

I Am Loaded 1071

Chapter 1071: Yi Who Had Risen From the Dead! 2

In the battle of Yi's death, saint servant Xu Xiaoshou didn't succeed. On the contrary, under all sorts of circumstances and irresistible special forces, Yi became Xu Xiaoshou, and Xu Xiaoshou became Yi. The person who had died was actually a fake, perhaps... it was saint servant Xu Xiaoshou!

And the real Yi, the "Ever-changing Yi," became saint servant Xu Xiaoshou. He then began a short and arduous new mission, one that was bound to obtain more information about the enemy's organization – Undercover!

This...

Was very consistent with Yi!

It was very consistent with the "Ever-changing Yi"'s methods!

"Surprised, passive points, + 98."

"Speculation, passive points, + 75."

"Guarded, passive points, + 105."

The sudden appearance of the little girl scared not only the law enforcers but also Lei Xi'er and Ye Xiaotian.

The former only had doubts in her mind, but she quickly recalled the interactions between Xu Xiaoshou and her in the past few days. She knew that based on habit, it shouldn't be possible for the other party to be switched. It should still be Xu Xiaoshou... it should be!

Ye Xiaotian did not have such a feeling.

He was only terrified.

He even suspected that Xu Xiaoshou, who had engaged in a long conversation with him just now and obtained information about the Tiansang Spirit Palace that could shake up the world, was really changed by Yi.

After all, Ye Xiaotian knew very well what Xu Xiaoshou and Yi were known for.

"Xu, Xiao, Shou!"

Just as everyone was shocked by Yi who had come back from the dead, Rao Yaoyao, who was the only one who remained calm, was stunned for a moment before she reacted. She gritted her teeth and said,

"Do you really think that you can deceive me?"

In the relevant information, it was recorded that Xu Xiaoshou had a transformation ability similar to Yi's.

However, Rao Yaoyao had never thought that Xu Xiaoshou's ability was so close to Yi's. He could even imitate a person's behavior.

Even Yi had to go through a long period of practice before he could imitate his target's behavior well.

Perhaps, Xu Xiaoshou had obtained the imitator, and during this period of time, he had searched for a large amount of information about Yi... Rao Yaoyao thought.

To be the only clear-headed person among the hundreds of people who were full of suspicions and uncertainty, Rao Yaoyao's proof was not herself, but Ye Xiao!

After Yi died, Ye Xiao instantly lost contact with him.

She, Rao Yaoyao, could choose not to believe in anything, but she could not doubt the reaction of the person closest to Yi.

Therefore, even if the 'Yi' in front of her had found an 'excuse' that was extremely crazy, but still very suitable for the situation, Rao Yaoyao would still conclude that this 'Yi' was fake!

Wang Dachui was obviously woken up by the shout.

He immediately became angry from embarrassment. He clenched his fists and was about to rush over and hammer the saint servant Xu Xiaoshou to death for daring to deceive him.

However, the little girl in front of him was not shocked at all. Her eyes darkened and an aura that filled the sky came pressing down. "Are you crazy, Wang Dachui? Are you trying to kill your own people?"

Wang Dachui was so shocked that he stopped in his tracks.

This aura was not something that a junior of the master stage could have. It even gave him a sense of threat!

"Are you really Yi?" Wang Dachui was confused again.

At this moment, the Night Guardian, who had fallen behind, said in a deep voice, "Xu Xiaoshou has the ability to simulate an aura. Elder Rao, please don't let him..."

Before he could say the word "deceive", the little girl, Yi looked back. Her gaze was cold as she said in a cold voice, "What right do you have to speak here?"

There was no movement, only a lowering of the eyelids.

Everyone keenly sensed that Night Guardian had lost his focus the moment he met eyes with Yi. His entire body trembled and his expression became dull. It was obvious that he had received a powerful spiritual attack from the other party.

Wang Dachui was surprised.

Spiritual attack!

It was not mentioned in the information that Xu Xiaoshou had the power of a higher void, which could be used against Night Guardian, a cutting path!

"He is really Yi." Wang Dachui turned his head to look at Rao Yaoyao.

Rao Yaoyao didn't even bother to reply Wang Dachui. She only had a gloomy face and sneered, "The real Yi wouldn't attack his own people!"

“Did I hurt him?” The little girl Yi snapped back her gaze.

As expected, Night Guardian recovered from his affected state and staggered. His face was filled with shock.

Rao Yaoyao stayed quiet.

At this moment, she still could not believe that the person in front of her was really Yi.

That’s right!

If Xu Xiaoshou really killed Yi, he would have obtained the imitator...

“Since you can even imitate Yi’s skills, it appears that your progress in mastering the imitator isn’t slow at all!” Rao Yaoyao narrowed her eyes.

Wang Dachui suddenly came to a realization. “Ah, right, right. An imitator can be used to imitate other people’s abilities... damn it, you lied to me again!” He took out a thorny sledgehammer from his spatial ring and was about to chop Xu Xiaoshou down.

“Wang Dachui, have you forgotten who paid a huge price for secretly providing you with your ‘Spear Locking Origin Pill’?!” The little girl Yi suddenly shouted.

This time, Wang Dachui’s face instantly turned deathly pale, and the hammer in his hand almost fell off.

“Glared at, passive points, + 1.”

All the male law enforcers behind him also opened their mouths wide, and their expressions gradually turned from disbelief to ridicule and bewilderment.

The female law enforcers frowned in an attempt to hide their change of expression and feign ignorance.

But everyone knew that the Spear Locking Origin Pill was...

The Spear Locking Origin Pill was the pill that could allow one to last seven times in one night. It was a good item... a forbidden medicine!

Why did Wang Dachui buy this forbidden medicine through the Chief of the Transformation Division? Wasn’t he the Chief of the Physique Division?

Could it be...

That he couldn’t do “it”?

No!

The Chief of the Physique Division should be able to do “it”...

Perhaps, he needed a lot of times to be satisfied, so he bought it for the other party to use?

Or did he need a lot of other parties at once, which caused him to be unable to hold on?

“Surprised, passive points, + 62.”

Even if Wang Dachui didn't turn around, he could already feel the gazes behind him that were enough to make one's face turn red. He couldn't contain his anger and waved his fist at Yi.

"Didn't you promise not to tell..."

As he said this, he thought of something. A look of annoyance flashed across his eyes, and he changed it to telepathic communication. "Didn't you promise not to tell?"

The little girl, Yi, chuckled coldly. She did not use telepathic communication. Instead, she raised her voice and said in front of everyone, "I did promise you not to tell, but you have lost your mind to the point that you want to attack me. How can I get you to trust me if I don't bring out some truly confidential information? Did you want us to kill each other in the Yunlun mountain range?"

After saying that, Yi looked at Rao Yaoyao and said with disappointment, "I originally thought that even though Wang Dachui was stupid and couldn't see through it, you can. You're smart enough. You can think of my feigned death, my concealment, and all the various needs of my intelligence work, but..."

Yi seemed to be extremely depressed. She exerted force with her hand and broke the candied haws.

"But you actually couldn't see through anything. You even personally led so many people and directly exposed my identity."

This extremely helpless emotion deeply affected everyone around.

