Fated Human Alpha Chapter 71

Jayden POV

I can feel Storm's anger but I manage to keep him under control. "Jayden, I never betrayed you. This is not the time or place for this conversation." "I gave you an opportunity to have this conversation in my office and you chose to try and give me orders in front of my pack. That will not happen. I have made it perfectly clear that I am the Alpha and you are not. Now, if you would like to finish this conversation in my office with my Luna and her protector present, follow us." I don't even give him a chance to respond. I lead Brooke and Adrian up the stairs and into my office. "Are you alright Jayden", Brooke asks. "I will be", I say, before I lean in kissing her softly. Just her touch helps to calm me. The door swings open and my father walks in. He turns to Brooke, "I'm glad to see you're alright, Brooke." Before she can even respond, I step in front of her. "You do not speak to my mate. Tell me what you have done, father." "Jayden, I don't know what lies you have been told by this woman but" he says, shooting a glare at Adrian. "Don't you dare try to place blame on anyone else but you. Who were you telling on the phone about Jocelyn's visit to the pack." "I have no idea what the hell you're talking about. I am your father. I have done everything in this life for you. I have made you the Alpha you have become." "Bullsh*t, I have made me the Alpha I am. I am nothing like you. I would never hurt innocent people or align myself with that evil baard Drayce."

"Jayden, what can I do to prove to you that I had nothing to do with Brooke and Jocelyn being taken?" I don't want Brooke close to him after all he has done. "Adrian, are you able to read his blood?" I look back at her and she smiles. "I most certainly can." She walks forward handing our pup to Brooke. She extends her hand in my father's direction. He looks at it like it's on fire. "What do you expect me to allow this leech to drink from me?" A growl comes from behind me. "I wonder if my brother knows how you speak about our kind. Besides, Joseph, your new Luna and the future Alpha of this pack are part vampire." My father growls and steps toward her, "you do not call me by my name girl." "I would suggest you stand down father or you will find yourself in the cell next to Rian." He takes a step back but makes no move to give his hand to Adrian. "I can't believe you think I would do such a thing. I have never raised a hand to you but you think I am capable of such awful acts against these innocent girls." "Father, I think you protest too much. This is easily put to rest. Allow Adrian to drink from you and prove your innocence." "So you trust her to tell you the truth, but not your own father." "This is not up for debate, father. Give Adrian your wrist or join Rian. One way or another, the truth comes out today." "I will do no such thing. I have done nothing wrong and I will not be treated like this by my own son." "Fine" I say and link Andrew. After a few seconds of trying without any response, I reach out to two other warriors to come get my father. Where the fk could he be? "You have made your choice, father. I know you are not innocent in all of this and I will not allow you to hurt my family." "I am your family, not these people. Everything I have done I have done for you." The door opens and the warriors walk in. "Take my father to the cells now." They take my father by each arm. As they start to drag him out of the room, he yells at me "you're going to be sorry for treating me this way, Jayden." I don't even respond, because I will never be sorry after what he has done. I know in my heart that he helped that baard even if he won't admit it. Once he is gone, Brooke comes around wrapping me in her arms. I bury my head in her neck, breathing in her scent. "I'm sorry Jayden." "Don't you say you're sorry. You have nothing to be sorry for. He is the monster and he is going to get exactly what he deserves." I pull back and press my lips to hers. When I break the kiss, I brush the hair away from her face. "Come on, I'll show you to our floor." I see shock on Adrian's face. "I'm staying on the Alpha floor?" I chuckle "of course, you are family and Brooke's protector." Brooke pulls my face to hers and kisses me again. I will never tire of the feeling of her lips against mine. I take Henry from Adrian and we head up to the third floor. I push open the door across from ours and Adrian follows us inside. "This is an awesome room. Thank you, Jayden. I want you to know that I will protect you, the pups, and Brooke." "I have no doubt that you will. I'm going to show Brooke our room and then go find out what's going on with Andrew. He isn't answering me." "Who is Andrew" she asks. "He is my Beta and best friend." She nods and I take Brooke into our room. I hope Andrew got everything I asked for. Once we are inside, she stops dead in front of me. "Jayden how" she asks and I smile. There are two cribs and a rocking chair where I used to have a sitting area. I want the pups close and I'm sure she will too. I walk over and lay Henry down and she does the same with Anna. She walks toward me, wrapping her arms around me. "Thank you for doing all of this." "Brooke I would do anything for you and our pups." "I know you would. I love you Jayden." "I love you too." I press a quick kiss to her lips. "I'm going to go see what's going on with Andrew. I won't be gone long." Once I'm out of the room I let Adrian know I'm leaving the floor.

I head downstairs and into the dining room. No one seems to have seen Andrew for at least an hour. I head out to the training field as I continue to try and link him. I'm starting to panic a little. This isn't like Andrew. He knew to expect us after the meeting. He also knew that I was going to be dealing with my father. I head back to the pack house. I link the warriors that took my father to the cells and neither answer me. Now I'm more than panicked. I rush toward the door that leads to the cells. When I get down the stairs, panic doesn't even begin to describe how I feel. The two warriors are unconscious on the floor. I know I won't find him, but I go cell to cell looking for my father. Not only is he gone, but so is Rian. Storm growls and I run as fast as my legs will carry me back to our floor. I say a prayer when I reach for the handle on our door and throw it open. Brooke smiles at me and I feel a moment of relief, but it doesn't last. Brooke jumps up and rushes over to me. I'm sure she can tell something is wrong by my face. "Jayden, what's wrong?" "My father and Rian are gone, the guards are unconscious, and Andrew is missing." Joseph POV

"You did well Anthony." "Thank you Alpha." "Joseph, I am supposed to be Luna. Why are we running away? I thought the vampires were going to help us deal with that bch Jocelyn." I laugh "first of all, you will do what I tell you too. Second, we have a bigger problem than Jocelyn. My son has marked that bch Brooke and claimed her hybrid pups." "That can't be, she is supposed to be dead. You promised that you would get rid of that pathetic omega. She is not fit to be a Luna." I slap her "enough. We need to get as far away from here as possible right now. He will give us leverage" I say pointing to an unconscious Andrew lying on the ground at Anthony's feet. She places her hand on her cheek. If she is expecting an apology she won't get one. "Now, unless you want me to leave your a here for Brooke to deal with, I suggest you stay quiet and follow orders. Shift Anthony and I will put him on your back. I will lead us to the coven. Drayce is expecting us." Anthony shifts and I throw Andrew on his back. I shift into Crane and Rian shifts. We take off toward the coven. If my son thinks that he is the Alpha, then I will show him what a true Alpha does for his pack. I had hoped it wouldn't come to this but I should have known that mating with that bch would produce a weak heir.

We reach the coven and Drayce is waiting outside with a few of his men. We all shift and pull on the clothes we were carrying in our mouth. He smiles when he sees Andrew. "I see you brought me a gift, Joseph." Anthony lays down and I pull Andrew off his back. "Take him to the cell that we hold the wolves in" he says. The men carry him inside a large building that is like our pack house. "You did well Joseph. Shall we go inside and discuss our next move?" I nod "Drayce, this is Rian and Anthony. They are loyal to me and will help us deal with my son." "Very good", he says, and we follow him inside. Once we reach the office, I take a seat in front of his desk. "So you told me that you had something important to tell me when you arrived." "I do, it seems that Brooke is alive and so are your children." Drayce POV

As soon as the words leave his mouth, I'm enraged. I stand slamming my hands on the desk. "It's not possible. I saw the light leave that bch's eyes." "Drayce, I have no reason to lie to you. Besides, she didn't come with Jayden to the pack alone. Your sister was with her." "That fking bch is dead. She is no sister to me. I knew she was keeping something from me. She killed West and she is the reason that I don't have my pets or children. I want her dead." "I'm sure we can make that happen, Drayce" Joseph says. "Let's go check on our guest so we can call your son and say hello." I lead them downstairs and the wolf is still unconscious lying on the floor of the cell. I grab a bottle of water off the table and throw it on him. His eyes flutter open and as he looks around he gets to his feet. When he realizes what's happening, he tries to shift. I laugh "what's wrong, mutt, can't reach your wolf?" "What have you done?" "The bars to this cell are silver. You won't be able to shift so don't try." He looks at Joseph. "How could you do this to your son? I always knew you were a baard but you betrayed your own flesh and blood to help him" he says pointing at Joseph. "You know nothing Andrew. I would be careful you're only alive because you're useful. Don't make me kill you now", Joseph says. I shoot him a look. "That is no way to speak to our guest Joseph." He nods and takes a step back. "Now Andrew, you might live through this if you just act like a good dog and follow orders." "Fk you, I'm not like that piece of sh*t" he says pointing at Joseph. "I will never betray Jayden or my Luna." I laugh "honor is overrated Andrew. Is being loyal really worth losing your own life?" "I would rather die than help you and that pathetic excuse for a wolf." I turn to Joseph "I think it's time to give your son a call." He smiles and takes the phone out of his pocket.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 72

Jayden POV

The phone vibrates in my pocket and I pray it's Andrew, even though I know in my heart it isn't. When my father's name flashes on the screen, I tamp down my anger. If he knows where Andrew is, I need to try to be calm until he tells me. "What's wrong, Jayden?" "It's my father" I say, and Brooke comes to stand next to me so she can see the screen too. I accept the call but it's not my father's face that appears on the screen. I growl "what the fk have you done?" "Now Jayden, is that anyway to speak to an ally." I can feel Brooke's anger through our bond. "Oh it's my pet, still alive and looking fkable as usual. I hear you have my children with you." "You have no children and soon you will have no life", Brooke says before I can even respond. Goddess, she is amazing. I thought she would be afraid of this baard but instead she is strong and pissed. "Now pet", he starts to say and I growl. "Do not speak to my Luna you piece of sh*t." He laughs like I just told the funniest joke he has ever heard.

I can tell he is handing the phone to someone else and my father's face appears. "You are a lying baard and I will take great pleasure in ending you." "Maybe if you had been a stronger Alpha none of this would be happening, Jayden. You chose to accept a weak mate and try to make her Luna of my pack. That was never going to happen. I did what I had to do for you and the pack to be strong. She should have stayed gone because now you will have to bury her." "The only one who will need to be buried is you, Joseph." He turns the phone at that baard Drayce. He is standing next to a beaten Andrew who is chained to the wall. Bile rises in my throat at the thought of what they are planning. "What's the matter Jayden?" He grabs Andrew's hair, lifting his head so I can see his swollen face. My heart breaks that he is there at their mercy. "Andrew" I say. "You can turn my pet and children over to me or I can kill your Beta, Jayden. It's your choice. Who is more important, a piece of a or your Beta?" I growl and Storm is at the surface. "Don't you dare come for me. You protect Brooke and your pups. I mean it Jayden" Andrew manages to yell out before that baard punches him in the face. His head drops and I'm squeezing the phone hard enough to break it. Brooke lays her hand on mine. She links me "we will get him back, I promise you." "You have till dusk tomorrow to give back what belongs to me or I will drain him." The call disconnects and I feel like there is no air in my lungs. I can't breathe. Just a few hours ago, I was the happiest I've ever been. I feel two hands on my face and I look into my mate's beautiful eyes.

Brooke POV

Every bit of anger I had a few minutes ago is replaced by fear. Not fear for myself, but fear of what he is going to do to Andrew. He has always been kind to us and I know what he means to Jayden. He is more than just a Beta. He is like a brother to him. I take Jayden's face in my hands. "Jayden, I'm so sorry this is happening." He pulls me into his arms and I bury my head in his chest. As much as I love him and want to be here, maybe it would have been better if we never found each other again. Andrew would be safe right now. He pulls back, looking into my eyes. "Don't you ever think that again." "Jayden", I say, and he crashes his lips to mine. He pulls back when I'm breathless. He presses his forehead to mine. "We will get Andrew back and he will be here to see you become my Luna in front of the whole pack." I smile, he really is the best man I've ever met. "I think you should call Lake and Gabby. They need to know what's happened. We are going to need them here sooner to deal with these baards." He smiles and goes over to the phone on the desk. Once he picks up the phone and starts talking, I go over to Adrian who has been quietly listening to everything that just happened.

