

Where is Mate

LIAM

Jax, Chester and I are in town to visit some of the pack's business establishments. I let Jax took care of it coz I can't seem to concentrate. I often zone out. My wolf was so restless, it's so annoying.

When we got back to the pack house, we went to the kitchen. Shiela was there, placing frozen mac and cheese in the microwave. Jax went to Shiela, wrapping his arms around her and kissed her lips. I groaned mentally.

"Get a room, will you!" I said scowling at them. They pulled away from each other and laughed.

"What gotten your panties to twist today alpha?" Shiela asked, and I rolled my eyes.

"What's wrong dude? Something's really off with you?" Chester asked.

Then I noticed 3 pairs of eyes were on me. I sighed and sit on one of the chairs.

"Nothing. Just my wolf is acting really strange. He's been agitated and excited for the past few days. Ever since we went to the water falls. I can't have a peaceful sleep because he keeps on clawing his way out to look for something." I explained to them.

Jax and Shiela looked at each other while Chester looked confused.

"It's not something." Jax said.

"It's someone rather." Shiela added.

I furrowed my eyebrows at them.

"Maybe your wolf is calling for your mate. He sensed that she's nearby, that's why he's acting like that. " Jax said smiling like an it.

Did I hear him right?

"My m-mate?" I asked.

Shiela rolled her eyes and crossed her arms over her chest.

"Seriously Liam. You have no idea when your mate is nearby? Are you really that dumb?" She said and I growled at her.

She ignored me and went over the microwave.

My mate? My mate's nearby?

Then I turned to Jax and Chester.

"Let's go. We need to nd her. Now! " I said using my alpha tone. They groaned and stood up, and followed me to my truck.

She's just here. I'm close to nding her. When I do, I won't let her go, ever. I will love her more than anything.

LUCAS

I asked Camilla to visit my house where all the weapons were stored. I'm pretty sure she was impressed. We are in the living room now.

"Well, I'm pretty impressed with you Lucas. " She said.

I wrapped my arms around her waist and pulled her closer to me.

"I'm glad you liked it my lady."

She smiled, and I looked at her green orbs. I leaned towards her and kissed her lips. She snaked her arms to my neck and kissed me back. Her ngers ran through my hair, and pulled me closer. I licked her lower lip asking for entrance. She opened her mouth, and I shoved my tongue and explored her mouth. Soft moans escaped her lips made me groan when I felt my growing bulge in my pants.

"I want you Lucas. "She said between our kisses.

I'm so turned on that I carried her towards my room. I laid her on my bed, and one by one, our clothes were scattered on the oor, leaving us naked. I kissed her neck down to her breasts, and she moaned as I continued to kiss her until I entered her wet core. I thrust back and forth. Faster and faster. Her moans and groans lled the room. She ipped us making me lie on my back while she grinds on top. I gripped her hips guiding her back and forth. The pleasure is just too much and we went on until we both came.

We we're both panting, when she dropped on top of me. I wrapped my arms around her and kissed her forehead.

CAMILLA

I woke up when I felt sunlight on my eyes. Then I noticed a heavy arm around my waist. I saw Lucas sleeping beside me. Our legs intertwined and were both naked underneath the blanket. I remembered what happened last night. I smiled at that thought. I'm in his arms again.

"Good morning." I looked up and saw Lucas awake and looking at me.

"Good morning." I greeted him.

"I just hope I could stay in your arms forever." I said, and pulled myself from Lucas.

I got out of bed and picked up my clothes and got dressed. Lucas also got dressed and walked towards me.

"You know there's a huge chance that you'll nd your beloved mate. You can't go against the mate bond. When the time comes, I will have to let you go." He paused and cupped my cheeks with his hands.

"But bear this in your mind, it was meant to be. And I will always be here for you, to serve and protect you." He said.

I saw concern, sincerity and love in his eyes. I gave him a small smile. Then he kissed me.

"Now let's get you something to eat."