Rao Yaoyao was almost persuaded. Very quickly, her expression turned cold. "Xu Xiaoshou..."

The moment she spoke in a low voice, she still addressed him as "Xu Xiaoshou". This fact seemed to have really ignited the emotions of the little girl opposite her, Yi.

Yi suddenly widened his eyes and cursed angrily on the spot.

"Rao Yaoyao, do you have a pig's brain?!"

"Why are you still calling me Xu Xiaoshou at a time like this?!"

"Even Xiaoxiao knows how to cooperate with me by losing contact. You brought this group of people here to expose the undercover work of your own people. Do you really think that no one has a temper and that anyone can cooperate with you unconditionally just because your surname is Rao?!"

"Do you know how much I've lost just because of your sudden arrival? You have your mission, but don't I have my job?"

The little girl Yi pointed at Sword Deity Rao and aggressively approached her. She shouted, "Remember, I'm on the same level as you, and not your direct subordinate!"

"..." The moment these words that had gone out of control exploded, the entire place suddenly became deathly silent.

All the law enforcers' faces were deathly pale as if they had seen an unbelievable scene.

This was indeed too unbelievable!

Yi had openly scolded Sword Deity Rao!

Moreover, Yi had clearly unleashed all the emotions that had been suppressed for a long time, and not just in the current situation!

“Feared, passive points + 99.”

Rao Yaoyao was also stunned by the scolding.

She didn’t even know that she had subconsciously raised her hand and wiped the saliva off her face. She was completely immersed in Yi’s outburst of emotions just now.

He knew all of their missions...

He knew the nickname, Xiaoxiao, which only a few upper echelons of the Holy Divine Palace knew about.

H-He dared to scold her?!!!

Chapter 1072: Night Guardian’s Powerful Attack! (1)

“Agreed, passive points, + 62.”

This information bar suddenly popped up, giving Xu Xiaoshou a shock.

Acting as Yi was a stroke of inspiration for him. It was purely out of habit, and he subconsciously went for a more aggressive approach.

However, Xu Xiaoshou never expected that after venting his emotions against Rao Yaoyao, he would actually gain the trust of more than 60 idiots.

Were these people brainless?

Yi was already dead!

The Holy Divine Palace must have other ways to verify Yi’s death. How could so many people believe his words now?

Xu Xiaoshou thought of the small details that he deliberately revealed in his words earlier.

Yi’s candied haws, the nickname Xiaoxiao, the swift change of identity, and the successful explanation of his undercover mission...

These things were all from Yi’s soul memories.

The reason why Xu Xiaoshou was able to quickly deduce the “Undercover mission” was because he quickly concluded it based on Yi’s intelligence work habits.

This explanation could be said to directly subvert Rao Yaoyao’s judgment.

The reason why Xu Xiaoshou was so sure was that even he almost believed his own performance just now.

However, the truth was...

No matter how much he thought his performance was successful, it had to be based on the cooperation of the audience.

The current situation was that the enemy and ally were originally in a state of anxious confrontation. The moment his identity changed, Rao Yaoyao slowly started to believe him under his persuasion...

Why?

Did his prevaricating technique improve again?

This absurd thought flashed through Xu Xiaoshou's mind for a very short period of time, and he immediately discarded it. He thought of a more accurate answer, Swallow the Mountains and Rivers!

"The Status Passive Skill, Swallow the Mountains and Rivers, will stack one's aura whenever there is a change in emotions. It has no limit."

Just now, when he transformed into Yi, from his calm state to accepting the doubts of all parties, to methodically refuting and clarifying, to everyone on the other side being speechless, and finally to the point where he became arrogant...and scolded Rao Yaoyao while pointing at her...

These subconscious emotional states were superimposed, accumulating layers of aura that were enough to make others unable to resist.

Intangible aura naturally had an intangible effect.

Not only did it affect the shaken level of one's soul, but it also made his aggressive speech more convincing. This made it difficult for anyone to refute from the bottom of their heart!

"The LV.1 of the sovereign stage, Swallow the Mountains and Rivers, already has these functions?"

Xu Xiaoshou only remembered that he had used Swallow the Mountains and Rivers to imitate the aura of the Eighth Sword Deity, Elder Sang, and other big shots.

He did not expect that this Status Passive Skill already had the ability to "tamper with one's will" at the sovereign stage.

No!

Rather than "tamper with one's will", it was more appropriate to call it "convince one".

Xu Xiaoshou had gone through such a terrifying experience before.

In the White Cave, because of the suppression of his cultivation level, he had been "forcibly convinced" by Yu Lingdi. He had encountered situations like "forgetting to look at the key information bar" and almost made a huge mistake.

More recently, Xu Xiaoshou had believed that both he and Ye Xiaotian had been "guided" to Lone Cliff. He had to face so many experts from the Holy Divine Palace, there should be someone with a similar "convincing" power among them...

It probably came from Bazhun'an!

Or perhaps Bazhun'an had borrowed the guidance of the Holy Emperor's will!

Initially, the sovereign-level “Swallow the Mountains and Rivers” could only affect sovereigns, who were at the same level. Now, however, it already had such an embryonic form that it was capable of affecting Rao Yaoyao, a higher void who was two levels higher.

“Perhaps, when my ‘Swallow the Mountains and Rivers’ level is higher, I will really be able to reach the level of ‘whatever I say will be the truth’... Yes, my words will be the law.”

“And this, in essence, is the ‘assimilation of emotions’. It makes people unable to refute it from the bottom of their hearts. Or perhaps... they will never have any thoughts of doubting or refuting it.”

“Something like... an exaggerated abstract power of ‘as long as I believe it, it will exist’?”

In a split second, these thoughts flashed by. Xu Xiaoshou stood there unmoving, his expression extremely calm.

Ever since he entered Dongtianwang city, he had rarely revealed his true appearance and true abilities to others.

It was only at this moment that he realized that he had unknowingly grown to the point where he could influence an expert of the Sword Deity level with a single word.

“Suspected, passive points + 1.”

“...”

The information bar kept popping up.

In front of him, Rao Yaoyao was still deep in thought.

Even without looking at the information bar, Xu Xiaoshou could easily read Rao Yaoyao’s thoughts from her rapidly changing expression.

This was nothing more than her reactions to the small details that he had deliberately revealed. The nickname Xiaoxiao, the explanation of his undercover work, Yi being on the same level as her and did not want to be disciplined by her.

Originally, it was extremely absurd. All he wanted was to stall for time and wait for an opportunity. However, the act of ‘transforming into Yi’ that he never had the slightest bit of hope for had unexpectedly achieved an effect that he had never imagined. This made Xu Xiaoshou pleasantly surprised.

His ‘perception’ went past Rao Yaoyao and landed on the law enforcers at the rear, as well as his own people, Lei Xi’er, Ye Xiaotian, and so on.

What he saw was a look of shock and bewilderment!

Lei Xi’er was no exception!

“Very good...”

Xu Xiaoshou secretly laughed in his heart.

He suddenly felt that he really had a chance to succeed. A chance to resolve the current crisis without bloodshed!

However, it was at this moment that he keenly noticed the only variable in the arena...

Chapter 1073: Night Guardian's Powerful Attack! (2)

Night Guardian!