I can see the pain on her face even though she is trying to hide it. The pups are sitting on the floor at her feet playing with toys when I pull her into a hug. "None of this is your fault. Do you hear me Adrian?" "It may not be my fault but Jayden's Beta is being tortured by that baard. I should have stopped him after I found out what he did to you and your sister." I pull back to look into her eyes. "Don't do that. Do not take responsibility for someone else's crimes. You are the only reason that I am standing here today, with my pups and mate." I brush a stray tear off her cheek. "We are going to stop him and save Andrew." She nods and smiles but it doesn't reach her eyes. "Lake and Jocelyn will be here in an hour. Serina and Nicholas went to pick up Serina's brothers" Jayden says. "We will bring the pups to the Scarlett Rose pack tomorrow before we go to rescue Andrew." I can see he hates the idea of me being anywhere near the coven and Drayce but he doesn't say a word. Serina POV

We arrive at the pack and Nicholas opens my door. We head toward the building that is about the same size as the new pack house. The guard at the door nods at Nicholas. "Good to see you again, Beta Nicholas." He doesn't correct him and we head inside. My brothers are waiting with their bags in the big living room. I'm lifted off the ground and James has me in his arms. "It's good to see you sissy." "It's good to see you too. Now can you put me down." He laughs before he sets me on my feet. I'm not on them long when John has me lifted in the air. "Nicholas, your back" I hear a woman's voice and Ruby growls. John sets me on my feet and I turn to see Nicholas pushing the woman's hands away from his chest. I walk over and he wraps his arm around me. I stick out my hand and she looks down at it with disgust. "Hello, I'm Serina, Nicholas's mate." She looks like she sucked on a lemon. She turns walking away without another word and my brothers burst out laughing. "Nicholas, I think you have been claimed", James says. "Yes I have and I couldn't be happier to belong to your sister." We head out to the SUV and I'm glad that the boys will be home. As much as they drive me crazy sometimes, I really missed them.

As we drive, the phone rings in my pocket. I pull it out and Gabby's name flashes on my screen. I put it to my ear. "Gabby, we just picked up the boys and we are on our way back." "Serina, Lake just left with Jo to the Onyx Moon." "What's going on Gabby?" "Jayden's Beta has been taken by the coven and Alpha Joseph." I growl "that baard. We will leave as soon as we get back with the boys." "I have the pups and Tabby is here with me." "Good, it won't take us long to reach the pack." I hang up and slide the phone back into my pocket. I tell Nicholas and my brothers what Gabby just told me. "Why the hell are we going to our pack? Just head to the Onyx Moon. We came back to help kill those baards" James says. Before I can say anything, Nicholas does. "I know you guys want to help but you don't have your wolves yet. It is not safe for you to go into a fight with vampires when you can't shift." I turn to look at my brothers and I hate the look on their faces. They know Nicholas is right but that doesn't mean they have to like it. "Fine, we will stay behind and protect Gabby, Tabby, and the pups", John says. I know how hard this is for them to accept, but they will have their wolves soon. They have become amazing fighters and will be great Betas. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

We arrive at the pack and before we head to the Onyx Moon, we follow the boys up to Gabby's and Lake's floor. We will be moving into the new pack house after the ceremony. There will be two Alpha floors and one Beta floor for now. Twins sometimes share a mate, so we will see if that is the case for our brothers. I knock and we walk into Gabby's living room. Gabby rushes over to hug the boys as soon as she sees them. "Look at you Gabby", John says. He places his hands on her bump. "How are my nieces and nephews doing in there?" She laughs "they are playing soccer with my bladder." By the look on John's face, he is sorry he asked. Tabby hugs them both. She looks like she is ready to pop. I'm glad she won't be going with us to fight the coven. I know how strong she is but she needs to think about her pup right now. "Serina, please let us know what is happening" Gabby says, and I hug her and Tabby before we head out to the SUV. It's late when we arrive at the Onyx Moon. We meet with Jayden, Brooke, Jo, Lake, and Adrian. They fill us in on the phone call. "It looks like one of my warriors helped my father and Rian escape. They took my Beta and threatened my Luna", Jayden says. I feel so bad that he just found Brooke again and he is dealing with this. I look at Adrian and I can't imagine how she must feel knowing what her brother is doing. She is a good person and she doesn't need to feel guilt, but I can see it on her face. Nicholas takes my hand and I pray we get Andrew back in one piece.

Adrian POV

Once we finish the meeting, we head upstairs. I walk to the room that is now mine after I kiss the twins goodnight and hug Brooke. I'm so grateful for these people and I hate that Drayce is causing them all this pain. He is just like my father. He doesn't care who he hurts. I lay on the bed staring at the ceiling. I can't do this. I can't lie here and wait till tomorrow. I can't hope that Drayce will stay true to his word and keep Andrew alive till dusk. Losing Andrew will destroy Jayden. He deserves to be happy. They both deserve to be happy. I know I can get into the mansion without being caught. I have to try and get him out before anything happens to him. I stick my head out of the door and the hallway is empty. I manage to make it outside and head for the trees. I don't need to be stopped by any warriors. I'm sure they will alert Brooke and Jayden if they catch me. I use my vampire speed to reach just outside the coven. A branch brakes behind me and I whirl around to find a smiling Serina. "What the hell are you doing here?" "I could ask you the same question?" "Serina, please, I need you to go back. There is no way you can go in there with me." "I won't but you're going to need help carrying a full-grown man back to the pack." I smile, I guess I could use help. "Fine but please stay out of sight and be careful." She backs up so she is hidden in the trees. I turn and I can see the mansion as I walk forward. I watch as the patrols pass more frequently than usual. My brother must be worried to have increased the patrols. I follow the tree-line until I can see the door that leads to the kitchen. When the guard passes I run making it inside. My heart is racing and I say a prayer that I get him out safely. I reach the door that leads to the cells. I know there will be a guard so I need to be prepared to fight. I slip down the stairs slowly and the guard has his back to me. I manage to reach him without being detected. I jump wrapping my arm around his neck and twist. He falls to the ground. I walk toward the cell and the man's body is lying motionless on the floor. I can hear his blood flowing through his veins and I'm grateful he is still alive. I take the keys off the guard and open the cell door. I rush over and I can tell he is barely hanging on. He would never have survived till dusk. They had no intentions of keeping him alive.

I lay his head in my lap and the moment I see his face I know he isn't going to make it. I look up to the sky and pray this is the right thing to do. I bend down and place my lips on his neck just like I did with Brooke. I extend my fangs, biting down and inject my venom into his blood. I pull back once I know I've given him enough to turn him. His color starts to look better but he is nowhere near out of the woods. I will have the strength to get him out of here, but I'm glad Serina will be there to help me get him back to the pack. I manage to throw him over my shoulder. I head for the stairs and slowly make my way to the door that leads out. I watch the patrol guard pass again before I take off for the woods. Once I reach Serina, I set him down on the ground. His eyes start to flutter open and I gasp when I stare into his ocean blue eyes. There is no way.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 73

Adrian

As quickly as his eyes open they close again. Goddess help me, he is my beloved. Drayce almost killed my beloved. I don't have time to focus on that right now. "Serina, we need to get him back to the pack. He needs medical attention. The change is keeping him alive but he needs his wolf to heal him." She looks at me confused. "He has been in a cell surrounded by silver. His wolf has been suppressed." She nods, stepping back and shifting into a beautiful red wolf. I start to lift Andrew when I hear a growl from behind us. I turn to see Joseph and a man I've never seen before. He is not part of the coven, he is a wolf." I look back at my beloved and Serina's wolf is standing over him. She is protecting him and I couldn't be more grateful at this moment. "I believe he belongs to us", Joseph snickers. "Your brother won't take kindly to your interference girl." The only saving grace right now is he can't alert my brother. I start toward them with my vampire speed and I reach the man first. I grab him by the throat and quickly snap his neck. I feel a piercing pain in my side as I am thrown backwards. I manage to get to my feet despite the injury. Joseph shifts and runs at me. I jump up, landing on his back. He starts to buck trying to throw me off. I grip his fur and extend my fangs. I won't give him enough venom to change only to make him sick. I bite down and his blood begins to flow into my mouth. As I give him venom, images of his past flow through my mind. I release my bite and his wolf falls to the ground. I jump off ready to finish him after what I just saw, but I hear yelling in the distance. They must have realized Andrew is gone. It won't take them long to reach us.

I turn and Serina's wolf is lying next to Andrew. I pick him up placing him on her back. I climb up behind him knowing he can't hold on. Once I have him stable, I let Serina's wolf know we're ready. She takes off and I can't believe how fast we are moving. I know wolves can run, but this isn't a normal wolf speed. That's how she was able to follow me. It doesn't take us long to reach the pack border. As soon as we cross over into the pack lands we are surrounded by three wolves. I yell out "we have the Beta and he needs help." One of the wolves shifts and when he realizes it's Andrew, he gives the order to stand down. "Follow me" he says over his shoulder before he shifts back into his wolf and we follow behind him. When we reach the pack hospital, Serina's wolf lays down, allowing me to slide off with Andrew in my arms. Two of the guards grab him and carry him inside. I follow close behind them. "You have to wait here" a nurse says as she stops me from going through the double door. Everything in me wants to bare my fangs and move her but I don't. "Adrian" I hear from behind me and I'm wrapped in Brooke's arms. "What the hell were you thinking? What if you were caught? What if you were killed?" "Brooke, I'm fine. I'm here with you and I'm fine."

The door opens and Serina walks in, followed by Lake, Nicholas, and Jayden. She wraps me in a hug. Jayden picks me up, hugging me. "If I wasn't so happy right now I would be giving you such a lecture about putting yourself at risk." I smile and he sets me on my feet. I won't tell him right now what I saw when I bit his father, but he deserves to know exactly what his father has done. He kisses Brooke before he walks through the double doors. I hear Lake scolding Serina and I'm just about to interrupt when she stands placing her hands on her hips. "I am not a child. I knew what I was doing and we saved Andrew because I was there to help. I am an equal Lake." He stands and wraps her in a hug. "I know you are but you scared the hell out of me. Please, next time, include me in the plan. It wouldn't just kill your parents and siblings. It would kill me if something happened to you." I smile loving how honest and sweet Lake is with his sister-in-law. She pulls back, "I'm sorry, next time I will let you know what is going on, but you don't get to stop me if I do." He sticks out his hand "deal." Nicholas comes around him and wraps her in his arms "you're amazing."

Drayce POV

The door flies open and one of my soldiers rushes in. I push the mutt's mouth off my dk and fix my pants. I'm just about to scream at him for his disrespect when he begins talking fast about the prisoner. "Slow the fk down and tell me what is going on." "The prisoner is gone. I went to relieve Justin and he was dead." "Why the fk are you here instead of looking for him and whoever helped him escape?" I reach my hand out and rip out his throat. His body falls to the ground and I step over him. I will not tolerate stupidity from my men. I don't even give a second thought to the bch whimpering on my floor. I alert my guards and head outside to join them to look for the mutt. He was barely hanging on and there is no way he escaped on his own. I will not lose my bargaining chip. I know that boy is weak and he will do everything he can to save his Beta. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Once I'm outside, I hear someone yelling from the eastern border. I use my speed to reach him. A wolf I recognize as Joseph is lying on the ground. He is still breathing, which is more than I can say for Anthony. He has been drained and I'm sure I know who did it. I turn to my men, dismissing all but three of them to look for the mutt. "Take him to the healer now", I say pointing at Joseph's wolf. They lift him, taking him to the healer's cottage. She walks out onto the porch and looks at the wolf lying on the ground. "What do you expect me to do for this wolf? I know how to help vampires, not wolves." "I still need him to get what belongs to me. If he dies, you die. I suggest you figure out how to help him." I see the fear flash across her face. I turn walking back toward the mansion. I know Adrian is responsible for helping that mutt escape. I reach my office and thankfully, that wh*re was smart enough to leave. I might have drained her just for being a wolf with how angry I am right now.

