

I Am Loaded with Passive Skills

Chapter 1301-1350

At this moment, the frost turned into snow, and the ground was frozen.

Inside and outside the battlefield, trees turned into an ice sculpture. Even the void attendant was scared. Then, he began to swallow the ice energy that was attacking him.

Delicious, delicious.

“Roar...”

Under Lei Xi'er, the ice blue-white skeleton, Ice, finally roared.

As the energy overflowed, the ice-type Upanishad spirit array under its feet opened up.

As far as one's eye could see...

From Ice to double dumba*s, even under the suppression of Holy Power, more than ten ice-type Upanishad spirit arrays suddenly lit up along the way, as if the Upanishad was leading to the path of becoming a saint!

“F*ck!”

Double Dumba*s was dumbfounded.

Spiritual arrays of Upanishad?

Xu Xiaoshou did not grasp the Upanishad, and neither did the silver-haired girl.

Yet their mount did???

“What a bunch of freaks!”

Double Dumba*s was about to go crazy.

However, his craziness hadn't materialized into a real attack yet.

The dazzling ice-type spiritual array of Upanishad had its energy expanded to the maximum under the Three Days Frozen Calamity.

“Ice Age!”

Ice couldn't speak, so Xu Xiaoshou stood with his sword and said indifferently...He liked this kind of time when he didn't need to do anything other than give a command.

As soon as he finished speaking.

"Boom boom boom boom boom boom!!"

A terrifying explosion of ice sounded for dozens of miles. The ancient forest on the battlefield was completely covered in frost.

Even the void attendants watching the battle had turned into frozen giants because they didn't have time to swallow a large amount of ice-type energy.

"Crack!"

The world froze.

The shattered trees stopped in mid-air, and the dust from the explosion condensed in the nine heavens.

At the center of the frost storm, double dumba*s, whose entire body was filled with the pressure of a demi-saint, was completely frozen before he could vent the power he had just received.

"PFFT..."

A special sound came from the Infernal White Flame.

"Hohoho!"

In the next second, the Infernal White Skeleton, Ember, was so excited that it beat its chest and stamped its feet.

It was not affected by the power of the frost at all. After watching the battle for so long and not being able to intervene, Ember had long been unable to endure its hunger and thirst.

Now that this enemy was not with its owner, it finally did not have to worry and could now destroy everyone with its punch.

"Roar!"

It suddenly bent its knees.

Ember was like a giant cannonball. Infernal White Flame exploded under its feet and it threw a punch at the ice sculpture, Double Dumba * s.

“Break!”

Ice-type Upanishad’s freezing power was extremely strong, but holy power was not undeserved.

In just half a breath, double dumba*s broke free from the freezing power and completely shattered the ice sculpture.

However, just as his vision recovered from the darkness, a huge fist with a burning light completely dyed the world in front of him white.

“What the f*ck...”

Double Dumba*s was stunned.

At a certain moment, he even recalled the fear of being controlled by the void attendant.

The reason was that this fist in front of him was no different from the feet of the void attendant from a human’s point of view!

Big!

Very Big!

Super Big!

“Bang-”

As the fist was raised, time seemed to slow down in front of this absolute power.

Double Dumba*s only felt that the world in front of him was twisting...

His eyeballs were under the force and almost flew out of his eye sockets; his teeth fell off and flew out of the blurry world along with his blood; his body was smashed into pieces, and his elbow fell off and pierced into his heart and lungs...

“F*ck! F*ck! F*ck!”

In the quiet world of consciousness, double dumba*s became confused and hesitant.

He didn’t understand.

Was Xu Xiaoshou really at the master stage?

Was the combat strength of a cutting path written on the black gold bounty really measured?

It was one thing for him to be so strong, but his little girlfriend also had the Lei family's eyes.

Other than the Lei family's eyes, even their mounts were giants.

It was one thing for giants, but for one to have mastered the ice-type Upanishad and the other to have physical strength, they were more terrifying than anything he had ever seen in his life...They were not weaker than the void attendants at all!

"Pfft!"

His demi-saint's power had just appeared, and he did not have the time to display its power.

After Ember's punch, double dumba*s was blasted from the ground and turned into a pile of meat paste that scattered into the sky.

"Monkey monkey!"

After the battle ended, Ember was as excited as a monkey. It turned its head and jumped around, waving its hands and feet at Xu Xiaoshou, as if it was saying, "Look at me! Look at me!"

"I have destroyed my opponent with a single punch. Wasn't I strong?"

"Quickly praise me! Quickly praise me!"

"He's dried up, but not dead yet."

Xu Xiaoshou poured a bucket of cold water on Ember. He stared unblinkingly at double dumba*s, who had turned into mud and was stuck on the ice tree.

It was very difficult to kill a sovereign, let alone a higher void.

A higher void could be defeated with absolute physical damage, but it was absolutely impossible to kill them.

This was the reason why most spiritual cultivators possessed some other strange abilities after reaching the sovereign stage.

If one wanted to end the enemy, it was impossible to do so by normal means.

One had to be different!

"Hehehe..."

As expected, in just a short while, the pile of flesh and mud disintegrated, and golden spots gathered, forming a hazy double dumba*s figure.

“Strong!”

“You’re indeed strong!”

“As expected of someone who can be on the black gold bounty. Xu Xiaoshou, you are indeed harder to deal with than I thought...”

Double Dumba*s panted weakly, but his expression was as ferocious as a mad dog. His eyes were filled with a strong bloodlust as if he was going to risk everything and fight to the death.

“Impressive!”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and sighed. Although he had expected it, seeing a cockroach that would not die no matter what made him sigh.

In the next second, without waiting for double dumba*s to recover, he carried the big rock under his feet and took the easy way out in one step, appearing in front of double dumba*s.

“So much nonsense. Are you just trying to stall for time?”

“Die!”

He swung the Void Suppression Stele and smashed it directly. Xu Xiaoshou did not want to give double dumba*s time to catch his breath.

As a gold-hunting token killer, even if this guy was only on his last breath, he would probably be able to display an unexpected technique. He might even be able to exchange half of his life for a counterattack on the verge of death.

However, using the Void Suppression Stele to attack was different.

No matter how Double Dumba*s retaliated, given his current state, there was a high chance that he wouldn’t be able to break through the defense of the Void Suppression Stele.

If he was to miss his next move, the Void Suppression Stele would be able to completely suppress his spiritual source.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t know whether it would be effective against the Holy Power...

However, he had to give it a try. Perhaps, he might be able to suppress it all?

“How can that fellow even use a stele to attack...”

Double Dumba* s stared blankly at the Void Suppression Stele that was smashing down on him. The madness in his eyes had turned into shock for a moment.

He had seen this before. It was the stele that he was unable to leave his name on the moment he stepped onto Abyss Island.

Xu Xiaoshou actually carried it over to fight?

What kind of imagination was this?

“Dissolve the World!”

Double Dumba*s did not dare to delay. He used the little bit of holy power that he did not have the time to use just now to hang his life and activated the higher void world without hesitation.

Different from the bounded domain, the higher void world was like the manifestation of a spiritual cultivator’s spiritual body and consciousness.

Some people lacked offensive means and would turn the higher void world into a powerful offensive tool; some people lacked defense and would turn the higher void world into the most indestructible shield.

Double Dumba*s was different.

His offensive and defensive means were lacking, but as an assassin, it was always better to have as many life-saving means as possible.

This ‘Dissolved World’ was not used for damage output and defense. It was used at the last moment by a fugitive!

“Swish!”

With an order, the pressure of holy power spread out again.

The area within a radius of ten miles was covered in a layer of hazy golden fog. In the blink of an eye, the double dumba*s split into two, two, and three...they turned into countless splits and dispersed in different directions.

“Bang!”

Xu Xiaoshou smashed down with a stele, smashing the double dumba*s in front of him into pieces.

This violent hammer strike caused the ground to shake and then crack.

However, only one double dumba*s was smashed into pieces and tens of thousands of double dumba*s were fleeing in all directions.

“This fellow...”

Xu Xiaoshou was momentarily stunned.

Just now, when the double dumba*s acted like a mad dog, he thought that this fellow was going to use a last-ditch attack.

He didn’t expect that his final attack would be to run for his life!

He had no intention of attacking or defending at all. All he wanted to do was to run as far as he could.

Double Dumba*s, who was in the higher void state and had mastered holy power, was facing two white skeleton giants, Xu Xiaoshou, and Lei Xi’er..

He didn’t even want to resist anymore.

He just ran!

“So pathetic.”

Although Xu Xiaoshou could understand the double dumba*s’s choice as an assassin and didn’t want to fight back.

However...

“Is it useful to run in front of me?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s spiritual source in his energy reserve was summoned, and he instantly gathered the spiritual source that he hadn’t used for a long time.

He usually used his body in fights, and if he didn’t use his sword, he rarely used the methods of a spiritual cultivator because compared to the first two, he was only at the master stage in spiritual cultivation.

However, in his master stage Heavenly Image State, the energy reserve was embedded with the Infernal Original Seed, which contained calamity power.

Xu Xiaoshou’s use of the infernal lineage was by no means limited to the Infernal Heavens Alchemy technique and explosions.

At the moment, with so many double dumba*s running in all directions, his physical strength could not keep up, and his way of the sword could hardly catch the real body and kill it.

However, a spiritual cultivation ability can do AOE group damage!

“PFFT...”

In half a breath’s time, the spiritual source of his energy reserve was drawn out.

At this time, the Double Dumba*s clones, which were at the higher void level, were so fast that they were already ten miles away.

Xu Xiaoshou did not move at all. He recalled the scene of Elder Sang rising from the Hundred Thousand Mountains and blooming in the world of white flame.

He detonated the compressed energy from the infernal original seed!

Boom!

The heat waves on his body exploded, and Xu Xiaoshou’s body swelled up. At this moment, white flames were burning, and he was like a flame god bathing in flames.

“Attacked, passive points + 1.”

“...”

“It really hurts...”

The seal of Infernal Original Seed was casted with the help of the wretched saint’s white light bead.

Up until this moment, Xu Xiaoshou’s physical strength was still unable to completely withstand Infernal Original Seed’s full strength.

However, he understood that...

At this moment, the reason why he could borrow Infernal Original Seed’s strength for a short period of time...was because of body tempering.

Xu Xiaoshou’s fundamental reason for cultivating a sovereign physique was to be able to better withstand the various types of “Fire seed” of the infernal lineage.

At this moment, the Infernal Original Seed’s strength was indeed strong...

However, to deal with a higher void, this method was far from enough!

“Transformation!”

Xu Xiaoshou began to use transformation to raise his figure.

This passive skill reached the sovereign level during the Yunlun mountain range trial. As there were people watching the cloud realm world, Xu Xiaoshou didn't dare to test it.

However, on Abyss Island, he was unbridled!

“Bigger!”

“Bigger!”

“Bigger!”

“Transformation” of the master stage would be limited by the size of the human body. One wouldn't be able to transform into a true giant or shrink into gravel or particles.

However, a sovereign-level “Transformation” was a qualitative transformation!

This was the first time Xu Xiaoshou had used the “Transformation” to its full power. In an instant, his figure and height, which had been a small ant, suddenly expanded.

One feet...

Three feet...

Ten Feet...

The two white skeleton giants, the void attendants, and even Lei Xi'er watched in astonishment as Xu Xiaoshou's human form suddenly collapsed and transformed into a hundred-meter-tall giant that was three hundred feet tall.

“This...”

Lei Xi'er was stunned.

When did Xu Xiaoshou master this ability?

Had he always been a giant?

“Suspected, passive points + 1.”

“It really works!”

As he felt the spiritual energy in his energy reserve rapidly decrease, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly came to enlightenment. The “Transformation” of the sovereign level really had no limit.

Or perhaps the only thing that could suppress his body from surpassing the void attendant was the spiritual source.

But...

300 feet was enough!

This body could contain even more explosive power of the Infernal Original Seed!

However, to destroy the higher void world, he had to kill Double Dumba*s in an instant...

He was just a little bit away!

Just a little bit!

“Berserk Giant, enter the arena!”

A beast roar sounded.

The 300 feet tall Xu Xiaoshou’s body expanded once more as the golden light descended, turning into a 300 feet large berserk giant!

The era of the 3-feet-tall giant had passed, and he was now a complete freak!

“Roar!!!”

This time, even the Infernal White Skeleton, Ember, and ice-blue White Skeleton, Ice, were stunned.

“Hehehe...”

Ember was excited. So its owner was really from the same race. If his owner was a little bigger, he would be able to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with it. It really didn’t want to poke him!

“Roar...”

Ice was also shocked and puzzled.

Could this really be done by a human? The owner had clearly never used such an ability before.

So he was really from the White Skeleton race?

“Xu Xiaoshou has evolved into Xu the Beast!”

The thousand feet large Berserk Giant, Xu Xiaoshou, was willing to call this form... Xu the Beast form! The true king of the giant kingdom!

As he felt his own strength rise to the limit, similarly, his energy reserve was in a frenzied state of depletion. Even the various passive skills were somewhat unable to be transformed.

Xu the Beast, who had used all his firepower, immediately shot a glance at all the double dumba*s that was a dozen miles away.

This distance was originally very long.

Now, however, the world had become smaller.

Xu the Beast felt that his palm could smash this small world into pieces!

“Infernal Heavens!”

The sound was settled.

“Sizzle~”

The Ice River world that had been constructed by the ice-blue White Skeleton, Ice, melted in an instant.

The temperature within a radius of 100 miles rose steadily. In the blink of an eye, it reached its limit. The compressed white flame emitted threads of fire from the cracks in the ground.

The space started to distort!

“Buzz...”

The void attendant, who had just swallowed the power of the ice crystals, felt his body turn cold. Suddenly, the surrounding environment changed again, as if he had entered the Ember Zone.

He couldn't help but be surprised.

What was going on with this human?

His cultivation level was clearly so low, yet his body contained such terrifying power!

Not only could he become bigger, but he could also control all kinds of ridiculous energy attacks.

Forget about the extreme ice type, but how could this white flame be so similar to the Infernal White Flame in the Infernal White Flame Field?

The key was...

How could his body withstand it?

It wasn't that he hadn't seen the giant tribe's void attendant before, but his physical body was just slightly stronger.

The power that this human had displayed consecutively... The void attendant felt that the demi-saint and holy emperor that he had seen before would rarely dare to combine these two opposing extreme ice and fire powers into one, right?

This sinner's serial number was 800820...

A humanoid walking bomb core?

"Damn it, damn it, damn it!"

On the other side, while double dumba*s was running with all his might, his heartbeat also began to accelerate.

This was too crazy!

This was really too crazy!

It's one thing for Xu Xiaoshou to be powerful from the outside, but to be able to affect the higher void world just by relying on the energy released from his body?

No matter how weak his 'Higher Void World' was, it was still a higher void level ability.

Xu Xiaoshou was only a grandmaster, yet he was able to burn through his higher void world with his own strength!

And...

"What's going on with this pressure?"

Even though he was already 20 miles away, Xu Xiaoshou didn't chase after him.

However, double dumba*s still felt that he was going to be taken down by that little master in the next second...

No!

It wasn't a feeling!

At a certain moment, double dumba*s's heart rate soared to its peak, and a soft murmur seemed to come from beside his ears...

"Ember, Dragon Melting Realm!"

A loud bang sounded.

In an instant, mountains and rivers were destroyed, and ancient forests were burned to the ground.

Within a radius of a hundred miles, a thick white flame that was like a barrier rose from the ground. It covered all directions without any blind spots as if a white blazing sun had descended into the world.

With that, he, double dumba*s, fell into the center of the White Sun.

Heat!

Heat!

Deathly heat that felt like his soul was about to be burned through!

This White Sun descended upon the world, instantly incinerating the higher void world. At the same time, it was like a cage, completely trapping the countless fleeing double dumba*s clones!

Inside the world of White Sun, the double dumba*s couldn't help but stop running.

"It can't be, right?"

"Am I dreaming?"

The veins on the double dumba*s's forehead were throbbing wildly, and his eyes were filled with disbelief.

However, after the "Sizzle" sound, the white flame that bloomed from his body, the white flame that rose from his energy reserve, and even the order of the heavens that could be communicated with his consciousness world were all burning with the white flame.

Double Dumba*s knew that this wasn't a dream.

That person, who was at the master stage, had really ignited everything in his body with one move!

“AH—”

Countless screams echoed in all directions at the same time.

Almost at the moment when the Dragon Melting Realm covered the area, all of Double Dumba*s clone was burned to ashes and disappeared without a trace.

“How could it be...”

“So, this move of his was just to lock onto my real body?”

Double Dumba*s shook his head in a daze, muttering silently as if he had lost his mind.

He did not understand.

No matter how weak he was now, the higher void world that had borrowed holy power was not something that an ordinary person could break, right?

However, Xu Xiaoshou had destroyed all of his clones in an instant, and he had even constructed a cage of the white flame world within a radius of a hundred miles that he had nowhere to hide.

How was he supposed to fight?!

All of his abilities had been competed to death!

“Isn’t he only at the master stage?”

Double Dumba*s could not believe that this world of white flame was created by a mere master.

He turned his head in confusion. In the next second, he saw Xu the beast in the form of a giant slowly floating in the air amidst the white flame in the distance.

“What the f*ck?!”

In an instant, double dumba*s’pupils constricted.

It was a thousand feet tall giant that was emitting golden spots of light. Its foot stomp was on a magnificent ice lotus that could support a lifetime. Its body was bathed in white flames that were as holy as the Fire God.

In its palm were the gigantic forms of vicious swords, Fourth Sword and Flame Python. On its back was a pair of blue and white wings of ice and fire. It was like a world-destroying demonic god that had suddenly descended on Abyss Island.

“This is Xu Xiaoshou???”

Double Dumba*s’s eyeballs almost popped out.

If it wasn’t for the fact that he recognized the two swords in Xu Xiaoshou’s hands, he would have thought that this was a void attendant that had shrunk in size but had activated battle mode, and was coming to kill him.

“Is this a f*cking joke?”

“This is a master stage?”

“Who calls this a master stage? Step forward! Isn’t this a pure scam?!”

At this moment, double dumba*s hated the guy who issued the Black Gold Bounty.

What grandmaster realm? A combat strength of a Cutting Path? That was all BULLSH*T!

After Xu Xiaoshou unleashed all his power, this was what he looked like?

This was called a cutting path’s combat strength?

Even an ordinary higher void could be shattered by his palm, right?!

Run...

It was impossible for him to run.

Double Dumba*s seemed to have seen his own fate. He stared at the Super Golden Giant in the distance in despair. He stretched out his hand and faced the silver-haired girl.

Then, this pair of “Beauties and beasts” formed a ripple of space attributes around him.

With one step, they arrived in front of him.

“Gulp.”

Double Dumba*s’s adam apple bobbed, and an aura of death rose on his face.

A giant with space attributes...

F*ck! F*ck! F*ck!

Not to mention that there was no holy power left in his energy reserve at the moment.

Even if there was, double dumba*s felt that with Xu Xiaoshou's current form, holy power would at most destroy his appearance, and the latter would definitely have other methods to chase after him.

"Run?"

The giant opened his mouth, and his voice was like thunder, exploding into Double Dumba*s's eardrums till they were about to burst, leaving his mind buzzing.

"Yes, I have to run..."

Double Dumba*s suddenly remembered that he still had to run. If he didn't try, how would he know the final despair?

"You can move, but it will be very painful." The giant stared down mockingly.

"..." Double Dumba*s was about to lift his foot before he was instantly petrified on the spot when he heard what Xu Xiaoshou said.

Forget it.

Just end him.

If he could do it all over again...

Why did the heavens let him encounter the Forest of Miracles?! That wasn't a miracle, it was a sign of death!

"Don't panic, I'll be gentler." The giant's voice fell again.

Double Dumba*s raised his eyes in despair. He watched helplessly as the berserk giant held a small void suppression tablet in his hand and gently pressed it toward him.

"Hu..."

At this moment, double dumba*s gave up struggling and instead calmed down.

He opened his arms and chose to embrace death.

This f*cking world was filled with all kinds of strange things. There were all kinds of master stages. This was f*cking ridiculous...

Living was so tiring!

Thud.

The Void Suppression Stele was gently pressed down.

Double Dumba*s felt his energy reserve become quiet. Just like him, it gave up struggling.

At the same time, the recovery speed of the wisp of holy power from the Holy Miracle Fruit seemed to be suppressed. It became extremely slow...

Almost as if the world had suddenly slowed down.

“Xu Xiaoshou, what do you want to ask?”

Double Dumba*s knew that Xu Xiaoshou had kept him alive not because he didn’t want to kill him, but because he wanted to get some answers from him.

“You might not be able to tell me everything about the questions I want to ask.”

The super berserk giant bent down and covered the entire world in Double Dumba*s’s vision with a scarlet eye.

“Gulp.”

Double Dumba*s swallowed his saliva and said with a difficult expression, “As long as you’re willing to let me go...”

Wishful thinking!

How could Xu Xiaoshou let the tiger go back to the mountain? Wouldn’t he be seeking his own death?

“Promise me one condition.”

“Speak.”

“Look at my cat.”

“?”

Double Dumba*s was stunned.

Before he could think further, a cat suddenly flew down from the head of the silver-haired woman standing in the Golden Giant's palm and landed on the Void Suppression Stele.

It was very light.

However, to the extremely weak Double Dumba*s, this was undoubtedly secondary damage.

“Pu!”

Spitting out a mouthful of blood, Double Dumba*s could not help but turn his eyes to look at the cat.

The next second.

“Meow.”

Greedy the cat spirit's left eye turned grey and his three loathsome eyes opened.

“What do you think? Can the recovery of spiritual source and holy power still move under the suppression of the Void Suppression Stele?” Xu Xiaoshou asked.

“Meow meow meow,” translated by Greedy the cat spirit.

The eyes of Double Dumba*s became dull as he stuttered, “Spiritual source...can't...move. Holy Power... recovery... is very slow...”

Indeed, it couldn't suppress holy power!

Xu Xiaoshou came to a realization. However, the suppressive force seemed to be able to slow down the recovery of holy power by suppressing people. In other words, its suppressive force was still somewhat useful.

In that case...

If he placed ten Void Suppression Steles on a demi-saint, would they still be able to move?

It was obvious that Double Dumba*s couldn't answer this question.

Xu Xiaoshou went straight to the point and asked, “When was the closest time you saw a demi-saint? It doesn't count if you only saw them from far and didn't make any eye contact.”

“Only...eighteen...years ago...once, but didn't...make contact...”

“Then I won’t stand on ceremony.”

Xu Xiaoshou took Greedy the cat spirit away without hesitation.

It was just as he had expected. For someone like Double Dumba*s who came from a higher void background, it was as difficult as ascending to the heavens to meet a saint.

Unlike those from a demi-saint family and the Holy Divine Palace, any junior could run into a demi-saint who pretended to be a floor-sweeping monk.

“Soul Reading!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s scarlet eyes flashed as he began to read double dumba*s’s soul memories.

“UH UH UH...”

Soon, as Double Dumba*s convulsed in pain, Xu Xiaoshou personally experienced his entire life.

Path principles of the gold attribute...

A special second attribute...Various abilities of the Dissolve attribute...

He was a genius spiritual cultivator from a small county who had his confidence shattered after coming out of the great world. He then joined the Three Incenses and went through the arduous process of constantly hunting for resources...

Of course.

There was also the most important Abyss Island, the Forest of miracles, and the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer...

“Hiss!”

Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but suck in a breath of cold air as he was pulled out of the Double Dumba*s’s life.

This person...

It could be said that he had experienced various ups and downs in his life.

However, in the end, a wave of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer almost gave him a chance to successfully turn the tables.

He only needed three months...

No!

Double Dumba*s would only need one month, or even half a month, to familiarize himself with the power of the Holy Miracle Fruit and increase the value of his holy power a little.

It could be said that the number one higher void below the demi-saint that Double Dumba*s had imagined wouldn't be a problem!

In fact, Xu Xiaoshou even suspected whether Water Ghost would be able to defeat the Double Dumba*s in half a year if he did not consume the holy blood.

This was the terrifying part of the "Holy Miracle Fruit", a peak-level holy medicine, a Supreme Treasure!

What a pity...

"You met me."

Xu Xiaoshou let out a long sigh, his heart full of regret.

Life's circumstances were indeed unpredictable.

Fortune and misfortune were intertwined, and it was hard to escape fate.

If Double Dumba*s did not target this head of his, the killer might really have run away from the feet of the void attendant, and then he would have been able to soar into the sky.

However, from the moment he accepted the black gold bounty, his fate seemed to have already been decided.

Of course, from a different perspective.

If Double Dumba*s did not accept the black gold bounty, he would not be a gold hunting token killer, and he would not be suitable for Three Incenses.

If that was the case, he would not have been able to make a name for himself from the very beginning and grow to the higher void level.

"It is indeed tiring to be alive..."

He thought of the last desperate sigh of the Double Dumba*s.

Then, he glanced at the fellow who was still twitching in pain due to the side effects of Soul Reading.

Xu Xiaoshou pondered for a moment and dispelled the Berserk Giant and the gargantuan transformation that had consumed a lot of energy. He reverted back to his human form. At the same time, under the cover of white flame, he nimbly changed into a brand new set of clothes for himself.

“Pitiful worm.”

“Since you want to, then I’ll give you a quick death.”

Without waiting for Double Dumba*s to wake up, Xu Xiaoshou used Fourth Sword to cut off his head.

Higher Void, gold hunting token killer, the first spiritual cultivator below the demi-saint to master holy power, Double Dumba*s...

Had fallen!

“Dead?”

Lei Xi’er landed on the ground and looked at Xu Xiaoshou. Without a change in expression, she burned the Double Dumba*s’s bones with a white flame.

This person had indeed changed.

“Yes, he’s dead.”

“He doesn’t have any other ability to escape.”

“Or rather, he wanted to wait until he woke up and when his holy power recovered a little, he wanted to try and see if he could escape successfully.”

“I have to say, his will to live is very strong...”

Xu Xiaoshou paused and turned around with a smile. “But I knew that he couldn’t succeed, so I gave him a quick death.”

“...”

Lei Xi’er was silent.

A higher void had died just like that.

She could not accept it at the moment.

After all, from the beginning to the end, Double Dumba*s had been suppressed by Xu Xiaoshou and could not resist at all.

He did not even have the chance to release his holy power. In the end, he could only use it to escape and failed.

This sounded very normal. After all, the moment the Double Dumba*s appeared, he was already in a weakened state.

However, the only abnormal point was that the one who beat up the weakened higher void was a junior at the master stage.

“How strong are you now?”

Lei Xi'er raised her eyebrows and asked hesitantly.

She immediately recalled Xu Xiaoshou who was almost as tall as the sky just now. Under the enhancement of ice and fire power, he was like a god.

Was that really Xu Xiaoshou?

Xu Xiaoshou had always been by her side. When did he grow to this level?

Even if Double Dumba*s was not in a weak state, perhaps Xu Xiaoshou in that state would still have the strength to fight with him.

The key was...

Lei Xi'er remembered that Xu Xiaoshou still had the posture of a devil giant.

It was the final move that fused the demonic aura of Fourth Sword into his body and turned him into an evil giant.

In other words, when dealing with Double Dumba*s, the grandmaster realm Xu Xiaoshou hadn't used his full strength yet...

“Criticized, passive points + 1.”

“Criticized, passive points + 1.”

“I don't know how strong I am now...”

Xu Xiaoshou scratched his head, feeling a little embarrassed.

To be honest, the strategy of using “Transformation” to transform his body into a giant and activating the Berserk Giant to increase his size, strength, and endurance for the Infernal Original Seed was something he thought of on the spot.

He was very strong!

However, before this, in the Yunlun mountain range, Xu Xiaoshou did not dare to use it because he was constantly being watched. Naturally, he did not even think about it.

Every time he fought, he would either pick up the scraps or use a trick to reduce a higher void's combat strength by half before fighting...

Anyway, Xu Xiaoshou recalled that he did not seem to have fought against a higher void when they were at their peak, so it was naturally difficult for him to assess his current combat strength.

"HMM?"

Lei Xi'er wrinkled her nose, and her eyes revealed her dissatisfaction with this answer.

To be honest, she had always thought of Xu Xiaoshou as a ruler in her heart, used to measure herself, and as an object to surpass.

This was an obsession that belonged to Mu Zixi's time.

Lei Xi'er originally thought that after her cultivation level broke through to the Sovereign realm, with the God Devil Eyes, she could beat Xu Xiaoshou up.

Now, however, it seemed like...

In front of Xu Xiaoshou, she could only be a supporting character. She was still lacking a little bit in a head-on battle.

"I really don't know!"

Xu Xiaoshou spread out his hands. He couldn't possibly find a higher void in their peak condition to fight against just to verify the answer.

A normal master stage wouldn't have such thoughts.

However, in a life-and-death battle, one should be able to calculate the right time, place, and person to their advantage. The use of schemes and luck could also be counted as part of one's own strength.

Thinking of this...

"It's probably because I don't want to fight against a higher void. However, if I really fight to the death, I should be able to kill and cripple a higher void's combat strength."

Xu Xiaoshou thought for a moment and then added seriously, "But the one who can't die should only be me in the end."

“‘Ascending to the Heavens in A Single Step’ and Vanishing Technique... I still have so much holy blood and the will of demi-saint and Holy Emperor to protect my body.”.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t believe that other than Sword Deity like Rao Yaoyao, there were many higher voids in the world that he couldn’t overcome.

Of course, this involved a lot of external forces and resources.

In addition, some strange cutting paths and higher voids, such as Huang Quan with time and space attributes, weren’t in Xu Xiaoshou’s consideration.

“...”

Lei Xi’er was silent again when she heard this answer.

She regretted asking this question. As expected, she would only be given a hard time.

This was because she was not completely confident that she could fight against a higher void.

Even though the Double Dumba*s from before was weak, Lei Xi’er did not have much confidence that she could kill or keep the other party alive.

On the other hand, Xu Xiaoshou...had more than enough confidence!

“Cursed, passive points + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1...”

“Heh.”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the information bar and smiled.

“My target is the spirit division chief, Yu Lingdi. I heard that when this guy was a Sovereign, he could already kill a higher void by himself.”

“I reckon that even when Double Dumba*s was at his peak, he could easily be taken down by Yu Lingdi when he was at the Sovereign level.”

“If I still don’t increase my combat strength, I’m afraid that when I see this guy in the future, I won’t even be able to run away.”

Lei Xi’er nodded silently.

This made sense.

However, very quickly, she reacted to something and raised her eyes in astonishment.

“You...”

Yu Lingdi was already a Sovereign!

Xu Xiaoshou was only a grandmaster now, and he was still at the first stage, Heavenly Image State!

How could he compare himself to someone like Yu Lingdi?

Xu Xiaoshou naturally understood this girl's thoughts. The corners of his lips lifted and he said, “Time is the same for everyone.”

Rumble!

At this moment, the battle ended. The void attendant who was watching from behind stepped forward.

“Congratulations, mission accomplished.”

He waved his hand and two golden lights descended.

Xu Xiaoshou hurriedly caught them and discovered that they were two fist-sized black hexagonal crystals. The pure energy contained within them was extremely majestic.

Just by holding them like this, his breathing technique unconsciously inhaled a mouthful.

Xu Xiaoshou felt the spiritual essence in his energy reserve getting restless as if they had the urge to break through shackles.

“Good stuff!”

Xu Xiaoshou's expression changed.

This was a treasure!

It was probably even better than that third or fourth-grade sovereign-level alchemy elixirs.

This was because this crystal contained non-elemental energy that could be completely absorbed by the energy reserve without ‘Transformation’ or the breathing technique.

“Void Crystal?”

Xu Xiaoshou took the two black hexagonal crystals and realized that this was the reward of the “Clear Intruders” mission.

“Lord Void Attendant, what is the use of this Void Crystal?”

Xu Xiaoshou felt that since this thing was called “Void Crystal” and not a cultivation crystal, it must have some connection with Abyss Island and was not solely for cultivation.

Facing the invisible giant tribe and the sinner number 800820 of the ice and fire humanoid bomb, the void attendant did not ignore his question this time. He hummed and replied,

“Void Crystal can be used to assist in cultivation or you can go to First Hall of Sins to exchange for the survival resources of Abyss Island.”

First Hall of Sins?

Xu Xiaoshou tilted his head. He remembered that Lei Xi'er had mentioned this place.

“I only mentioned it, but I don't know what First Hall of Sins looks like and what resources can be exchanged for.” Lei Xi'er looked over, and Xu Xiaoshou understood.

“May I ask, Lord Void Attendant, what survival resources does the Hall of Sins have that can be exchanged for?”

“A lot.”

“Like what?”

“Like the ‘Death Exemption Order’, which can allow you to avoid death once.”

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned when he heard this.

Avoid death...

Was this saying that the person who was a sinner of Abyss Island could be exempted from the death penalty?

There were some things, but not many.

“What else?”

Xu Xiaoshou stuck his head out and asked again. He felt that the void attendant's words were too much.

If no one pushed it, he would not give out anything. If they pushed a little, he would only give out a little. If you stopped, he would stop as well... He did not know how to keep a conversation going at all, nor did he tell him some of the problems of Abyss Island. How annoying.

“For example, a ‘free pass’. A pass that will allow one to enter a restricted area.”

The void attendant did reply to his question, however, his answer was not very helpful.

“What else?”

“There’s also... all sorts of treasures. You’ll know when you find the Hall of Sins. There’s an introduction there.”

The void attendant stopped again. At the same time, he impatiently rejected all of Xu Xiaoshou’s subsequent questions and said, “Mission over. I should return to the land of protection.”

“UH...”

Xu Xiaoshou had indeed never come into contact with such a super giant before, so he could only wave his hand and bid farewell. “Then, goodbye.”

The void attendant stood high above them, crossed his arms, and said mockingly, “You don’t want to see me again.”

Then, with a rumble, he took a long step and left.

“But we’ll see each other again...” Xu Xiaoshou looked in the direction he left, but he muttered silently.

“What did you say?” Lei Xi’er tilted her head and looked over.

“Nothing.” Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the void attendant’s back and said, “Remember, this back, this road.”

Lei Xi’er looked in the same direction.