Xu Xiaoshou's heart suddenly sank.

...

Among the law enforcer team.

The cultivation level of Night Guardian was not the highest in the entire scene, but he was the first among everyone to regain his senses.

There was no other reason.

Night Guardian had been deceived too many times in similar situations... too many times...

As the saying goes, "Learn from your mistakes". Ever since Xu Xiaoshou transformed into Yi, Night Guardian was the first to feel that the situation was unrealistic.

After all, this was Xu Xiaoshou's signature trick!

However, as "Yi" began to use his perfect tongue to refute everyone until they were speechless, and even scolded Rao Yaoyao, everyone seemed to... start to believe him!

The image of "Yi", who stood at the highest point of morality and accused everyone of being wrong, was almost the embodiment of "Truth". It was difficult for people to resist.

Moreover, the essence of "Yi" was 99% Xu Xiaoshou!

Night Guardian knew that Xu Xiaoshou had a special power, similar to the "Aura power" of a high-ranking person.

He had only seen a few people who possessed this kind of power, such as Hallmaster Dao, Lord Cangsheng...

And those people were all at the demi-saint level!

He did not know why Xu Xiaoshou was able to grasp this special aura power at such a young age and at such a weak cultivation level.

However, he had been influenced by this aura before. It was difficult for him to have any doubts about the person Xu Xiaoshou had changed into.

Moreover, Xu Xiaoshou was too smart!

Every time he transformed into a person, he would always be able to perform the habits and behaviors as close to the real person from the most subtle details.

“Xiaoxiao, the undercover mission...”

All of these details were too perfect and flawless. It made people unable to refute anything about him from the bottom of their hearts.

However, in the eyes of Night Guardian...

This was clearly Xu Xiaoshou’s style!

“Xu Xiaoshou, stop playing tricks. Do you really think that just because others might not understand you, everything about you can be hidden from my eyes?”

At that moment, Night Guardian stood up and berated him harshly. His words interrupted Xu Xiaoshou’s aura influence on everyone. This caused them to wake up slightly upon realizing that the change in their emotions just now was a little too unusual.

From “don’t believe him at all” to “believe him wholeheartedly” ...

The speed of the change was too fast!

After interrupting Xu Xiaoshou’s aura slightly, Night Guardian looked at Rao Yaoyao and said in a low voice.

“Sword Deity Rao, I think that you should have a more certain way to confirm whether Yi is dead or not... for example, the soul lamp, the spiritual paper, and the Spiritual Jade scroll that is stored in the headquarters of the Sacred Mountain. You shouldn’t listen to the one-sided words of an enemy!”

Night Guardian was not sure if the higher-ups had issued a death notice.

However, he believed that with Sword Deity Rao’s status in the headquarters of the Holy Divine Palace, she would definitely receive more information than he did.

Those that he had mentioned were exactly what could confirm a person’s state of life and death.

The soul lamp could determine whether a person’s soul had completely dissipated.

The spiritual paper could confirm whether or not the spiritual cultivation’s aura of a spiritual cultivator was still present on this continent.

The Spiritual Jade scroll was bound to the Divine Secret and could directly find a person’s spiritual will and determine whether it was completely destroyed by the way of the heavens and could no longer be resurrected.

These three items were all stored on Sacred Mountain Gui Zhe.

In the eyes of Night Guardian, these methods, which could confirm the life and death state of the higher-ups of the Holy Divine Palace’s headquarters, were naturally superior to the one-sided words of an enemy.

After receiving the reminder, Rao Yaoyao seemed to have regained her calm, and only then did she pay attention to this matter.

However, in reality, she had already expected what Night Guardian could think of.

Nevertheless, at this moment, Wang Dachui, who had fallen to the side, was already hopping with anger.

Only then did he recall that among everyone present, probably only Rao Yaoyao and himself had once received the news that Yi's soul lamp had been extinguished.

There was no doubt that the person in front of him was actually Xu Xiaoshou.

"Good, Xu Xiaoshou. You dare to fool me again and again. This is intolerable!"

Wang Dachui felt that he was being played around. Although he was still puzzled as to why Xu Xiaoshou was able to reveal such a confidential matter as the 'Spear Locking Origin Pill', he now believed more in the message from the Sacred Mountain. Hence, he raised his hammer and attacked.

The Little Girl Yi, who was Xu Xiaoshou's incarnation, easily dodged his attack and came to Rao Yaoyao's side.

Her expression was very calm as if she was completely unaffected by Night Guardian's words. She only sneered and looked at Rao Yaoyao and said casually, "Wang Dachui is an idiot, but you? Do you not understand this matter?"

When had Rao Yaoyao not thought about the 'soul lamp'?

However, according to what "Yi" said just now, if the other party really came here to secretly investigate the saint servant and other dark factions as part of his mission while assisting her...

The sacred mountain would certainly cooperate with his actions.

To a certain extent, this was more in line with Yi being sent here to assist her in carrying out the mission.

Therefore, it was not that Rao Yaoyao had not thought about the crucial point of "under normal circumstances, the soul lamp can indeed indicate a person's life and death state".

Instead, she knew that in this clause, it didn't include Yi, who was proficient in the path of the spirit and soul!

Even "Ye Xiao's reaction to losing contact with Yi", which she thought was the most crucial evidence, the "Yi" in front of her gave the most direct explanation, which was to cooperate with the mission.

When the soul lamp was extinguished, she could think of what answer "Yi" would give immediately.

For a moment, Rao Yaoyao really fell into a state of self-doubt.

She couldn't even tell if the person in front of her was the real Yi or the fake Xu Xiaoshou!

Chapter 1074: Night Guardian's Powerful Attack! (3)

"Rascal of the Xu Clan, stop misleading the masses with your lies!"

Wang Dachui swept a glance at Rao Yaoyao who was still hesitating. He made up his mind to be the sword in the other party's hand and verify the identity of 'Yi'.

This time, he no longer suppressed his strength. With a stomp of his foot, he broke through the space with a bang. His sledgehammer directly swung towards the top of little girl Yi's head.

"Ambushed, passive points + 1."

Damn it... Xu Xiaoshou cursed in his heart.

He was most afraid of such brainless boor!

After all, he could use his wisdom to disrupt the sight of smart people like Rao Yaoyao, but when a scholar met a soldier, it was really f*cking hard to explain matters to the latter!

Fortunately, he was prepared... Xu Xiaoshou's figure blurred. After all, the imitator brought him Yi's reaction speed. He turned his body sideways and slid away from the violent side of the sledgehammer.

Then, it was as if the scene of Yi brushing past him and meeting his gaze repeated.

Xu Xiaoshou flew past Wang Dachui and turned his eyes to meet the latter's furious scarlet eyes.

"Boom!"

In an instant, Wang Dachui felt as if he had been struck by lightning.

The power of mental piercing caused him to be in a daze fperiodiod of time.

It was really Yi's ability... after receiving a direct attack, Wang Dachui's aura was restrained.

Whether it was because of the imitator that Xu Xiaoshou had obtained, or he was really impulsive for trying to kill the actual Yi, Wang Dachui did not know and could not refute.

"Do you have a brain? Hey!" The little girl Yi passed Wang Dachui and immediately cursed loudly, almost sending him flying with a kick.