Andrew POV

I meant every word I said to Jayden, not because I don't care about dying, but I know what losing her would do to him. The pack needs Jayden. That baard cannot be Alpha again. The pack is so different with Jayden in charge. The pack members are happy and well cared for. After that fking vampire hit me again, everything went black. I can't reach Gideon and my wounds aren't healing. It won't take long for my body to succumb to the injuries without my wolf. He had no intention of trading me for Brooke. It was all a lie. I don't know how long passes before I feel something, like I'm being moved. Maybe they are taking me outside to burn my body. I pray it is over quickly. I'm on the ground. I can smell the grass and the trees. I manage to open my eyes and the most beautiful woman is staring down at me. Before I can even try to speak, the darkness consumes me again.

I don't know how long has passed before I hear a beeping sound, but I still can't open my eyes. Where the hell am I? I know that I'm not dead, but I have no idea where the hell I am. I still can't open my eyes. "Gideon", I call out to my wolf. This time I feel him. I call out two more times before he finally answers. "I'm here Andrew. I'm sorry I couldn't reach out sooner, I've been trying to heal you." "How the hell am I still alive?" "Everything will be clear very soon." "You sound like a fortune cookie, just tell me what the hell is going on." I hear voices before he can answer. I try to force my eyes open. This time it takes a lot of effort but I manage to open them completely. "Andrew your awake", Jayden says as he rushes toward me. The doctors and nurses are checking the machines. My throat feels like I haven't drank in a week. I try to ask questions but all that comes out is coughing. Jayden grabs a glass of water and holds it to my lips. "Small sips Andrew", the doctor orders. Once I manage to take three sips I can finally speak. "How the hell did I get here?" He smiles and relief washes over me because I know Brooke is safe. "Apparently my Luna's protector went on a secret rescue mission without anyone knowing." Now I'm really confused. "Adrian is Drayce's sister and she saved Brooke. Now with Serina's help she saved you." I smile "she must be a pretty amazing woman." "She is and I'm glad she is on our side", he says with a chuckle. "I'm going to get her and Brooke. I'm sure they are waiting not so patiently."

He leaves and I say a prayer of thanks to the goddess for bringing me home safely. Gideon begins to pace in my mind. "What the hell is wrong with you" is all I manage to get out when the smell of vanilla invades my nose. Gideon growls "mate" before the door opens. Jayden walks in, followed by Brooke and the woman from earlier. She is my mate, she is a vampire. I reach my hand up touching my neck and run fingers over two puncture marks. She bit me. What does that mean? Did she mark me? She rushes over until she is standing a few feet from my bed. "I'm sorry, it was the only way to save your life. I had to change you." I'm a hybrid. I see fear and hurt on her face. I don't want her ever to feel either. I reach out my hand, praying she will take it. Thankfully, she does and I look into her eyes. "Mate" I say and she smiles. "Beloved" she whispers back and I love hearing those words from her mouth. "Thank you for saving my life." She takes me by surprise when she steps forward and presses her lips to mine. The tingles where our lips are touching feels amazing. A throat clears and she pulls back with a blush on her cheeks. I look at a smiling Jayden and Brooke. "Congratulations" Jayden says, and Brooke rushes over wrapping my mate in her arms. The goddess is truly amazing.

As she hugs Brooke, I notice blood on her shirt. I growl "your hurt", I say pointing to her side. Brooke pulls back and starts to move her shirt, revealing her injury. "I'm fine really" she insists. She has four deep claw marks on her side. "Brooke, I will be fine. I may not heal as quickly as a wolf, but I'll heal." I hate that she was hurt rescuing me. "Who did this to you" Jayden asks, knowing it was a wolf. I see sympathy on her face and I know exactly who hurt her. Adrian POV

I hate the pain I see on Jayden's face. I had hoped that I could wait to tell him what I saw in his father's blood but he needs to know. "It was your father that dragged his claw across my side when I killed the wolf with him." "I'm sorry Adrian" he starts to say and I stop him. "You are not responsible for your father's actions just as I'm not responsible for my brothers." He nods and I take a deep breath to tell him what I saw. "Jayden, what do you know about your mother?" He looks at me with confusion on his face at the shift in topic. "I don't know much besides that she died giving birth to me. My father never really talked about her." "Jayden, in order to get away I had to bite your father. I gave him enough venom to make him sick but not change him." Andrew reaches out and takes my hand in his to offer support. "The blood that I drank gave me images from the past." "You were able to read him. That doesn't much matter now we know the truth" Jayden says. "What I saw was further back in the past. I'm sure what the goddess wanted me to see." He stays quiet and I continue.

"Your mother was an omega in your pack. She was fated by the goddess to your father. She didn't die in childbirth." "What the fk happened to her, Adrian?" "Your father kept her prisoner until she produced you and then he gave her to my father. That is how the pack's alliance started with the coven." Jayden's eyes flash black and he roars. I know his anger is not directed at me and I feel no fear. Brooke wraps her arms around him and he buries his hand in her neck. He begins to sob and I turn to face Andrew. My heart breaks as I listen to this poor man grieve for a mother he never had the chance to know because of a monster that worried about status. A monster that gave his mate as a sacrifice so no one would ever know that he was mated to an omega.

Jayden POV

Brooke runs her hand through my hair and rubs circles on my back as I cry for my mother. I cry for her pain and everything my father stole from her and me. How did I not know exactly what he was? "Don't do that to yourself Jayden? How could you know what he hid from you? You were a child", Storm says to me. He's right, but it doesn't change that my mother probably suffered exactly what Brooke did before they killed her. I squeeze Brooke a little tighter in my arms. I'm so grateful that she is here with me despite what the fking baard tried to do to her. I promise that he will suffer for what he did to my mother, Brooke, and Jocelyn. I take a deep breath, pulling in as much of Brooke's scent as I can before I pick up my head. She wipes the tears from my cheeks and lays her hand on my face. "I'm so sorry for the pain he has caused you. We are your family and I will protect you just as you protect me." I couldn't love this woman more. I press my lips to hers. I pull back and walk over to the side of Andrew's bed. He sits up and pulls me into a hug. "You are the best man I know and I'm sure that your mother is proud of you. She is proud of the man and Alpha you have become." I pull back "you get some rest and heal because I want you by my side to destroy these evil baards." "You don't have to worry I will be there."

Brooke takes my hand and we head back toward the pack house. What Adrian said has my mind going a mile a minute? What if Drayce's father was trying to produce hybrid children? I don't scent wolf on Adrian, but what if she was born of my mother? Drayce is older than me but she is not. "Brooke, is Adrian a hybrid?" She stops walking and I face her. "She has never spoken of having a wolf and she only smells of vampire. Adrian wouldn't keep that from me", Brooke says. "Do you think it's possible that she is but she never got her wolf?" She looks at me concerned. "What is it love?" "They kept us in a cell for months with silver bars. I was worried that Candance would never come but she did. Do you think that if she is your mother's pup, being kept in the cell surrounded by silver affected Adrian's wolf while in your mother's womb?" "I don't know. I don't know if we will ever really know. The truth may have died with Adrian's father and my mother." She hugs me again and we head for our room. I need to hold our pups right now. They will never have to worry about anyone hurting them as long as I live.

We walk in and Jocelyn is sitting in the rocking chair holding Henry and Anna. I take them both and she stands. She reaches in wrapping her arms around my neck. She pulls back and smiles. "So Andrew is safe" she says after she hugs Brooke. "Yes, Adrian and Serina saved him" Brooke says. "What's wrong" she asks, looking at me. Brooke answers for me and explains all that we have just learned. Jocelyn gives me a look of sympathy. "Thank you for keeping the pups" I say. "I'm sure you will pay me back soon enough" she says, lightening the mood in the room. "We absolutely will. When you find your mate, we will pup sit all the time." Her face falls and I can see sadness in her eyes. "Jocelyn, you will find your mate." "That's not important right now. Let's focus on making those baards pay." I smile and nod but I hate that she believes her mate won't want her after all she has been through. "I'm going to head back to my room and you both should try to get some sleep." She walks out and Brooke takes Henry from my arms, laying him in his crib before she does the same with Anna. "Come lay with me," she says. We slide into bed and she places my head on her chest like a mother does with a child. She runs her hands through my hair and all of the exhaustion from the stress of the night hits me at once. I fall into a deep sleep that is plagued by nightmares. Adrian POV

After Jayden and Brooke leave, I turn around looking at this beautiful man that the goddess blessed me with. "Talk to me Adrian, tell me what you're thinking." "I hate that I had to tell him what our fathers did to his mother. I hate that my father and brother are such evil people." He takes my hand again. "He had the right to know and I've known Jayden all my life, he wouldn't want you to keep that from him. He is strong and kind. Nothing is going to change the man that Jayden has become. He is stronger with Brooke by his side and all of us despite what his father has done. "I take his hand to my lips and place a soft kiss on the back before I release it. I start to walk to a couch in the corner so he can rest and heal. "What do you think you're doing?" I chuckle "letting you rest while I lay on the couch." "Like hell you will. Get in this bed and lay next to me." "Andrew, you are nowhere near healed. This isn't a big bed." He gives me a look and I can't help but laugh. "Please come lay next to me. There is enough room." I walk over and slide in next to him. "Don't get any ideas until you are completely healed." This time he laughs. "This is not exactly the setting I want to claim you in, Adrian." I kiss him again and fall asleep with my beloved's arm wrapped around me. The Next Morning

Adrian POV

My eyes flutter open and I panic a little when I'm alone in bed. I sit up and I realize that I can hear the shower running in the bathroom. I get up and head for the bathroom door, ready to give him hell for not waking me to help him. I throw open the door and stop dead in my tracks. Andrew is in the shower in all his naked glory. I can't help but rake my eyes up his body. When I reach his face he is smiling at my ogling. I shake away the fact that the room just got a lot hotter. "What the hell are you doing? Why didn't you wait for help?" "Adrian, I'm completely healed. Between Gideon and the change, I am a hundred percent. Look not a scratch on me" he says, pointing to his body. I turn not giving him the satisfaction of me looking again. "Fine, but you still should have woken me up." He chuckles and I turn closing the door. A few minutes later the door opens and he comes out in a pair of boxer briefs. His bare chest is on full display. "Where did you get the clothes?" "Jayden must have had someone bring them over. They were on the chair when I woke up." He pulls on jeans and a t-shirt. He sticks out his hand and leads me out of the room.

