1551 Diabolic Energy VS Death God Energy (2)

1551 Diabolic Energy VS Death God Energy (2)

“Dark attribute?”

“Soul attribute?”

“No! Although these two attributes are already very unusual, Ye Xiao’s attributes are definitely not either of them!”

Xu Xiaoshou realized what was special about Ye Xiao. This woman either didn’t attack or once she did, she would make sure that she kill the target.

She was the type of person he hated the most. The type that didn’t follow common sense and couldn’t be fooled at all!

“Acalanātha.”

In a split second, Xu Xiaoshou’s body emitted a faint golden light, which nullified the spiritual attack of the two three-legged black owls.

If he was an average person, he would have been interrupted by the terrifying sound of the undead when Ye Xiao decided to use her real power and summoned the “Land of Dark Night”.

However, Xu Xiaoshou’s “Spiritual Awakening” was constantly triggered, hence he could always remain clear-headed and calm.

“This can be immune?”

The two three-legged black owls passed through the soul as if they were going through cotton.

Xu Xiaoshou was overjoyed. He understood that this was not an attack. Perhaps it was just an ability that Ye Xiao used to control and influence people’s minds.

Before he could do anything, Ye Xiao, who had summoned the Grand Mage of death with the aura of “martial virtue”, had already spoken coldly.

“Give it to me,”

These words were like Yama's judgment and of course, she was referring to the God-execution token.

If Xu Xiaoshou's spirit was attacked by the three-legged Black Owls, his will would probably be taken away, and he would listen to Ye Xiao completely.

"Oh..." His eyes immediately blurred, and he couldn't help but move forward in a daze, wanting to hand over the "God-execution token".

One, two, three...

As he approached Ye Xiao, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly attacked.

His entire body emitted an evil purple light as if an evil god possessed him. With a flip of his hand, he grabbed a "Cursed Yin Eye", which was thicker than a human head, and fiercely slapped it toward Ye Xiao's cold and delicate face.

"You want it? Then I'll give it to you!"

With an explosive bang, the violent impact of the Cursed Yin Eye was clearly unexpected.

Ye Xiao also seemed to have not recovered from the fact that Chen Tan was not in a controlled state. Her beautiful face was immediately smashed by a slap, and the purple-glowing "Cursed Yin Eye" was embedded.

"Chi Chi..."

A strange purple evil energy scattered in all directions.

This was the power of the evil god, and even if it was just an aura, its level was probably not inferior to any form that Ye Xiao had summoned.

Almost in an instant, the purple energy that represented the Evil God's aura filled Ye Xiao's entire body.

The turbulent evil energy churned, and Ye Xiao was like a black leather ball filled with purple pus, about to explode.

"Bang!"

The ball finally exploded!

However, the expected scene of brilliant purple light and Ye Xiao's cultivation deviation did not appear.

After the Dark Division Chief exploded, her body turned into an illusory three-legged Black Owl, flapping its wings and shrieking as it flew onto the death mage's shoulder, turning back into the real Ye Xiao.

"Suspected. Passive Points +1."

"Glared angrily. Passive Points +1."

"Locked. Passive Points +1."

"..."

The information bar instantly started jumping.

Xu Xiaoshou looked up and saw Ye Xiao's frightened face. He grinned and said, "Chief Ye Xiao, why don't you want it anymore? Snatching this thing off my hand is very easy, after all, I'm just an ordinary person, while you're high and mighty. You can take whatever you want."

"Watched, Passive Points +1."

Unexpectedly, Ye Xiao's expression calmed down, and even her "angry glare" turned into a "stare".

This was an enemy who could control her emotions. Goading her was useless, and she was simply difficult to deal with... Xu Xiaoshou was a little irritated.

"How did you dodge my attack?" On the death mage's shoulder, Ye Xiao stood like the three-legged Black Owl.

"Ha!" Xu Xiaoshou's lips curled into a mocking smile. "Miss Ye Xiao, do you really think that the 16th generation of Qingjing Sect's sole heir is a pushover? Our sect cultivates the 'peace and inaction, equality of the world'. Such underhanded means like yours will never corrupt my soul!"

Even though Ye Xiao rarely had big emotional fluctuations in her life, at this moment, she could not help but have her eyes dimmed, and her face was stunned.

Peace and inaction, equality in the world?

She thought of the faint golden light that Chen Tan's body emitted just now. Was he talking about this?

However, in the next second, everything in Ye Xiao's mind was filled up by the Cursed Yin Eye, which was ten thousand times more evil than her own and would be embedded into her human face even if she died.

He called this “peace”?

Who was more ‘sinister’ than who?

She thought, “Your sect has such a lofty ideal of ‘peace and inaction, equality of the world’, and the disciples of your sect only practice these ‘peaceful’ moves?”

“Swish-”

The three-legged Black Owl on her shoulder suddenly raised its head and cawed, as if it was mocking her.

Ye Xiao’s expression also immediately returned to being calm and stopped mocking him.

After exchanging blows with him just now, she concluded her previous thoughts that Chen Tan was not an ordinary person.

Even if she had never heard of the Qingjing sect, and even if there was no information about the higher void of the southern region, there was no mention of a person like Chen Tan.

However, just the appearance of the aura of the evil god was enough for Ye Xiao to conclude that Chen Tan was extraordinary.

The power of his spiritual technique seemed to be very small, probably barely enough to reach the output of a Sovereign Dao Realm expert. However, he was still very powerful.

It seemed that this person was as cautious as she was. They were both afraid of the unknown of the hall of no pardon and also on guard against their opponents. Therefore, they only used a small amount of power to test each other.

1552 Diabolic Energy VS Death God Energy (3)

However, no matter what, the “God execution token” could not fall into the hands of someone outside the Holy Divine Palace.

Ye Xiao stopped thinking, flipped her hand, and put it out.

Her white palm was a sharp contrast to the black feather coat and the dark Necromancer. She said condescendingly, “Give it to me. This is the last time.”

The last time what?

A warning?

Xu Xiaoshou stood in the great hall and looked up. He felt that the Dark Division Chief was unattainable, but he was not afraid to meet her eyes. After a moment of silence, he said, "If...My answer is no?"

Ye Xiao didn't say anything else. Her hand stopped in the air for about two breaths, and then she gently curled it.

"BOOM!"

The sky was suddenly replaced by night.

After the space collapsed, a long and narrow giant mouth opened, as if an unknown existence staring at everything from outside the plane had opened its eyes.

This was the single eye of the God of Death!

When Ye Xiao's eye, which represented death, opened, the hall was filled with a thick aura of death, and everything began to wither.

The hundreds of giant instruments of torture displayed outside were mottled and decayed. With a "crack" sound, their parts fell off one by one, as if their spirits had died and their bodies had begun to decay.

The murals outside the hall cracked and blood flowed out. It was like a child crying, and there was even the sound of a baby crying!

A bleak wind blew from nowhere, carrying a thick stench that assaulted the nose, sweeping through the entire hall. Not long after, it formed nine black tornadoes that soared into the sky, wreaking havoc and insolence.

As if doomsday had arrived, Ye Xiao stood on the shoulder of the death mage with her back against the eye of death. She stepped on the disaster of the undead, and her aura could swallow mountains and rivers!

"You've mastered the aura of the evil god's power, and I'm the walking God of Death in the human world... Chen Tan, my patience has run out. You only have three breaths time to think."

Ye Xiao's eyes were indifferent, and her feather clothes were fluttering in the air. Her tone was cold and murderous as she tried to persuade him that "The only price to pay for this stubborn resistance is death."

"Startled. Passive Points, +1."

Xu Xiaoshou felt that the loss of life force in his body was accelerating.

If it had been “1” before, it was only the effect of the ultimate attribute of the First Hall of Sins. Now, it was ” 10000”!

“Endless life”, “High Spirits”, and ” Transformation” were all running wildly, but they couldn’t compare to the speed of his health loss under the gaze of “Death’s piercing eye”.

“This woman...” Xu Xiaoshou didn’t suppress the fear on his face.

Ye Xiao simply had control over Teng Shanhai’s explosive power. She had the same status as Rao Yaoyao and also had the decisiveness of Night Guardian after being tortured by him.

She was indeed the Dark Lord who had obtained the right to ‘act first and report later’ from the Holy Divine Palace. The aura she had now was comparable to the aura of the evil god’s power... No, it was comparable to Teng Shanhai’s Demon God power.

Xu Xiaoshou was certain that the Dark Division Chief had mastered some kind of special ancestral source power!

She was a hidden trump card of the Holy Divine Palace. After activating this power, her side effect would not be as violent as Teng Shanhai’s.

If he didn’t bring out the methods used by the “Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou”, his problem would not be about how to defeat her, but whether he could survive in this hall.

But...

The price of exposure was death!

“God execution token...” Xu Xiaoshou glanced at the token in his hand, which was half the height of a man, and was already thinking about whether he should give it away.

“It’s not worth it, my life is more important, I’m scared!” He thought.

“I really didn’t expect that you, Ye Xiao, would be so fierce. You’re even fiercer than that crazy Teng Shanhai!”

At this moment, before Xu Xiaoshou could send out the “God execution token,” the power of the battle seemed to have triggered some kind of will. A weak voice suddenly sounded out of thin air.

“Stop fighting, the hall is going to explode!”

“Save me first...”

Xu Xiaoshou and Ye Xiao were stunned at the same time, and they suddenly turned their eyes to look.

The source of this sound was the cell that Ye Xiao had stayed in before, room number “Sky Three”- Sky No. 3 cell!

1553 Who Dares to Touch My People! (1)

The entire hall became deathly silent.

The “Sky Three” cell was actually a side hall. Like the other cells, it had a heavy and majestic palace door. Outside the door, there was a cold fence made of an unknown ore, firmly sealing everything inside.

However, at this moment, the fence, like the huge torture device on the other side, had an additional aura of decay, wilting, and death, as if it was affected by Ye Xiao’s aura of death.

“Bang!”

In the time it took for him to turn around, the fence had cracked open, and a piece of it fell to the ground as if some seal had been broken.

“Hey, hey, hey...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s scalp went numb. This d*mn place was called the “Hall of Unforgivable Crimes”. One could imagine what kind of unpardonable people were locked up in the cell of “Sky Three”.

He was able to foresee this kind of unknown time... It was possible that if the monster that had been sealed in the prison since ancient times were to escape now, it would bring about a terrible disaster.

“Why aren’t you withdrawing your divine ability?” Xu Xiaoshou turned to look at Ye Xiao. It was all her fault!

Ye Xiao was obviously shocked as well. Chen Tan might not be able to cause much trouble, but if an unknown existence was released, then even she might not be able to escape.

Not only her, but the worst case scenario was that the entire Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, and even the structure of the hall, might undergo a huge change.

After all, who could be sure that the prisoner in the hall was not a demi-saint from ancient times?

“Stop,”

Nightingale quickly raised her hand, and the power of the death god that was spreading in the hall stopped. In the next second, it was all retracted back into her body.

However, it was all too late...

“Bang!”

The sealing fence outside Sky Three’s cell cracked open again, and a large piece fell off. This time, a big hole in the seal became clearly visible.

“Chi...”

Frosty white cold air slowly seeped out from the hole.

Not long after, the ground outside Sky Three’s cell was frozen into ice crystals.

The cracking sound was endless. The cold air had a purpose. As soon as the seal was broken, it went around the bars of the cell first.

It was conceivable that if the fence was completely frozen and broken, the unknown existence inside would probably push open the door of Sky Three... The whole situation was at its fingertips.

“Stop him.” Nightingale suddenly looked back at him. Her voice was cold as if she was ordering her subordinates to do something that was only natural.

“Are you crazy?” Xu Xiaoshou spread his hands and with an exasperated expression, he exaggerated, “How can I stop him? Am I supposed to use my life to stop it? You’re the one who made this mess, so you have to clean it up. Do you really think that this Hall is your Secret Department and that I have to listen to you? In the Southern Region, I’ve never heard of a single order from the Holy Divine Palace!”

Ye Xiao’s face turned cold. She didn’t expect that two simple words could be exchanged for such a long rebuttal.

However, there was not much time. The current situation did not allow her to reprimand Chen Tan, this impolite person, hence she quickly moved.

“Whoosh!”

The necromancer pointed with her scepter, and a thick ray of light containing the will of extermination fell from the sky. It carried the power of the death god and blasted directly at the frosty white air that was trying to freeze the sealing fence.

No matter what level this power was at, with the “withering” and “extinction” abilities attached to the power of death, it should be able to annihilate it.

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked. He felt that the energy contained in this spiritual attack from the scepter was really terrifying. He didn't know if Acalanātha could take it.

Well, even if he couldn't block it, Ye Xiao would still suffer the same amount of damage from the backlash, and he could trigger ‘Spirit Awakening’ with a backhand and then stab her with ‘Disillusionment Finger’...

It was obviously not the time to think about this.

Seeing that the necromancer's light of Quietus was about to hit the frosty white air, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly had an idea.

“Wait...”

He subconsciously wanted to shout ‘stop’ because he thought of a terrifying possibility.

However, it was too late. The light of Quietus was extremely fast and instantly enveloped all the frosty white air outside Sky Three's cell.

“Bang!”

With a loud explosion, Xu Xiaoshou was dumbfounded as he watched the moment before Ye Xiao's attack arrived. The thick frosty white cold air was as scheming as he had expected, retreating back into the cell from the hole in the seal.

This caused Ye Xiao's attack, which contained all the energy of the death God's power, to pour onto the sealing fence without any mistake.

“Is your brain filled with paste?!”

Xu Xiaoshou was so angry that he started to curse. “If you use your brain, you should know the consequences of that thing taking back its power. Are you stupid?”

Ye Xiao was stunned, not because she was scolded by Xu Xiaoshou, but because... Normal people wouldn't have thought of this development, right? Shouldn't they be trying their best to resist and test each other's combat power?

“Since you're so smart, you do it.” She looked at him coldly. After a moment of shock, she was filled with anger.

“Hahaha...”

The internal strife in the hall seemed to have amused the existence in Sky Three’s cell, and it let out a burst of high-pitched and strange laughter.

Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but shiver. This was the kind of evil laughter that sounded like it came from fingernails scratching the blackboard, which was even more intolerable than Elder Qiao’s.

“Brat, it seems that you’re really cunning too. You actually predicted my thoughts.”

After the laughter, a mocking voice came from Sky Three’s cell, “I’m sure that you and I are the same kind of person... Come, help me break this seal, and you’ll follow me from now on!”

Thump!

He didn’t even need to help. After all, Ye Xiao’s previous attack had rotted another large piece of the sealing fence.

1554 Who Dares To Touch My People! (2)

However, this was a giant palace door. Compared to the rest of the hall, the seal was less broken, but there were still cracks.

“My Lord, do you think I’m stupid?” Xu Xiaoshou looked at the hole.

“Call me Elder Han,” The being in the cell didn’t care about the question from the boy outside and corrected him.

“Alright, Elder Han, what kind of brain fart do you think I have to be like her to help you unseal the seal?” Xu Xiaoshou pointed at Ye Xiao as he spoke.

“Glared At, Passive Points, +1.”

At the same time, Xu Xiaoshou’s perception had already analyzed the sealing fence.

It was just an ordinary first-grade ore that contained energy. Logically speaking, it was impossible to seal the monster inside. After all, the frosty white cold air just now was very powerful and of extraordinary quality.

Therefore, this should be an array!

Using his 'Weaving Expertise' to analyze the sealing barrier, Xu Xiaoshou quickly realized that this was a great array that connected the entire Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

The huge instruments of torture in the hall, the 'God execution token' on the table, the sealing fence outside the prison cell...They were both essential elements in forming the great array.

In other words, from the moment the torture device was activated and the "God execution token" was taken away, "Elder Han", who was inside the cell, had already woken up. He/it might have watched the battle for a while before choosing to speak.

"Elder Han is a smart fellow. They must have already analyzed Ye Xiao and me, and have made a choice between the both of us. There is a high probability that their decision will be the harmless me..." Xu Xiaoshou's thoughts were extremely clear.

"What did you say?" In the cell, Elder Han's voice became impatient. "I'm giving you a chance now. You should seize it. When I come out, you'll have everything you want."

"Oh," Xu Xiaoshou nodded. He glanced at Ye Xiao and thought, "Since you are the one who called me here, watch carefully now!"

"Suspected, Passive Points, +1."

Ye Xiao stared at Chen Tan in confusion, not knowing what this guy wanted to do.

Very quickly, she saw Chen Tan's hands dancing in the air, transforming into afterimages. The spirit threads in his hands were solid and extremely thick, all of them fitting the model of this great hall.

After a while, this guy randomly shot the threads.

Some of the spirit threads stuck to the instruments of torture on the outside and hung the broken pieces up, barely restoring them to their original state.

Some flew to the table and drew a complicated array at the place where the "God-execution token" had been placed as if they were replacing it.

The rest of the spirit threads hit the hole in the seal of the Sky Three's cell. Light and shadow flickered, and the spirit threads were woven into a chaotic and incomprehensible spiritual array. However, at the same time, the damages were repaired.

"Knock knock."

Xu Xiaoshou leaned against the cell door and knocked on the fence. Then, he poked a finger-sized hole in the spiritual array woven from the spirit threads and said,

“Elder Han, right? Speak. I’ll give you three chances to ask questions.”

“Are you looking to die, kid?” Elder Han, who was in the cell, was furious. They were obviously angered by Xu Xiaoshou’s attitude and tone. “Just you wait, when I come out...”

“Try and see if you can come out now.” Xu Xiaoshou was still staring at Ye Xiao, and the corners of his lips curled up.

The prison cell was silent for a while, and no sound could be heard. Elder Han should be trying to make a breakthrough.

Ye Xiao fixed her eyes on the hole. However, after a while, the frosty white cold air still did not come out of the finger-sized hole that Chen Tan had made.

“Suspected, Passive points, +2.”

Not long after, a terrified voice rang out in the cell.

“Brat, what have you done? The power of yours truly... Why can’t I get out? How was this possible? The seal has clearly been broken by both of you!”

Ye Xiao’s eyes, which were hidden in the shadows, were shocked.

The seal had been repaired?

She quickly scanned all the places Chen Tan’s threads had touched, including the instruments of torture outside, the simulated “God-execution token” array on the table, and the spiritual array outlined by the complex twisted-like spiritual threads at the hole.

He was a spiritual array master?

No! It was very likely that this fellow had not only found the core of the seal of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes in such a short period of time, but he had also repaired the ancient seal that had been destroyed in the blink of an eye.

Even in the Path Division, his attainments in spiritual arrays were among the best!

“Chen Tan...”

Ye Xiao softly muttered the name.

She really did not remember such an outstanding talent in the Southern Region. Not only did he grasp the aura of the power of the evil energy, but he also knew the Phantom Swords Technique.

Now, with the ease of a finger, this fellow had instantly restored an ancient array that only existed in ancient times and was probably impossible to find in the present day without any reference.

Who was he?

Who was Chen Tan?

Ye Xiao's brain was spinning rapidly. She felt that the two terms "Qingjing sect" and "Chen Tan" had suddenly become extremely important in her heart.

It was a pity...

If Yi was still here, if Yi was still her partner, he would be able to find this place quickly no matter what the situation was.

With Yi's vast knowledge, he could probably explain to her the story of the eighteen generations of Qingjing sect and Chen Tan in one go.

Ye Xiao's eyes suddenly dimmed.

However, these thoughts were just a fantasy...Yi was already dead!

Now, her partner was Yu Lingdi, and Yu Lingdi had also been teleported away by the spatial chaos of the maze.

Instead of waiting for him to find her or take the initiative to find her, she might as well think about how to take Chen Tan down and kill that "Elder Han" at the same time.

"You seem to have understood something?"

1555 Who Dares To Touch My People! (3)

Xu Xiaoshou looked at Ye Xiao with a faint smile and knocked on the door of the Sky Three's cell. He said calmly,

"Even if I take away all the instruments of torture here and remove the God execution token, I can still unseal and maintain your seal as I please. Do you know what this means?"

“Remember, you are Elder Han, right? You only have one question left. If you know how to talk nicely, then talk nicely. My patience is limited.”

The Hall of Unforgivable Crimes immediately fell into a deathly silence again.

In a hall with only two of them, Ye Xiao was undoubtedly the one who had the upper hand. She was in charge of all life and death here.

However, when this place became a tripartite balance, Xu Xiaoshou would be able to stand up for himself.

He was most afraid of an environment with few people because the factors that could affect the result would also be very few.

However, once the situation became complicated, he would be like a fish in water, just like when he was toying with Teng Shanhai and Jiang Buyi.

Xu Xiaoshou was never afraid of complications, but he was afraid of reckless men!

There was still a passage to the outside world at the hole in the seal of Sky Three's cell, which was poked out by Xu Xiaoshou.

He believed that Elder Han knew what the pros and cons were, just like how Elder Han was a smart man. When the seal was broken, they chose to observe the two people outside before appearing in the direction of the sound.

Not long after, an embarrassed and uneasy voice sounded in the cell.

“B-big brother, can you give me a chance? Yours truly... Uh, I don't want to be sealed anymore. How long can your move seal this place... I-I want to come out...”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and laughed.

“A year at least, three years at most.”

“If I'm willing to fork out some of my family's resources, I'll wait for the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes' power to be completely drained by the spiritual array before putting in a few more... Yes, if it's a high-grade spirit medicine or crystal, sealing you for ten years won't be a problem.”

“In short, I can always wait until the First Hall of Sins space is distorted before I choose to leave. If I'm trapped here forever, you'll never be able to get out.”

“Release...” Elder Han's voice suddenly became high-pitched, as if they wanted to say something.

“Alright, you have used up your three questions.” Xu Xiaoshou blocked the hole he had made and repaired all the spiritual arrays. Elder Han’s voice also stopped.

He looked at Ye Xiao.

This Dark Division Chief was standing above the necromancer. She used to be arrogant and disdainful, but now it seemed that she could no longer suppress him.

“Miss Ye Xiao, may I ask you a question?” Xu Xiaoshou leaned against the cell door and asked casually as if he had found some security.

Ye Xiao was silent.

Xu Xiaoshou took her silence as consent and said, “God’s execution token? what is that?”

As soon as he said that, he felt Ye Xiao’s aura turn cold. At the same time, the necromancer’s muscular body moved and the scepter in its hand was raised.

Smart people knew what the other party wanted to do.

Xu Xiaoshou instantly understood that Ye Xiao wanted to take advantage of the time when Elder Han was sealed again to end him.

After all, at this moment, without the influence of the third party, Ye Xiao was the master here!

“BOOM!”

The demonic eye of the god of death opened again in the sky behind Ye Xiao, and the darkness that represented death shrouded everything.

The necromancer swung its scepter, and thirty-six rays of soul-extinguishing light fell from the sky, more terrifying than the ones that it had used when attacking the sealing fence!

“Ambushed, Passive Points, +1.”

Xu Xiaoshou laughed.

“You really deserve to die, Ye Xiao...”

In the face of such an attack, he didn’t even move. Instead, he gently shattered the spiritual array seal on the cell door behind him.

At the same time, the sounds from the cell door could finally be heard again.

“WAHH”

“Dammit! Die! Die!”

“Chen Tan, you’d better not let this Elder catch you... Ah?”

Without a doubt, Elder Han could sense the commotion outside. At the same time, it could hear someone knocking on the cell door.

“One chance.”

This was Chen Tan’s voice!

“Sizzle...”

Without any hesitation, frosty white air began to seep out from the hole. The air rose up high, but it did not touch Chen Tan at all. Instead, it condensed into half a pair of huge bat-shaped ice wings in front of him.

These ice wings exuded the might of a demi-saint!

“Boom boom boom...”

With just one flap, thirty-six rays of destructive light containing the power of the death god were blown away by the ice wings, and they bounced toward Ye Xiao and the Necromancer. Meanwhile the ice wings... There wasn’t a single bit of damage!

At the same time, a bitter laugh mixed with a bit of hysteria and a horrifying voice that was forced to offer allegiance rippled from the hole.

“Who dares to touch my people? Ah!”

1556 God-Slaying Official (1)

Demi-Saint!

Over the shoulder of the Necromancer, Ye Xiao’s eyes narrowed. She was a little surprised, but that was all.

Elder Han used only one move to avert her attack that contained the power of the God of Death. Naturally, he couldn’t avoid exposing the Demi-Saint’s power contained in the Ice Wings attack.

However, even though he was sealed in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, Ye Xiao would never believe that Elder Han was just an ordinary higher void level.

Thus, this was something she had already expected, so she was not too surprised.

At the very least, he wasn't a Holy Emperor.

But...

"This guy's moves were a little too powerful. That's an attack that contained the Power of the Ancestral Source and should not be that easily deflected?"

At this moment, the thought that appeared in Xu Xiaoshou's mind was exactly the same as Ye Xiao's.

He figured that Elder Han shouldn't be only a simple Demi-Saint, and might even be one of the top Demi-Saints.

"I wonder how he fared when compared to Jiang Buyi..."

One was a Demi-Saint who had killed the threat in its cradle the moment the power of Demon God Aura emanated from Teng Shanhai.

One used his ice wings to deflect the attack of the God of Death with a mere wave of his hand.

Xu Xiaoshou could not tell how Elder Han's cultivation level was compared to Jiang Buyi's. If these two people could compete in front of him and fight to the death...that would at best be a pure fantasy.

"You're a Demi-Saint?"

Xu Xiaoshou didn't pay much attention to Ye Xiao's reaction after she was blown away by the attack. He glanced at the hole in the cell door with surprise and suspicion.

"You're a Demi-Saint, and you're willing to address those below you as Big Brother? I don't even dare to let you out."

He was the first to show his weakness.

It was best to be clear about some things. He was afraid that the villain would remember these things and hold a grudge.

After all, the Demi-Saint had been forced to address Xu Xiaoshou as Big Brother due to the seal of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. Even if it was not his intention, it had become a fact.

“Hahaha...”

When he heard this, Elder Han let out a strange cry, as if he didn't care about such a small matter at all.

“You humans... Well, ‘the one who was trapped in an inferior situation had to be humble’. This is an old saying.”

“Kid, since you know my strength, I'll give you one more chance. Will you let me out or not?”

“... Don't worry, as long as I come out, I'll let bygones be bygones and you can still live a good life.”

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at Ye Xiao, who no longer acted rashly, then he looked at the huge ice wings that protected him and said.

“I say, Elder Han, why don't you wait for the seal to be completely broken before you say anything? This situation now is of your own making, so how would I dare to let you go?”

What he meant was that he was the one who had caused the current deadlock between the three forces.

If you Elder Han had taken advantage of the great battle to sneak out and put a stop to everything that happened in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes with your Demi-Saint status, I'm afraid that so many things would not have happened and you would have been the one in control of the situation.

But now...

For someone who switched my identity to that of Chen Tan, would I dare to let out a Demi-Saint with an unknown background?

Elder Han, who was inside the cell, also fell silent. After a long time, he sighed and said, “Who would've thought that you would know about the Spiritual Array?”

Even if I don't do anything about it, if you make a big ruckus here, it would have attracted Ye Xiao's and my attention! So, it's impossible for you to escape the normal way, and you can only rely on the power of others, right?

We were aware of this too. Everyone had a tacit understanding...

Xu Xiaoshou's thoughts started to wander.

He was actually quite knowledgeable, but through this conversation, he was even more certain that Elder Han was a smart person.

He was looking for a way out for him, but Elder Han was also giving him 'face'. This was a Demi-Saint, shouldn't he have the same high and mighty attitude as Jiang Buyi?

Even Ye Xiao issued orders in a brusque manner to her people when she summoned them

This Elder Han could be said to be the most polite, or rather, the most humble Demi-Saint he had ever met along the way. He could even address people below the level of Demi-Saint as Big Brother... Xu Xiaoshou couldn't figure out Elder Han's intentions.

"I feel like we can cooperate?" This thought flashed through his mind, but he was still a little uneasy. What if all this was just part of Elder Han's trickery...

"Kid, you and I are the same kind of person. The only thing that is holding us back now is the 'mutual trust' rule. How about this, you help me break the seal of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and let me out first."

"After I come out, I'll help you deal with this woman. It's just the power of the God of Death and the Body of Death, right? It's useless against a Demi-Saint; what do you think?"

His tone was very sincere. Xu Xiaoshou's eyes flickered as he began to plan his future.

The Information Bar jumped:

"+(Bewitched. Passive Points,+1)."

Swish!

Spirit Awakening!

The corners of Xu Xiaoshou's mouth twitched. He scratched his head and said innocently, "I'll have to consider it."

"Chen Tan." Ye Xiao, who was on the Necromancer's shoulder, stopped her attacks and reminded him, "A Demi-Saint is like a king, you could get killed at any time. Don't forget that the seal is still broken."

Xu Xiaoshou lowered his eyes, and as expected, the frosty white air in the cell constantly seeped through the holes into the ice wings that protected him and gave him a great sense of security.

"You stinky b*tch..." Elder Han's rebuke rang out.