“So?”

“Remember it, Big Baby!”

“Big Baby? What do you mean?”

“Have you seen 10,000 kinds of holy medicine similar to the Holy Miracle Fruit?” Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes suddenly became fervent as he stared at Lei Xi’er, who had an exquisite little face.

“...” Lei Xi'er took a step back and really wanted to touch Xu Xiaoshou's forehead. Was he daydreaming or did he have a fever?

Xu Xiaoshou held the cat and waved it around.

“I've seen it before!”

“One Piece was real!”

Today, a blazing white sun fell on Abyss Island which had been silent for countless years.

Even though it was thousands of miles away, there were still people who paid attention to this movement.

“Dragon Melting Realm...”

Mu Ling, who had no eyebrows, finished writing on the Void Suppression Stele, below Sang Qiye's name, and got a sinner number... therefore, he remained silent and chose to explore Abyss Island. He decided that he would not be fooled again.

This time, his main purpose was not to find the so-called saint-ascension opportunity on the island.

This was hard to find for others, but it was nothing to Mu Ling.

The Holy Palace was a base to cultivate saints.

What Mu Ling wanted more was to find his disciple, Bai Lian, as soon as possible.

With Bai Lian's cultivation level, even if he had many treasures, there was still a 10% risk of death on Abyss Island.

Bai Lian couldn't die!

His disciple Hua Ying hadn't matured yet. Once he died, Mu Ling didn't even need to think about it. He knew that the authority of the infernal lineage would fall into his hands again.

In short, he would lose his freedom...

After painstakingly grooming a disciple and giving away the mess, he would be as carefree and happy as his master, Long Rongzhi, the Molten Dragon. How could Mu Ling pick up the troublesome work that he hadn't done for decades?

“But this Dragon Melting Realm doesn’t look like something that Bai Lian can send out...”

Mu Ling looked into the distance and fell into deep thought.

How long had it been since Bai Lian had fought?

As of now, this guy only had the means to smash people with treasures. How could he bear to use the meager spiritual source of his life-saving cutting path stage to release such a huge spiritual technique?

The key was...

The intrinsic power of Dragon Melting Realm far surpassed that of the ordinary Infernal White Flame.

Even though they were far apart, Mu Ling could still vaguely smell the “Infernal Original Seed” from the power of the same origin.

Even he had never eaten this thing before. He had only felt it on his supreme master, Long Rongzhi.

If his senior brother, Sang Qiye, was not in the Sacred Mountain Prison’s Dead Sea, Mu Ling would definitely think that Sang Qiye was showing off again.

However, it was obviously not...

“Bai Lian has never eaten the Infernal Original Seed before. If that’s the case, then this skill of Dragon Melting Realm could only be unleashed by Xu Xiaoshou.”

“Is he in danger?”

“Something’s not right. Xu Xiaoshou is only at the master stage after all. How could he unleash such a level of Dragon Melting Realm?”

Mu Ling’s hand suddenly burst into black flames.

He felt that the level of that Dragon Melting Realm was almost close to his power.

“No matter what, let’s go and take a look.”

“People from the infernal lineage, even on the Abyss Island, can not be bullied!”

...

“What a huge explosion!”

Somewhere on Abyss Island, the orange-masked man with the five decays of Heaven and Man silently gazed at the white light in the distance.

After being forcefully dragged into Abyss Island by the void gate, he lost the location of Huang Quan and demi-saint Jiang Buyi and became alone.

However, the strange gravity here, as well as the restrictions of the rules and the various changes in the Sky City above Dongtianwang City before he entered the deep sea...

It was not difficult to come to the conclusion that this was Abyss Island.

“So, where are the so-called foundational roots of Saint Ascension?”

Five Decays of Heaven and Man pulled the mask off his face as if he was disgusted.

However, after thinking for a while, he put it back on.

According to the plan, the deep sea would be the best time to hunt demi-saint Jiang Buyi.

At that time, he had the help of Huang Quan, a powerful space-time ability user. It could be said that the probability of killing a demi-saint was many times higher than now.

Unfortunately, the plan couldn't keep up with the change in the situation.

It might be easy to find the foundational roots of Saint Ascension after coming to Abyss Island, but it would be as difficult as ascending to the sky to get the demi-saint's identity.

“Of the 108 demi-saint qualifications, only those wandering around will be met by others. If the others want to ascend to the saint realm, they must first slaughter the saint and take his demi-saint qualification...”

“How difficult is it?”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man seemed to be troubled as he stared at the white light in the distance. He didn't move his eyes for a long time.

“Infernal White Flame...?”

“Also, when we first arrived at Abyss Island, everyone wanted to avoid risks. Even I didn't want to meet Huang Quan and Jiang Buyi again.”

“Which idiot dares to show off and announce his arrival with explosions?”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man suddenly sneered and walked toward the white light.

No matter what, since he had left the Deep Sea World, then this Abyss Island was the last chance to obtain the foundational roots of Saint Ascension and the demi-saint status.

If he couldn't obtain it here, then it would be even harder for him to return to the Shengshen continent!

And now...

When everyone was hiding in the dark, this explosion attracted everyone's attention.

Without a doubt, everyone would rush over.

They didn't want to obtain any treasures, but they wanted to obtain some information about Abyss Island so that they could live better.

Since that was the case.

The hunt would begin at the center of the explosion!

"Explosion..."

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man understood this point, and his footsteps became faster and faster. Finally, he rose into the air and turned into a dark stream of light, rushing toward the center of the target.

"That familiar explosion, it really makes me miss it..."

"Boom!"

With a finger, Jiang Buyi shattered the strange spiritual physique in front of him and obtained the Spirit Crystal. However, Jiang Buyi's expression was extremely unsightly.

"The Ghost City of the Netherworld..."

"Damn it, how did we end up in this damned place!"

Outsiders didn't understand Abyss Island, but as the ruler of a demi-saint family, how could Jiang Buyi not know?

One of the nine most dangerous places on Abyss Island, the Ghost City of the Netherworld. This was a place that was on par with the Hall of Sins and other places of absolute death.

Normally, the nine most dangerous places were not very dangerous. There was not even a living creature to be seen.

However, once someone triggered some mechanism, the nine most dangerous places would be activated, turning into the abyss of gluttony that devoured life. No one, not even a demi-saint, could escape from it.

Jiang Buyi was panicking now...

That was because, until today, no one on Abyss Island had been able to find out where the mechanism that would activate the nine most dangerous places was and exactly how it was activated.

However, now that he had seen the spiritual physique of the Ghost City, it meant that the Ghost City was slowly recovering.

Once the spiritual physique of the Ghost City was fully activated, he might really die here.

"I have to find a way out and leave this place."

To others, the foundational roots of Saint Ascension were within reach, but not exactly within their reach.

Jiang Buyi would abandon it like a worn shoe!

He was a demi-saint!

He didn't even have the slightest intention of coveting the position of Holy Emperor!

The Jiang clan in the northern region didn't have the position of Holy Emperor at all. This meant that if he wanted to become a Holy Emperor, he would need to hunt down a Holy Emperor before he could succeed.

How could he succeed?

"I didn't have the intention to rebel, but I was exposed."

"Not only did I come to Abyss Island, I even directly entered the Ghost City. What's going on? !"

Jiang Buyi was furious that he was in danger before he could get the Lei family's eyes.

However, this place was like a maze. He didn't specialize in the path of soul and spirit, so he couldn't find his way out. Unless there was an external force involved, Jiang Buyi felt that he would have to continue fighting in this place.

At this moment...

“Boom!”

A white light bloomed in the distant sky, like a blazing sun descending into the world, bringing hope and guidance.

“In this direction!”

Jiang Buyi's eyes lit up.

This was definitely a fight on Abyss Island.

Although it was definitely not to save him, such a huge commotion could even be seen by Jiang Buyi, who was far away in the Ghost City.

“Benefactor!”

“No matter who you are, as long as I find you, I will definitely reward you properly!”

Jiang Buyi deeply remembered the location of the explosion. This energy attribute made him afraid that he would still be lost in the various predicaments of the Ghost City like how he had been many times before.

Then, he protected his body with holy power and headed straight forward.

“Bang Bang Bang...”

Wherever he passed, whether solid walls, ancient trees, or spiritual physique, all of them exploded on the spot.

Afraid that something would change, Jiang Buyi intended to rush out of the Ghost City in the shortest amount of time!

As for the obstacles...

In front of a demi-saint, everything was an illusion.

Jiang Buyi charged forward!

...

“PFFT! PFFT!”

White flames shot out from the cracks in the ground.

“Boom!”

In the next second, the active volcano behind them spewed a large amount of white lava into the sky.

In front of the Inferno Zone, Mei Siren was breathing in the scorching wind. His movements as he waved his paper fan were no longer sage-like.

He sat cross-legged on a big rock and closed his eyes to rest. It seemed like he had been waiting here for a century.

Beside him were two stone swords that he had carved himself.

The stone swords were simple and unadorned. They didn't have any exquisite patterns or any special abilities. They couldn't even be considered a grade-ten spiritual weapon.

However, this was something that Mei Siren had prepared for himself and his next disciple.

“Sigh,”

After an unknown amount of time, Mei Siren felt that the white lava was about to flow to his feet. He had no choice but to get up and change his position.

“Xu Xiaoshou, when will you arrive?”

Beside the Temple River, at the request of Bazhun'an, Mei Siren held the void token in his hand. Before anyone knew it, he had already arrived at Abyss Island.

However, after waiting for so long, Xu Xiaoshou still hadn't arrived.

On second thought, by the time Xu Xiaoshou arrived at Abyss Island and spent some time in the Inferno Zone, he wouldn't know how long it would be before the other party could find him.

Mei Siren regretted it.

He had wasted so much time and was sweating bitterly in front of the embers of the fire. This didn't match his identity as “Master Siren” at all.

Why would a teacher wait for their student to come to class?

This action of his had seriously devalued his status!

Mei Siren wanted to leave Abyss Island. He looked into the distance and found the position of the City Gate. He decided to wait for another three days.

If nothing happened within these three days, it meant that Xu Xiaoshou and he were fated to be apart!

At this moment, a white light lit up in the distant sky.

Then, a low rumbling sound was heard in the distance.

“This is...”

Mei Siren’s expression froze.

What kind of luck was this?

Just as he didn’t want something to happen, something did happen.

Mei Siren was very far away, so he didn’t know what had happened in that place.

However, seeing that from so far away, the sound of explosions and the white light could reach his ears and eyes...

One could imagine how powerful the sound was at the center of the explosion.

“Explosion...”

Mei Siren muttered to himself. After waiting for a long time, his dried eyes lit up slightly.

He remembered the conversation he had with Bazhun’an at the riverside of the temple.

“After entering Abyss Island, how do I find Xu Xiaoshou?”

“You don’t need to find him. You just need to wait in front of the Inferno Zone. Xu Xiaoshou will go there.”

“Inferno Zone...but what if I wait too long?”

“If you wait too long, then you should look for the place where an explosion will take place.”

“Explosion?”

“Yes, wherever there is an explosion, there will be Xu Xiaoshou.”

This was really ridiculous...Mei Siren mocked in his heart again. However, he bent down and picked up two stone swords. Then, he rushed in the direction of the explosion in a hurry.

Although he felt that this was too absurd and too comical, Bazhun'an had already said so. No matter how unrealistic the matter was, he had to go and take a look personally to confirm it.

Of course, the main reason was that Mei Siren couldn't wait any longer.

"With just one word from this old man, You Tu doesn't even need more than a day to come over for chess."

"You Xu Xiaoshou, you've given this old man so much face by letting him sit here for so long?"

The more Mei Siren thought about it, the angrier he got.

Not to mention Bazhun'an's method of letting Xu Xiaoshou master the sword was to learn to fight.

He couldn't teach Xu Xiaoshou the Ancient Sword Technique if he were to rely on the feeling in his heart.

If he didn't give himself a good shaking, it would be hard to get rid of the depression in his heart!

"Achoo! Achoo! Achoo!"

On the road leading to the Forest of Miracles, Xu Xiaoshou kept sneezing.

"Did you catch a cold?"

Lei Xi'er glanced at the person in front who had mastered the Ice-Type Upanishad and couldn't help but ask.

"Are you kidding me... I'm so strong, how can I catch a cold?"

Xu Xiaoshou woke up with snot in his nose. Sometimes, he was really tired of this Whim.

It was fine for his heartbeat to accelerate and to have palpitations was also fine. What was the point of sneezing all the time?

"If it was in a battle and I had such a Whim, wouldn't I, the dignified Saint Servant, Xu Xiaoshou, die due to snot?"

"What's going to happen then?"

Lei Xi'er looked at Xu Xiaoshou with slight disgust as he discarded his snot into the Ember Flame. She decided it was better not to look, so she turned her head and asked.

"Ho ho ho."

Poor Ember Flame was too big, it did not know what the owner threw at it, but fortunately it didn't eat it. Everything was burned cleanly in the fire.

"It's just a very ordinary Whim..." Xu Xiaoshou didn't even turn his head and used some water to clean his hands.

Lei Xi'er was silent when she heard that. After a long time, she said, "This ordinary Whim of yours is a little unusual."

Xu Xiaoshou was amused. "Sometimes it's hard to understand. I guess it's because of the fight just now. It made too much noise and attracted people's attention."

"I told you not to fight like that," Lei Xi'er muttered.

Xu Xiaoshou spread his hands. "That was a Higher Void level. If I don't show my trump card, can I stop him?"

"That won't do either. It's too ostentatious."

"If it's not ostentatious, can it be me, Xu Xiaoshou?"

"..."

This time, Lei Xi'er choked. After a long time, she said, "Didn't you say all those here are guaranteed to be the Higher Void level? When someone comes, you will know how the word 'death' is spelt!"

"Hehe."

Xu Xiaoshou was fearless. He stood at Ember's head, pointed at the land and stared at the ancient forest.

"It's good to have more people. It's more lively when there are more people."

"It's easy to kill a person if it's a one-on-one fight as you fight with the body. You have to use your brains if you fight with many people."

“What misfortunes are drawn to the East; the golden cicada escapes from its shell, then drives the tiger to swallow the wolf, borrows the knife to kill, and then watches the fire from the other side, stokes up the fire, and finally sits back and reaps the profit, the biggest winner... Is this a strategy that can be used for a one-on-one fight?”

“In a word, I can’t fight a one-on-one fight, but I’m the fierce thug in a one-on-many fight!”

Lei Xi’er: “...”

She couldn’t help but roll her eyes at Xu Xiaoshou. “What kind of weird imagination was that?”

“The battle hasn’t even started yet, and you’ve already taken a bystander’s attitude toward this?”

“The problem is, who will cooperate with you?”

“You don’t even know who will come. Do you think you’ll succeed?” Lei Xi’er’s tone was full of mockery. She felt that Xu Xiaoshou treated her as his Junior Sister and was bragging.

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand indifferently. “Where did we see a person’s rehearsal? Who is so daring to let me personally rehearse with him? The stage of the Forest of Miracles is on a first come, first serve basis. As long as he dares to come, I can arrange it for him!”

“I’m waiting for something to happen to you!”

Lei Xi’er was a little angry, but in the end, she was still worried. “Don’t forget, there’s still a Demi-Saint on the Abyss Island!”

Xu Xiaoshou raised his eyebrows and looked at Lei Xi’er, who looked angry and acted like a Junior Sister. He smiled and said, “But don’t forget, we still have a big bodyguard on the Abyss Island. One punch for each of our little friend.”

“Who?”

Lei Xi’er looked around.

“Ice? Ember? Fourth Sword?”

Impossible, that was not enough to stop a Demi-saint!

“The Void Attendant.”

Xu Xiaoshou pointed ahead. "It headed for that direction just now. I told you to keep it in mind, but you forgot so quickly? Could it be you have amnesia?"

Lei Xi'er: "..."

"Cursed, passive points + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1..."

"Void Attendant, since when did it become your big bodyguard?"

Lei Xi'er was speechless. This was clearly the next biggest enemy.

Because according to Xu Xiaoshou, the next step was to go to the Forest of Miracle's Herb Garden of Divine Farmer to pick herbs.

Even the 'treasure crisis' that the Flame Python had pointed out needed to be moved back a little.

Xu Xiaoshou looked ahead and could faintly smell an even stronger medicinal fragrance.

He chuckled aloud.

"Later."

Forest of Miracles.

Searching for the route where Double Dumba*s had ran for his life, Xu Xiaoshou and Lei Xi'er walked side by side, with a fat little kitten in her arms.

Ice and Ember had appeared for a short period of time, but by this time, they had already returned to Yuan Mansion.

After all, what they were going to do next was not a very desirable 'treasure hunt.' If they let Ice and Ember participate in it would be too big a goal.

The time for these two big guys to show off was over, and they should just pack it up.

Next, they would see who would be the first to fall for the bait and compete for the lead role under Director Xu.

"What are you doing?"

As she cuddled Greedy the Cat Spirit in her arms, Lei Xi'er gave Xu Xiaoshou a side glance and asked.

Along the way, Xu Xiaoshou had not been idle. Either his arms turned into metal, or his body suddenly exploded into pieces and then reassembled itself as he walked.

Lei Xi'er did not even need to think to know that Xu Xiaoshou was experimenting with the new ability he had just obtained.

This guy...

Ever since he had obtained the Imitator Form, his cultivation level had not improved. However, he had all kinds of strange and wonderful abilities which increased day by day.

Now that Xu Xiaoshou had enough of playing with his body, he actually transformed his left hand into a golden Alchemy Cauldron, while he used his right hand to produce the Infernal White Flame. Like a madman, he began to burn the golden cauldron.

"Conducting Alchemy, isn't that obvious?"

Xu Xiaoshou increased the temperature of the Alchemy Cauldron in his left hand and said without even turning his head.

"This, is your body..."

Lei Xi'er was speechless. He said that he was performing his Conducting Alchemy, but the Alchemy Cauldron was a transformation of his body. Wasn't this refining himself?

"The highest-level Elixir Master uses the Heaven and Earth as a furnace to refine all things. I can't do that yet. I'm just a Sovereign Stage Elixir Master, so I can only use my body as a furnace to refine Spiritual Medicine," Xu Xiaoshou said indifferently.

"... Just go ahead and do it!"

Lei Xi'er didn't want to bother with him anymore.

However, even though she couldn't bear it, she remembered that the true Descendant of the Infernal Lineage had grown up eating Fire Seed since young.

This little bit of temperature could even burn up the Energy Reserve.

Now that the surface of his body was being burned, it was obviously not a problem for Xu Xiaoshou.

"Monster."

Lei Xi'er muttered silently.

She was also from the Infernal Lineage and was a disciple of Elder Sang who had held a disciple-accepting ceremony. However, she did not have the Infernal White Flame, so she could not understand people from this lineage whose brains had been burned.

They continued forward.

After stepping into the Forest of Miracles, the medicinal fragrance grew increasingly stronger.

Lei Xi'er also became more vigilant as she walked. She was afraid that another big foot would suddenly step out of this space in this ancient forest. Then, the Void Attendant would come again and question why the two of them had barged into the forest.

At this time, Xu Xiaoshou was still carelessly practicing his Conducting Alchemy...

"Why are you still practicing Conducting Alchemy?"

Lei Xi'er couldn't hold it in anymore.

How could Xu Xiaoshou be so bold?

The Higher Void level had just been defeated, wasn't he afraid of encountering another one?

"If the Higher Void level was in its peak state, even though his plan was good, it would be very difficult to carry it out!"

"Don't underestimate this thing. I call it the 'Saint Refining Pill'. It's a fourth grade Sovereign Pill. I just created it, isn't it amazing?" Xu Xiaoshou was proud of himself.

"He just created it..." Lei Xi'er's eyes were filled with vigilance. "It can be eaten?"

"Yes, but it's useless to eat it on its own. It has to be combined with the Holy Miracle Fruit in order not to waste the medicinal properties of the Elixirs..."

Xu Xiaoshou paused after he spoke. He thought for a moment and said, "Hmm, I should put it another way. The Holy Miracle Fruit has to be combined with this Pill of mine in order not to waste its properties."

During the process of Soul Reading, the image of the Double Dumbas wasting more than 90% of the medicinal properties of the Holy Miracle fruit was still vivid in his mind.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't want to waste such a precious treasure!

What he was researching now was to combine the Spiritual Medicine of 'Cooking Expert' with the high-grade Spiritual Medicine planted in his Yuan Mansion world to create elixirs that were the most suitable for consuming with the Holy Miracle Fruit.

Combining Conducting Alchemy with the Saint Refining Pill couldn't even compare to the cultivation of a Master Stage at the Sixth Rank.

However, once there was a Holy Miracle Fruit, the elixirs would lock the medicinal power of the Holy Miracle Fruit firmly in the Energy Reserve. Together with the cultivation method of a Spiritual Cultivator, it would absorb the Holy Power better.

The fixed rank was at the Sovereign Stage, but it was not an exaggeration to say that the medicinal efficacy was that of a supplementary Saint Pill.

Because at present, Xu Xiaoshou was certain that there were absolutely no Elixirs on the market that could be used with the Holy Miracle Fruit — except for the Holy Miracle Fruit on the Abyss Island, which had long been extinct on the Shengshen continent!

"It's coming."

Not long after, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly stopped and stared very cautiously at the golden cauldron in his left hand. He had never shown such a serious expression even when he faced Double Dumba*s.

"Hiss..."

Lei Xi'er looked at this familiar scene and took a deep breath. She quickly retreated with Greedy the Cat Spirit in her arms.

As expected, in the next second, with a boom, a mushroom-shaped cloud soared into the sky and pushed open the spatial space in the sky and blew up the area within a radius of a few miles of it into pieces.

Then, an excited voice came from the dust.

"Cough, cough, cough!"

"Lei Xi'er, I succeeded! I did it in one go, as expected of me!"

"Saint-Refining Pill, a fourth grade Sovereign Pill, and it's just been developed... looks like my Conducting Alchemy skills have improved again!"

Lei Xi'er looked gloomily at Xu Xiaoshou, who had rushed out from the dust with a face streaked with dust. She thought to herself, "You've improved your explosive abilities again. Even when you fought with Double Dumba*s just now, you were not in such a sorry state."

However...

Looking at the ancient forest that had been blasted into pieces, Lei Xi'er muttered to herself.

"Could a fourth grade Sovereign Stage Elixir's explosive power be so great already?"

If this was the case, if Xu Xiaoshou's Conducting Alchemy skills were to be pushed up another level or two, did it mean that in future, he would not need to use his body and sword in a fight? He could just erect an Alchemy Cauldron in front of the enemy and use the Conducting Alchemy skill.

"Enemy interference?"

Interference was even better. This would make it easier for the cauldron explosion to be set off.

Perhaps a strange scene would appear because of this...

In order to prevent Xu Xiaoshou's Cauldron Explosion, the enemy had to obediently wait on him until he was finished with this cauldron of Elixirs before they could fight.

Moreover, in order to beat Xu Xiaoshou, he had to take a minor in Conducting Alchemy?

"What the hell was that about!"

Lei Xi'er shook her head and decisively ended the strange and absurd images in her mind. With a solemn expression, she watched the blackened Xu Xiaoshou rush up to her and hand over the equally black Elixirs.

"For me?" She pursed her red lips and had a defiant look on her face.

"Of course it's for you. What Saint Refining Pills would I need? I have the Breathing Technique..."

Xu Xiaoshou paused and explained, "Well, it means that my Cultivation is very powerful. I can eat the Holy Miracle Fruit even without the Saint Refining Pill. I might even be able to release some of the medicinal efficacy."

"I. . ." Lei Xi'er's lips twitched and she glanced at the blackened Elixirs. "Can it really be eaten?"

"You don't believe me?"

"I don't believe you."

"It's right that you don't believe. After you've eaten this Elixir, then you'll believe me!"

Xu Xiaoshou stretched out his hand and grabbed the blackened Elixirs. Without any further explanation, he stuffed the Elixirs into Lei Xi'er's palm and even left some dust on her palm.

Lei Xi'er's God Devil Eyes stared at her hand that had suddenly become so dirty. She wanted to use the power of Purification, but she couldn't. She wanted to rub it on Xu Xiaoshou's body, but she was afraid of the pain...

She could only fetch water and as she washed her hands, she asked hesitantly, "Can I not eat it?"

"Don't worry. Your Senior Brother would not be so heartless as to use you as the subject for his first experiment." Xu Xiaoshou chuckled. His gaze moved down and landed on the little fat cat.

"Meow?"

Greedy the Cat Spirit's little head tilted. It didn't understand what it meant.

"Little guy, that was the process of Conducting Alchemy for fourth-grade Elixirs just now. Did you remember it at all?" Xu Xiaoshou asked kindly.

"Meow"

Greedy the Cat spirit nodded. It was indeed interested in Conducting Alchemy.

At the current stage, Innate Stage and Grand Master Level Elixir Master had quite a high success rate after 007's work. It felt that it was time for this Conducting Alchemy cat to break through the Sovereign Stage.

"It's good that you remember it. If you have time in the future, you can use any high-grade Spiritual Medicine in the Yuan Mansion World. You can try this fourth-grade Elixir."

"It's much simpler than the other fourth-grade Elixirs. If you really succeed in Conducting Alchemy, I'll lend you the Alchemist Badge of a fourth-grade Elixir master to wear."

Xu Xiaoshou took out his Alchemist Badge and waved it.

"Meow Meow"

Greedy the Cat Spirit drooled instantly.

It didn't care about the badge, but previously, its owner was in charge of the high-grade Spiritual Medicine field in the Yuan Mansion World, so he didn't want to let it go to waste.

"Now, what kind of Bodhisattva's spirit had been activated in him, that he became so kind?"

"But there is one condition." Xu Xiaoshou's words suddenly took a twist.

"Meow?" Greedy the Cat Spirit had a human-like expression. As expected...

"Well, I won't say it's a condition, it's a bit unpleasant to hear..."

Xu Xiaoshou flipped his hand and took out a blackened Elixir and in an extremely seductive devilish tone, he said, "It's like this. Unfortunately, as your owner, I just happened to have two Elixirs, so now you're in for a treat. You can have a taste of this Saint Refining Pill first!"

Lei Xi'er: "? ? ? ?"

Her beautiful eyes widened in disbelief when she heard this.

"Xu Xiaoshou, you're crazy!"

"You failed to trick me? Now you chose to trick the Cat Spirit?"

Greedy the Cat Spirit also had a question mark on his face.

"These blackened Elixirs are even worse than the ones i refined. Do you really think that I'm still the ignorant Conducting Alchemy fellow from my past life?"

"It's very delicious!"

Xu Xiaoshou sensed that Greedy the Cat Spirit was showing signs of disobedience. He quickly grabbed the scruff of its neck and picked it up. "Come, open your mouth, ah!"

"Meow Meow Meow! !!"

Greedy the Cat Spirit resisted violently. Its four short legs scrabbled helplessly in the air, but it could not break free from the shackles of fate. It even looked at its mistress in fear.

"Meow Meow Meow!"

"Help, help, someone is trying to poison little meow meow!"

Lei Xi'er could not bear it and tried to dissuade him. "Little Greedy the Cat Spirit is so cute..."

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes swished over. "There are only two Saint Refining Pills. If it won't eat them, then you eat them."

Lei Xi'er : "..."

In the end, under Greedy the Cat Spirit's helpless gaze, she turned her face away slightly.

"I'm sorry, Greedy the Cat Spirit. In the future, when I manage the medicinal fields, I'll let you have ten percent of the Spiritual Medicine. I definitely won't tell Xu Xiaoshou."

"Meow! Meow! Meow!"

Greedy the Cat Spirit went berserk. The white fur all over its body stood up, and at this moment, it resembled a hedgehog.

However, no matter how much it tried it couldn't use its hedgehog spines to prick Xu Xiaoshou.

"Good boy, stop struggling. This is a fourth-grade Elixir. I won't even let anyone who sucks up to me try it," Xu Xiaoshou said with a chuckle. "Do you know that you're like me when I had my first injection when I was young..."

"Meow! awooo! !"

"I won't! ! !"

"Open your mouth."

"Awooo!"

"Open!"

"Awooo! ! !"

"Are you rebelling? It's all for your own good." Xu Xiaoshou finally revealed his savage devilish nature. He pried open Greedy the Cat Spirit's mouth and was about to force the Saint Refining Pill into its mouth.

Lei Xi'er looked at this scene in shock and felt extremely terrified.

Fortunately, Xu Xiaoshou would not treat his Junior Sister like this...

“Roar! ! !”

Greedy the Cat Spirit’s cry suddenly changed. At this moment, its body squirmed and actually showed signs of becoming bigger.

“What the hell?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked. “Greedy the Cat Spirit still had a battle form?”

“But this battle form, the way it appeared seemed a bit ridiculous?”

“Shrink your size immediately!”

He immediately used his big hand to grip Greedy the Cat Spirit’s head firmly.

Poor Greedy the Cat Spirit’s body swelled up into a ball, but the transformation of his head did not succeed. In the end, like a deflated ball, it reverted to its original state. He could only let Xu Xiaoshou feed the Elixir to him.

“Meow...”

Greedy the Cat Spirit was in despair.

At this moment, a Spiritual Light flashed in its mind, and an image of Hidden Bitter stabbing the heart of its owner, Xu Xiaoshou, appeared. It raised its head abruptly and stared straight at its demonic owner.

“Weng!”

The three gray petals in its left eye turned, and the air seemed to have stagnated.

In the next second, Xu Xiaoshou’s movements stopped, and his expression became dull. His eyes seemed to have lost their spirit and he subconsciously and intermittently said, “Meow... meow... meow...”

Lei Xi’er: “? ? ? ?”

She was shocked again. This time, it was because of Greedy the Cat Spirit.

“In order not to eat the Elixir, he even used the Three Loathsome Eyes on his owner?”

“You’re really something... Pei, you’re really something!”

After being controlled for only an instant, Xu Xiaoshou mimicked the cat’s meow and quickly retracted his hand. He took out the Saint Refining Pill that was about to fall into Greedy the Cat Spirit’s mouth and was about to swallow it himself.

“Controlled, passive points, + 1.”

At this moment, his Spiritual Awakening was triggered.

Xu Xiaoshou regained consciousness and in the next second, he was furious.

“Unfilial son, how dare you trick me! Who did you learn your bad habits from?”

“Meow Meow Meow...”

Greedy the Cat Spirit was terrified and quickly explained. “It was all Hidden Bitter, it was all Hidden Bitter...”

While Greedy the Cat Spirit was busy explaining and gesticulating with its paws, Xu Xiaoshou quickly stuffed the Saint Refining Pill into the little white cat’s throat.

Greedy the Cat Spirit’s eyes popped out: “? ? ?”

“Gulp!”

Greedy the Cat Spirit swallowed subconsciously, and after it swallowed, its tears flowed out.

“Meow...”

“What.”

“How could he be shameless?”

“I was still talking, I was still talking...”

“It’ll be fine. I did not lie to you. It won’t hurt, Ha.” Xu Xiaoshou became gentle and stroked the cat’s head to comfort it.

“Meow.” Greedy the Cat Spirit wanted to exert its strength..

Xu Xiaoshou immediately saw through the signs and frowned. “You’re not allowed to use your swallowing skills! Have a proper taste of the fourth-grade Elixirs. They’re very delicious.”

He still had to test whether the Elixir would cause one’s death.

If Greedy the Cat Spirit used his swallowing skill to turn it into energy, then what was the point of feeding it?

“Meow...”

This time, Greedy the Cat Spirit gave up struggling.

Since he swallowed it, then he would have to live with it.

He didn't believe in the owner's Conducting Alchemy ability, but he still had the ability to save a cat.

Perhaps before he died later, he could get a taste of 'Holy Blood' and 'God's Blessing'. Greedy the Cat Spirit had been craving for these two mouthfuls for a long time.

"How is it?" Xu Xiaoshou asked, full of concern about the Cat Spirit's condition.

"Meow..."

Greedy the Cat Spirit was powerless to reply.

The taste in its mouth was bitter. It was obviously the taste of the Elixir ashes. "This was nothing compared to the Elixirs that I refined."

However, after a short while, all the ashes were digested. A rich fragrance bloomed in its mouth and stomach, which revealed the core medicinal effect of the Saint Refining Pill as a fourth-grade Elixir.

"Wu Wu Wu..."

Greedy the Cat Spirit's body instantly twitched. His four short legs kicked forward and extended backward. Even its tail was as straight as a spear. This time, he really turned into a 'Cat'!

"This..."

Lei Xi'er was flustered.

"Was it dead?"

"No..."

"Why did it seem similar to Xu Xiaoshou's drug addiction condition?"

"Meow"

After a long period of convulsions, Greedy the Cat Spirit finally recovered from the euphoric state it was in.

"Meow Meow Meow..."

It waved its claws to describe the feeling.

“There was the smell of ‘Heart Clearing Fruit’, the smell of “Good Wood Root’, the smell of ‘Spiritual Flowers’, and...hmm? How could there be a low-grade ingredient like ‘Catnip’, which was not a Spiritual Medicine? Were these Spiritual Ingredients?”

Greedy the Cat Spirit was suddenly stunned. Its little head was filled with uncertainties and then it reacted.

“Dammit!, these two pills were not made purely by accident, right?”

“What did it say?”

Lei Xi'er could not understand cat language, so she could only look at Xu Xiaoshou.

When he saw that the cat was not dead, Xu Xiaoshou immediately felt relieved. He patted the soft belly of the cat and said with a smile, “It said it was delicious. It has never eaten such delicious Elixirs. The medicinal properties are also good, so it should be a top-grade Elixir.”

Lei Xi'er: “? ? ?”

“Suspected, passive points + 1.”

“You said that’s what it said, was that really what Greedy the Cat Spirit wanted to say?”

1314 Demi-saint! A New Storm Had Appeared... 1

In the Sleeping Valley.

“Clang, Clang, Clang...”

Xiao Kongtong walked across the dust-covered land with a big sack in his hand. Everything he saw was strikingly desolate.

“Legend has it that in ancient times, the Abyss Island was a country of Giants. A group of Giants lived here and they only lived in the sky and never descended to the mortal world.”

“They had no worries about food and clothing and were self-sufficient. However, one day, a Demon God descended from the sky and wanted to seize this pure land.”

