

I take back the rejection

Alexander POV

After Chris brought my clothes to me, I went into the woods to change and when I came back out the look on her face made everything in me jump for joy. This is how a mate is supposed to look at you, in admiration, love and passion, but then I seen sadness in her eyes after all of that and I wondered what she was thinking. I grabbed ahold of her hand just to feel that amazing feeling again, but she quickly took her hand out of mine and sat down staring ahead. I sat down next to her to see if everything was clear now.

"Do you now understand and what I said is clear now"

"Yea I understand the fact that you rejected me so quickly" she said with tears in her eyes

"I did it for good reason or so I thought, I was just trying to protect you and do what was best for the both of us"

"Shouldn't it be my decision to pick and choose if I wanted to be involved in your world or not"

"At the time I wasn't thinking, all I thought of was my past and the trauma and pain it caused me"

"What happened in your past that made you reject me the spot without getting to know me"

I sighed not really wanting to rehash my past, but I needed to do it sooner than later.

"I grew up training to be the next Alpha of my pack, I was eager to learn everything I needed to become a great alpha. All the years training and learning everything an alpha need; from how to run a successful pack, training good ghters, what makes a pack a pack, mates, the mate bond, and so much more. I could not wait to meet my mate, claim her, make her Luna, bear my pups love and protect her always, but on my 18th birthday my entire world fell apart. I nally was meeting my mate for the rst time, and I saw her from a distance. She was the most beautiful woman in the world or so I thought. As I got closer to her, she looked at me and I could not really decipher the look on her face, but I knew it was not excitement to see me her mate."

I paused for a minute before I went on and then I felt her hand rubbing my back and it instantly calmed me down where I could nish.

"I went up to her and claimed her because she was mine, but she pushed me from her grasp after we introduced ourselves. At rst, I thought she was playing so I grabbed her again and this time I planted a big juicy kiss on her lips. She pushed me away again and this time she slapped me in the face. I thought to myself that this is not what meeting your mate feels like at all from none of the stories I was told. Then suddenly, my best friend, and my beta came up behind her and wrapped his arms around her waist. I grew livid because no man was to touch my mate but me, so I went to show him who the alpha was but before I could get to him, she rejected me. I silently pleaded with her to take it back, but she never did she made me look like a fool in front of everyone even my parents.

So, I accepted her rejection and left never looking back"

"Wow, I am so sorry that happened to you. Do you know why she did what she did"

I just shook my head, not wanting to talk about this any longer.

"All of that still doesn't explain why you rejected me, is it so the pain of you past wouldn't come to light"

"No, that is not it at all. I did it because your human, and I will need to protect you always especially with what has happened. I do not want you to get hurt and if anyone found out that my mate was human, they could hurt you to get to me, and I do not want that. My parents called to tell me that my brother was murdered" I said with tears streaming down my face.

"Oh no, Alex I am so sorry for your loss. What does that mean for you" she said as she hugged me

"I have no doubt in my mind that I have to go back and reclaim my Alpha title"

"So, that means your leaving me"

"No, I will need my mate with me by my side to help me, so if you will let me, I would like to take back my rejection"

"Okay, and help I wouldn't know the rst thing to do and being around so many wolves, how do I know they won't attack me" she said worried

"Babe if anyone touches you that will be the end of them and that is all you need to know about that. My mom will train you on how to become a great Luna"

"What if nobody likes me because I'm human"

"They will not know, since we met Deacon has been hashing out a plan that will work for us"

"Okay, who is Deacon" she said confused

"Sorry Deacon is my wolf; I can talk to him, and he can talk to me, and he can sometimes take over when I do not want him to. Anyhow I met a witch along the way Teresa that I became good friends with, and she will help me mask your scent"

"Wow, there is a whole other world out there, and here I go thinking all of it was false. I cannot believe there are real witches that can do things like mask my scent. What else can they do" she said curiously

"Calm down baby I will tell you about it in time. I do not want to overwhelm you with all this especially with you just nding out about me."

"Fair enough, can we just sit here and enjoy the lake" she asked, and I obliged

Soon she was asleep in my arms, and I had to carry her back to my place which I did not mind at all I enjoyed her touch and her smell. I could not wait to see what this journey had in store for us.

Taylor POV

I woke up early the next morning and to my surprise I was in a big soft comfy bed and next to me was Alexander and he did not have a shirt on. He looked so damn yummy; I was getting wetter by the minute just looking at him and then I started to have dirty thoughts which aroused me more especially since its been almost a year since I had s*x.

"Stop it" he groaned out

Shit, I got caught staring at him. Could he feel my eyes on him? Did I accidentally touch him? How did he know? I did not care I knew that I wanted to explore this with him and wanted to see where this led us. I also really wanted to know about the s*x and if it was as good as the rumors say.

"Stop it" he groaned out again

I just looked over and he was still asleep, and I was not looking at him nor touching him, so I was lost at what he was talking about. Nothing like this has ever happened to me and I was on the path to nding the right man and hopefully the right man has found me. I never thought that he would be a wolf, but I loved that fact that I was mated with someone that wasn't human well partly. I did wish humans had mates like wolves then we would not need to we around until we found the right one.