As we walk down the hallway, I feel like everyone is looking at us. "Beta, where do you think you're going", I hear from behind us. Andrew turns "Doc, I'm good. I need to take care of some things before we deal with the coven." "I didn't clear you to leave and you know that I have to or should I call the Alpha" he says, crossing his arms over his chest. Andrew rolls his eyes. "Fine, let's go." We head back to the room and the doctor checks him over. "You can go now", the doctor says, before he leaves the room. I love that even the Beta and Alpha have to listen to the doctor. We head to the pack house and he leads me upstairs to the second floor. "My things are upstairs in the room across from Jayden and Brooke's room." "We will get your things later. I'm taking you to our floor." I smile at his words, our floor. He opens a door that leads to a living room. "I promise you that I will give you a proper tour to your new home later." I smile and follow him to what I assume is the bedroom. Andrew POV

I don't know who is more anxious to mark her, me or Gideon. I know she was worried that I would be angry that she changed me, but that couldn't be farther from the truth. I would have done anything to live this life with her. When I woke up this morning I felt better than I ever have. I knew that I didn't want to wait one more second to make her mine and to become hers. I lead her to our bedroom and once we are inside I turn to face her. "Mate, what is your full name?" She smiles "Adrian Elizabeth Black." "I, Andrew Lewis Morris, accept you, Adrian Elizabeth Black, as my mate and Beta Female." "I, Adrian Elizabeth Black, accept you, Andrew Lewis Morris, as my mate, beloved, and Beta." I can feel the bond start to form. I'm just about to reach for her shirt and she surprises me by taking it off along with her bra. My goddess, she is gorgeous and mine. She surprises me again when she reaches for the hem of my shirt and pulls it off.

She drops to her knees and makes quick work of my belt and pants. Holy sh*t is the only thought I have as she takes my hard ck into her mouth. She begins to move her hot mouth up and down on my shaft over and over again. I'm trying not to embarrass myself, but she is making it very difficult. I manage to pull her off with a pop. "What the hell" she says before I throw her over my shoulder and throw her onto the bed. "I promise I will enjoy every minute of you sking my ck later but right now I need to make you mine." She smiles as she shimmies out of her pants. She is completely bared to me. I growl as I crawl up until my face is at her core. I kiss her psy like I would her mouth, making sure she is dripping wet for my ck. She starts to moan and I give her one last long lick before I climb up her body. I slam my mouth down on hers, kissing her until we are both breathless. I pull back and line my ck up with her entrance. I see a look of concern on her face and I stop.

"What's wrong, Adrian?" "I'm not a virgin Andrew." "I won't lie and say that I'm happy someone else touched you, but what happened before we met is your past. I am the only man that will ever touch you again." "Yes, I'm yours. Please make me yours." I press my ck at her entrance and begin to push forward. Her channel is warm and tight around my ck. I give her a minute to adjust to my size before I start to move. Goddess she feels so good. Her moans spur me on and I increase the pace. She starts to scream out her o*m and I'm barely hanging on with the way her walls are squeezing my ck. She pulls my head down kissing me before she releases my lips and moves her head to my neck. When she bites down into my marking spot I can't hold back anymore. I release my seed deep inside her core. The o*m that rips through my body is like nothing I have ever felt before. It's my turn to mark her as mine.

I place my face at her marking spot and elongate my canines. I bite down and she screams out my name as the o*m consumes her. I pull my canines out and lick her marking spot. The bond is complete and Gideon is prancing in my head. I chuckle pulling back to tell her about Gideon when I realize something is wrong. Her eyes are closed and breathing is even when a few seconds ago she was panting. "Adrian" I say her name but she doesn't respond. I pull back and gently shake her. "Adrian please wake up." She still doesn't respond and my happiness is replaced by fear. What the fk could have happened? I pull on my pants and wrap her in a sheet. I run as fast as my legs will carry me and say a prayer to the goddess that she will be alright. "Jayden, I need you and Brooke at the hospital now." "What's wrong" he asks with concern in his voice. "Something is wrong with Adrian, please hurry.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 75

Adrian

POV

The minute he bites down on my marking spot, I feel the bond is complete. Our souls are connected and I couldn't be happier. I feel him empty inside me and I thought I would be panicked, but I'm not. If the goddess blesses us with a child, then so be it. I never thought about being a mother, but after being around the pups so much, I can't wait. I'm just about to tell him I love him when I'm consumed by darkness. What the hell just happened? My beloved is amazing, but I've never heard of someone passing out during mating. In the darkness, I see a light in the distance. This feels like a dream but I wasn't sleeping, so it can't be. I start to follow the light and it comes to a door. "Come in" a familiar voice calls out. I reach for the handle and open the door. I freeze as I see my father sitting behind a desk. A desk he sat behind many times when I was a child. "Come in Adrian", he says with a smile I've never seen before. A smile of kindness and love. "Where am I?" "You're safe Adrian. Please take a seat so we can talk." I do as he asks. "I know you're confused, but I promise in a moment everything will be clear."

"The goddess has allowed me to come here to try to make things right. It will not take away all that I have done, but it will help you and your brother move on with your mates. It will help you two have the happiness you all deserve." "Drayce deserves no happiness" I snap back at him. He chuckles "that's not the brother I was referring to." Now I'm really confused. "Adrian, you know that Jayden's mother was given to me by Joseph." I can't help the disgust on my face. "You have every right to be disgusted by our actions Adrian. We are both monsters for what we have done to everyone that we were supposed to love and protect. I promise you that the goddess stays true to the punishment we all deserve." I nod and he continues. "After Jayden was born Joseph brought Adria to me. I saw her as an opportunity to produce a hybrid for the coven. She was so broken after Joseph discarded her and she lost her pup. She never even fought what I did to her." "How could you do that? How could you use her like that? Jayden never even got to meet her because of you and Joseph." "I wish I had a good answer but I don't. The goddess gives us all a chance to be good and happy, but some of us choose to be selfish and evil. I only worried about power and Drayce has taken up where I left off." "Adria became pregnant after six months. She carried the child to term, a girl." I feel bile rise in my throat. "Adria was my mother, is that what you're saying right now." He nods and I didn't think I could hate him more but in this moment I do. "You have every right to hate me." "That's good because I do. I hate you for what you did to my mother. I hate you for making Drayce into a monster. I hate you because you were no father to me." He nods "this meeting wasn't about me getting your forgiveness, Adrian. I don't deserve it. This meeting was to help you and your brother find peace about the past." "Jayden is my brother." "Yes, he is. You were born of the same mother." "After you used my mother to have a hybrid, which was a huge failure, what happened to her?" For the first time, I see genuine sadness in his eyes. "After your mother gave birth to you, I told one of my men to get rid of her." "So you had her killed once she had me?" "I ordered it but she is very much alive." I feel my heart rate increase. I couldn't have heard him correctly. "How can she be alive?" "Just as you saved Brooke, one of my men saved your mother." "My mother is alive" I repeat because I'm so much in shock by his words. "Yes and you are very much a hybrid Adrian." search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

I'm just about to remind him that I have no wolf when the door opens. A beautiful woman with flowing red hair walks in, followed by a stunning wolf with fur that looks the color of gold. My father stands and bows before her. "It's time for you to leave David so I can speak with Adrian." I start to panic. He never said where my mother is. She waves her arm and he is gone. She takes the seat behind the desk and the wolf lays down beside her. "I never understood why Alphas like to sit behind desks in stuffy offices. I much prefer the outdoors." She waves her arm again and we are in a meadow full of wild flowers. She walks and sits down on a chair that is made of tree branches and flowers. I sit on the ground in front of her. "Adrian, your father's right about you being a hybrid. Your wolf has been dormant all this time because of the conditions your mother was kept in while she was pregnant with you." I look at the wolf lying on the ground at her feet. She smiles "this is your wolf Adora. When you wake up she will be with you again." I can't believe this. I have a wolf. I look up with tears in my eyes. "Where is our mother goddess?" She smiles and reaches out her hand to me. I stand taking it and she pulls me into a hug. "Keep faith that you will see her soon enough. It's time for you to return to your family. Your mate is losing his mind with worry and we don't need him destroying the pack hospital" she chuckles. "Remember to be happy and find forgiveness, but never forget what has made you strong." She presses her lips to my forehead and the darkness consumes me again. "Adrian, I'm sorry it took me so long to find you" I hear a voice in the darkness. "Adora" I say her name like a question. "Yes, I am your wolf and the goddess has healed me so I could return to you." "I can't believe this is happening. I'm so happy that your here with me." "Your stuck with me now" she laughs. "Let's get back to our mates" she says. "Tell me what to do Adora to get out of this place." "Just think about Andrew and our family."

Andrew POV

When we reached the hospital I'm losing my sh*t. "Beta, we will take good care of her", the doctor says as they wheel her away from me. I feel like I can't breathe once the doors close and I can no longer see Adrian. "Our mate is strong Andrew, she is going to be fine", Giedon says, much calmer than me. The hospital doors open and Jayden and Brooke rush inside. "What's wrong with Adrian", Brooke asks. I tell them both what happened when I marked her. Brooke pulls me into a hug. "She is strong, Andrew. She will come out of this." I pray that Brooke is right. I can't lose her after I just found her. The doors open and the doctor comes out. "Alpha and Luna" he says, baring his neck to Jayden and Brooke. "Formalities later, what is happening with Adrian?" He has a look of sympathy when he finally looks at me. "Beta honestly I'm not sure what is happening. Her vital signs are fine but she isn't responding. We will keep monitoring her but right now there is nothing to be done." I feel pain in my chest at his words. "I want to see her now." "Of course," he says, turning to lead me to her room. "Andrew, please call us when she wakes up" Jayden says. I turn nodding and they take a seat in the waiting room.

We walk down the hallway and he opens the door for me. I walk in and she is lying in the bed with machines beeping. Her eyes are closed and she looks like she is sleeping peacefully. I take a deep breath before I head over to the bed, taking her hand in mine. "Adrian, I'm here and I won't leave you. I love you, please just open your eyes." I take a seat and rest my head next to her on the bed. I lose count of the amount of prayers I say to the goddess. I feel fingers in my hair and I nearly knock the chair over jumping up. Her eyes are open and she is smiling at me. "Oh my goddess, you're awake. You scared the hell out of me. I would never have marked you if I thought it would hurt you." Her face falls "don't you say that. I know you were scared but that mark means everything to me." I bend down till my face is at hers. "I just meant" she stops me. "I know what you meant but that mark didn't just make me yours." I look at her with confusion. "That mark made me whole. I found a piece of myself that I didn't even know was missing." "Adrian, what are you talking about?"

Adora (Adrian's Wolf) POV

Adrian allows me to come forward. "She found me mate." He falls back, I'm sure with the shock of it all. "Andrew, my name is Adora and I'm Adrian's wolf." "How is this possible she had no wolf?" "It is a long story but it is hers to tell, not mine. I just wanted to have a moment to meet you. I can't wait to meet Gideon later." My mate growls and his eyes flash black. I chuckle and step back, giving Adrian control. Adrian POV

I laugh when Andrew almost falls on his a when Adora introduces herself. She steps back and I'm in control again. This is so weird but awesome at the same time. I'm wrapped in two strong arms and our connection is even stronger now than when he marked me. "Adrian, I love you with or without a wolf. Tell me everything" he says, and I smile. I knew he loved me without her,, but I'm glad that Gideon will have a wolf mate. He pulls back and kisses me "wait." I'm sure he is linking Jayden. A few seconds later, the door swings open and Brooke is wrapped around me. I smile and when she pulls back her eyes look like saucers. "You have a wolf." "Yes I do. Her name is Adora." Jayden smiles like he knows the secret. "Do you know already?" "I wasn't sure but after you told us about my mother I thought maybe. Welcome home, sister" he says, and I can't stop the tears from flowing. He walks over and wraps me in a hug. "Can someone tell me exactly what happened" Andrew says. Jayden releases me and goes to stand next to a smiling Brooke. I pull myself up into a sitting position and explain my visit with my father and the goddess.

I watch Jayden's face go through every emotion possible. "Jayden, our mother, is still alive." "How" he asks. "One of my father's soldiers saved her just as I saved Brooke." I see tears run down his cheeks. "Where is she, please tell me that you know?" "I don't but the goddess assured me we will meet her soon." He turns wrapping Brooke in his arms. Andrew leans down and kisses my forehead. When he stands back up, I throw the blanket off and slide out of the bed. "Adrian, what are you doing" he asks with panic in his voice. As I walk toward the door, I turn "I want to shift." He chuckles "that's not how shifting works love." I turn without another word. Once I'm outside, I close my eyes, reaching out to Adora. "Adora, can we shift now?" I'm shocked when she appears in my mind. "Focus on me and we will see what happens." I think about her and her beautiful golden fur. My skin begins to feel hot and prickly.