"I'm sorry, Elder Han. I need some time to think about it. I might have to lock you up for a while. After all, I can't be sure if there will be two more corpses here after you come out." Xu Xiaoshou's tone was apologetic, as if he was embarrassed that he had to use a Demi-Saint as a tool to protect himself.

1557 God-Slaying Official (2)

"Do as you please, I'm going to take a nap first." In the cell, Elder Han seemed to yawn as he took the initiative to cut off the frosty air.

"This..." Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

This development had completely exceeded his expectations!

Shouldn't he be shouting and frantically attacking the Spiritual Array when his cover was revealed after he attempted to break the seal?

What's going on? This Demi-Saint really handed over his right of free movement to one of his minions to make a decision? Did he not want to preserve his image?"

"This is a rather difficult situation..."

What Xu Xiaoshou feared most were brainy people and he didn't know how to make a decision.

As long as Elder Han did not give up and he felt that he harbored some ill intentions, he would seal him without a second thought.

However, the other party was so sincere that it could be said that he had placed his life in his hands. This made him feel a little uncomfortable.

"Not like a mortal!"

Xu Xiaoshou sighed in his heart and immediately used the Spirit Threads to weave an array and paste the seal on the cell door.

Ka!

The ice wings on the outside lost their connection with their owner, and the Demi-Saint's aura on them disappeared. They turned into broken ice cubes, dropped and finally melted into a pool of water that was full of spiritual energy.

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at it casually and was about to purify the water.

Who would have thought that Ye Xiao would be faster than him? With a cold glance, the Necromancer swung his staff, and a deathly light silently absorbed the pool of water instantly. Xu Xiaoshou was so scared that he almost poked a hole in the seal of the cell door.

“D*mn it, they’re even more cautious than me. These two are not easy to deal with!” Xu Xiaoshou’s heart was in his throat again, and he didn’t dare to relax his guard at all.

“Chen Tan.” After Ye Xiao cleaned everything up, she looked at him coldly and raised her hands. “I won’t attack you anymore. Give me the God Execution Order and I’ll write off everything that happened here.”

She wanted the God Execution Order again?

Xu Xiaoshou was amused. “I’ve said it before, right? You and I worked together to explore the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. What an individual gets is his own, and what a team gets is divided equally. Why are you so obsessed about what I’ve gotten?”

“You shouldn’t have taken the God Execution Order. It will only bring you disaster.” Ye Xiao shook her head as she said this.

“So what is it exactly?” Xu Xiaoshou had already hidden the God Execution Order well, and he was still as adamant as before when he replied. In fact, he knew that the more Ye Xiao valued it, the more he couldn’t give it to her.

This was already a matter of principle. It had nothing to do with the extended meaning of the God Execution Order. It was just that Ye Xiao would never understand that.

Ye Xiao was silent and once again, she had nothing to say.

Xu Xiaoshou was about to poke a hole in the cell door and ask Elder Han about the origin of the God Execution Order. The Demi-Saint felt that the token was very powerful and he did not know the origins of the God Execution Order.

When she saw this, Ye Xiao spoke again. “I will retreat for now. You can take the God Execution Order and I’ll give you a credit. You can follow me back to the Holy Divine Palace. As long as you pass the background test, you can also exchange your credit for cultivation resources.”

What?

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

“You mean, you want me to join the Dark Division? Your Dark Division?”

“You can take it as that. Think about it, I can recommend you to the Path Division or the Transformation Division.”

In terms of spiritual arrays, Chen Tan was qualified to join the Path Division.

In terms of the Power of the Evil God, the Transformation Division could help him to research this spell technique, and both sides would get what they needed.

In terms of intelligence, technique, and strategy, this guy would have a bright future after he joined the Dark Division...

No matter which option he took, Ye Xiao believed that she had given Chen Tan the best options in life. She had helped a random cultivator from the Southern Region to join the number one organization on the continent, get to work with her and cultivate his skills. She did not believe that Chen Tan would not be tempted.

“I’m going to f *cking die!” Xu Xiaoshou cursed in his heart.

It was impossible for him to pass the background test, so how could he join the Holy Divine Palace? Why were Ye Xiao and Night Guardian so alike?

“I’m used to an idle and carefree life. I don’t want to go.”

Xu Xiaoshou brushed off her offer. He didn’t even bother to think about the possibility of betrayal if he pretended to agree.

After all, this meant that he would have to stay with Ye Xiao. The more he stayed, the more mistakes he would make, and the greater the risk of exposure would be.

Only a person with a sick mentality would casually join such a large organization. This meant that he would reveal himself to everyone, and unknown problems would soon follow suit.

Xu Xiaoshou had rejected Yama for the same reason.

Ye Xiao was silent. She didn’t expect that the olive branch she extended would be rejected so harshly. This was something she had never thought of. It was the first time she wanted someone so badly.

“You can...”

“I don’t need to think about it anymore.”

Xu Xiaoshou shook his head and interrupted her. He lifted his head and grinned. A fierce light flashed in his eyes as he said.

“I’m not afraid to tell you, Miss Ye Xiao, the Qinjing court was destroyed after the old man taught me and he was almost like my father.”

“I was really tired of all those noisy voices. I still had a mission to complete and I don’t want to be anyone’s puppet.”

“This isn’t…”

Xu Xiaoshou spread out his hands and laughed teasingly. His eyes were filled with good memories as he sighed.

“The old man’s body is now buried under Mount Dafan. If Miss Ye Xiao is interested, you can go and search for him…Well, as long as he still has a bit of spiritual quality left.”

His words were calm, and his posture was also very indifferent, but it gave people a feeling of distaste.

This was the first time Ye Xiao had experienced the urge when she wanted someone so badly but she also wanted to kill him instantly in the next minute!

She was also cold-blooded, but she would never be as heartless as Chen Tan. If you listened to what he said…This was a bastard who deceived his master and destroyed his ancestors!

“Southern Region’s evil cultivator…” Ye Xiao murmured, and her eyes that were hidden in the shadows became even colder.

“+(Detested, Passive Points+) +1.”

“Sizzle.”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t care about this at all. He poked the seal of the cell with his hand.

“Yo, you’ve thought it through? Brother Chen Tan, have you decided to save me?” Elder Han’s voice was a little lighter. He was obviously happy that Chen Tan had come back so quickly to look for him.

Being dependent was addictive.

He wasn't afraid of trouble, but he was afraid that Chen Tan would not bother about him, ignore the seal and would not come back and save him.

"This God Execution Order? What is that?" Xu Xiaoshou went straight to the point.

"Hey, you've come to the right person. You should've asked me earlier. That b*tch would never be able to tell you anything."

Elder Han first complained, as if he was aware of the situation outside. After a pause, he said.

"You've grasped the 'Power of the Ancestor Technique', and you've also seen the power of her 'God of Death'. You must have some understanding of the Power of the Ancestral Source, right?"

"Yes." Xu Xiaoshou nodded.

He turned his head and saw that Ye Xiao had also turned to look across from afar.

However, he knew that as long as she made a move, Elder Han would retaliate. She had already suppressed her temper and was not in a hurry to interrupt the conversation.

"There were many talents in the ancient times. Not only did these ten Gods appear, but there was also a God-slaying official called Ran Ming. He had the Power of the Ancestral Source...His combat strength was slightly higher than that of the Ten Ancestors." Elder Han said.

God-Slaying official, Ran Ming?

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned for a moment. He felt that this term was very strange, but it was also vaguely familiar.

He tried to recall carefully, then searched through his 'Perception' and suddenly found the familiar point.

When he signed the Red Ghost Inscription contract with the Void General Hong, he had experienced Hong's life. When he was on the verge of death, he was pierced through the chest by the Demon God, and this God-slaying official was included in his last will.

"Ran Ming...I'm sorry..."

"I...could only...Let's go first...One step...only..."

Xu Xiaoshou blinked and came back to his senses. He glanced at the indifferent Ye Xiao and suddenly didn't want the God Execution Order anymore. He felt that it was another big burden.

Elder Han continued. "After the death of the God-Slaying official, Ran Ming, everyone looked for his ruins. They wanted to inherit his power. After some research, they should have found a method."

"What sort of method?" Xu Xiaoshou was exalted, but in his heart, he thought that such a powerful person had also died?

"If we gathered the three 'God Execution Orders' that Ran Ming had, we would be able to find the treasures he left behind. The ultimate source of all this was in the 'Ran Ming Ruins'." Elder Han's voice was extremely certain.

"Chen Tan!" Ye Xiao, who was on the shoulder of the Necromancer, couldn't stand still anymore. She obviously didn't expect Elder Han to be so knowledgeable.

"Don't forget, he's a Demi-Saint." She warned.

"I know." Xu Xiaoshou scanned the Information Bar and didn't see any 'Bewitched' or 'Spiritual Awakening' warnings being triggered.

The second true body in the Yuan Mansion used the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale as a tool. The news that he received was that Elder Han wasn't lying. At the very least, Elder Han believed that what he said was the truth.

"The God Execution Orders have all been collected?" Xu Xiaoshou asked.

He deduced this because the Ran Ming Ruins had been mentioned in Elder Han's story. Someone must have found it and seen the Ran Ming Ruins with their own eyes, that was why the news had spread.

"You're really smart, kid, just like me!" Elder Han chuckled and said, "It was collected once, but after the Ran Ming Ruins appeared, the God Execution Orders were scattered, and no one had ever entered it."

"So, this is the key to unlock the treasure and also the Guidance to the ruins?" Xu Xiaoshou took out the God Execution Order, that was half the height of a man, and his heart thudded with excitement.

Ye Xiao was obviously a little restless when she was in midair. The aura of death oozed faintly from her body, as if she was hesitating whether to attack or not.

She was anxious. Elder Han really knew a lot, and he might be right...Xu Xiaoshou didn't need to look back to make the judgment. He immediately asked again, "Then do you know where the other two God Execution Orders are?"

"Ha...ha...ha..." Elder Han laughed in a strange manner and a conceited voice came out of the cell. "Most of the Demi-Saints in the world can't give an answer to your question. Most of them don't know, and a small number would not dare to tell... But I know, I dare, I know everything!"

"Chen Tan!" Ye Xiao shouted coldly.

"+(Warned, Passive Points+)+1."

Xu Xiaoshou snorted and didn't look at her at all.

"Where is it?"

"The Holy Divine Palace!"

He had thought that Elder Han would use this information as a condition for him to be released. Xu Xiaoshou was already prepared not to have the answer. Who would have thought that Elder Han would really tell him?

What he saw with his 'Perception' was Ye Xiao's, who was on the Necromancer's shoulder, eyes suddenly raised in disbelief.

"You're kidding me, right?" Xu Xiaoshou mumbled silently.

If he didn't know that the two of them had nothing to do with each other, he would have really suspected that Elder Han and Ye Xiao were in cahoots. One of them did the talking and the other put on a show as they tried to trick him.

"What about the Ran Ming ruins? Since Elder Han knows so much, don't tell me you know everything about the Ran Ming ruins as well?" Xu Xiaoshou asked in disbelief. Was this guy really a know-it-all?

"Hahaha..." Elder Han was overjoyed. The sound of someone hitting the floor came from inside the cell door, and then frosty white cold air seeped out from the holes.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't block it. The cold air froze into ice and turned into two huge bat-shaped ice wings to protect him. Time and again, it slapped away Ye Xiao's crazy attacks.

"Chen Tan, you'd better not."

Ye Xiao who was on the shoulder of the Necromancer disappeared and joined the attack. Countless three-legged owls attacked the bat-like ice wings and tried to melt down the defense but to no avail.

The power of a Demi-Saint was not something a higher void level who had mastered the power of the God of Death, could break through in a short time. This was the difference in realm.

“You really want to know?” In the cell, Elder Han hesitated for a moment.

“Yes.” Xu Xiaoshou was not afraid of death. Why did they say that curiosity killed the cat? At most, he would just abandon the identity of Chen Tan in the future. Would one die after he gained some information?

“Boom...boom...boom...”

Endless explosions rang out behind his back as his ice wings broke and reassembled.

If the hole wasn't sealed, and Elder Han's power didn't stop, Ye Xiao would never be able to break through it.

After waiting for three whole breaths, Elder Han didn't make a trade request. Instead, he received a firm answer that didn't ask for anything in return.

Four Symbols Secret Realm!

1559 The Only Way to Escape (1)

“I'll go!”

Xu Xiaoshou's heart trembled in shock.

He had heard of the Four Symbols Secret Realm before. Not only had he heard of it, but it was like the sound of thunder in his ears.

What was the purpose of the Yunlun Mountain Range's Imperial City Trial? It was to compete for the thirty six spots in the Holy Palace Trial.

Where would the Holy Palace Trial be held?

Outsiders might not know, but after the battle in the Eighth Palace ended and through what Bazhun'an had personally told him, Xu Xiaoshou knew that this Holy Palace Trial would most likely be held in the Four Symbols Secret Realm.

In the past, he didn't realize the significance of Bazhun'an's three words.

But now that he thought about it, how could the information given by this person be false?

According to the Eighth Sword Deity, his next path was to go to the Imperial City Trial, to the Four Symbols Secret Realm, to the Holy Palace and to climb the Saint mountain.

Xu Xiaoshou had an appointment at the Dongtianwang City.

Things were a bit more complicated than he thought!

As a result, after numerous trials, his companions were still fighting with the Innate Stage and the Master Stage. He had come to the Abyss Island on his own and his enemies were all the higher void levels and Demi-Saints.

You could say that the Four Symbols Secret Realm was a piece of cake and Bazhun'an did not set up a trap for him, but now Xu Xiaoshou didn't believe it at all.

The Ran Ming ruins mentioned by Elder Han was in the Four Symbols Secret Realm, and the path Bazhun'an had arranged also included the Four Symbols Secret Realm. How could there be such a coincidence in this world?

Absolutely not!

"Eighth Brother, are you the one behind this?"

Xu Xiaoshou almost questioned Elder Han on the spot if he was one of Bazhun'an's men.

It was as if Eighth brother had arranged for a passerby who was a Demi-Saint, who encouraged him to take the next step as soon as they met.

If you don't leave, I'll give you a push!

But in front of him was the abyss!

However, he did not dare to ask and he did not know whether this Demi-Saint passerby was a friend or foe. When he asked this question, it would definitely reveal that Chen Tan had a close relationship with the Saint Servant.

Anyone with eyes could see that this was either Xu Xiaoshou or Lei Shuangxing or even the Saint Servant, the third young Swordsman. He could kill them all anyway.

Wasn't this seeking death?

"Little Brother, why aren't you talking? Have you heard of the Four Symbols Secret Realm?"

Elder Han's teasing voice came out from the cell again.

He was really the most unscrupulous Demi-Saint Xu Xiaoshou had ever met.

Just a moment ago, he addressed him as 'Big Brother' out of fear. The next second, because he had revealed his strength as a Demi-Saint, he now addressed him as 'Little Brother' in order to get closer to him.

"I've heard a little about it."

Xu Xiaoshou didn't hide the fact that he knew about it.

Because Elder Han's words just now had indeed shocked him, and Ye Xiao must have seen his subconscious reaction.

But so what if they knew each other?

The Holy Palace Trial had been held in the Four Symbols Secret Realm before, so which Spiritual Cultivator wouldn't want to go to the Holy Palace? To get some information about the Holy Palace's Trial?

This naturally included the Four Symbols Secret Realm!

"I can tell that you're very interested, kid..."

Elder Han's voice came out again.

"I'm also very interested. How about this? Let me out and we can go and look for the treasure together?"

"This world is too boring. Only secrets and treasures can pique people like us. Isn't that where the joy of adventure is?"

Only a ghost would want to go on an adventure with you!

After he understood how the God Execution Order worked, Xu Xiaoshou just wanted to burn all bridges and seal up the hole at the prison door.

"Then, don't wait for too long..."

Elder Han immediately cried out and his voice contained a nauseating tinge of coquettishness.

"I'm serious. It's really boring to be a Demi-Saint. If you let me out, I'll do three things for you. How about it?"

He paused, and his words were filled with killing intent. "The first thing I'll do is to kill the woman in front of you. I can tell that you don't like her."

"Everyone has the heart to appreciate beauty." Xu Xiaoshou refuted.

“Come on, you appreciate beauty? Do you really think I can’t feel your killing intent?”

Was I really that obvious?

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned. He glanced at Ye Xiao and found that the Dark Division Chief was still unmoved.

She really was such a cool character!

They were talking about her and teasing her to such an extent, yet she could still keep her cool?

“You wanted to kill her, didn’t you?” Xu Xiaoshou chuckled.

“Oh?” As Elder Han continued to release cold air, he sniffed as if he was curious why Chen Tan said that.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t seem to notice Elder Han’s minute movements and continued.

“First, without any external help, you can’t get out of this cell. Even if the seal and bars have rotted, you won’t be able to get out for a while. That’s why you tried to persuade me to join forces with you.”

“Second, you’re not human!”

His tone was very certain, as if he already had enough evidence in his hands.

“What!”

In the cell, Elder Han laughed sharply.

However, his laughter came to an abrupt end after that.

“Ha...ha...ha...”

“Kid, are you stupid?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s mind did not contain any Spiritual Light, but he could still hear the guilt in these words, apart from the fact that he was not stupid.

“I’ve been wandering around the Abyss Island for so long. Besides the Void Attendants, there are only outsiders. There has never been a native. Why would you, a Demi-Saint be locked up in this Hall of Unforgivable Crimes?”

When he glanced at Ye Xiao, Xu Xiaoshou found that Ye Xiao still remained motionless.

He knew that Ye Xiao was a shrewd lady and must have known what he knew, but he still spoke without any scruples.

“It could be that you’re really from an ancient era and have been locked up until now, but as a virtuous Demi-Saint, why were you locked up in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes Where were the other Demi-Saints on the Abyss Island? You’re the only one alive here?”

“Ordinary people do not know this, but I understand this all too clearly...The Abyss Island is a Land of Exile!”

1560 The Only Way to Escape (2)

“If the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes is really the final destination, you should not be the only one here. So, you were either extremely weak in the Demi-Saint realm and was thrown here; Or you were extremely strong and escaped from another place.”

“You’re not a human, because the Abyss Island has nothing to do with ordinary people!”

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly cut off his next sentence. “You are a Ghost Beast because the Ghost Beast is usually banished to the Abyss Island!”

He had his evidence.

From Elder Han’s previous remarks like ‘The one who was trapped in an inferior situation had to be humble’ and where he exposed himself when he said ‘You humans’. He had noticed that.

“You humans have an old saying that is good...”

Under normal circumstances, this should be what Elder Han was going to say!

Xu Xiaoshou believed that Ye Xiao should have noticed it too. She was a smart woman, but she didn’t say anything and did not seem to care.

This was very normal!

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t believe that the Holy Divine Palace had nothing to do with Elder Han being locked up here.

In other words, there was a high chance that Elder Han was Ye Xiao’s enemy, or at least, the two of them were on opposite sides.

In that case, what Elder Han wanted to do was to target Ye Xiao.

Now that he made such a big detour, what Elder Han had in mind was nothing more than to use him as a chess piece!

“I’m not a tool, Elder Han. Don’t treat me like a pig or a dog. That fool had already died on the way to the Abyss Island. Besides, this is the First Hall of Sins, the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes!” Xu Xiaoshou said meaningfully.

With the appearance of the Four Symbols Secret Realm, when he thought of Bazhun’an, everything made sense.

The only uncertainty was that Elder Han might be a third kind of existence besides the humans and Ghost Beasts, and that he might not be from the Inner Island of the Abyss Island and was not controlled by anyone. He might be an absolute Big Boss!

However, one thing was for sure. Ye Xiao was unwilling to mention this as she was afraid he might comprehend the whole situation and would completely lean towards Elder Han’s side...

Elder Han and the Holy Divine Palace were definitely on opposite sides. They weren’t completely unrelated!

“+(Surprised, Passive Points, +)+2.”

“...”

The Information Bar was filled with pop-ups.

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at Ye Xiao and was even more certain that this woman knew something. Just as he had expected, she knew everything but chose not to say anything!

“Hahaha...”

There was only silence in the cell for a long time before a sharp burst of staccato laughter suddenly erupted. The sound was so shrill that it made people’s hair stand on end.

After a long time, Elder Han’s deep voice was heard. He sounded a little shocked and in disbelief.

“Impossible!”

“You humans have already evolved to such a stage?”

“I’ve only made a slip of the tongue once. It’s just that I haven’t played such a trick for a long time, so I was a little negligent...”

He clearly knew where his only flaw lay, but his words also confirmed Chen Tan’s deduction.

“Brat, you’re right, you’re very smart, you’re really like me back in the days!”

Elder Han laughed again and said in a confidential tone.

“But you see, I will tell you everything you want to know. I can give you whatever you want.”

“We’re on the same side. With your intelligence, it would not be difficult for you to see our connection. You know what to do.”

“Let me out, and I’ll promise you three things, and you won’t regret it!”

In the cell, Elder Han made a solemn vow. His words were sonorous and powerful, as heavy as the weight of nine cauldrons.

“Pa!”

Xu Xiaoshou struck the seal hole with a backhand.

Are you teasing a dog?

It’s like what I told you...

Do I really look that stupid and easy to fool?

Xu Xiaoshou turned to look at Ye Xiao. He stood up and pointed at the water formed by the ice wings.

“Swish!”

The Necromancer waved his scepter, and Ye Xiao cooperated by clearing up the mess. She said, “You’re so smart that it’s frightening.”

Even she had not thought carefully through the information in Chen Tan’s words, in these circumstances even when he was under pressure from a Demi-Saint and then summarized in such a concise and orderly manner.

“+(Received praise. Passive Points),+1.”

“You’re too kind. You’re even scarier. Silence is golden and you’re a hundred times better than me.” Xu Xiaoshou chuckled indifferently.

“What do you want?” Ye Xiao asked bluntly.

Since they were all smart people, there was no need to beat around the bush.

Chen Tan knew that Elder Han was not on the same side as him, which was equivalent to having a handle on him.

Even if he didn’t know, as long as he guarded the door of the cell and released the seal when he was attacked, Elder Han would definitely protect him.

He was already in an undefeatable position!

Since that was the case, Chen Tan’s choice to point out all the problems must be in exchange for something.

Ye Xiao liked to get straight to the point, and she also hated nonsense, so she asked him bluntly.

Xu Xiaoshou laughed. He held the seal on the cell door with one hand and opened it with the other. He was also being frank.

“First, I hope that you will stop thinking about the ‘God Execution Order’. At least, you won’t be able to remove it from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.”

Ye Xiao’s gaze fell on Chen Tan’s hand, which was placed on the cell door’s sealing Spiritual Array, and she nodded silently.

“Second, I have no intention of getting involved in the dispute between the Holy Divine Palace and this Demi-Saint. I chose to talk about it openly because I wanted to say this.”

“I’m not a tool nor am I an idiot. You guys can go ahead and fight, just don’t get me involved. I don’t want to die yet.”

Ye Xiao nodded again.

It was a wise decision for a gentleman to protect himself. She agreed with Chen Tan’s idea from the bottom of her heart. If she had been in Chen Tan’s position, she would have done the same.

1561 The Only Way to Escape (3)

However, if you took the God Execution Order, you would never be able to escape the center of this vortex.

Even if you managed to escape from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, how far can you run?

Play it safe?

He could, but there were not that many ways.

“Third, you and I met by chance, so our destiny ends here.”

“I will be looking for a way out of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. Don’t interfere and of course, you can’t stop me from leaving.”

“As for the future...”

Xu Xiaoshou tilted his head and looked in the direction of the cell door. The image of Ye Xiao who had been in the same position when he first entered the Hall, flashed through his mind.

The other party was already on her guard, but he only realized it later.

Fortunately, he had taken the initiative and didn’t make a big mistake in the end.

He sighed and shook his head. “Who knows what will happen in the future?”

If it was possible, a smart person like Chen Tan would have sent out the God Execution Order as well to escape from the center of the vortex.

But it was a pity.

Chen Tan was not Chen Tan, he was just Xu Xiaoshou’s avatar.

Wasn’t giving the God Execution Order to the Holy Divine Palace just creating a great enemy for himself in the future?

Xu Xiaoshou had a premonition that even if the three God Execution Orders really fell into the hands of the Holy Divine Palace, Bazhun’an would not let the matter rest.

There was a high chance that he would enter the Ran Ming ruins after he stepped into the Four Symbols Secret Realm, just like how he had inexplicably wandered to the Abyss Island after he entered the Imperial City Trial.

“Wouldn’t it be better if he didn’t enter the Four Symbols Secret Realm?”

Ha! How naive of him!

Xu Xiaoshou had long passed the age where he would have such naive thoughts.

He had now understood a principle-in the martial arts world, one cannot act on their own will.

“Yes.”

On the shoulder of the Necromancer, Ye Xiao nodded slightly and gathered all the power in her body.

However, none of them disappeared. It was as if they were waiting for the arrival of a variable.

Xu Xiaoshou nodded in approval. Smart people still had their own ways of playing.

Since they couldn’t do anything to each other, it would be a good choice to take a break and recuperate.

After he left the cell, Xu Xiaoshou wandered around and was not afraid that Ye Xiao would launch a sudden attack.

Even if he didn’t warn Ye Xiao, he knew that with Ye Xiao’s cautious nature, she would definitely have left a backup plan on the Spiritual Array seal.

Even if there was a slight mistake, the seal would be removed.

After having been unsealed for so many times, perhaps Elder Han would really be able to escape.

At that time, the one who would die a miserable death would not necessarily be Chen Tan, but Ye Xiao, who belonged to the Holy Divine Palace and would definitely not be able to survive under the hands of a Demi-Saint, even if she had mastered the power of the God of Death.

“Da...da...da...”

The sound of footsteps was like an intangible clock that ticked away every minute.

Xu Xiaoshou had almost walked through the entire Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and his 'Perception' had searched every dead-end corner no less than ten times, but he still couldn't find the exit.

The Inner hall, the Outer Hall, and the place where they first landed...

In this completely sealed off Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, it seemed that there really were no windows for any prisoners to escape.

He searched for an entire day.

The palace doors couldn't be pushed open, and the passageway couldn't be found.

Even if they used sharp blades to cut the space, the space here was tough and solid. It couldn't be cut through via any normal means. Even if they could, the spatial storm was more than ten thousand times more terrifying than the outside world!

Xu Xiaoshou secretly sent a portrait clone to test the power. Of course, this was disguised as some kind of evil and spiritual technique from the Southern Region.

As a result, the portrait clone shattered the moment it entered the spatial fragment.

The test showed that those who didn't have the strength of a Demi-Saint didn't need to think about leaving the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes through the spatial fragment.

"Wow..."

Ye Xiao had already landed on the giant table in the main hall from the Necromancer's shoulder.

Her feet were suspended in the air and swayed gently like a willow branch in the night wind. Her upper body leaned forward slightly, with half of her face hidden in the shadow of the hood, and her fingers were interlocked as they supported her fair chin. Just like that, she quietly watched Chen Tan, who had been busy the whole day.

"Swish!"

The three-legged Black Owl on her shoulder looked curiously at the Spiritual Array that replaced the God Execution Order. Then, as if it had seen something complicated, its eyes became dazed, and it raised its head to scream.

Magpies represented blessings, while crows signified misfortune.

In fact, there was no such thing as a bird of fortune or a bird of disaster. It was just that the latter had a higher spiritual quality and could sense the arrival of some unknown variables and served as a reminder to people to make a decision quickly.

However, when the crows cawed, there were often no good news.

As time passed, people attributed the disasters to them and regarded them as 'ominous birds' or the 'reincarnation of the God of Death'.

Ye Xiao who had been silent for the whole night, also moved with the cries of the black Owl on her shoulder.

She released her hands and looked up at the ceiling of the Great Hall. Her gaze pierced through the darkness as if she had seen the future.

"Chen Tan."

After a long while, Ye Xiao jumped down from the table and landed on the shoulder of the Necromancer. She stopped Chen Tan, who was still busy and refused to give up, and said, "Actually, you have another option."

"Thank you, but no thanks." Xu Xiaoshou didn't even turn his head.

"This is my last advice."

"Thank you, but we're not compatible."

Ye Xiao lowered her head, and the darkness under her hood hid all her expressions. She stopped trying to persuade him and waited quietly.

Xu Xiaoshou also stopped.

He couldn't find a way out even though he searched for a whole day.

He could either break the seal on Elder Han and let him take him away; The other option was to wait for any variable change, just like the spatial disorder in the First Hall of Sins. There would probably be a next time, and that would be his chance.

Xu Xiaoshou was afraid of death, so he chose the latter and placed his bet on an unknown possibility.

And now, the variable was here!

"BOOM!"

Accompanied by a deafening sound, a huge gap suddenly appeared in the void outside the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, where the huge instruments of torture were displayed.

The space was chaotic and overlapping, and lights and shadows flickered rapidly.

Xu Xiaoshou, who was prepared, saw many scenes that he didn't notice before.

