed it directly to Pei Gu: “Patriarch, this is the entry and exit record of the north gate. As Mr. Han said, the second elder quietly left the city in the early hours of last night, because he had the elder’s hand, so the soldiers did not stop him.”

Hearing this, Han Sanqian smiled lightly, as expected.

Pei Gu frowned, the second elder ran away, and doing such things was not just a shameful thing for the entire Pei family, but the most important thing was the deeper meaning behind it.

*** A group of people is no longer as arrogant as before in the face of irrefutable evidence. The second elder steals the corpse. This is not only their responsibility to supervise the corpse, but more importantly and annoyed, because of the prince, they have been together for a long time. Now, the second elder has committed such a crime, how can they just get rid of the relationship?

“Three thousand?” Pei Gu looked at Han

Sanqian .

“It seems that the second elder is the spy who betrayed the secrets of the Pei family.” Han Sanqian can basically conclude.

To be able to put the enemy army into the main city, and to be able to tell the enemy army everything that happened in the main city, I am afraid that only these high-ranking people can do it.

The Second Elder is such a character.

“The second elder is also considered a famous person in the Pei family. He has many minions. Although he ran away, the Pei family had to guard against it.” Han Sanqian said.

Pei Gu nodded.

“However, it is precisely because there are too many minions. If you investigate carefully, many people will be implicated. Now that the prince is dead, although they may be leaderless, Pei Patriarch should not forget . Understand, what Han Sanqian means is to pull some dead ghosts and pretend.

“I see.” Pei Gu nodded.

“Also, Brother Pei, there is something that is not worth talking about.”

“Brother Han, you and I are sworn brothers, and we are like a family. If you have something to say, you can say it directly.” Pei Gu said.

Han Sanqian nodded, and then said, “In your opinion, what is the relationship between the second elder and Pei Hu?”

“The second elder has always loved Pei Hu. From childhood to adulthood, Pei Hu learned a lot of his skills from him.”

“In a sentence In other words, it’s like a father and son, right?”

Pei Gu nodded, and the relationship between the two can almost be evaluated in this way.

“What do you think the second elder is like?”

“Although the second elder is more serious, he has always been careful in doing things.”

“I mean, his personality.”

After saying this, Pei Gu looked at Han Sanqian with some doubts, obviously not knowing why Han Sanqian asked these questions.

After all, even if the second elder is to be hunted down, there is no need to investigate them.

How to look at it, Han Sanqian asked more like the question asked by the second elder before he suspected it.

Since it has been determined that he did it, it seems unnecessary to ask these questions.

Of course Han Sanqian could understand the question in Pei Gu's eyes, smiled lightly, and said, "Patriarch Pei, Pei Hu is your own son, he is dead now, I believe you are also very uncomfortable, but what will you do? " Do you want to cry, or seek revenge from me?"

"Don't worry about me, forget the fact that he rebelled, and say you are the most real or the craziest idea."

If you don't think about Han Sanqian, don't think about him. The former rebellion, then Pei Hu is dead, Pei Gu is categorically unacceptable, killing and revenge is inevitable.

"That's right." Han Sanqian nodded, and then changed the conversation: "But it's also the worst part!"

What do you mean? Right again, right again?

Han Sanqian smiled and explained...