Lucas pulled me outside the room, towards the kitchen.

Late in the afternoon, I went to town after I left Lucas to his work. He's making weapons again. Now that Lucas and I are back together, I just hope nothing comes between us. Not even my mate.

I felt my stomach growled. I'm hungry, so I went to a pizza parlor. After I ordered and paid for my food in the counter, I came to sit on one of the secluded booths. I pulled my phone from my jeans' back pocket and found a couple of texts from my friends in Europe. I smiled and begun texting back. After a while, a waitress came with my order. I thanked her and ate while I text.

After I nished my meal, I took my phone and begun texting again. Then the sound of the door chime, indicating a costumer came in. In one sniff, I knew that they are wolves. But one scent hit me like a bus. It smelled like freshly mowed grass with a hint of mint and chocolate. The same scent I got in the woods. It's really intoxicating. My inner lycan wolf, Alcione begun stirring and howling in joy. Even though I haven't shifted yet, my inner lycan was always present in my head.

Female lycans can only shift for the rst time into their lycan form when they found their mate.

While I was in a trance of that intoxicating scent, one word from Alcione that made me stiffened.

"MATE"

Oh st.

LIAM

We've rounded the whole town in search for my mate, but still there's no sign of her. Jax and Chester started to whine and protests.

"Come on dude, we're hungry. We can look for her after we eat." Jax whined.

I sighed and gave into them. So we went to a pizza parlor, which was the nearest food establishment in our location.

As we set foot inside, the most delicious intoxicating scent hit me. And it's not the pizza. My wolf Ryker was stirring and repeatedly shouting 'MATE' in my head.

"MATE"

Jax and Chester turned to me.

"She's here?" Chester asked and I nodded.

We looked around, and then I saw a girl with long dark hair was running towards the exit.

'Mate! Go to mate!' Ryker growled.

Automatically, I ran after her with Jax and Chester came behind. I tried to follow her scent outside, but it was faint, almost gone. We all stopped and looked around.

"Where did she go?" Jax asked.

"Dude, your mate sure is fast. Is she a ninja or something?" Chester said and I growled at them.

"I need to nd her! Round the trackers! I want them to search the whole territory for that dark haired girl! Find her! Find her!" I growled using my alpha command.

Jax and Chester inched and bowed.

"Yes Alpha." They said in unison.

My thoughts were back to my mate. I didn't even see her face. Why did she ran away from me? My wolf whimpered with the thought of our mate running away. I won't rest till I nd her. This is my chance for a happy life, and I won't let her go. She's mine.

CAMILLA

After I outrun the wolves, my mate, I went to the forest and I sat down on the ground.

Shit. I never thought I'd nd my mate here. And worse, he's a wolf. Then my thoughts drifted towards Lucas. I just got him back, and now my mate just showed up.

I was about to stand when I froze and an excruciating pain erupted from my stomach, radiating towards my whole body. I collapsed on the ground suffering from the pain. I felt bones started to crack and started to realign itself.

Oh my. I'm shifting! fk! fk!

I closed my eyes and whimpered, and wait till the pain subside.

After a couple of minutes, but felt like hours, I opened my eyes and I stood up.

My eyes widened as I saw my toes, which are no longer human toes but furry paws. I looked behind me and I saw a tail! I shifted! But it's too soon. I haven't met my mate yet. I just sensed him.

'Because you ran away from him.' Alcione said.

I shut her out. I thought for a moment. Maybe this happened because of what I am. I looked at my fur. It's pure white, just like my father's. Royal lycans have pure white furs.

Then I noticed my senses heightened 10x more. I smirked mentally and took off. I ran as fast a bullet. I enjoyed how the wind brushes through my fur as I ran.

I love this feeling.

When I got tired, I shifted back to my human form, and I still have my clothes on. Perks of an Alpha lycan. I used one of my stolen gifts which is teleportation. I teleported myself back to the castle, in my room. I took off my pants and dived on the bed and sleep.

O