There were the bodies of Spiritual Cultivators lying in pools of blood, a group of tall Void Attendants who chased after something, and a Great Hall that had been silent since ancient times...

Everything was there!

But everything was blurry.

Finally, the space froze.

Above the crack in the void, a tunnel that belonged to the labyrinth of the First Hall of Sins extended out. It was surrounded by walls, and a cross-section of the tunnel had been cut off and left in this space.

"This is my chance!"

Xu Xiaoshou's eyes flickered. He was about to rush into the passage and return to the First Hall of Sins to look for Master Siren and his little Junior Sister.

The next second.

"Da!"

The sound of footsteps resounded from the passage.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly stopped, and his Spiritual Will instantly poured down like ice water.

Ye Xiao was still standing on top of the Necromancer with her eyes lowered. She didn't look at the person in the tunnel at all. It was as if she didn't care who it was.

"Bang Bang..."

"Bang Bang..."

Xu Xiaoshou felt his heartbeat suddenly accelerate.

Who could it be?

The enemy?

Ally?

However, he only had one chance. No matter who was teleported here due to the spatial disorder, he had to get out of this one and only passageway.

If he didn't, he wouldn't have another chance.

The death countdown would not wait for anyone!

“Swish!”

With this thought, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly rushed into the passage.

At the same time, Ye Xiao who stood on top of the Necromancer, suddenly raised her head.

She kept her promise and did not stop Chen Tan from leaving. However, when she looked up, the gloominess was no longer there. Under the dim light, the corners of her lips were slightly raised and formed an enchanting bow.

The three-legged Black Owl screeched in fear and flapped its wings.

“Swish!”

1562 Three Points of Suspicion, Make a Direct Move (1)

Bang!

Xu Xiaoshou flew back from the entrance of the spatial passage at the speed of light. He fell heavily to the ground and was very shocked.

“+(Startled, Passive Points,+)+1.”

The spatial dislocation in the First Hall of Sins lasted only for an instant.

After he missed the opportunity to escape from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, the spatial passageway that had cut across the void disappeared, as if no Transformation had ever taken place.

However, it was clear that everything had changed.

The spatial passageway had disappeared, but the person who walked out of it remained!

She hovered in the air!

She was wearing a white off-shoulder dress, and there were only two straps on her beautiful back. The two sunken dips at her waist could be seen and her bare feet stepped gently on the spiritual energy. She looked slender and graceful.

In her hand was a three-foot-long, green-and-white sword. The long sword had no scabbard, and the Sword Body had Dragons and Phoenixes carved on it. The sword was surrounded by auspicious clouds. The woman's temperament seemed refined and untainted by the mortal world.

"Rao Yaoyao!"

Xu Xiaoshou's heart sank.

He had been waiting to seize the opportunity during the First Hall of Sins's spatial disorder.

However, he had never thought that he would also be accompanied by the Ruler of the red-clothed people, the Seven Sword Deity, Rao Yaoyao.

"This motherf*cker..."

Xu Xiaoshou nearly went crazy.

He had thought that even if someone was sent over this time, perhaps it would randomly be Master Siren.

Then, he wouldn't even need to run. He could directly crush Ye Xiao and kill her on the spot!

But...

"What am I betting on?"

On second thought, there were only a few people from his side on the Abyss Island.

The remaining people were either the elites of the Holy Divine Palace, the higher void level of the red-clothed and white-clothed people, or the members of the third party factions or assassins who had come for his head.

If someone really came, there was a high chance that it would not end well.

"I am Chen Tan, greetings to Sword Deity Rao!"

Xu Xiaoshou didn't dare to think too much. Using Chen Tan's identity, he quickly cupped his fists in greeting and with a Swish returned to the door of the Tian San cell without waiting for a reply. He seemed to have found a sense of security.

Run?

The spatial passageway had already disappeared, so how could he escape?

He had rushed into the passage just now when he saw that he had a chance to escape.

However, the moment he stepped in and saw Rao Yaoyao's face, not only was he scared, but the sense of fear at the sight of a Saint's face made Xu Xiaoshou subconsciously choose to retreat instead of taking the easy way out and pass by Rao Yaoyao in order to escape.

Yes, the feeling that Rao Yaoyao gave people... was a huge change!

She was no longer like what she was in the Dongtianwang City when she was angry about the comparison between the Cang Godhood Sword and the Fourth Sword's superiority. She was also no longer the same person she was on the Lone Cliff, where she was afraid and fearful due to the appearance of Yama Huang Quan.

When their eyes met, Xu Xiaoshou felt a special aura from Rao Yaoyao.

It was similar to the Holy Realm of the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi!

Furthermore, it was a very different feeling...

How should he describe it?

Untainted by the mortal world?

Too indifferent or senseless?

All in all, his instincts told him that he should not get too close!

Xu Xiaoshou saw the coldness and sharpness that remained in Rao Yaoyao's eyes. She no longer had the hesitancy and indecisiveness from before.

He didn't dare to take the risk, so he chose to retreat and not cross over.

"Ye Xiao..."

Suspended in mid-air, Rao Yaoyao couldn't even be bothered to look at that cowardly rat. She turned to look at her Dark Division Chief. "I sensed your aura, so I came over."

The various traces of battle, the remnants of the power of the God of Death and the auras left behind by many other special powers told Rao Yaoyao what had taken place here.

However, the unknown guy did not choose to break out of the encirclement by force, and she was too lazy to make a move. She only used her momentum to force him back.

Before she understood everything, even a mosquito would not be able to fly out when she was here!

“Chen Tan, an evil cultivator from the Southern Region. He has the power of the Evil God, the Phantom Swords Technique, and was a Spirit Array Caster. His realm is unknown, but he is extremely intelligent. He has the ‘God Execution Order’.”

Ye Xiao emotionlessly shared her knowledge and judgment. After she said that, her gaze fell on Chen Tan’s back, and she spoke again.

“The only prisoner in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, Elder Han, Demi-Saint, ice-type, Temple of Hatred, suspected to be a Ghost Beast.”

Rao Yaoyao’s eyes narrowed slightly.

She rarely heard Ye Xiao speak so much at one time.

This wasn’t even a ‘sentence’, but just ‘words’. Only Rao Yaoyao was used to it and could extract effective information from it.

The last time she had received so many words from Ye Xiao was when she analyzed the Ultimate Life Demon Physique in the Yunlun Mountain Range.

The follow-up plans could not keep up with the Transformation and were all disrupted by accidents.

However, without exception, every time Ye Xiao opened her mouth, the situation would definitely not be good. She was like a mourning bird that only reported about deaths.

This wasn’t...

“Too much demonic wisdom?”

Rao Yaoyao looked at Chen Tan. It was hard to imagine that Ye Xiao gave such a totally positive evaluation of humans.

This caused all the information about Chen Tan to become insignificant in the face of the word ‘too much demonic wisdom’.

How wise was he?

Almost on par with Xu Xiaoshou?

“Ancient Swordsman?” Rao Yaoyao’s cold eyes swept over and fixed on the man who stood at the entrance of the side hall, trembling with fear.

“Yes.” Xu Xiaoshou nodded as he pretended to be neither humble nor arrogant.

“The Southern Region...Who is your master? The Feng family?”

“Yes.”

“You only know the Phantom Swords Technique?”

“I know a little.” Xu Xiaoshou answered tactfully and did not give a direct response.

Who knew that Rao Yaoyao’s expression would suddenly turn cold? She raised the Cang Goodhood Sword in her hand and her entire being was filled with killing intent.

“The Feng family of the Southern Region only cultivated the Ten Thousand Sword Technique. Who are you trying to fool?”

“+(Startled, Passive Points,+)+1.”

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou almost used his Transformation to simulate and control his own heartbeat so it would not stop suddenly and show the chaotic state he was in to the others.

“Hehe...”

He scratched his head and laughed sheepishly, as if she had seen through his trick He was a little embarrassed, cupped his fists, and solemnly said.

“Qingjing Sect’s 16th generation only heir, Chen Tan, greets Sword Deity Rao. I majored in martial arts and my swordsmanship is indeed from the Feng family. It’s just that my background isn’t very decent, so I try not to spout nonsense and offend others.”

Rao Yaoyao’s expression mellowed a little as she asked again, “You’ve seen Feng Wuhen?”

“No, I didn’t.” Xu Xiaoshou shook his head.

He didn’t dare to pretend anymore!

Rao Yaoyao was a Seven Sword Deity and so was Feng Wuhen.

Who knew what their relationship was like? if he pretended that he was close to the Feng family, she might see through his disguise in the next second.

Good, good...

From the very beginning, Chen Tan's Ancient Sword Technique was not up to standard but the technique was on the right path.

I cultivate the power of the evil God, so don't think too much and don't ask too many questions!

"Hand over the God Execution Order."

Rao Yaoyao was indeed no longer interested in Chen Tan. She didn't ask any more questions and gave the order.

"Oh, d*mn it, here it comes again..."

Xu Xiaoshou was irritated. With a thought, the seal at the entrance of the Tian San cell suddenly cracked.

It's your turn now Elder Han, to create some havoc here!

"Hahaha..."

An ear-piercing roar of raucous laughter came out of the cell, and then it turned into a voice that was filled with flattery.

"Brother Chen, you've thought it through, so you're going to let me out? Don't worry, I won't go back on my words!"

"Who's your brother Chen!" Xu Xiaoshou retreated in fear and hurriedly denied their relationship. He looked at Rao Yaoyao and said, "He's full of nonsense. Sword Deity Rao, you can ask Miss Ye Xiao if you don't believe me."

Miss Ye Xiao?

Rao Yaoyao was stunned and for a moment, did not realize who he meant when he used that title.

Then, she glanced at Ye Xiao, who was on the Necromancer's shoulder, with a strange look. She knew that Chen Tan told the truth when she saw that Ye Xiao remained silent.

Well, it was also true.

I would never have thought that you would be able to get close to Ye Xiao...

Rao Yaoyao secretly shook her head and laughed. Her attention had also been drawn to the Demi-Saint in the cell. This was the true master of this place!

“You’re Elder Han?”

“Huh?” Elder Han was surprised and a little delighted.” There’s another person here and a woman at that?”

D*mn...you’re a real master, you’re so audacious...Xu Xiaoshou trembled when he heard that, and subconsciously moved away from the cell door.

This place was no longer safe. Out of the thirty-six strategies, leaving was the best option.

Rao Yaoyao’s gaze turned cold.

The momentum she gave off when she entered was obviously not only felt by Xu Xiaoshou, but also by Elder Han who was in the cell.

Her red lips parted and without any ado, asked directly:

“You’re a Ghost Beast?”

There were still some chattering noises in the cell, and no one knew what Elder Han muttered to himself, but it suddenly became quiet.

After a short pause, Elder Han’s emotionless voice was heard again.

“Who are you?”

“I am the Ruler of the red-clothed people, Rao Yaoyao!”

Rao Yaoyao had injected almost all of her aura in this sentence and this made it hard for Xu Xiaoshou to breathe in the Great Hall. In the end, she sniffed slightly and asked again in a loud voice.

“You’re a Ghost Beast?”

At this moment, even Xu Xiaoshou felt that as the Ruler of the red-clothed people, Rao Yaoyao was well-versed about Ghost Beasts.

She only needed to get a whiff of it, and even through the cell door, she was certain that Elder Han was a Ghost Beast!

But the next second, Xu Xiaoshou noticed that something was off.

It was because the Rao Yaoyao he knew in the past didn't have this ability.

If she had any, the Ghost Beast Lair in the First Pavilion in the Sky, would long have been emptied!

So...

"She's faking it!"

Xu Xiaoshou almost slapped the table and praised her.

It all depended on how Elder Han dealt with this move. If there was even a slight hint of fear, then he was undoubtedly a Ghost Beast.

Who would have thought that Elder Han, who was inside the cell, would suddenly shout, "Rao Yaoyao, I know you. You're the Seven Sword Deity!"

After he said that, he did not continue the conversation. Instead, he turned to Chen Tan. His tone was filled with deep worry, and he transmitted a message to him through telepathic communication.

"Brother Chen, the situation is not good now. There are two people from the Holy Divine Palace. In my current state, I can only help you block the original one."

"But in this case, you definitely won't be able to beat Rao Yaoyao, so you don't have to rush to complete that mission."

"Hurry up and unseal me. It might be too late if you delay any longer,"

The telepathic communication was very bad!

The seal on the cell door was extremely weak by this time.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't even need to think twice to know that this would definitely be intercepted by Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao.

But...

"Mission?"

"What mission?"

In his daze, Xu Xiaoshou's hair stood on end when he sensed Rao Yaoyao's biting cold killing intent behind him.

"Dog thief!"

This guy was actually trying to show that they were in this together.

Rao Yaoyao was a 'fraud', but Elder Han seemed to want to 'slander' him. Other than himself, were there any other good people in this Hall of Unforgivable Crimes?

When he saw that the ball had been kicked into his court, Xu Xiashou was determined that he would not be the one to take the blame.

He retreated in a panic and pointed to the sky as though he was making a vow. He explained to Rao Yaoyao nervously.,

"Sword Deity Rao is a wise person. I really have nothing to do with this Ghost Beast!"

"This Elder Han... Hmph, this d*mned Elder Han, he secretly gave me a mission just now. Even Miss Ye Xiao was not aware of this."

"He only said that we should first escape from this place, then find a person called Xu Xiaoshou, tell him about the White Vein, the Eighth Sword Deity and lead them to this Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, then, my mission would be completed."

1564 Three Points of Suspicion, Make a Direct Move (3)

Without even batting an eyelid, Xu Xiaoshou explained his position.

"But I only pretended to agree to it in order to save my life. In reality, it's impossible for me to complete this mission."

"That's the entire situation. I've told you everything now. You can form your own conclusion."

"But I'm determined to stand on your side. That was my bottom line, my principle, and the way of survival that I've concluded in the Southern Region-I would never have anything to do with the dark powers!"

As soon as he said this, the entire Hall fell into dead silence.

Ye Xiao was stunned for a moment. She had not heard such a conversation between Elder Han and Chen Tan, but she had overheard Chen Tan say words like 'White Vein' Third Ancestor bloodline had appeared'.

According to what Chen Tan had said earlier, his knowledge of the Abyss Island was limited to that it was a Land of Exile. There might be more than one Demi-Saint imprisoned here.

However, the distinction between the Inner and Outer islands of Abyss Island and the power structure of the Inner Island...

Even if he asked 99% of the people on the Abyss Island, he wouldn't be able to find that out, let alone an evil cultivator from the Southern Region!

Even Ye Xiao had only heard of the term 'Third Ancestor of the White Vein bloodline' and did not know what it meant.

She immediately turned to look at Rao Yaoyao, only to discover that the Ruler of the red-clothed people's face was extremely cold. Her killing intent had shifted from Chen Tan to the cell door.

There was also silence in the Tian San cell.

However, at the next moment, a hysterical roar erupted from the cell.

"Chen! Tan!"

"Slander! He's slandering me! I'm not a Ghost Beast...D*mn you Chen Tan!"

There was no way for him to explain it!

With a loud bang, the Spiritual Array woven from Spirit Threads at the door of the cell was suddenly shattered by the frosty white cold air.

The boundless ice-type energy was suddenly released and formed into a pair of bat-like ice wings in the air, which then slashed towards the worthless Chen Tan.

"Sword Deity Rao, save me!"

Xu Xiaoshou covered his head and fled like a rat. His pupils dilated in shock, as if he was overwhelmed by the Dem-saint's attack. In his heart, he had already prepared the 'Acalanatha', Vanishing Technique and the 'take the easy way out' abilities.

But if Rao Yaoyao could not save him, he had to reveal some of his trump cards.

"Swish!"

The Cang Godhood Sword was gently waved in the air, and the melodious sound of the sword cries rang through the Great Hall.

In the next second, the sword light was like the wind that brought with it streams of endless cold air as it slashed towards the ice wings that were headed for Chen Tan.

"Secular Heart Refinement!"

There were no fancy special effects. This simple and unadorned Sword Light was like a casual slash. It was not even comparable to the power of a Demi-Saint...No, it contained only a fraction of Ye Xiao's God of Death power!

However, Elder Han's wings quivered violently and the frosty white air that seeped out of the hole instantly cut off the connection between the attack and the ice wings in the distance.

"Sizzle!"

The ice wings that had lost control were easily split into two and melted into ice water.

Xu Xiaoshou's heart was finally at ease, and he could hide his three life-saving trump cards.

"Emotion Sword technique, Secular Sword..."

As someone who had suffered badly from this sword strike, Xu Xiaoshou completely understood what Elder Han did.

The more a person had ill-intentions was, the harder it would be for them to go through this 'Secular Heart Refinement'.

Elder Han halted his attack at the last moment because he was afraid that Rao Yaoyao's sword would chase after him, cross the cell, and cut into his seven emotions and six desires.

Whether he could evade the attack of the Secular Sword at that time was another matter. As long as Rao Yaoyao exerted her strength, the muddleheaded Elder Han would probably reveal some secrets he didn't want to reveal.

This Demi-Saint should be able to evade and escape being controlled by the Secular Sword...

But what if?

Everyone was afraid of accidents, especially a man of unknown origin like Elder Han.

Rao Yaoyao's sword floated down from the void and landed in front of Chen Tan. She tilted her head and said.

"You step back, leave this to me."

"+(Protected, Passive Points),+1."

Ah!

As Xu Xiaoshou stared at her beautiful face, his eyes shone and he felt extremely satisfied.

This sense of security was so immense!

“Keep an eye on him. Leave Elder Han to me.” Rao Yaoyao raised her eyes to look at Ye Xiao again and indicated that they could not afford to lose Chen Tan’s God Execution Order and that they could deal with it later.

Ye Xiao nodded silently.

Xu Xiaoshou seemed to have heard something unbelievable. He asked in a daze, “Sword Deity Rao, what are you trying to do? Don’t mess around!”

From the looks of it, you a Sword Deity want to fight against Elder Han? Fighting a Demi-Saint?

This is simply crazy!

Rao Yaoyao, however, slanted her sword and silently strode towards the Tian San cell.

With every step she took, the aura on her body increased. When she reached the door, a faint Holy Energy had already descended upon the surroundings.

From the Dongtianwang City to the Yunlun Mountain Range, to the Lone Cliff and to the Abyss Island...Rao Yaoyao had a clear understanding of herself.

Dao Qiongcang, Bazhun’an and even Xu Xiaoshou could play with tactics and she too could play with them.

After a dream, one had to return to reality.

“Ancient Swordsman, press forward with indomitable will!”

This was the most original path, and also the path that suited him the most.

The heretics had taught him, Huang Quan had taught him, Night Guardian had taught him, Teng Shanhai had taught him, Jiang Buyi had taught him, and even Xu Xiaoshou had taught himself...one principle:

Whenever in doubt, attack immediately!

He would rather kill the wrong person than let him off!

“The moment a person is indecisive, the sword would become blunt.”

1565 The Ghost Beast's Host Body is Actually Me? (1)

“Come out, you filthy scum!”

When Rao Yaoyao raised the Cang Godhood Sword high and slashed at the entrance of the Tian San cell, the sword light wreaked havoc and completely destroyed the seal fence. Xu Xiaoshou's eyes almost popped out..

She really dared to?

When did she become so reckless?

Where did she get her support from? Inside, Elder Han was a Demi-Saint. Could it be that in just a few days, Rao Yaoyao had already been conferred the title of Demi-Saint?

“+(Startled, Passive Point,+)+1.”

Xu Xiaoshou really felt that Rao Yaoyao had changed.

She had become so ruthless that she had become the kind of enemy that he hated the most. She was totally unreasonable and did not consider the consequences of her actions. She only cared about the present.

Ye Xiao felt the same way. She was shocked by Rao Yaoyao's Transformation.

Before this, the Rao Yaoyao that she knew would definitely not make such a move.

If she didn't completely understand Elder Han's identity, how would Rao Yaoyao dare to let him go so easily?

To go into battle with a Demi-Saint with the power of a Sword Deity and a higher void level? Rao Yaoyao wouldn't be so impetuous and do something so stupid!

She originally had a gentle temperament...No, to put it another way, she was a person who considered the big picture and was not willing to make a move easily. She would only strike after she had made sure that there would be no mistakes.

But now?

It was completely different!

What had brought about this change?

Ye Xiao did not believe that a person could undergo such a big Transformation in such a short time.

She looked around her and thought that Rao Yaoyao might have brought some hidden help.

Perhaps the person was a Demi-Saint?

But why would a Demi-Saint need to hide and not show their tracks?

After she searched for a while, Ye Xiao still could not find any traces of the so-called Demi-Saint. She was a little confused.

Did this mean that Rao Yaoyao really wanted to face the Saint on her own?

“BOOM!”

While the two of them were deep in thought, the door to the Tian San cell that had its seal broken by a sword, was suddenly filled with strong frosty cold air.

The quality, the quantity...

Xu Xiaoshou could tell at a glance that this was a few hundred times more powerful than the ice wings that had protected him earlier. The energy capacity rose as if there was no end to it.

“Demi-Saint’s Power!”

Before this, it was only a faint Demi-saint’s might, that already made Xu Xiaoshou’s heart palpitate.

However, he had also mastered the Holy Power, so he could not feel anything when he was not the main target.

But now, when the frosty white cold air surged violently, the Demi-Saint’s pressure was completely suppressed and could not be hidden!

This was almost equivalent to Jiang Buyi’s energy capacity before he lost his temper. It was even more than that...

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked because the seal had not been completely broken yet. Elder Han’s power was already displayed for everyone to see in the Tian San cell.

Therefore, Elder Han's actual strength was probably more powerful and above that of Jiang Buyi's!

Was he really an old Demi-Saint? He didn't know how ancient it was, but to be locked up in such a hellish place like the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, he couldn't be anyone weak!

"Hahaha..."

Loud laughter came from the cell. Elder Han really didn't expect that things would develop in this direction-in the direction of his release!

"Good move, Sword Deity Rao, please give it a few more strikes."

"If you want to fight, I'll fight with you at any time. If you have the guts, break the seal completely!"

Ye Xiao, who hovered above the Necromancer, wanted to say something but stopped.

In the end, her eyes flickered as she stared at the indifferent Rao Yaoyao and swallowed back her words of dissuasion.

Rao Yaoyao wasn't stupid, but if she was, she wouldn't have been the Ruler of the red-clothed people.

She wasn't weak either. If she was weak, she wouldn't have been able to obtain the title of Seven Sword Deity.

Rao Yaoyao's surname was Rao. There were also many people in the Holy Divine Palace who disapproved of her. They thought that her surname was Rao, so she had obtained everything she shouldn't have.

Indeed, Rao Yaoyao's battle record wasn't that brilliant. It seemed that she couldn't even compare to Gou Wuyue, let alone Dao Qiongcang.

But this would depend on who she was being compared to and who she competed against!

How many 'Dao Qiongcangs' and how many 'Gou Wuyues' were there in the world?

How many people were qualified to challenge the Giants of the top factions, such as Bazhun'an, to challenge one or two or even to wrestle with the other?

They didn't know that even someone as strong as Dao Qiongcang was ranked behind Kui Leihan and Bazhun'an in the Songs of the Ten High Nobles. It did not matter whether this ranking was superior or inferior, but it must have been influenced by some subjective factors in the eyes of some people, right?

If it was anyone else in Rao Yaoyao's position, would they definitely be able to do better than her?

No!

There was a high chance that even their corpses would have turned cold!

Ye Xiao had always felt that the surname 'Rao' was what made Rao Yaoyao successful, but more than that, it was because Yaoyao had been suppressed by the 'Rao' surname.

Too many people couldn't see her brilliance and felt that her current achievements were taken for granted by the Raos or were even not enough.

But from another point of view, what if Rao Yaoyao's surname wasn't Rao?

If she had a different surname, she would have joined the ten-member council of the Holy Divine Palace as a woman and would be in charge of the clean-up of all the Ghost Beasts in the Five Domains of the continent and maintained the peace and prosperity until now. However, no one cared about her great achievements because of the word 'Ghost Beast'.

Could an outsider achieve such a feat?

There weren't many Raos in the world, but there weren't too few either. There weren't many young people in the Five Great Holy Emperor aristocratic families who loved power, but there were also quite a few... Would there be no conflict?

Why was it that only Rao Yaoyao could assume the position of the Ruler of the red-clothed people and no one else could?

Because she was the only one who could control it!

"Break!"

With a clear shout, the sword light disappeared without a trace.

The seal at the prison door, the Spiritual Array on the table, the Spiritual Thread on the huge torture instrument outside the Hall... This included a great array of every Array Eye of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. They were all affected and festered.

Ka!

Cracks appeared in all directions, and even the space nodes in the void shattered.

The unchanging rules of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes were changed at this moment, as if some balance had been broken.

Read I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1566 - 1566 The Ghost Beast's Host Body is Actually Me? (2)

1566 The Ghost Beast's Host Body is Actually Me? (2)

“BOOM!”

At this moment, the door of the Tian San cell that was no longer sealed was kicked open from the inside and flew up into the sky with a loud bang.

The gate of the Giant's Palace shattered into pieces as it flew through the void, and turned into shards that fell to the ground.

“Hahaha...”

A strange, carefree laugh resounded in all directions. This outburst was filled with the euphoria of one who had been released after being suppressed for a long time.

Xu Xiaoshou weakly retreated to the edge of the battlefield as he stared at Elder Han's figure in the cell.

After the main gate was destroyed, the Tian San cell was covered in a layer of frosty white fog.

It was a little different from the darkness that he had expected. The prison cell was somewhat bright, and the layout inside resembled an ice crystal cave that could refract light on multiple sides.

White and blue crystal icicles hung from the sky and on the walls. The air was cold and the fog was dense.

The prison cell was very large and matched the dimensions of the Great Hall.

The ice cave inside was huge, and it covered the entire area. It was practically the best home for an ice-type Spiritual Cultivator.

However, the man who emerged from the frosty mist was very small.

He was smaller than the average human being, no more than seven feet tall. His limbs were thin and lean and his skin was very white, as if he had been kept in a cold place for a long time and was frozen.

“This is Elder Han?”

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned. This was not what he had expected.

Elder Han...From his title, he should be a tall, burly, bald man. How could he be a man who could only be described as ‘small’?

As the frosty mist swirled around him, the naked Elder Han swaggered out, without the slightest sense of shame.

He laughed as he walked.

“Hahaha...” His loud laughter suited his figure at this time. Elder Han only stopped laughing when he walked out of the cell.

Xu Xiaoshou saw Elder Han’s face clearly.

To his surprise, it wasn’t the monkey-like face that matched his figure and strange smile.

On the contrary, Elder Han was very cute.

His eyes were round and black, almost without pupils. His skin was pale, but very smooth.

In addition, there was a long, fluffy, snow-white tail coiled around his waist. It perfectly covered his vulnerable spot and that included his front and back, as it was coiled a full circle and a half around his body.

Oh, this might also be the reason why he was so unabashed.

“Ah, this...”

Xu Xiaoshou blinked. He could tell at a glance that this Elder Han wasn’t human!

Normal people didn’t grow tails, and they didn’t look as strange as Elder Han.

Although it was very cute, Elder Han’s cuteness was based on the human perception of a pet’s appearance. It was not the kind of cuteness that was associated with humans.

Elder Han’s appearance was accompanied by a strong surge of frosty white cold air.

As soon as he came out of the cell, the entire Hall of Unforgivable Crimes was covered in thick frost, like a misty heavenly court.

In the next second, all the corners, the ground, the pillars, and the furnishings in the hall creaked loudly and blue-white ice crystals formed everywhere.

Rao Yaoyao's eyes narrowed as she held on to the Cang Godhood Sword.

"You..."

"Wait, don't speak first."

With a swish, Elder Han held up his hand and stopped Rao Yaoyao from speaking.

He didn't seem to have any intention to attack for the time being. He appeared to be hatching up something. Then, he bent down and laughed.

"Hahaha..."

He laughed till tears filled his eyes, then he quickly wiped them away. He looked up and roared.

"Hahaha, d*med Yan Wuse, d*mned Yu Kunpeng! Now that I'm back, your good days are numbered!"

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned. What was going on? He stopped Rao Yaoyao just to say this?

If you really wanted to shout, shouldn't you have shouted right after you made your debut? Or did you forget?

Also, the two people he talked about...Who were they?

Xu Xiaoshou had never heard of these two names.

However, he quickly noticed that both Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao's expressions turned serious, as if they had heard an extremely somber message from this sentence.

"It should be Elder Han's enemy, and most likely an expert from the Holy Divine Palace? The two that threw Elder Han into the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes?" Xu Xiaoshou silently committed these two names to his memory.

Rao Yaoyao's expression quickly returned to normal. She flipped the Cang Godhood Sword and displayed a serious stance.

"You."

"Hold on."

With a whoosh, Elder Han's hand that had been lowered reached out once more, and stopped Rao Yaoyao from speaking.