“Thus, the Giants and the Demon God fought in the most desolate place on Abyss Island. In the end, both sides perished and died on this piece of land.”

“The battlefield of this final battle later became one of the nine most dangerous lands on Abyss Island, the Sleeping Valley!”

These legendary tales flashed through his mind.

Dragging his sack, the scruffy-looking man glanced around his surroundings again.

Huge boulders with uneven bumps, mountains that were thousands of feet high and looked like the corpses of Giants, and broken swords that could petrify the sky...

He couldn't help but gulp in fear.

“Why...”

Xiao Kongtong didn't understand.

He was only under the Deep Sea, and when he faced the Ancient Gate, he couldn't help being curious, so he gave it a little push.

“How did he end up in Abyss Island?”

“It's all Senior Water Ghost's fault for not telling me about the gravity of the situation when he told me not to push the door. He didn't tell me the specific reason, and even made me wait for so long.”

“Isn't it right? Everyone would wish to push the door open when they are facing it, right?”

“It's really not my fault!”

Xiao Kongtong comforted himself, as he dragged the sack and continued forward.

He had been wandering in this Sleeping Valley for a long time, but he still had not spotted any signs of life. He had not even seen a single weed.

This was a place of death!

“That's why it can't be called 'Sleeping Valley'. It should be called 'Fallen Land'. It's a place that's been dead for millions of years, yet it's still called 'Sleeping Valley'. It feels very scary.”

“It's like if I'm not careful, the Giants and the Demon God might awaken...”

Xiao Kongtong complained silently.

Soon, he arrived in front of a dark cave.

“Was there a movement?”

He frowned and entered the cave.

Not long after, Xiao Kongtong stopped in front of a half-closed giant door.

Unlike the dead silence in the outside world, there seemed to be a powerful force sleeping inside the door. Only a trace of that power leaked out from the crack of the door, which made Xiao Kongtong’s heart palpitate.

“Don’t go in, don’t go in!”

“This door, don’t push It!”

Xiao Kongtong had already been tricked by the so-called ‘door’ once in the Deep Sea World.

He had told himself in his mind ten thousand times that he should never make the same mistake again.

Let alone the Seven Breaks on the Shengshen continent, even ordinary people would definitely die if they set foot in it.

This was one of the nine most dangerous places on the Void Island, the Sleeping Valley and he had encountered a door by chance at this moment... needless to say, this was also Forbidden Grounds, a land of death!

“I’m sorry for disturbing you. I’ll leave now.”

Xiao Kongtong made his decision in the time it took for an incense stick to burn totally, then he turned around and left.

However, just as he reached the entrance of the cave, he stopped again.

“Up till now, there hasn’t been any movement. Could it be that this place is just a fortuitous encounter and there are no risks?”

Looking out of the cave, the mountains that lay on the ground looked more and more like sleeping Giants. Perhaps this cave was where the legendary Demon God was sleeping.

It was very scary...

But...

“We are already at the Abyss Island, yet you are still so cautious. Don’t you think we might miss the opportunity?”

The two dwarfs in Xiao Kongtong’s mind began to fight. One urged him to leave quickly, while the other said that it was a pity to leave just like that since he was already here.

“I am the eldest Senior Brother of Fringe Moon Immortal City. Who in the world can stop me?”

“The Way of the Sword is to forge ahead courageously. I, the Swordsman, am strong and resolute!”

Xiao Kongtong tightened his grip on the sack in his hand. He felt that the little fellow in his mind who gave him this advice would be talked to death by the other.

“I’ll give it a little push!”

Finally, he made a decision.

He would give it a try!

Returning to the half-closed door, Xiao Kongtong was mentally prepared. He reached out his hand and began to knock on the door.

“Knock, Knock, Knock.”

The sound echoed all around the cave, but nothing strange happened.

Xiao Kongtong was emboldened. He looked tentatively through the crack of the door, cupped his fists, and said, “I didn’t mean to disturb you. I was just curious. If I offended you, Senior, please drive me away. Please don’t hurt me.”

“ ... ”

Except for the echoes, there was still no movement from the cave.

“Silence. This Junior should take it as acquiescence?”

Xiao Kongtong nodded as his eyes glowed fervently.

“Adventure!”

It was something he hadn’t done for many years since he became the Eldest Senior Brother of Fringe Moon Immortal City.

It was the biggest motivation for a young man's growth until now. Otherwise, how could he have pushed open that door under the Deep Sea and decided to push open another one at this moment?

"A new world, here I come!"

With a thumping heart, Xiao Kongtong reached out his hand and pushed.

"Rumble..."

The huge door was pushed inch by inch until finally, a crack that could accommodate three normal human-sized creatures was pushed open.

It was not pushed open all the way, this was respect for the ruins.

Pushing it open this much, this was respect for life.

If the huge door should close accidentally, Xiao Kongtong was confident that he could get out of the door with a crack of this size.

"I'm sorry."

Xiao Kongtong said apologetically and stepped through the giant door excitedly with a sack on his shoulder.

Buzz...

As soon as he stepped in, the pure energy fluctuations inside caught all of Xiao Kongtong's attention.

It was a black Giant!

The giant corpse was sitting on a huge Sovereign Stage throne inside the door.

It had on the toughest Demon God armor, and held a giant spear that could pierce through the sky. It also had a helmet on its head. Even though it was a corpse, it still emitted a strong murderous aura.

1315 Demi-saint! A New Storm Had Appeared... 2

"Hehehe..."

Xiao Kongtong's teeth chattered.

It wasn't due to fear, but excitement.

“Was he really a Demon God?”

“Were all the legends true?”

The Demon God's corpse had been found by him in the cave in the Sleeping Valley. The door didn't even have a seal and it was so easy for him to enter?

“Could it be that my true destiny was not to meet Teacher and become an Ancient Swordsman, but to obtain the Demon God's legacy at this very moment?” Xiao Kongtong was slightly excited.

The Giant's corpse was very valuable, but he had no intention of desecrating it.

Xiao Kongtong didn't even want to pry open the Demon God's hand and snatch away the great spear.

After all, he was a Swordsman, not a Spear Demon. He wasn't interested in any weapons other than swords.

However...

There was something else on the Demon God's body that made Xiao Kongtong envious.

There was a very eye-catching black necklace around the neck of the Demon God who sat on the throne. Each of the clasps was very big, bigger than a normal human body.

However, the crystal-like gemstone at the core of the necklace was only the size of a normal human fist.

“Holy Power!”

Xiao Kongtong was moved.

The crystal gemstone, which was the size of a fist, emitted strong waves of Holy Power. It looked like the core of a Demi-Saint.

“It can't be! It can't be!”

He glanced at it, then looked again and again...

Xiao Kongtong's expression turned a little crazed. In the end, he scratched his head in disbelief.

“Semi-Saint Person! ! !”

“There’s a Semi-Saint Person in this crappy place!”

“How was that possible? Didn’t they say that the Void Island was passed down from ancient times? Did the Semi-Saint Person exist at that time?”

“Or could it be that the Demi-Saint level was just a title used in ancient times during the period of Spiritual Cultivation, and the Semi-Saint Person is just a title that fits the current era?”

No matter what.

Xiao Kongtong believed that he was not wrong about the Semi-Saint Person on the Demon God’s pendant.

He had been in Fringe Moon Immortal City for more than 30 years. Even if he used all the power of the Ancient Swordsman that he had cultivated with his faction, he could not find any Semi-Saint Person that had been lost in Shengshen continent.

Now, he had come across a cave?

“I can’t take it, I can’t take it, I absolutely can’t take it!”

“Xiao Kongtong, don’t be silly. Think about the Sleeping Valley, the half-closed door, and the legend of the Demon God...”

“There’s not even a seal here, what are you? You’re not the Lord of the Abyss Island, and you’re not the Lord of the Black and White Veins. What right do you have to get the Semi-Saint Person rank without any effort?”

“This is a trap!”

The persuasive little man in Xiao Kongtong’s mind stood up again.

But in the next second, he was stabbed to death by the evil little man.

“I am the eldest Senior Brother of Fringe Moon Immortal City. Who in the world can stop me?”

“In the Way of the Sword, we must advance courageously. Swordsmen of our generation must be resolute and sharp!”

“God does not take, but bears the blame instead!”

“...”

This sonorous and powerful declaration made Xiao Kongtong's blood boil with excitement.

Xiao Kongtong jumped onto the Sword of the Space and flew up to the huge Demon God's corpse. Under the gaze of the Demon God's closed eyes, he wasn't even sure if he was watching...

"Sorry!"

He reached out his hand.

He held the crystal gem.

"Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom..."

In the next second, a shocking explosion came from outside the cave. The sound was as loud as thunder, as if the end of the world had arrived and the sky was about to fall.

"Damn, damn, damn!"

Xiao Kongtong had only grabbed the crystal gem with the 'Semi Saint Person', in less than half a breath. His expression changed drastically, as if he was holding the scythe of death. He was so scared that he threw the gem into the sky.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I really didn't do it on purpose. I was just curious. I was curious about what this gem looked like. I'll put it back for you right now, Senior."

"Return it to the original owner, return it to the original owner. Don't hurt anyone, don't hurt anyone..."

Xiao Kongtong was trembling as he tried to put the crystal gemstone on the necklace, but he accidentally touched the clasp on the side.

The clasp, which was thicker than a human being, turned into dust with a sizzle...

It turned...

Into dust...

Xiao Kongtong: "? ? ?"

"Without the clasp, how can I put the gemstone back? How can I put it on your heart?"

"Rumble, Rumble, Rumble, Rumble..."

Outside the cave, the rumbling noise suddenly became louder. It was as if the Giant's footsteps was approaching the area.

"I'm sorry, I really didn't mean to break your necklace!"

Xiao Kongtong wanted to cry, but he had no tears. He looked up at the tightly shut eyes of the Demon God Giant, afraid that in the next second, those eyes would open and the Demon God would wake up.

Fortunately, things had not come to this point.

The Demon God did not wake up.

"Die, die, die, die..."

Xiao Kongtong did not dare to delay any longer.

The clasp was not there, but the Demon God's body was still in front of him.

"I'll give you the Semi-Saint Person back to you. Without the clasp, I can stuff it into your nostrils, right?"

Although the Demon God's nostrils were very big, he might not be able to wedge such a small gemstone inside.

However, the seven orifices of a person were connected. Xiao Kongtong aimed and threw the crystal gemstone through his nostrils into the Demon God.

"Sizzle"

As a result, when the gemstone touched the Demon God, the Demon God turned into ashes and disintegrated too.

The Demon God's spear that pierced through the sky did not disintegrate. It tilted and smashed downward toward Xiao Kongtong.

"Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom..."

The footsteps outside the cave seemed to be extremely furious. It struck fear into Xiao Kongtong's heart and his face turned pale with fright.

"Don't trick me!"

Xiao Kongtong almost burst into tears.

“So the power of the Semi-Saint Person was used to preserve the Demon God’s corpse?”

His one move reduced the corpse to dust. Even if he didn’t mean to steal the treasure, it would be the end!

Chapter

1316 Demi-saint! A New Storm Had Appeared... 3

“Bang!”

Xiao Kongtong blocked the Demon God’s great spear with one palm, but he was knocked to the ground instantly.

This spear was heavier than he had imagined. It could kill a Higher Void level with one strike and send a Demi-Saint flying.

Abyss Island was indeed worthy of being the land of opportunity created by his Teacher. There were treasures everywhere.

It was a pity that...

These treasures seemed to require one’s life in exchange for them!

“Since I’m taking them, it should be safe.”

The crystal gem couldn’t be put back, so Xiao Kongtong didn’t resist any longer.

“If I have to face them all, I’ll take the Semi-Saint Person, and I’ll also take this valuable Demon God’s Great Spear!

He tried his best to hold on, but he could not bear the weight of the Demon God’s Great Spear. In the end, he could only use the Sword Soaring Technique to exert some slight control over the Demon God’s Great Spear, which caused it to float in the air.

“Run!”

“Run!”

“If I don’t run now, I, Xiao Kongtong, will die in this Sleeping Valley!”

With a sack on his shoulder and a gemstone in his hand, he now had a crooked and quivering Demon God’s Spear on his back.

In the dark cave, Xiao Kongtong heard the rumbling sounds outside and suddenly calmed down.

His eyelids drooped and blocked his vision.

At this moment, he looked like a stone statue of Buddha, who had pity for all sentient beings.

“Hum”

The turbulent Sword Will began to surge out of his small body like a wave, which caused the cave to vibrate and gravel to roll about.

“The will of the heart, the will of the heart...”

“The will of the heart, the will of God and Buddha...”

Bang, Bang, Bang!

The falling rocks smashed down, and the cave started to collapse.

“With this non existent sword, my fantasies will come true...”

“Be mindful of God and Buddha, and destroy the demons and dogs...”

Clang!

Even though there was no sword, a series of Sword Cries resounded from Xiao Kongtong’s body.

In the next second, a spot of golden light bloomed in the cave, and a three-hundred-meter-tall golden Buddha statue with its eyes closed, appeared slowly behind Xiao Kongtong.

Its curled up body slowly relaxed.

He also opened his tightly shut eyes!

“Heart Sword Technique, under the eyes of God and Buddha!”

Xiao Kongtong’s eyes opened and a dazzling golden light cascaded from his eyes like a waterfall.

With a boom, the cave was shattered by the Phantom Buddha who stood behind him. The darkness was dispelled and the light was restored.

“This...”

The cave was destroyed, and Xiao Kongtong could see the roaring world outside.

However, after a glance, his aura froze, and he was obviously stunned.

What he saw before his eyes...

The Giant-like mountains disappeared, and the huge broken swords buried in the Sleeping Valley had also disappeared.

In their place stood stone Giants, who towered into the clouds!

“One, two, three...”

“There were three to four hundred stone Giants, right?”

“So, there really are only sleeping Giants left in the Sleeping Valley, and not fallen Giants?”

“One hundred feet in size, three hundred feet in size, one thousand feet in size...”

All the stone Giants who had stood up after draining the power of the Hundred Thousand Mountains in the Sleeping Valley held broken swords and halberds in their hands. Their eyes were bloodshot as they charged toward Xiao Kongtong.

“What the...!”

Xiao Kongtong’s heart stopped beating at this moment.

He was strong.

Strong enough to rule an entire world, build nine cities in a row, and create another Holy Land for Ancient Swordsman. He was known as the eldest Senior Brother of Fringe Moon Immortal City and even...

The Ninth Sword Deity!

But facing this group of stone Giants with bloodshot eyes...

“Just look at that thousand feet tall Giant!”

Because it charged forward too rapidly, its legs broke!

But after a roll, its broken legs repaired itself and it looked even more powerful than before.

This was obviously a monster that couldn't be killed!

Xiao Kongtong had thought that fear was one thing, but no matter what happened outside, the Heart Sword technique and the Great Buddha Chop could easily sweep it away.

But now...

"What the hell am I fighting for? I've poked the Giants' Nest, haven't I?"

"I should run as fast as I can!"

The 300-foot-tall virtual image of the Golden Buddha behind him was just a little brother in front of these hundreds of stone Giants.

The shortest among these giants was twice as tall as the virtual image of his Golden Buddha.

Without thinking, Xiao Kongtong disbanded the present Gods and Buddhas from the Heart Sword Technique. Then, he gathered the power of the Fantasy Sword Technique and jumped onto the Demon God's great spear.

"Fantasy Sword Technique, Space-time Transition!"

With a whoosh, the Demon God's Great Spear rushed forward, but it couldn't break through the stone Giants with its first move. Xiao Kongtong was so scared that he shivered and almost dropped the crystal gem containing the Semi-Saint Person.

He didn't dare to try and attack again when the hundreds of stone Giants were slashing away with their heavy fists and knives.

"Space-time Transition! Jump! ! !"

The Spear pierced through the space.

During this period of time, Xiao Kongtong had almost explored half of the 300,000-mile-long Sleeping Valley.

With the Spear, he jumped onto the stone stele after he landed on Abyss Island, which was about 10,000 miles away.

"Huh"

"They can't possibly catch up with me at this distance, can they?"

"As I expected, even under such circumstances, I was able to escape."

Xiao Kongtong felt relieved.

But just as he started to relax...

“Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang...”

The space behind him shattered and collapsed into endless darkness. Then, the huge feet of hundreds of the stone Giants stepped out of the space.

Xiao Kongtong: “? ? ?”

This time, his face turned green.

“They could still break through the space and follow him?”

“What exactly are you guys made of?!”

He didn’t dare to breathe anymore and quickly jumped onto the Demon God’s Great Spear.

“Space-time Transition... Jump! Jump! Jump!”

“Damn it, why are you so slow? Quick, jump further away! ! !”

I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1317 - 1317

The Greedy Assassin Xu Xiaoshou! 1 - NOVGO

Forest of Miracles.

The dense forest was silent. There wasn’t even the sound of birds chirping. It was very depressing.

“Rumble...”

Suddenly, there was a sound from afar.

Xu Xiaoshou and Lei Xi’er squatted on the ancient tree and looked over curiously in that direction.

“It’s a little far. It shouldn’t affect us.”

As Xu Xiaoshou said that, he felt that the explosions in that direction were even louder than those created by the Void Attendant.

“Which explosion spirit was this?”

“After all, we’ve been on the Abyss Island for so long. It’s normal for each of us to make some noise at the landing point.”

As Lei Xi’er said that, she looked at the Barrier-like sealing array in front of them and said in a low voice, “Xu Xiaoshou, how long do we have to wait?”

Xu Xiaoshou turned around and looked at the Barrier in front of him as well.

He inhaled the rich medicinal fragrance and felt the fluctuations of his Energy Reserve as well as his body, which was so comfortable that it trembled a little. He shook his head and said, “I don’t know, but we have to wait.”

The actors were not in position yet, so he could not be overly anxious.

In fact, Xu Xiaoshou could have used the Imitator to turn into Double Dumba*s and split his body to infiltrate the sealed Barrier.

However, the scene from the Soul Reading earlier was that as long as someone moved the Spiritual Medicine in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, the Void Attendant would definitely wake up.

The real Double Dumba*s only had the time to pluck one Holy Miracle Fruit before they were madly pursued. In the end, they were given a mission by the Void Attendant and died under his hands.

Xu Xiaoshou dared to guarantee that even if he went in to pluck the actual fruit, he would at most pluck a few more.

And after being alerted of the enemy’s move, the Void Attendant would definitely not allow him to successfully plunder the Spiritual Medicine again.

If that was the case, wouldn’t that piece of Herb Garden of Divine Farmer that was enough to drive a person crazy go to waste?

“Why don’t we give up?”

Lei Xi’er immediately suggested. When she thought of the 3000 feet tall Void Attendant, her heart felt extremely stifled.

A Sovereign Stage and a Master Stage actually attempted to obtain the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

If it wasn't for the fact that the person squatting in front of them was Xu Xiaoshou...

If it was someone else, Lei Xi'er would have left long ago. This was simply unrealistic!

"It's impossible to give up. We're already here..."

After Xu Xiaoshou said this, he suddenly stopped. He turned his head to the side and said, "They're here!"

"Someone's here?"

Lei Xi'er looked over warily. With a spin of her God Devil Eyes, she could clearly see the person coming from afar.

It was a shirtless man with a dense aura. His cultivation level was extraordinary and he was at the Higher Void level.

"Who is that?"

"I don't recognize him..."

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head, but he vaguely felt that the person looked familiar.

He thought for a moment and then recalled that he had indeed seen this person on the Lone Cliff. He had always stood behind Rao Yaoyao and Teng Shanhai.

There were more than ten Higher Void level people with him.

"Someone from the Holy Divine Palace?"

It didn't matter who the person was.

Xu Xiaoshou only needed to know that this person wasn't a friend, and then he could go ahead and scam him.

It was all for the Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension. I won't let you get scammed for nothing. As long as you have the ability, you can also have a share of the pie of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

"However, how much ability you will be dependent on your own methods."

"If you can't handle my setup and became a pawn that was used as cannon fodder, then it's your own fault. You can't blame anyone else."

“Hide well. I’ll give you Greedy the Cat Spirit. I’ll be right back.”

Holding the Imitator, Xu Xiaoshou transformed into Double Dumba*s and jumped down from the tree.

...

Dragon Fighter, Hong Dang, had been searching the entire way.

He had come here in pursuit of the increasingly fragrant smell of medicine.

Originally, he had come to the Abyss Island at the Ancient City’s Construction Zone. However, just like Xu, he heard the sound of explosions in the outskirts and made his way over.

Hong Dang didn’t know where this ancient forest was.

However, along the way, the increasingly rich aroma of the Spiritual Ingredients lingered around his nose, which told him that this was a Treasure land!

Walking out of the narrow path, the huge footprints on the ground also came to an end.

Hong Dang raised his eyes and saw the boundless, borderless, super-large sealed Barrier.

“The aroma of the Spiritual Medicine came from here?”

Hong Dang seemed to have realized something. He was immediately on his guard against any possible dangers around him as he approached the Barrier.

“Crack.”

At this moment, from behind the ancient tree at the side, a faint sound of a dead branch being trodden on could be heard.

“Who is it?”

Hong Dang shouted. His Spiritual Source turned into a golden Barrier that enveloped him totally. Then, he turned his eyes and stared at the source of the sound.

“...”

No one responded.

Hong Dang narrowed his eyes. His right palm turned into a fist and struck across the air.

“Bang!”

The ancient tree exploded into dust, but there was still no one behind it.

“I’m here.”

At the same time, a hoarse voice appeared behind his head.

Hong Dang suddenly turned around. Without any further ado, with a loud bang, the Phantom of a Golden Dragon wrapped around his body. Then, he lashed out with a whip kick.

“Bang!”

The space was smashed into pieces by this whip kick.

The black hole only took a second to take shape. Within the next second, the space was restored.

The rules of the Abyss Island were even more powerful than those of the Shengshen continent.

“Tsk tsk, you’re really vigilant, my friend.” Mocking laughter came from another ancient tree behind them.

Hong Dang looked over and finally saw the actual person.

It was a person who was completely wrapped in a black robe and even had a mask on his face. He did not reveal his true appearance to anyone.

“Who are you and why were you so sneaky?”

Hong Dang shouted coldly. At first glance, he could not discern the other party’s cultivation level, but the person who appeared was so elusive, and he was also on the Abyss Island.

Probably the Cutting Path Stage could rival the Higher Void level .

There was a 99% chance that it was a Higher Void level who was on the same level as himself.

The unknown was always terrifying. However, when the black-robed man finally revealed himself, Hong Dang let down his guard a little. This was because from the other party’s words, it seemed that he had no ill intentions?

“My name is Little Ninja.”

Xu Xiaoshou's incarnation of Double Dumba*s jumped down from the ancient tree dressed in a mysterious black robe. He raised his hands to indicate that he had no intention to attack. He was very friendly.

"Little Ninja?"

Hong Dang thought for a while and sneered, "Little Ninja, the Gold Hunting Token Killer of the Three Incenses in the Central Region? He is not as tall as you!"

"You know quite a lot about him?"

Xu Xiaoshou didn't expect that this person knew Little Ninja.

However, on second thought, there were only a few people in the Higher Void level who were active in the Shengshen continent. If an ordinary person lived for a long time, they must have collected information on the Higher Void level .

Therefore, it did not come as surprise that the person in front of him knew Little Ninja's information, even if Little Ninja was the mysterious Gold Hunting Token Killer.

"I have already introduced myself. I respect you so much, but I don't know what your name is?" Xu Xiaoshou smiled as he kept a certain distance from the person in front of him and stopped at the right time.

"You are not Little Ninja." Hong Dang shook his head and said in a very confident voice.

"You have a sharp eye." Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and sighed as if he had been exposed. He could only take off his mask and revealed an ordinary face as he said, "I'm Double Dumba*s, a Gold Hunting Token Killer of the Three Incenses from the Central Region. Is this sincere enough?"

He had never thought of revealing his family name in the first place.

That was because it would make the other party wary. After all, a killer was not an identity that sounded very honorable.

However, with the cover of 'Little Ninja' and the self-exposure of his identity, he thought that the burly man in front of him would also be able to sense his sincerity. Thus, he let down his initial caution.

"You are Double Dumba*s?"

Sure enough, even though Hong Dang was slightly stunned, he seemed to have some basic information about Double Dumba*s in his mind. After confirming it thoroughly, he said, "How can I trust you?"

“You don’t have to trust me, but you and I are both here for the Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension. Since that’s the case, our temporary cooperation is necessary because you can’t break this Barrier.” Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the Barrier that sealed the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Hong Dang’s face darkened as he turned sideways and glanced warily at the Barrier. He sneered as he said, “And you are able to do so?”

“Sir, you still don’t trust me totally. You don’t even want to tell me your name. How can we continue to cooperate?” Xu Xiaoshou sighed.

“Dragon Fighter, Hong Dang! One without a family, like a wandering crane.” Hong Dang said after a moment of hesitation.

“Hong Dang... so it’s you. I’ve heard so much about you!”

Xu Xiaoshou had never heard of this person before, but since a wandering crane could still attain the Higher Void level , this person must be extraordinary.

At least, from what he had encountered so far, there was still the difference between the Cutting Path Stage and the ordinary Cutting Path Stage, which could rival the Higher Void level.

As for Higher Void level...

There was no simple Higher Void level in this world.

Because in order to achieve the Higher Void level , one had to first withstand the Nine Death Thunder Calamity.

This level was a trap for 99% of the world’s talented Spiritual Cultivators. Those who could break through it were all like dragons and phoenixes among men!

“Brother Hong Dang also came here after you heard the news, and now you’re also looking for any news and chasing after the fragrance of the Spiritual Medicine. Is this the first time that you’ve come here?” Xu Xiaoshou chuckled.

“So what if it is?” Hong Dang didn’t deny it. Among all the Higher Void level that could come to Sky City, which one of them wasn’t here for the Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension?

“That’s easy then. I am also here for the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. Now, the collaboration can be concluded.” Xu Xiaoshou ‘inadvertently’ revealed the truth. He walked forward and began to shorten the distance between himself and the enemy starting from the physical distance.

“Herb Garden of Divine Farmer?”

Sure enough, Hong Dang was stunned. Then, a hint of eagerness appeared within the depths of his eyes.

“Double dumba*s... Brother, do you know anything about this situation?”

“A little bit.”

“Can you tell me?”

“Since we are going to cooperate, of course I have to tell you everything.”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t waste any time and went straight to the point. With a reminiscing look, he said,

“I came here earlier than Brother, but I hid in the dark. During this period, I saw someone coming, but I was vigilant and didn’t show myself.”

“That person was very young, good-looking, and had powerful means. He was a Spirit-gathering Array Expert. He exerted a bit of effort and was able to break a corner of the Barrier of this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and managed to get in.”

“I knew that a fortuitous encounter was bound to be accompanied by danger. I only watched from afar and did not dare to approach.”

“But once the Barrier was broken, the rich medicinal fragrance inside was simply something rarely to be had in the world!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes were filled with fanaticism, and he was completely immersed in the scene he saw through the Soul Reading. He said sincerely,

“With just a fleeting glance, I saw that in this medicinal garden, there were no less than tens of thousands of first grade Spiritual Medicine. Even the Holy Medicine... was uncountable!”

Hong Dang’s heartbeat suddenly accelerated.

But even though he was moved by what he said, he couldn’t help but retort, “Brother, are you joking? There are tens of thousands of grade one Spiritual Medicine, and even the Holy Medicine is uncountable? Do you think I’ll believe it?”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t refute, and his expression became even more fervent as he said,

“To be more precise, it’s the first Grade weeds that are uncountable, and the Holy Medicine is the foundation of this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.”

“Brother Hong Dang, you don’t believe me? Initially, I didn’t believe it either!”!

“But then I thought about it, this is Sky City! This is the Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension!”

“No one has set foot in this place for millions of years. A weed from the past would probably attract the attention of countless people if it were to be placed in the outside world now!”

“Brother Hong Dang, look around...”

Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the surrounding ancient forest:

“This is a Breeze Tree that does not have any quality in the outside world.

“However, at this moment, the Breeze Trees all over the mountains and plains have evolved to the sixth Grade at the very least, and there are even some at the fifth Grade. Occasionally, there are even some fourth Grade Sovereign level Breeze Trees “Brother Hong Dang can surely sense that time and the environment of Sky City can improve and change these ungraded Spirit Trees.

“Those first or second Grade Spiritual Medicine, if placed in the environment of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, think how much more they can grow to after millions of years?”

Dragon Fighter, Hong Dang’s gaze turned solemn.

After taking a closer look, he discovered that the energy contained within these ancient trees, which he was used to seeing, was not inferior to that of a Master Stage or a Sovereign Stage Spirit Medicine.

However, he was not an Elixir master, he did not know if these ungraded Spirit Trees could be used as medicine after they had grown to this point.

However...

Double Dumba*s was right.

Even the Breeze Trees had grown to this point due to the fragrance of the Spirit Medicine. How could the true Spirit Medicine in the so-called ‘Herb Garden of Divine Farmer’ still be ordinary?

“I still don’t believe you.”

Hong Dang thought for a moment and shook his head in refusal. He didn't want to cooperate with an assassin at all.

The risk was too great.

Perhaps in the end, this fellow might backstab him and he, Hong Dang, would lose his life on the spot.

Upon hearing this, Xu Xiaoshou sighed softly, and killing intent appeared in his eyes.

"Sir! If it weren't for the fact that I really need someone to share the Fire Power, do you really think that I would share this treasure with you?"

Sensing the killing intent, Hong Dang's hairs stood on end, and he asked warily, "What do you mean?"

"Brother Hong Dang, you're too timid!"

Xu Xiaoshou sneered and said, "If the person who came here was at the Cutting Path Stage, I would kill him immediately. If the person who came here was a Higher Void level, I would try to escape secretly. But the person who came here is you, Brother Hong Dang!"

"Because it is you, I am confident that even if you regret it later, I am still able to fight with you to the death. That is why I chose to cooperate with you."

"However, Brother Hong Dang's ambition is indeed a little disappointing."

"Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension is not something that can be obtained by the overly cautious!"

Hong Dang was infuriated by these words, but on second thought, they did make sense.

If the Double Dumba*s didn't want to suppress him, why would they want to cooperate with him and split the treasure with him?

"Do you have a way to break this Barrier?" Hong Dang's interest was piqued.

Just as the Double Dumba*s had thought, the other party felt that he could control him, and Hong Dang also felt that his strength wasn't inferior to the Double Dumba*s.

If this fellow really wanted to defect, he would stab his Brother in the back. He was confident that he would be able to block the other party's last-minute counterattack.

"I have a way!"

Xu Xiaoshou was calm and composed. "I've seen that fellow from before using the Spiritual Array, which unfortunately, I was only slightly involved in. With my method, opening a passageway in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer's sealed Barrier won't be a problem."

"Then, how do we work together?" Hong Dang asked decisively.

He had also thought it through. Since he was already here, if this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was really as mysterious as what the Double Dumba*s had said, he would just walk away.

After this, he would probably regret it to the core.

"I'll break the Array while you attract the Fire Power."

Xu Xiaoshou's fingers twitched and as he talked and laughed, his mouth was wide open like a lion's. "After this, you and I will split the share at 10:90% of all the Spiritual Medicine in this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer..."

"10:90%?"

Hong Dang's eyebrows shot up. "Are you taking the 90% or am I taking the 90%?"

"Brother Hong Dang, what the hell are you thinking of?"

Xu Xiaoshou sneered as his killer's greedy nature appeared. "I did the Array Shattering. Brother is just a small Fire Power attractor. If it weren't for me, you wouldn't even get 10% of the Spiritual Medicine."

"The 10:90% split is impossible!" Hong Dang sneered. "Even if the great merit and Array Shattering is in your hands and I'm merely the Fire Power attractor... without a 40:60% share, I won't agree!"

"20:80%!"

"40:60%!"

"30:70%!"

"Good deal. 30:70%, it is then. I'll take 30% and you take 70%!" Hong Dang suddenly agreed.

After all, he wasn't a Spirit Array Caster. If he tried to forcefully attack this Barrier, he would probably only attract the counterattack of the Guardian of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

At that time, not to mention his 30% share, he might not even be able to obtain a single stalk of the Holy Medicine.

Since that was the case, Hong Dang was happy that Double Dumba*s was able to break the Array.

He only had to attract the Fire Power, and he wouldn't die. Hong Dang was very confident of his own life-saving means.

And from this 19% to 30% splitting of shares, from such an exaggerated distribution of benefits, Hong Dang also saw Double Dumba*s greedy nature.

He finally believed that the Spiritual Medicine produced in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer might really be as amazing as what the other party had said.

Otherwise, this fellow would have agreed on a 50-50% split and might then stab him in the back. He would then have taken 100%.

The reason why he was agreeable to compromise at this point was probably because he did not want to waste time in case too many people turned up.

"Happy cooperation." Xu Xiaoshou sneered as he extended his hand. He had this thought that no one would want to shake hands with a killer.

Hong Dang glanced at him. Indeed, he did not want to shake hands. He only said, "What sort of Fire Power do I need to attract?"

Xu Xiaoshou had long expected this and was not embarrassed at all. He put down his hand and said,

"After I break the Array, there will be a passageway that will only allow one person to enter and exit."

"When that time comes, Brother Hong Dang will go in first. When you pick any Holy Medicine, it will trigger the Guardian to react."

"You can just run away. After all, the person from before had also made his getaway."

"Pick any random Holy Medicine and you can... Hong Dang's eyebrows jumped wildly when he heard this.

"Listen up, is this even human language?"

"What kind of surprise would the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer spring on people?"

“The person that Brother Double Dumba*s has been talking about, is he...” Hong Dang couldn’t help but ask.

He was too curious. Someone was able to make a move in front of this greedy Double Dumba*s. In the end, Double Dumba*s might not even dare to venture into the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“How strong was this person?”

He sounded very intimidating!

“He...” Xu Xiaoshou hesitated. A sincere person would not want to lie unless it was absolutely necessary.

“Brother Double Dumba*s, don’t forget, we’re working together!” Hong Dang chuckled, with an expression that said, “If you don’t tell me, I won’t cooperate.”

Xu Xiaoshou was helpless. He spread his hands and said, “He is Xu Xiaoshou.”