Yi's expression then became furious. "If I didn't extinguish the headquarters' soul lamp...if it hadn't been for Hallmaster Dao's mission, would I have been able to hide here and put up with an old thing like you for so long? Did you really not see through my identity or did you want to use this opportunity to get rid of me?"

He went straight for Wang Dachui.

That righteous and strong aura was really difficult for one to not lower their head.

When Night Guardian heard this, his heart turned cold.

It's over...

Xu Xiaoshou was indeed extremely intelligent and knew how to deal with people's minds and hearts...

Wang Dachui's actions were unsurprisingly frozen, and an awkward expression appeared on his face.

He had just come to a realization. If the soul lamp was extinguished, it could mean that he, Wang Dachui, was really dead. After all, he did not have the ability to affect the soul lamp.

However, Yi was different.

Yi was a top expert in the path of soul on the continent. By extinguishing the soul lamp, he could make the sacred mountain send out orders that Yi had died. This would incite the anger of the law enforcers' higher-ups, motivating them to work even harder.

This was a normal part of Yi's strange operation. It was also a common tactic used by the higher-ups to squeeze out people's potential.

"I, I can't recognize who this is..." Wang Dachui thought as he turned his head to look at Rao Yaoyao, trying to get an answer from her.

Rao Yaoyao was silent. Her face was also full of conflict.

She had the same thought as Yi.

If the "Yi" in front of her couldn't explain the reason behind the extinguish of the soul lamp, then he might really be fake.

But now, the other party had given a perfect answer. What reason did she have to attack her own people?

Maybe Xu Xiaoshou could kill Yi...

Maybe he really got the imitator and successfully imitated Yi...

But as an expert in the path of soul and spirit, what method could Xu Xiaoshou use, to obtain Yi's thoughts, obtain the absolute secrets of the Holy Divine Palace, and even grasp everything to the point that... He even knew the 'secret deal' between Wang Dachui and Yi like the back of his hand?

Even Possession couldn't obtain such 'memories'!

Therefore, in Rao Yaoyao's opinion, if all the negative arguments were not valid, the person in front of her could only be Yi carrying out a covert mission.

And her impulsive actions really ruined Yi's work of obtaining internal intelligence from the saint servant. That was why the other party was so angry at her.

Rao Yaoyao was unable to cross this threshold as she thought to herself.

Thus, the scene once again became quiet.

At this time, even Lei Xi'er and Ye Xiaotian, be it fake or real, appeared to be "Vigilant".

How could Xu Xiaoshou know Yi so well? It couldn't be that he was really transformed by Yi, right? To be able to fake Yi to such an extent, this could only be done by the "Ever-changing Yi"!

"Conjecture, passive points, + 10."

"Agreed, passive points, + 93."

Even "Suspected" was gone. They were all in the process of figuring out his identity... Faced with the sudden change in the information bar, Xu Xiaoshou only wanted to say,

"Soul Reading is really a divine skill!"

Just as he felt that the situation had entered an extremely familiar stage, and everything that followed was just a flip of his palm, the Night Guardian behind him suddenly moved!

His slightly cold expression was filled with admiration, despair, and madness.

Without receiving Rao Yaoyao's orders, Night Guardian, who was the team leader of the law enforcers, directly crossed the line and made a move without authorization. He even went all out.

"Night Curtain, descend!"

On Lone Cliff, all the lights suddenly disappeared and everyone fell into absolute darkness.

Then, in the darkness, a spot of light suddenly appeared in the sky. That light quickly expanded and transformed into a huge white hand that filled everyone's spiritual world. It was like the palm of Buddha.

"Hand of Heaven Punisher!"

Chapter 1075: One Strike, Instant Kill! (1)

The strike, which contained the power of a higher void and the Grand Vital Energy, exploded with a loud bang when everyone was caught off guard.

For Night Guardian, this could be considered a violent release of power after being suppressed to the extreme.

From coming across the smell of a Ghost Beast coincidentally at the gate of the City Lord Mansion of Tiansang City to Xu Xiaoshou's unexpected appearance... to Night Guardian letting Xin Gugu go...

From the garden at the back of the City Lord Mansion, where the Night Guardian felt the power of a Ghost Beast at the sea of flowers by chance... to Xu Xiaoshou's unexpected appearance...to the Night Guardian being deceived by Xu Xiaoshou's flowery words into thinking that he was the main contributor to the destruction of the Ghost Beast...

From the Night Guardian noticing the birth of the Flame Python in the White Cave at the first moment to him meeting Xu Xiaoshou by accident...It was also where he finally had the intention to recruit Xu Xiaoshou and even gave away the ownership of the famed sword, Flame Python...

At the Lijian Grassland of the White Cave, the Night Guardian had experienced the terrifying damage that the saint servant, Sleeveless, who had refused to accept an olive branch and was transformed by Xu Xiaoshou, had brought to everyone's hearts and bodies...

Ever since the destruction of the White Cave Small World, Night Guardian had once again captured Xu Xiaoshou's real body. He was just a step away from capturing him, but because of Xu Xiaoshou's vanishing technique, teleportation, and other skills, Xu Xiaoshou, who had grown rapidly, had escaped...

There were too many accidents and coincidences!

This time, Night Guardian could no longer remember clearly how he had been played by Xu Xiaoshou.

He understood that both of them were on different sides. In the future, he might not be able to truly take down Xu Xiaoshou, who was considered a genius in his heart.

So, now was the time!

When, once again, Xu Xiaoshou tried to become someone else, and even dared to deceive Sword Deity Rao and the hundreds of law enforcers in front of him, the Night Guardian could no longer endure it.

“There have been so many opportunities placed in front of me, but I failed to grasp them... this is the last time, even if I die, I will never let Xu Xiaoshou escape!”

This was the only thought in Night Guardian’s mind.

The moment he activated the “Hand of Heaven Punisher”, Night Guardian could see the confused expressions of the hundreds of law enforcers behind him, in addition to Wang Dachui’s hesitation and Sword Deity Rao’s wavering...

However, as someone who had been through this before, Night Guardian knew that no matter how beautifully Xu Xiaoshou disguised himself, he was afraid that others would attack him by force.

In essence, Xu Xiaoshou was just a master.

Although he had many strange things and methods, he was afraid of boorish people!

For so many times, Night Guardian had only been a thinker...

This time, he was willing to become Sword Deity Rao’s sword!

If he failed, he would be subjected to death for making a move against the Chief of the Transformation Division. Even death would not expiate his crime.

If he succeeded, Sword Deity Rao wouldn’t need to hesitate on whether the person in front of her was a real person or not. Night Guardian could also fulfill his wish and take down Xu Xiaoshou.

Maybe Xu Xiaoshou was stalling for time...

Maybe Sword Deity Rao was also waiting for a bigger fish to take the bait...

However, Night Guardian was afraid of accidents!

There were too many accidents involving Xu Xiaoshou. Night Guardian was afraid that if this kid continued to talk, Sword Deity Rao would lose her initial thoughts and really believe that his nonsense!

So what if he forcefully made a move that would break Sword Deity Rao’s possible plan for this reason?