He sized up the woman who held the sword in front of him, then glanced at Ye Xiao on the Necromancer's shoulder, and finally at Chen Tan, who hid in a corner.

"They are all dressed..."

After he mumbled to himself, Elder Han laughed, flexed his legs and cupped his fists at the people in front of him.

"I'm sorry if I was rude."

He then looked at Chen Tan and in an unfriendly tone said, "Brat, give me a set of clothes to wear."

You're crazy!

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned as he took out his clothes and threw them over.

He recalled what Elder Han had said earlier. This guy had actually said that he was very similar to him and that they were the same kind of people.

Since when was he like this person?

This kind of extremely preposterous, completely absurd guy who couldn't figure out the main point of the 'war' was not like him at all!

Elder Han nonchalantly put on his clothes under the gazes of three pairs of eyes. Then, he used an ice blade to cut off his underclothes and sleeves. After he felt less uncomfortable, he smiled and said.

"That's enough. I'll give you three chances to ask questions as an expression of my gratitude."

Read I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1567 - 1567 The Ghost Beast's Host Body is Actually Me? (3)

1567 The Ghost Beast's Host Body is Actually Me? (3)

He wore his clothes in a haphazard manner, as if he was not used to it.

However, he did not care about it anymore. He waved his hand and said that. He seemed to like the tone of 'bestowment'. He did not know where he had learned it from.

“What’s your true Ghost Beast form?” Rao Yaoyao actually stopped the fight and asked.

Elder Han looked over with a smile. He looked harmless, but his tone was a little teasing. “That’s two questions, right? I’ve already said that I’m not a Ghost Beast.”

“What is your true form?” Rao Yaoyao continued to ask.

Elder Han was elated. His big black eyes narrowed into two cute lines, and then he opened his eyes and said seriously, “This...It’s inconvenient to tell you.”

Rao Yaoyao appeared to be in a trance.

At a certain moment, she even felt that this Elder Han had changed into Xu Xiaoshou. Everything he said was nonsense, and normal people couldn’t communicate with him at all.

Her expression turned cold along with the surrounding environment. She sneered and said.

“Alright, then one last question...As a Ghost Beast, how long will it take after your escape for you to regain your original cultivation level?”

As soon as these words came out, the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes froze for a full moment.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly had a moment of enlightenment and understood why Rao Yaoyao had dared to attack.

If her judgment was correct, and Elder Han was indeed lying, and his nature was that of a Ghost Beast, then according to her previous knowledge of a Ghost Beast...

Even Feng Yujin had to attach himself to Mo Mo after he was freed, and his cultivation had dropped by more than one level.

As a result, at the Tiansang Spirit Palace’s Tian Xuan Gate, he could only display the Master Stage strength because of the small world’s suppression and the restriction imposed on the Ghost Beast Host Body.

It was the same for Patriarch Wuji.

His Ghost Beast Host Body was relatively easy to find, so he found Liu Changqing, who was at the Cutting Path Stage.

But that was all.

The Divine Secret was said to be known only to Dao Qiongcang, who was second to Patriarch Wuji. Because of the restrictions of the Ghost Beast Host Body, he could not even afford to be distracted while he fought with Yi, and could only use most of his power to block Yi's escape route.

Of the two above, one was a Holy Emperor and the other was a Demi-Saint, but after their escape, they were left with less than 10% of their strength.

Now, Elder Han was also a Demi-Saint...

If he was really a Ghost Beast, what kind of situation would he be in if he had not even found his host body?

The peak of his strength?

Or even worse?

Under such circumstances, why wouldn't Rao Yaoyao dare to challenge him?

"However, all of this was based on the assumption that Elder Han was really a Ghost Beast...Where did Rao Yaoyao get her courage from? She dared to make a move even when she didn't have a five point grasp?" Xu Xiaoshou gave Rao Yaoyao a strange look. She had changed, she had really changed.

"Hahaha..."

Elder Han smiled and stared intently at Rao Yaoyao. He shook his head slightly and said, "I'll say it one last time. I'm not a Ghost Beast, but I can answer your question."

He raised his hand and inhaled the fresh air of freedom.

Not long after, he exhaled two frosty streams of air from his mouth and nose.

"The answer is, "It'll be quick!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Elder Han's relaxed palm suddenly clenched into a fist.

At the same time, the Demi-Saint's sudden surge of pressure almost materialized and pressed down from the sky accompanied by the sound of thunder.

Rao Yaoyao, Ye Xiao, and Xu Xiaoshou were all still immersed in the state of relaxation from earlier and were immediately stunned by the pressure of this Demi-Saint.

But they were all still prepared, and soon they used different methods to deal with it.

However, in the blink of an eye, a black cold current erupted from Elder Han's body-the power of the Ghost Beast!

"Frosty Heavens Cold Domain!"

As his two fists smashed against each other, a cold light shot out from the depths of Elder Han's eyes. With the soles of his feet as the center, a black cold current spread out in all directions.

In an instant, the space within the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes that belonged to the Hall of Giants shattered inch by inch, and then froze.

Tables, pillars, torture instruments...They all turned into black ice sculptures.

The surrounding world seemed to have turned into a broken mirror, and there was no intact space. It reflected the incomplete figures of a few people scattered about.

There were fragments everywhere!

The fragments were all frozen!

Rao Yaoyao, Ye Xiao, and Xu Xiaoshou, who had just recovered from the shock, were caught off guard by the Demi-Saint's mighty power and were frozen-it was another form of strong control!

"Ghost Beast!"

The three of them had the same thought.

Rao Yaoyao didn't make any move. The Cang Godhood Sword in her hand shone with a green light, and the ice crystals shattered and made it difficult for them to invade the depths of her body.

With a flip of her hand, she struck out with her sword. As expected, it always made sense to attack directly when one had any doubts!

However, Elder Han did not forcefully receive her sword attack.

With a strange 'Haha' laugh, Elder Han's body turned into a stream of black air. With lightning speed, he streaked past Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao and attacked Chen Tan, who was at the back.

The image of the black cold current appeared enlarged in his pupils.

At this moment, all the thoughts in Xu Xiaoshou's mind exploded!

He had originally thought that he was a member of the cheering squad for this battle and only needed to applaud and cheer for Rao Yaoyao.

He would just watch until the end of the battle and choose one side to join. He didn't have to worry about the future anyway.

However, before he could fully collect his thoughts, he realized that something was wrong with the situation. Elder Han's actions told him...

The main character was actually him!

"Damn it, if Elder Han is a Ghost Beast, then I must be the best candidate for the Ghost Beast host body in his eyes...What was I thinking of? Waiting for death?"

1568 Frost Ferret (1)

"Chen! Tan!"

The black cold current arrived in an instant.

Elder Han's laughter also became extremely presumptuous, as if the powerful body where all his power was stored would be easily available in the next second.

To be honest, none of the three present were the best choices.

If possible, Elder Han would have preferred an ice-type Spiritual Cultivator to be his puppet.

However, it was obvious that he had no other choice. Rao Yaoyao's judgment was right. At the moment, Elder Han looked strong on the outside but was actually weak on the inside. He couldn't unleash all of the power he had when he was at his peak.

Thus, in order to deal with Rao Yaoyao, he needed some support.

Of the three people present, Rao Yaoyao was out of the question. Other than that, the only candidates left to be the host bodies were Ye Xiao and Chen Tan.

In terms of ranking, Ye Xiao was actually ranked above Chen Tan.

Elder Han's choice wasn't very rational, because it was easy to tell which was stronger between the 'Aura of the God of Death' and the 'Aura of the Ancestor's Power'.

But in the end, he chose Chen Tan because this brat was of the same kind and gender. He also had a slightly familiar faint aura.

Of course, this choice was also mixed with the thought to exact a little bit of revenge.

Who asked Chen Tan to slander him just now?

In addition to these subjective and self satisfying thoughts, there was also the influence of objective factors.

Just now-in Chen Tan's filthy remarks, these words appeared-the Third Ancestor of the White Vein!

"I'd like to see how much you know about the Third Ancestor of the White Vein!" Elder Han's body turned into a black cold current that contained only his two black glowing eyes. He charged toward Chen Tan.

It's here!

He's already here!

Just as the black cold air was about to pierce through his nose and mouth, Xu Xiaoshou's petrified body suddenly trembled, and a thought flashed through his mind.

"Acalanatha, release!"

He instantly turned off his Awakening skill, Acalanatha.

That's right. He had used this skill the moment he realized that the situation wasn't right. In the next second, the entire scene was controlled by Elder Han.

However, control was only control after all, not an attack.

Since Elder Han didn't suffer any backlash, it meant that all his skills were immune to Xu Xiaoshou's Acalanatha.

"How is that possible? How could this kid ignore my Holy Energy? Can't be controlled?"

"Suspected, Passive Points +1."

When he turned off his Acalanatha, Xu Xiaoshou could see the shock that flashed across the black cold eyes in front of him.

In the next second, his expression turned extremely ferocious and his body emitted a raging evil purple light. Then, with lightning speed, he grabbed a purple eyeball the size of a human head from his hand.

"Hand of great mercy!"

With a loud roar, Xu Xiaoshou slapped the Cursed Yin Eye onto the black cold current.

This strike was so powerful that a blinding golden light exploded when the two sides came into contact.

Exploding Posture!

How could Xu Xiaoshou allow Elder Han to get close?

This Ghost Beast of unknown origin was also a hypocrite who made up lies and had difficulties when it had to distinguish between the truth and the lies. Even if the will of many big Bosses had emerged in his body when he had faced the Demi-Saint Zang Ren, that was only because he had been passive.

If he allowed Elder Han to enter his body, not to mention whether those wills would reappear, it was something that Xu Xiaoshou could not accept.

I'm the master of my body.

In the past, I was weak and powerless.

Now that I have so many passive skills, I'm no longer an ant. How dare you, a mere Demi-Saint, covet my body?

BOOM! There was a loud explosion. The 'Exploding Posture' was indeed the 'Recoil' awakening technique. When it reached the Sovereign Stage, it had already shown adequate ferocity.

He didn't even have time to react!

Logically speaking, the Ghost Beast's Possession was a special attack that was slightly above the three stages of flesh, spirit, and will, and ordinary defensive means could not resist it at all.

However, Chen Tan was truly an evil cultivator from the Southern Region. He had actually mastered a method that could resist the Ghost Beast Possession!

That golden light...

Elder Han was already dumbfounded.

He didn't even resist when he realized that something was wrong. He thought that Chen Tan's attack would only pass through and not cause any real damage.

But the result was...

He flew out of the door of the Tian San cell, passed by Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao, and flew in front of Chen Tan. However, Chen Tan had slapped it so hard that it actually saw stars. It then streaked past the two of them and finally was embedded in the ice crystal Cave in the Tian San cell.

It was only then that Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao broke free from the Demi-Saint's power.

"Suspected, Passive Points +2."

Rao Yaoyao held her sword in the air before she froze and stared dazedly at Chen Tan.

Her original intention was to help Chen Tan, but this guy didn't need any help at all. He resisted Elder Han's Possession by himself!

So, what had happened just now?

A small evil cultivator from the Southern Region had sent a Demi-Saint Ghost Beast flying with a slap?

"You're kidding me!"

Rao Yaoyao subconsciously thought that this was a trick, a self-directed and self-played trick by Elder Han and Chen Tan.

How could a Demi-Saint be sent flying? This was impossible!

However, the next moment...

"Ah!"

A hysterical roar came from the Tian San cell.

The frosty white mist there had been completely dyed with an evil purple color, and Elder Han clutched his chest and screamed in agony.

"The Power of the Evil God's Aura..."

Rao Yaoyao came to her senses. This was Chen Tan's ability that Ye Xiao had told her about initially.

She suddenly realized that she had underestimated this sorcerer from the Southern Region. Not only she, but Ye Xiao and Elder Han had also underestimated Chen Tan.

“Amitabha.”

After Xu Xiaoshou, who had repelled the Possession with a backhand was done, he put his palms together, humbly bowed with his hands clasped and muttered a Buddhist chant.

After he said that, he raised his head and looked at Rao Yaoyao.

“Sword Deity Rao, I’ve already used all my trump cards and don’t have much left. I hope that Sword Deity Rao would not be distracted.”

“We’re on the same side now, and I’ve already submitted my voting certificate. You all know what Elder Han’s plan was, he definitely won’t let me off.”

“If his Possession really succeeded, the Holy Divine Palace would be disgraced!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s face was pale, and his heart thumped rapidly. Blood spurted out of his mouth as if he was at the end of his tether. He sat down cross-legged and closed his eyes to rest, and did not speak anymore.

Ye Xiao was also stunned.

She did not expect that the evil cultivator of the Southern Region also cultivated Buddhist techniques. The ‘Hand of Great Mercy’ and the golden light that suddenly disappeared...

Why was the feeling so familiar?

However, before she could think about it, Elder Han, who had been hurled back to the Tian San cell, suddenly roared.

“Chen! Tan!”

“+(Called, Passive Points,+)+1.”

When the strange purple evil energy separated and the frosty white air descended again, Elder Han, who walked out of the cell had reverted to his human form.

His fair face was covered in black demonic patterns, and his eyes were filled with Violet Qi that made him look extremely evil.

What was most shocking was that the clothes on Elder Han’s chest had been completely ripped apart. A purple eyeball the size of a human head was embedded in his chest. It dripped with blood and overflowed with evil energy.

“He’s been hit!”

Rao Yaoyao and Ye Xiao turned around and their expressions were serious.

No one had thought that Elder Han would fall into this trap. He had definitely underestimated Chen Tan. He had never thought that anyone below the Demi-Saint level would be able to instantly break the ice seal of the Demi-Saint Stage. As a result, the Cursed Yin Eye was embedded in his body.

“The Hand of Great Mercy...”

“What kind of ‘Hand of Great Mercy’ is this, Chen Tan...”

Elder Han was furious. He looked down at the eyeball in his chest and sauntered out. Even he couldn’t deal with this Cursed Yin Eye for the moment, so he could only seal it in ice.

Ye Xiao was scared when she saw this.

She had been hit by Chen Tan’s attack before.

She had been cautious at that time, so she removed the restrictions on her body in advance and split up the three-legged black owl to diffuse this move.

Who would’ve thought that even the Demi-Saint Elder Han would be helpless in the face of Chen Tan’s move!

In the distance, Xu Xiaoshou, who was resting with his eyes closed, heard the sound and peeped for a moment, then closed his eyes again. He pretended he was exhausted and continued to regulate his breath.

“Ruthless!”

“The Power of the Ancestral Source is not just an aura. It’s really ruthless. Even a Demi-Saint can’t resolve it in a short time!”

Xu Xiaoshou pondered and finally understood why Jiang Buyi was so afraid of Teng Shanhai’s Power of Demon God.

“Hahaha...”

With a head drenched in sweat and bloodshot eyes, Elder Han suddenly raised his head and laughed. He used his coldness to suppress his almost out of control emotions. His expression returned to normal and he was no longer affected by the Power of the Evil God.

“Little chap, I should not underestimate each and every one of you...”

He grabbed the Cursed Yin Eye that was embedded in his chest, as if he wanted to pull it out, but he also seemed to be worried.

Elder Han's gaze swept past Chen Tan, glanced at Rao Yaoyao, and finally settled on Ye Xiao on the Necromancer's shoulder. No one knew what he was thinking.

"Then come!"

Suddenly, Elder Han let out a loud roar and spread out his four limbs into a posture that was not human and flew up into the sky like a big cat.

The Nine Heavens suddenly turned icy cold.

The black Ghost Beast Aura gushed out from his body like a tide. It froze the void and turned the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes into a world of ice.

"Release!"

Elder Han shouted angrily toward the sky. His clothes exploded with a bang, and his body expanded.

It undid its original form and, in the form of a Ghost Beast, released the Cursed Yin Eye that had been embedded in its body and temporarily stopped the invasion of the Power of the Evil God.

Then, it turned into a creature that was over a hundred feet in size. Its body was slender, and its four limbs were short and small. Its entire body was covered in white hair, and it had a large and soft tail.

Even though he was in a furious state, Elder Han's true form was still not quite ferocious. Compared to the Void Attendant, he could be considered as 'small and cute'.

His cat-like face was still pure white. Apart from the black and cold ghostly energy, Elder Han's entire body was black. Only his two huge eyes and a dozen soft whiskers were left.

"Frost Ferret!"

Rao Yaoyao was stunned for a moment and suddenly exclaimed.

On the shoulder of the Necromancer, Ye Xiao's eyes that were hidden in the dark, looked up curiously.

Others didn't know, but as the Ruler of the red-clothed people, who dealt with Ghost Beasts every day, how could Rao Yaoyao not know about this creature in front of her? She immediately explained.

“Frost Ferret, an ice-type Demi-Saint level Ghost Beast. Its origin is unknown, but hundreds of years ago, it was a beast that was hunted down by Elder Yan and Elder Yu.”

“At its peak, its combat strength was very strong. After it was captured, it was first sealed in the Infernal Hell Sea and could only be suppressed with the help of the extreme fire-type element.”

“After that, there was a change in the Infernal Hell Sea and it was transferred to the Four Symbols Secret Realm. Then, this fellow continued to cause trouble and was sent to the Inner Island of the Abyss Island. Only then did it become peaceful...”

Rao Yaoyao spoke as if there was no one else around; it was as if she had completely forgotten that there was an outsider at the back of the battlefield.

Xu Xiaoshou looked as if he was undergoing recuperation, with his eyes closed, but he had actually been paying attention to the battlefield with his ‘Perception’. When he heard what Rao Yaoyao said, he was shocked.

“Frost Ferret, Infernal Hell Sea?”

He already knew that the Infernal Hell Sea was one of the Seven Breaks and it was the predecessor of the White Cave.

So, Elder Han had once been sealed in the old White Cave, and was suppressed by the power of the Seven Breaks?

“This...”

Xu Xiaoshou thought it was strange.

He thought of the Spirit Fusion Swamp and the Infernal Original Seed he had obtained there. He also thought of the final explosion where Ice and Fire intersected in that damned place.

In such a large fire-type extradimensional space, why was there only a Snow Mountain sealed by a spiritual array in the Spirit Fusion Swamp? Why was it forbidden to have a sacred object like the Three Days Frozen Calamity?

It can't be?

The more Xu Xiaoshou thought about it, the more incredulous he felt.

What did this mean?

Could it be that the ice-type energy in the Spirit Fusion Swamp was formed due to Elder Han's existence?

This fellow had even been sealed in the Four Symbols Secret Realm before. Could the trouble it had caused be the Ran Ming ruins it had mentioned?

In the end, he was even sent to the Inner Island of the Abyss Island...

Xu Xiaoshou's eyelashes suddenly trembled, and he almost couldn't open his eyes to look.

Wasn't the Inner Island of the Abyss Island the home of Bazhun'an?

There, the black and white lineages were respected by Bazhun'an, and even the Holy Emperor was no exception. Since Elder Han had stayed in the Inner Island before, he should be one of them?

In that case, he must be a backup left behind by Eighth Brother, and that was why he came to the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes from the Inner Island?

That was not right!

Even the Holy Emperor couldn't do it, so how did Elder Han do it?

Ye Xiao obviously had the same question as well, but she still had her own concerns. Her eyes hidden in the shadows glanced at Chen Tan, whose eyes were closed and he remained motionless, but she did not say anything.

But before she could ask, Rao Yaoyao knew that she was a person of few words and once again spoke as if there were no outsiders, "

"The Frost Ferret's expertise is in its ability to escape. It can shuttle back and forth through all kinds of spatial cracks, time cracks, seal cracks, and cracks of the Great Path. It's impossible to guard against it."

"Other people on the Inner Island of the Abyss Island can't come out, but if it's a Frost Ferret, it can theoretically come out after it paid a certain price."

"However, after it came out, it probably lost its way and got into the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes... That was why it was sealed again until you came along."

So...

Was this a stray Demi-Saint Ghost Beast that had escaped from the Inner Island of the Abyss Island?

Xu Xiashou's heart trembled when he heard this. He could accept this explanation more than anyone else, even more so than red-clothed people!

This might sound ridiculous, but it was based on facts.

Xu Xiaoshou had never been to the Inner Island of the Abyss Island, but it seemed that the stronger the person, the harder it was to come out. Only those with strange abilities had a slight chance to escape.

Feng Yujin was one, Patriarch Wuji was another, and now it was this Elder Han, this Frost Ferret?

When he thought of this, Xu Xiashou couldn't sit still anymore.

Because from this point of view, this Frost Ferret, also known as Elder Han, seemed to be one of their own!

"I'm on the wrong side?"

1570 Frozen Ghost of the Ganges River, shocking the Saint Without Word! (1)

"Hahaha!"

The cat-like Frost Ferret suddenly retracted the black ghostly energy around its body, and a pair of black wings that spanned more than a hundred feet in size spread out on its back.

The wings were shaped like a bat's wings and were pure black in color. They formed a sharp contrast to the white and flawless Frost Ferret.

When Elder Han released his Ghost Beast form, he felt the surging power in his body that was no longer being controlled. He couldn't suppress the smile on his face, and shrieked in joy.

He could not remember how long it had been since he had been able to control all his strength...

Although it seemed that it could only possess this power for a short period of time, and he had to find a host body as soon as possible.

However, he was invincible during this period of time!

“Since you know my past, you should also know my true strength. How can you not be convinced and submit to me?” Elder Han’s black eyes stared at Rao Yaoyao.

As he spoke, the wings on his back flapped gently, and the mighty power of a Demi-Saint descended.

With a loud rumble, the huge instruments of torture in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes dropped from the sky.

The nodes that maintained the seal were all frozen and shattered by the terrifying pressure; this did not allow the heretic cultivator from the Southern Region any chance to form a great array of seals.

At the same time, almost 99% of the pressure from a peak Demi-Saint was directed at Rao Yaoyao alone.

Elder Han was aware that if the covert attack failed, everyone would be on their guard.

At this moment, this Sword Deity was his most important opponent. Ye Xiao and Chen Tan were relegated to the back for the moment.

If this woman didn’t die, he wouldn’t be able to launch sneak attacks on Ye Xiao and Chen Tan.

“Ka ka!”

Ice crystals formed on Rao Yaoyao’s body, and her exposed skin turned deathly pale due to the extreme cold. It didn’t take long for her skin to crack and bleed.

But she remained motionless.

Just like that, she gently held the sword that was slanted at an angle to her chest, and the two fingers of her left hand slowly moved along the sword, inch by inch, without the slightest bit of panic. No one knew what was on her mind.

“Speak!”

Elder Han was obviously angered by the blatant way she ignored him.

The giant beast roared in the air, and with a flap of its black wings, a frost storm began to form in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

“Rumble...”

The tables fell and the pillars cracked.

Even the instruments of torture that could be used to execute Demi-Saints were attacked by the frost storm and shattered into pieces.

“Isn’t he too strong?”

Faced with such a destructive force, Xu Xiaoshou had no choice but to stand up and protect himself with his Spiritual Source. He had to move about.

If he continued to sit still, he would turn into an ice sculpture.

After Elder Han released his Ghost Beast Form, he didn’t even need to use his full strength. The impact of the Demi-Saint’s pressure on the surrounding environment was enough to affect everyone present.

Rao Yaoyao remained unmoved.

When her fingers touched the end of the Cang Godhood Sword, everyone heard a sound and saw the blood that dripped from the Sword Body.

“Roar!”

A loud and clear roar of a dragon could be heard and the illusionary Golden Fate Dragon rose into the sky and shattered the frost on the ground. Rao Yaoyao was on its back and they soared into the sky as they battled with the Frost Ferret.

Half of the frost was cleared away.

With the appearance of the Golden Fate Dragon, even with the power of a Demi-Saint, Elder Han’s influence on the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes was cut off.

His attacks no longer had any effect on Rao Yaoyao, much less Ye Xiao and Chen Tan, who she protected and were behind her.

“Hahaha...”

When he saw this, Elder Han laughed out loud. As he flapped his wings, the void buzzed and cracked. “Ants, you dare to test the might of a Demi-Saint with the help of the Xuan Cang Divine Sword? Do you know how to spell the word ‘death’?”

Without waiting for a response, the Frost Ferret rose into the air again.

The Hall of Unforgivable Crimes’ tall dome was large enough to accommodate a giant’s leap and was originally above the clouds. With Elder Han’s leap, he folded up the wings on his back to protect himself, and the dome fell apart.

It wasn’t over yet. His wings suddenly spread out when it reached the highest point.

“Boom boom boom!”

The entire dome of the Great Hall was instantly blown away by the violent frosty air.

Under the onslaught of the Demi-Saint's power, everything shattered.

The explosion seemed to have triggered the power core of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

However, before the great array was formed, the Frost Ferret opened its mouth and spat out a cold stream of starlight.

“The Ganges River!”

At this moment, time seemed to have come to a standstill.

Xu Xiaoshou watched as the space at the top of the sky exploded. Under the guidance of Elder Han, the spatial fragment that even he didn't dare to step into obediently drew out its power, and a large amount of starlight flowed out.

No one knew how long nor how wide it was.

It was vast and misty, like the stars and fog.

Xu Xiaoshou couldn't understand this move.

He didn't sense any danger. Even when the starlight poured into his body, he didn't sense any abnormalities.

But the next second, a clear light flashed in his mind, and he suddenly realized something.

Spirit Awakening!

The Information Bar jumped.

“+(Ambushed, Passive Points+) +1.”

“+(Attacked, Passive Points+)+1.”

Almost at the same time, Xu Xiaoshou was about to blurt out the words ‘Vanishing Technique’, but he suppressed his impulse as his Perception swept over Ye Xiao and Rao Yaoyao.

“Acalanatha!”

As Xu Xiaoshou’s body was surrounded by a faint golden light, the Frost Ferret above the Ninth Heaven swiped with its two front claws. Chey!

“..”

The world suddenly fell silent.

The sound in his ears suddenly disappeared.

It was as if millions of flies buzzed away in his mind.

They didn’t seem to make any sounds, but he felt a heart-wrenching pain. It was the pain that came from one’s thoughts being torn apart and cut into pieces.

1571 Frozen Ghost of the Ganges River, Shocking the Saint Without Word! (2)

Xu Xiaoshou was sent flying.

He knew that he must have shouted aloud, but he couldn’t hear his own voice.

In the blurry and red world that rushed by him, he saw a line that stretched from the black hole in the Nine Heavens above. It penetrated through more than half of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and Rao Yaoyao was frozen in the middle. It stretched straight into the blue and white Ganges River in the abyss.

After the world spun one more round, Xu Xiaoshou caught sight of the outermost part of the ice-blue Ganges River, where the lower half of his body was also frozen.

“I...”

Xu Xiaoshou finally realized something.

It turned out that his frozen body had been shattered. The upper half of his body flew through the air and the blurry red world in front of him was caused by the blood that gushed out of his eye sockets.

He reached out his hand and wanted to wipe away the blood in front of him, but he found that he didn't have any hands.

The image he received from his "Perception" was that the Ganges River had caused the lower half of his body to be frozen, while the upper half had been shattered by the explosive force of the river of starlight after it condensed into ice.

In the process of being flung away, his hands broke and his body turned into ice, inch by inch due to the small ripples of cold air at the edge of the Ganges River.

"You idiot!"

"You're so stupid that you can't be saved!"

"When a demi-saint attacking with all his might, how could you choose to use the Acalantha instead of disappearing?"

"You really think that you can use the Acalantha to resist what you think is a demi-saint's attack after you tested it out, and that you can use it to resist the full-force attack of a true veteran demi-saint, right?"

"He was targeting Rao Yaoyao!"

"Your experiment can only partially block the Demi-saint's Power. What level is Elder Han? How can you be so arrogant?"

In the Yuan Mansion, a man who looked exactly like Xu Xiaoshou roared crazily. Beside him, Greedy the Cat Spirit was so frightened that it didn't dare to be distracted, and pretended to focus on conducting alchemy.

However, it saw its owner roar in rage as he ran toward the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and muttered to himself.

"You're really crazy. Is hiding your identity more important than your life? How could you make such a low-level mistake at such a critical moment?"

"Well, I don't blame you... It was Jiang Buyi's fault. That old man was too stupid and had been fooled by you. It's also Mei Siren's fault. He killed the Saint too easily and gave you the illusion that the Demi-Saint was not invincible."

"You were only affected by the shockwaves, you won't die. Your body will recover after a moment. After all, you have passive skills."

"Even if it doesn't work, a Rejuvenation Pill can bring you back to life. However, you'll have to bear a bit of pain due to your broken limbs..."

Greedy the Cat Spirit saw its owner muttering to himself. Then he suddenly stopped as if he was frozen on the spot.

In the next moment, he shuddered violently and clutched his chest as he panted heavily. The violent anger displayed earlier had also disappeared. His face was pale, as if he had been scared to death.

“Meow?” Only then did the Greedy the Cat Spirit dare to come over and ask.