“Xu Xiaoshou?”

“Yeah.”

“Just one Xu Xiaoshou, he is able to scare Brother Double Dumba*s?” Hong Dang felt incredulous.

Of course he knew who Xu Xiaoshou was!

He was with Rao Yaoyao and Teng Shanhai during the battle at the Yunlun Mountain Range, although he had no direct dealing with this Xu Xiaoshou.

But word on the street was that this guy was a shit-stirrer with a low cultivation level, and he excelled at stirring up trouble everywhere, which was a classic example of the his style of annihilation.

Unfortunately...

Up until now, Xu Xiaoshou should still be alive.

In other words, that guy hadn’t even done half of the things and was still living happily.

“Xu Xiaoshou is not as simple as you think!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s Double Dumba*s sneered, raised his voice, and advised,

“As a Gold Hunting Token killer, I came from the Central Region this time to kill Xu Xiaoshou.”

“However, before we met, I fell into his trap.”

“On the Lone Cliff, Brother Hong Dang, do you still remember how that kid resisted Rao Yaoyao and Teng Shanhai and was still not at a disadvantage?”

“On the contrary, the two of us were like outsiders in that situation. We didn’t get involved at all. In the end, we were manipulated and fell into the Deep Sea.”

“From this, Brother Hong Dang, can’t you see how powerful Xu Xiaoshou is?”

Hong Dang listened dazedly to the Double Dumba*s in front of him. He didn’t expect that Xu Xiaoshou’s evaluation in the eyes of the enemy at the Grandmaster Realm would be so high.

But thinking about it carefully, wasn’t the Double Dumba*s evaluation a little too much?

“Despised, passive points, + 1.”

The information bar suddenly jumped.

Xu Xiaoshou was slightly stunned. Looking at Hong Dang’s expression, he could not have thoughts to such an extent, right?

There was no third person at the scene...

“Oh!”

“Is there anything wrong? If I don’t get praised by anyone and you did not praise me, then why can’t I praise myself?”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly became excited. He shook his head and said with emotion,

“Speaking of Xu Xiaoshou, now I don’t dare to think about him at all...”

“Xu Xiaoshou’s talent is not inferior to mine; Xu Xiaoshou’s wisdom is the best among the Sword Deity; Xu Xiaoshou’s bravery is unmatched at the Lone Cliff; Xu Xiaoshou’s ability is such that other than the Eighth Sword Deity whom I have never met, I have yet to find anyone else on the Shengshen continent who can match up to him!”

This undisguised praise really stunned Hong Dang.

“Suspected, passive points + 1.”

“Disliked, passive points + 1.”

“Hehe, it’s you again, Junior sister...” Xu Xiaoshou almost turned around to glare at Lei Xi’er who was hiding in the White Cave Small World.

“Brother Double Dumba*s, you have such a high opinion of Xu Xiaoshou?” Hong Dang was suspicious. At one point, he even suspected that Double Dumba*s was Xu Xiaoshou’s accomplice in secret. Otherwise, why would he praise a Master Stage Junior in such an excessive way?

Xu Xiaoshou said calmly, “Isn’t the person who knows his opponent best not really his opponent?”

Hong Dang: “Hehe.”

He was momentarily at a loss for words.

He was just a junior Master Stage. No matter how much trouble he stirred up, could he overturn the heavens?

If they met, he was confident that Xu Xiaoshou would not be his match in a one-on-one fight!

“Brother Hong Dang!”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at his disdainful expression and said earnestly, “Let me give you a piece of advice. Even if you really join the Holy Divine Palace and if you meet that Xu guy in the future, just run away and maybe you can still keep your ‘dog life’.”

“Hehe!” Hong Dang sneered.

He didn’t understand why the Double Dumba*s were so afraid of a Junior. He was only a Master Stage! A Master Stage!

But...

A small-time assassin who had been living in the Central Region was just trying to seek a peaceful life.

Now that he had come to the Eastern Region and witnessed the battle between the Saints, he was shocked by the ability of one of the chess pieces, Xu Xiaoshou, and became timid.

It was excusable!

“Brother Double Dumba*s is afraid, but there’s no need to impose fear on me.” Hong Dang sneered.

He thought that perhaps it was because they were scared out of their wits that when Xu Xiaoshou opened the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, they didn’t even dare to go over and get their share.

Such a waste of a divine opportunity made Hong Dang look down on this killer even more.

“Ai.”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at this muscular, simple-minded, bare-chested man from head to toe. He didn’t say anything more and just sighed softly.

That was all.

He didn’t want to make another enemy, so he would try to persuade them to retreat.

However, the world did not know about Xu Xiaoshou’s terrifying battle achievements. What they knew was only the tip of the iceberg, so they always looked down on him.

“Let’s get back to business.”

Hong Dang didn’t want to talk about that detestable Xu Xiaoshou anymore.

When he thought of how he had not arrived earlier and could have had a share of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, he regretted having slowed down so much earlier and had always been on guard against the imaginary enemy in the air.

What a pity, what a pity...

“Who’s the Guardian?” Hong Dang stared at the Barrier, guessing that the Guardian of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer couldn’t be any ordinary being.

“A Giant.” Xu Xiaoshou pulled himself back to reality and said seriously.

“Giant?” Hong Dang shivered, thinking of the rustling sounds he had heard along the way. He thought to himself, “Could it have been the footsteps of the Giant chasing the medicine thief, Xu Xiaoshou?”

“How big is the Giant?” Hong Dang asked. This was a matter of life and death, and he had to be clear on how much Fire Power he needed to attract.

“More than thirty feet high.”

Xu Xiaoshou chose his words carefully, afraid of scaring away his first collaborator.

“Well, three thousand feet and more than thirty feet were indeed the same concept, right?”

“That’s fine. After my Dragon Soul possesses my body, it will exceed ten feet.” He nodded and asked again, “How strong are the Giants?”

Xu Xiaoshou thought for a moment and then replied sincerely, “Xu Xiaoshou might be able to defeat them with his Sovereign Physique, but I’ve never seen them fight before. So, this should be the first criteria if you wish to fight against the Giants.”

“Well, the initial criteria was to be at the Sovereign Physique, but there was no cap to the upper limit. This could be considered an honest answer, right?”

“That’s fine. I have a Sovereign Physique that is rare in the Universe. After I summon the Dragon Soul, those ordinary Sovereign Physique are no match for me. If Xu Xiaoshou can defeat them, I think I am capable of it too.” He nodded and said, “How many Giants are there?”

“Just one,” Xu Xiaoshou’s voice became serious. He knew what the question meant, that he was not afraid.

“Ha!” Hong Dang laughed.

“Brother Double Dumba*s, don’t worry. I’ll only go in and pick one Holy Medicine, but I get to choose the category of the Holy Medicine first. After that, you’re not allowed to compete with me!”

“As for the mere Giant, I’ll come back after I shake him off.”

“When the time comes, I hope Brother won’t forget about our cooperation agreement!”

Hong Dang stared at the killer in front of him, trying to see his true face.

“Naturally.”

Xu Xiaoshou nodded calmly. “Our agreement was 30:70% and since I’m taking the bigger share, there’s no need to trick you. In fact, even if you only get 10% of the Holy Medicine in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, you won’t be short of Spiritual Medicine for the rest of your life.”

Hong Dang’s eyebrows rose, and he glanced at the vast Barrier again. He couldn’t hide the fire in his heart.

“Was it really that magical?”

“Could it be my opportunity is really coming?”

“Brother Double Dumba*s, let’s not talk anymore. Please use the Array Shattering. I’ll protect you! Hong Dang pointed with his finger, as his heart started to beat wildly.

“Alright,” he said.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t say anything else.

He and Lei Xi ‘er had studied the array of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer thoroughly while they were squatting on the tree.

Time could wear everything out. If this was when the sealed Barrier was first created, Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t guarantee that he could break it with his Sovereign Stage, ‘Weaving Expertise’.

However, after millions of years, at a glance, one could tell that the Barrier in front of him was full of flaws!

The Void Attendant was the Guardian of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, but it was obvious that the Void Attendant was not a master of Spiritual Arrays and could not maintain this sealed Barrier.

So...

In order to maintain the impression that ‘The Array Shattering Method was difficult, but due to the fact that I will get 70% of the benefits’, Xu Xiaoshou put on an act and wasted half an hour outside the Barrier.

Only when Hong Xin was so anxious that he paced back and forth did he smile.

“Break!”

He pointed at a hole in the Barrier.

The Spiritual Source transformed into a thread, which turned into a bridge that connected the Barrier and instantly constructed a passageway that could allow one person to pass through the Barrier.

“Swish!”

As soon as the passageway was formed, the rich medicinal fragrance and Spiritual Energy in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer gushed out in waves that were visible to the naked eye.

“Oh!”

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou's Energy Reserve leapt and his knees tightened. He almost failed to suppress his level and nearly broke through on the spot.

However, he could not break through!

If this were to happen, if the fluctuations of a Master Stage breakthrough were released, then wouldn't Hong Dang be instantly dumbfounded?

Xu Xiaoshou's face had a half-concealed and half-real fanatical look, and embellished with the illusion of 100% weakness, he said weakly, "Brother Hong Dang, please."

"Brother Hong Dang, please die!"

Of course, he couldn't say the word 'die'.

After Xu Xiaoshou finished speaking, he inhaled the rich medicinal fragrance that lingered at the tip of his nose. He knew that if he wanted to maintain the image of Double Dumba*s, he couldn't afford to be modest at this moment.

As soon as his words fell, his body turned into a stream of light, which rushed directly toward the Barrier passage.

A normal person would stay vigilant when he faced a killer who was so modest, but even a weak killer who had just broken through the Barrier couldn't resist the smell of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and chose to rush in first.

He would naturally abandon his rationality!

It had to be said that Hong Dang completely grasped what was behind Xu Xiaoshou's rationale.

Hong Dang was still reminiscing about the rich medicinal fragrance that was so heady that it caused his Energy Reserve to fluctuate. When he turned around, Double Dumba*s was gone.

His eyes instantly turned scarlet red.

"Damn you Double Dumba*s! We're supposed to be working together and I'm the one who should be charging in! Don't you go against the contract!" He stomped his feet, and like a cannonball, he also rushed into the Barrier passageway.

At this moment, Hong Dang didn't have time to think. If Double Dumba*s really wanted to do it on his own after breaking the formation, then what was the point of him staying here and waiting for others to cooperate?

If he thought about it carefully, Hong Dang would definitely realize that there was a trap!

But on second thought?

“What kind of crappy joke is this!”

If he had been a step slower! No, half a step!

If he had been half a step slower, all the Holy Medicine in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer would have been taken away by Double Dumba*s!

“Get lost!”

Hong Dang made a preemptive attack. He was surprisingly fast, even faster than Double Dumba*s as he charged into the Barrier.

Xu Xiaoshou’s Double Dumba*s incarnation of Xu Xiaoshou followed him without any hesitation. It was as if he had never thought of waiting quietly behind him.

“Xu Xiaoshou!”

On the ancient tree, Lei Xi ‘er, who was hiding in the Bounded Domain of the White Cave Small World, had a trace of worry in her eyes.

She didn’t expect that in order to trick Hong Dang into entering the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, Xu Xiaoshou would actually follow him in as well.

If the Void Attendant were to be awakened again, wouldn’t he be able to kill the two of them with one kick?

Almost at the same time, Lei Xi ‘er stood on tiptoe and was about to rush inside the Barrier as well.

At this moment, Greedy the Cat Spirit let out a soft meow.

Lei Xi’er instantly calmed down.

“Wait, something’s wrong. I’m actually worried about Xu Xiaoshou?”

“Did I get too carried away, or have I been following Xu Xiaoshou for too long already and have a problem with my brain?”

“Does he still need me to worry about him?”

Lei Xi-er squatted back on the ancient tree and waited silently. At the same time, she prayed in her heart.

“Hong Dang...”

“Is that his name?”

“I hope you can run away when you can’t find Xu Xiaoshou and after you pluck the Holy Medicine, should the Void Attendant appear, you will be able to escape.”

Just like what Xu Xiaoshou had said, he would run away like crazy when he met Xu Xiaoshou.

Only in this way...

“Perhaps, this is the only way you will be able to survive!”

“May the Heavens bless you.” Lei Xi ‘er clutched the tree branch tightly, looked at the Barrier passageway and whispered.

“Meow”

Greedy the Cat Spirit looked up at its mistress, raised its two front paws, and meowed.

“Brother Hong Dang, that’s his name right?”

“Meow Meow!”

“Brother Hong Dang, may the Lord bless you!”

1321 What ? 1

“Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, here I come!”

The moment he charged into the Barrier, Xu Xiaoshou felt all the pores on his body start to tremble.

The fragrance of the Spiritual Medicine and the dense Heaven and Earth Spiritual Energy...

It was too full!

It was overflowing!

“Er...er...er...er...er...”

The Void Suppression Stele was too ostentatious, and Xu Xiaoshou had long thrown it into an inconspicuous corner of the Forest of Miracles.

At this moment, he had transformed into the Void Suppression Stele, and he felt so comfortable like the first time he used this breathing method to take drugs. He was instantly controlled by the Spiritual Energy in mid-air.

"I can't breathe, I can't see, I can't break through!"

"I'll just to bear with it for a little longer, I can definitely do it!"

Xu Xiaoshou tried his best to close his eyes and did not even dare to look at the images sent by his 'Perception'.

He was afraid that when he personally caught a glimpse of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer with tens of thousands of Holy Medicine in Double Dumba's memory, he might go crazy all of a sudden and suddenly lose control, just like that guy.

The plan was still going smoothly.

Hong Dang had already entered the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. He only needed to pick a Medicine in order to divert the Void Attendant's attention.

At that time, what Spiritual Medicine that couldn't be kept in his pocket, and what Holy Medicine couldn't be sneaked away with his Breathing Technique?

"Vanishing Technique!"

Without any hesitation, Xu Xiaoshou resisted the temptation with his strong willpower and disappeared into the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer using the Vanishing Technique.

On the other side.

Hong Dang was the first to charge into the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. However, after one breath, two breaths, three breaths, he was still standing dazedly at the entrance of the Barrier.

"I!"

"Oh my God..."

"What the hell did I just see?!"

The Dragon-Fighter, Hong Dang, who had boasted about being a Higher Void Level for many years and had a full Treasury, looked at the Herb Garden in front of him, much like a country bumpkin entering the city. He was stunned by such a luxurious and well-stocked treasure land.

The Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was boundless.

A first -grade spiritual herb was three steps away and Holy Medicine five steps away.

The flowers were bright, colorful, and dazzling in a myriad of colors.

There were so many varieties and so abundant that it was even more exaggerated than all the auctions held by all the Holy Medicine shops on the sacred Shengshen Continent!

“Phoenix blood flower, Peach Fairy Spiritual Wood, Holy Miracle Fruits...”

“How is that possible? How could such Holy Medicine be placed at the entrance like this!”

“Shouldn’t the best Spiritual Medicine be placed in the center of any herb garden? How can it be placed at the entrance for people to admire? What if you accidentally trample on it!”

Hong Dang muttered incoherently to himself.

He spread out his hands and shook his head, completely unable to express the shock in his heart at this moment through any action or words.

There were three types of Holy Medicine at the entrance.

Apart from that, there were also many other Holy Medicine that emitted Holy Power fluctuations of the same level, but Hong Dang couldn’t name them.

As for the first and second grade Spiritual Medicine...

The Double Dumba*s were right!

In the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, the first and second grade Spiritual Medicine were really just random flowers and weeds. They were not even worth a second look.

“Under the bright moon, how could there be fireflies?”

“It’s too much! How can you give me so much? How am I supposed to choose?”

Hong Dang’s remaining consciousness allowed him to quickly approach the direction of the Holy Miracle Trees.

“Yes, there were too many Holy Medicine in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, but Hong Dang thought about it calmly. No matter how high the quality of the Holy Medicine were, no matter how strong they were which could increase one's Combat Strength, they were far less attractive than the 'Holy Miracle Fruit' of the Higher Void level.

Hong Dang rejoiced that he recognized the Holy Miracle Fruit and could make the Holy Medicine his first choice.

However, he also regretted his ignorance, because there would inevitably be Holy Medicine that were more powerful than the Holy Miracle Fruit in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, which were just waiting to be plucked by others.

What a pity...

He didn't recognize any!

He didn't have time to study and recognize any!

He rushed to the side of the Holy Miracle Tree. There were only two Holy Miracle Fruits left on this tree, but it didn't matter, because at a glance, Hong Dang had discovered a few more Holy Miracle Fruit trees in the distance.

In other words, if he took one fruit of the Holy Miracle Tree now, he and Double Duma*s would not fall out in the future.

One can have Holy Power at the Higher Void Level. This was equivalent to drinking Holy Blood all the time.

"You must know that I haven't even gotten a drop of Saint blood since I was born."

"And as long as I eat the Holy Miracle Fruit, I will have such an ability!"

"Hahahaha!"

Hong Dang laughed madly. He reached out for the Holy Miracle Fruit, which was the size of a human head, and plucked it without hesitation.

Time seemed to have stopped at this moment.

Xu Xiaoshou, who had disappeared, finally opened his eyes and looked down at the Herb Garden in shock.

After he forced himself to look away, he saw a sinkhole located somewhere in the distance of the Herb Garden. Inside the sinkhole was the 3000-foot-tall Void Attendant whom he had seen before.

Without a doubt, Hong Dang had also seen it with his Spiritual Sense.

However, at first glance, the sleeping Void Attendant was too huge and had no fluctuations of life. Anyone would think that it was the Guardian of a mountain range guarding the Herb Garden at first glance.

Xu Xiaoshou was no exception. However, he had a preconceived notion, which was why he could tell that the Black Mountain was actually the body of the Void Attendant, in repose!

When he turned his head, Xu Xiaoshou naturally saw Hong Dang plucking the Holy Miracle Fruit.

At this moment, he laughed.

He couldn't help but laugh happily.

"Brother Hong Dang, take care!"

Just as he was thinking this, the moment the Holy Miracle Fruit left the Holy Miracle Tree...

"BOOM!"

It was accompanied by a violent sound.

The sky turned dark!

"What?"

Holding the Holy Miracle Fruit which was the size of a human head, Hong Dang was slightly startled.

"What was happening?"

He turned his head and was shocked to find that the Black Mountain Range in the distance had moved.

The mountain was like a man who blocked out the sun and sky when he stood up. It blocked all the light from the sky and left the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer in total darkness!

1322 What ? 2

"Invader..."

The Black Mountain Range Giant spoke. His voice buzzed and roared like thunder.
"Another reckless invader."

“This...”

Hong Dang’s hand tightened and his heart jumped. He almost crushed the Miracle Fruit instantly.

“This?”

“This!”

“What the hell is this?!”

He tried his best to look around and carefully discern the situation.

Finally, he saw that the Black Mountain was actually an ancient Giant that was three thousand feet in size. Hong Dang’s pupils constricted, and his mind exploded on the spot.

“Damn...damn...damn!”

“Double Dumba*s, come out and explain this to me!”

“Guardian? Giant? You call this a thirty feet Giant?”

“A Sovereign Physique? This is what you meant when you said it was a match for a Sovereign Physique? What the hell is this creature?”

With a bang, the ground under his feet exploded, and soil flew everywhere.

Hong Dang didn’t dare to waste even a second. Holding the Holy Miracle Fruit which was the size of a human head, he ran as fast as he could.

As he ran towards the exit of the barrier, Hong Dang was still roaring in a deranged manner.

“You bloody idiotic Double Dumba*s, curses on your father!”

“I curse all eighteen generations of your clan to die a terrible death!”

“Giant, you damned scammer, you tricked me! You animal!”

His voice sounded tearful.

At this moment, in his frenzy, he recalled all the details that he had overlooked previously.

“Why did the Double Dumba*s still charge forward after breaking the Barrier? if so, what was the point of him looking for a partner outside the Barrier?”

“The Double Dumba*s was clearly at the Higher Void level, so why was he the one who struck first, yet was still slower than him? He had been the first to enter the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, so what was he waiting for?”

“The Double Dumba*s had entered the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and disappeared without a trace. What was he afraid of?”

Giant!

The answer was the 3000-foot-tall dark Giant above them!

Hong Dang went crazy.

His hysterical vulgarities accompanied his figure as he dashed out of the Barrier channel like a bereaved dog. His voice echoed around every corner outside the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Man would die for the sake of wealth.

Hong Dang had thought that the Double Dumba*s would trick him, so he had been prepared for the possibility that what the other party had said wasn't entirely true.

But he didn't expect that the Double Dumba*s would trick him so thoroughly!

With such a huge Giant as the Guardian, how did the Double Dumba*s still dare to attack? Did he have the guts to go to the Heavens?

“How dare he!”

“Run!”

“I can only run!”

“Prepare? What preparations? A mantis trying to stop a chariot is like an ant trying to shake a tree. All our preparations were merely toys in front of this Giant!”

Hong Dang cursed with all his might and ran at full speed.

The most important thing now was to save the Holy Miracle Fruit and survive this ordeal.

As for the Double Dumba*s...

He would settle the score after autumn!

Outside, on an ancient tree.

Hearing the ferocious curses and seeing a mad dog rushing out of the Barrier, Lei Xi-er took a deep breath and remained silent.

“Xu Xiaoshou, you’re really ruthless!”

“Sacrifice yourself instead.”

Just by thinking about it, Lei Xi ‘er knew how desperate Hong Dang must have been when he saw a dark Giant outlined against the sky after plucking the Holy Medicine.

She half-squatted on the crown of the ancient tree, held the two small front paws of Greedy the Cat Spirit with both hands and pinched them as she said in a low voice, “Greedy the Cat Spirit.”

“Meow...”

Greedy the Cat Spirit looked up, confused.

Lei Xi-er’s red lips pouted. After a long time, she sighed, “In the future, don’t cast your Three Loathsome Eyes at Xu Xiaoshou, understand?”

“Purr?”

Greedy the Cat Spirit tilted its head. “Why?”

Lei Xi-er was speechless.

“Just look at your innocent manner...”.

“Greedy the Cat Spirit, do you know that if one day Xu Xiaoshou should devour you until not even a strand of cat hair is left, you will still be happy before your death!”

However, after a pause, Lei Xi-er no longer said anything. “Hide. Don’t let the Void Attendant discover our presence.”

As an outsider, even if she couldn’t see what was happening in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, Lei Xi-er was smart, so how could she not figure out what the situation inside was like?

The Void Attendant didn't react to the destruction of the Barrier of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

As soon as Hong Dang took the Medicine and started cursing, the Void Attendant responded.

Without a doubt, Xu Xiaoshou had disappeared and left Hong Dang to bear the wrath of the Void Attendant on his own.

According to the circumstances...

The Barrier of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was not important!

The Void Attendant was there to protect the Spiritual and Holy Medicine.

Therefore, the best way for Hong Dang to save his life was not to run, but to put down the Holy Miracle Fruit. He could even throw it on the ground.

Perhaps, the Void Attendant would not pursue him anymore.

But...

"Is that possible?"

The scene of the Double Dumba's tragic death flashed through Lei Xi'er's mind.

She had not seen Double Dumba's swallowing the Medicine, but based on her last glimpse of him, the fragrance of the Holy Medicine that emanated from his body, and the circumstances whereby he at the Higher Void level had mastered the Holy Power...

No one could let go of the Holy Miracle Fruit!

Since the treasure was already in his hands, it was only logical for all the herb harvesters to put down the Holy Medicine and become 'Buddha on the spot', as in to let go immediately.

However, everyone had this 'fluke' mentality.

"What if?"

"What if I can escape the pursuit of the Void Attendant?"

"Then wouldn't it be a huge loss and an extreme stupidity for me to let go of the Holy Miracle Fruit that I risked my life to obtain?"

"Greed..."

Lei Xi-er muttered to herself.

“Greed, the original sin!”

“But when it came to ‘greed’ who could be more greedy than Xu Xiaoshou?”

Others would run away after picking a Holy Medicine, but Xu Xiaoshou, who had experienced the Void Attendant’s Combat Strength, still had his eyes on the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. The entire Garden!

1323 What ? 3

For this, they even set up a trap in advance.

This was what “greed” meant!

Greedy the little white cat was only a joke!

“BOOM!”

The space outside the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer shattered, and a large foot stepped out.

Then, the Void Attendant appeared, his red eyes staring in the direction where Hong Dang, who ran for his life with the Holy Miracle Fruit, had fled to.

Boom, boom, boom!

He took big steps.

Another scenario which featured the chase between the giant and the ant had begun!

“As expected.”

Lei Xi ‘er looked at the Void Attendant walking away and thought to herself that this Giant’s only target was the Holy Medicine and the Medicine thief. He didn’t care about the others.

She then looked in the direction of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Until now, there was still no news of the third person inside.

However, it was conceivable that as long as Xu Xiaoshou touched the Holy Medicine, the Void Attendant would definitely sense it. At that time, would it continue to pursue Hong Dang, or would it immediately return to the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer?

Lei Xi-er couldn't help but hug Greedy the White Cat Spirit tightly. Her eyes were filled with deep worry.

"Xu Xiaoshou, how many will you pick?"

"One, two? Or one or two batches?"

"Please, please, please, remember to stop while you're ahead!"

...

"Mine! Mine! They're all mine!"

"100% of this, I want it all!"

In the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, Xu Xiaoshou's eyes were red. After holding back for so long, he had finally gone crazy.

Hong Dang had indeed lured the Void Attendant out. This was exactly the same as the Medicine-picking process of the Double Dumba*s that he had gleaned from his Soul Reading!

There was no deviation from the plan!

"It's flawless!"

"Brother Hong Dang has left, and the Guardian has gone after him."

"There's no outsider in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer now. The Holy Medicine and weeds are all mine!"

The last time he moved a third or fourth- grade Spiritual Medicine field from the White Cave, Xu Xiaoshou regarded it as a treasure and didn't even allow Greedy the Cat Spirit to learn the art of Conducting Alchemy.

This time, it had been directly upgraded to a Holy Medicine. How could Xu Xiaoshou hold back?

He calculated the time and suppressed his excitement, as he looked at it for a full 10 breaths of time.

Thinking that the Void Attendant and Hong Dang should have gone far away by now, Xu Xiaoshou decisively dispelled the Vanishing Technique and landed beside the Holy Miracle Fruit Tree.

This was not the one that Hong Dang and Double Dumba*s had picked from. It was a species that was located further in, and still had seven Holy Miracle Fruits!

“If I pick it up and eat it, I’ll be able to become a Master Stage with Holy Power.”

“From now on, when I battle with a Higher Void level, as long as he doesn’t consume any Holy Blood, it will be like the Void Attendant battling with Double Dumba*s and Hong Dang. It’ll be as easy as blowing off dust!

Xu Xiaoshou’s Adam’s apple bobbed as he gulped. He stretched his demonic hands toward the Holy Miracle Tree and reached for the roots of the Tree.

“Possessed by the flower monk! I’m going to uproot it! I will plant them in the Yuan Mansion and nurture some Demi-Saints!”

“Wahahahaha!”

“No, you can’t laugh, you can’t laugh!”

Xu Xiaoshou held his breath and stopped smiling. He grabbed the tree trunk with both hands and was about to exert some force.

At this moment, the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale’s heartbeat suddenly increased from a slight beat to an accelerated rate, just like when he faced the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi in the Deep Sea.

“Bang Bang! Bang Bang! Bang Bang!”

“Received shock. Passive value,+1.”

A pop-up window appeared in the information bar, and the red-eyed Xu Xiaoshou calmed down a little.

“Was there danger lurking about?”

He immediately abandoned the idea of ‘Uprooting the Willow’.

As expected, the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale’s heartbeat returned to normal.

“Will the Void Attendant sense it if I touch the Holy Medicine?”

Xu Xiaoshou frowned and reached for the Holy Miracle Fruit. He didn’t pick it, but just as he was about to pick it up...

“Bang Bang! Bang Bang! Bang Bang!”

The Holy Emperor Dragon Scales started beating so quickly that it was clear that he would definitely die if he picked up the fruit.

“Dammit!”

Xu Xiaoshou was furious.

“The cooked duck was right in front of his mouth, it didn’t fly away and he couldn’t even eat it?”

He swept his gaze across the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“It’s too small, the layout is too small.”

“It’s impossible to give up. Since there’s only one chance to make a move, then...”

Xu Xiaoshou pondered for a moment, before opening up the Spatial Passageway to the Yuan Mansion. It began to expand and continuously expanded widely.

“I’ll state a number, once only. Move this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer in one go!”

1324 I’ll Give It to You 1

In a dilapidated Great Hall in the Ancient City’s Construction Zone.

Ye Xiaotian walked out of the Great Hall with a dejected look on his face. A relieved smile appeared on his face as he looked at the light in the outside world that had been missing for some time.

“A maze?”

“What kind of joke is this? Do you really think my Space Attributes are just for show? The maze can trap me?”

“However...”

Ye Xiaotian still felt a lingering fear at the thought of meeting the super Giant Void Attendant every time he turned a corner while he was trapped in the maze.

On the Lone Cliff, after obtaining Aje, according to the original plan, he should have ended his trip to the YunLun Mountain Range and returned to the Tiansang Spirit Palace to cooperate with Qiao Qianzhi and carry out his experiments.

However, plans could never keep up with changes.

During his trip to the Deep Sea this time, he failed to drain a Spatial Upanishad Spiritual Cultivator like him. Now, he was being chased by the Void Attendant in the maze at the Great Hall on the Abyss Island. He had almost lost his life here.

Turning around, Ye Xiaotian took a good look at the plaque on the door of the Great Hall, and a look of 'as expected' appeared on his face.

"First Hall of Sins."

"You're worthy to be one of the nine most dangerous places on Abyss Island!"

"It is a good place. It's a pity that there are no Void Crystals and the treasures cannot be exchanged. I almost lost my life here."

"I won't be able to come back to this wretched place in the future!"

Ye Xiaotian did not want to think about the painful experience he had in the inner hall.

All he wanted to do now was to take a look around the Void Island and wait for the time when he could leave this lousy place and return to the Tiansang Spirit Palace.

He looked down on other people who desired the Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension.

With the completion of the final-stage Spatial Upanishad, Ye Xiaotian had already embarked on a path that belonged to him alone.

At present, he still had some way to go before he reached the Higher Void level, so there was no need to even think about becoming a Demi-Saint.

As long as he used the Spatial Upanishad to reach the Higher Void level, who in the world could be his match?

At that time, if he wanted the Semi-Saint Person, wouldn't it only be in one sentence?

In this vast world, which force wouldn't want this rare Ye person, who had mastered the Spatial Upanishad to be in their grasp?

"It's time to take a break."

Ye Xiaotian flipped his hand, and the Spatial Upanishad beneath his feet began to spin.

As the Spatial Master, he did not even have the time to take a good look at the Abyss Island.

Now that he finally had the time, Ye Xiaotian felt that it would be a waste of his lifetime's worth of cultivation if he did not sneak a peek at the people and things in this place from a God's perspective.

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh."

He waved his hand in the Void, and many Spatial Mirrors appeared in front of him, reflecting figures who were either in a sorry, happy, or desperate state.

Outside a distant and ancient-looking forest, a white-haired, good looking swordsman who carried two wooden swords stopped and looked around. He fanned himself as he walked into the forest.

"He looks a little familiar."

"Where have I seen this person before?"

Ye Xiaotian pondered for a moment. He had never seen this person on the Lone Cliff before. Perhaps he had fallen into the Deep Sea after that.

With a wave of his hand, the next Mirror world appeared.

Still outside the ancient forest, a black-robed hero without eyebrows slowly walked forward, his expression vigilant.

Ye Xiaotian was on high alert as well, because not only were there people in the image, but there were a fast rhythmic roar.

"Mu Ling?"

"The forest again?"

"Why did everyone fall into the forest? I'm the only one who's unlucky enough to go to the First Hall of Sins?"

"There's also this roaring sound. There were also some sounds in the previous image. Were they all in the same place? Ye Xiaotian gritted his teeth. It's so explosive, it's so like Xu XiaoShou!

He didn't take another look. With another swipe, the screen changed.

It was still in the ancient forest, but this time, when the Spatial Mirror flipped, the figure inside stopped running and even looked up at the sky.

His gaze seemed to pierce through space and landed on Ye Xiaotian, who was peeking at him!

“Close!”

Ye Xiaotian’s hand trembled and he immediately turned off the screen.

“Damnit!”

“Demi-Saint!”

“A Demi-Saint had come to the Abyss Island?”

“Fortunately, I was fast enough and closed the screen on time. Otherwise, there would be a big disaster!”

“Cloud Attribute? Yunlun Mountain Range... who could it be?”

Ye Xiaotian was deep in thought, but he dared not think any further.

“What’s going on?”

“Everyone’s running toward the forest. Is that the Forest of Miracles?”

Ye Xiaotian frowned.

The three consecutive images were all related to the forest, and there were also rumbling sounds. He could not help but suspect that this was not a coincidence, but a certainty.

He waved his hand again.

This time, Ye Xiaotian saw the source of the rumbling.

A shirtless man ran and held a fruit the size of a human head in his arms. Behind him was a black Void Attendant that was three thousand feet tall.

“Ha!”

Ye Xiaotian chuckled.

This burly man was also one unlucky fellow.

However, this unlucky fellow was still a little lucky. There was only one Void Attendant in the Forest of Miracles chasing after him.

The First Hall of Sins...

Turning around to look at the Great Hall, Ye Xiaotian heaved a long sigh of relief before he managed to suppress his throbbing heartbeat.

He didn't want to experience the feeling of meeting the Void Attendant in the corner again.

The First Hall of Sins was not a place for humans. If he didn't have the Spatial Upanishad, he wouldn't have been able to walk out of it alive.

"Demi-Saint?"

Even Demi-Saints with weak escape abilities would be killed by the countless Void Attendants!

With that thought in mind, Ye Xiaotian swiped his hand again, and the Spatial Mirror changed.

In the next second, his face stiffened as if he had been frozen in time. He could not come back to his senses for a long time.

"I think I know why everyone is rushing to the Forest of Miracles."

Ye Xiaotian mumbled to himself. A red light flashed in his arms, and the iron ball Aje raised his head.