"That's normal" she says, and I just remain focused. "You're going to feel pain but I promise it won't last. Don't fight against it Adrian." Pain doesn't begin to describe it. I feel like my bones are breaking. "You're doing great. Just let me come forward." I focus on her voice and after a few minutes the pain stops. I'm staring at Andrew, Brooke, and Jayden. "Look down, Adrian", Adora says, and when I do, I realize that I am no longer in human form. I have huge paws with golden fur. "We shifted, this is amazing." "Yes we did and I promise you that each time will be easier." Andrew walks toward us and Adora lays down. He places his forehead against hers. "You two are truly amazing and I have been blessed by the goddess." I smile and Adora licks Andrew's face. I laugh at my wolf's antics and love that our mate is just as amazing. Now to deal with one ahole and get on with our lives.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 76

Drayce POV

I pick up the phone off my desk and call the healer's cottage. She picks up on the first ring "what is happening?" "He is still alive and has shifted back to human form but he hasn't woken up yet." "He does me no good unconscious. Figure out a way to wake him up." I slam the phone down without another word. I call for Waylen to come to my office. A few seconds later, he arrives. I can't wait for Joseph to wake up to start my plan. I am done waiting to deal with the mutts. "Waylen, I want you to take fifty soldiers to the Scarlett Rose." I see fear flash across his face. "What is the problem, Waylen?" "I mean no disrespect sir, but what about the witch." I feel the anger rise in my body and I'm sure my eyes are blood red. "Are you questioning my orders, Waylen?" "Of course not sir I just don't want to disappoint you and fail should we come up against a powerful witch." I smile "the witch is most likely at the Onyx Moon with those other baards. She probably helped my sister free the mutt." I see he realizes what I'm saying. "We will leave now sir." "Good and don't disappoint me, Waylen, or you won't have to worry about the witch. I want you to take the girls with you. They can help with the weaker wolves by using their power of persuasion." He nods and leaves my office. A few seconds later, a knock sounds on the door. I have no idea who would dare come to my office right now, but they better have a very good reason for bothering me. "Come in" I say. The door opens and the mutt is standing there with a seductive smile on her face. "What do you want?" She steps inside and slides into the chair across from me. "I had hoped we could make a deal." I smile but not for the reason she thinks. "Go on, let's hear this deal." "I will do anything you ask for my safety and the chance to kill Brooke. She took what should have belonged to me." I stand walking around the desk until I am standing in front of her. She slides down onto the floor and reaches for my zipper. "Did I say we had a deal?" She looks up at me with confusion on her face. She scrambles to her feet and tries to step back from me. I bare my fangs and grab her by the back of the head, pulling her toward me. She screams and I bite down, draining the worthless bch. When I'm done, I drop her body to the ground. Goddess that felt good. No one touches that bch Brooke but me. I don't make deals with useless wh*res.

Lake was so excited to tell me that Andrew was safe and that Adrian was his mate. He also told me what Serina did and how he reacted. I love him for worrying but she is right. She isn't a little girl and we need to respect her. She is strong and Ruby will always protect her. I wish I could have been there, but I know I need to keep the pups safe. Mine and Jo's pups are what I need to focus on right now. Tabby and Johnathon are using the room across from ours because this will be their floor when we move to the new pack house. I just laid the two pups down and took a shower. I'm headed to turn the TV on when I get a link from a patrol guard. "Alpha, we have detected the scent of vampires on the northern border." "Increase the guard patrol and I want to know if you catch sight of anyone immediately." "Yes Alpha" he says before he breaks the link. I link my father because I promised Lake I would. "I will join the patrol guard honey, just keep my grand pups safe." I'm just about to cross the hall when I hear Tabby scream. I push the door open and she is clutching her stomach. Jonathon is standing there with his arm wrapped around her. "She's in labor, Gabby, but she is giving me a hard time about going to the hospital because she needs to be here to protect you and the pups." "Tabitha, you look at me. Your pup needs you to go to the hospital. I will bring the pups to the hospital if that makes you feel better. Right now I want you to focus on you" I say with Alpha command. She looks into my eyes "alright I'll go, but it could be hours before I give birth." "Then so be it. Don't be stubborn and listen to your mate." I don't say anything about the vampires because I know she will be even worse. My father has handled far worse than vampires. I bundle up the pups and Johnathon carries her despite her protests. Once she is situated, the doctor checks her out. "It's a good thing you came Tabby, you're already six centimeters." She rolls her eyes and Johnathon growls. Goddess, I love this woman but she is so stubborn. She is always putting everyone before herself, but right now she and her daughter are what matters. I walk over after I lay the pups down and hug her. "You are going to be a mama very soon. I want you to focus on that and not worry about anything else. I am safe and so are the pups. You are important." I pull back and she smiles. She takes Johnathon's hand. "I'm sorry, I just knew she was safe and it would take time for her to come" she says, laying her hand on her belly. "I should have listened to you but I'm stubborn", she says, smiling at me. He leans down kissing her. "I know who you are love and I wouldn't want you any other way. Now let's focus on bringing our beautiful daughter into the world."

A knock sounds on the door and my brothers step inside. They look at Tabby and Johnathon before they look at me. "We will be right outside guarding the door." I smile because they truly have turned into men that will be great Betas to our pack. To say when we were younger they worried me, would be an understatement. They seemed to have no interest in becoming warriors, but all that changed with age. "Thank you," I say, and they head back outside the door. I know how hard it is to sit back while others are fighting. James POV

John and I are sitting in our room. I hate that we aren't fighting along side the others because we haven't gotten our wolves yet. Part of me thought that maybe we would get our wolves early like Serina and Nicholas did. I trust the goddess's plan but I feel useless right now. "What are you thinking about James?" I laugh "probably the same thing you are." "What we can eat for dinner" he says with a smirk. I throw a pillow at his head. "I'm kidding James, I know you're thinking about being stuck here instead of with Serina and Nicholas." I'm just about to say something when I get a link from our father. "James, I want you and your brother to go stand guard outside Tabby's hospital room." I stand up "what's happening?" "Your sister linked me that vampires have been scented at the northern border. I am joining the patrol guard. Tabby is in labor and your sister is at the hospital with her and the pups." "We are on our way." My father cuts the link and I turn to John. "Let's go, we need to get to the hospital. I'll explain everything on the way." We run and arrive in minutes. As soon as we let Gabby, Johnathon, and Tabby know we are there, we stand at the door.

No one will hurt our family wolf or not. A few minutes after John and I take a seat outside the door, a nurse comes running down the hall toward us. "I need help outside. One of the warriors is hurt and I can't find anyone to help me" she says. I feel the panic rise in my body, but we have to try to help our warriors. I start to follow and John grabs my arm. "Maybe we should link dad." "We can't wait for dad if someone is hurt John." "Fine, but I'm linking him too." I nod and we follow the nurse outside. She turns the corner of the building and we stop dead in our tracks. The nurse is standing between four women who are very much vampires. The blonde woman turns to the nurse "you did well, mutt, but we don't need you anymore." The nurse screams and the woman smacks her hard enough to knock her off her feet and against the building. "Aren't you two cute twins" the red head says like we are children. "What the fk do you want?"

"Our master wants what belongs to him. We are here to make sure that he gets it" the brunette says. "Don't move boys" the raven-haired woman says. They start to walk toward us but I can't move. I look over at John and see panic on his face. "Don't worry, it will be over before you know it" the blonde bch says as they come to stand in front of us. A growl shakes the trees and the women all turn. The patrol guards break through the tree line being led by Brutus. The women start running toward the warriors. We are finally able to move when the vampires' focus is on our father and the warriors. I grab John so we can head back into the hospital. We take a few steps before he screams and falls to the ground. I bend down "John, what the fk is happening?" Before he can answer me, my body is overtaken by pain. "Protect the boys" I hear my father's words before, I can't focus on anything but the pain that has consumed my body. "James I need you to focus because they are going to need our help with the vampires" a voice that I assume is my wolf says. I do as he says and I can feel my bones cracking and changing positions. I try to let it happen.

John POV

"Dad, something is wrong outside the hospital", I link him as we run toward the door. "John you wait for us", he says before he cuts the link. I'm so torn, but I can't leave James to face whatever is outside by himself. If one of our warriors is hurt, we need to help them. As soon as we get outside, I feel bile rise in my throat. How the fk did they make it this far into the pack land? When they start to talk, my body doesn't feel like my own. I start to panic and I feel heat consume me. I say a prayer to the goddess to protect us from these evil bches. When I hear the growl, I immediately know it's Brutus. Thank you goddess is the last thought I have when pain like I've never known spreads throughout my body. James tries to pull me toward the hospital but I can't even remain on my feet. I can hear the sounds around me but they are muffled. I look over and James is writhing on the ground next to me. "John focus on you and what's happening" I hear a voice and I know it's my wolf.

"John, the first change is painful and can take time. Time we don't have, so I'm sorry for what I'm about to do." Before I can even ask what he means, I feel like I'm being pushed from my own body. I am watching everything happen. The next second, I'm running toward the female vampires that have been joined by at least twenty men. A black wolf that I can feel is James' is running beside me when we reach the fight. My wolf bites down, ripping the head from the vampire in front of us. The blond bch has managed to get onto Brutus's back. My wolf takes off and jumps, grabbing her around the torso and slamming her down to the ground. When he steps back, she is ripped in half. "By the way John, I'm Hunter." "Well, Hunter, I'm glad you're here." He takes off toward more of the vampires. James' wolf is ripping through vampires one after the other. He starts stalking toward the brunette who tries to run, but she doesn't make it far. She bares her fangs but James' wolf bites her in half. We kill two more vampires before I turn and see they are all dead. My father has shifted and is smiling at our wolves with pride on his face. Our wolves walk toward him and lay down. He puts his hands on both of them for a moment but says nothing. I can feel Hunter's happiness at my father's gesture. "It's time to shift back, John, but I promise next time will be much better." "Thank you, Hunter." I shift and look over at my brother, who is smiling from ear to ear. "Well, I would like to yell at you both for not listening but I guess this was the goddess's plan. Both of your wolves are as black as night and almost as big as Brutus. The vampires thought we would be easy to deal with, but I guess they got a very big fooling. I'm proud of both of you", our father says. "Yes they did. I'm just glad that we got our wolves when the goddess saw fit." "I am going to take the warriors to check the other borders. You two stay here and guard the hospital." "We will" I say. Once our dad and the warriors are gone, we post ourselves outside the hospital door. "Hey James, I don't feel so useless now" I say with a laugh. "Our wolves are bad aes. What is your wolf's name?" "My wolf is Hunter. What is your wolf's name?" "My wolf is cooler, his name is Ace." I laugh and roll my eyes because my brother will never change. The hospital door opens, scaring the sh*t out of me. I turn to face a very pissed-off looking Gabby. "What the hell are you two doing out here? I almost had a panic attack when I came out and you two were gone. I know you want to help, but don't forget you don't have wolves yet."