Xu Xiaoshou hugged the cat tightly and took a deep breath. Then he raised it up and said solemnly, “Remember, I swear now that my life is more important in the future. I will never look down on anyone in the world. If I can’t do this, you can hit me and wake me up!”

“Meow?” Greedy the Cat Spirit raised its paw.

Xu Xiaoshou thought for a while and laughed.

“But this time, I discovered another advantage of the second true body.”

“I would only feel the pain when he’s dead. He’s like an independent existence. He can even recover and help me bear the pain.”

“It’s just that it’s been hard on him. Forget it, I’ll make it up to him in the future!”

Xu Xiaoshou ran to the Herb Garden of Divine Farmer and wanted to pluck the Holy Medicine.

But after he thought about it, he realized that other than the pain, it seemed that the second true body would not die from the shockwaves of this battle.

Elder Han wasn’t targeting him, but Rao Yaoyao.

This time, he was almost killed purely because when immortals fought, mortals suffered.

Xu Xiaoshou thought about it and did not pluck the Holy Medicine. He found the Little Rejuvenation Pill that he had made in his spare time and secretly sneaked it out.

The Hall of Unforgivable Crimes had been thoroughly penetrated by the icy blue Ganges River that fell from the sky.

The explosive power of the starlight not only broke Xu Xiaoshou’s Sovereign Level Physique and forced him to use his second true body to relieve the pain, but it also blew up the entire great hall.

All the instruments of torture, pillars, tables... All of them were destroyed.

The great hall had completely collapsed, and rocks rolled down continuously. It was like the ruins of a disaster.

And amid these ruins, Rao Yaoyao, who had been trapped in the center of the Ganges River and suffered the most intense injuries, didn't seem to have put up any resistance and had frozen to death.

“Woo...”

Faint noises came from the four corners, but he couldn't tell what they were.

The second true body had already recovered. It swallowed the Elixirs amid much cursing and used the medicinal power to quickly repair its damaged body.

He had been blasted into the cell and broke through a dozen sealing fences and thick walls before he stopped. At this moment, he hid in a blind spot among the ruins, as if he was dead.

At this point in the battle, everyone could not even protect themselves, so no one paid any attention to the others.

When the damaged body was repaired, the second true body trembled slightly. Xu Xiaoshou had returned.

“So miserable...”

As soon as he returned, he was shocked by the tragic scene. He shrank repeatedly into his damaged body and used his Perception to observe the outside world.

1572 Frozen Ghost of the Ganges River, Shocking the Saint Without Word! (3)

He didn't know where Ye Xiao had disappeared to. Perhaps she was already dead. But since he was still alive, she shouldn't have died so easily.

Half of the Necromancers were dead, while the other half were frozen at the edge of the Ganges River, like eternally solid ice fossils.

Not far away was the lower half of Xu Xiaoshou's body, which was a very scary sight.

And Rao Yaoyao, who had been hit by such a peak Demi-Saint's full-power attack...

Xu Xiaoshou couldn't believe it. His Perception sensed that Rao Yaoyao, who was trapped in the Ganges River, had no vitality breath.

No way?

She's dead?

“Hahaha!”

The bleak cold wind brought the sound of Elder Han's raucous laughter.

Elder Han was very happy. The first person who tried to stop him had died. Next, he had to capture Ye Xiao and Chen Tan.

As for the next one to die, Elder Han thought that it would probably be Yan Wuse or Yu Kunpeng.

“Where is Chen Tan? I'm a man of my word. We're on the same side, so hurry up and come out and pay your respects to me. I'll spare your life and give you a ride.”

“You must know that resistance is now futile. I'm about to leave the ruins and go somewhere else. This is your only chance.”

“It's impossible to get out of this Sea of Suffering on one's own without the help of a Demi-Saint.”

Xu Xiaoshou listened quietly. He held his breath and fell to the ground as if he was dead. He made full use of his 'Stealth' and then he gradually disappeared into a corner.

“Woo...”

He could still hear the noise in his ears!

It seemed to have been there since he came out. Xu Xiaoshou felt suspicious and listened carefully while he was in the disappearing state.

He heard all sorts of sounds.

There was the sound of students reciting their lessons, the sound of farmers using their tools, the sound of officials riding horses across the street, the sound of the rich and powerful drinking and singing, the sound of the Emperor issuing a decree to the people...

Some people wept and offered sacrifices to their ancestors, some people sailed across the river, some showed their emotions under the trees, and some bade farewell to each other...

Some were happy, some were crying, some were angry, some were sad, some were frightened, and some were fearless...

There were all kinds of things in the mortal world.

“An illusion?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s heart skipped a beat, because he suddenly saw countless illusory villains on the ruins of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

There were so many people that it was like a shrunken version of the Greater World with all kinds of people...The sounds they made were the noises he had just heard.

Above the Nine Heavens, Elder Han’s joy ended abruptly.

Obviously, he had also noticed this unusual phenomenon. This didn’t seem like something that the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes had, but rather something that was man-made.

“Ka!”

It was as if a dark thunderbolt had flashed across the sky, and the frozen Ganges River suddenly cracked.

Elder Han’s expression changed. He seemed to have realized something. Disbelief appeared on his face as he hurriedly descended from the sky.

“No!”

“It can’t be the Fantasy Sword Technique!”

In his Disappearing State, Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils also shrank. He recalled the question he had asked Master Siren and a phrase hidden in the depths of his memory suddenly jumped out.

“Secular Sword, the Manifestation of all living things?”

BOOM!

At that moment, outside the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, in the sky above the First Hall of Sins and the Abyss Island, the wind and clouds gathered. The sky suddenly turned dark, and dark clouds floated over and caused a strange disaster.

“Buzz.”

The sound of sword cries rang throughout the entire Abyss Island and alerted the Demi-Saint Yan Wuse and the mysterious Heavenly Oracle Number Two.

The two of them stood in the deep pit and took in the scent of the Holy Medicine that dissipated around them. Yan Wuchen stopped cursing the instigator's ancestors, turned around and was about to jump onto Number Two's hand.

Without another word, Number Two's body swayed, and the two of them left the Forest of Miracles at the same time.

On the Sacred Mountain Gui Zhe, the fragrance drifted for thousands of miles.

"Da!"

Dao Qiongchang placed a white piece on the board, stood up and smiled at the person in the wheelchair.

"I won."

"The game is only halfway through. How can we talk about winning or losing..."

Ai Cangsheng's voice suddenly stopped, his brows furrowed, and he turned to look toward the east.

The Path Principles suddenly appeared in his eyes. It was as if he had passed through countless worlds of two regions, and also broken the shackles between the plains, and saw the future.

However, even his Eyes of the Great Path could only see a blurred image and could not see the truth.

"Who is it?" Ai Cangsheng could not help but ask.

Dao Qiongchang chuckled and shook his head gently. He turned around and left after he sighed.

"The devil of the Ganges River, the shocked and speechless Saint. If the situation changed, the military would be more refined... You can figure it out yourself!"

1573 The Manifestation of All Living Things, the Sword Saint's Tribulation (1)

"Teacher, they're all Seven Sword Deity, but why was there such a huge difference?"

“You mean...”

“It’s Gou Wuyue and Rao Yaoyao. You were able to kill Demi-Saint Jiang with one sword strike and forced him to use the Demi-Saint’s incarnation to survive, but these two people are not like that. They are...very weak, yes, given that they have the title of ‘Seven Sword Deity’, they are a little weak.”

“Then you must be mistaken.”

“Impossible, I once saw Gou Wuyue fight with Bazhun’an in the Eighth Palace. He was no match for Bazhun’an. He was one of the Seven Sword Deity, but he was defeated by someone who didn’t even have the title of Seven Sword Deity!”

“Then you’ve only seen what’s on the surface.”

“Oh? In that case...What’s the actual situation like?”

“Gou Wuyue and Bazhun’an have a deep friendship. His saber, The Voice of Nulan, was the sword that Bazhun’an used in the past... Can you imagine it? It’s just like how if you died, your Hidden Bitter immediately took someone else as its master.”

“That’s impossible. Hidden Bitter is a Owner Devouring sword.”

“But Gou Wuyue did it. After the ‘fall’ of Bazhun’an, their sabers were lost, either broken or lost. Only Gou Wuyue took in The Voice of Nulan, and the Demon Sword, the Voice of Nulan, was willing to acknowledge him as its master. What does this mean?”

“What’s the situation between the two of them?”

“..”

“Uh, I mean, doesn’t Gou Wuyue have his own saber? With their friendship, Gou Wuyue still accepted the Demon Sword, The Voice of Nulan. After that, would he still dare to enter the Holy Divine Palace?”

“I understand. So it was because of this relationship that Gou Wuyue went easy on him in the battle at the Eighth Palace? He can’t bear to kill him?”

“No, it’s because of this relationship that the Holy Divine Palace also wanted to see what choice Gou Wuyue would make when he faced Bazhun’an alone. Therefore, they would definitely send very few helpers, and they wanted to force Gou Wuyue to make a choice and not one or two choices.”

“Uh, they wanted him to die to prove his innocence? How could Gou Wuyue defeat Bazhun’an. He’s very cunning and had already called a large number of people over.”

“So Gou Wuyue hesitated...Either he fought the enemy to the death, so that no matter what the result was, he would be safe when he returned; Either he leaves the HolyDivine Palace directly, or when this matter is over, he would be subject to a trial, regardless whether he brings your Master back...That’s two different things.”

‘No wonder Bazhun’an advised him to turn over a new leaf and leave the Holy Divine Palace. Gou Wuyue was also stupid. He should have understood what it meant to have such a vague position. Wasn’t he seeking death? No wonder I heard that he was punished and I haven’t seen him until now.’

“Do you think this Seven Sword Deity was stupid?”

“Uh, I don’t dare to. Master, what do you mean?”

“Do you think Gou Wuyue can’t figure what you can?”

“Uh...”

“You think that Gou Wuyue didn’t mull over Bazhun’an’s advice?”

“Oh...”

“Then you should think about it again. If you had thoughts about it, Gou Wuyue would definitely have the same idea. What was the reason for him to do that?”

“That’s what I don’t understand. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have asked my Teacher. Hehe!”

“Foolish! Gou Wuyue’s main cultivation is the Mo Sword Technique. Let me ask you, what are the two major realms of the Mo SwordTechnique?”

“I know the answer. ‘Green River Sword Boardline’ and ‘Carefreeness’. I’m not a Way of the Sword noob!”

“Has Gou Wuyue mastered the first realm?”

“Uh-huh.”

“Has he mastered the second realm?”

” I don’t know...”

“He did not, he’s still in cultivation!”

“Then I don’t understand. He’s still in the second realm. This has nothing to do with the choice he made in the Eighth Palace. He’s still hesitant and his stance is vague... Is there any connection?”

“Silly disciple, you have to know that one is not born with knowledge. If one wants to reach the state of ‘no desire’ and ‘reckless’, he first has to have ‘desire’ and ‘scruples’. After he experienced this, then only can he cut off his obsession and cultivate to the second realm!”

At that time, Xu Xiaoshou was silent.

This was a conversation he had with his teacher, Mei Siren, on the way to the First Hall of Sins.

Xu Xiaoshou had asked other people similar questions, but no one had ever given him such an answer.

Master Siren was different. He was the first one to point out the problem and trace it to the source. He went straight to the core and gave people a clear solution.

Xu Xiaoshou once again refreshed his understanding of this Big Boss of the world.

He finally understood why Gou Wuyue had to stay in the Holy Divine Palace even though he was so aggrieved.

It was because there was pressure from both inside and outside in the Holy Divine Palace. Once one could not withstand it, one’s Way of the Sword would collapse. However, if he could withstand it, he would pass through it.

The Sainthood was just around the corner!

Therefore, Xu Xiaoshou put aside the question about Gou Wuyue and turned to ask about the other Sword Deity that he was puzzled about.

The Seven Sword Deity comprised a total of eight people, and he felt that these two were the weak ones. Now that he had cleared his doubts, Gou Wuyue’s strength and resourcefulness had both soared in his estimation and that left only the last weak one.

“What about Rao Yaoyao? She was not even as good as Gou Wuyue...How did she manage to get to where she is now?”

“Xu Xiaoshou, are there any fools among the Seven Sword Deity?”

“Uh, teacher, you’ve already asked me this question...”

“Then what are you trying to imply?”

“I want to say that before you came to the Forest of Miracles, Rao Yaoyao had also arrived. Her surname is Rao and she had someone as her support. If she’s not weak, how could she just sit and watch Teng Shanhai die and turn a blind eye to Demi-Saint Jiang's actions?"

Read I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1574 - 1574 The Manifestation of All Living Things, the Sword Saint's Tribulation (2)

1574 The Manifestation of All Living Things, the Sword Saint's Tribulation (2)

"Rao Yaoyao and Teng Shanhai, did they have the kind of relationship that Gou Wuyue had with Bazhun'an?"

"I don't think so. From their appearance, I guess they were comrades during the war. They were just acquaintances who had nothing in common."

"But she couldn't even take one move from Demi-Saint Jiang... She even had the Cang Godhood Sword, and her surname was Rao. If she wanted to save people, she should have a way to solve any subsequent problems... You said that the Seven Sword Deity are all very strong, so it's impossible she hid her skills?"

"What if she really can't win?"

"Ah?"

"Is the relationship between Demi-Saint Jiang and Rao Yaoyao very good? If it were you, if someone asked you to cut the grass and leave its roots behind, and asked you to offer your head to this root in the future, what would you choose?"

"I'll kill them all, but if I can't beat them... I'll kill him with a plan!"

"That's why Rao Yaoyao had no choice but to leave. At the moment, she really can't beat a Demi-Saint. Resistance would only lead to death for Demi-Saint Jiang, who had no other way out."

"Then I finally understand. There are indeed weaklings among the Seven Sword Deity. Rao Yaoyao is the one. She's really a noob!"

"Silly disciple, you're wrong again."

"Eh?"

"Rao Yaoyao will be conferred the title of Saint!"

“???”

At that moment, Xu Xiaoshou once again felt that his train of thought could not keep up with Master Siren's. He could not recall the shock he felt when he heard this statement.

“What do you mean?”

“I met Rao Yaoyao in the First Pavilion in the Sky before and had a conversation with her.”

“I know that.” Xu Xiaoshou had eavesdropped before.

“At that time, I didn't know why this little girl was in charge of the Dongtianwang City. I watched her grow up, so I knew her personality very well.”

“So, why...”

“When the night battle in the Imperial City started, many incidents occurred in the Yunlun Mountain Range and the Abyss Island fell and all of you came here. Then I understood that this was all a scheme, someone's scheme!”

“Who was it?”

“Xu Xiaoshou, do you know which of the Nine Major Sword Techniques is stronger?” Master Siren did not answer directly, but changed the topic.

“There's still a competition between the Nine Major Sword Techniques? This is the first time I've heard of it. Please tell me, Teacher.”

“Nine Swords Techniques, Mo Sword Technique, Phantom Sword Technique...It's said that the Sword God created the Nine Major Sword Techniques in this order. I don't know the details, but I'm sure that the Emotion Sword Technique was created last.”

“Why?”

“After he created the eight major sword principles, the Sword God traveled the world and hid his sword. Finally, he broke through the investiture of the gods, which prompted him to come out with this step that was the Emotion Sword Technique.”

“Love...”

“Well, you should have realized that the Nine Major Sword Techniques only has two realms. The last two Sword Techniques are exceptions. The Hidden Sword Technique had only one realm, while the Emotion Sword Technique had three realms.”

“The Secular Sword, the Emotionless Sword Technique, and the Immortal Sword?”

“That’s right. When other sword techniques were cultivated to the extreme, the two realms will only display one ‘move’ that is similar to a Spiritual Technique. However, the Emotion Sword Technique is different. Its three realms are all comprehension of Dao and corresponds to ‘man’, ‘earth’, and ‘heaven’, respectively.”

“So, the Emotion Sword Technique is the strongest? ‘This...Uh, it’s a little beyond my imagination!’”

“You can understand it this way...The Secular Sword cultivation phase began to step into the mortal world. The most extreme of the ‘phase’ should be the ‘Manifestation of all living things. The Emotionless Sword Technique reliance phase, when one’s body entered the mortal world, they would not be stained by the mortal world. They would be as calm and unmoving as the mountains, rivers, and seas for eternity. This was the ultimate ‘rely’, called ‘reliance on the mountains and seas’. The otherworldly Swordsman, if he leapt into the world and did not enter the Path Principles, could knock open the gate of Outer Heaven, called the ‘mysterious gate’... If you can master these three, you don’t need any other sword techniques to rise above the Holy Emperor Realm and enter the God State.”

“What...Teacher, if that’s the case, why have I only seen one person cultivate the Emotion Sword Technique? Why did you not cultivate it?”

“I can’t cultivate it. The Emotion Sword Technique is too difficult. Even a poor man can’t reach the first realm in his life. Just to cultivate this small phase can take a lifetime to fulfill.”

“Small phase? There were other phases? What did Teacher cultivate, was it the Manifestation of all living things?”

“No, I only cultivated the ‘master-student phase, which is one of the’ all-life phases’. It’s very difficult to achieve just this.”

“Then, Rao Yaoyao...”

“What she cultivated was the most orthodox Emotion Sword Technique that the Sword God had ever used. It’s called the ‘Manifestation of all living things’. Once this technique was cultivated, she could be a Saint in no time.”

“You don’t even dare to cultivate this ‘Manifestation of all living things’, how would she dare...”

“Forgiveness.”

“Oh, I understand. What about her ‘Manifestation of all living things’?”

“It’s not complete yet, but soon. It’s just one step away.”

At that time, Master Siren sighed with emotion and said.

“This talented daughter of the Rao family has had a smooth journey and has never encountered any obstacles. However, she encountered such a setback in the Dongtianwang City, the Yunlun Mountain Range and even the Abyss Island.

“Either sink into ruin, or rise in destruction...I think that the next time Rao Yaoyao is defeated, it will be when she has cultivated the Manifestation of all living things and it will also be the time for her to be conferred the title of Saint!”

Read I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1575 - 1575 The Manifestation of All Living Things, the Sword Saint’s Tribulation (3)

1575 The Manifestation of All Living Things, the Sword Saint’s Tribulation (3)

The certainty in his words was shocking.

However, Xu Xiaoshou knew that Rao Yaoyao didn’t have the ability to reach this stage by herself. Otherwise, she wouldn’t have been badgered all the way from the Dongtianwang City to the Abyss Island.

Therefore, Xu Xiaoshou immediately understood why Master Siren had mentioned about another person previously.

Master Siren seemed to share the same thought.

After the elderly Sword Deity finished his chat, he looked into the distant sky and stared at the endless sea of clouds. He felt that the clouds were like waves, each wave higher than the last. His face was filled with admiration.

“I’ve calculated all the secrets of Heaven, ghosts and Gods are unpredictable...”

“The Manifestation of all living things!”

“This is similar to a ghost. It is not an illusion nor is it a Fantasy Sword Technique. It’s the ‘Manifestation of all living things’ that Master Siren mentioned!

Under the ruins of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, Xu Xiaoshou, who hid in a blind spot among the fallen rocks and had used the Vanishing Technique and Stealth to conceal himself, felt the calamity power spread in this place. Memories flashed across his mind, and he felt his scalp go numb.

The Manifestation of all living things!

Saint Calamity!

Master Siren was right. Rao Yaoyao had really chosen to transcend the tribulation when she challenged Demi-Saint Elder Han. She wanted to be conferred the title of Demi-Saint here!

What she relied on was perhaps the final stage of the Manifestation of all living things that she had just cultivated!

Looking at the aura here, it was tens of thousands of times stronger than when Night Guardian transcended the tribulation in the Deep Sea.

At that time, Xu Xiaoshou still dared to go in and chat with Night Guardian amid the Nine Death Thunder Calamity. Now, he felt that if he didn't leave this place quickly, he might not even be able to withstand the aftermath of the Demi-Saint's Transcend the Tribulation even if he used his Vanishing Technique.

"I'm done for, I have to find a chance to escape. I can't stay here for long!"

The Hall of Unforgivable Crimes had become a ruin. The Frost Ferret had destroyed the place with one move, but it was also afraid of the Demi-Saint's tribulation. After it landed, it looked up at the sky in fear and then searched around as it tried to find an escape route.

As for Rao Yaoyao, who was frozen inside the Ganges River, she did not utter a single word from the beginning to the end. However, after the appearance of the Manifestation of all living things from the world of mortals around her, even the power of the Ganges River could no longer seal her.

"Ka...ka...ka..."

The sound of the ice cracking was endless.

Not long after, a melodious Sword Light shot up into the sky. It was Rao Yaoyao, who had broken through the seal of the Ganges River with her sword and leaped into the sky.

The Manifestation of all living things- the only thing that Rao Yaoyao could rely on to resist the Demi-Saint's all-out attack!

The Manifestation of all living things, which seemed to have been cultivated after she traveled through the mortal world, was guided by the Cang Godhood Sword and after it gathered the Power of Fate, its defensive power was terrifyingly high.

Even though the Frost Ferret had made Ye Xiao disappear with one strike and caused half of Xu Xiaoshou's frozen body to break, Rao Yaoyao was not injured at all under the protection of the Manifestation of all living things.

The cold might have frozen the ghosts from the other world to death, but not all of them were gone.

A Demi-Saint could kill a world, but he couldn't destroy all living beings in the Five Domains of the continent.

As long as all living things were not destroyed, Rao Yaoyao, who had cultivated the Manifestation of all living things, could continuously draw power from it and use it to resist the Demi-Saint's Power.

High up in the air, Rao Yaoyao's eyes were devoid of any emotions and only focused on the sword in her hand. She squinted slightly, as if she was waiting for something. Then, she opened her eyes coldly and looked up at the Nine Heavens.

“BOOM!”

On the Abyss Island, the calamity clouds finally gathered and covered the entire Giant Kingdom.

The sky was completely dark and thunder rumbled ominously, as if the end of the world had arrived.

Suddenly, a thick bolt of lightning blasted downward and went straight through the First Hall of Sins.

The ancient Great Hall, which could trap even a Demi-Saint, should have infinite ingenuity. At this moment, there were countless arrays inside, but they couldn't withstand this Saint Calamity that directly broke through.

The Saint Calamity passed through the First Hall of Sins and blasted the First Pavilion in the Sky. A scholar was struck by the lightning and his hair stood on end. He rolled out and looked at everything in a daze, unaware of what had just taken place.

All the people in the labyrinth of The First Hall of Sins were confused and stopped in their tracks. They wanted to escape from this accursed place, but they couldn't.

Even a Demi-Saint wouldn't dare to test the Saint Calamity.

This was also the reason why Jiang Buyi was temporarily affected by the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

This was because for the Saint Calamity, regardless of levels and realms, those who couldn't cross it would die, and so would those who helped. Those who were involved in it, whether actively or passively, would also die.

Even if a Holy Emperor came, it would only anger and intensify the Demi-Saint's tribulation and turned it into a Holy Emperor's tribulation. It would not be able to force this tribulation back.

The thunderbolt passed through the First Hall of Sins and accurately locked onto the person who transcended the tribulation in the maze. It struck the figure in the sky above the ruins of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

“BOOM!”

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou felt as if he had gone deaf.

Even though he was in his disappearing state and was immune to direct attacks, he could also feel the aura of the Saint Calamity that affected him. His whole body was numb, and his inner demons rolled about. His Dao heart scattered and was on the verge of collapse.

After the Heart Sword Technique eased a little, Xu Xiaoshou realized that his body had been torn apart and was covered in blood when he came to his senses.

The calamity power surged around his wounds and even his passive skills couldn't recover for the time being. He did not know how long it would take.

“Motherf*cker, I'm suffering from an undeserved disaster!”

Xu Xiaoshou trembled as he looked over. He could only watch helplessly as the Frost Ferret, like himself was trapped in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, unable to escape.

Following the aftermath of the Saint Calamity, Elder Han was like a little kitten. With a bang, he was blown into a bloody mess. He was thrown into the spatial fragment and hurriedly escaped. He was seriously injured.

This mighty Demi-Saint Ghost Beast, the Frost Ferret, was now only the size of a palm, but it only dared to resist the attack of the Saint Calamity with its body. It looked at the Nine Heavens in awe and did not dare to use or reveal its Demi-Saint power.

Because this would lead to the evolution of the Demi-Saint's tribulation, and at that time, all the people here would die!

“Swish!”

An ear-piercing cry sounded.

Xu Xiaoshou turned around and saw a bloody, mangled figure standing in the dark.

Her face and body were covered in dark red blood. Her whole body convulsed and then stiffened. In the end, she turned into many three-legged black owls and disappeared into an unknown place.

“Ye Xiao...”

This person was really in trouble!

Without the Vanishing Technique to take refuge in, after being forced to an unknown place by the Ganges River attack, and then being blasted out by the Saint Calamity on the spot, whether she lived or died was all up to Heaven’s will.

“Ah...”

Elder Han was no longer in the mood to look for Chen Tan.

Even if that guy had mentioned ‘Third ancestor of the White Vein’ when he tried to frame him, he didn’t dare to stay behind to take him away.

The Saint Calamity had no laws, but the Way of the Heavens had emotions.

Under the onslaught of such a brutal attack, the space in the First Hall of Sins was thrown into chaos again. The Hall of Unforgivable Crimes was no longer sealed.

The chaotic labyrinth passage had been blasted out of control by the Saint Calamity.

There was such a collapsed passageway in the middle, just like when Rao Yaoyao had descended. It was suspended in mid-air, as if it was there to guide everyone away. However, the space was very unstable as it hung there and was on the verge of cracking.

“Is this the Sword Deity?...”

Xu Xiaoshou retracted his gaze after his eyes swept over the place. He looked intently at Rao Yaoyao, who transcended the tribulation under the protection of the Manifestation of all living things in the void, and he felt a ripple in his heart.

He would no longer dare to think that there were any second-rate cultivators among the Seven Sword Deity.

Perhaps Rao Yaoyao was not smart enough, but when she found the path that truly belonged to her, when the Sword Deity became the Sword Saint, there would be another big shot in the world.

When the general was only focused on leading the charge, even the Heavens had to give in to her!

“That’s scary.”

Looking at Rao Yaoyao’s Saint Ascension in front of him, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he wasn’t only looking at the person in front of him, but also the Black Hand behind the scenes who directed Rao Yaoyao’s Saint Ascension.

It was just like the illusion Xu Xiaoshou had encountered when he had obtained the Weaving Expertise in the Fantasy Realm, the hand that held the net of the Order of the Heavens laws.

This hand had led to Rao Yaoyao’s defeat, arranged her growth, and pushed her to the high position of a Demi-Saint.

If he had not received Master Siren’s guidance, Xu Xiaoshou might have really thought that this moment was a coincidence.

But now, he knew that this was not the case.

This move has been played for too long. It’s too far-reaching!

For the first time, Xu Xiaoshou was afraid of someone he had never met.

This was a chess player of the same generation that even Bazhun’an had to treat with caution. He was a rising star that even Master Siren praised when he mentioned him, but his name was a secret.

Dao Qiongchang!

“Chess, you guys take your time to play. I’ll die if I play with you. I’ll leave first...”

He didn’t dare to think about it anymore. Taking advantage of the gap before the Saint Calamity gathered again and fell for the second time, Xu Xiaoshou aimed at the spatial passageway that had been formed the spatial disorder and with a swish, flashed over.

1576 Forbidden Doll (1)

“What a great formation!”

At the end of the labyrinth’s walls, an Elder stood outside the Great Hall with a little girl.

“This is the fourth Palace in the First Hall of Sins.”

“Although the First Hall of Sins doesn’t look very vast on the outside, I did not know that it’s filled with countless side palaces...Don’t you think so, kid?”

Jiang Buyi looked at the palace door that was sealed by the great array for a moment and turned to look at the little girl beside him.

She was a very special existence. After Jiang Buyi and the Five Decays of Heaven and Man were separated due to the space disorder in the First Hall of Sins, he met this little girl.

She couldn’t speak, and seemed unable to act on her own accord. She didn’t look threatening at all and resembled a puppet. Her cultivation level was only at the Sovereign Dao Realm.

Jiang Buyi could see the essence of this phenomenon. He could also vaguely sense the Power of the World in the body of this little puppet-like girl.

How terrifying was that?

Jiang Buyi had encountered too many incredible people and things in his trip to the Abyss Island.

There was a Sword Deity who could kill a Demi-Saint, a Body of Decay who was the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and Teng Shanhai who had nurtured the Power of Demon God...It could be said that no ordinary mortal could enter the Abyss Island.

He was now in the First Hall of Sins, one of the nine extreme grounds on the AbyssIsland.

In this sort of place, Jiang Buyi did not think that there would be an ordinary little girl with such a low cultivation level.

If that were the case, the little girl would not even be able to withstand the Ultimate Attribute of the First Hall of Sins. Her Life force would have been drained long ago and she would have died.

Therefore, she had to be a special existence, similar to Teng Shanhai, whose combat strength had soared after he awakened the power of the Demon God.