"Ma Ma!"

On the screen was an enormous Herb Garden, and there was Xu Xiaoshou trying his best to open a Spatial Passageway and attempting to swallow everything up!

1325 I'll Give It to You 2

"It's you indeed!"

"I knew it would be you!"

"Wherever there's trouble, you'll be there. You're always in the center of the storm, aren't you?"

Ye Xiaotian shook his head and sighed, unable to believe what he had just seen.

He quickly looked away from Xu Xiaoshou and at the Herb Garden.

Through the Spatial projection, the Spiritual Medicine in the Herb Garden looked very small, and there was no fragrance to be detected. Ye Xiaotian was unable to see clearly what sort of grade these Spiritual Medicine were.

The image of the bare-chested man holding a fruit the size of a human head and the Void Attendant chasing after him flashed through his mind. Now, he thought of Xu Xiaoshou's wanton harvesting in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“It can’t be?”

Ye Xiaotian's mouth was agape. He wanted to zoom in to see what kind of gourds were being sold in the Herb Garden.

At this time, a more terrifying rumble came from the next Spatial Mirror than from the Forest of Miracles.

[illegible]

“Which explosive genius was this?”

Ye Xiaotian was dumbfounded. He immediately waved his hand, and the next scene he saw was an infinite black hole.

“What’s this?”

“Who has the ability to turn the space black on the Abyss Island? ”

All of a sudden, the screen flickered, and a large stone foot stepped out, which gave Ye Xiaotian a great shock.

In the midst of his fear, Ye Xiaotian realized that it was because the foot was too big and the impact was too strong. He had not really stepped out of the Spatial Mirror and appeared in front of him.

However...

“Why did that corner of the Great Hall that flashed by just now look so familiar? ”

Ye Xiaotian's brows furrowed as he fell into deep thought, and his thoughts soon froze.

“Wait a minute!”

“The Great Hall?”

He turned his head and saw the First Hall of Sins behind him.

He turned around again and looked at the sky in the distance. It had been dyed black, just like the endless black hole in the last Spatial Mirror!

“It can’t be?”

Ye Xiaotian’s eyes widened in shock.

Before he even had time to think, a cold glint appeared in the darkness, and then a spear shot out like a dragon.

Xiao Kongtong who was controlling the Demon God’s great spear, crashed into the main entrance of First Hall of Sins and jumped down, panting all the while.

“Someone?”

Seeing a white-haired youth who stood there transfixed, Xiao KongTong was startled. All the information about this person flashed through his mind.

Tiansang Spirit Palace’s Inner Yard’s Head, Ye Xiaotian, Space Attributes, former disciple from the Holy Palace, good friend of Second in Command Saint Servant Sleeveless. He had interacted with Teacher Bazhun’an, before losing an arm in the Tiansang Spirit Palace.

“Ye Xiaotian?” Xiao Kongtong tidied up his clothes and asked calmly, ignoring the dark sky behind him.

Ye Xiaotian was speechless.

“No, it can’t be, it’s you again!”

“You’re Bazhun’an?”

He looked at the sloppy man who had all the characteristics of Bazhun’an from head to toe, a scar on his neck and only eight fingers. However, from his disheveled appearance, he seriously doubted the authenticity of this person’s identity.

“How could Bazhun’an be in such a sorry state?”

At this thought, Ye Xiaotian nodded his head dully, but he soon broke down again.

“How could it be you again?”

He was suddenly speechless.

“Wasn’t it said that that all Spiritual Cultivators who had mastered the Upanishad skill lived good lives?”

Ever since Ye Xiaotian had acquired the Spatial Upanishad, he had yet to enjoy the same pleasure as the so-called Water-type Upanishad, Yu Lingdi.

Yet, he had tasted all the suffering that Yu Lingdi the Water-type Upanishad had never experienced before!

Before he left the sect, his arm was cut off by this guy in the Tiansang Spirit Palace.

After completing his Final-stage Spatial Upanishad, he had been defeated in his first battle at the Yunlun Mountain Range, where he had almost been tortured to death by Huang Quan, who had the Time and Space Attributes.

Fortunately, Xu Xiaoshou appeared and saved him from his dire suffering. In the end, he turned around and entered the Abyss Island, where he was hunted down by a large group of Void Attendants in the First Hall of Sins.

“Didn’t he just escape and now he was targeted by Bazhun’an?”

“Is this what you mean by a really unlucky life?”

This was called a life full of misfortune!

“You, what’s the meaning of this?”

Ye Xiaotian’s face darkened when he thought of all these.

He had already made up his mind not to have any interaction with these evildoers at this stage. If anything went wrong, he would directly teleport away.

“The world is so big, I still can’t find a regular Higher Void level to bully?”

Xiao Kongtong didn’t reveal his identity; he merely turned to glance at the darkness behind him. Sensing that the stone Giants were about to catch up, he said directly.

“Ye Xiaotian, you’re Sleeveless’s friend. After the battle at Tiansang Spirit Palace, we became friends after a fight. Now to put it simply, you’re also my friend.”

Ye Xiaotian : “???”

“Why did these words sound so wrong?”

With a spin of the Spatial Upanishad under his feet, Ye Xiaotian had the urge to leave.

“Hold on.”

Xiao Kongtong reached out to stop him and said seriously, “Master Ye, my Junior Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou, must have caused a lot of trouble in your Tiansang Spirit Palace.

It's all thanks to your help that he's able to grow in maturity till now. Please allow me to first thank you...thank you very much. He bent over.

Ye Xiaotian stopped in his tracks.

His first reaction was, "Oh my God, someone finally understands me."

His second reaction was to be dumbfounded. Was this something that Bazhun'an would say? There's something wrong with you!

"If you have something to say, just say it. What are you trying to say?"

Ye Xiaotian forcefully suppressed his violent temper. He could not afford to provoke this person and would try his best not to. The pain of losing an arm was deeply engraved in his heart.

"As a token of gratitude, I would like to give you a treasure."

Xiao Kongtong straightened up and patted the Demon God's great spear beside him. He was just about to ask this Spiritual Cultivator with the Spatial Attributes in front of him to help him share the responsibility of some of the Fire Power.

"I'm not interested," Ye Xiaotian swept his gaze across the room and rejected him outrightly. At the same time, his body began to turn illusory.

"Don't! Wait a minute!" Xiao Kongtong immediately panicked. It hadn't been easy to find someone to share the responsibility of the Fire Power, you can't run!

1326 I'll Give It to You 3

He then pulled Ye Xiaotian back and thought for a moment before saying through gritted teeth, "Master Ye, you must have perfected your art of Spatial Upanishad, right? "

Ye Xiaotian stopped in his tracks again and said with a smirk, "If you have something to say, then say it!"

Xiao Kongtong didn't seem to mind the other party's disrespectful tone towards a Teacher. He chuckled and said,

"The Spatial Upanishad has reached perfection. I'm sure the next step will be the Saint Ascension."

"As a thank you for cultivating Xu Xiaoshou, I'll give you a treasure. It is a small gift but my affection is sincere. I hope you won't reject it."

As he spoke, he took out the crystal gemstone. Under Ye Xiaotian's stunned gaze, he said calmly, "This is a Semi-Saint Person which I'm giving to you. May you become a Saint soon."

Thud...

As soon as he finished speaking, he smacked the hot potato into Ye Xiaotian's hands with a smile, without giving him a chance to refuse.

He was not Double Dumba*s, nor was he Hong Dang, he was someone who found it difficult to let go.

For this thing, the 300 to 400 stone giants had crossed hundreds of thousands of miles from the Sleeping Valley and chased him till the First Hall of Sins.

The Abyss Island was only that big.

Xiao Kongtong was tired of running and didn't want to run anymore.

The main reason was that the 'Space Time Transition' was used by others as a trump card to kill, but he used it as a method of escape. Not only was it ridiculous, but it also consumed too much energy. He was almost at his limit.

However, to casually throw away a Semi-Saint Person.

That was impossible!

The Semi-Saint Person was not a worn shoe, and it really couldn't be abandoned on the street.

So if he found someone who could run better than him, someone who could be considered as a partial companion, he would naturally be able to give this thing away.

He also believed that Ye Xiaotian would agree with his idea.

After obtaining the Semi-Saint Person, even though the other party realised that it was a hot potato, they wouldn't throw it away. Instead, they would run around wildly with the treasure.

That was because they really couldn't just throw it out!

As for whose hands it would end up and whether Ye Xiaotian would be able to escape and enjoy his Semi-Saint Person status...

It didn't matter.

Xiao Kongtong had no interest to pursue the matter further.

He only knew that if he didn't get rid of this Semi-Saint Person, he would die on this Abyss Island!

"As a Teacher, I should not lack such things. What I've lost now will be returned in another way in the future. That's all."

Ye Xiaotian, who had just received the crystal gemstone, was speechless.

"What did you say? This is a Semi-Saint Person?"

He was really frightened.

This thing...

"Am I dreaming?"

"So, what's the situation now? My life was filled with misfortune, and I've finally received a gift from the Heavens. I don't have to cultivate hard anymore?"

"Ye Xiaotian, take care."

Xiao Kongtong reluctantly looked at the crystal gemstone again, then patted the Demon God's great spear and left, in an extremely heartless manner.

It was done.

He still had one Demon God's great spear which had yet to be given away.

"As long as I find someone to face the fire, I can move from the front to the backstage. This is 'Bazhun'an's style!"

When Xiao Kongtong thought of this, he suddenly felt like he had become a child who scattered treasures.

Other people would risk their lives to hide the opportunities they obtained on the Abyss Island, but he risked his life to give them away.

However, the problem was that if he didn't give them away, he would die!

As he watched Bazhun'an leave in a hurry, Ye Xiaotian once again began to wonder if he had been daydreaming.

"How did this day turn out to be so mysterious?"

“Take it back!”

1327 The Void Attendant, Where’s My Medicine? 1

“Run! Run! Run!”

Hong Dang wasn’t the only one running. Xiao Kongtong was running as well.

Even Ye Xiaotian was on the run after he completed the dirty deal at the First Hall of Sins.

Everyone’s goal seemed to be the same. They would rather their friends die instead of themselves; they wanted to live as long as possible.

He had thought that the Abyss Island was really full of opportunities as what Bazhun’an had said. The Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension were available to anyone.

After they arrived, everyone realized.

What Bazhun’an said was true.

However, he only mentioned the advantages of Sky City and did not mention the disadvantages.

All the opportunities here had to be exchanged with their lives!

“Bang Bang! Bang Bang! Bang Bang Bang Bang!”

Forest of Miracles, The Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

The sound of the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale’s heartbeat was so rapid that it made people feel dizzy.

Exchanging Hong Dang’s life was not a guarantee of his own opportunistic rise, so Xu Xiaoshou was busy expanding his Yuan Mansion Space World.

He had no idea what was happening in the outside world.

The only thing he knew was that he couldn’t miss the opportunity that brother Hong Dang had exchanged his life for.

Wasting even a single stalk of the Holy Medicine would be a form of disrespect to Hong Dang!

Absolutely not!

“Buzz, buzz, buzz, buzz...”

The Spatial Passageway expanded as much as it could while the Holy Emperor Dragon Scales tried frantically to interfere.

But Xu Xiaoshou had gone crazy. Even if he knew that the Holy Emperor Dragon Scales tried to stop him, he couldn't suppress the Great Demon King Xu's desire. He had to 'grab everything'!

Finally...

When the Spatial Passageway that spanned thousands of miles was constructed, even Xu Xiaoshou felt that he could not manage such a huge Spatial Passageway.

Through his 'Perception', he could see that the plot of land in the Yuan Mansion Space World was finally a perfect fit for the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“I'm sorry, Void Attendant!”

“I'm sorry, Brother Hong Dang!”

“I'm sorry, fellow Spiritual Cultivators who haven't had time to come to the Abyss Island to pick the herbs.”

“The Herb Garden of Divine Farmer is surnamed Xu!”

Xu Xiaoshou's face suddenly turned ferocious. He closed his hand forcefully and the thousands of miles wide Spatial Passageway completely covered the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“Swish!”

There was a slight sound.

In this place, the rich Spiritual Energy and medicinal fragrance were no longer present.

What replaced it was a huge pit that spanned thousands of miles and was three thousand feet deep!

That's right, the size of the Void Attendant was the depth that Xu Xiaoshou dug.

He didn't want even a single stalk of the innocent weeds to be hurt. They still had to survive in the Yuan Mansion Space World. They couldn't be destroyed.

Therefore, it was impossible to dig a pit that was only three feet deep.

Digging a three thousand feet pit was Xu Xiaoshou's conservative and bottom line!

"Run!"

In a breath's time, he had emptied the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't even dare to return to the Yuan Mansion. He took to his heels and flashed out of the Barrier Passageway.

Initially, his plan was to pick a few Saint Herbs or dig up one-tenth of them first, which was quite normal.

After a few more trips, all of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer would be his.

However, now that he was here in person, Xu Xiaoshou understood why the Double Dumba*s could not give up the Holy Miracle Fruit, even when they were about to die.

"It's not that I can't let it go, I really can't!"

"It's not that I'm a scumbag. It's that I have given every stalk of Spirit Medicine in this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer a portion of love!"

"Their final destination should not be to be buried in this Abyss Island where no one cares about them. Instead, they should be washed and turned into fertile and round pills in Elder Sang's Auspicious Dragon and Phoenix bathtub!"

Weng...

Wiping away his drool, Xu Xiaoshou flashed to the ancient tree where Lei Xi-er had hidden herself.

"You got it?"

Lei Xi 'er looked at Xu Xiaoshou's crazed face. She was worried, expectant, terrified, and nervous. She asked carefully, "How much did you get?"

"A little bit."

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand and said,

"There's no time to explain. The Holy Emperor Dragon Scale is currently jumping around madly. Hurry up and hide in the Yuan Mansion."

"Greedy the White Cat! Don't you dare eat it! If you dare to touch even one stalk of Holy Medicine, I'll make you swallow your cat's fur!"

Greedy the Cat Spirit white fur exploded.

“Meow”

“How much did you actually take?”

Lei Xi-er was silent.

She also felt that Xu Xiaoshou’s condition was a little off. She felt that he needed to use the God-Devil Eye’s purifying power to cleanse himself.

This was crazy!

But Xu Xiaoshou didn’t blabber any nonsense to her as he dared not waste any more time.

He held Lei Xi ‘er in his left hand and picked up the little fat cat in his right. Then, he opened the passage to Yuan Mansion and threw the two of them inside.

“Vanishing Technique!”

“Sorry, sorry, sorry, sorry...”

“Void Attendant, I’m so sorry!”

“But please, please, please, please don’t come and look for me!”

...

BOOM!

The Forest of Miracles.

The giant foot stomped down and the blood shadows flew across.

Dragon Fighter Hong Dang was a standard Physique Cultivator. His escape Spiritual Technique was not as good as the Double Dumba*s...

After running for so long, he had not even managed to run out of the perimeter of the Forest of Miracles.

Hong Dang, who was bruised and covered with blood, and whose wounds gushed with Holy Power, had gone crazy.

“I can’t die. I can’t die.”

"I've just swallowed the Holy Miracle Fruit. I'm the number one Higher Void level below the Demi-Saint realm. How can I die here?"

"I want to challenge Bazhun'an. I want to tear apart the clothes of that bitch Rao Yaoyao. I want to ruthlessly stomp on Teng Shanhai and treat him like a piece of rag!"

"I want to do that! I want to do that!"

"But..."

"Double Dumba*s... I want, I definitely want to kill you!"

Possessing a Dragon Soul, Hong Dang, who was 100 feet tall, was clearly like a small Giant. He could hold most of the Higher Void Level in the Shengshen Continent in his hands and kick them like a ball.

But now, he had become the ball, as he rolled and crawled under the feet of the three thousand feet tall Void Attendant and was as distressed as a dog.

1328 The Void Attendant, Where's My Medicine? 2

"Thirty feet, hahahaha!"

With another kick, Hong Dang's body exploded, but he was pulled back to his limit by the Holy Power.

He clutched his head, grabbed the eyeball that had fallen out, and stuffed it back in. He kept piecing it back together with the rest of his bloody and fuzzy body.

"Thirty feet!"

"Go to hell!"

"Double Dumba*s... You damn animal, I had no enmity with you in the past, how could you trick me like this!"

BOOM!

Another kick came, and Hong Dang exploded and splattered like mud.

The Void Attendant crossed his arms and looked on mockingly as the ball beneath him exploded and healed, time and again.

It had witnessed the greed of humans.

If he had released the Holy Miracle Fruit, he would have survived and would not have been hunted down.

However, no matter who it was, the first thing they would do after getting the Fruit was to eat it!

The Void Attendant looked at the scene below him and felt that it was absurd.

“Was his life more important, or was the opportunity more important?”

“The so-called opportunities, weren’t they all for the sake of one’s life? Weren’t they all chosen for the sake of having a better life?”

Eat the Holy Medicine and the prize is a tragic death...

Wasn’t this the complete opposite of the goal of these people before they stole the Medicine?

“Sometimes, I really don’t understand humans.”

The Void Attendant kicked the ball repeatedly, trying to kill it.

It liked this kind of fun activity after countless years of peace.

Of course, it would be even better if an Abyss Islander Sinner came back at this time.

They would issue missions, watch the humans fight, and finally be rewarded with a few stones. They would be respected and feared.

The humans were utterly defeated!

“But, why does this person keep saying ‘Double Dumba*s’?”

The Void Attendant stomped on the ground again, his big head looking a little puzzled.

It had just fallen asleep not long before it was awakened by the disturbance. It felt that it shouldn’t have been another thousand years or ten thousand years already, right? Therefore, he could still vaguely remember that ‘Double Dumba*s’ was the name of the guy who was killed by serial number 800820.

“He’s already dead. Does this human hate a dead person?”

“Perhaps it’s because of old grudges that were formed outside the Abyss Island.”

The Void Attendant didn’t think much about it.

As soon as it wanted to issue a mission, it naturally remembered the little Giant with the serial number 800820.

“I miss it.”

“If that sinner turned into a little Giant again and came over to accept the mission to kill this human, how interesting would that be?”

Unfortunately, as he had said before, he would never see him again.

This was because after witnessing his Combat Strength, no human would covet even a weed in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer that was under his protection!

“I’m done. Since there are no other sinners from the Abyss Island, I’ll calm down and go back to sleep.”

With that thought in mind, the Void Attendant no longer kicked the invader under its feet like a ball. Instead, it reached out and grabbed the human who was still desperately trying to repair its broken body.

“Ahhh...”

Hong Dang was still roaring in fury.

He hated it!

He hated the Double Dumba*s, hated the Void Attendant and hated this ruthless world even more!

“You are so noisy.”

The Void Attendant’s crimson eyes moved closer as it buzzed and spoke. Its thunderous voice almost shattered Hong Dang’s eardrums.

“Eh?”

Hong Dang was stunned.

“You can talk?”

“You can communicate?”

His eyes suddenly widened as he thought of how he had almost squeezed out his lifespan in order to escape. He was only hanging on by a thread through the medicinal power of the Holy Miracle Fruit.

And now, the Void Attendant had just told him.

It turned out that both parties could communicate.

“Then, what’s the point of me running?”

“Ah!”

Hong Dang wanted to cover his head, but his hands were tightly bound. He could only roar helplessly.

“If I knew you could talk, I would have told you the truth, how could you chase me?”

“Human, you are the noisiest human I have ever come across.”

It was rare for the Void Attendant to speak so much, because it had never seen such a noisy fellow before. Had this person cultivated all his life and only cultivated the shouting Skill?

“Idiot! You idiot!”

“How can you only speak to me now?”

Hong Dang shook his head as tears of blood flowed down his face.

He was no match for the Void Attendant, but now that he was so close to death, he was willing to mock the Giant even at the cost of his death.

“Heh, so!”

Hong Dang spat at the Void Attendant’s crimson eyes and laughed hysterically.

“Hahahaha...”

“You idiot, you’re really stupid!”

“You brat with well-developed limbs but a simple mind, do you know that you shouldn’t have chased me? You’ve fallen into the trap of the Double Dumba*s. Your house has been stolen!”

The Void Attendant was furious.

He didn’t expect this human to humiliate him with such a powerless physical attack before he died.

“Die,” he said.

His right hand wrapped around Hong Dang's body, and his left hand reached out and directly pinched the human's head.

"Kill me, kill me, hahahahahaha!"

"Kill me!"

"You... Hong Dang's eyes were about to pop out. However, your Herb Garden of Divine Farmer has vanished, if nothing unexpected happened!"

The Void Attendant would never have believed the words of these humans, but at this time, it suddenly had a bad feeling.

"Luring the tiger away from the mountain?"

"His home was stolen?"

The Void Attendant didn't quite understand what this meant.

However, the phrase 'The Herb Garden of Divine Farmer has vanished' was very straightforward, and this he understood.

"You, what are you talking about?" The Void Attendant asked.

"Hehehahahaha!" Hong Dang laughed evilly, not wanting to explain any further.

He was at the end of his life and couldn't live anymore, so he finally used all his strength to roar, "I said, you're an idiot! An idiot with a rotten brain in the Herb Garden! You're unparalleled... Absolute trash!"

1329 The Void Attendant, Where's My Medicine? 3

"Roar!"

The Void Attendant growled in a low voice, completely enraged.

However, before it could twist off the human's head, it sensed that the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer had really disappeared!

It had disappeared without a trace!

It was so sudden!

Even the weeds that grew there had completely disappeared!

"Roar!"

Blood-red light instantly erupted from the Void Attendant's eyes. He exerted force in his right hand and accidentally crushed Hong Dang's body.

At this moment, it seemed to finally understand what this fellow meant when he said 'Lure the tiger away from the mountain' and that his home had been stolen.

However...

"No, that's impossible!"

The Void Attendant was terrified, and his body was filled with killing intent.

It jumped up in a fit of rage and leaped into space. It was about to return to the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer to check on the situation.

Poor Hong Dang's body had been crushed, but he was still alive. His head was still laughing hysterically in the Void Attendant's left hand.

"Hahahaha, why are you so angry?"

"You trash, why didn't you speak earlier? Are you mute?"

"If you had told me earlier, I wouldn't have ended up in such a miserable state. Pfft!"

"You should've gone back earlier to take a look. Hahahaha, but look at your reaction, you're so agitated. You've finally realized that your house is gone! Hahahaha!"

Bang!

The Void Attendant was already furious, so he simply crushed the noisy head.

Higher Void Level, Dragon Fighter Hong Dang, died!

One step, two steps, three steps...

The Barrier of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was still there, and the passage was still there, but the fragrance of the Medicine and the Spiritual Energy had disappeared.

At this moment, the Void Attendant who had returned so hurriedly to the Herb Garden trembled.

He stomped and broke the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer's Barrier, but there was nothing in his sight!

"Medicine!"

“My Medicine!”

The Void Attendant’s vision turned black, and his body swayed, as he almost fell in a fit of anger.

So, these treacherous humans had used the life of an ally to empty the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer that he had protected for tens of millions of years?

There wasn’t even a single stalk of Medicine in front of him. There was only the bed of the Void Attendant that had been widened thousands of times, and only the huge pit that was three thousand feet deep that stretched as far as the eye could see!

“Roar! Roar! Roar!”

The Void Attendant clenched his fists and roared at the sight of the deep pit in anger.

It was angry!

It was furious!

It was full of hate!

“Who was it?!”

The one who carried out such a crime should be hacked into pieces.

If he didn’t die, he should be thrown into the Inner island prison and imprisoned for the rest of his life!

However...

The Void Attendant didn’t even know who the person who emptied the Herb Garden was, what he looked like, or what kind of aura he had!

“Roar!”

The Void Attendant was furious.

It existed solely for the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Now that the object of its protection was gone, how could it survive as a Void Attendant?

“Human!”

“Treacherous human!”

“Roar! Roar! Roar!”

The angry Void Attendant shot up into the endless sky with a bang after he braced his knees.

At this moment, it had a bird’s eye view of the Forest of Miracles.

No matter who the thief was, the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer had been emptied, so he must have been tinged with the aura of the Spiritual Medicine. As long as the Abyss Island did not open for a day, the thief would not be able to escape.

Since that was the case, he could find the real culprit by following the smell of the Spiritual Medicine!

But!

Before that!

As far as he could see, there were still so many humans who dared to wander around the Forest of Miracles.

“Because of the crimes your accomplices have committed.”

The Void Attendant roared, his eyes red with anger and announced, “All humans will be buried with him!”

The Forest of Miracles.

No, that included all the invaders and sinners in the Void.

Now, they were all going to die!

“Roar!”

In the world of Yuan Mansion.

As soon as Lei Xi’er and the cat entered, they were stunned by the grand and spectacular Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

The two of them had lived for so long, as a human and as a cat, but they had not seen even one ten-thousandth of the spiritual herbs in this herb garden.

“Meow!”

Greedy the Cat Spirit looked at the rich vitality breath. It had lost all rationality and jumped up immediately, pouncing towards the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

At this moment, it seemed to have completely forgotten what its master had told it.

It had no choice. The vitality spiritual energy and fragrance of spiritual herbs in front of it were too stimulating. Furthermore, Greedy the Cat Spirit was an alchemy cat.

However, the next second...

“Pia!”

Greedy the Cat Spirit crashed into the barrier that enveloped the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

This was something that Xu Xiaoshou had constructed in the Yuan Mansion world. Without the approval of the world Lord, there was no way to break through.

Naturally, it was to prevent a certain cat from stealing the herbs.

“Meow meow meow!”

It could only look at the herbs longingly from a distance, unable to reach them. This made Greedy the Cat Spirit scratch its head anxiously.

This was too hateful, too hateful...

There were so many treasures in front of it. As long as it ate them all, it might even be able to reach the Sovereign realm.

Greedy the Cat Spirit felt as if it had suddenly grown into a spiritual cultivator of the higher void stage. If it was not careful, it might even break through to demi-saint.

On the other side, Lei Xi'er was also staring at the herb garden in a daze.

She could still vaguely remember the conversation she had with Xu Xiaoshou on the ancient tree outside.

“How much did you get?”

“A little bit.”

Xu Xiaoshou, how was this “a little bit”?

He almost moved the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer over!

“He’s crazy...”

Lei Xi'er calmed down with great difficulty. She walked out of the barrier that surrounded the herb garden. She stretched out her hand to try to break the barrier but found that her right hand had passed through it.

She was stunned for a moment, then her red lips curled up, and she walked into the herb garden with a smile.

"Meow meow meow!"

At the back, Greedy the Cat Spirit was even more frantic after seeing this scene.

Why?

Why could she go in, but it couldn't?

This was not fair!

Lei Xi'er, who had entered the herb garden, had already forgotten that there was a cat behind her. Her attention was completely attracted by the spiritual energy and medicinal fragrance.

"This is crazy..."

Lei Xi'er could not help but sigh.

As far as she could see, they were all holy medicine.

She was just looking for the medicinal fragrance that she had found on Double Dumbass before, which was the Holy Miracle Fruit.

Lei Xi'er found no less than three or four Holy Miracle Fruits!

Yes, because...

It was not the fruit she found, but a fruit tree!

There were more or less five or six fruits hanging on each tree, and there were more than twenty in total.

"This is the Holy Miracle Fruit that Double Dumbass was so desperate to swallow?"

When Lei Xi'er came to the foot of the fruit tree, she couldn't help but reach out to touch the human-head-sized fruit, but she didn't pick it.

She was shocked by the great victory that Xu Xiaoshou's greed had brought.

She also felt that it was not worth it for the likes of Double Dumbass and Hong Dang to pay the price of their lives for a single Holy Miracle Fruit.

This was because this amount of holy medicine was only a drop in the ocean in this new Herb Garden of Divine Farmer in the world of Yuan Mansion!

“Holy Miracle Fruit, Dragon Blood Grass, Black Bodhi Seed, Divine Saint cattail, Nine-Lives Soul Flower...”

As Lei Xi ‘er walked, she kept repeating the names of the holy medicines that she could still recognize. Her mind gradually became numb.

This was crazy!

This was too crazy!

She had received the memory inheritance of the entire Lei family, but even with this vast knowledge base, she still couldn’t find the names of all the holy medicines in the herb garden.

Here, Lei Xi’er only knew about one-third of the herbs.

As for the remaining two-thirds, not to mention seeing them, the entire Lei family had never even heard of them!

“Xu xiaoshou!”

The more she walked, the more shocked she was. The more shocked she was, the more she sighed at Xu Xiaoshou’s madness!

It was really the case of the bold dying from overeating and the small-minded starving to death.

While Double Dumba*s and Hong Dang were still fighting for a single Holy Miracle Fruit, Xu xiaoshou really dared to empty the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Was he really not afraid of death?

Perhaps touching a holy medicine would only attract the attention of the void attendants.

However, Lei Xi’er knew that if the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was emptied, it might trigger some kind of taboo.

For example, Xu Xiaoshou would be locked on by Abyss Island forever, and it would be difficult for him to move forward.

Another example was that if he dared to show his face on Abyss Island again, all the void attendants in the city might wake up and hunt him down.

Although these were all assumptions, what if they were true?

If Lei Xi'er could think of it, she didn't believe that Xu xiaoshou couldn't think of it.

But...

"Xu Xiaoshou, he really dares to relocate the herb garden!"

While shaking her head and sighing, Lei Xi'er unknowingly walked to the center of the herb garden.

Soon, she stopped and stared at the Golden Apricot tree in front of her, which was still standing like a crane among a flock of chickens and shining with a golden light. She was completely stunned.

"This!"

"This is..."

Lei Xi'er looked at the Golden Apricot tree in disbelief, and her God Devil Eyes stopped working in shock.

The apricot tree was more than three meters tall. In the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, where ordinary fruit trees were dozens of meters tall, it could only be said to be unremarkable.

However, the power it emitted was too strong!

It had completely surpassed the level of ordinary holy medicine!

Lei Xi'er felt that even the power of the Holy Emperor was insignificant in front of this apricot tree.

"OWW~"

However, even though they were so close to each other and had yet to touch each other, Lei Xi'er could already hear the illusory Dragon's Roar coming from the apricot tree.

Not only that, but every single one of the apricot trees was perfectly round with mysterious dragon patterns and blurry Dragon shadows. The medicinal power contained within them was a hundred times that of ordinary holy medicine!

The memories of the Lei family's inheritance flashed in her mind, and Lei Xi'er understood what it was.

"Dragon Apricot!"

"How is that possible?"

One of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, Dragon Apricot?!

At this moment, Lei Xi'er was so shocked that she even reached out to hold her head.

Really?

There was a Dragon Apricot in the center of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer?

This was not like the Blood Tree's Yin Branch that she had seen at the Spirit Gem Trade Fair, nor was it like the Bodhi Root that Xu Xiaoshou had obtained but was not sure if it could be kept alive. They were only a small part of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees.

Instead, this was the true body of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, the true body of the Dragon Apricot!

"It's said that when the dragon ancestor of the ten ancient ancestors died, he was too powerful and caused the surrounding area to become one of the Seven Breaks' restrictions, the Dragon Cave."

"And all of its power after it fell was absorbed by this Dragon Apricot."

"Or rather, the Dragon Apricot became a Dragon Apricot because it absorbed so much of the dragon ancestor's power. From ordinary, it became extraordinary!"

"Later on, this so-called 'Dragon Apricot' became the tree of worship for the Dragon Clan in the Dragon Cave."

"Each of its plums will become the 'blessing of the Dragon God' and be given to the best of the Dragon Clan to cleanse their bloodline and obtain stronger dragon power."

"..."

Lei Xi'er walked around the Dragon Apricot, and all kinds of information flashed through her mind.

However, she fell silent as she looked at the hundreds of apricot seeds on the Dragon Apricot.

“How? How is this possible...”

“Didn’t they say that the apricots on Dragon Apricot are very difficult to bear?”

“Also, shouldn’t this Dragon Apricot be worshipped by all the dragons in the Dragon Cave? Why is it in the center of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer?”

“Why is this happening?”

Lei Xi’er held her head and looked at the Dragon Apricot silently. She felt that the world was full of absurdity.

This move by Xu Xiaoshou...

The main body of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, Dragon Apricot, had entered his Yuan Mansion?

“Swish!”

Just as she was deep in thought, the passageway to the World of Yuan Mansion opened, and Xu Xiaoshou entered.

“Meow!”

Greedy the Cat Spirit was the first to discover it. Its eyes lit up, and it flew into the arms of the recipient on the spot.

“Swish swish~”

It kept licking Xu Xiaoshou’s face, trying to please him.

“Meow, meow, meow~”

“Master, master, I’m sick, please let me take the medicine~”

“Move away.”

Xu Xiaoshou threw away the little white cat and looked at the herb garden. He couldn’t help but laugh.

“Swish!”

In a flash, he landed beside Lei Xi’er.

“Sob sob!”

Outside the barrier, Greedy the Cat Spirit helplessly drew circles of curses with his claws.

Damn it, with a new love, he forgot about his old love meow meow meow meow meow...

"How is it?"

Xu Xiaoshou landed and swept his hand over the herb garden. He held his head high and stuck out his chest, looking like he was going to say, "This is the Empire that I have fought for you."

Lei Xi'er looked at the man in front of her and found that there was no blood on his body. After a long time, she said,

"A little bit?"

"Ha." Xu Xiaoshou laughed, "For such a huge Abyss Island, isn't a small Herb Garden of Divine Farmer just a 'little bit'?"

Lei Xi'er was speechless.

So, his ambition was to empty the entire Abyss Island?

It appeared that she was too narrow-minded.

"Cursed, Passive Points: +1,+1,+1,+1"

"Lei Xi'er," Xu Xiaoshou said as he looked at the herb garden. He suddenly became serious and said, "This medicinal garden is big enough, right?"

"Huh?" Lei Xi'er's beautiful eyes looked over, not knowing why he asked this.

"Under the heavens, there is no other world that is larger than my Yuan Mansion, nor is there any world that has more spiritual herbs." Xu Xiaoshou smiled. "Don't you like to grow flowers and trees? There are so many spiritual herbs here. It's enough for you to take care of for a lifetime."

A lifetime?

Lei Xi'er was slightly startled, and then her eyes narrowed as she asked, "Xu Xiaoshou, what are you trying to say?"