I could not believe what I saw last night, when he told me he was a wolf I did not believe him until he showed me. At rst, I was scared but then I was not, and I was in awe the rest of the night. It was too much for my mind to wrap around that I just looked at the beautiful scenery in front of me until I could not anymore. I really could not believe I woke up to the most handsome man I have ever seen. I wanted to swoon over him when we rst met but that would have been unprofessional of me, so I kept my emotions at bay. I wonder if he had any pants on underneath the blankets, I wanted to know what the rest of him looked like.

"Stop please" he groaned out yet again

"Stop what, I'm so confused"

"Whatever you're thinking about stop"

"How do you know I'm thinking about something"

"All I know is that it's dirty and I need for you to stop please"

"Still confused"

"I can smell your arousal"

I gasped and my eyes got extremely wide, and I pulled the blanket over me. He peeked over at me and laughed

"Baby that blanket cannot save you" he said laughing as he got out of bed after checking the time

"Unfortunately, it is time for work" he said as he went into the bathroom

I just laid back in the bed and thought to myself holy st I cannot even be aroused and enjoy it; he will smell me every time. I thought that was extremely cool at least I did not have to say or do anything to initiate s*x just think. I was going to have to get home so I can get dressed and go to work, but I could not seem to get out of bed. I wanted to stay in this big comfortable bed all day long, but I had duties, so I had to get up. I decided to stay in bed until he came out of the bathroom and while he was in there, I could think all the naughty thoughts I wanted to he was not near me.

Alexander POV

I was sleeping peacefully next to mate until I smelled her, and I needed her to stop or me and Deacon would not be able to compose ourselves. I had to tell her to stop at least three times but she did not know what I was talking about so I had to tell her that I could smell her arousal. She was shocked that I could sense how horny she was, and I wanted to take care of her so badly, but I did not want to ravish her like the savage beast that I was. I wanted to wait until she was comfortable with me before we indulged into penetrating s*x.

I went to get ready for work and the whole time I was in the bathroom I could smell her, she didn't stop at all in fact she was so aroused I wanted to go and take her right then and there. I came out of the bathroom fully dressed and she was still in bed.

"I can take care of that for you" I said as I walked out

"Take care of what" she said meekly

"I can take care of your aroused state if you like me too"

"I'm not sure if I'm ready for s*x just yet"

"Baby there are other things I can do to make you c*m, have you ever had foreplay"

"Barely, I've only had s*x a few times and it was nothing spectacular" she said

It was my duty to make her feel amazing especially before work.

"Well, if you like I can use my hands or I can use my mouth. Which do you prefer"

"Ummm" is all she said

"I will make it easy for you I will use my mouth because I want to see if you taste as good as you smell. Now tell me that is what you want" I said as I took off my jacket and then my shirt

She just shook her head

"No baby I want you to use your words and tell me what you want" I said as I laid my jacket and shirt on a chair.

She just looked at me for a minute before saying anything

"I want you to pleasure me"

"How"

"With your mouth"

"Good girl, your wish is my command" I said as I pulled the blanket away

I did not dare touch her clothes I left her in them as she slept, I did not want her to wake up thinking we did something.

I moved my hand up her leg and to the most delicate part of her she was so moist her panties were soaked with her juices. I gently removed them and placed them in my pocket as I stared into her brown eyes

"Can I kiss you" I asked her

Again, she shook her head

"Your words baby I need to hear them"

"Yes, you can kiss me" she said softly

I was so glad she said yes, I eagerly crushed my lips against hers and savored her tasted, my tongue made its way into her mouth and I lost it.

I kissed her rough yet passionately and moved my way down her neck stopping right at her marking place as I kissed, licked, and nibbled on that spot.

"This is your marking spot"

"What is that" she said out of breath

"I will tell you later" I whispered in her ear

I continued my way down her body feeling every part of her, massaging, and kissing each boob as I continued to make my way down to her sweet spot.

I lifted her skirt to get more access and admire the view as I kissed each thigh down to her core. I nally went in for the kill and I completely lost myself as I tasted her.

Thirty minutes and ve orgasms later she had had enough of me pleasuring her sweet spot. She was done after the rst orgasm but me nor Deacon could help ourselves. I got up and went to wipe my face and chest off from all her juices that made it on my face. Out of all the women I slept with none of them were squirters like her, and it excited me more once I felt it on me the rst time. My ck was so hard I had to take care of myself as I pleased her as we enjoyed every moment of it. I came back out and she was knocked out, after I nished dressing, I wrote her a note and left out to go to work.

Carmen POV

I was livid when Alexander did not return to work. I was on my to see him again to see if he had calmed down a bit but I seen him leaving with his assistant. I knew that he was sleeping with them, they all let it be known to me every time I came to see him which was not often. I decided to wait to see if they would come back maybe they just went out for a late lunch but nothing. Now it is dark, and I was still waiting for him to return but he never did. I received a phone call while waiting for him

"Hey, what's up"

"Nothing much, I heard you were back in town, why didn't you let me know when you were coming back"

"I wanted it to be a surprise"

"Okay, but for who I know not me one of your very good friends and only other wolf you know"

"No Jeremy, I can never surprise you. I am sorry I have been meaning to call you I just got back into town as of today"

"Where are you now"

"With my man" I said lying

"Oh well let me not interrupt you then, you have a good night and call me tomorrow"

"Okay" I said and hung up.