Otherwise, she was the forbidden puppet hidden in the First Hall of Sins. Once some special mechanism was triggered, she would be awakened completely and embark on a killing spree.

“Same old method, is that okay?”

Jiang Buyi gently bent down and handed over a key that contained a special power. He looked at the little girl whose face was so pale that there seemed to be no trace of blood in it at all.

He did not forget that he only had a few chances to attack. Thus, when this little girl targeted him like a curse and chose to follow him, he did not dare to refuse.

He had been on the alert against any possible strange behavior from the little girl, just like how he was always on guard against the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

When he realized there were none, he tried to make use of the little girl's power.

For example, she could use her Spiritual Source and her own 'array-breaking key' to open the spiritual array seals in the Great Hall.

This way, not only could he reduce the number of times he had to take action, but he could also enter the Hall to explore and find the 'exemption order'. It was a very good method.

Just like the previous few times, Jiang Buyi saw the puppet-like little girl nod slightly and she took the key obediently-it seemed she could not refuse him. Mu Zixi felt extremely panicky and flustered!

Her current panic-stricken state was even worse than the time she secretly filmed a moaning Xu Xiaoshou being thrown into the cauldron used to brew medicine after he was discovered!

She had clearly been with the three bodyguards a moment ago, but in the next second, the space was in chaos, and only the old man was left by her side.

It would be great if the old man had been Master Siren, at least her safety was guaranteed.

However, when she looked up, the memories that were sealed away in her mind reopened. Mu Zixi saw the scene whereby the old man in front of her had torn apart the Elders of the Lei family with his bare hands.

Jiang Buyi!

Her heart stopped beating immediately, and the blood in her body drained away. Her face was as pale as a ten-day old corpse.

Once upon a time, Mu Zixi had asked her Senior Brother a question. "How did you manage to stay so calm in front of so many Masters? You didn't panic at all. Were you a born actor from birth?"

“I do panic!” This was what Xu Xiaoshou had replied to her at the time. “But what can we do if we panic? You can only imagine that you’re more powerful than them; you’re Bazhun’an, and all of them in front of you are only trash that you can crush with one finger.”

Mu Zixi felt that this answer was ridiculous, but she pouted and asked shamelessly, “Then in that kind of situation, what should you do to save your life?”

“You interrupt when others speak, and you reply with a question when they ask questions. In short, you can’t answer, don’t play your cards according to logic, and don’t give others the appearance that you’re being controlled by them. You have to hold the right to speak in your hands, control the situation, clearly know what results you want, and lead without giving away any traces.” The cocky Xu Xiaoshou spoke with fervor and assurance.

“I understand...” Mu Zixi was deep in thought.

Xu Xiaoshou continued, “But if it’s you, don’t even think about it. If I’m not by your side, you can just wait for death. After all, you’re not capable of doing what I just told you.”

Mu Zixi still remembered that her head had exploded the moment she heard this.

As expected, no matter how hard she punched or kicked, she couldn’t hit this d*mned Xu Xiaoshou.

“What if I really do encounter such an extreme situation?” Mu Zixi asked again.

“That depends on the situation. It depends on the timing, location, people, and other circumstances.” The infuriating Xu Xiaoshou laughed. “To put it simply, if the other side is a fool, it’s useless no matter what you do. You can just wait for death. But if the other side is someone smart...”

“So what if he’s smart?”

“Then keep your mouth shut. Don’t do or say anything. This is the best way to save your life. You just need to pretend to be profound and let them think their own thoughts.”

1577 Forbidden Doll (2)

“Will that be useful?”

“It’s useful! Very useful! Smart people always like to overthink things. Their first reaction is always to overestimate the other party and think that they’re actually very wise but appear to be stupid. After all, it's always right to treat trouble with caution. Smart people are always cautious."

Mu Zixi once again fell into deep thought.

She felt that what Xu Xiaoshou said was all bullsh*t, but it seemed to make some sense.

She had a vague feeling that Xu Xiaoshou seemed to be insulting her with this sentence, but she couldn't figure out where the insult lay.

Xu Xiaoshou rubbed her head and said, "Great wisdom may appear to be stupidity. This is a brilliant realm. Some people need a lifetime to cultivate to this realm, but you are different..."

"How am I different?" Mu Zixi's eyes lit up immediately. She felt that her Senior Brother was about to praise her.

Sure enough, Xu Xiaoshou was full of praises and did not hide his admiration and recognition for his cute little Junior Sister at all."You were born to master this realm!"

Mu Zixi, who woke up a day later, had already forgotten what had happened next. In any case, she was sure that she had prevailed against Xu Xiaoshou and had not been put to work Conducting Alchemy to make soup.

She was glad that she had asked Xu Xiaoshou this question.

During the exchange, Mu Zixi had pretended to be Xu Xiaoshou and thought from Xu Xiaoshou's point of view, either bluff her way through or get killed.

Now, Mu Zixi had learned her lesson. When she encountered Jiang Buyi, who was definitely a 'smart person', she chose the second method that Xu Xiaoshou had told her about.

Surprisingly, the method worked.

She did not answer any of Jiang Buyi's questions.

Jiang Buyi chatted with her, but she ignored him.

Jiang Buyi wanted to kill her. He even released the Demi-Saint aura. She stared at Jiang Buyi blankly and then released the Demi-Saint's Power.

Jiang Buyi was scared to death. He retreated hurriedly and addressed her as 'Little Ancestor' in such a humble manner!

He didn't dare to act rashly anymore and chose to leave in the end.

Mu Zixi was afraid that this was a test. She was afraid that she would expose something when she was alone. In the end, what if Jiang Buyi had secretly monitored her every move and when he discovered something, he would kill her.

Or perhaps she might encounter another mishap after Jiang Buyi left.

In short, she did not dare to let Jiang Buyi, this scourge, leave. She could only grit her teeth and endure her fear. She imagined herself as a piece of dog-skin plaster, and then stuck to Jiang Buyi, this big oaf and used him as a bodyguard.

After Jiang Buyi was tailed by her, he became furious and wanted to attack again.

Mu Zixi stared at him blankly. She gazed at him calmly, without any murderous intent in her eyes.

Jiang Buyi addressed her as 'Great Aunt' and advised her to go her own way. After he received no response, he proposed that they leave together after some discussion and probing.

Mu Zixi finally reacted and nodded.

Jiang Buyi's face instantly turned pale. Then, he took a deep breath and turned to leave.

Mu Zixi did not understand why Jiang Buyi inhaled so heavily.

Mu Zixi did not understand why he addressed her as 'Little Ancestor' and 'Great Aunt'.

However, Mu Zixi recalled another wave of teachings from her Senior Brother. He said, 'When something works in a strange way, you should not interfere or change it forcefully. You should only follow the results.'

Mu Zixi did not understand why.

At that time, she had scoffed at her Senior Brother's 'teaching' and didn't even bother to ask why, because these words were sheer nonsense!

Now, she treated it as a valuable experience and put it to practice with her life.

"Brother Shou, come and save me! I'm really going to die soon!"

Mu Zixi wailed in her heart but her outward expression was calm and puppet-like. She took the key from Jiang Buyi in a dazed manner. She injected her Spiritual Source into the key and inserted it into the Spiritual Array in the Great Hall in front of her.

“Zhen Huang Palace!”

Without moving her eyes, Mu Zixi used her Spiritual Senses to scan the area and remembered the name of the Great Hall.

She didn't know why there was a need to remember this, but it was the only thing she could do now. It might be meaningless, but it was very meaningful.

Jiang Buyi had very powerful abilities!

When she followed Xu Xiaoshou, Master Siren and Fringe Moon Immortal City's Eldest Senior Brother, Mu Zixi knew that the three of them were still trapped in the maze and had lost their way.

However, when she followed Jiang Buyi...

In just one day, Jiang Buyi had used some unknown method to get out of the labyrinth many times.

Mu Zixi also remembered the names of the first three halls: Wu Xu Hall, Fei Yuan Hall, Netherworld Hall.

Compared to the 'Zhen Huang Palace' in front of her, Mu Zixi felt that what she did was meaningless but she had forcefully given it a meaning-her commitment of the names to memory had become really meaningful.

She found the difference.

The first three Great Halls were known as Halls, but this Hall was known as a palace.

This was a difference that was visible to the naked eye! A historic breakthrough! It was of great significance!

However, Mu Zixi couldn't figure out what the inner meaning of this meaning that she had comprehended by herself had.

Jiang Buyi seemed to be searching for something.

However, he was extremely cautious and allowed himself to activate his spiritual array. After he entered every Great Hall, he was not tempted by the treasures at all and did not take anything.

He was like an idle tourist as he walked around in the hall. When he found that there was nothing he wanted, he left and carefully restored the Spiritual Array to its original state. It was a totally different image from the one she remembered when he tore apart the Elders of the Lei family.

1578 Forbidden Doll (3)

Compared to Xu Xiaoshou, they were two extremes!

Mu Zixi could even imagine that if Xu Xiaoshou had entered the first three Halls, not even a plaque would have been left behind.

The golden edges of the words engraved on the plaque would have been dug out by him to find the 'significance' – Why was it engraved in gold? Did it have any special meaning? Would he be able to get rewards and treasures if he broke this mechanism?

Her mind was filled with thoughts, but Mu Zixi did not dare to stop her actions.

This 'Formation-breaking key' came from Jiang Buyi. It was of a very high quality and might even be a holy product.

In short, he could even break the Spiritual Array seals of the various great Halls in the ancient First Hall of Sins, but he would need to inject a lot of spiritual source.

Fortunately, Mu Zixi didn't lack spiritual source.

She drew upon the power of the White Cave Small World. Even if this key could drain an ordinary Sovereign Dao Realm dry, it would not consume too much of her energy.

Jiang Buyi waited quietly at the side. He was not impatient at all, even though the little girl in front of him poured out her spiritual source into the key at an extremely slow pace.

This was the only benefit of the forbidden puppet.

When he couldn't make a move, he would use it to take his place and become a special spiritual source release machine.

Well, her spiritual source was endless...This was the same as the unknown in the First Hall of Sins. It was really strange!

Jiang Buyi did not dare to provoke this little girl. He was afraid of any accidents now. After all, there was the Five Decays of Heaven and Man before that.

After he got rid of the Body of Decay, Jiang Buyi made up his mind that before he found the exemption order, he would not break any anomaly that could operate in a stable manner.

Even if it came from the First Hall of Sins and was in the form of a forbidden puppet.

“Ka!”

The spiritual array cracked.

Not long after, the injection of spiritual source was complete.

Mu Zixi felt that as long as she twisted the key in her hand, the great array in front of her would be able to open the door that could allow three people to pass through, just like the previous three times.

She didn't ask for permission, nor did she turn around. She calmly turned the key in her hand and twisted it gently.

“BOOM!”

A violent explosion suddenly came from the distance. A strong sense of calamity covered the sky. The air waves rolled out from the shattered space and swept across the place.

“Pfft...”

Mu Zixi didn't dare to resist. She didn't even use her spiritual source and was swept away by the raging storm. Her small body was thrown into the air and she crashed heavily onto the ground and spat out blood.

Fortunately, the storm had been blocked by the labyrinth's walls and had been considerably weakened by its many layers. Mu Zixi's injuries were not serious, and she only felt a little pain in her butt and her internal organs shifted a little.

However, with such a strong Life force in her body, this was considered a slight injury.

“Saint Calamity?”

Jiang Buyi suddenly turned around and his pupils shrank. “Who would dare to transcend the Tribulation and become a Saint here? Are they crazy?”

The aura of the Saint Calamity was mixed with a trace of Sword Will. It was not obvious as it had been weakened by the various obstacles in the First Hall of Sins.

However, Jiang Buyi was not an ordinary person. He could still see it.

“Sword Will, Saint Ascension...”

All of a sudden, the encounter in the Forest of Miracles came to Jiang Buyi's mind. He was bewildered. “Mei Siren?”

Not long after the Saint Calamity descended, Jiang Buyi felt the aura of a Demi-Saint from afar.

A cold gush of a Demi-Saint's aura broke through the labyrinth's wall from the left at an extreme speed and rushed to the other side without fear of death. It broke through countless obstacles, as if it didn't care whether its actions would trigger an attack or the Ultimate Attribute punishment.

Behind it, the Sword Will aura that contained the Demi-Saint's tribulation became increasingly obvious, and it chased after it.

“Ji...”

A shrill cry rang out.

Even though he did not see it, Jiang Buyi was slightly shocked when he felt it from afar.

Was there a Demi-Saint chase in the First Hall of Sins? And one of them had broken through the Way of the Sword to the Demi-Saint realm?

“He's really crazy...”

Jiang Buyi, who had the 'countdown to exile' in his mind, could not understand this kind of suicidal move. He shook his head and stopped thinking about it. Anyway, he would not get involved.

At this moment, the spiritual array of Zhen Huang Palace was already open.

Jiang Buyi did not think too much and turned around to enter. However, when he turned his head, the forbidden puppet behind him had disappeared!

“D*mn!..”

At this moment, Jiang Buyi's heart suddenly stopped. He was so scared that his scalp went numb.

His attention had only been diverted for a short while, and the forbidden puppet had disappeared? Where could she have gone to?

However, when he swept his eyes around, Jiang Buyi was surprised to find that the forbidden puppet girl was on the ground a short distance away. Blood flowed from the corners of her mouth. She did not disappear, nor did she enter his soul.

“Hu...”

Jiang Buyi heaved a long sigh of relief. Only then did the chills on his back disappear.

He immediately walked over and reached out to help the little girl up, but his hand stopped in mid-air, as if he had realized something. He then retracted his hand.

“Are you alright? Can you get up?” Jiang Buyi did not dare to touch the exquisite forbidden puppet and only asked in a gentle voice.

“You...”

Jiang Buyi hesitated for a moment. He stared at the corner of the little girl’s mouth and gestured with his hand, “There’s blood.”

Mu Zixi looked at him calmly. After a long while, she stuck out her tongue and licked it.

Jiang Buyi’s eyelids twitched. He chose to turn around and put some distance between them.

“Come, let’s go into the Great Hall first. It’s a little dangerous outside.”

1579 The Most Sinister Hunter (1)

Take the easy way out!

Xu Xiaoshou took a step forward and flashed out of the ruins of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

Fortunately, he did not encounter any obstacles this time, unlike the last time when there was a lunatic who blocked the labyrinth’s passage. After he landed, there was a great battle after a verbal disagreement.

“Calm down, it’s time to get a hold of the situation!”

The outcome of the battle had undergone a shocking turn that Xu Xiaoshou had never expected.

This was crazy!

When did Rao Yaoyao become like this? She was really like a lunatic!

However, it had to be said that this fighting style was extremely suitable for her, a Sword Deity...No, perhaps in the future, she would be called a Sword Saint. Xu Xiaoshou didn’t think that this Rao character would fail to become a Saint.

“She’s not the key person now. I have to recall everything that happened in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and see if I had missed out on any details.”

Xu Xiaoshou diligently tried to gather his thoughts and focus on them.

In the Disappearing State, he had successfully turned from a marginal figure to being part of an irrelevant crowd, able to escape from all the attention, but this did not mean that he was fine.

What if he missed a single step, and Elder Han and Rao Yaoyao turned around to target him instead?

“First of all, Elder Han wanted to negotiate. According to Rao Yaoyao, this Frost Ferret came from the Inner Island of the Abyss Island, so there’s a high chance that he’s Bazhun’an’s chess piece and also a small chance that he’s not.”

“No matter what, since I know all this, I have to communicate with them even if I have to risk my life. If we can cooperate or even make use of them in the end...” Yes, he definitely couldn’t negotiate now. Whether Elder Han managed to escape Rao Yaoyao’s Saint Calamity was another matter. He was good at escaping, so perhaps he could...”Eh, I definitely can’t negotiate with them. When the time comes, I’ll hand them over to the second true body.”

In a split second, Xu Xiaoshou made a decision about Elder Han and his attention returned to the closed labyrinth passage behind him.

This meant that the only path to both the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and the labyrinth of the First Hall of Sins had disappeared.

Xu Xiaoshou had emerged after the chase between Elder Han and Rao Yaoyao; it was just that they had run in different directions.

After he came out, he deliberately waited for a while, but unfortunately, he didn’t see the other person come out.

“Ye Xiao is dead?”

“Otherwise, why did she not come out?”

“She shouldn’t be dead...It’s just a Saint Calamity, and I’m still safe and sound. She looked seriously injured, but she must have a life-saving trump card. There’s no way she could be dead!”

“So, she might have already come out. But why didn’t I see her? When did she come out?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes swiveled and he subconsciously observed himself carefully.

There was no sign of being possessed, and there was no danger notification in the Information Bar. Ye Xiao could not have turned into a spirit and followed him. It was always at the blind spot behind his head, regardless of whether he turned back or not.

“I’m in trouble...”

No matter how crazy and chaotic things were on the surface, Xu Xiaoshou was not afraid, even if it was a Demi-Saint who played the long-distance chase and escape battle.

He was most afraid of this kind of person who took advantage of the chaos and slipped into the darkness like himself and then reaped the benefits from the confusion – a person who led the development of the situation.

The Dark Division Chief was truly a Dark Division Chief. When he disappeared, she also went missing.

“What a sinister and disgusting ability!”

He cursed in his heart and decided not to think about it anymore. He had disappeared anyway, and Ye Xiao couldn’t possibly still keep an eye on him, right?

He carefully recalled the details that he had stopped thinking about because of various reasons at the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. It could be due to the tense situation, or it could be subjective.

From the beginning to the end, he did not miss out on a single thing.

After all, when one dealt with these smart people, one wrong move and one would die.

“My identity shouldn’t have been exposed. Chen Tan did a good job, but there’s one thing I have to be wary of...When I first entered the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, I grabbed Ye Xiao’s hand, and that was the only time I’ve had any contact with her!”

“I have ‘Stealth’ and I had just entered the Great Hall. When under stress, the first choice of a normal person would definitely be to resist, not to infiltrate the other party’s body with spiritual source to observe the enemy. This is an act akin to seeking death... Well, I’ve never felt Ye Xiao do something like that before.”

“From Ye Xiao’s reaction, she didn’t recognize me, and there was no notification in the Information Bar...”

Xu Xiaoshou chose to believe in his own deduction.

Otherwise, if Ye Xiao faced Chen Tan, whom she knew was Xu Xiaoshou, she would not have been so calm.

Rao Yaoyao was the Ruler of the red-clothed people, so it’s normal for her to know about Elder Han’s past. But I’m merely Chen Tan. Why did she carry on with her explanation about the Ghost Beasts to Ye Xiao, even though she knew I was there?”

Xu Xiaoshou fell into deep thought. This was something he had noticed at the time.

When Rao Yaoyao spoke to her, Ye Xiao’s expression clearly changed, but Rao Yaoyao remained unmoved and continued to tell her all the information about the Ghost Beasts.

Ghost Beast...

Rao Yaoyao did not mind that a stranger knew about the information of the Ghost Beasts on the Shengshen Continent, where everyone kept it a secret after they came to the Abyss Island?

Or was she so stupid that she didn’t realize that Chen Tan could eavesdrop on her conversation?

“She regarded me as one of her own!” Xu Xiaoshou quickly got the answer.

“... Chen Tan displayed the Power of the evil God and even Ye Xiao didn’t want to attack him. She wanted the God Execution Order, and she wanted me to join the Holy Divine Palace.”

1580 The Most Sinister Hunter (2)

“Is it because Chen Tan is so great and handsome that Ye Xiao could not bear to kill him?”

“No! From the moment the Power of the Evil God appeared, Chen Tan was destined to fall into the hands of the Holy Divine Palace because the Power of the Ancestral Source can’t be exposed to the outside world, even if it’s just an aura.”

When he looked back at the whole thing from a third-person perspective, and put himself in the shoes of the Holy Divine Palace, Xu Xiaoshou found that all the explanations made sense.

Both Ye Xiao and Rao Yaoyao knew that Chen Tan had the Power of the Evil God, but they didn’t try to snatch the God Execution Order at the first instance. Instead, they chose to deal with Elder Han.

What this meant was that the Holy Divine Palace would definitely take you, Chen Tan, be it now or in the future.

The God Execution Order you have is equivalent to being placed in the treasure vault of the Holy Divine Palace, because you were already in the records of the treasure vault.

After all, the Power of the Evil God could never leak out!

“That was why Elder Xie cherished his life. After he obtained this secret skill, no one around him knew about it.”

“Even Ghost Granny, who was closest to him, only knew a thing or two about him. She knew that he practiced some kind of Southern Region evil technique, but she was not aware of the roots.”

Xu Xiaoshou’s heart trembled.

But fortunately, the one being targeted was Chen Tan, and had nothing to do with me Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou.

From the results of the deduction, it wasn’t difficult to deduce that Rao Yaoyao would immediately return after her battle with Elder Han and look for Chen Tan through some means.

Or...

“Before Rao Yaoyao and Elder Han started their battle, she specifically instructed Ye Xiao to keep an eye on Chen Tan, which meant to keep an eye on me!” Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes suddenly turned cold, as he understood the underlying meaning of this sentence.

“So after Elder Han’s Ganges River assault, Ye Xiao disappeared, and she was already on the lookout for me. After the Saint Calamity, Ye Xiao even appeared to be blown to bits. Was that a show to give the impression that she was on the verge of death?”

“There’s still no news of her?”

He recalled how Ye Xiao had not appeared from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes. He then concluded that she might have already come out.

According to his current deduction, Ye Xiao would likely be watching him at all times...

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly felt a chill run down his spine!

He was currently in his Disappearing state and all traces of himself in the world had been erased. How could he be tracked?

“Am I scaring myself?”

Some absurd thoughts flashed through Xu Xiaoshou’s mind. He wanted to treat these as unnecessary worries, but then he thought about it...

It was understandable that a Chief of the Six Divisions like Teng Shanhai would die at the hands of Jiang Buyi. He died because of his stupidity.

Even after he stepped into Patriarch Wuji’s trap, it was still so difficult to die. He was smart, but from the current perspective, all of his abilities weren’t suitable for battle.

Even so, he had persevered for so long, longer than most of the higher void level he knew.

As an individual, he was very powerful, but in the six divisions of the Holy Divine Palace, he was just an intelligence worker.

The truly war-oriented divisions were the Dao division and two other divisions aside from the remaining four. Among them, the Dark division specialized in assassination!

“Assassination...”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t dare to equate Ye Xiao with that.

How could the combat strength of an intelligence officer be compared to that of an assassin?

Therefore, when he faced Ye Xiao, one had to be vigilant. In fact, one had to be several times more vigilant.

“If we look at it from this perspective, there’s a high chance that I wasn’t just scaring myself. Everything was really being executed...”

“Ye Xiao kept me under surveillance!”

It was as if his mind had exploded, and Xu Xiaoshou felt as if the scene he had seen in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes had come back.

The woman in the black cloak on the Necromancer’s shoulder suddenly looked up. The three-legged black owl on her shoulder shrieked, and the eyes of the God of Death behind her opened coldly and drowned out all the colors in the sky.

Xu Xiaoshou felt goosebumps all over his body.

He once again checked all the places on his body that he might have overlooked, whether there was a crow feather hidden somewhere, and whether there was any whiff of the dangerous woman's aura.

But there were none.

Everything was normal, and there was no risk notification in the Information Bar.

Xu Xiaoshou's heartbeat accelerated. Either he had overthought, or the situation was worse than he expected!

He wasn't a happy-go-lucky person. Whenever he thought of the 'dark group', the 'assassins', and the 'tri-colored hunting order' that could only be obtained by the successful assassination of a Demi-Saint, he felt flustered.

Xu Xiaoshou's sense of danger about Ye Xiao increased by more than one level.

He suddenly thought of something.

Ye Xiao had mastered the Power of the God of Death. This was the same Power of the ancestral source as Teng Shanhai's Power of Demon God. However, the Power of ancestral source was something that only the Holy Emperor could comprehend.

In other words, could the Power of the ancestral source achieve an effect that only the power of a Holy Emperor could achieve to a certain extent?

"Then is there a possibility that I have been guided?"

"Obstruct all the guidance from the outside world targeted at Xu Xiaoshou and Chen Tan. It's best if you can block and remove it... Obstruct, obstruct, obstruct!"

Again and again.

He didn't know if it was the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale's ability or if it was a psychological effect, but Xu Xiaoshou felt his thoughts become much clearer.

"If I'm already a targeted prey and Ye Xiao is a hunter who had assassinated a Demi-Saint before, then her greatest quality must be her patience..."

"D*mn, she was really patient! I spent the whole day looking for the way out of the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, and she just stared at me the whole time. That f*cking look of a hunter staring at his prey!"

1581 The Most Sinister Hunter (3)

Xu Xiaoshou's face turned green as he thought about it. He tried to calm himself down.

"What do I have to do to make such a patient hunter let his guard down and give himself away?"

He found an answer very quickly.

"A dying bird can wait for the hunter's last shot!"

Now that he was in the disappearing state, Xu Xiaoshou felt and was assured that Ye Xiao could not see him.

However, just like how Jiang Buyi could use the holy realm to roughly locate him, the Storyteller could use the method of elimination to continuously shrink the exile space to find someone.

Xu Xiaoshou thought that someone as smart and weird as Ye Xiao should have a special way to sense his existence. After all, this was a woman who had mastered the power of the God of Death!

When he thought of this, Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had to show himself.

If he didn't remove the Vanishing Technique and lure Ye Xiao out, Xu Xiaoshou would never be at peace.

"Take the easy way out!"

In his disappearing state, Xu Xiaoshou was like a headless fly that dashed about randomly.

After he ran more than ten miles, he finally stopped after he had completely lost his way in the labyrinth.

"I'm already lost. If Ye Xiao can keep up with me while I teleported in my disappearing state, I'll live-stream myself eating sh*t!"

This time, Xu Xiaoshou bet that he was definitely fighting with the air.

He had imagined an invincible enemy for himself, and his next experiment would never get a response.

He was just taking a risk...

He looked down and saw that his clothes had been ripped off after the battle, but his internal injuries had mostly healed. After all, there were still remnants of the aura of the saint calamity and his injuries could not be completely healed.

Xu Xiaoshou gritted his teeth and used his Sharpness to cut himself until he bled. He restored the injuries he had suffered when he escaped from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and then removed the Vanishing Technique.

“Bang!”

Somewhere on the labyrinth’s wall, a bloody figure fell and stopped when his head hit the ground and dragged himself forward for about ten feet. Finally, he leaned against the wall with difficulty, his face covered in dust, and propped up his broken body.

Chen Tan’s eyes were filled with horror. His pupils and his hands trembled slightly. Upon closer inspection, his eyelids still twitched uncontrollably.

“Saint Sword Deity Rao actually dared to become a Saint here, and I can’t even withstand the Ultimate Attribute...”

“Elder Han, that Frost Ferret is actually a ghost beast...”

Chen Tan muttered to himself in a low voice. He took out some Elixirs from his spatial ring and swallowed them with difficulty. After he calmed down, he took a deep breath.

He looked around, as if he was trying to see if there were any people who followed him.

“Ye Xiao...”

“God Execution Order...”

“Why... No, something was wrong... It should be...”

After more than a quarter of an hour, Chen Tan changed his position several times and half reclined, but he still muttered to himself from time to time.

After he carried out this act for more than a quarter of an hour, Xu Xiaoshou reached his absolute limit. His “Perception” constantly searched for possible auras in the surroundings, and he even used the Information Bar and the Holy Emperor Dragon Scale.

But there was no one!

He suspected that maybe he was just a fool. He was really overthinking. If he told this to his little Junior Sister, she would laugh at him for the rest of her life!

But since it had come to this, the show had to continue.

It was better to fight wits with air than to compete with the actual person for patience.

At this time, the Elixirs should have taken effect. Chen Tan barely regained his mobility. He supported himself against the wall, stood up and smirked.

“No matter what, I’ve got the God Execution Order. The next thing is to find the exit and leave this d*mned place!”

He looked around and saw that there were no outsiders or Void Attendants, so he scooped some water from his spatial ring and rinsed his face violently.

He used so much force that it was as if he not only wanted to clean off the blood and dust on his face, but also wanted to rub his face off.

After a long while, Chen Tan finally stopped. He lowered his hands in the dark labyrinth and raised his head.

“Well, Chen Tan’s identity has come to an end. Who should I impersonate next? Xu Xiaoshou? Ye Xiao?” Chen Tan muttered. He casually took out a bronze mirror from his spatial ring and gently raised it.

In the mirror, with the help of the faint light, one could see that after he washed his face, there was a completely flat and terrifying face without any facial features!

This was Xu Xiaoshou’s ultimate move, Transformation!

He believed that as long as there was someone who spied on him, they would be terrified when they saw Chen Tan muttering to himself after he washed his face. With the help of the bronze mirror, they would take a closer look and discover that this human face had turned into such a ghostly sight.

Especially now that he was in the First Hall of Sins, that had such an unknown and horrifying environment.