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 77

Gabriella

POV

The pups are both sleeping on the pull-out couch in the room. Tabby is doing an amazing job and I can tell she is getting close. "I'm going to grab the doctor to check you" I say to Tabby. Johnathon has a look of appreciation on his face. I open the door expecting to see my brothers at their post but the hallway is empty. I feel panicked at the thought of them going outside of this hospital with vampires out there. I head down the hallway toward the nurse's station. "Alpha is everything alright" the nurse asks me. "Could have the doctor go check on Tabby please." "Of course, Alpha," she says, going to find the doctor. I head for the doors that lead outside. As soon as they open my brothers turn to face me. I can't even stop myself from giving them hell about putting themselves in danger. I understand they want to help, but getting themselves killed is not helpful. "Gabby", James starts to say. "Don't Gabby me, we all would be lost if something happened to the two of you." They both smile and that pisses me off even more. "Do you two think that it's funny to worry me and put yourselves at risk?" They both stop smiling "Gabby we didn't mean to worry you but we have something to show you" John says.

They both take a few steps back and in the next second, two beautiful black wolves are standing where my brothers were. Oh my goddess, they shifted. They both shift back and I turn until they let me know they are decent. "Gabby, you can turn around", James says. I turn and my brothers are smiling from ear to ear. I walk over and hug James first. "Congratulations, what is your wolf's name?" "My wolf is Ace and I'm sorry we worried you." I pull back and smile before I wrap John in a hug. "Congratulations, what is your wolf's name?" "My wolf is Hunter. Are you feeling alright? How is Tabby?" "I'm fine. I need to get back and check on Tabby. I don't care if you do have your wolves, you had better be careful." "Yes ma'am" they say in unison. I shoot them both a glare before I turn heading back inside the hospital. As I walk down the hallway, I notice a nurse rush into Tabby's room. I pick up the speed reaching the room just in time to see Tabby push out the most beautiful pup. Her cries fill the room and I lay my hands against my belly. I can't wait till these baards are dealt with and we get to meet our pups. They place the pup on Tabby's belly and Johnathon kisses her forehead. I walk over to the left side of the bed and hug Tabby before I sit down by the little ones still asleep. "Congratulations, to both of you. She is beautiful and perfect." Tabby smiles and the tears run down her cheek as she looks down at her daughter.

When Gabby leaves to find the doctor, I am so ready to have this pup. I am holding Johnathon's hand when I feel more pressure than I've had over the last few hours. The door opens and the doctor rushes in. "Alright Tabby, let's see if it's time to have your daughter." He checks me and smiles. "It's time to push Tabby." A nurse comes in and takes one leg while Johnathon takes the other. I never thought that we would have a pup and in a few seconds she will be in my arms. I push about four times. "Alright, Tabby breathe for a minute for me." After a few seconds, the doctor looks up at me. "One more big push and we should have a pup." I bare down and push with all that I have left in me. I feel the moment she leaves my body and all the pain is gone. Her cries fill the room. They place her on my belly and I can't believe that she is really here. She is so tiny and she has red hair like my mother. I look up and Gabby has tears in her eyes. Johnathon leans down, kissing my forehead as the doctor works on cutting the cord. "I'm so proud of you. You are amazing. Thank you for being my mate and making me a father." They take my pup to clean her up.

Gabby comes around and hugs me. She smiles when she pulls back and I'm so grateful that she is here and safe. The nurse brings over this little bundle wrapped in pink and sets her in my arms. Johnathon sits down wrapping us both in his arms. I stare down at my daughter and her chubby little face. Johnathon and I decided on her name last week and it definitely suits her. "Welcome to the pack Autumn Grace Blade" I say as I rub my finger down her cheek. I lay her against my chest and just enjoy this moment with my family. Adria POV

I open my eyes and I'm in the cell again. You would think after all this time I would no longer be plagued by these nightmares, but I am. Thankfully, they don't happen as often as they used to. I sit up on the cot and try to pull my knees up until I realize my belly is round. I'm pregnant with my daughter. The door opens and his footsteps send a shiver down my spine as they always do. He walks over and comes to stand in front of the cell. I feel sick with the thought of losing another pup, like it's truly happening again. I look down and take a deep breath. When I look back up, the baard is gone. A beautiful woman with red flowing hair that I have never seen before in these nightmares is standing there looking at me with sadness and love in her eyes. "Who are you" I ask as I stand walking toward her. "Adria, this will be the last time you have this nightmare. These memories no longer have power over you. Joseph chose to go against my mate pairing and do unthinkable things. I promise you that he will receive a just punishment for all he has done to you and those you love." "Goddess" I say. She smiles "yes my child. I have come to you because it's time for you to return to Onyx Moon."

I couldn't have heard her right. Joseph is still alive. I have a mate and other pups that need me. The cell door opens and she comes to stand in front of me. "Joseph is no longer in the pack and your children are waiting to meet you." "Do they know I had no choice? Do they know that I didn't abandon them?" "Adria, they know the truth and they are waiting to meet their mother." She wraps me in a hug and peace washes over me. I close my eyes and when I open them again I'm lying next to Porter. I am grateful for him every day. He saved me from the coven even though he could have been killed. We may not have been fated, but he chose me. He shows me every day how much he loves me and our girls. I sit up and reach over, touching his face. I hate to wake him because he looks so peaceful, but I have to. I need to tell him about my visit with the goddess. "Porter, I need to speak to you and the girls." He sits up with concern on his face. "What's wrong Adria?" "Come out to the kitchen so we can have a family meeting." I walk out and the girls are already sitting at the table. Porter takes a seat and I take a deep breath. "What's up mom", Gia asks. "What I'm about to say is going to be a shock but I need you all to listen. I have to go back to Onyx Moon today." I expect a response but they are quiet. I tell them about my visit with the goddess. "Adria, can we talk in the bedroom for a minute?" I know he is worried but he doesn't need to be. I follow him to our room.

I take a seat in our chair and he kneels in front of me. "Are you sure about this sweetheart", Porter asks me. I smile and place my hand on his cheek. "Porter, I have waited a lifetime for this moment." "I know you have and I hate that you didn't get to see them grow up like you have our children." "Don't do that. You are the only reason I will get to experience this moment. I will get to know the pups I lost. You saved me and risked everything. You have given me a life I never thought I would have." He leans in and kisses my lips. When he pulls back he smiles. "I would risk it all again to have the life I've made with you." I stand and we head out into the living room of our cottage. A cottage that Porter had built for our family. We walk in and Rebecca and Gia are on the couch. I know they aren't happy about me returning to the pack, but I have too. I take a seat in the chair across from them. "I realize that you two are worried about me returning to the Onyx Moon but you don't need to be." "Mother, how can you say that?" I love my daughters. They are eighteen now but they will always be my pups. "I can say that because the goddess came to me. She told me that it was time to see your brother and sister." "What about that baard who hurt you?" "I promise that he is being dealt with and your father will be with me." "We are going with you too." "Girls, I would feel better if you stayed here." "Well, since you said it is safe, we want to go meet our siblings", Rebecca says. She acts just like her father, stubborn. I look at Porter and he raises his hands in surrender. I turn back to the girls "fine, we leave in an hour." They both hop up and head toward their rooms.

An hour later, the girls join us outside with their bags. We shift and Esmerelda lays down so Porter can climb on her back. Porter has no wolf as he is a vampire. He has the bags with our clothes and we take off toward a place I never thought I would see again. I focus on the fact that I am about to see my son. We run for over an hour. When we approach the pack border four guards face us in wolf form. Esmerelda lowers down so Porter can slide off. I shift and the wolves growl. One shifts into human form "what is your business this close to the Onyx Moon Pack?" "I am here to see your Alpha." "What is your name rogue?" I take a deep breath before I answer him. "You can tell the Alpha his mother is here." He looks at me like I'm crazy. He links again and when he looks back at me I see disbelief on his face. He turns to the other wolves, "stand down now." He turns back to us. "Please follow me." I take my bag slipping on my clothes and the girls do the same. Porter takes my hand and we follow the guard to the pack house. Esmerelda whimpers when we walk up the stairs toward the Alpha floor. I'm sure remembering everything that happened here. "Esme he is not here." She seems to calm at my words. We come to the door and I know our pup is waiting on the other side. When the door opens, my heart squeezes in my chest. I'm looking into eyes I didn't expect to see.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 78

Archer POV

As we run from the hospital, I'm still in shock that the boys shifted. Their wolves were magnificent and powerful. "They are my pups, how could they not be" Brutus says. I laugh because he will never change. When we reach the eastern border, I catch the scent of vampires again. I expected there would be more than the ones we had already destroyed. As Brutus stalks toward the trees just over the border, a group of men step out from the trees. My men growl but none of us move. Ten men stand before us and drop to their knees. I don't know if this is a trick or if they are truly surrendering. I shift while my men stay in wolf form. I am much bigger than the men. I push my aura forward and they all drop their gaze. "One of you better start talking." He never looks up but one man starts to speak. "We were sent here by Drayce Black of the Blood Coven to attack. We have chosen to disregard his orders and surrender ourselves to your pack. We will no longer stand with him." "What is your name?" "My name is Waylen." "Waylen, I am Archer, the former Alpha of the Scarlett Rose. I hope what you say is true and this is not a ploy, because I will have no problem letting my wolf rip you all apart." They finally look up and nod their understanding.

Adrian POV

Jayden and Brooke left with the others an hour ago to take the pups to the Scarlett Rose pack. It is time for Drayce and Joseph to pay for all they have done. We are sitting in the dining room having lunch when Andrew gets a link. After a few seconds, he looks back at me with a smile that puts me at ease. "We need to go to Jayden's office. The guard patrol just linked me that we have visitors." My heart clenches in my chest at his words. He takes my hand leading me toward the stairs. As we walk toward the office a hundred thoughts run through my mind. Could this really be happening right now? How will she react when she sees me? I know that goddess said she would come, but what if I look too much like my father? I think about praying to the goddess but I'm not even sure what to ask for. I know I am not to blame for what he did, but it doesn't change who I am. A knock sounds on the office door and I feel Andrew behind me offering silent support. The door opens and I hold my breath. A woman that has my hair and eye color steps inside. The guard leaves but my focus remains on my mother.

She stops dead and is staring at me. I have no idea how she is feeling or what she is thinking. I'm unsure what to do or what to say. "Adria" a man says her name from behind her. I realize that she isn't alone. A man and two girls are standing behind her. His voice seems to bring her back into the moment. She walks until she is standing in front of me. "My name is Adria, I am" she stops like she is trying to find the words. "You are my mother." She smiles at what I call her. I wrap my arms around her and the tears start to flow freely. She wraps her arm around me and runs her hand down my hair. I feel like a child who was hurt and my mother is offering me comfort. A feeling I never knew as a child. After a few moments, I pull back and she brushes the hair from my face and wipes the tears from my eyes. "I have thought about this moment since the day you were taken from me. You are so beautiful and I will never let anyone take you from me again." She turns looking at the man and girls behind her. "Adrian, this is my mate Porter and your sisters, Rebecca and Gia." I'm confused about how she could know what my father named me. "How do you know my name?" She turns back with a smile "your father never knew my name, he always called me mutt. When the healer took you, I begged her to suggest Adrian as your name to your father. I wanted to give you a piece of me. I never expected to leave that room alive." She looks back at the man. "I only survived because of Porter." I step around her and wrap the man who saved my mother in my arms. "Thank you for being the man you are." He kisses the top of my head. "I just wish we could have taken you with us Adrian. You may not be mine by blood, but you are my daughter just as Rebecca and Gia are." I pull back and look into his kind eyes. I hug both of my sisters. It's crazy what I have gained. A wolf, two sisters, a brother, a father, and a mother. I thought it would only be me, Brooke, and the pups. My life is so full and I won't let anyone take that from me.

A throat clears and I turn to see a smiling Andrew. I walk back till I'm standing next to him. He wraps his arm around me. "This is Andrew, my mate and the Beta of this pack." My mother chuckles, "does Joseph know what you are to this pack sweetheart?" "Not yet, but he will soon." Her face falls and I see worry and fear replace her happiness. "What's wrong mother?" "Joseph is a monster and he will not hesitate to kill you or your brother. Where is your brother?" "You don't have to worry. Joseph and Drayce have no idea what is coming for them. Jayden will be back soon. He took his pups to a safe place before the battle." The smile returns to her face. "I have grand pups." "Yes you do. They are the most perfect little boy and girl, Henry and Anna." "Who is your brother's mate" she asks, excited to hear about her pup's happiness.