“I have already tasted the feeling of being deceived by him so many times. There’s no need for you all to experience it personally...”

The moment the dark bounded domain swept across the entire scene and sealed everyone’s six senses, the hand of Heaven Punisher descended from the sky and headed straight for Xu Xiaoshou’s location.

This time, Night Guardian’s wilful attack shocked not only Rao Yaoyao, Wang Dachui, and the other senior law enforcers, but also Xu Xiaoshou.

“Boor!”

“This damned boor!”

Xu Xiaoshou almost cursed out loud.

Night Guardian was clearly a good person. He had chosen to be a “wise man” by cooperating with him so many times before. Why was he even more impulsive than Wang Dachui this time? He didn’t even give him, Xu Xiaoshou, a chance before he willfully attacked.

The “Hand of Heaven Punisher” came to suppress him without giving him an opportunity to speak...

Xu Xiaoshou knew that he didn’t have time to think.

After all, the idea of pretending to be Yi struck him as an attempt to stall for time. However, it was an idea that he held no hope for.

The fact that he was able to make people fall into doubt and become entangled already came as a great surprise and achievement to him.

By now, Xu Xiaoshou had formed a second plan for two types of situations. The first situation was when he failed to deceive the masses as Yi and the second was when he was attacked by a boor!

The power of a higher void was contained in the “Hand of Heaven Punisher” that descended from the sky.

Although he didn’t understand why Night Guardian could control the power of the higher void with his cultivation level at the cutting path stage, he didn’t have time to think about it now.

Xu Xiaoshou could feel the aura of “Vastness”, “Justice”, and “Evil Exorcism” from it. He understood that this power of the higher void wasn’t like Yi’s mysterious “Chaotic Ghostly Qi”.

This ‘Grand Vital Energy’ was purely an offensive method, and it was the most straightforward direct attack!

However, at the same time, it was also an energy attack... Xu Xiaoshou could only catch its flaws.

“Vanishing technique!”

The dark bounded domain enveloped everyone, sealing off the six senses of all the law enforcers on the cliff.

Other than Night Guardian, who could see Xu Xiaoshou’s location, even Rao Yaoyao could not detect the abnormal movements within the bounded domain when Night Guardian was caught off guard.

This was the opportunity that Xu Xiaoshou saw.

After he disappeared, he would use ‘Ascending to the Heavens in A Single Step’ to change his position. However, he was not planning to avoid the full-force attack from Night Guardian. Instead, he would face the ‘Hand of Heaven Punisher’ that was descending from the sky head-on!

That dazzling incandescent white light almost blinded Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes when it suddenly approached.

However, Xu Xiaoshou could see the ‘vanishing technique’. He could pierce through anything physical or energy and his opponent wouldn’t be able to attack him.

Xu Xiaoshou would not allow the 'Hand of Heaven Punisher' to pass through him and hit Lei Xi'er and Ye Xiaotian who were below.

Chapter 1076: One Strike, Instant Kill! (2)

This strike might not kill Ye Xiaotian, but surely it would shock him and cause him to make a move. This would subsequently lead to an all-out war on the Lone Cliff.

Therefore, he could only quickly end the battle himself.

"Feast!"

Without any hesitation, Xu Xiaoshou conjured the awakening skill of "transformation" behind him. It was a ferocious Taotie Beast Head that could devour any energy.

However...

In the disappearing state, this Taotie Beast Head consumed a massive amount of Xu Xiaoshou's spiritual source. At the same time, it was like the "Vanishing Technique" that would erase all traces in this world, it could not automatically attack the "Hand of Heaven Punisher" on top of his head.

"Partial disappearance!"

Of course, Xu Xiaoshou had thought of this point. He changed to only conjuring a little bit of the skin on his finger.

It was not even one-tenth of the size of a fingernail. It was completely unnoticeable that after he disappeared, there was an additional ability that Young Master Xu Deye had once displayed — the swallowing ability.

But it was this tiny bit of skin that had connected the disappearing state to the real world.

The dangling tongue of the Taotie Beast Head behind him moved as if it had smelled something extremely delicious. It suddenly pounced forward.

"Gulp."

It swallowed in one big gulp!

A third of the dazzling, incandescent white giant hand was swallowed!

Xu Xiaoshou felt a majestic and pure energy surge into his energy reserve. In an instant, it overflowed and filled all the veins and cells of his body.

He could not help but straighten his back and roll his eyes. He was feeling so comfortable that he almost lost all his consciousness. All his subsequent actions were halted, and he only let out a seductive moan.

"Ah ah..."

In the dark world, only the master of the bounded domain, Night Guardian, could see and hear.

He saw under the Hand of Heaven Punisher, the little girl Yi, suddenly disappear. He did not know where she had gone to. This looked very similar to Xu Xiaoshou's ability.

After an instant, the Hand of Heaven Punisher had an unknown additional little flesh-colored spot.

The next second after the appearance of this little spot, the Hand of Heaven Punisher was torn apart from the middle. It was as if it had been bitten by an ancient giant beast. The power of the Higher Void (level) directly went out of control, and Night Guardian almost suffered a backlash.

This was not the end yet!

The Hand of Heaven Punisher was inexplicably broken, and a groan from a male suddenly sounded. That groan of extreme comfort made Night Guardian feel numb.

“???”

What was going on?

At this moment, Night Guardian even thought of Saint Servant Storyteller.

The first time he used the Grand Vital Energy to deal with Storyteller in the White Cave was mainly because he couldn't bear Storyteller's sissy voice.

Now that the Hand of Heaven Punisher appeared again and there was such a terrifying groan.

This was...

An inevitable accompaniment?

No!

It went off course!

What ability did the opponent use to break his Hand of Heaven Punisher so easily?

This didn't look like Xu Xiaoshou's ability...

“Disliked, Passive Points +1.”

“Suspected, Passive Points +1.”

D*mn it!

D*mn it, d*mn it, d*mn it!

After waking up with that scream, Xu Xiaoshou had almost dug a hole to bury himself.

What he hated, even more, was that Feast had never eaten such magnificent and pure power of the Higher Void (Level). This had caused him not able to react to the terrifying aftereffects, so he couldn't hold it immediately.

With the Breathing Technique... well, training, Xu Xiaoshou's endurance had become extraordinary.

However, it was only after this extreme comfort that Xu Xiaoshou's Perception, which had just recovered, “sensed” that the Taotie Beast Head behind him wanted to “Feast” again after a meal!

And obviously, he couldn't stop it in time.

“No...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s thought was that he didn’t dare to let it “swallow” anymore.

The energy reserve that was directly transformed by the “swallow” just now had almost cracked his energy reserve and caused his body to explode and die.

If he swallowed again, Xu Xiaoshou would “self-destruct” on the Lone Cliff without waiting for Night Guardian to continue attacking.

While the thought of stopping it wasn’t a bad idea, when Xu Xiaoshou finally reacted and silently turned off this terrifying awakening skill...

Feast had finished it off in two mouthfuls!

“Gulp.”

“Gulp.”

Nothing unexpected happened.

The Hand of Heaven Punisher which had gradually disintegrated due to the loss of control of its energy turned into pure feedback and returned to Xu Xiaoshou’s stomach.

“Breathing Technique, breathe out!”