His flat face twitched slightly, and a soft chuckle came out of nowhere. Chen Tan rubbed his face and started to casually pinch his face.

At the same time, he focused his mind on the Information Bar that had not moved from the beginning to the end. He wanted to see if this ultimate move would bring about any Transformation.

At a certain moment, he was not sure if it was an illusion and Chen Tan's movements froze for a second, but he quickly came back to himself. After he thought of the direction, he continued to pinch his face.

It was just that his facial features had not been revealed yet. Otherwise, Chen Tan, who was essentially Xu Xiaoshou, felt that he had been exposed.

The Information Bar moved!

A piece of information had really popped up!

In an environment where there was no one around!

“(Stunned, Passive Points), +1.”

1582 The Five Curses of Heaven and Man! (1)

D*mn...d*mn...d*mn!

Xu Xiaoshou felt that he would not be able to sleep for a long time.

He originally felt that his battle of wits and courage with the air was already extremely off the mark. This was an action that could only be done by someone who was so cautious that it was slightly abnormal.

However, he had never thought that even this seemingly frivolous self-verification would really prove something to himself.

“Someone is watching me!”

Ye Xiao?

There was a 99% chance that it was Ye Xiao!

The only one left could be Kong Yuheng...No, it was definitely not Kong Yuheng!

Xu Xiaoshou was almost certain that it was the dangerous woman he had not been able to wait for after he escaped from the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, and not Kong Yuheng.

Even if it was Yul Lingdi or Bazhun'an, Gou Wuyue or Rao Yaoyao, they would at least 'notify' the person beforehand and cause the Information Bar to issue a warning.

However, the way this Dark Division Chief stalked a person...

She didn't even stalk him; she just followed him like a tarsal maggot, a malignant growth!

If it had not been for the fact that he had startled her when he washed his face and attracted her attention slightly, Xu Xiaoshou would have inadvertently shown his true identity and the price to pay for that would be high.

A real killer would never reveal any killing intent before the dagger was inserted into the target's neck.

A mature hunter would never believe in any opportunity that could speed up the hunting operation before the prey closed its eyes and breathed its last.

Without a doubt, Ye Xiao was such a person!

Xu Xiaoshou couldn't believe that he had pretended to be weak for so long...If it was Rao Yaoyao, she would have already slashed out with her sword. Who would be able to resist the temptation?

But Ye Xiao could!

Her endurance limit was so strong that she didn't even take advantage of the various flaws and opportunities that were presented to her just now. She just followed her own hunting instinct and just watched silently.

"Was it because of what I said in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes?"

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked. He felt that the plan he had made in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes was just mediocre. Why did Ye Xiao have such a high opinion of Chen Tan?

No matter what, Xu Xiaoshou had labeled Ye Xiao as the most dangerous hunter.

He realized that the fear he had for this higher void was even greater than when he faced Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi, Elder Han and Rao Yaoyao.

"Ka ka!"

As these thoughts ran through his mind, Xu Xiaoshou looked into the bronze mirror and quickly pinched his face. His bones cracked audibly as his skin and flesh underwent a Transformation.

When he saw the notification on the Information Bar, he froze for a moment, but he managed to cover it up as he thought about whose image he would borrow.

He believed that Ye Xiao's 'shock' at that moment meant that she was also frightened. In her moment of distraction, she should not have been able to see through his disguise.

No matter what, Xu Xiaoshou followed Chen Tan's idea and quickly transformed himself into a jade-faced scholar.

This face was very delicate with a fair and smooth complexion and looked very weak, but his eyes were bright and his temperament was refined and gave the impression that he was well read and knowledgeable.

However, in the First Hall of Sins, most people valued martial arts over knowledge.

Xu Xiaoshou's face, when compared to the people here, should be considered very ordinary.

However...

This was Kong Yuheng's face!

After he pinched his face and put down the bronze mirror, Xu Xiaoshou didn't take out the Time Ancestor Shadow Staff. He just glanced imperceptibly at the Information Bar. There was no response.

"So Ye Xiao had never seen Kong Yuheng before?"

"Well, it's also possible that she's seen it before. She knows this face, but she didn't dare to show any reaction after she exposed her 'horror' earlier..."

"No! Absolutely not! Anyone who has seen Kong Yuheng before can't remain calm after they see my face. This should be even more terrifying than a faceless man without any facial features!"

Xu Xiaoshou quickly realized that Ye Xiao definitely did not know who Kong Yuheng was.

Otherwise, the face of the most mysterious person among the Ten High Nobles, who had mastered the Time and Space attributes, had appeared on the body of a Southern Region heretic practitioner. How could this not be shocking?

Not to mention Ye Xiao, even Dao Qiongcang would definitely be surprised if he came!

In the labyrinth of the First Hall of Sins, the fog remained and the place was dark.

From time to time, there would be a big explosion in the distance. Occasionally, the aftermath of the battle would break the walls of the labyrinth and froze everything there.

Then, it would be torn apart by the Sword Will, but it seemed that it did not affect this place.

The Saint Calamity was already very far away. No one knew where the battlefield had gone.

Chen Tan seemed to like his new face very much.

After everything was done, he patted his cheeks with both hands and pinched the flesh on his cheeks. He tugged and then released them and watched the flesh bounce back in place

“Very good. Next, I’ll be called ‘Chen Ruye’.”

Chen Ruye also seemed not to be aware of anything. He muttered to himself, looked up at the sky, and then randomly chose a direction to start running to.

Time was life.

There were only two ways to save himself.

First, under the premise of finding the main hall of the First Hall of Sins, find your own people, such as Master Siren and Xiao Kongtong.

Second, under the same premise, as long as the person you meet is not one of your own, you can use an external force to divert Ye Xiao’s attention. For example, the person you meet by chance is Xu Xiaoshou.

Xu Xiaoshou was Ye Xiao’s lifelong enemy!

Ye Xiao knew this and so did Chen Ruye. Xu Xiaoshou could be anyone, because he had the Imitator.

The second method was extremely difficult to achieve, but Chen Ruye also knew that it wasn’t impossible to make an innocent and lucky person turn into Xu Xiaoshou.

1583 The Five Curses of Heaven and Man! (2)

Because in this world, Chen Ruye was the only one who truly understood Xu Xiaoshou the best!

As for who the lucky one was...

Who cares? “Whoosh!”

The golden sword light flashed in the dark labyrinth.

The decaying Void Attendant turned into minced meat and fell to the ground. In the end, with a sizzle, it turned into a gray-black stream of air and flowed into the orange robe.

“Senior Deva, it seems we still have to rely on you. I’m no match for the Void Attendant being the junior that I am.”

Gu Qinger’s entire body was stained with blood, his sword robe in tatters and even his face was covered with so much blood that it was difficult to make out his actual features, stood still and turned to the orange-robed masked man behind him.

Gu Qinger carried a sword wheel on his back that contained eight Spiritual Swords.

He also inserted the famed sword, The Bewitching Demon into the center of the sword wheel, then sat down cross-legged and began to regulate his breathing.

“Senior, I need to rest for a while.”

“You’re not afraid of the Ultimate attribute of the First Hall of Sins, but they’re a little too strong for me. I can feel my Life force being drained rapidly and I can’t hold on much longer.”

Gu Qinger said as he picked up the weeds on his shoulder and threw them away. He couldn’t bear the stench that emanated from his body and wanted to close his eyes.

His originally black hair had turned white, and his ophryon had turned black due to the blood stains. His entire body was lifeless, and he felt he didn’t have long to live.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man walked over from a distance and said calmly.

“You’re Sword Deity Wen’s disciple, how could you be so weak?”

“Stand up. You still need to lead the Way of the Sword. The main hall of the First Hall of Sins is not hidden behind your closed eyes, but in the distance ahead.”

Gu Qinger, who was extremely weak, didn’t refute. He immediately stood up, and his spirit was awakened. “Senior is right!”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man walked side by side with him and said as they walked.

“Kid, you can’t fall now. You have to hold on until someone comes to save you.”

“Remember, before that moment comes, you are the disciple of the Honorable Sword Deity Wen. You said that your Supreme Master has entered the Demi-Saint State, so no one in the First Hall of Sins would dare to touch you.”

“In the presence of outsiders, Yama and the Burial Sword Tomb make the best partners.”

“When there is danger, you’ll be my strongest shield, no one else.”

Gu Qinger’s dazed eyes lit up, he pounded his chest with his fist and shouted, “My honor!”

Da.

A noise could be heard from the end of the labyrinth’s passage that was like a drop of water falling to the ground. In the silence, and the crisp sound was magnified in their ears.

“Senior, someone is here.”

“Go. Ask what you need to ask and kill if you need to kill. This is a path for your growth.”

“Yes.”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the person in front of him calmly, and a flash of shock appeared in his eyes.

This bloodied and lifeless fellow was actually the Second Brother of the three brothers in the Gu family in the Burial Sword Tomb.

At the Lone Cliff, he had used the Ten Thousand Sword Technique, the Absolute Imperial Control and shattered the Internal World of the Cloud Realm and freed himself. In the next second, he had jumped off the cliff and committed suicide in grief and anger.

To think that the next time they met would be at the First Hall of Sins...

“What’s going on? How did he deteriorate to this extent? What happened to him?”

Xu Xiaoshou was dumbfounded. He knew that this person was the beloved disciple of the Seven Sword Deity Wen Ting, the Sovereign Stage of the Way of the Sword.

He was so powerful... Even if he was not ranked on the Abyss Island, he was still one of the best among the younger generation.

He shouldn’t have ended up in this condition, based on his status and the treasures he had. Did he get beaten up by a Void Attendant?

Oh right, there was also the Ultimate Attribute here, and ordinary people would find it difficult to resist this Ultimate Attribute...

However, since Gu Qinger could survive under the Deep Sea until now, it meant that he should have the ability to deal with the spiritual source and his life force being sucked away. How could he have ended up in such a sorry state now?

Soon, Xu Xiaoshou saw the figure far behind Gu Qinger.

He was in an orange robe, an orange hood, and an orange mask. His entire body was exposed, and only his lifeless eyes were hidden in the shadows under the mask.

Yama's man?

Orange...He didn't seem to have seen this person before?

Xu Xiaoshou closed his eyes slightly. It was as if a bolt of lightning had flashed in his mind, and in an instant, it had split into countless branches. His thoughts surged like a tide, and he couldn't stop them.

"Who are you?" Gu Qinger folded his arms in front of his chest and shouted.

Xu Xiaoshou's thoughts stopped. He raised his head and looked at him and felt that the person in front of him was a different person.

In the past, Gu Qinger was at best young and frivolous, which was normal. If one was not frivolous, it would be a waste of youth, not to mention that Gu Qinger was a leading figure among the younger generation.

But now, this guy's face was arrogant and resembled the hedonistic son of a rich family. He had changed.

Was he possessed?

Xu Xiaoshou looked at him calmly and asked instead of answering, "And who are you?"

Xu Xiaoshou realized that something was wrong.

How could this person change so much in such a short time?

You're not Rao Yaoyao. At the very least, Rao Yaoyao had found a way and on the process to become a Saint.

You're completely stupid!

Xu Xiaoshou's 'Perception' swept across the orange masked man in the distance. He thought of Yama and then he thought of the Lei Family's Eyes, and soon associated it with the Three Loathsome Eyes..

In the Heavenly Prayer Forest, one of Jiang Xian's two Three Loathsome Eyes was with the Greedy the Cat Spirit, and the other was obtained by Yama.

Could it be that this orange masked man had the other one?

Xu Xiaoshou felt that the only thing that could change a person so directly was the Three Loathsome Eyes.

1584 The Five Curses of Heaven and Man! (3)

However-this required the use of the advanced ability of the Three Loathsome Eyes that Lei Xi'er had mentioned-the Mind-changing Aperture. This ability could forcefully distort and change a person's will and make them his slave.

Even Greedy the Cat Spirit could not do this at the moment.

That little fat cat's Three Loathsome Eyes could only make people go 'Meow Meow Meow' at most...

Xu Xiaoshou became alert. He looked past Gu Qinger and glanced at the main character in the distance. He said, "I'm Chen Ruye from Xu Yue Grey Palace."

At this moment, the atmosphere froze.

Xu Yue Grey Palace...

Gu Qinger had never thought that he would run into someone so well known from the Southern Region. He was also the only person in the entire continent who dared to interact with the faction of the Ghost Beast. He was completely stunned.

The Eldest Senior Brother's warning rang in his mind, and Gu Qinger subconsciously wanted to retreat.

But soon, his eyes flickered and he stopped his retreat and faced the attack head-on.

"Xue Grey Palace? You're the Ghost Beast host body? What sort of Ghost Beast are you?"

Xu Xiaoshou could clearly see that when Gu Qinger asked this question, at the same time, the three gray flowers in the right eye of the orange masked man who hid in the corner in the distance, turned and had infinitely enlarged when he gazed at it with his 'Perception'.

"F*ck!"

"It's really the Three Loathsome Eyes!"

"Who's this guy? How did he get the right to use the Three Loathsome Eyes from Huang Quan. Was Huang Quan not afraid that he would be under his control?"

Xu Xiaoshou's mind exploded.

Greedy the Cat Spirit did not feel much when it used the Three Loathsome Eyes and it felt that the power of the Lei Family's Eyes was not very strong.

Now, he saw the great Gu Qinger being used by a method that went against his own will and became a puppet in the hands of the orange-masked man and spoke on his behalf.

Xu Xiaoshou's goosebumps popped up all over his body.

He quickly used his Transformation to suppress the possible abnormalities on his body, because there were more than three people at the scene. The fourth person peeked at him all the time.

"Shh."

Xu Xiaoshou put a finger to his lips and shushed Gu Qinger to indicate that he was too noisy and should shut up.

"Shush?" Gu Qinger's eyes flickered, and the anger in his head was ignited. His hand directly grabbed The Bewitching Demon in the middle of the sword wheel behind him."Chen Ruye, what do you mean by that?"

He pulled out his sword and was about to attack.

Xu Xiaoshou was also furious.

The Gu Qinger he knew wasn't like this.

Even if he was noisy when he was with his Eldest Senior Brother, he was still a polite gentleman.

How could the Three Loathsome Eyes control a person to such an extent?

At this moment, his eyes turned serious, and a murderous intent filled the sky.

'Swallow the Mountains and Rivers' formed a dense aura between his brows and suddenly suppressed Gu Qinger.

"BOOM!"

The air around them churned.

Xu Xiaoshou wanted to use his aura to knock Gu Qinger out, so that he would no longer be controlled.

But Gu Qinger didn't move an inch!

He was the first person Xu Xiaoshou had met who was oblivious to the suppressive force of his Swallow the Mountains and Rivers.

This was something that was rarely seen even in some of the older higher void level!

The sword wheel on Gu Qing'er's back sent the Nine Swords flying out and the Acquired Stage turned into an endless golden light in the sky behind him. A majestic aura also rose into the air and attempted to strike and push back Chen Ruye's aura.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly remembered Gu Qinger's ultimate technique that he had glimpsed on the Lone Cliff.

He didn't dare to let this guy use his moves. This guy was a higher void now, an actual higher void!

He had been used to his utmost limit, and almost everything had been squeezed out.

If they were to fight now, they didn't even need to fight for long. Just a little longer and Gu Qinger would collapse and die!

When he thought of this, Xu Xiaoshou immediately changed his tactic.

His eyes narrowed, but he didn't move at all. Instead, devilish energy appeared in his eyes.

Heart Sword Technique, Present Gods and Buddhas!

With a swish, the soft sound of sword cries rang out from within the labyrinth of the First Hall of Sin.

Xu Xiaoshou had already restrained most of his power and only targeted Gu Qinger, but it was inevitable that some Sword Will would leak out.

At this moment, Gu Qinger's aura had not even fully formed but he felt as if he had arrived in a world filled with destruction.

There were Nine Heavens lightning disasters, volcanic eruptions, floods and tsunamis...It was an endless apocalypse.

At the end of all the disasters, there was a lone building.

There was a shadow on the top of the building, and it looked over.

“BOOM!”

The Heavens and Earth were dyed completely black. The demon bared its fangs and brandished its claws as it devoured everything.

The imagery of Xu Xiaoshou's Heart Sword Technique crushed ordinary people and could even crush the Ancient Swordsman.

The imagery of the Sword God was so powerful that even Master Siren would fall under its attack, what more for Gu Qinger who was in an extremely weak condition?

Just one look.

From the beginning to the end, Xu Xiaoshou had only used one look.

Gu Qinger's mind seemed to have exploded, and he fell to the ground, unconscious and bled from his seven orifices.

The devilish energy that was just about to seep out of his body was all swallowed up by Xu Xiaoshou after he closed his eyes, and his Foundational roots were not damaged.

“Sword Will...”

The orange-masked man in the distance couldn't stand it anymore. He looked up in surprise.

He knew Gu Qinger's ability better than anyone else. After all, they had spent more than half a day together.

Among the younger generation, who could comprehend the first stage of the Nine Swords Technique, the Infinite Number? Who would be able to comprehend the first level of the Ten Thousand Sword Technique, the Absolute Imperial Control?

As far as he knew, there were no outsiders, only Gu Qinger!

But this Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace had defeated Gu Qinger with just one look?

Of course, one of the reasons was that Gu Qinger was extremely weak, with less than 10% of his combat strength left. However, it also proved that Chen Ruye's cultivation of the Ancient Swordsman was also very terrifying.

The successor of Wen Ting from the Burial Sword Tomb was not that easy to defeat, even if he was in such a weakened state!

"What is this?"

Xu Xiaoshou listened to the hoarse voice and watched the orange-masked man walk over, one step at a time. He only laughed and replied in a low voice. "It's just something that can't be shown in public. I call it the Devil Sword Technique."

"There's such a genius like you in the Southern Region? Does the Xu Yue Grey Palace also have cultivators of the Way of the Sword?"

Xu Xiaoshou heard the surprise in his voice and shook his head with a laugh. "There are so many of them. Not only the Way of the Sword, but also all kinds of unorthodox methods. Do you want to experience it? Mr. Three Loathsome Eyes?"

As for Chen Ruye, Xu Xiaoshou had given the impression that he was an important figure who had the backing of the Xu Yue Grey Palace. He was not afraid of anything or anyone in the world and was very knowledgeable.

After all, how could someone who could represent the Xu Yue Grey Palace in the outside world be so ordinary?

Therefore, he didn't care that he had seen through this person's Three Loathsome Eyes.

When he saw the man in the orange mask walking toward him, Xu Xiaoshou still felt his heart palpitate.

There seemed to be a thought in his mind that frantically urged him to leave. If he continued to stay, only death would await him.

This was a sudden whim!

Xu Xiaoshou remained unmoved.

It's good that you're strong. I still have an invisible God of Death about me. Can you be stronger than him?

“Oh, that’s right.”

When he saw the orange-masked man approaching, one step at a time, Xu Xiaoshou didn’t seem to have any heavy burden in his heart. He chuckled and said.

“May I know senior’s name? I remember that all of Yama’s members have some very stupid and funny nicknames, right? Your Excellency is…”

Da.

The footsteps stopped in front of Gu Qinger, who laid limply on the ground, and then stepped on him without any hesitation.

The orange mask almost stuck to Chen Ruye’s face, and the tip of Chen Ruye’s nose was pressed against it. The Three Loathsome Eyes that were hidden in its right eye suddenly emerged.

“The Five Decays of Heaven and Man.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the three gray flowers quickly turned and flowed into his pupil. There was only a small black hole left in the right eye of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

The next second, the hole suddenly enlarged, and the pupil filled the entire eyeball, like a black hole.

From the black hole, a needle like a will slave token shot out and pierced Chen Ruye’s Spiritual World.

Chen Ruye also…

He didn’t even blink!

After a length of full three breaths, a wave of slightly teasing laughter sounded from the depths of the labyrinth’s walls…

“Five Decays of Heaven and Man? That’s funny!”

1585 Senior, Why are You Chasing Me? (1)

“+(Suspected, Passive Points+) +1.”

“+(Affected, Passive Points),+1.”

“..”

The Information Bar was filled with pop-up boxes.

Since he wasn't under the control of the Three Loathsome Eyes, the frequency of the notifications reached a new peak.

Xu Xiaoshou had rarely seen someone who was so suspicious.

The first few times he had experienced a situation like this was when he used all sorts of disguises to deceive the Night Guardian.

At that time, Night Guardian had been very suspicious, but was restricted by various means to make any moves, so he could only offer passive points in vain.

On this point, even Rao Yaoyao had to admit defeat.

And now, Xu Xiaoshou knew that there was one more person with the same traits.

Ever since he had encountered the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, this guy had contributed Passive Points to him, and now there were even more.

No one had ever thought that under under the Five Decays of Heaven and Man's seemingly calm appearance, there was such a suspicious soul inside.

Xu Xiaoshou didn't know why he was so suspicious.

Could it be that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man had met Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace before?

When the last mocking voice rang out, which indicated that he was out of control, Xu Xiaoshou knew that this suspicious soul was probably up to something.

This situation was very familiar.

When Night Guardian couldn't hold it in anymore, he would often choose to take action by force, even if he didn't have orders from his superior, such as that time on the Lone Cliff.

It wasn't just Night Guardian; suspicious people were always like this.

“You’re actually not hypnotized?” The voice of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man sounded.

His voice was filled with shock and confusion, as if he didn’t expect that there was a person under the Demi-Saint level who could still have self-awareness after he looked at the Three Loathsome Eyes.

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t see this.

He saw the Five Decays of Heaven and Man soar into the sky and strike out with his palm as he spoke.

It was a withered palm. It was extremely thin, but it was wrapped in a strange gray-black airflow. It looked extremely slow, but it was actually so fast that it left an afterimage. It directly broke through the space and blasted toward his chest.

Xu Xiaoshou was prepared.

He made his move almost at the same time. His body emitted endless streams of evil Violet Qi. He kicked Gu Qinger and sent him flying. He took out the Cursed Yin Eye that was the size of a human head and flung it at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

“Swish...”

Clouds of violet and gray Qi bloomed at the same time.

The moment he raised his palm, Xu Xiaoshou felt that something was wrong.

Even if it was a small detail, this was his body. Xu Xiaoshou knew where the problem was.

His movements had slowed down...

It was only a trace, but it shouldn’t be!

Was it because of the effect of the Ultimate Attribute, or...

He didn’t have time to think about it, and even a stranger incident happened.

The moment before the two palms collided, the surrounding air was compressed and exploded, and even the space became distorted.

Xu Xiaoshou clearly saw the skinny hand of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man smash the surrounding space, which could only be shattered by his own Sovereign Stage body. His pupils shrank.

The Cursed Yin Eye remained in place and the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was on his guard against it.

He used his palm, which was wrapped in a grayish-black air current, to smash the Cursed Yin Eye. His eyes were so calm that it was as if the person in front of him was already a corpse.

“BOOM!”

There was a loud explosive sound.

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou finally realized what was wrong.

In an instant, he used 120% of his strength, which he had only used because of his status. He even gritted his teeth so hard that they were about to break.

However, he still felt that what he faced was not an old man with one foot in the grave, but a Void Attendant in human skin...No, a Void General!

“Pfft!”

Xu Xiaoshou spat out a mouthful of blood, and his body was sent flying like a cannonball. The sleeve on his right arm was shredded to pieces along with the flesh.

A second ago, he was still in the middle of the void passage. The next second, when he regained consciousness, he was embedded into the corner wall at the end of the passage and his whole body trembled.

“This...”

Xu Xiaoshou was dumbfounded.

He was stunned as he looked at the muscles that writhed and regrew on his broken arm.

He swore that this was the first person who had been able to beat him in terms of physical strength since he had embarked on the path of Spiritual Cultivation. Elder Sang and the Void Attendant were not considered as humans.

At the same time, after the gray-black energy that contained the aura of decay invaded his system, he also noticed the abnormalities that appeared in various parts of his body.

Weak...

It was a weakness that was visible to the naked eye!

Even with a passive skill like the Eternal Vitality, his Life force was being drained at a rate that did not match the Ultimate Attribute of the First Hall of Sins.

The inconspicuous 'affected' caught Xu Xiaoshou's attention, which was sandwiched between 'suspicion' and 'speculation' in the Information Bar from the beginning to the end.

From the first time they met until now, it had never stopped?

Xu Xiaoshou felt his blood run cold.

"Who was this Five Decays of Heaven and Man?"

On the other side, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was obviously not in a good state too.

Similarly, he had also realized that something was wrong the moment their palms met, and he had increased his strength from 10% to his full strength.

With the support of the physical strength of more than a dozen Void Attendants that he had swallowed, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was also blown away by the palm strike of the young man opposite him. He slid in an arc across the sky and smashed into the wall on the other side.

The Cursed Yin Eye had been embedded in his palm and almost destroyed it.

The strange evil energy invaded his body in a frenzy, but it quietly disappeared under the core of the darkness, swallowed up like the Void Attendant.

1586 Senior, Why are You Chasing Me? (2)

Suddenly, there was a loud crack. Under the force of the aura of decay, the Cursed Yin Eye dimmed, then shattered and turned into spiritual energy before it dissipated totally.

In the distance, Xu Xiaoshou's pupils trembled, and he finally realized what 'danger' meant.

This Power of the Evil God was something that even Elder Han couldn't handle for a short duration of time. He managed to force it out of his body only when he transformed into his true Ghost Beast form.

What's with this Five Decays of Heaven and Man?

He had the ability to make the Cursed Yin Eye shatter in an instant?

Silence fell.

Xu Xiaoshou's thoughts surged.

He didn't want to fight anymore. He wanted to run for his life.

The idea to turn the Five Decays of Heaven and Man into Xu Xiaoshou and let Ye Xiao deal with it, along with Gu Qinger's rescue, disappeared at this moment.

This was a monster that could fight a Demi-Saint!

He was at the top level among the higher void level. He might not be as good as Master Siren, but in terms of weird methods, he was definitely better!

Xu Xiaoshou immediately determined the orange-masked man's combat power.

"+(Suspected, Passive Points)+1."

"+(Affected, Passive Points)+1."

"+(Conjecture, Passive Points,+)+1." This suspicious soul's thoughts never stopped.

Even if the Five Decays of Heaven and Man appeared calm on the surface, Xu Xiaoshou could see the waves of never ending thoughts hidden under his mask.

After a long while, he swallowed a few Elixirs to cover up his injury. When the injury on his arm was almost completely healed, Xu Xiaoshou looked up...

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was still in a dazed state!

He stared at his severed palm and did not display any emotion. Only the Information Bar showed that his thoughts had not stopped.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly smelled the stench that drifted from his body.

After his 'Strengthen' skill reached the Sovereign Stage, his treasured body was ethereal, no longer covered in impurities, and even emitted a dark fragrance, so how could there be a foul smell?

"There's something wrong with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man!"

"This guy could be even more terrifying than Ye Xiao. I can't mess around with him!"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately ran away.

He took off at full speed and didn't care about Gu Qinger's fate. He almost turned into a bolt of lightning, as if he fled from the God of Death, and plunged into the darkness of the labyrinth.

"Chen. It was like that...also..."

It was not until the figure in the distance had almost disappeared from his spiritual senses that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man finally raised his head that was filled with intermittent thoughts.

He had been injured three times by the attack just now.

One was the damage caused by Chen Ruye's physical attack. This physical body was at least at the Sovereign Physique level!

The second was the damage caused by the Sword Will. Chen Ruye was also an Ancient Swordsman. When he attacked, he used the Sword Will to cut his own body and almost severed his arm.

The third was the damage from the Cursed Yin Eye. Compared to the first two, the third damage was insignificant. Perhaps it was because this energy attack was just child's play under the influence of the Body of Decay.

'Physical body, Sword Will... Evil Technique?'

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man first swung his hand, and after a few cracking sounds, the flesh and blood were regenerated, and the severed palm healed in an instant.

Then, suddenly a ray of bright light ignited in the pair of dull eyes hidden under the orange mask!

"Where are you running to?"

The hoarse voice of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man had a faint tinge of perverted excitement as his body blended into the darkness.

He didn't even care about Gu Qinger. He set his eyes on this new prey and took off in the direction where Chen Ruye had fled to.

"Old man, do you really think that I, Chen Ruye, am afraid of you?"

Xu Xiaoshou roared crazily from the front. His voice was calm, but he was still in a state of panic.

It was not because of the person who chased after him, but because he found that as time went by, not only did his body start to smell, but his armpits also began to sweat...

How was that possible?

I'm f*cking Xu Xiaoshou!

I'm the Saint Servant Xu Xiaoshou who committed all kinds of evil and killed people like flies. Even Rao Yaoyao feared me!

I even dared to play with the Demi-Saint Jiang Buyi, so how could I sweat due to fear and nervousness?

Not only did his armpits sweat, but all the luxurious stuff on his body started to corrode.

Jade hairpins, accessories, necklaces, rings... All the items that had spiritual quality started to lose their spiritual quality, just like the body that constantly lost its Life force.

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly felt irritated.