I think about the fact that the goddess gave both Joseph and Jayden omega mates for the first time. The goddess gave my brother an opportunity to accept his omega mate, which he did without hesitation, unlike his father. "Jayden is mated to an omega that was born in this pack just like you were. He accepted her and Joseph tried to stop them from completing the bond. He failed because, just as Porter saved you, I saved Jayden's mate." She gasps and pulls me into another hug. "I'm so proud of you for not becoming like your father." "He wasn't my father. He was just a sm donor." I pull back and point at Porter. "That is my father." Porter smiles with pride all over his face. We all take a seat and wait for Jayden to return.

Jayden POV

We reach the Scarlett Rose pack. I hate the thought of our pups being away from us but I know this is the safest place while we deal with these baards. We park the SUV and I help Brooke out of the car. As we walk toward the pack house, a group of men being led by Archer come out of the woods. I scent that some of the men are vampires. I step in front of Brooke and Jo holding the pups. Serina, Lake, and Nicholas head toward them. I watch staying on alert in case there is any trouble. When they finally reach us, I can see they pose no threat. "Jayden, it's good to see you again", Archer says. "You too, Archer. May I ask what's going on", I ask looking around at the men. "Drayce sent Waylen along with about fifty men to attack the pack. These men gave up freely and refuse to fight for Drayce any longer", Archer says. "I mean no disrespect but how do we know that they mean what they say." One of the men step forward. "Drayce cares nothing for us. He sent us here knowing that we could die. He didn't lead us against an enemy. He sacrificed us. He has no loyalty to the coven. He only cares about what he wants."

"I have already told Waylen and these men that until everything is settled they will be placed in the cells for the protection of the pack", Archer says. I should have known that Archer would be kind but smart about dealing with these men. I hope for their sake they are being truthful. We head for the pack hospital when I get a link from Andrew. "Jayden, you need to come back now." I stop walking and a pit forms in my stomach. "What's wrong, is the pack under attack?" "Visitors have arrived but it's not a threat. Your mother is here." Brooke must feel my nerves. "We are on our way back." I break the link and Brooke steps toward me. "What's going on" she asks as she takes my hands. "Andrew linked me that my mother just arrived at the pack." She smiles and wraps me in a hug. "Let's go see your mother." "Give me the pup and go see your mother Jayden. After we check on Tabby and Lake sees Gabby, we will come to the pack", Serina says. "I will head back with Serina, Nicholas, and Lake after I see my pups", Jo says. I kiss our pups before Brooke hands Anna to Serina. Brooke and I head back toward the SUV. Jocelyn POV search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

We start to walk toward the pack hospital and Henry starts to fuss. They slept most of the way to the pack and I'm sure they are both hungry. As we approach the hospital, I catch the most delicious scent of coffee and chocolate. "Mate" Emery growls in my head and I stop walking. I can't face that right now. Jayden had accepted Brooke before we were taken. No wolf is going to want me and my pups. "Jo, what's wrong" Serina asks. "Henry needs to be fed. Maybe I should take him and Anna to the pack house and feed them. You can grab Brooklyn and Wesley and bring them to my room." "Are you sure you're alright? Don't you want to see Gabby and Tabby?" "Of course, but I don't want to overwhelm them, besides, Henry isn't going to wait." "Alright, we won't be long. I take Anna and head to my room. Once I have fed them both, I lay them in the cribs. Emery is pacing back and forth in my mind. "Emery", I start to say and she stops me. "No, don't Emery me. It is my mate too, Jocelyn. You have no idea if your right or not." "I know that, Emery, but what if he rejects us? What if I'm right?" "Then he isn't a worthy mate and we will have lost nothing. We can't live in the land of what ifs. We need to know either way." A knock sounds on the door, bringing me out of the discussion with Emery.

Serina opens it holding Wesley and Brooklyn with a smile on her face. Before I can ask why she is smiling, the scent of chocolate and coffee invades my nose. Emery is losing her sh*t and I guess I'm about to come face to face with the man the goddess chose for me whether I want to or not. Jayden POV

We arrive at the pack and I have butterflies in my stomach with the thought of meeting my mother. I open Brooke's door and take her hand. We head inside the pack house and up the stairs. I reach for the handle and push open the door. Adrian is seated on the couch next to a woman that I know is my mother. She stands and I can't contain myself. I have her in my arms without a word. "I'm so sorry for what he did", I start to say but she stops me. "You are not your father. Do not apologize for his actions." I don't try to hide the tears as they run down my cheeks. My mother is alive and here with me. I never thought I would have this moment in my life. I finally pull back and she places her hand on my face. "Jayden, I'm proud of the man you have become." She takes my hand in hers and leads me over to a man and two girls I hadn't even noticed. The man stands sticking out his hand. "Jayden, this is Porter, my mate. He is the one that saved me from the coven."

I take his hand, pulling him into a hug. "Thank you for saving my mother and loving her." "That is something you never have to thank me for, son." I expected that to feel wrong coming out of his mouth but it didn't and I don't correct him. "These are your other two sisters, Rebecca and Gia," my mother says. I hug them both. "Welcome to the Onyx Moon" I say to all of them. I turn to Brooke, "this is my mate and Luna Brooke." They all hug her and I feel a sense of peace despite what we will soon face. "I hope you plan on staying here now that we have found each other." "We will figure all that out later, right now I want to hear about my grand pups." I chuckle and we all take a seat. I look around at my family as we talk. These people who love me and each other. I think about the man that was supposed to love me and be a father. Who cared more about power than he did about his mate and son. He is no father and in a few hours he will only be a memory.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 79

Serina

POV

We continue the walk to the pack hospital. I have a nagging feeling that something is up with Jo. "I agree she was acting weird", Ruby says. When we reach the hospital, my father is standing outside talking to my brothers. Lake waves but heads inside without a word. Even though we haven't been gone long, he has missed my sister terribly. He did nothing but talk about her when he wasn't linking her. It really is sweet. Nicholas and I head over to my father and brothers. My brothers seem on edge and that isn't like them. "What's going on" I ask. "Our wolves are losing their sh*t", James says. "Your wolves", I say like a question surprised by what he just said. They both smile. "Yes, we shifted into our wolves during the fight with the vampires", John says. They tell me their wolves' names and I'm happy that my brothers got their wolves. I know they wanted to help defend the pack. "That's amazing, I'm so happy for you both. So what's up with your wolves that they are losing their sh*t?" James' eyes darken "our mate is near but her scent is faint." I can tell it's Ace that is speaking, not James. I look at John and his eyes are dark too. "I believe I know what was wrong with Jo", Ruby says. "Holy sh*t, Jo is the twins mate. That is why we feel so connected to her. The goddess knew she would be important to all of us. That we needed to bond and protect her and the pups."

I don't even realize I'm smiling but I am. "Serina, what do you know" my father asks with a smirk on his face. "I think I know who their mate is." "Who", James asks with urgency in his voice. "You both need to get yourself under control. Jo is scared of having a mate after all she has been through." Their eyes both darken and I snap my fingers. "That is not going to help her feel comfortable. You need to get your wolves under control." Their eyes return to their normal color and their features soften. "Serina, we need to see her", James says. "I will take you to see her after I get the pups." They both smile and we head inside. We reach the room and I knock. I open the door and walk in, followed by Nicholas and my brothers. Tabby is holding a perfect little pink bundle with red hair. "She is beautiful." I walk around the bed and hug Tabby before I kiss her sweet little head. Her name is perfect, it suits her completely. "Congratulations" I say to Tabby and Johnathon. I link Nicholas asking him to stay here while I take the boys to see Jo. He smiles and nods at me.

After we finish congratulating Tabby and Johnathon, I turn to Gabby and Lake, who are holding the pups. "Jo wants me to bring her the pups so she can visit them before we leave again for the Onyx Moon." A growl comes from behind me and I chuckle. Gabby looks behind me with a raised eyebrow. "What's going on with you two" she asks. John steps forward. "We think that Jo is our mate." A smile spreads across her face before we see sadness in her eyes. "We won't hurt her, Gabby", James says. "I know you would never hurt her. She has been through a lot. I just hope she allows herself to be happy and accept the bond. It may take time, but don't give up if she doesn't accept it right away." Gabby stands handing the pups to me before she hugs both of our brothers. They hug Nicholas and shake Lake's hand before we head toward the pack house. We reach the room and I turn to my brothers. "I am going to go in first and then you boys can come in." They both nod and I turn back to the door. James knocks and when the door opens, Jo looks at me. I know by the look on her face that I'm right. "Jo, it's alright. They just want to talk to you." Jocelyn POV

Did she just say the word they? This can't be happening. I was worried about disappointing one mate and she just said they. "Serina" I say before two men who look exactly alike, step behind her. "Mates", Emery says, and I feel frozen in place. I can't have two mates. They are never going to want me after they find out everything that happened. "Jo, these are my brothers, James and John." She comes close to me and looks into my eyes. "Just listen before you make any decisions, please." I take a deep breath and nod. She hands me Wesley and Brooklyn before she heads for the door. I really wish she would stay but I know that I need to face the men the goddess chose for me alone. "Jocelyn, please just listen to us. We don't know all the details of what happened to you but we want to. We are your mates and nothing will change that", James says. I look into his eyes for the first time, which is a huge mistake. I look between the two of them. They are the most handsome men I have ever seen. Emery growls her approval and I'm sure my face reddens. I push those thoughts away and focus on this conversation. "I know you feel the pull because of the bond, but you deserve a mate that is pure. You deserve to have a mate that bears your pups, not someone else's." They both take a deep breath. I'm sure, in order to calm their wolves. "There will never be another woman we want. Even if you chose to be with someone else before us, that doesn't make you any less pure. It is your heart that makes you pure Jocelyn", John says. James looks at Brooklyn and reaches out his hands to me. He takes her and John takes Wesley. "As far as our pups, they are just that, our pups. We may have more, but even if we do, they will always be our first pups. Our wolves have already accepted them. Blood is not important, our father has taught us that." She looks at us confused. "Gabiella was three years old when our father found our mother, his fated mate. Brutus and our father accepted her without a second thought. She is his oldest pup because love is what matters. We love this little boy and girl because they are our pups" John says. I feel the unshed tears in my eyes. They can't really mean these things. Wolves don't just accept other people's pups. Jayden already loved Brooke and I was still amazed how easily he accepted her pups. A hand touches each side of my face and the tingles are like nothing I have ever felt before. "Jocelyn, this was the way it was meant to be. You were always meant to be ours", James says and John nods. "We will give you as much time as you need to accept us, but we are yours in this life and the next", John says.

James POV

I hate that she feels this way. I hate that she has been hurt by these evil baards. She is the most beautiful woman and John and I are lucky that she was chosen for us. I meant every word I said about the pups. "They are ours", Ace growls. "I know they are. They are perfect." I can see the tears in her eyes and I never want to see her cry. A single tear starts to run down her cheek and I wipe it away. "Jocelyn, what is your full name?" The tears start to flow freely before she finally answers me. "Jocelyn Marie Curtis" she says. "I, James Stephen Lyons, accept you, Jocelyn Marie Curtis, as my mate." I look at John. "I, John Harris Lyons, accept you, Joceyln Marie Curtis, as my mate." She smiles and I let go of the breath I didn't know I was holding. "I, Jocelyn Marie Curtis, accept you, James Stephen Lyons and John Harris Lyons, as my mates." I feel the bond start to form and I know we may not complete it today but she has accepted us and that's all that matters to me." A knock sounds on the door and Gabby walks in followed by my parents. My mother is smiling like she won the lottery.