Xu Xiaoshou took a deep breath and said seriously, "Lei Xi'er, stay here and become a little gardener in the Yuan Mansion. You should like this place more than I do."

He would always remember what his little Junior Sister had said to him when she had recovered to this state.

After this trip to the Yunlun Mountain Range, she would leave.

Where to?

Revenge.

On Lei Xi'er's shoulders, she would always carry the weight of "revenge". Even if she spent her free time in the Yuan Mansion, planting flowers and trees, she would never forget the tragedy of the Lei family.

Xu Xiaoshou used to think.

Was little Junior Sister really not coming back?

If he let Lei Xi'er absorb a large amount of life force, would it trigger the 'Infant transformation' mechanism and make that innocent and naive Junior Sister come back?

However, the reality was that no matter what, since Lei Xi'er had come out, it was impossible for her to take the initiative to go back.

Since little Junior Sister was a "consciousness" born from her self-protection mechanism when she was a child, in the end, the two were also of the same origin.

Xu Xiaoshou would never forget how happy Mu Zixi had been before she had the identity of Lei Xi'er.

Now, if he could not make Lei Xi'er take the initiative to leave and let Mu Zixi appear, would the two consciousnesses merge and become one after he avenged her?

A single Mu Zixi was not complete, and a single Lei Xi'er was also not complete!

Xu Xiaoshou had already understood that when Lei Xi'er could also have the innocence of Mu Zixi, then this person would be considered complete!

"You, stay here."

Xu Xiaoshou pointed at the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and said, "I'll help you take revenge!"

Lei Xi'er listened silently, her beautiful eyes staring at Xu Xiaoshou without blinking.

She had thought about how Xu Xiaoshou would show off to her when he came in after emptying the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. He would tell her all about the wonderful process of the matter and how smart he was.

She also thought that she had to maintain her cool this time and she couldn't give Xu Xiaoshou a word of praise and let this person become even more arrogant.

However, she had never thought that after entering the Yuan Mansion and the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, Xu Xiaoshou would not mention a single word about this matter. Instead, he would seriously talk to her about "leaving" and "staying."

"Revenge..."

In the past, Lei Xi'er felt that there was no need to involve Xu Xiaoshou in the revenge of the Lei family.

After all, Xu Xiaoshou was too weak. He was still far from growing up.

Furthermore, she, after awakening, had the inheritance of the Lei family, and her growth speed was far beyond Xu Xiaoshou's.

After all, she was already a sovereign, while Xu Xiaoshou was only at the master stage.

However...

Xu Xiaoshou's master stage was no weaker than her, a Sovereign. In fact, it was even more terrifying than an ordinary higher void!

Using the inheritance of the Lei family's memory as a comparison, Xu Xiaoshou's growth rate was probably not inferior to the "Three breaths for innate stage, three years for Sword Deity" of Bazhun'an.

In fact, it was even better than that!

Perhaps he could really help her...

But!

"Xu Xiaoshou, do you know how big the Lei family's enmity is?" Lei Xi'er thought about it and sighed softly.

"I know!" Xu Xiaoshou said without hesitation.

The Holy Divine Palace?

The Five Holy Emperor Aristocratic Families?

Weren't they who he had been fighting against right now?

Even if he was just a chess piece, he would still exert 120% of his power.

Now that he had this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, he was not far from becoming a chess player!

"You've emptied a Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. A void attendant can kill you." Lei Xi'er's tone was heavy, "And the Abyss Island is a prison used by the Holy Divine Palace to imprison demi-saints and Holy Emperors.

She didn't say it clearly.

However, in such an obvious contrast...

One could only imagine how great the gap between the two sides was.

Xu Xiaoshou wasn't discouraged. He smiled and said, "The situation is like this now, but not in the future."

"I'm alone..." Lei Xi'er fell silent as she spoke.

"That's why you need me even more!"

"But on the other side, it's almost an entire world."

Xu Xiaoshou looked at her and calmly shook his head. "Wrong is wrong. Even if you're alone, I'll stand in front of you and fight against the entire world who are in the wrong."

Lei Xi'er's lips curled up when she heard this.

These words sounded like a child in a fit of pique, but Xu Xiaoshou could say them so righteously.

"Just for me?" She smiled faintly, "I'm no longer your Little Junior Sister."

"You may not be anymore, but I will always be your eldest senior brother." Xu Xiaoshou was extremely solemn.

Looking at Lei Xi'er's smiling expression, she was about to speak when Xu Xiaoshou quickly added, "Elder Sang is still in the Dead Sea of Sacred Mountain Gui Zhe. Do you really want to sever your master-disciple relationship with him?"

Lei Xi'er kept quiet.

These words caught her off guard, and she was unable to refute them for a moment.

However, it was because of Xu Xiaoshou's sincerity that she felt that she could no longer maintain her independence as "Mu Zixi" and "Lei Xi'er" in front of this person.

Under the Dragon Apricot, Lei Xi'er suddenly felt happy.

She stopped talking about the serious matter and looked at Xu Xiaoshou with a frivolous smile. She suddenly asked, "So, you relocated this Herb Garden of Divine Farmer for me?"

(Teased, Passive Points, +1)

"Eh?"

Xu Xiaoshou choked for a moment and realized that this wasn't a "tease". The passive system was toying with him!

However, he glanced at the herb garden and thought about this question. He reluctantly replied, "Half, half? I can't give it all to you, I still need to use some holy medicines to upgrade."

Lei Xi'er was speechless.

(Cursed, Passive Points +1, +1,+1,+1)

She looked at Xu Xiaoshou and was completely speechless.

At the same time, in her mind, she was responding to another consciousness that had woken up and was forcing her to ask this question.

"Mu Zixi, Mu Zixi, this idiot was really not worthy of your love!"

"Let's split the loot!"

Leaving or staying wasn't something that could be decided now.

From Lei Xi'er's "complete resistance" to her current "acceptance of help", Xu Xiaoshou finally felt a little more at ease.

This was a good change in attitude.

At least, Lei Xi'er no longer kept people at arm's length.

Little Junior Sister was still the same little Junior Sister. Even if her personality had changed a little, the bond between the two of them could not be easily ended.

However, it was clear that Xu Xiaoshou knew that his current strength was not enough to defend the Lei family from all their mistakes.

Lei Xi'er was right about one thing.

He had indeed emptied the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, but a void attendant was enough for him to die on Abyss Island.

Moreover, the huge Abyss Island was a prison used by Holy Divine Palace and the five Holy Emperor Aristocratic Families to imprison demi-saints and Holy Emperors.

The difference between the two sides were incredibly huge!

Fortunately, this difference was not irreparable.

"It's only a matter of time..."

In the past, Xu Xiaoshou had been short of time. He knew his cultivation state and that resources could be exchanged for time.

However, he also lacked resources and the time to find resources, thus forming a vicious cycle.

It was different now.

This Herb Garden of Divine Farmer could help Xu Xiaoshou grow quickly, allowing him to gain more time to cultivate compared to the Bone Ash Ranked seniors.

"Although I'm at the master stage now, there's almost no bottleneck before I break through to the Sovereign realm."

Xu Xiaoshou turned to look at the herb garden, his heart full of enthusiasm.

Those in the Master stage, Sovereign stage, and the Higher void level would gather the Way of the Heavens into one's body to reach the Holy path. This was the path of promotion for ordinary people.

He was different.

At his current stage as a master, he had already entered the Dao realm that only Sovereign experts could have.

The Way of the Sword, the Way of fire-type Spiritual Cultivation, the way of spiritual array, Divine Secrets, Weaving, and even body tempering. It could be said that Xu Xiao's comprehension of the various great paths was different from ordinary masters and was comparable to Sovereigns.

Breakthrough?

I only need to “eat” you!

“Pluck.”

After picking a Holy Miracle Fruit, Xu Xiaoshou first threw it to Lei Xi’er.

“Do you still have the Saint Refining Pill I gave you? Greedy the Cat Spirit has already tested the pill, and in theory, there should be no problem. We’re short of time now, so hurry up and eat it.”

He didn’t know how crazy the void attendants would be now that the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer had been emptied.

However, the Yuan Mansion was independent of the world of Abyss island, so it was unlikely that the void attendants would be able to find him.

Since that was the case, he should take advantage of the time to quickly grow before the void attendants went crazy!

Who knew if his ability to escape would greatly increase after that?

With that in mind, Xu Xiaoshou picked another Holy Miracle Fruit for himself.

The rich medicinal fragrance was refreshing. Before swallowing it, Xu Xiaoshou, who was already close to the perfection of his master stage, once again felt the faint strength of a breakthrough when he first entered the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“Is this the treasure that Double Dumba*s and Hong Dang risked their lives to obtain?”

The Holy Miracle Fruit was the size of a human head. If one looked closely, one could see a large number of mysterious Saint runes gathered in it, and it gave off an alluring fragrance.

For such a treasure, he had a herb garden.

Xu Xiaoshou felt like he was in a dream.

On the side, Lei Xi’er caught the Holy Miracle Fruit that was casually thrown to her. Then, she glanced at the Dragon Apricot that was emitting a bright golden light behind her. The corners of her mouth could not help but reveal a playful smile as she said, ”

“Xu Xiaoshou, did you forget to look around for other treasures in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer? Are there any other treasures that are better than this fruit?”

(Teased. Passive value +1.)

“Huh?”

Xu Xiaoshou looked up hesitantly, “Treasure? Other than the Holy Miracle Fruit, what other treasures are there?”

The corners of Lei Xi'er's lips curved, but she held back her smile. She turned her head to look at the Dragon Apricot behind her. “Here, this is it.”

She didn't believe that Xu Xiaoshou really didn't notice the Dragon Apricot, one of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees!

This tree was clearly emitting such a dazzling golden light, so resplendent and dazzling.

“What is this?”

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes finally moved away from Lei Xi'er's face and looked at the other “treasures” in the herb garden except for the Holy Miracle Fruit in the cognitive world.

“Dragon Apricot! One of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, the main body!” Lei Xi'er's tone was no longer calm.

In fact, she didn't need to say anything. With just one look, Xu Xiaoshou already had all the information about Dragon Apricot in his mind.

“Dragon Apricot, an apricot tree that bears fruit every three thousand years.”

A Dragon apricot is sweet, and the flesh is refreshing. It can strengthen one's body. If one consumed 99 Dragon apricots, they can obtain the power of the Dragon ancestor.

“Using dragon blood to water the Dragon apricot can shorten the time it takes for the Dragon apricot tree to bear fruit.”

“These are some of the uses of the Dragon apricot. It can be used to make true Dragon Bone soup, Dragon Blood Powder, a feast of all Dragons, juice and blood to make the ‘Golden Red Dragon drink’, and dessert after meals...”

A dazzling amount of information appeared in Xu Xiaoshou's mind after he glanced at the tree of Dragon Apricot.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

What?

One of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, the Dragon Apricot...was in his Yuan Mansion?

“Is this true?”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately put down the fruit of the Holy miracle. His eyes widened, and he walked towards long Xing in disbelief. He reached out, wanting to touch this dream-like existence.

In his Yuan Mansion, he still had the Blood Tree’s Yin Branch and the Bodhi Root!

However, the effectiveness of these two items currently seemed to not even be comparable to a single Dragon apricot!

Although the introduction of Dragon Apricot in ” cooking proficiency” was very strange, Xu Xiaoshou could catch the key points in a short time.

“Body strengthening!”

Even if it was just a rough summary of words, Xu Xiaoshou could see the shocking effect of these simple words.

Wasn’t this the nature of a passive system?

The Dragon Apricot was described as “strong”, ” sharp”, “recoil”, and so on, but what came with this description was definitely an extremely terrifying effect!

All of a sudden, Xu Xiaoshou recalled the time at Eighth Palace.

At that time, Cen Qiaofu, who was at the higher void state, had used a small Yin branch of the Blood Tree to resist hundreds of white-clothed people, several higher voids, a Divine Puppet that could release its battle form, and Yu Lingdi...

It had also forcefully delayed Bazhun’an for a long time!

After the incident, Cen Qiaofu didn’t die or get caught. Although he was seriously injured, he had successfully escaped!

He didn’t think much of it in the past.

Looking at it now, this battle prowess was simply ridiculous to the extreme!

There were no ordinary people in the higher void level, and the white-clothed cultivators of the Holy Divine Palace were the elites of the elites. Furthermore, there were also the Divine Puppets, who were said to be able to rival all existences in the higher void level and could temporarily fight against demi-saints!

In the face of all this, Cen Qiaofu resisted.

Other than the fact that his own combat strength was indeed outrageous, it was only because he had the support of the Blood Tree's Yin Branch.

A tiny branch from the blood tree, one of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees, could bring about such a terrifying increase in combat strength.

Wouldn't the Dragon Apricot of the Dragon Apricot tree be equivalent to converting this increase in combat strength into an increase in cultivation energy?

"One Dragon Apricot should be equivalent to the increase in combat power of one Blood Tree's Yin Branch, right? It should be the permanent kind."

"If that's the case, how much of an improvement can all the Dragon Apricots here bring me?"

Xu Xiaoshou thought about this as he touched the Dragon Apricot tree with a trembling hand. At the same time, he saw the hundreds of Dragon Apricots on the tree crown.

Ah.

Was this the fragrance of a Sovereign realm?

Damn it, why did it smell so good?

"..."

Lei Xi'er looked at Xu Xiaoshou's intoxicated posture and suddenly felt that it was absurd.

Xu Xiaoshou had never been so obsessed with her.

Yet in front of a tree, this guy seemed to have just seen a real treasure.

How funny!

"That's because you're too bad. If it were me, Xu Xiaoshou would be happier than seeing the Dragon Apricot!" In her mind, the voice of a cute little loli suddenly flashed.

Lei Xi'er's delicate body stiffened, and she hurriedly looked at Xu Xiaoshou. She found that this guy was still immersed in the fragrance of the Dragon apricot and did not hear this sound, and immediately relaxed.

"Little lass, it's time to sleep. If you say a few more words, you might faint again." She laughed in her mind.

“Thief!” In the dark space of consciousness, a little loli in a green dress and two ponytails put her hands on her hips and said angrily, “You took over my body while I was asleep, you thief! Now that I’m awake, give me back my body!”

“...” Lei Xi ‘er’s vision turned black. She helplessly held her forehead. “You played by yourself until you fainted. If I didn’t come out to take over, this body would have died long ago. Are you blaming me?”

“I don’t care, you’re a thief!”

“It’s time to sleep, little sister~”

“Hmph, you better pray that you don’t get hurt, or I’ll come out!”

“That’s impossible.”

“I’m hungry, you better take in a few more breaths of vitality spiritual energy!”

Lei Xi’er laughed and conjured her figure in the space of consciousness. She looked down from above, bent over, and said with a smile, “Do you think I’ll fall for it?”

“Ahh!” The loli screamed, “When did I ever become your little sister? Shut up! Quickly go and eat the Holy Medicine! Even if you eat all the Holy Medicine in this herb garden, Xu Xiaoshou won’t blame you!”

“Oh?” Lei Xi’er pinched her chin, her beautiful eyes narrowed, and said playfully, “This is also your body. Do you still want to become smaller?”

“Uh!” The little loli was suppressed. She held her head and looked at her curvaceous body in front of her, which was outlined by the black dress. She only felt a suffocating feeling.

“I just couldn’t control my mouth in the past. Now that you’re whining, then, then eat half? Just half will do!”

“Not a single one. I won’t be fooled.”

“Hey! Damn it, damn it, hurry up and eat. If you don’t eat, I’ll make noise in your mind. Anyway, this is how you used to make noise in my mind! Vixen!”

Lei Xi’er was dumbfounded.

Vixen?

Why was she scolding herself?

Also...Lei Xi'er didn't disturb her before. After the little loli woke up, she only gave her a few reminders when she was in danger. She treated the loli with much respect.

Now that she had woken up, she had said more than what Lei Xi'er had ever said.

Yet she still wanted to argue?

"You should sleep."

Lei Xi'er didn't want to argue anymore and left the space of consciousness.

"Ahh!"

In the darkness, there was only a little loli with two ponytails left. She was kicking her feet on the ground in the dark space. "Damn it, damn it, damn it...Xu Xiaoshou, my Xu Xiaoshou... Sob sob, quickly return my Xu Xiaoshou... Xu Xiaoshou, hurry up, hit her!"

Lei Xi'er was speechless.

So noisy!

She didn't have to care about her image just because Xu Xiaoshou couldn't see, right?

Lei Xi'er felt embarrassed for her!

Lei Xi'er tried her best to get rid of the noise in her mind. She glanced at Xu Xiaoshou, who was still immersed in the Dragon Apricot and decided to leave quickly.

Before, she thought that staying by Xu Xiaoshou's side might be a good choice. However, now, she felt that this plan might not work.

As long as she saw Xu Xiaoshou, her other self would go crazy!

She glanced at the Holy Miracle Fruit and was about to put it down when her mind exploded. She cried out strangely. Lei Xi'er's beautiful eyes widened, and she took a deep breath. She gritted her teeth and said, "Fine! I'll eat it!"

"What did you just say?"

Xu Xiaoshou finally recovered from his state of mind and turned around.

"It's nothing."

Lei Xi'er's heart tightened. She held the Holy Miracle Fruit in her hands, not daring to look at him. She turned around and said, "I'll go eat the fruit first..."

However, just as she finished speaking and her body had not completely turned away...

Lei Xi'er suddenly stepped forward and leaned close to Xu Xiaoshou's face. Her breath smelled like orchids as she whispered in a seductive tone, "Xu Xiaoshou, am I beautiful?"

???

(Seduced. Passive points +1.)

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes widened. He felt the heat coming from his ear, and his pupils lost focus for a moment.

"Thud."

His fingers loosen, and Holy Miracle Fruit fell to the ground.

"You, what, what do you mean?" Xu Xiaoshou placed his hand on Lei Xi'er's forehead and asked.

With a swoosh.

The moment Lei Xi'er was touched by him, it was as if she had been electrocuted, and she instantly retreated a few steps.

As soon as the words left her mouth, she actually recovered and her face turned red on the spot. After a long time, even her ears were so hot that they were about to bleed.

"I'm, I'm sorry. Recently, I've been having some mental problems..."

Tap tap tap tap.

Without further explanation, Lei Xi'er did not dare to stay for even a second longer. As she left quickly, she wanted to scold Mu Zixi in her mind.

"Mu Zixi!"

However, after a pause, Lei Xi'er did not scold herself like Mu Zixi did. She only helplessly advised.

"I advise you not to cause any more trouble. I'm telling you, you've just woken up. If you want to control this body by force, you'll only waste a lot of energy."

"Hahahahaha!" In the dark space of consciousness, only the little loli's joyful laughter could be heard.

Fun, really fun!

Xu Xiaoshou really fell for this!

Lei Xi'er was silent. She quickened her pace and only wanted to leave.

She couldn't stay in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer for a moment longer.

Xu Xiaoshou...also had to leave quickly!

After the battle at Abyss Island, they should part ways immediately. If they stayed any longer, something would definitely happen!

Looking at the graceful back of the figure who was leaving in a hurry, Xu Xiaoshou's soul couldn't return to his body for a long time. After a long time, he seemed to remember something and asked,

"Lei Xi'er, are you really alright? Your forehead is very hot, are you feeling unwell?"

"I'm fine," She said. Lei Xi'er didn't even turn her head as she threw out these words.

"You definitely have a..."

Before Xu Xiaoshou could finish his words, he saw the figure in front of him, who was about to leave, stop in his tracks. In a flash, she was in front of him again.

She then leaned forward and returned to her previous charming appearance, smiling sweetly, "Xu Xiaoshou, between the ancestral tree, Dragon Apricot, and I, who is prettier?"

Xu Xiaoshou was speechless.

The last time he was teased like this, he didn't have time to react.

This time, he widened his eyes in disbelief and saw it very clearly.

The delicate and pretty face in front of him still had some residual blush on her cheeks.

Her long eyelashes were trembling slightly. Her God Devil Eyes were no longer mysterious. They were filled with the clearest and most direct expectations and nervousness.

"Thump thump thump thump thump"

His heart suddenly beat faster.

(Enticed. Passive points +1)

“Gulp~”

Xu Xiaoshou’s adam apple rolled, and he subconsciously blurted out, “W-what do you mean?”

“Ah!”

After Lei Xi’er finished asking, she suddenly screamed.

Her voice was so high-pitched that it almost pierced people’s eardrums, interrupting Xu Xiaoshou’s following words.

In the next second, it was as if all the blood in Lei Xi’er’s body was flowing backward, rushing to her face. Her shame and embarrassment turned into a blood-red color, almost overflowing.

“Xu Xiaoshou! Don’t answer my question!”

With a stomp of her feet, she created a crack in the ground of the Yuan Mansion.

However, the crack was too small. In a flash, Lei Xi’er disappeared from the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Xu Xiaoshou was dumbfounded.

“But, that’s a question you asked yourself...”

As the master of the Yuan Mansion, he easily saw Lei Xi’er flash to the broken tower of the original Zhang Mansion’s Hidden Scriptures Pavilion. Then, she shrank into a corner, hugging her knees and facing the wall, her expression unclear.

“What’s this?”

Xu Xiaoshou was confused.

He did not understand, but he was greatly shocked.

Why? This didn’t seem like something Lei Xi’er would ask.

Wait a minute!

“Between XXX and I, who is prettier? Isn’t this the little trick I used in the Spirit Palace to pull Little Junior Sister’s wool? Why would Lei Xi’er ask such a shameful question?”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly realized that this was the key point!

In the past, when he had free time to ask his Junior Sister this, he would definitely get a bunch of “cursed” words. Now, Lei Xi’er was also asking this question. Did it mean that...

Little Junior Sister has returned?

1336 Oh ~~~~ 1

“Gulp, gulp~”

His stomach was sending out a signal that he was craving the Holy Miracle Fruit.

Xu Xiaoshou took back the Holy Miracle Fruit and glanced at Lei Xi’er, who was still ‘cooling down’ in the broken tower. He frowned and pondered, but he did not go over to disturb her.

If Little Junior Sister had really returned, then Lei Xi’er’s body should be able to produce Little Junior sister’s voice?

...Just like how he would occasionally hear his Little Junior sister’s voice.

However, the current situation was that even if Lei Xi’er was acting strangely, she would still use her tone to say what Little Junior Sister would say.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that perhaps it wasn’t that his Little Junior Sister had returned, but that Lei Xi’er had been affected by another consciousness, and had become even more deeply affected.

Or perhaps it was because...

Little Junior Sister had woken up, but not completely?

“Gulp, gulp~”

His stomach once again sent out a signal of hunger and thirst.

The fragrance of the spirit herbs in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer was constantly stimulating one’s sense of smell.

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and stopped thinking.

“What’s the point of thinking so much? Those who should return will return!”

“But now, if I don’t eat a few Holy Miracle Fruits, I’ll be letting down my brother Hong Dang’s hard work!”

Back to reality.

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the Holy Miracle Fruit in his hand and couldn’t help but salivate.

When fighting Double Dumba*s, his opponent was on his last breath, so even with the Holy Power, he could not withstand the attack of Xu Xiaoshou, who was no stranger to the power of Holy Power.

However, this did not mean that the Holy Power was not strong!

As long as he ate the Holy Miracle Fruit, even if it was in the memory of Double Dumba*s, where 99% of its power would be wasted, it would still produce a thin holy power.

It was equivalent to the moment when the Holy Blood was consumed and the demi-saint’s power was attached to the body.

Furthermore, as time passed, this wisp of Holy Power would grow on its own until an ordinary person consumed the Holy Blood, resisted the power of the Holy Blood, and completely mastered the Holy Power.

Most importantly, the increase brought about by the Holy Blood would disappear, and it would be accompanied by great side effects.

The Holy Miracle Fruit would not!

“Double Dumba*s wasted so much of the medicine and still managed to struggle on whilst at death’s door. He had a few chances to escape from death. If his opponent wasn’t me, he might have really escaped.”

“Now that I’m no longer being chased by the void attendant, I can absorb the power of the Holy Miracle Fruit 100% using the breathing technique. How much power will I gain?”

The head-sized Holy Miracle Fruit looked at Xu Xiaoshou and suddenly, it seemed as if it had a demonic smile and was saying, “Come on, eat me, do you dare to eat me? Once you did, you’ll die from contentment!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s expression was fierce. After doing enough mental work for himself, he finally gritted his teeth and decided to try it as soon as possible. He didn’t want to give the Holy Miracle Fruit any more chances to show off.

He held the fruit between his nose and mouth.

“Come on!”

“Let the storm come more violently!”

“Hiss~~~”

He swallowed it in one gulp.

The Holy Miracle Fruit turned into two tornadoes of spiritual energy and entered Xu Xiaoshou’s mouth and nose.

“Yes,”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly stood up straight, closed his knees, put his hands on his thighs, and twisted twice as if he was trying to hide his pain.

“Uh-huh~”

He tried his best to suppress his bright expression, shackling his face. His whole body was stiff, and he tried hard to suppress all the desires that were trying to bloom.

“Sizzle...”

Suddenly, all the pores on his body opened.

A rich medicinal fragrance gushed out from every part of Xu Xiaoshou’s body. He turned into a leaking leather ball and shot into the sky.

The breathing technique was still in operation.

As he couldn’t bear to miss any of the medicinal power, Xu xiaoshou absorbed the dissipated medicinal power back into his body.

This time, he couldn’t take it anymore.

The double assault made every part of his skin sensitive.

The moment he was launched into the air, his skin came into contact with his clothes, and he felt goosebumps all over his body. Then, pleasure filled his mind, and comfort filled his consciousness.

He could no longer control his image.

“Mm~~~~”

“Oh~~~~”

“Heavens! Don’t, don’t do this, I’ll break...”

Outside the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, Greedy the Cat Spirit was envious as it watched the recipient eat the holy medicine.

Seeing this, the little white cat was so frightened that it stood up on its hind legs, its tail high in the air, and its two small front paws kept scratching the air.

Poison?

It turned out to be poison!

No wonder master didn’t allow it to eat the fruit. So this was what happened after one ate this poison?

“Pa pa pa pa!”

Xu Xiaoshou fell from the sky and hit the ground, then bounced up and flew into the sky.

The cycle repeated endlessly.

He was like a human-shaped pile driver. Every time he fell, he would smash a deep pit.

The skin that touched the ground instantly felt a large amount of “comfort”, like a cat who had swallowed catnip, drank a basin of cold water, and finally inhaled a few mouthfuls of cold air in the North Pole.

He was in a state where he was feeling the happy coldness in the heat of the holy medicine’s power.

This intoxicating combination of Ice and Fire attacked the soul again and again as if it would not stop until it smashed the person.

“Too much, too full...”

The power of the holy medicine was too strong. It’s not something that the spiritual cultivation pill and the origin court pill can compare to.

Xu Xiaoshou’s remaining consciousness was filled with regret. He felt that he shouldn’t have been so impulsive to directly absorb the Holy Miracle Fruit.

However, his body was honest.

Clearly, he only needed to release some of the holy medicine’s power from his pores to alleviate this feeling.

However, Xu xiaoshou refused.

No matter how much or how full he was, he could rely on his willpower to resist and eat it all!

Overflow?

That was impossible!

Every meal on the plate was so hard to obtain!

1337 Oh ~~~~ 2

“Meow, meow, meow~”

Outside the enchantment of the Herb Garden Divine Farmer, Greedy the Cat Spirit looked worriedly at the recipient bouncing back and forth on the ground and in the sky. There were no springs installed, so how could this be?

It was too terrifying.

This poison was too terrifying.

Greedy the Cat Spirit had never seen a human who could beat its master so miserably.

Perhaps people couldn't do it, but medicine could!

“Meow, meow, meow~”

Greedy the Cat Spirit was anxious.

It was worried, but it couldn't enter the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

After thinking about it, the only person who could save its master was the mistress.

Thus, Greedy the Cat Spirit looked for a while more before running quickly into the broken tower. He bit the clothes of the mistress and pulled her out, signaling for her to come out and save its master.

Human lives were at stake!

Lei Xi'er returned to the herb garden and looked at Xu Xiaoshou, who managed to get himself into such a situation. She fell silent for a while.

When she was reflecting on her mistakes in the broken tower, he was enjoying himself here?

(Cursed. Passive points +1, +1,+1,+1)

“Don’t worry about him. He’s a happy person. He is able to fly due to taking some medicine. You’ll get used to it.”

After carrying Greedy the Cat Spirit away, Lei Xi’er no longer looked at Xu Xiaoshou.

She had already known about this.

Even if it was the first time she had seen such an exaggerated ‘back and forth bounce’, with Mu Zixi’s memories, Lei Xi’er knew that Xu Xiaoshou was someone who would often do this.

It was not uncommon at the Spirit Palace!

“What a freak.”

With a red face, she snorted and turned to leave.

However the next second, she stopped. She took out the image recording bead and aimed it at the scene of Xu Xiaoshou happily bouncing. She squatted down happily and recorded it.

“Hehe, for the 1321st time, I have successfully recorded it!”

“Tsk, tsk, this time you’re really perverted. Oh, Xu Xiaoshou, Xu Xiaoshou, when you become famous, I’ll be the only one who knows all of your dark past.”

“When the time comes, I’ll collect these image-recording beads one by one and call Zhou Tianshen and Xin Gugu to come over to watch.”

With a swoosh.

After recording for less than three breaths, Lei Xi’er suddenly sobered up. She stood up in disbelief and gave herself a hard slap.

What was she doing!

Lei Xi’er’s face turned red.

It was fine that Xu Xiaoshou was doing such a shameful thing, but she was also recording such a shameful thing. This action itself was even more shameful!

Moreover, Xu Xiaoshou’s current state...

Just by looking at it, she already felt that it was abnormal, so how could she record it?

“Puff...”

Lei Xi'er let out a heavy breath and forced herself to calm down. She was about to leave.

But then she looked around and saw the dense fog around her.

It was obvious that Xu Xiaoshou couldn't notice any outsiders, and there was no one else in the Yuan Mansion.

“There's no one else other than me. It's not too much to record this, right?”

Lei Xi'er couldn't believe that without the interference of another consciousness, she would have such an absurd thought.

She rubbed her burning face and thought about it. The Holy Miracle Fruit had become dull.

In the end, she finally followed her inner thoughts, squatted down, and placed the image-recording bead back in its original position.

“Meow~”

Greedy the Cat Spirit called out curiously, not understanding what was going on.

“Don't say anything!”

Lei Xi'er's delicate body trembled. She was clearly shocked. She patted her chest and turned around to find that it was a cat. She thought for a moment and reached out to cover the eyes of Greedy.

“Child, don't look.”

“You'll be silenced.”

...

“The sky is so blue...”

“The clouds are so white...”

“The breeze is so warm...”

Under the effects of the Dragon Apricot, the corpse-like Xu Xiaoshou was paralyzed in the deep pit. His whole body was powerlessly stuck to the ground, not daring to move.

He looked at the sky and continued to be in this state of emptiness. It had already been more than half a day.

In fact, he had completely absorbed the medicinal power of the Holy Miracle Fruit in less than 15 minutes.

However, he had yet to recover from the aftereffects of absorbing the fruit using the breathing technique.

"It's been so long, it should be about time?"

He tried to move his fingers again, but this one move moved his entire body. The touch of his fingertips made his forearm tremble. Then, his body moved, and he once again came into intimate contact with the ground.

"Ah..."

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes rolled back, and white foam frothed at his mouth.

(Stimulated. Passive points +1)

Two streams of tears flowed down.

"Why?"

"Why is it that I've only swallowed one Holy Miracle Fruit of Herb Garden Divine Farmer and I'm already suffering from such a severe side effect?"

"How long will it take for me to eat until it ends?"

He had originally wanted to eat the Holy Miracle Fruit and the 99 Dragon apricots to try out the effects of the 'power of the Dragon ancestor'.

He didn't expect that

One Holy Miracle Fruit was a sure kill!

Xu Xiaoshou, who was in saint mode, could only sob.

"Sob sob!"

Thud.

A fragrant wind came from his side, and suddenly, a black figure appeared in his vision. Then, with her silver hair, Lei Xi'er, who was dressed in black, looked down and smiled. "Xu Xiaoshou, you still haven't recovered?"

“Still...ah...”

As soon as he opened his mouth, Xu xiaoshou began to foam again. He could only send a message helplessly through telepathic communication, “There’s still another wave...”

Lei Xi’er smiled.

What kind of physique was this?

Why did Xu Xiaoshou become so cute after taking drugs?

She crossed her arms and squatted down, looking at the extremely weak face with a smile. Suddenly, a cunning look flashed in her eyes. She reached out and gently poked Xu Xiaoshou’s cheek.

“Urgh urgh.”

Sure enough, Xu Xiaoshou made another groan.

1338 Oh ~~~~ 3

Lei Xi’er covered her mouth and laughed. What kind of freak was this? She had never seen him so weak even in a fight. How could he be so weak after eating a Holy Miracle Fruit?

(Teased. Passive points +1)

“Don’t mess around...”

Xu Xiaoshou was going crazy. He couldn’t resist physically, so he could only refute through telepathic communication.

Lei Xi’er didn’t say anything. She smiled and poked Xu Xiaoshou’s arm again.

“Urgh urgh urgh...”

(Teased. Passive points +1)

She then poked his stomach...

“Urgh urgh urgh...”

(Teased. Passive points +1)

And she continued to poke...

“Lei Xi’er, have you had enough? Hurry up and eat the Holy Miracle Fruit!” Xu Xiaoshou transmitted his voice in anger, but he did not dare to move a finger.

“I’ve already finished eating.” Lei Xi’er tilted her head and chuckled. “I’m not like you. How can you become like this after eating a Holy Miracle Fruit?”

“I...” Xu Xiaoshou was unable to refute her. “How much did you absorb? Is Saint Refining Pill of any use?” He tried to change the topic.

“It’s useful, but I can only absorb 60 – 70% of it. It’s a waste when I think about it.”

“Fortunately, Greedy had absorbed all the medicinal power, but it has not produced any Holy Power. I think it must eat the core of the Holy Miracle Fruit to produce Holy Power.”

Lei Xi’er conjured a pale white Holy Power, but she did not release any pressure. She then gently poked Xu Xiaoshou’s face.