“Breathe out!!!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes were about to explode. He did not close his pores anymore. Instead, he opened them with all his might and forcefully excreted the excess energy in his body.

Usually, Xu Xiaoshou would suppress his level one Breathing Technique of the Sovereign (stage), causing it to be in a half-closed state.

Otherwise, he would drain the Heaven and Earth spiritual energy in the vicinity with every breath he took.

If he did not shrink the pores all over his body, the Heaven and Earth spiritual energy would wrap him into a spiritual cocoon after taking a step.

Now that he no longer suppressed this fundamental passive skill, the Breathing Technique could be fully unleashed.

In the blink of an eye, the last two mouthfuls of spiritual energy that had surged into his body due to Feast were instantly released from the surface of his body.

“Breathe out...”

Xu Xiaoshou finally felt relieved. He could clearly feel a thick layer of blood clots form on the surface of his body.

This was a result of the cracking and bleeding of the surface of his body caused by the terrifying spiritual energy that had entered his body just now. After resolving the Breathing Technique, the phenomenon caused by the passive techniques of the Sovereign (stage), such as “Eternal Vitality” and “Transformation”, was restored to its original state.

Chapter 1077: One Strike, Instant Kill! (3)

“Mmm, my injuries recovered faster than I have expected...”

“Moreover, I am probably the only one in the entire world who talks nonsense while fighting...”

Xu Xiaoshou thought with lingering fear. His body had followed the route he took and landed at the position he wanted to land at before he took action.

The transformation of pure Higher Void (level) energy into spiritual energy gushed out and formed a dense mist in the air. In an instant, it even condensed into a fine spiritual energy liquid.

The spiritual energy liquid dripped down.

Night Guardian was stunned and he suddenly felt his face wet.

He suddenly came to a realization!

Although he did not know how the other party had dealt with the Hand of Heaven Punisher, these abnormal signs around him were nothing more than a reminder to him...

The enemy had arrived by his side!

He turned his head abruptly.

At this moment, Night Guardian saw the little girl Yi, behind him, giggling. His pupils constricted.

That was right. Xu Xiaoshou’s speed was so fast that after dealing with the Hand of Heaven Punisher in the blink of an eye, he directly landed behind Night Guardian who was completely unprepared. He even felt that a single strike could cause great damage to the enemy!

“Senior, I have to apologize to you in advance.

“But this time, it was you who made the first move. You really can’t blame me. After all, I still want to live...”

As Xu Xiaoshou said this, he turned his body to the left and lifted his right leg.

Night Guardian suddenly turned around and looked at the little girl Yi in horror. All the hairs on his body stood up.

It was because the voice of the other party this time was no longer the cute loli’s voice, but the extremely familiar voice of Xu Xiaoshou.

This had caused his thoughts to forcefully stop for a moment...

“You are indeed Xu Xiaoshou!”

While he realized this, Night Guardian’s entire body unconsciously tensed up.

This was a natural reaction of his body when he was stimulated by the possibility of death in the outside world — Xu Xiaoshou had lifted his leg!

“Xu Xiaoshou, Sovereign physique!

“Even if I’m at the Cutting Path Level, I don’t have a sacred physique and only have spiritual source protection. If I forcefully receive a close-range attack from him, I will definitely be heavily injured!”

Night Guardian reacted fast and these thoughts flashed through his mind.

Following this, he activated his bounded domain power and prepared to merge his body into the Great Path.

Xu Xiaoshou let out a long sigh.

Under such a powerful attack, Night Guardian didn’t think at all that Xu Xiaoshou would get close to him. If he were to complete all of his ad hoc reactions right under his nose...

How could Xu Xiaoshou allow him to do that?

There wasn’t a single ripple of spiritual source...

There wasn’t any external support...

There weren’t any other trivial actions that would allow the enemy to have more time to react...

A kick!

Just a whip kick!

After tilting his body to the side, Xu Xiaoshou gathered all of his strength into a kick. Just as Night Guardian was about to disappear from Way of the Heavens, he suddenly whipped it out and lashed it at the space in front of him.

He had deliberately controlled it so that he would not directly break the slim waist of Night Guardian.

But even so...

“Boom!”

The void was shattered inch by inch in the shape of a shockwave under this attack.

The speed of the collapse was so fast that it instantly shattered the shattered space from the edge of the Lone Cliff to the sea of clouds among the Lone Cliff.

Night Guardian had miscalculated.

He thought that Xu Xiaoshou had a Sovereign physique, so even if he took a bit of damage in front of him, he could still use this little bit of time to escape into the Great Path.

However, Xu Xiaoshou did not have the Sovereign physique!

He had the “strengthening”, “recoil”, “toughness”, “sharpness”... and so on of the Sovereign (stage).

This passive skill was inconspicuous when he was in Tiansang Spirit Palace, the White Cave, and Dongtianwang City as he couldn't use it because of Young Master Xu's identity.

But now!

He did not need to conceal his identity, and he also did not intend to conceal his identity in front of Night Guardian, Xu Xiaoshou exploded again...

It was tens and hundreds of times the strongest combat strength of that young man in Night Guardian's impression!

"Boom, boom, boom..."

The sound of space shattering faded into the distance.

At the same time that Night Guardian's afterimage shattered on the spot, the sea of clouds among the Lone Cliff sensed the invasion of a foreign body, and a burst of dazzling light flickered.

After that, the body of Night Guardian, which was full of wounds, could not resist at all. It was sealed by the Spell Forbidden Barrier, fell straight down, and disappeared.

Instant kill with one strike!

In a flash, Night Guardian attacked, Night Guardian was frightened, and Night Guardian disappeared.

At this time, the dark bounded domain which had sealed everyone's six senses began to shatter... It was only a few seconds.

Chapter 1078: Shocking Spaces! (1)

It was over?!

The moment the dark bounded domain shattered, Ye Xiaotian recovered from his stunned state.

He had just recovered from the surprise attack of Night Guardian...

He had just gotten the answer from the thought of "Yi might be Yi, or might be Xu Xiaoshou. But no matter what, he's still the enemy of the enemy, and the enemy of the enemy is a friend. I should lend a hand" ...

He had just thought of using the Lord of Ten Thousand Realms to help the "transformer", who had a higher chance of being Xu Xiaoshou, to solve the problem of the Sovereign Domain...

But before he could gather the power of the Lord of Ten Thousand Realms in the space domain, the dark bounded domain had shattered!

His six senses were sealed, and it was only for a few instants.

Ye Xiaotian had thought that because of his hesitation, Xu Xiaoshou had been beheaded by Night Guardian during these few instants.

However, when his line of sight regained its clarity, he saw that the little girl Yi was standing at the position where Night Guardian was just now, bending down and wiping the tip of her shoe.

Blood was still dripping from the tip of her shoe...

Ye Xiaotian was stunned!

Impossible!

This was absolutely impossible!

If Yi who was at the peak of Higher Void (level) had killed Night Guardian at the Cutting Path (stage) in an instant, Ye Xiaotian could understand.

But he had guessed that the little girl Yi was more likely to be Xu Xiaoshou.

If that was the case, how could Xu Xiaoshou who was at the Grandmaster Realm make Night Guardian of the Cutting Path (stage) disappear in such a short time?