She walks over and wraps Jocelyn in her arms. "I knew you were my daughter the day we found you" my mother whispers to her. "Thank you Sabrina." My mother pulls back and comes over to take Brooklyn from me. "It's time for you all to return to Onyx Moon and finish those two baards." I smile and kiss my daughter before I hand her over to my mother. "What about the pups and Gabby" John asks as Gabby takes Wesley from his arms. "We will be here to protect your sister and the pups. Harris and Levi will be with me", our father says. "You three be careful and come back in one piece" my mother says, pointing at me, John, and Joeelyn. "They are waiting for you down stairs", my father says. We hug my parents before we walk out into the hallway. Before I can ask Jocelyn, takes both our hands. As we come down the stairs Serina is smiling. My sisters are both so amazing. John and I are lucky to have them. We head to the SUV. Nicholas drives and Serina sits in the passenger seat, allowing us to sit with Jocelyn between us. When we arrive at the Onyx Moon, I say a prayer to the goddess to protect our mate and family. Joseph POV

I wake up and I have no idea where the fk I am. I throw the blanket off and manage to get to my feet. I still can't reach Crane but I can at least feel his presence. "What are you doing" I hear a female voice. I look up to see a woman who is around my age. "Who are you and where am I?" "I am the healer of the coven and you've been unconscious since you were bitten." "That fking bch bit me. She is going to fking die slowly." "Who bit you?" "That bch Adrian bit me. She is the one that helped my baard son's Beta escape." I see a look I can't decipher cross her face. "Take me to Drayce now." "I have something for you to take before I take you to him. It will help your wolf regain its strength." "Give it to me. I don't have time to waste." She turns to a table and pulls out a vile with blue liquid in it. She walks over and hands me the vial. "You must drink the whole thing in order for the elixir to work." I press the vial to my lips and empty the entire thing before I hand it back to her. I stand but feel no different. I still can't reach Crane. I grab her by the throat. "This better work or I will make sure that mine is the last face you ever see before I snap your neck." I drop her to the floor and walk out, heading toward the mansion.

I reach Drayce's office and knock. I open the door and Drayce is sitting behind his desk. "Joseph, it is good to see you up and around. I thought maybe Adrian had succeeded in killing you and the two wolves you brought with you." "Rian is dead?" "Yes, my sister made sure of that. She must be stopped. I am waiting for word from my men about the attack on Scarlett Rose." "What attack, what has happened?" "I have sent some of my soldiers to the Scarlett Rose to find leverage again. I am done waiting to have what is mine. If the men don't return before dusk, prepare yourself to return to Onyx Moon. My men are ready to die for me. I hope your wolf is ready to fight for you." "My wolf has not completely returned yet, Drayce." "I would start praying if I were you but I doubt the goddess will help you after all you have done. You can leave my office and prepare yourself for battle."

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 80

Drayce

POV

We are in a conference room with my ranked members. Joseph sits silently and I can't even be bothered to ask him if his wolf has returned. I look at him. "I want you to lead seventy of my men to Onyx Moon, Joseph." He stays quiet but I know he isn't happy with my orders. "We will be coming in a second wave not long after you arrive. We have to be smart about this. My hope is that the second attack will take them off guard. Prepare yourselves to leave in an hour." My men leave the room and Joseph and I are alone. "Do you have a problem with the plan, Joseph?" "I have a problem with the fact that I have no wolf, Drayce. Your healer was supposed to fix this and whatever she gave me has not worked. How do you expect me to make it to the Onyx Moon without a wolf? How do you expect me to fight wolves without one?" I laugh as I walk toward him. He stands until we are eye to eye. "You should have killed my sister and we wouldn't be having this conversation. I have no time to protect you, so I suggest you figure out how to protect yourself because this is the plan. You can go with my men or you can die here." He steps back from me. "I gave you all you asked for and this is how you repay me." I laugh again "you didn't give me anything. I took those girls to fix your problem. I don't owe you anything. Now make your choice, Joseph. Stay here and die by my hand or die in your pack with some honor." He nods with defeat written all over his face. "Now my men will get you there but the rest is on you. Maybe you'll survive till we arrive." He turns leaving the room and I ready myself to destroy those two bches and the mutts ready to defend them. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Jayden POV

We have all gathered in the pack yard. Brooke stands by my side as we address the pack before this battle. Serina, Nicholas, Adrian, Andrew, Jocelyn, James, and John all stand with us. Lake stayed behind after speaking with Serina and Nicholas. The strength of these people that I know call family and friends is stronger than anything that Joseph and Drayce have on their side. "We will face an enemy today that believes we are weak. They believe that your leader doesn't deserve to be your Alpha." Growls are heard throughout the crowd. My warriors bare their necks to me, showing their respect. "Your Luna and I will fight by your side to defeat this enemy. I know it will be difficult to fight against your former Alpha, but know that he has committed unthinkable acts against your Luna and other innocent members of this pack." They again start to growl and some of my warriors shift. I turn to face Adrian and Andrew. "You will remain here and defend the pack with the remaining warriors." "Jayden, I know the coven better than anyone" Adrian says with worry in her voice. "I know you do, but if the vampires come here, I need you and Andrew to protect our pack." She smiles "yes Alpha." Andrew wraps his arm around her. "We will protect the pack with our lives" Andrew says. I have no doubt they will. I turn back to the warriors waiting on my command. "It's time to right the wrongs of the past." I kiss Brooke before we both shift and take off following Serina. Storm pushes as hard as he can to keep up with Serina's wolf. We weave in and out of the trees. We run for, I don't know how long, when Serina's wolf starts to slow down. Serina shifts before we reach her. We do the same and she points through the trees. I can see movement as men pass by what I assume is the border of the coven. All the warriors have shifted and I turn motioning for them to follow me. As we approach the border, I realize we have intercepted them as they gather to attack our pack. Vampires stand shoulder to shoulder baring their fangs at us. They split and that baard Drayce steps forward. He smiles at Brooke and then Jocelyn. I growl and his eyes return to me. "What's wrong Jayden? Angry you have to have my sloppy seconds or that she really liked it?" I growl and Storm pushes to the surface. I'm about to lose control when Brooke grips my arm. Brooke POV

As he walks through the line of vampires he has that same smug look on his face. The one I had to see every day while he kept us prisoner. I hate the sight of him. When he calls me sloppy seconds, I have had all I'm going to take from this baard. I love that Jayden wants to defend my honor, but this fking pr*ck is mine. I grab his arm and link him. "I love you but I need to end him with Jocelyn." He steps back and Jocelyn comes to stand next to me. "It's not my mate and Alpha you have to worry about." I bare my fangs at him and I see the moment he realizes what I have become. "You should be afraid because you are about to pay for all you have done to us." He steps back and his men stand in front of him like the coward he is. I shift into Candance and I hear Jayden give the order of attack. I head straight in the direction of Drayce with Jocelyn by my side. Three large vampires step in front of us. We start to circle and in seconds, what's left of the three vampires lay at Emery and Candance's feet. There are wolves and vampires all around us, but I can't find Drayce among them. Candance takes a deep breath and we catch his scent in the distance. He is hiding like a rat.

I stalk forward killing more vampires as I go. I reach the back of the mansion and as I turn the corner the baard jumps at me. He manages to land on Candace's back. We try to shake him off but he digs his nails into our skin. She growls and before she can roll Emery knocks him off of us. He jumps to his feet as we both circle him. "Isn't this sweet, the two sisters are here for revenge? Shouldn't you be after Joseph? After all, he gave the two of you to me. I should have killed you just like my father did that bch Joseph gave him." I'm done listening to this pathetic excuse for a vampire. Emery jumps, pinning him to the ground. He starts to hiss and fight but he is no match for her strength. For the first time, I see fear on his face. Candance bends down, taking his arm in her mouth. She bites down and pulls back in one motion, ripping the arm from his body. His screams fill the air and she goes to the opposite side, biting down on his leg, ripping it off too. Emery steps back and I shift. I want him to see my face when I finish him. I lean down as his breathing speeds up with the amount of blood he's losing. I can see he is fading but I want him to hear me. "Your father was as pathetic as you are and Jayden's mother is very much alive." As soon as the words leave my mouth I bite down on his neck, injecting all the venom I have in my fangs. This time his screams don't last long because every vessel in his body ruptures. He is a pool of nothing lying at my feet. He has always been nothing.

Jocelyn comes over and wraps me in a hug. "It's over" she says. "Not yet, but it will be soon." We head back toward the others and it looks like we haven't lost one warrior. There is a group of vampires kneeling in front of Jayden and the others. As soon as he sees me, he rushes over, wrapping me in his arms. He buries his head in my neck. "You are amazing and I am lucky to have been chosen by the goddess for you." I pull back and press my lips to his. Someone clears their throat and I turn to see the only face that was kind here beside Adrian. "Gale," I say her name before I rush over to her. She wraps me in a hug. "It's so good to see you well Brooke. To see you both well" she says looking at Jocelyn. Jayden comes to stand next to me. "Where is Joseph?" She smiles and I'm confused. "He was ordered to return to the Onyx Moon" she says and Jayden growls. "Why are you smiling about him returning to my pack?" "I'm smiling because he has no wolf. I made sure of that. Now you need to go and deal with him." "Thank you for helping my mate and doing what was right", Jayden says before we turn and take off toward the pack. Adrian POV

We are sitting downstairs in the pack house. I can't think about anything except Brooke and the others. I say a prayer to the goddess to protect them. I know that we are needed here but I will never forgive myself if Drayce hurts any of them. "Adrian have faith in your family. The goddess would not have done all this just to lead them to their demise", my mother says. I nod and notice that Andrew is getting a link. I stand waiting to hear what is happening. "Joseph is at the border with a large group of vampires." "Stay here", I say to my family and head for the door to follow Andrew. We meet the other warriors in the pack yard and head to the border. As soon as we arrive, we both shift. Joseph smiles "my son doesn't even come to greet his father. He sends his lackey instead." Andrew growls and I step next to him. "I see you have accepted the leech as your mate. You're pathetic and not worthy of being the Beta of my pack." I'm just about to shift when I hear a voice and freeze. It can't be, she wouldn't. I turn and I feel like I can't breathe. My mother, Porter, and my sisters come to stand next to me. I can't lose them after I have just found them. I step in front of them but my mother places her hands on my shoulders. She turns me so I am facing her. Adria POV

"You don't need to be afraid. I am not afraid of him. He lost that power over me a long time ago." Adrian steps to the side and stands by me. "Hello Joseph" I say and realization crosses his face. "It's not possible. You are supposed to be dead." I laugh "you were supposed to love me and respect the bond, but we both know that things don't always happen the way they are supposed to." "I would never love a pathetic omega. You're the reason my son is so weak and a sorry excuse for an Alpha. He came from omega blood." "He is not your son. He is my son. You don't deserve to claim him. He is nothing like your pathetic a despite all you tried to make him." "I'm done with this. You and all these pathetic people are going to die today. I will have my pack. I am going to end you, which is what I should have done the moment I realized the goddess had chosen such an unworthy mate." I bare my fangs and he steps back. "What the fk have you become" Joseph says with fear in his eyes. "She is my mate and the woman that is about to end you" Porter says. I smile at his words, loving the confidence he has in me. I know how hard this is for him, but he has always given me what I needed and this is no different. Joseph's laugh draws my attention to him. "Do you really think that you can defeat an Alpha wolf?" "I don't see an Alpha wolf." I take in a deep breath scenting the air. I look back into his eyes. "I see a human with no wolf." His eyes get big and I step forward. "It's time to pay for your sins Joseph."