It was soft and no longer piercing.

In the past, it would hurt, but now that she had the Holy power, he would not be injured at all. It was really fun.

(Teased. Passive points +1)

“Urgh urgh...” Xu Xiaoshou wanted to cry but had no tears.

Why was it that...

She could already start to adapt to the Holy power after eating the fruit, but he, Xu Xiaoshou, still have to lie down and be teased.

This was not fair!

The Breathing Technique was to be blamed!

“Stop playing around and let me go, will you? After eating the Holy Miracle Fruit, go eat the Dragon apricot. This will be good for you too.” Xu Xiaoshou cried as he sent a voice transmission.

“I need to rest for a while before eating.” Lei Xi’er shook her head. “The power of the Holy Miracle Fruit is huge. I’ve only just started absorbing it. I still have to spend time stabilizing my realm.”

“You broke through?” Xu Xiaoshou was shocked. If a Sovereign wanted to break through, next would be the Cutting Path Stage. She had reached it so fast?

"It's not that exaggerated. The Holy Miracle Fruit only changed the strength of the body and widened the energy reserve, making the Sovereign realm more secure. If one wants to break through to the Cutting Path Stage, one still has to rely on their comprehension of the Way of the Heavens." As Lei Xi'er said this, she leaned forward and pinched Xu Xiaoshou's cheek.

She pulled.

"Duang~"

The meat bounced back.

(Humiliated. Passive point +1)

"Urgh..."

Xu Xiaoshou was about to let her be, but when he looked at the message bar, he was exasperated. "Hurry up and get lost!"

"Oh?" Lei Xi'er's brows raised high. "You still dare to shout at me in this state?"

She reached out her hands and pinched both of Xu Xiaoshou's cheeks, pulling them gently.

"Urgh urgh urgh..."

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry..." Xu Xiao couldn't help but apologize.

Lei Xi'er finally felt that her cheeks were starting to heat up. She took advantage of the fact that Xu Xiaoshou was still croaking like a goose and didn't notice.

She quickly dusted her hands and got up. Like a person on a mission, she left quickly without saying a word.

"Is that enough? Are you satisfied now? Can you stop arguing now?" As she retreated back into the broken tower, Lei Xi'er rubbed her red face and couldn't help but think in her mind.

In the dark, a little loli in a green dress was jumping around with her two ponytails in her hands, smiling so brightly that her eyes were like crescent moons.

"Enough, enough. This is the feeling. I finally got it back. I'll let you off today!"

"It's a pity that I can't do it myself. But this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, so I can only let you take advantage of it."

“Oh, I’m sleepy again...”

“What ‘I am you, you are me’ nonsense...” Lei Xi ‘er patted her face, quickly cooling down, and then said in a bad mood, “Quickly go to sleep, who cares about this feeling?”

There was finally no more noise in her mind.

Lei Xi’er calmed down, spread out her ten fingers, and silently sized him up.

Their consciousnesses were connected, and so were their emotions. naturally, she could feel the joy of that emotion.

Don’t say.

Xu Xiaoshou was indeed easy to pinch without the thorns.

In the dark, Lei Xi’er’s red lips curled up as she rubbed her fingers and laughed silently.

“Meaty and soft...”

After mumbling, Lei Xi’er sobered up in an instant. It was as if she had been splashed with ice water, and her face once again returned to its cold state.

“No, I can’t stay by Xu Xiaoshou’s side anymore. I’ll be affected by her, and something bad will happen...”

“Hundreds of lives from the Lei family, the Dao clan of the Holy Emperor Aristocratic Families...”

“Also, the demi-saint Dao Xuanji...”

She reached out and pressed her chest, feeling the thumping of her heart. Lei Xi’er looked up in silence.

Looking out from the darkness, the only source of light in the Yuan Mansion was a corner of the window frame.

Clearly, everything had not ended yet.

Mu Zixi can smile because she hasn’t accepted her, Lei Xi’er, and doesn’t understand all the darkness of the past.

“What about me?”

Lei Xi’er clenched her fists, and her God Devil Eyes became extremely heavy. Even this pair of eyes had been given away by her brother in order to save her!

Lei Xi'er pursed her lower lip, her expression was one of struggle and pain.

She knew everything.

How could she still laugh?

Within the deep pit.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't know how much time had passed.

In any case, after he finally regained some mobility, he immediately used his spiritual source to float in the air. At the same time, he maintained a friendly distance between his clothes and his sensitive muscles so that they would no longer rub against each other.

Now, he finally had some free time to take a good look at the effects of the Holy Miracle Fruit.

"What realm am I at?"

After eating the Holy Miracle Fruit, Xu Xiaoshou's body bounced back and forth between the sky and the ground, he didn't even know when he had broken through.

Logically speaking, the path principle comprehension brought about by a grandmaster's breakthrough should be quite great.

Unfortunately, these path principle comprehensions paled in comparison to the pleasure presented by the 'Holy miracle Fruit' and the 'Breathing Technique'.

"The path is intangible. If it is divided into yin and yang, it becomes right and wrong, one and two, a circle and a square, with squares and edges, shape and corners."

"To determine black and white, to prove heaven and earth, to remember the past and the future, to judge the disharmony of time and space."

"They are called water and fire, metal and wood, wind and thunder, light and darkness.

"It can be said that all the contradictions in the world come from the heart, and the world is forever defined!"

"..."

The path principle comprehension that came late was not washed away by the pleasure. It only settled in the depths of his mind.

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou was enlightened by the path principle comprehension. He immediately understood that he had broken through to the Yin Yang State of the master stage and entered the Way of the Heavens.

Yin Yang State of the master stage was based on one's heart. One could observe the Way of the Heavens and use it to lay the foundation for one's future path.

However, Xu Xiaoshou could find similar comprehensions in the sword technique expertise of the sovereign level.

The 3,000 Way of Sword encompassed everything.

This was not any weaker than the Way of Spiritual Cultivation, and it was the mainstream of the previous era.

Therefore, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had only relived his knowledge of the Way of the Heavens. In other words, he had switched from the perspective of observing the Way of the Heavens from the Way of the Sword to the perspective of the Way of Spiritual Cultivation.

Review the old to learn the new.

When he opened his eyes again, there was still nothing in front of him.

Xu Xiaoshou felt like he could see the rules of the world.

One by one, they formed the order of the Heavens, just like the Divine Path Principles that Yu Zhiwen could see with his divine secret ability in the White Cave.

"So if this ability is further evolved, it'll be similar to the state of being able to contain the Way of the Heavens and Unity of Man and the Heavens?" Xu Xiaoshou said thoughtfully.

Using his mind to observe his energy reserve.

At this moment, his energy reserve had been expanded greatly, like a vast ocean.

Heavenly Image State allowed his energy reserve to have all the phenomena of the world. It could produce all kinds of illusions such as tides, storms, and tsunamis. It did not have any actual offensive effect, but it had the preliminary form of the world in his energy center.

The Yin Yang state, on the other hand, made the world in Xu Xiaoshou's energy center more vivid with the Way of the Heavens, rules, day and night, right and wrong.

However, it still didn't have any substantial effect.

In the end, Grandmaster was just laying the foundation for the Sovereign realm and the explosive power of one's abilities after the Cutting Path stage.

During this period, the stronger one's path principle comprehension was, the higher the chances of a Sovereign realm comprehending the Upanishad of spiritual cultivation. After the Cutting Path Stage, one's battle prowess would be even more terrifying.

However, from a Grandmaster's perspective, the most practical effect of each breakthrough was only a huge change in the quality and quantity of the spiritual source.

That was all.

"I've become stronger again, but not by much."

Of course, this was only in comparison to the Sovereigns and Cutting Paths.

Looking at his energy reserve being expanded by more than ten times, Xu Xiaoshou clearly felt that his energy reserve at this level was not inferior to a Sovereign. He might not even be inferior to a Cutting Path.

In the past, he had to measure the range and the number of times to use 'take the easy way out', and take into account 'Eternal Vitality', 'High Spirits', 'transformation', and so on.

Now, however, it seemed that there was no longer a need?

Unless it was an exaggerated space teleportation that crossed a county and a world, his energy reserve would probably not be exhausted.

This was obviously not the increase in the spiritual source that a Grandmaster Yin Yang state could bring.

"Only the Yin Yang state?" Xu Xiaoshou frowned.

The biggest disadvantage of using the Holy Miracle Fruit to break through was that he could not suppress his realm and he did not know how many rounds he had broken through just now.

He was already at the peak of celestial cultivation. If a Holy Miracle Fruit could only help him break through to the Yin Yang state, Xu Xiaoshou could not believe it.

"Starlight..."

Upon closer inspection, above the energy reserve, not only were there the phenomena of the heavens and earth, the Way of the Heavens of Yin and Yang, but there were also speckles of Starlight that were not eye-catching.

Xu Xiaoshou finally understood.

He searched his memory again, and as expected, he found another Way of Heaven's comprehension that had been washed away by the pleasure.

Damn it, he hid it so deeply. Was it he who was breaking through, or was it someone else? how did he break through without even knowing?

He picked it up and started reading.

"The stars in the Nine Heavens, divined as unknown, struck with one's heart, illuminating the vast universe..."

"Three thousand worlds, found with spirit, up and down, all four directions, from ancient times to present, glorious..."

"The realm of energy reserve, the myriad of stars, the universe, the universe, destroy the stars to obtain..."

The decadent Taoist music flowed in his ears.

After a short pause, Xu Xiaoshou recovered from the state of enlightenment.

"Star Worship State!"

"So it turns out that I'm already at the Star Worship State..."

If one was to say that the path comprehended by astronomical phenomena and Yin and Yang was based on the embryonic form of the world in the energy center, then one would be able to form an illusory divine kingdom in one's heart.

Then the star seminary drew upon the power of the Nine Heavenly stars.

Up and down, the four directions were the universe, and the past and present were the universes.

This could be explained as the world of his divine kingdom had taken a preliminary form when it broke through to the Star Worship State. It was determined to be the foundation for the future 'bounded domain' and the 'Higher Void World'.

As for the Energy Reserve realm, it was a myriad of stars.

It could be understood that the heart of the world is one, and the vast and invisible three thousand worlds represented by the stars were called the universe.

I cultivated a realm, but the myriad of stars still exist.

The power of ten thousand worlds could not be achieved by human strength.

I was the only one who had cultivated one realm, but tens of thousands of realms still existed. It was not something that one realm could resist, nor could one person resist the power of thousands.

“The stars represent the unknown...”

“This means that even if I cultivate the Energy Reserve into a Bounded Domain or the Higher Void World, I’ll still only walk on one of the paths of Saints, the Way of Spiritual Cultivation.”

“And those stars that represent the unknown are another path, the cultivation path leading to the Demi-Saint and the Holy Emperor?”

The more Xu Xiaoshou thought about it, the more he felt that the Way of the Heavens was broad and profound.

With the tens of thousands of Spirit Cultivators on the Shengshen Continent as the foundation, and at the cost of countless years, the world had finally managed to figure out how to refine the Spiritual Cultivation in the era before the decline of the Way of the Sword.

This could be used to become a path of a Saint, and it was closer to the trend of the times, so it could become the mainstream.

However, this was only one path. Just because no one in the world had found another path, it didn’t mean that it didn’t exist.

The thousands of Great Paths would be there forever, waiting quietly.

They were just waiting for a genius from a certain era to unearth them and reveal them to the public.

This other Path was a star in the sea of Energy Reserve. If it surpassed the Way of Spiritual Cultivation, the next era might arrive soon!

“But it’s too difficult.”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and sighed.

Why else would the unknown be greatly feared?

What was even more terrifying than this was that what he knew was minimal when he saw the sea of stars and the vastness of the universe just as he stepped into the threshold. When he realized that he would never be able to reach this realm in his life, he felt depressed.

‘When one understood the path in the morning, it was fine to die in the evening.’

In a dazed state, Xu Xiaoshou seemed to understand why there was such a phrase.

He looked at the stars in his Energy Reserve and realized that they were great ways to the Great Paths of the Saints. They were not weaker than the Way of the Sword or the way of Spiritual Cultivation. He then realized how insignificant he was.

‘Sending mayflies to the heavens and earth, it is merely a drop in the ocean.’

There was a limit to one’s strength, and geniuses like Bazhun’an who could reach the peak of the Way of the Sword and the Way of Spiritual Cultivation were already very rare.

Find another path and create... No! How could one person find another path to become a Saint?

After one had survived an era, they might be able to succeed!

‘I mourn the fleeting moment of my life, and envy the infinity of the Yangtze River. I know these things cannot be obtained suddenly, the sad wind sounds...’

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and sighed with emotion. He was not moved by ‘Infinity’ and ‘Future’, and he quickly recollected himself and calmed down.

‘3000 weak water, but only one scoop is enough.’ There are many beautiful things in life, but to hold on to one of them is enough.

Since he could attain the Saint realm by using both the Way of Spiritual Cultivation and the Way of the Sword, he just had to focus on one of them.

To be able to attain these two realms, he had to be a genius that surpassed an entire era.

He wasn’t one of those inflexible academics. Why would he waste his time on meaningless stuff to discover another path for others?

Xu Xiaoshou admired these people.

However, he knew that he could not become such a person.

Therefore, he decided to freely walk the path left by his predecessors. If he could master it, he would find another way, which was appropriate for him.

“I’m already at the Star Worship State without my knowledge.”

“Breakthroughs are like flowing water, it happens inadvertently.”

After he collected his thoughts, Xu Xiaoshou felt slightly inspired.

From the Master Stage Heavenly Image State to the Master Stage Star Worship State, he was only one realm away from the Sovereign Dao realm. This speed was indeed fast.

Of course, he couldn’t be compared to a freak like Lei Xi-er.

Xu Xiaoshou was quite satisfied with the breakthrough of his current realm.

However, even though he was satisfied, he still couldn’t help but feel puzzled.

“That’s not right. Even in the ancient times, the Holy Miracle Fruit was a treasure that only people of the Higher Void level could enjoy.”

“After being used by a mere Master Stage, why did he only manage to break through two Sub-levels?”

“Moreover, the Star Worship Stage hasn’t reached its Final Stage yet. It’s only the beginning?”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at his Energy Reserve again.

His Energy Reserve surged continuously.

It looked extraordinary, but it was only a thin layer of water at the foundation of the widened basin. There was still a long way to go before it was full.

This preliminary judgment was that he was only at the Early Stage of the Star Worship State, which was a huge gap from the Final-Stage of the Star Worship State that Xu Xiaoshou had expected.

“Is it because my Energy Reserve is too big and the Holy Miracle Fruit can’t fill me up?”

“It’s not to the extent of being awkward.”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head.

“Even for Sovereign Dao Realm, the Holy Medicine could bring about a qualitative leap, not to mention a Master Stage Sub-level.”

“The Holy Miracle Fruit must have other powers. Someone must have secretly eaten it!”

It looked like he broke through from Heavenly Image State to the Star Worship State, but it was actually just from the peak of Heavenly Image State to the Early Stage of Star Worship State. How could the energy of the Holy Miracle Fruit only fill up the Yin Yang State?”

“So, there’s a thief in my body!”

Xu Xiaoshou quickly locked onto his target and viciously sized up the treasures above his Energy Reserve.

There were too many thieves in his Energy Reserve such as the Infernal Original Seed, the Three Days Frozen Calamity, the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake, his own Sword Cognition, his uncle’s Sword Cognition and the White Light Bead from the Wretched Saint who had been shifted above his Energy Reserve...

It was fine to steal some power from the Holy Medicine!

But if you steal it, you have to give me some feedback, or I’ll kill you!

Xu Xiaoshou looked around at all the treasures that he was familiar with before, and his attention was quickly attracted to a source of Saint power.

“Holy Power!”

His eyebrows shot up and he was overjoyed.

This wisp of Holy Power was brought by the Holy Miracle Fruit, and it appeared in his Energy Reserve as expected.

“Come on, let’s do a test first!”

Xu Xiaoshou immediately ignored everything else.

Holy Power!

This was something that the Double Dumba*s and Brother Hong Dang had dreamed of!

After obtaining it, one could become a Demi-Saint at the Higher Void level.

Xu Xiaoshou had self proclaimed himself as the No. 1 Master Stage below the Demi-Saint level for a long time. He felt that at this stage, only Bazhun’an, who was still at the Master Stage a few decades ago, could challenge him to a fight.

But with the Holy Power, it was a different story.

This was the real Demi-Saint below the Master Stage!

Bazhun'an at the Master Stage level?

He was just a toy!

With a single thought, he activated his Holy Power.

Xu Xiaoshou opened his eyes and a sharp light flashed in them.

“Swish!”

In the Yuan Mansion, a majestic pressure descended from the sky.

At this moment, the wind blew, the Spiritual Medicine bent, the poisonous fish hid, and the sand and stones trembled.

Even Ice and Ember, who were in the neighboring space, sensed something and growled softly.

“Swish!”

“Roar!”

It was a level of power that could suppress anyone and any creature below the Demi-Saint level.

Ice and Ember looked around in shock and fear. Finally, their eyes locked on Xu Xiaoshou in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

“Wuwuwu?”

Ember struggled to straighten his body and scratched his head curiously.

“Wasn't this the ability of the guy I killed before? My owner has it too?”

“And looking at this pressure, it seemed to be more powerful than those so-called assassins?”

“Can this even be compared?”

Feeling Ember's thoughts, Xu Xiaoshou laughed.

He had swallowed one hundred percent of the Holy Miracle Fruit, while the Double Dumba*s had wasted ninety-nine percent of their power!

The initial Holy Power energy that the two of them had been waiting for was not on the same level at all!

Xu Xiaoshou had never specifically suppressed this pressure on a specific person. Otherwise, even a giant like Ember would have to kneel down if he was caught off guard.

“It’s quite strong, but it can’t compare to the Holy Blood for now.”

Clenching his fist and feeling the Attribute of the Holy Power, Xu Xiaoshou came to a preliminary conclusion.

The Holy Blood was the pure power extracted from a mature Demi-Saint. Generally, those who took it might also have a Saint Statue.

However, the accompanying Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit was only brought by a small Holy Medicine. It was at the Innate Stage which was weaker than a real Demi-Saint, so how could it be compared?

Of course, it was not fair to compare the Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit with the Holy Blood of a real Demi-Saint.

You can’t become a Demi-Saint even after eating 100 Holy Miracle Fruits. How can you compare the Holy Power of one of these fruits with the Holy Blood of a Demi-Saint?

This was not a joke!

The Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit was originally used to show off one’s superiority to those below the Demi-Saint level!

“Hehe, I’m so strong.”

Xu Xiaoshou thought and laughed.

He did not value the power of his own Holy Power at the current stage, although it was still Holy Power after all, and should not be underestimated.

But what he was really interested in was the growth of the Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit.

“It’s just as I thought. After becoming a part of my body, not only can the Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit grow on its own, but it can also be affected by passive skills which speeds up its self-cultivation!”

He looked at the Holy Power in his Energy Reserve, which constantly drew power and accelerated its growth from ‘High Spirits’, ‘Eternal Vitality’, and his own qi and blood due to the existence of ‘Transformation’.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that the Cutting Path Stage and Higher Void level cultivators on the Abyss Island were finished.

“How could it take months or even years to reach the peak of power after consuming the Holy Blood?”

He had so many passive skills, and with ‘Transformation’ as the medium, this Holy Power could grow, split, and grow to a terrifying level in a few days, right?”

If you still think it’s too slow...

One had to consciously consume the Holy Medicine. Even if it was a waste of the medicinal power, one had to maintain their consciousness and then use ‘Transformation’ to transfer all the energy to the Holy Power.

“Ha..ha..ha...ha...”

Xu Xiao Shou laughed in an abnormal manner.

He was sure that if he really did this, he would be able to create the number one Master Stage Demi-Saint in a few hours. He would be able to consume Holy Blood all the time and be in peak condition without any side effects!

Xu XiaoShou?

No, no, no, no, my name is Xu Mengshou!

Cutting Path Stage?

Higher Void level?

It’s a different story if you have the Holy Blood, but if you have the Saint Statue, please take another path.

But if you don’t have...

I’m sorry, if you meet me in the future, take a detour, okay?

Otherwise...

All of them were toys!

In the end, all of them would die!

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly stood up, flicked his sleeves, and stuck out his chest. “What I’m fighting for is the suppression of resources!”

In the next second, Xu Xiaoshou, who had forgotten to keep a distance between his clothes and his sensitive muscles due to his pride, suddenly fell from the air.

“Bang!”

“Er...er...er...er...”

“I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I was wrong, I know I was wrong.”

“So, are there any Elixirs that can heal sensitive muscles? Waiting online, very urgent! It’s very urgent!”

“Bang!”

The Yuan Mansion exploded, and Xu Xiaoshou clutched the newly-developed Elixirs in his hands excitedly.

Numbing Elixir, a fifth-grade Grandmaster Elixir, used to treat sensitive muscles.

“It’s called an Elixir, but it’s actually a poison. Its main effect is to numb the body and reduce the sensitivity. It can only be used in conjunction with the Breathing Technique.”

“If anyone else takes it, they might die on the spot, hehe.”

Xu Xiaoshou carefully examined the Numbing Elixir. After some thought, he summoned Greedy the Cat Spirit. With a first-grade Spiritual Medicine as an exchange, he easily turned the ‘white cat’ into a ‘white mouse.’

“Meow...”

Poor Greedy the Cat Spirit was not aware of anything at all. It had been bribed with a stalk of Spiritual Medicine. It consumed the Elixir in high spirits and then fell to the ground, its mouth covered with white foam.

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the little fat cat, who did not use his ‘Swallow’ power and now lay paralyzed on the ground and he fell into deep thought.

“Damn, it’s indeed a little poisonous.”

“But if I can neutralize it with my body, it should be able to remove the ‘sensitivity’, right?”

It had been a long time, but the after effects had not been removed. Xu Xiaoshou was still weak. Under such circumstances, he no longer hesitated. As he stared at the sluggish state of Greedy the Cat Spirit, he gritted his teeth, took out another Numbing Elixir and swallowed it.

After all, if he had this sensitive body, not to mention meeting a Void Attendant after he left the Yuan Mansion, he could run into anyone, or even be blown away by the wind.

As long as he failed to control his clothes, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he would be charged in half a second!

Half a second.

That long!

At that time, he would probably not even know how he died!

As soon as the fifth-grade Numbing Elixir entered his mouth, it immediately turned into poisonous gas that invaded his entire body. Xu Xiaoshou felt that he was about to react.

In the next second, the 'Transformation' noticed the invasion of the Yi energy, so it directly turned the poisonous energy into a non-attribute Spiritual Source and injected it into his Energy Reserve

Xu Xiaoshou : "???"

"Damn!"

"I took so much effort to develop this Poisonous Pill, and you destroyed it so easily?"

He tried another one and found that as long as there was any Yi energy introduced to the body, it would trigger the passive 'Transformation' skill.

The reason why it was called a passive skill was that Xu Xiaoshou couldn't control the 'On' or 'Off' aspect of this skill.

"Detestable!"

Xu Xiaoshou gnashed his teeth in anger.

The peerless Elixir had just appeared and it died just like that?

This was really terrible news.

The only benefit he could get from the Numbing Elixir was that as long as the 'Transformation' skill was there, he wouldn't have to fear most of the Poisonous Pills and poison energy attacks in the future.

"Forget it, forget it."

Xu Xiaoshou's resistance was futile, and he could only let his sensitive body continue to be sensitive.

He did not make any more unnecessary attempts and continued to study his Energy Reserve.

After he broke through to the Star Worship State, his Holy Power would emerge, and his title as the number one Master Stage below the Dem-Saint realm would remain as such.

However, the Holy Power was only the inevitable power that came with eating the Holy Miracle Fruit. Xu Xiaoshou did not forget that most of the other powers of the Holy Miracle Fruit had not been added into his cultivation. It must have been stolen by some thief in his Energy Reserve.

"Who could have stolen it?"

He thought deeply about it and he placed the blame squarely on the Infernal Original Seed.

In the White Cave, Xu Xiaoshou had used the power of the Wretched Saint to suppress this treasure.

At the end of the Conducting Alchemy convention, when he received the champion's reward, the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake, also known as the 'little Heavenly Flame', Xu Xiaoshou discovered the power of this little Heavenly Flame was actually slightly comparable to the Infernal Original Seed.

The Infernal Original Seed was almost equivalent to the Three Days Frozen Calamity which was equivalent to the power of the true Heavenly Flame.

The Heavenly Flame was also born from the Ashvatta, one of the Nine Great Ancestral Trees. Theoretically speaking, it should not be inferior to a Saint Stage treasure. How could it be equal to the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake?

In the past, Xu Xiaoshou could only use the power of the two treasures, the Infernal Original Seed and the Three Days Frozen Calamity, which were barely at the Cutting Path Stage.

The greatest advantage was to make use of the calamity power of the Three Days Frozen Calamity and the Infernal Original Seed. It was a very good springboard for him to jump levels and for fights.

Finally, with the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake as a comparison, Xu Xiaoshou had obtained true powers such as the Infernal Original Seed and the Three Days Frozen Calamity. He should still be in a sealed state.

Just like the Demi-Saints in the Shengshen Continent, ordinary people could not catch a glimpse of them in their entire lives.

For example, Sovereign Stage treasures could be seen frequently, but Saint Martial Art and Holy Weapons were rarely seen.

Take the 21 Famed Swords as an example. In theory, all of them were able to perform the Heavenly Unravel. However, up until now, Xu Xiaoshou had not seen even one person who could comprehend the Heavenly Unravel power of the Famed Swords and erupt with the Saint-Stage Combat Strength that the so-called famed swords had.

“The treasure is concealing itself?”

With this understanding, Xu Xiaoshou went to observe the state of the Infernal Original Seed and was shocked to find that the Energy Reserve...

“What’s going on?”

What he observed was that what the Infernal Original Seed emitted now was a kind of sporadic Calamity Power unlike in the past.

On the contrary, the Cutting Path’s calamity aura was too strong!

Not only that, but this seemed to be just the beginning.

From the core of the Original Infernal Seed that was like a compressed sun, he could feel a supreme power that was no less powerful than the Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit.

“The Saint Stage power!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes widened in disbelief.

“So, the Infernal Original Seed secretly stole the medicinal power of the Holy Miracle Fruit and unlocked the hidden attributes of its own treasure, and bloomed with the true light of its Saint Stage Supreme Treasure?”

“Or could it be?”

After he thought about it carefully, Xu Xiaoshou came up with another possibility.

“Was it because I unleashed the full power of the Infernal Original Seed when I fought with Double Dumba*s? Is that why its seal broke and it’s showing off its strength now?”

Above the Energy Reserve.

The Holy Miracle Fruit's accompanying Holy Power, the Infernal Original Seed and the Three Days Frozen Calamity were now like a three-legged tripod stand.

Perceptibly, with the Infernal Original Seed and the Three Days Frozen Calamity as the main force, even the Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit was slightly weaker.

Below that was his Uncle's Sword Cognition and Xu Xiaoshou's own Sword Cognition, that he cultivated himself and also one that had not taken part in any competition before, might contain the will of the Wretched Saint, which was also the white Light Bead of the Great Infernal Ancestor.

"He must have eaten the medicinal power in order to break the seal!"

When he thought of this, Xu Xiaoshou immediately rejected his second conclusion.

If the Infernal Original Seed's edges were so sharp, he thought it could be due to the Double Dumba's full power.

But...

The same went for the Three Days Frozen Calamity!

This true Heavenly Flame now exuded its true power.

More than one-third of the area above the Energy Reserve was dyed an icy blue.

"I didn't really use the Three Days Frozen Calamity. I cooperated with Ice to fight the Double Dumba's so it can have a better eruption. The seal couldn't have been broken because of a fight."

"So, like the Infernal Original Seed, it surreptitiously ate most of the Holy Miracle Fruit's 'medicinal power', which was why my cultivation level was unable to break through to the final-stage of the Star Worship State."

"In the end, it was given to me as the 'Infernal Original Seed' and 'Three Days Frozen Calamity', which completely released the power of the Saint-Stage treasure?"

Xu Xiaoshou's index finger manifested the power of the Infernal Original Seed, which was a kind of Holy Power fluctuation.

Then, the power of the Three-Day Frozen Calamity appeared on his middle finger, which was another kind of Holy Power fluctuation.

Later, the power of Holy Miracle Fruit's accompanying Holy Power appeared on his ring finger, and it still had the Holy Power fluctuation!

A total of three Saint-Stage powers. If they were to be compressed and detonated...

Xu Xiaoshou was ecstatic!

This deal was simply too advantageous!

The Holy Miracle Fruit's medicinal power?

Eat it!

Eat whatever you want! Just eat!

I still have an entire garden of Holy Medicine!

However, after he ate just a small amount, the power of the two Saint Stage treasures was completely released, which was a pleasant surprise.

Before this, the only things that Xu Xiaoshou had that were related to the word 'Saint' were the Holy Statue and the Holy Blood that Elder Sang gave him.

Now, a single Miracle Fruit had three additional Saint Stage powers!

"Cool!"

He looked at the three super Saint seeds that were compressed on his three fingers.

Xu Xiaoshou thought of a Spiritual Technique that had accompanied him for a period of time in the past, but was later eliminated due to his rapid progress.

"Seeds on All Five Fingers!"

Now, with three fingers, he had three Saint Stage powers. He was still short of two...

"Oh,"

His ring finger twitched.

It could reach the level of the second generation's Penetrating Divine Senses and suppress the power of the Saint Stage. However, because he had not cultivated it for long, it could not compare with the power of the Saint Stage for the time being. However, the Sword Cognition that could kill anything under the Demi-Saint realm turned into a Sword Cognition seed and jumped out of his fingertips.

"Oh,"

His thumb twitched again.

The Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake, also known as the 'little Heavenly Flame' which was only one level weaker than the Saint Stage, turned into another Fire Seed and jumped out.

"Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

The refined power had just appeared at the tip of the five fingers, and the surrounding air exploded. Even the space around the fingers had faint black spatial cracks.

"How terrifying!"

Xu Xiaoshou's eyelids twitched.

He had just turned his imagination into reality. He had just condensed five seeds of power and had not done much power compression, friction, and fusion yet.

Xu Xiaoshou felt that the explosive force contained in it was far beyond any explosion he had ever created!

However, on second thought, it seemed to be true.

The Holy Blood could only grant the user a Saint Stage power.

In his own body, the accompanying Holy Power of the Holy Miracle Fruit was not lesser than this.

Now, he had also added two more versions of Infernal Original Seed, which were comparable to the peak power of Holy Blood, the Saint-Stage power of the Three-Day Frozen Calamity, and the pseudo Saint Stage powers of the Sword Cognition and the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake.

"It's not too much to call you the 'Seeds on all Five Fingers' Saint, right?"

Xushou's face was filled with fanaticism, like an artist who had seen the most beautiful art.

He felt that if this attack were to hit any Higher Void level, it would be no different if he were to squeeze five different drops of Holy Blood at the same time, and then let all his emotions erupt with one blow.

"Who can take this?"

Xu Xiaoshou felt that his own body could not even take it, let alone others.

Even if he didn't use the Seeds on all Five Fingers technique, he could feel that his body would be blown to pieces by the backlash of the power.

It was just like how he had used the power of the Saint Statue to receive Teng Shanhai's Xiao Divine Spear in Dongtianwang City.

"Buzz..."

The residual power of the five energy seeds rubbed against each other, which generated electricity in the Void and sparks flew out.

Xu Xiaoshou could feel that his fingertips were in the midst of a reincarnation, as it repeatedly cracked and healed in turn.

"There's still something missing."

His lips pursed, Xu Xiaoshou was still not satisfied!

When he thought of Teng Shanhai, he thought of the possibility that if he used this move, he would be the first to die.

Naturally, he also thought of the Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand that he had subconsciously used when he took the Xiao Divine Spear.

It came from Elder Sang, who had taught him this unique skill that had made him famous in the Eighth Palace.

Later on, because it was too profound, he thought that he would need to level up his 'Cooking Expert' skills a little before he could master it.

However, when he fought with Teng Shanhai, the Saint Statue of the Nine Dragons Burning the Ancestor opened. The moment he connected to the Holy Path, Xu Xiaoshou was enlightened and instantly displayed the Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand.

The Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand, which could only be unleashed after he compressed all of the power of a Spiritual Cultivation, was the toughest in the world!

It was so tough that Xu Xiaoshou's entire body shattered when he received the Xiao Divine Spear from Teng Shanhai. However, he still had one charred arm left. He grabbed the Xiao Divine Spear and pulled it over.

Then, he used the power of the Saint Statue and instantly repaired his body.

Therefore, using Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand to perform the Saint Holy Seeds on All Five Fingers was the best combination, and only then could he produce the most incomprehensible single-point explosive power in history!

Thinking about it this way.

The 'Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hands' that he had not taken out for a long time was drawn out from his memory with a single thought.

"Chi Chi..."

Under the Dragon Apricot.

The wind blew, and the sleeve of Xu Xiaoshou's right arm was incinerated and reduced into ashes.

Then, the entire back of his arm seemed to have been baked by the rays of an extremely strong sun. In the blink of an eye, it became charred and cracked, but it was extremely hard!

"Swish..."

The vast power in his Energy Reserve bottomed out instantly.

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes flashed with a streak of madness. He wanted to test the power of this attack!

The moment the Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand was finally formed, the power of the Saint Seeds on All Five Fingers came into contact, rubbed against each other, then compressed into an absolute Saint seed from the five divided seeds.

"BOOM!"

The Herb Garden of Divine Farmer suddenly exploded.

Large amounts of Holy Medicine, first and second grade Spiritual Medicine flew into the sky. Even the Dragon Apricot shook a few times.

Xu Xiaoshou's face twitched. He hurriedly retracted a portion of his strength, and used the spatial power of his Yuan Mansion to replant the Spiritual Medicine and Holy Medicine, before he flew up into the sky.

He didn't want to blow up the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer just because he was testing his own Spiritual Technique.

"This is crazy!"

"This move is even more terrifying than a forbidden technique. It's comparable to a Saint Martial Arts! Or a self-created Saint Martial Arts!"

Xu Xiaoshou's clothes fluttered in the wind as he flew up into the sky. His charred right arm emitted a gray destructive aura.