Ye Xiaotian suddenly had a guess. He glanced behind him without leaving a trace. That was the direction of the sea of clouds among the Lone Cliff.

“He used the Spell Forbidden Barrier?!”

“Surprised, Passive Points, +1.”

In the void, there were traces of space being broken and repaired. The traces extended to the sea of clouds among the cliff and then disappeared.

Outsiders could hardly notice it. Ye Xiaotian was the Sovereign (stage) who had mastered the Spatial Upanishad. Naturally, he could perceive that these were all newly condensed spaces.

“He had used the Spell Forbidden Barrier!”

With this conclusion, Ye Xiaotian felt at ease.

Xu Xiaoshou, who had the Sovereign Physique, used the Spell Forbidden Barrier to bury the Cutting Path (stage) Night Guardian within a very short time. It was not something absolutely impossible.

This judgment verified Ye Xiaotian’s thoughts, and it also proved that the little girl Yi was still their own people.

Therefore, Ye Xiaotian secretly erased the brand new space traces left in the void to prevent Rao Yaoyao and the others from noticing the abnormality of the Spell Forbidden Barrier. After all, this was the last escape route in his heart.

At this moment, Ye Xiaotian could only sigh in his heart:

“I’ve just told him about the Spell Forbidden Barrier...”

“He was covered by Night Guardian’s bounded domain first. However, under the situation where he was taken advantage of, he could still do it in an instant, even though he borrowed the power of the Spell Forbidden Barrier...”

“Xu Xiaoshou has already grown to this level?”

“Impressed. Passive points, +1.”

“Stunned. Passive points, +102.”

On the other end.

“Where’s Night Guardian?”

The darkness faded and Wang Dachui was so shocked that he almost jumped up.

In just a few seconds, he was covered in darkness, and before he could find the direction to locate the situation on the battlefield...

When he looked again, Night guardian was gone!

“You...” Wang Dachui stared blankly at the little girl Yi who was standing up again. He felt that the girl had hidden a method that could threaten his life.

At this moment, he did not know whether the other party was an enemy or a friend?

Was it because Night Guardian had angered Yi, and Yi had ended the other party.

Or was it because Xu Xiaoshou had secretly set up an ambush and included Night Guardian’s attack in his prediction range, and then used some special ability to cause Night Guardian to die on the spot?

No matter what he had speculated...

How could a Cutting Path (stage) disappear into thin air and die instantly?

This was too ridiculous!

Wang Dachui was suddenly horrified.

This was a horror that originated from the unknown, not because of the enemy’s power.

He looked at Rao Yaoyao, trying to get an answer.

“You’re not Yi, you’re Xu Xiaoshou...” Rao Yaoyao muttered to herself, her voice was barely noticeable.

In her slightly dazed eyes, when she saw the little girl Yi stand up and look at her again, she had become more determined.

“Yi would not attack his own people!”

The sudden attack by Night Guardian had indeed greatly out of Rao Yaoyao’s expectations.

She had been waiting earlier.

She was also willing to spend time cooperating with “Yi” who was deliberately mystifying things.

In the end, all of this was to stall for time.

Just like the other party who was stalling for time, Rao Yaoyao had also wanted to wait for a bigger fish to take the bait.

However, Rao Yaoyao knew the bottom line in her heart — no matter what her speculation and the outcome were, she would not let go of any of the people here!

Since the other party probably like to act, she was willing to follow his rhythm and experience for herself what she would do when she was in such a situation.

It was like cultivating the sword technique in the mortal world and tempering her heart. It was a brand new experience.

But what Night Guardian had thought was different.

Night Guardian was afraid that Rao Yaoyao would be led away by the other party and believe what the other party had said. In the end, she would become the “second” Night Guardian. Thus he chose to make a move and forcefully interrupt the process.

Rao Yaoyao could see the intention of Night Guardian.

The reason why she did not stop her subordinates from attacking was that she felt that it was nearly enough.

A Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou might not be enough, but with the addition of the Lei family’s orphan, it had greatly exceeded her expectations before the move.

However, Night Guardian had made a move, and before she, Rao Yaoyao, made a move, Night Guardian was gone in the next second...

Chapter 1079: Shocking Spaces! (2)

This situation seemed to have been a little serious!

No one had expected that Night Guardian of the Cutting Path (stage) would be instantly killed by the enemy.

More importantly, Night Guardian was not an ordinary Cutting Path (stage). He was one of the first batches of experimenters in the Holy Divine Palace. He had mastered the power of the Higher Void (level), the Grand Vital Energy.

If he died physically, it would still be fine.

But Night Guardian had disappeared without a trace.

If he was really captured by the Saint Servant, the secret of the Holy Divine Palace might be exposed under the soul interrogation.

At this moment, Rao Yaoyao could no longer remain calm.

Her situation now was just like watching a very exciting magic trick in the secular world. This should have made people clap their hands in admiration, but if the person who disappeared was one of their own, and his fate was unknown...

Who would be able to laugh?

The show had begun, and she had inexplicably become an actress. Falling into the rhythm of the magician opposite her, she had no choice but to fit into the performance like a marionette...

Who could withstand this?

The big fish had never been fished up, but the fishing rod had broken...

Which fisherman could continue to wait indifferently?

Rao Yaoyao's expression turned serious, and there was a hint of gloominess in her eyes. She gently raised her hand, opened her red lips slightly, and blurted out a word.

"Action!"

They could not wait any longer.

If they waited any longer, just like what Night Guardian had said, the situation would be completely under the control of a young man.

And now, the situation was slowly heading toward the worst situation. Only by forcefully taking action could they break this stalemate!

The hundreds of law enforcers at the back received the order, and with solemn expressions, they shouted in unison.

"Kill!!!"

Murderous intent shot up into the sky.

Then, under the shocked gazes of Ye Xiaotian, Lei Xi'er, and the others, each of the Sovereign (stage), Cutting Path (stage), and Higher Void (level) moved their hands to their sides. The spiritual source of the energy reserve was released without explanation.

"Bounded domain, open!"

"Bounded domain, open!"

"Bounded domain, open!!!"

More than a hundred people shouted in unison.

In an instant, a multicolored light covered the entire Lone Cliff.

In just a short while, with a boom, layers of bounded domain rose from the ground and covered everyone. Like the nesting doll, everyone's route of the retreat was completely sealed off.

A hundred bounded domains suddenly appeared!

"Startled, Passive Points +1."

Not to mention Lei Xi'er and Ye Xiaotian, even Xu Xiaoshou, who had just kicked away Night Guardian, was shocked by this spectacular scene.

Metal, wood, water, fire, earth; light, darkness, wind, thunder, ice...

Xu Xiaoshou had never seen such a complete range of bounded domain of all attributes appear in front of him.

He had never thought that there would be such a day where he would provoke a hundred or so Sovereign (stage) at the same time, and be drowned by a hundred or so bounded domains at the same time!

This was simply...

No way to escape or retreat!

And when such a crisis came, he had not yet grown to the Sovereign (stage) realm which was the lowest means to deal with it. He was just a Master (stage) ...

Mmm, strictly speaking, the Heavenly Image State.

I was numb!