In the Collapsed Tower, Lei Xi 'er had decided that she wouldn't be in contact with Xu Xiaoshou for a while.

At this moment, her right eyelid suddenly twitched violently as her Perception felt a terrifying power fluctuation. It was as if the Void Attendant had come to the door and forced his way into the Yuan Mansion.

Her form flickered and in a flash, she immediately went outside.

When she raised her head, she saw Xu Xiaoshou in the air, a crazed look on his face with his charred right arm raised high in the air, as if he was about to blow up the entire Yuan Mansion.

“?? ?”

Lei Xi-er was stunned.

“Xu Xiaoshou! Are you crazy?”

Her beautiful eyes widened and she said in disbelief, ” “What are you doing? Are you trying to kill everyone here?”

Lei Xi 'er simply couldn't believe her eyes. Xu Xiaoshou, who stood high in the sky, was surrounded by a dense gray aura.

This was the destructive aura!

It was an absolute destructive power that could only be produced when the two extreme forces of collision erupted at the same time.

During Mu Zixi's time, because she was always in the Yuan Mansion, she was too bored and would often ask Xu Xiaoshou to share with her the scenes outside the Yuan Mansion.

Thus, Lei Xi 'er had seen this destructive aura before!

However, that was in the White Cave. After the Frozen Snow Mountain and the White Lava underground were both unsealed by that idiot Xu Xiaoshou in the Spirit Fusion Swamp, the super big explosion was triggered, and this destructive aura emerged!

At that time, the destructive aura was an area-of-effect attack, and the explosion was delayed, so it was limited to a single target. Thus, Xu Xiaoshou was able to escape into the Yuan Mansion in time.

And now...

Xu Xiaoshou's charred right arm, with the five energy seeds at his fingertips, were simply a compressed version of the explosion at the Spirit Fusion Swamp!

No!

It was even stronger than that!

In terms of a single-shot explosion, even a Higher Void level would probably be killed with one hit, right?

The more Lei Xi 'er thought about it, the more agitated she felt. Xu Xiaoshou had only made a small breakthrough to the Master Stage level. He had not even reached the Sovereign Stage yet. How could he have created such a thing?

How did this guy manage to develop another kind of terrifying explosive force in the short time that he was gone?

Was his surname really Xu?

It should be 'explosion', right?

The most important thing was...

Why did he do such a research and even tried to blow up his Yuan Mansion?

Was Xu Xiaoshou in a bad mood?

Just because I suddenly ignored him?

The flowers and grass in the Yuan Mansion, Ice, Ember, Greedy the Cat Spirit, as well as the other living things and inanimate objects, were all innocent...

"Eh, where's Greedy the Cat Spirit?"

Lei Xi 'er was keenly aware that something was wrong.

With such a destructive force, Greedy the Cat Spirit should have come out to stop the fight. Where did he go?

However, the situation was urgent, and Lei Xi 'er couldn't think too much. She leaped up and flew in front of Xu Xiaoshou.

"Xu Xiaoshou, stop!"

"I'll agree to your request. I won't leave for the time being... hurry up and stop your stupid move!"

“The Yuan Mansion is innocent!”

“Ah?”

Xu Xiaoshou, who hovered in the air, was stunned.

“I was just testing a new move, how did it have anything to do with you?”

However, it was rare for Lei Xi-er to make a promise. “Wasn’t this a good thing?”

Xu Xiaoshou seized the opportunity and quickly tried to withdraw the five energy seeds in his hand. He nodded and said, “You said it, ha ha.”

Before he could finish his sentence, Xu Xiaoshou realized something, much to his shock.

He could not take back the five energy seeds that had been condensed!

A surge of power erupted in the air. Lightning and sparks were faintly visible within this destruction aura, as if they would explode in the next second.

Lei Xi’er’s face was solemn. She didn’t care about anything else and took the lead, “Withdraw your Godhood abilities.”

Xu Xiaoshou had even used his Breathing Technique, but he found that his Sovereign Stage Breathing technique had reached a bottleneck for the first time.

He could slowly absorb the power of Sword Cognition and the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake.

However, it could not absorb even half of the other three Saint Stage powers at all!

“I-I can’t take it back.”

Beads of sweat seeped across Xu Xiaoshou’s forehead, and he was about to use his Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand to wipe his sweat. Fortunately, he discovered it in time and resisted the urge.

“You can’t take it back?” Lei Xi ‘er glared at him. “You can’t take back your own power?”

“Wasn’t this the result of the extreme compression? It’s beyond my control!” Xu Xiaoshou was also flustered. “Wasn’t this the same logic as conducting Alchemy? If I had perfect control over the Elixirs, why would there be a cauldron explosion?”

“If you can’t control it, why did you do all this?” Lei Xi ‘er felt her vision going dark.

“Since this move came out, I don’t intend to take it back,” Xu Xiaoshou said as if it was a matter of course. “The more unstable the power of an explosion is, the better it is. Why do I have to be able to control it before I create it?”

“I...”

Lei Xi-er choked.

“What you said makes so much sense!”

Cursed. Passive Points: +1, +1,+1,+1...

“Bang Bang Bang!”

The area where the void shattered grew larger and larger, and more and more sweat beads appeared on Xu Xiaoshou’s forehead.

He was really about to lose control of the power in his right hand.

“You can’t throw it!”

Lei Xi-er saw Xu Xiaoshou’s intention and hurriedly stopped him.

This technique was too terrifying. His Yuan Mansion hadn’t even fully formed yet, he really couldn’t withstand it.

“If I can’t throw it away, what should I do?”

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned. He felt that he could throw it away.

His Yuan Mansion had already evolved. It wasn’t so weak that it couldn’t even handle three Saint-Stage powers in the zone and two pseudo-Saint-Stage powers.

Perhaps it could, but the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer would definitely be affected.

Lei Xi-er looked down.

These were all Holy Medicines. Under the impact of the aftermath of the explosion, the entire medicine garden would probably be reduced to nothing.

As for throwing it far away...

Once the Saint-Stage powers combined and exploded, what would be considered a far distance?

Lei Xi-er and Xu Xiaoshou were completely ignorant of this.

Was the Yuan Mansion big?

Big!

However, to a Saint-Stage power, it was not explosive enough!

“Throw, throw it outside?” Lei Xi-er said after a moment of silence.

She suddenly felt that she had been corrupted. She had actually gotten used to this kind of mindset where she would put her own interest before others.

If the Yuan Mansion couldn’t handle this move of Xu Xiaoshou’s, then the Abyss Island definitely could. If it didn’t work, he could find a Void Attendant and throw it at its head so it could eat it... this should work, right?

“We won’t be able to leave the Yuan Mansion.” Xu Xiaoshou shook his head.

To exit the Yuan Mansion, one needed a Spatial Passageway. If he were to enter the Spatial Passageway with a nuclear bomb in his hand, wouldn’t the Spatial Passageway collapse in an instant and he would be lost in the Spatial Fragment?

“Then what should we do?” Lei Xi ‘er looked around, infuriated at Xu Xiaoshou’s constant antics in the Yuan Mansion.

“Damn!” Xu Xiaoshou wiped his sweat with his other hand as his brain worked quickly. Suddenly, his eyes lit up and he said excitedly, “Greedy the Cat Spirit! Greedy the Cat Spirit has the Swallow Attribute.”

“Shut up!” Lei Xi-er rebuked him.

“How could Greedy the Cat Spirit withstand such a terrifying move?”

“Wouldn’t it be blown to pieces from inside out?”

Cursed. Passive Points: +1, +1,+1,+1...

Xu Xiaoshou was stuck in a dilemma.

He felt that Lei Xi ‘er was overthinking things. He was just a tiny Master Stage. Even if he had broken through to the Star Worship State, he shouldn’t be able to destroy the entire Yuan Mansion with a single move.

But since the other party didn’t allow it, Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t do anything.

“I can’t hold it any longer!”

“Look at me,” Lei Xi ‘er suddenly spoke, and a white Holy Power appeared on her body. At the same time, her God Devil Eyes began to spin at high speed. White mist dispersed from her left eye, and her entire body emitted a Godhood radiance, like a fairy from heaven.

“What are you doing? Don’t provoke my precious seeds.” Xu Xiaoshou panicked.

It was already very difficult for him to control the five powers. If Lei Xi-er were to interfere, he would not even be able to use the ‘Saint Seed on All Five Fingers’ and then there would be two more corpses here.

“I’ll use the power of Godhood to help you control your power. You throw them one by one, try to suppress the explosion as much as possible, and then throw them far away! Lei Xi ‘er gritted her teeth, and a white Reborn Lily bloomed beneath her.

With just a glance, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly felt his soul being cleansed and his mind cleared up. Even his control of the power over his opponent had improved a lot.

At this moment, he felt that the five precious seeds in his hand had quietened down.

As long as he wanted to, he could merge all five of them together and fulfill his dream and make them become one.

“Your God Devil Eyes have such an ability?” Xu Xiaoshou was surprised, and his voice became excessively overbearing. “I feel that the last step can be done. I can fuse them!”

“Fuse?” Lei Xi ‘er suppressed the urge to curse with great difficulty. “You can fuse, but what about after the fusion?” I asked you to throw them away one by one, not to continue your research!”

As soon as she became angry, the Holy Power energy in her body became unstable.

Her God Devil Eyes became unstable, and so too with her Godhood power. Xu Xiaoshou felt the spiritual cleansing of his soul slowly dissipating and he was about to lose control over the power in his hands.

“Calm down, calm down!”

Xu Xiaoshou jumped in fright, and didn’t dare to play around any longer. He hurriedly took advantage of Lei Xi ‘er’s help with his control and instantly arrived at the edge of the Yuan Mansion.

After that, he carefully peeled off the five energy seeds and threw them into the Chaotic Mist, one by one.

“BOOM!”

The first explosion came from the energy seed of the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake.

The black shattered space that covered a thousand miles even swallowed up a lot of the Chaotic Mist. Xu Xiaoshou's eyelids twitched wildly, and Lei Xi-er's heart trembled in fear.

This was obviously not just the power of the Little Blue Flower of the Tranquil Lake. It had already been affected by the other four Saint Stage powers.

"Cut the crap and continue." Lei Xi 'er interrupted, her tone already sounding a bit weak.

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at her and did not speak anymore. He continued to throw out the original seed of Sword Cognition.

"BOOM!"

Another energy seed exploded and shattered the space within a thousand miles.

Boundless darkness blanketed half of the sky of the Yuan Mansion.

Ice and Ember, who were immersed in icebergs and volcanoes, looked dazedly at the two people in the distance who were working on the explosion project in the Yuan Mansion and were soon lost in their own thoughts.

"Shua shua shua shua..."

"So strong!"

"If this attack had landed on me, I'm afraid I would have been blown to pieces. As expected of my owner."

"Roar!"

Ice was also amazed.

"When did our owner become so powerful?"

Even it could not withstand this move.

"There are still three more seeds"

Before the Chaotic Mist, Xu Xiaoshou looked at the remaining three true Saint Stage power seeds in his hand and fell silent for a long time.

The explosion was beyond his imagination.

In the past, he didn't know the rules of the Shengshen Continent. He didn't know why a battle between those above the Sovereign Stage had to be fought in the sky.

Now he knew.

If the Sovereign Stage was already like this, then there was no need to talk about the power of the Saint Stage level.

Two mere pseudo Saint Stage energy balls were able to destroy an area of a thousand miles. If all five of them were to be thrown at the same time, half of the Yunlun Mountain Range would probably be destroyed.

Was this the reason why the Demi-Saints of the continent were all isolated and could not be seen?

At a certain moment, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly felt that perhaps the path of the Holy Divine Palace was not that wrong.

If the Demi-Saints were not locked up in the Inner Island of the Abyss Island and allowed to attack, the world would have already been in chaos!

Lei Xi 'er looked at the black hole that stretched as far as the eye could see, and her expression turned ugly.

"Let's go to another place and continue to throw."

She didn't dare to let Xu Xiaoshou throw any more seeds into the black hole, for fear that it would trigger a chain reaction that would cause the collapse of the Yuan Mansion. Thus, she had no choice but to move to another place and continue.

On this day.

The Yuan Mansion was once again dominated by 'terror.'

"BOOM!" BOOM! BOOM!"

When the remaining three true Saint Stage seeds were used...

The surrounding space, other than the ground, was all black.

Even the sky had darkened!

The entire Yuan Mansion was originally full of life, but now, it showed signs of decline.

It was as if the world Spirit had exploded.

“I am not even fully awake yet?”

“Which idiot placed bombs in my body?”

“What about the world Lord?”

“He didn’t even care about this!”

...

“Look at what you’ve done!”

When the explosions ended, Lei Xi-er’s anger rose.

Sometimes, she was really afraid that when she woke up, she would be dragged by Xu Xiaoshou to become a ‘criminal on the run’ even before she could even get her revenge.

More importantly, this wasn’t because of the invasion of the Yuan Mansion.

It was only because of Xu Xiaoshou’s ‘courting death’ attitude!

“I was wrong.” Xu Xiaoshou admitted his mistake sincerely with a contrite face. “I didn’t expect that I would be so strong.”

Cursed. Passive Points: +1, +1,+1,+1...

Lei Xi ‘er took a deep breath and felt her Godhood spirit was decidedly weary.

She really wanted to give him a good lecture, like “You’re a grown up, you’re no longer a child. The techniques that you could experiment with in the past, are no longer suitable for you to try in the Yuan Mansion, etc, etc.”

But after she mulled over it, she didn’t say anything in the end.

After all, Xu Xiaoshou was still her Eldest Senior Brother. What if he felt humiliated and fired another shot?

“You should reflect on what you’ve done!”

She was tired.

Lei Xi ‘er braced her exhausted body and walked back to the Collapsed Tower.

She had just eaten the Holy Miracle Fruit, so why did she still feel so weak?

Xu Xiaoshou, this lunatic!

This was simply unreasonable!

As he watched Lei Xi-er leave, Xu Xiaoshou's sincere apologetic expression immediately vanished, and a flash of ecstasy appeared on his face.

"I'm too strong!"

"The God Devil Eyes's Godhood power has such a strong auxiliary effect that it can even help me control the Saint Stage power."

"If I get Lei Xi 'er to manifest her demonic power, she can help me strengthen my complete form. When I use the 'Saint 'Seeds on All Five Fingers', 'Sleeveless, Red Scorched Hand' and 'Berserk Giant', all my energy will be completely out of control."

"A bit more Godhood, a bit more of demonic nature, then Godhood again, demonic nature again, the cycle is repeated. If this energy does not become chaotic, my surname is not Xu!"

Xu Xiaoshou clenched his fists and sensed the depletion of his Energy Reserve. He felt a great Path had opened up in front of him.

"Would that kind of explosion kill a Demi-Saint?"

"Achoo!"

When she returned to the Collapsed Tower, Lei Xi-er suddenly sneezed.

She rubbed the tip of her slightly red nose and felt that her surroundings had become much cooler.

Was it because all the light in the Yuan Mansion had been destroyed by Xu Xiaoshou's explosion, which left them in darkness?

It was such a creepy feeling.

"Xu Xiaoshou, it must be you, up to no good again!" Lei Xi 'er instantly thought of a more realistic conjecture.

...

"It's so boring,"

He was forced to stop his explosion research, but his body's sensitivity had not faded yet.

Xu Xiaoshou looked around. With nothing to do, he suddenly felt extremely bored.

According to the after-effects of taking the Holy Medicine, it would probably take more than a day to eat one Holy Medicine in this vast Herb Garden of Divine Farmer.

Perhaps the time to take the Medicine could be shortened when the drug resistance increased and the sensitivity was not very high.

“But I definitely can’t eat the Dragon Apricot now.”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the Dragon Apricot ancestral tree. He couldn’t help drooling and felt helpless.

He still cherished his life, so he didn’t dare to eat the Dragon Apricot now.

“Actually, the plan went very smoothly. I got the resources just like that. It’s a little surprising.” Xu Xiaoshou thought and sighed.

He originally thought that he would need to spend a lot of time and energy to find the legendary Foundational Roots of Saint Ascension after he entered the Abyss Island.

He had never thought that his first step would be to empty the entire Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. After breaking through to the Sovereign Dao Realm, the Cutting Path Stage, Higher Void Level, and even the Saint realm, he would probably not lack any more resources.

Xu Xiaoshou was at a loss.

During the past few months, he never had that much success in his whole life!

In his original plan, he could temporarily slow down the collection of passive points at this stage and spend more time looking for resources to break through to the Sovereign Dao Realm.

Because of this, the Passive System would be upgraded again, and he could give his passive skill babies some level points.

According to the plan, it would take a long time to collect resources. If he just used some passive points, he would have enough.

From the looks of it now, these plans really could not keep up with the Transformation!

Isn’t that right? He had collected all the resources. Now that he wanted to quickly break through to the Sovereign Dao Realm, he didn’t even know how many levels he could gain from the Passive Points.

He glanced at the bottom of the Information Bar.

Passive value: 2462232.

Xu Xiaoshou had not paid attention to this number for a long time.

He felt that he had almost forgotten about the Passive System.

However, that was not the case. After all, it was a passive skill. The greatest advantage of being passive was that it would always work even if you might forget about it sometimes.

He had intentionally accumulated more than two million Passive Points before.

After all, a large part of the reason why the Yunlun Mountain Range had hundreds and thousands of people under its command was to build up their Passive Points.

How?

Every day, he would take a little time to hold a plenary meeting and the Passive Points would come in.

Even if Xu Xiaoshou spent most of his time doing his own stuff and didn't walk with the team, he would talk to them whenever he had time. The Passive Points he accumulated numbered more than two million in this way.

"How many levels can it upgrade to?"

Xu Xiaoshou didn't know.

After all, he had yet to break through to the Sovereign Dao realm, and the Passive System had yet to awaken.

However, now that he had the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and other resources, he would have to change his next goal.

Continue to gain more Passive Points in preparation for when he broke through to the Sovereign Dao Realm and he could instantly amass high-level passive skills!

"Will I be stuck in the Higher Void level, or will I directly break through to Demi-Saint Level 1?"

The Master Stage Heavenly Image Xu Xiaoshou didn't dare to think so much, but the Master Stage Star Worship Xu Xiaoshou was already in high spirits at the thought of his Sovereign Physique body directly evolving into a Demi-Saint's Physique and killing someone with a single punch.

He could kill his way up the Saint mountain within a few days!

“Hmm, I wonder how much trouble the Void Attendant has caused outside?”

It was really boring to stay idle. Even though he knew that the situation was not ideal right now and he needed to lie low for a while, Xu Xiaoshou couldn't help wanting to go out and cause trouble.

It had been almost a day!

Perhaps the Void Attendant already had his fun outside?

Perhaps he could go out and check out the situation on the Abyss Island?

1348 Little Junior Sister, I'll Give You a Big Surprise When I Return! 1

In the Forest of Miracles on Abyss Island.

“Roar!”

A roar came from the ground, and the ancient trees within a few miles collapsed, while the sky became messy.

Half of the Forest of Miracles had already been destroyed by the Void Attendant. There were wood shavings everywhere, and deep pits could be seen.

It had already been a day since the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer had been emptied, but the Void Attendant was still on a rampage!

However, those who could come to the Abyss Island were all smart people. Who would not have noticed such a huge super giant going crazy?

All of the Spiritual Cultivators in the area used their protective techniques to hide as they did not want to be targeted by the crazy giant.

However, they didn't know why the Void Attendant had gone crazy. They only thought that an unusual phenomenon had occurred, accompanied by the birth of a precious treasure.

As such, they continued to hide and risked the danger of being targeted by the Void Attendant, while they also desperately searched for treasures in this ancient messy forest.

Unfortunately...

Except for the deep pits, each pit bigger than the previous ones, the largest of which was thousands of miles in size.

The so-called 'treasure' was something that no one could find.

"Bang!"

With another heavy stomp, the Void Attendant killed another Higher Void State Spirit Cultivator.

"Roar!"

This was only the third human Spiritual Cultivator it had found in a day!

It had clearly seen more than these number of people when it soared into the air earlier.

However, when it saw those people, they also saw it. Before he landed, they had all disappeared.

Those who hid well were still alive.

Those who didn't hide well would be dismembered, which was the outcome of trespassing!

"Roar!"

The enraged Void Attendant couldn't even smell the slightest whiff of the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer's Spiritual Medicine on the three dead human Spiritual Cultivators.

This also meant that the three humans who had died were not the ones who had stolen the Medicine. They were purely innocent scapegoats.

And that 'thief' was still at large!

"Er...er...er...er...er..."

The Void Attendant, who had been blinded by rage, stomped on the corpse again, and it was reduced to nothing. However, a low, strange sound came from the side of his foot.

The Void Attendant was furious.

He leaned over and saw that it was a small stone!

The strange cry of 'Er...er...' seemed to be a sort of mockery, for being brainless; for having been lured away from the mountain which caused it to lose its home.

“Roar!”

The Void Attendant growled, as he stood there with his hands on his waist. He kicked out, trying to crush the noisy rock.

“Bang!”

In the next second, the Void Attendant, who had kicked with all his might, could not even move the small stone in the slightest. However, the sole of his foot was torn apart by a blunt weapon through the gap between his toes, and black blood splattered everywhere.

“Roar!”

“Hiss!”

The Void Attendant fell to the ground in pain. He clutched the wound on his foot and hissed like a pug. At this moment, his anger was overridden by the pain.

“What, what happened?”

The Void Attendant was stunned.

“How many years had it been since it got hurt? How could it have kicked a stone and crippled its own foot?”

It should be known that this was a body that could even swallow Holy Power, and that thing was only a trivial stone...

“Er...er...er...er...er...”

The little stone continued to emit its noise.

Due to his height, the Void Attendant was unable to identify the origin of this item.

Now that it had squatted down and covered its foot with its hand, the Void Attendant was shocked.

“This, this is...”

“Void Suppression Stele?”

The thing that made the ‘er...er...’ sound was the Void Suppression Stele that an Abyss Island Sinner had carried before!

“Huh...”

The Void Attendant shouted out in anger and the red light in its eyes faded for a moment.

Why would the Void Suppression Stele be here?

Was it because his destructive actions had angered the spirit of the Abyss Island, and it now wanted to punish him?

“Er...er...er...er...er...”

The Void Attendant suddenly panicked when he heard the ‘Er...er...er...’ sound.

Perhaps this was not a noise, but a warning from the spirit of the Abyss Island, as if it had predicted that the Herb Garden of the Divine Farmer it protected would be stolen.

And now, the ‘cautioning’ had changed to ‘warning’ :

“If you dare to destroy the Forest of Miracles again, you will die!”

The Void Attendant felt as if this was a warning meant for him.

“Roarrrr!”

It clutched its leg and retreated in a hurry and respectfully indicated to the Void Suppression Stele that it had no intention of destroying it, but had been blinded by anger.

“Er...er...er...er...er...”

The Void Suppression Stele continued to make strange sounds.

Spiritual objects that could give clear guidance in the past now expressed their thoughts ambiguously.

The Void Attendant didn’t understand, but it was afraid.

“I, will only kill one person, the one who stole the Medicine!”

It raised its hand and promised. Then, it no longer dared to be presumptuous, nor did it dare to vent its anger on the innocent Forest of Miracles. It retreated in fear.

“Void Suppression Stele”

Thinking of the Void Suppression Stele, the Void Attendant thought of the Abyss Island Sinner who would carry out the mission.

To be honest, the Abyss Island Sinners in the past were all proud and arrogant. They believed that no one would die as long as they did not break the rules of the Abyss Island. After getting used to life on the island, they did not care about the Void Attendants at all.

Therefore, serial number 800820 was one of the few Sinners it had seen who would cooperate and carry out the mission.

Furthermore, that human had even managed to obtain the approval of the Void Suppression Stele and became a giant.

This was not simple.

He could be considered half a Clansman.

The Void Attendant suddenly yearned for the opportunity to find that serial number 800820 again and issue a mission to use humans to defeat humans.

Thinking about it, that medicine thief would surely die without a burial place, right?

...

“Achoo!”

“Bang bang, bang bang, bang Bang Bang Bang!”

Just as he opened the pathway to the Yuan Mansion, he was struck by a sudden sneeze. His heartbeat accelerated, his eyelids twitched, and even the rate of the Holy Emperor Dragon Scales became extremely fast.

1349 Little Junior Sister, I'll Give You a Big Surprise When I Return! 2

Xu Xiaoshou had no choice but to stop all his movements when his sudden whim was so exaggerated.

“What the hell?”

“It's been a day, and the crisis outside still hasn't been resolved?”

“If I go out now, will the risk still be so great?”

Holding the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale, Xu Xiaoshou's heart trembled.

It felt good to empty the Herb Garden of the Divine Farmer.

However, after he moved the medicinal garden, the aftermath was also big.

Although he was currently in the Yuan Mansion, the thought of the manhunt he might face when he returned to the Abyss Island and the anger of the 300-foot Void Attendant made his legs tremble.

"It shouldn't be that exaggerated."

"The risk is still within control."

The Holy Emperor Dragon Scale's heartbeat continued to sound wildly. After Xu Xiaoshou made a serious comparison, he came to the conclusion that there was indeed a 90% chance of survival.

At the very least, the heartbeat of the Holy Emperor Dragon's Scale this time was not as exaggerated as when he came face-to-face with a Saint.

Xu Xiaoshou had already regarded his encounter with the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi in the Deep Sea World as a mortal warning from the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale.

And when he faced that kind of situation, he could still escape from the tiger's mouth.

In other words, the frantic sounds of the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale's heartbeats, which were weaker than when he faced the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi, basically meant that the danger this time should be manageable and he was not doomed for death.

And such 'danger' was equivalent to 'opportunity'.

In other words, it was another treasure that could be 'taken when he used his brain' and 'fought for when he used his hands'!

As long as nothing untoward happened, there were no 'what if's'. One should know that God's plan superseded one's own.

"I haven't offended anyone on the Abyss Island, so the warning from the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale should most likely be about the Void Attendant.

"But it's been a day, and I didn't show my face when I stole the medicine. The Void Attendant can't possibly remember me."

"Why is it that as long as I want to return to the Abyss Island, the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale's heartbeat will accelerate?"

Xu Xiaoshou thought about this seriously.

Since it was a matter of life and death, he had no choice but to use his brain to analyze the situation.

“How can a 1000-meter-tall, simple-minded giant with well-developed limbs who doesn’t know who I am, locate me and destroy me as soon as I want to return to the Abyss Island? Is that why the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale’s heartbeat accelerated in such a way?”

Xu Xiaoshou rubbed his chin and thought of the Double Dumba*s and his brother Hong Dang.

Both of them had died in the same manner-they were chased to death while they held the Holy Miracle Fruit in their arms.

From the behavior of the Void Attendant, who chased after the Double Dumba*s instead of himself and Lei Xi ‘er, the two Abyss Island sinners, it was evident that the Void Attendant would not kill the innocent.

From the Void Attendant’s actions, when he did not even see Lei Xi ‘er, who hid outside the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, when it chased after Hong Dang, it could be seen that the big fellow’s eyes were only focused on the Spiritual Medicine in the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and not on humans.

“After all, if I were the Void Attendant...”

“Human beings?”

“They were just ants, nothing worth mentioning!”

“So...”

“Is it related to the ‘medicine’?”

The Void Attendant doesn’t target people or anything else. Its mission is only to ‘protect the Spiritual Medicine’, and its accompanying mission is naturally to ‘eliminate the Medicine thieves’? ”

Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had found the only true solution.

He went along with the answer.

“In that case, it’s impossible for the Void Attendant to recognize me when I return to the Abyss Island, so it’s impossible for him to find me. That’s why the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale’s heartbeat would not accelerate so rapidly”.

“However, its heartbeat had accelerated after all. This means that once I return to the Abyss Island, the Void Attendant will definitely look for me!”

“It’s so stupid, how can it look for anyone?”

Xu Xiaoshou rubbed his chin with his fingers and turned to look at the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. He squinted and smelled the refreshing fragrance of the Spiritual Medicine. A spiritual light flashed in his mind.

“The smell of Medicine!”

He executed a ‘highfive’ and his expression became excited.

“That’s right, it’s the medicinal fragrance!”

“No matter how a person hides or disguises himself, he can’t hide or fake his smell.”

“Both Brother Hong Dang and Brother Double Dumba*s had plucked the Holy Miracle Fruit and were stained with the aura of the Holy Medicine. No matter how they ran, they could not escape from the Void Attendant.”

“I’ve emptied the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer. The Void Attendant can’t locate me in the Yuan Mansion, but once I return to the Abyss Island, I’ll be afraid.”

Xu Xiaoshou clenched his fists and his expression became excited.

“With the Void Attendant’s nose that protected the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer all year round, it should be easy for him to figure out that I’m the herb thief through my smell.”

“No matter how many layers of camouflage I put on!”

Xu Xiaoshou was sure that the answer was pretty close.

When it came to the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, the Void Attendant had fallen for his little trick of ‘luring the tiger away from the mountain’ without even the most basic resistance. From this, it could be seen that the Giant was really brainless.

And for a brainless giant to find someone, it would definitely use the most direct and simplest method.

It was too complicated. For example, after the communication through the Abyss island’s laws, Spatio-temporal Retrospect, and fiery golden eyes, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had overestimated the Void Attendant.

The strong were bound to have shortcomings.

The Void Attendant's physical body was already so strong. There was no reason for him to master the Space-time Attribute and his Path Principle Comprehension was comparable to that of a Demi-Saint.

In that case, its intelligence would definitely not be simple!

This meant that it would definitely not just be a Void Attendant, but a 'Superman' who had mastered self-awareness and should have learned to resist the rules and pursue freedom.

Just like the First-in-command Saint Servant Bazhun'an.

Just like Dao Qiongcang, the master of the Holy Divine Palace.

With 'strength' and 'wisdom' co-existing, no one would choose to be controlled—that was where the word 'foolish' came from.

Xu Xiaoshou thought about this and understood that the Void Attendant might have searched for people basically through 'simple smells'. Not only was he not discouraged, but he also became more excited.

"I probably can't get rid of the smell, no matter how I disguise it."

1350 Little Junior Sister, I'll Give You a Big Surprise When I Return! 3

"However, I have the 'Stealth' skill, so the Void Attendant shouldn't be able to find me instantly when I return to the Abyss Island. He will still be able to find me eventually; it'll just take some time."

"This should be the reason why even though the enemy this time is the Void Attendant, who is not inferior to the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi, the heartbeat of the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale is not as rapid as it would have been, had I been at the point of a certain death."

"This is because the Void Attendant is rather stupid!"

The more he thought about it, the more excited Xu Xiaoshou became. He was not afraid of a strong opponent, but he was afraid that a strong opponent would be intelligent as well.

In that case, he would have to spend more effort to make the other party fall into his trap.

The Void Attendant was obviously an easy target!

"I'm the assassin who emptied the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer, but the Void Attendant has not seen my face. Even if it did, the face of the medicine thief might have been disguised, and there's no way to verify it."

"But if it were to locate me by my smell..."

"In other words, no matter whose face I use to return to the Abyss Island with, whoever it is, will be the real culprit who emptied the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer!"

Xu Xiaoshou stared at the Spatial passageway in front of him and a sinister grin stretched across his face and almost reached his temples.

He felt like he had received an invitation from the Grim Reaper.

If you want someone to die, just write their name and hand it over to the Spatial passageway.

In the middle of the night, when the Grim Reaper knocked on the door, people would undoubtedly die!

"Damn, I'm too sinister, hehe."

Xu Xiaoshou held his head in disbelief. Even he was completely shocked by his own thoughts.

"How could there be such a sly old man in this world?"

"How did I become like this?"

"This is too evil, it must be Hidden Bitter's fault. I've also been influenced by it!"

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and gasped for breath. He finally calmed down.

Half of his Foot Stomp was in the Spatial passageway that connected the Yuan Mansion and the Abyss Island. He could hear the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale's heartbeat's increased acceleration and he felt an adrenaline rush.

This was simply too exciting!

"But here's the problem..."

"Now, who do I wish to send to his death?"

Gripping the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale tightly, Xu Xiaoshou's heart began to beat at the same frequency as the Scale's. It made his body heat up and his mind spin.

“Elder Sang? Bazhun’an? Water Ghost?”

“No, no, no. It’s too small. The scale is too small. These are all characters who can personally take revenge when they mature.”

“Yu Lingdi? Rao Yaoyao? Ye Xiao?”

“No, no. They may have committed grave sins, but it’s not to the point where we need to waste the only strike of a powerful executioner like the Void Attendant to kill them.”

“Then, who else is there?”

The faces of his enemies flashed through his mind. Xu Xiaoshou shifted through the images, one by one and pondered on his decision.

From the memories of the Double Dumba*s, the Void Attendant could even devour the Holy Power. it was simply invincible on the Abyss Island.

it would be a waste to use such a powerful helper to fight against the Higher Void level.

Then, there was only one candidate left.

“Swish.”

His thoughts stopped.

The face that made the Holy Emperor’s Dragon Scale jump in the most rapid way that he had ever seen in the Deep Sea was fixed in his mind.

He had a compassionate face, white hair, and was surrounded by clouds. He was invincible.

The Demi-Saint, Jiang Buyi!

Xu Xiaoshou had a perverted smile on his face.

He did not even need to use the Imitator. With his ‘Transformation’, his height, body shape, and face resembled the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi to a tee.

He then changed his clothes. It didn’t need to be exactly the same, a simple white robe would do.

With a thought, the non-attribute white Holy Power in his Energy Reserve bloomed, and white mist appeared all over his body, like the power of the cloud attribute.

Appearance, Holy Power, temperament, and aura.

Except for the soul that did not bear the surname of Jiang, Xu Xiaoshou dared to guarantee that at this moment, when Jiang Xian came to see him and felt the clear and visible Holy Power, he would immediately kneel down and call him 'Great-grandfather'!

'Jiang Buyi' made his appearance.

He turned around and glanced at the Collapsed Tower. The Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi stroked his beard and smiled. He did not linger and with a Foot Stomp entered the Spatial passageway.

"Little Junior Sister, when this Saint returns, I'll give you a big surprise!"

"Oh, maybe it might be a scare..."