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the layers of the bounded domain above his head, and his state of mind was about to collapse.

He was resentful why he had delayed for so long and still had not received any support.

Had he made a mistake in his judgment? The thought that led him to the Lone Cliff wasn't from one of his own, but from an enemy that he had never met before.

Fortunately, Xu Xiaoshou had never placed all his hopes on anyone else.

Ever since he kicked away Night Guardian, he had thought of the worst outcome — the worst outcome which was nothing worse than the current situation!

"If I want to make a move against the law enforcer, I definitely won't be able to keep my identity as Yi.

"Then, do I make a fool out of myself and sit in this meaningless vest until I die, or reveal my true identity and completely face the enemy?"

Neither!

Xu Xiaoshou had already formulated the "third plan"!

"Hehe."

At the critical moment, Xu Xiaoshou suppressed the trembling in his calves that was about to come. In front of everyone's eyes, he slightly opened the corner of his mouth and sneered. He raised his voice and said.

"I have already given all of you a chance to deceive yourselves. However, you are useless and have repeatedly challenged my bottom line...

"You must know that curiosity kills the cat!"

The voice that came from the little girl Yi's mouth became neither male nor female. It was very neutral.

That ethereal charm, that special tremolo technique that drifted down from all directions, evolved into an image of a sleeping boss that was finally awakened from his morph.

This voice sounded slightly familiar... the surrounding law enforcers were on guard, feeling as if they had heard this voice somewhere before.

Rao Yaoyao's following move was also interrupted. She looked in the direction of the little girl Yi, and in the next second, her expression changed abruptly.

"Attention, Passive Points, +144."

Under the attention of everyone, Xu Xiaoshou's body began to squirm once again.

This time, his height suddenly increased. The clothes on his body were no longer simple but had turned into a gorgeous and extravagant golden color.

He wore a big hood on his head.

A golden mask appeared on his face.

A blade and a sword also appeared on his back, both of which were entangled by the sealing belt.

The blade was the Tang Sword, and the sword was the longsword!

As soon as this very eye-catching image appeared, the movements of all the Sovereign (stage), Cutting Path (stage), and even the Higher Void (level) stopped, and shock appeared on their faces.

Wang Dachui was dumbfounded.

Rao Yaoyao's eyes seemed to have lost focus as well.

"Yama, Huang Quan?"

"Suspected, Passive Points +144."

Even Ye Xiaotian and Lei Xi'er, who had landed at the edge of the Lone Cliff and were trapped by a hundred or so Sovereign Domain, were also shocked beyond words.

Chapter 1080: Shocking Spaces! (3)

What Ye Xiaotian had shown was extremely unsightly.

At this moment, he even had goosebumps all over his body. He was so scared that his soul almost fell to the ground when Huang Quan, who was perfectly replicated and had the same aura, appeared.

Ever since he retired to the Tiansang Spirit Palace, Ye Xiaotian had attacked with all his might twice in total.

The first time, he had his arm broken by the masked man, the chief of the Saint Servant, Bazhun'an.

The second time was in the Yunlun Mountain Range. He was caught by Yama, Huang Quan. He was tortured so much that he almost lost the ability to take care of himself.

These two people had left a deep impression in Ye Xiaotian's heart. Even though he had reached the final stage of Spatial Upanishad, he didn't dare to say that he was invincible in this world. He didn't even dare to show impudence.

Ye Xiaotian knew that this world was full of dangers. Before achieving the Cutting Path (stage), the Spatial Upanishad was also an ant.

Therefore, when this Huang Quan suddenly appeared, even though he knew that it might be fake, just the impact of this image on him could be imagined.

On the other side, Lei Xi'er's heart was filled with despair and disbelief.

The battle between Xu Xiaoshou and Night Guardian was because the six senses were sealed. Outsiders could not see the slightest bit of it, but Lei Xi'er was not one of them.

The nature of her God Devil Eyes was many times higher than Night Guardian's dark bounded domain. Naturally, she could clearly see Night Guardian being kicked down to the bottom of the Lone Cliff by Xu Xiaoshou.

Therefore, even though Lei Xi'er knew Xu Xiaoshou's true identity, and she still wanted to maintain the cold and aloof image that she had recently established, she no longer could hold herself back at all now. There was only one thought left in her heart, "How dare he?"

His extraordinary ability had fooled the law enforcers to this extent. Xu Xiaoshou must have racked his brain and used all kinds of information gaps to catch the other party off guard.

Lei Xi'er put herself in his position. She knew that if she were in his shoes, she would definitely be exposed in less than three sentences.

Xu Xiaoshou had done his level best!

But now, at this critical moment, why did he still dare to transform into Huang Quan?

Was he making a farce?

This identity, even if he didn't have to say anything, after surprising Rao Yaoyao, he would definitely be exposed, wouldn't he?!

What was wrong with the identity of "Xu Xiaoshou"? Was it because he had been cursed too much that he didn't dare to use it anymore?

...

"Huang... Quan?"

As expected, after feeling surprised, the corners of Rao Yaoyao's lips twitched and her eyes filled with ridicule. "Xu Xiaoshou, you really exceeded my expectations. This is so interesting."

Rao Yaoyao was indeed amused.

She had never seen such an interesting person. To stall for time, he would do anything at all.

Huang Quan would not dare to appear in front of her alone at all!

If this was really transformed by Xu Xiaoshou using the Imitator, what ability could he imitate? Could he inherit Huang Quan's time and space attributes?

"Ridiculous!"

Rao Yaoyao did not want to be bothered by this person who was playing tricks. She turned her eyes and looked at the silver-haired woman not far away.

Of the three people present, only the orphan of the Lei family was the most valuable and the most worthy for her to make a move.

"Act now!"

With that order, the law enforcers behind her rose, and one after another used the bounded domain power.

The power of a hundred or so bounded domains was gathered in different shapes and colors. They were about to shoot down the "Huang Quan" who was playing tricks.

At this moment, Rao Yaoyao carried her sword and flew toward Lei Xi'er.

Lei Xi'er's pupils trembled. She could not be bothered to curse Xu Xiaoshou in her heart anymore. Subconsciously, she wanted to use the power of her "God Devil Eyes" to face the attack.

At this crucial moment...

"Sigh"

A soft sigh came out from the void. It contained endless helplessness as if it was blaming the people in the world for not believing it.

Then, everything in the world seemed to have been delayed.

The power of the hundred or so bounded domain slowed down, and Rao Yaoyao's flying figure slowed down. The air suddenly became quiet, leaving only the strange sound of the wind that had been delayed.

"Crack! Crack!"

Rao Yaoyao's neck seemed to have a gear that had suddenly rusted, and she turned her head back with great difficulty.

With just a glance, she saw Huang Quan who was playing tricks, shook his head slightly and raised his right hand. The other four fingers of his right hand were raised slightly, leaving only his middle finger lightly pointing in the air.

And the void, using this as the center, circles of ripples that were hard to see with the naked eye spread out. These ripples enveloped everyone at the edge of the cliff. They were the main culprit that had slowed down everyone's movements.

Rao Yaoyao's thoughts felt as if a century had passed. Only then did she feel a boundless shock in her heart.

“Time...Delay...?”