The word 'Affected' appeared repeatedly in the Information Bar, and this word was magnified infinitely in his eyes.

"Ah!" Xu Xiaoshou suddenly let out a loud roar, as if he wanted to vent his anger.

Swish!

Spirit Awakening.

"F*ck!" Xu Xiaoshou cursed and nearly went crazy.

He could have sworn that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man definitely did not use an illusion to control him.

However, he was affected by the Spirit Awakening, which meant that this strange weakening ability had affected his spirit and even his soul.

"Five Decays of Heaven and Man, Five Decays of Heaven and Man..."

Xu Xiaoshou mumbled as if he had understood something.

He was no longer a noob when it came to Spiritual Cultivation. He knew that this ability was called the Five Decays of Heaven and Man!

Not long ago, he had laughed at Yama's nickname and how funny it was to be called the 'Five Decays of Heaven and Man'.

Now, he realized that he was the clown.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man had really mastered the 'Five Decays of Heaven and Man' and had mastered the power of misfortune and curses.

He, the Xu Yue Grey Palace's Chen Ruye, squeezed with all his might and strength, but he couldn't even squeeze out the power of a Ghost Beast.

"Swish!"

From what he could see with his 'Perception', the Five Decays of Heaven and Man's speed was extremely fast, the speed of a higher void level.

When he was about to catch up with him, he stopped and calmly took out a golden talisman and injected his spiritual source into it.

1587 Senior, Why are You Chasing Me? (3)

The word 'Disappear' flashed across Xu Xiaoshou's mind, but he thought of Ye Xiao and gave up on the idea.

With a buzz, something that looked like a bounded domain appeared and enveloped him.

"Ah!" Xu Xiaoshou stopped in his tracks and heaved a long sigh.

He felt that this was probably the fastest he had ever fallen from grace. Chen Ruye's identity had not even been established, and Xu Xiaoshou had to come out and clean up his mess. It was really a f*cking mess!

The surrounding environment changed.

It was no longer the labyrinth at the First Hall of Sins, but a vast field.

The entire area was a sea of green and looked vast and boundless. Other than the lack of herds of cattle and sheep, this was the perfect prairie.

The light from the sky, daylight, fresh greenery, the wind... It was a whole new world that was a sharp contrast to the darkness at the First Hall of Sins.

A brand new time and space!

Xu Xiaoshou understood that this was definitely not the power of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, but the work of Yama Chief Huang Quan. That person was as nauseating as Kong Yuhen with the space attributes.

“Senior, why are you chasing me?” Xu Xiaoshou turned around and said respectfully.

“You’re calling me Senior now?” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man slowly walked over, one step at a time and his tone was very calm. “Didn’t you just say that we were peers and there was no distinction between us?”

Oh my, he’s such a petty person?

Xu Xiaoshou was so angry that he laughed. Even Elder Han wasn’t as petty as you.

He was a Demi-Saint and he was very magnanimous and tolerant.

You’re so petty that you’re the most despicable of all despicable people, the most shameless of all shameless people!

“Hehe, I didn’t know that you were Senior Deva’s original body, did I? Maybe someone could be impersonating you?”

Xu Xiaoshou wiped his sweat. “To be honest, I’ve heard of Senior Deva’s name when I was in Xu Yue Grey Palace. That’s why I tried the experiment. Now I know my mistake.”

“Why did you think that I was someone else in disguise?” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man seemed to be very serious when he asked this question.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

F*cking hell, it was just a casual statement. Are you crazy? Will you die if you give me a way out?

Can’t you tell that the main gist behind what I said was to let you know I have the support of the Xu Yue Grey Palace. Do you dare to touch me?

“Hehe...”

Xu Xiaoshou smiled and shrugged. He didn’t reply, but threw out another question.

“Why did Senior stop me? There’s no enmity between us. Just now, you attacked first, so I had no choice but to retaliate, right?”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was obviously a veteran at controlling the flow of communication. He didn’t answer, but stared at the young man in front of him and said, “You’re Chen Ruye?”

“Uh...” Xu Xiaoshou was startled and nodded. “Is there a problem?”

“You’re from Xu Yue Grey Palace?” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man’s manner was overbearing.

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyebrows shot up and he realized that something was wrong.

This guy wants to control me?

But I’m so familiar with your method; It’s useless to try it on me!

You’re playing tricks and showing off your skill in front of an expert

“Senior, there’s no need to try anymore. Your Three Loathsome Eye is useless against me. I can’t be controlled by you.”

Xu Xiaoshou easily diverted the topic and used the Five Decays of Heaven and Man for a purpose he had in mind.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man didn’t fall for it and asked, “Since when did a person like you appear in the Xu Yue Grey Palace? Chen Ruye... The Sovereign Level Physique, the Way of the Sword, the Sovereign Stage... And he has also mastered such a strange evil technique. I think an ordinary person would have easily suffered from cultural deviation?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s heart skipped a beat. He felt that he had met his match.

He was very familiar with this Five Decays of Heaven and Man’s technique. He had used it on too many people before, and it was all about psychological attack and defense.

However, he had used it this way before because he couldn’t beat his opponent, so he could only play dirty.

What’s wrong with this old man?

He was so strong and had even sealed himself with a special time and space. Now, he continued to press him aggressively, one step at a time... What was he after?

Just for fun?

This was a pure psychopath!

“Senior, what are you trying to say?” Xu Xiaoshou looked at him, his hands clenched into fists.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man stared at him with his phantom-like gloomy eyes and Xu Xiaoshou felt a little scared, then he said.

“I’ve met Lord Sha Shengluo, the palace master of the Xu Yue Grey Palace when I once represented Yama to discuss a cooperation. Chen Ruye, do you know what was the outcome?” He asked.

1588 In One Sentence, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man will Fight Ye Xiao for Me!
(1)

Do I know what the outcome was!

I don’t even know the name of the palace master of the Xu Yue Grey Palace. You’re just trying to trick me!

Xu Xiaoshou was clearly tired of this method, so how could he follow what the Five Decays of Heaven and Man said?

As long as he followed along, no matter what he said, he would definitely be exposed in the end.

So, he crossed his arms quietly and stared at the opposite side and waited for the next part, with a teasing expression.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man did not follow up.

His calm gaze met the young man’s and he kept quiet too.

The two of them just stood in the vast wilderness for a long time as they enjoyed the breeze and stared at each other.

“Ha.” Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Senior, are you trying to compete with me in the game of patience? Why don’t you continue? I’m waiting!”

Xu Xiaoshou did not give the Five Decays of Heaven and Man a chance to react before he paused and said.

“Senior Deva, I’ve met your boss Yama before. He once followed my Elder to discuss a collaboration on behalf of the Xu Yue Grey Palace. This... Do you know what the outcome was?”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was stunned and then he laughed for a long time.

His laughter went from scorn at the beginning to unrestrained, and finally converged into a sinister and cold laugh.

“Hehehe, little guy, it’s really rare to see someone at your age who can handle himself so impeccably.”

“You’re too kind.” Xu Xiaoshou was unmoved.

He still didn’t know why the Five Decays of Heaven and Man pursued him. There was no enmity between the two of them, so it couldn’t be that he opened up another space-time just for this meaningless nonsense.

Xu Xiaoshou was still waiting.

He felt that when this perverted Five Decays of Heaven and Man was done playing, perhaps it would end in a fight or something else.

“You’re not curious about my affairs, but I’m curious about yours.” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man strolled over. “So, what was the gist of the cooperation you discussed with Lord Hong Quan and what was the outcome?”

“You don’t know?” Xu Xiaoshou did not want to give any explanation at all. He spread out his hands in surprise. “Senior, have you ever thought of this possibility? Maybe, the reason why Lord Huang Quan didn’t tell you could mean that you don’t deserve to know about it?”

At this moment, the wind in the entire grassland seemed to stop.

“How could I dare to overstep my boundaries when even Lord Huang Quan doesn’t want to tell you?” Xu Xiaoshou took half a step back and forced himself to calm down.

After his first attempt, he realized that even if he irked the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, the consequences were not significant. The other side did not even make a move!

This was too mysterious. What was he trying to do?

“You’re not afraid that I’ll kill you?” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man came nearer.

“How could Senior do that? Hehe.” Xu Xiaoshou’s face turned pale and he said drily, “If Senior wanted to kill me, why would you talk so much nonsense to one who is about to die? You must have other reasons to keep me here.”

“Chen Ruyue!” Anger and dissatisfaction flashed across the eyes of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He shouted, “Smart people die when they talk too much, and conspirators die from conceit. Do you know how you will die?”

“Thank you for your guidance, but I don’t think I will die.” Xu Xiaoshou’s momentum also rose, and he was not suppressed by the Five Decays of Heaven and Man at all. They were evenly matched.

“Kekeke...” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man laughed wretchedly, and his eyes were once again calm as if it would penetrate the body of the young man opposite him. He murmured, “You will die an unnatural death.”

Bang! Bang!

As soon as he finished speaking, a gray-black aura of decay erupted from the Five Decays of Heaven and Man that lifted his robe and shuttled through the boundless wilderness.

With a loud bang, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man raised his left hand, and an extremely compressed and condensed torrent of decay shot out from the depths of the darkness between his sleeves.

You’re crazy!

Xu Xiaoshou was scared to death.

This guy was indeed unreasonable. The previous wave of probing was still fine, but now he suddenly wanted to kill him?

He felt that what the Five Decays of Heaven and Man said was very wrong, but he didn’t have time to think about what was wrong. When he was attacked, his subconscious reaction was to dodge.

However, when he inadvertently glanced at the Information Bar, Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

“(Received a warning. Passive Points),+1.”

A warning?

At that moment, it was as if a bolt of lightning had exploded in his mind.

The words of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man resounded again, but Xu Xiaoshou interpreted the second meaning.

You will die an unnatural death...

You will die an unnatural death!

Did this 'unnatural' really refer to the power and the curse of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man?

No!

What he meant was that he would die under unknown circumstances and would die at the hands of Ye Xiao, who hid in the dark and no one had noticed!"

"Why did he give me a warning?"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils contracted, but he couldn't think of an answer.

However, smart people always have a tacit understanding. Xu Xiaoshou realized that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man didn't seem to have any malicious intent against him. The Information Bar did not even show any 'sneak attack' pop up message.

He stopped moving.

Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace seemed to have been scared silly by the words and aura of Yama's Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He froze on the spot and even forgot to dodge.

"Whoosh!"

The torrent of decay passed through the space and poured onto Xu Xiaoshou.

"Acalanatha!"

Even though he knew that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man might not be targeting him.

However, due to the unknown and uncontrollable development of events, Xu Xiaoshou could not fully trust this Yama's man, whose intentions were unknown.

1589 In One Sentence, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man will Fight Ye Xiao for Me!
(2)

He had activated Acalanatha, which was purely a means of self-protection.

However, he found that the torrent of decay that surged into his body did not hurt him at all. It only followed the connection of his body...

It flowed from his head to his feet like a stream of water.

Xu Xiaoshou followed his 'Perception' path downward and was startled to find that the torrent of decay had merged into his shadow through the soles of his feet!

The sunlight shone down unobstructed on the wilderness of this strange world. The green grass swayed with the wind, and the faint shadows of the grass swayed along constantly.

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked to see that there was something very wrong with the short shadow under his feet!

A black shadow stood on his shoulder like a triangle without its obvious edges and corners.

However, when he used his 'Perception' to check, there was nothing on his shoulder!

The sunlight cast his shadow on the wilderness of time and space, but it also projected something that should not exist on his shoulder.

What kind of horrifying thing was this?

Xu Xiaoshou felt a chill run down his spine!

He didn't even need to be reminded, as he immediately realized what the hell this was.

This was the 'three-legged black owl' that was on the shoulder of the Dark Division Chief, Ye Xiao, that could never be detected in the dark and gloomy First Hall of Sins. Even though he had combed through his entire body, he could not find a single trace of it!

The so-called 'Stunned' was from this!

It was Ye Xiao's secret method to keep an eye on Chen Tan and Chen Ruye without being detected by Xu Xiaoshou!

"Swish!"

When the torrent of decay unceremoniously poured into the triangular black shadow on Xu Xiaoshou's shadow, a shriek rang out.

At the same time, the sky in this spacetime darkened completely.

"Wuwuwu..."

The gloomy and cold cries of ghosts resounded from all directions.

The gate that connected the netherworld and the world of the living seemed to have been opened, and the earth turned black.

There were muscular giant spirit souls, skinny giant dragons with white bones who held on to boiling cauldrons and scampered about; there were countless imps held in their third and fourth arms as the King of the Hungry ghost tried to devour them.

“Wuuu!”

The cold screams pierced through one’s bones and Xu Xiaoshou had goosebumps all over his body.

This time, Ye Xiao no longer reined in her control. She was no longer afraid that her ability would affect the unknown in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and stimulate any unexpected danger.

Because this was no longer the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes!

“Pa pa pa...”

Hordes of three-legged black owls descended from the sky, devoured the hundreds of ghosts on the ground and finally merged into a Necromancer that towered into the sky.

On the shoulder of this Necromancer whose muscles bulged so much that his clothes seemed about to rip apart was a figure hidden within a black cloak.

On the shoulder of this black shadow was the three-legged Black Owl that had hidden itself on Xu Xiaoshou’s shoulder.

“Swish!”

The black owl shrieked.

The Dark Division Chief, Ye Xiao, tilted her head and looked at the two figures under her feet who should not have cooperated with each other. After a long silence, she said in a low voice.

“I don’t understand.”

I don’t understand either!

Xu Xiaoshou was dumbfounded.

What the hell was this Five Decays of Heaven and Man? How could he even see the greatest danger that he had accidentally discovered?

More importantly, why did he help me?

Why did he force Ye Xiao out to have a showdown with her here?

Or perhaps, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was not sure if he could kill me on his own, so he called out Ye Xiao to sought her help to kill me?

“Miss Ye Xiao?” Xu Xiaoshou suppressed his turbulent thoughts and addressed her. The disbelief and incomprehension in his eyes were evident. “You, why are you here?”

Ye Xiao was her usual calm self, like when she was in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes, when she watched him search an entire day for a non-existent passage. “Chen Tan, you have one more chance.”

Xu Xiaoshou fell silent.

Of course, he understood what this so-called one chance was.

That was to hand over the ‘God Execution Order’ and follow Ye Xiao back obediently. After their return to the Holy Divine Palace, he would join one of the six divisions, then contribute the ‘Power of the Evil God’ and explain how he obtained this ability. In the end, his fate would still be unknown, and it would be entirely up to the Holy Divine Palace to decide.

Well, it was like Gou Wuyue.

Who would not know what the outcome would be?

“Chen...Tan...?”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man laughed in a strange manner, but he didn’t care. He looked at the silent young man next to him and said.

“Chen Ruye, I can tell you the result of our cooperation. The final-stage was a complete success.”

“And now, I need to know why you’ve come to the First Hall of Sins on behalf of the Xu Yue Grey Palace?”

Xu Xiaoshou glanced at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and did not say anything.

Even though he had always prided himself on being smart, his brain was still a little muddled at this moment.

What did that mean?

So just now, when you told me about those things, you were not out to tempt me, and it was really true?

Was the palace master of Xu Yue Grey Palace really called Sha Shengluo?

No matter what, Xu Xiaoshou couldn't go with Ye Xiao.

The standpoint was very clear cut. The Five Decays of Heaven and Man showed goodwill, even if he didn't know the reason why. Maybe it was just to go against the Xu Yue Grey Palace...

But it was enough!

Xu Xiaoshou didn't think that such a casual fabricated identity could be related to a member of Yama whom he had never met before.

But now, he had no choice but to believe that there was indeed something called 'Coincidence' in this world.

1590 In One Sentence, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man will Fight Ye Xiao for Me!
(3)

Perhaps, after I have always arranged for coincidences, I, Xu Xiaoshou finally encountered an actual coincidence this time?

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was an ally of the Xu Yue Grey Palace!

"I, Chen Ruye, also got involved in this by accident?"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately puffed out his chest and said.

"Under my old master's orders, I'm here to look for the Demi-Saint Ghost Beast, the Frost Ferret. Now that my mission is completed, I'm just waiting for Elder Han to be released from Sword Deity Rao's hands. Her subordinate managed to locate me again."

"When Elder Han is back, the Xu Yue Grey Palace will return to the martial arts world. Together with King Yama, we'll be invincible!"

As soon as he said this, the world fell silent.

Ye Xiao, who was on the shoulder of the Necromancer, froze for a moment.

The eyes of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, who waited for his answer, was also dazed.

“(Suspected, Passive Points+)+2.”

Ye Xiao was also dumbfounded.

She didn't believe in Chen Tan and Chen Ruye's identities.

But now, when she looked at the two figures below, no matter how absurd and ridiculous it felt to her, it seemed like this was the only explanation.

“Chen Tan, you really are...”

That was impossible!

How could Chen Tan be from the Xu Yue Grey Palace?

For a Ghost Beast host body, the first reaction when it encountered any danger would be to transform into a Ghost Beast.

Chen Tan... No, Chen Ruye had also been hit by the Ganges River in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and also been affected by Rao Yaoyao's Saint Calamity. Then in the First Hall of Sins, he had been sent flying by the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

From the beginning to the end, there was life-threatening danger all around!

However, other than his swordsmanship and evil technique, he did not reveal any Ghost Beast aura at all.

In this world, how could there be such a Ghost Beast host body?

Even Elder Han's true Ghost Beast had been exposed when Chen Ruye attacked him. Which Ghost Beast Host Body could have so much endurance and did not even reveal even a little trace of its Ghost Beast power?

But...

“With your promise, I can rest assured.”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man believed it!

He actually believed it!

This Yama orange-masked man turned around and nodded solemnly at Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace.

“Remember, the alliance between the Xu Yue Grey Palace and Yama cannot be broken. Remember your promise.”

With that, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man no longer suppressed its power.

“BOOM!”

The darkness in the sky suddenly dissipated like ice water that flowed down from the horizon.

The dense gray-black power of decay forced Ye Xiao’s power of death back and cleared half the sky.

At this moment, the desolation of the boundless wilderness emerged. The greenery that was full of vitality withered at a speed visible to the naked eye. It turned yellow, withered, and finally shattered.

The vitality of the entire space-time seemed to have been plundered by the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He slowly floated into the air, and the robe behind him suddenly exploded.

After his body absorbed the endless power of decay from the horizon, a huge, hideous monster condensed from the power of decay, the size and height of a Void Attendant, suddenly rose behind him.

“Lord of Calamity!”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man’s eyes flickered as he stared at Ye Xiao who was supposed to be a hunter, but instead it seemed he was staring at his prey. He slowly said, “This is my first gift to little brother Chen... And you, will die an unnatural death.”

Below, Xu Xiaoshou was in a mess.

He looked across the sky in the distance. On the left, there was an even larger Necromancer that was a thousand feet tall, had bulging muscles and had swallowed countless ghosts.

On the right was the Lord of Calamity that was as huge as the one on the left and belonged to the Body of Decay. Once it was born, even the world would tremble.

He was completely dumbfounded.

Why did the two strongest higher void and Demi- Saint start a fight?

So who can come over and tell me what the hell is going on?

Me!

Chen Ruye!

In short, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man challenged Ye Xiao for my sake?

Read I Am Loaded with Passive Skills - Chapter 1591 - 1591 Three Disciples, Curse to Kill Ye Xiao (1)

1591 Three Disciples, Curse to Kill Ye Xiao (1)

The battle on the horizon began.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man seemed to have forgotten what it meant to talk nonsense.

He had a long chat with Chen Ruye, but when it came to Ye Xiao, he didn't even say a word. After he coldly stated 'You will die an unnatural death', he raised his hand.

"Hu!"

There was a strong wind.

The illusory, huge Lord of Calamity rose from behind the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, outlined in a grayish-black mist of decay. It seemed to have been blown over by a gust of wind and it swooped down in front of the Necromancer.

"Death Rod!"

Ye Xiao was the epitome of a taciturn being. She did not waste any words and used her mind to control the undead. The muscular Necromancer did not even utter a word and the giant scepter in his hand erupted with a dark light.

"BOOM!"

The Necromancer drew his weapon out of thin air.

With just one strike, the space was instantly shattered.

The Lord of Calamity, who swooped downward, exploded into an invisible fog under the surge of this huge force and could no longer morph into an intangible form.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man remained indifferent, as if he had long expected his first attack would be destroyed.

He quickly formed a pinching spell and a gray light surrounded his body. After he totally dispelled the aura of death, his body was illuminated by a spiritual source and he released his aura.

“Falling maggots!”

Within half a breath’s time, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man clasped his hands and shouted.

The dense mist of decay that filled the sky suddenly surged forward and turned into a grotesque scene. The surroundings were suddenly filled with a mass of ugly, twisted and disgusting gray maggots.

This swarm of maggots no longer seemed weightless like the decaying fog, but rather weighed as much as tens of thousands of cattie.

As soon her morph form appeared, Ye Xiao who sat on the Necromancer’s shoulder seemed to turn into the center of the world and possessed an endless gravitational force.

“Pa... pa... pa...”

The maggots rained down from the sky like hailstones and smashed onto the Necromancer’s body.

These disgusting creatures seemed to scramble in order to be the first to get the most delicious hookless baits. They climbed up the Necromancer’s body and tried to enter Ye Xiao’s body.

The scene became extremely horrifying!

“The power of decay...”

A cold glint flashed in Ye Xiao’s eyes, which were hidden under the shadows, and she seemed hesitant.

She already knew that the Five Decays Of Heaven and Man was one of the Five Extreme Physiques with the Body of Decay.

With such a constitution, even a Demi-Saint wouldn’t want to fight with this fellow, let alone her.

Therefore, the priority was not to continue the fight with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, but to find an opportunity to leave this special space-time during the fight.

However, the structure of of the space-time in this bright wilderness was very stable, as if it had blocked everyone’s retreat from the beginning.

Ye Xiao could tell.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man had never wanted to touch Chen Ruye from the beginning.

She had been his target from the very start!

He had sealed the spacetime before he started the battle.

As long as the battle dragged on long enough, even a Demi-Saint would have to kneel before the Body of Decay.

And these disgusting maggots were made entirely from the power of decay... Ye Xiao was able to use the Dissolve ability to disintegrate the Necromancer and turned him into an endless number of three-legged black owls.

Once the flock of owls appeared, the maggots would be like moths drawn to a flame and would be devoured one by one.

But that was the point!

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was a Body of Decay, and he possessed the power of 'misfortune' and 'curses'.

In terms of difficulty, this surpassed even the power of the 'God of Death'. It was simply the best in the world!

Ye Xiao dared to use the three-legged Black Owls to devour all living and dead things in the world, but she was afraid that after they swallowed these morph forms, it would bring her endless misfortune.

When she thought of this, she no longer hesitated and decided to give up all direct confrontations with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

"Swish!"

The black owl on her shoulder suddenly shrieked.

Ye Xiao's body rose from the Necromancer's body and her black-feathered cloak fluttered in the wind. A pair of white hands that seemed to have never been exposed to the sun emerged from the cloak, and performed some hand seals.

"The Three Gates of Suffering"

A cold voice rang out, and the sky suddenly darkened.

With a loud boom, three extremely high gates suddenly descended from the depth of darkness of the Nine Heavens.

The three gates smashed into the ground and stirred up a cloud of dust and dry grass.

They were pitch-black and looked ancient and mysterious.

The gates were engraved with the depiction of preparation of meals for the hungry ghosts, people being cooked in large cauldrons, mountains of daggers and seas of flames, and other complicated and strange patterns. It was filled with the aura of death.

As soon as they landed, the three gates spread out in a fan shape between Ye Xiao and the maggot-covered Necromancer, as if they had forcibly separated the world of the living and the underworld.

“Open!”

Ye Xiao's command sounded like an Imperial Decree.

The three gates of death swung open instantly.

“Wuwuwu!”

From the first gate, an endless swarm of hungry ghosts rushed out. They grabbed and bit everything within their reach. It clearly showed what it meant to be truly hungry.

Before the Necromancer could react, the hungry ghosts pounced on him and even tore out his spirit meat along with the decaying maggots and stuffed them into their mouths.

“Wuaah!”

For a moment, the wails of the hungry ghosts and the screams of the Necromancer resounded through the sky.

If there were any mortals present, they would have seen the Nine Serenities Hell, that was simply too horrible a sight!

Xu Xiaoshou was frightened.

He felt that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was already disgusting enough, but he didn't expect that the Dark Division Chief, Ye Xiao, would do something even more horrifying.

The hungry ghosts from the Three Gates of Suffering did not distinguish between friend and foe.

After they came out, some of them even went after Ye Xiao. Naturally, Xu Xiaoshou, who landed at the edge of the corner, was also targeted.

The Ghost Inscription in Xu Xiaoshou's eyes lit up, and without any second thought, he forcefully controlled the group of hungry ghosts.

However, he never expected that the spirits in the heads of these d*mned things would be controlled by him too. With a twist, their heads were torn off from their bodies. Then, they would wave their arms about like a bunch of headless chickens, grab the air, and stuff them into their necks... It was simply horrifying!

If anyone was caught, who knew how many pieces its soul would be torn into!

“D*mn it, did they use this move to scare people to death?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked and retreated. He did not want to provoke this group of things at all.

This was a battle between Ye Xiao and the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He was very clear about his position and just watched the show.

“BOOM!”

He was pursued by the ghosts all the way as he kept a close eye on the battlefield.

After the first gate opened, the second gate followed suit and opened with a bang.

This gate of death, which depicted the image of a large cauldron filled with people being boiled was different from the former. Once it opened, endless turbid yellow boiling water flowed out.

It looked like the waters of Huang Quan that had been boiled!

In the blink of an eye, the endless mass of boiling soup had engulfed the entire field.

Moreover, the water level continued to rise, from ankles to knees... It kept rising!

“What the hell is this?”

Xu Xiaoshou was forced into the sky, and his eyes were filled with horror.

He had once again experienced what it meant by ‘When the gods fight, the mortals suffer’.

The battle between the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and Ye Xiao had just begun, and he was actually the first one to be injured!

The space became distorted from the steam of the boiling soup.

Everything was gone, and he could not see anything clearly.

The extent of Xu Xiaoshou's curiosity was limited. He didn't want to know what the consequences would be should he be contaminated by these filthy things.

Just like the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, he kept flying up.

As long as the Five Decays of Heaven and Man doesn't take action, I don't have to do anything. I'll do whatever he does. If he is defeated, then I'll use the Vanishing Technique.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man also seemed to be shocked by Ye Xiao's move. He had the same thoughts as Chen Ruye, who was behind him. He didn't want to have a taste of the hot soup at all.

Just like how Ye Xiao chose to avoid his power of decay, he also had a strong fear of the power of Ye Xiao's God of Death.

At this moment, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man keenly noticed that the Ye Xiao, who had opened the Three Gates of Suffering, seemed to be unable to support herself, and her body trembled slightly.

"BOOM!"

The third door opened instantly at the same time.

This time, countless dark green soul blades flew out from it.

The soul blades were surrounded by karma fire, and everywhere they passed, they ignited the entire void. Even the boiling soup below was instantly dyed and turned into a sea of fire as it bubbled and boiled.

"D*mn!"

Xu Xiaoshou went berserk. He had been forced to the end of his tether.

You've taken over all the land, sea, and air, and used the geographical advantage of the entire space to the extreme. Ye Xiao, you're really too much!

As he dodged to the left and right like the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, a thought suddenly came to Xu Xiaoshou's mind.

Master Siren always said that his inspiration was extraordinary and he could see what ordinary people couldn't, which meant that his soul body was also very powerful.

Ye Xiao's Three Gates of Suffering was a group attack skill, so the damage incurred by a single soul blade shouldn't be that terrifying.

He did as he thought!

Xu Xiaoshou decided to give it a try. He couldn't hide anymore.

He could hide today, but could he hide in the future?

In the future, if he encountered someone like Ye Xiao again, or if a situation arose where he had to face such a person alone and had no choice but to fight back, he would have to use all his strength.

If he did not know the strength of the other party's attack, how could he come up with a counterattack?

The Ghost Inscription in Xu Xiaoshou's eyes glowed with a dim light. In high spirits, he directly lifted a large number of headless hungry ghosts with his All Things are Swords into the boiling soup and mixed them together to form a phantom sword.

He held the phantom sword made of hungry ghosts in his hand and slashed at one of the soul blades that aimed at his head.

'Sizzle...'

The phantom sword didn't even come into contact with the soul blade. It only got close to the karma fire on the soul blade and was reduced to ashes instantly!

Xu Xiaoshou turned pale with fright and tilted his head.

The soul blade sliced through his scalp, but it didn't hurt his soul body.

However, the karma fire had ignited on his head!

"Ah..:

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou covered his head and screamed in pain.

The karma fire did not burn his soul, but his seven emotions and six desires, and the three dirt stains on his Spiritual Intelligence!

When the karma fire ignited, Xu Xiaoshou felt that everything in his mind had turned demonic.

Desire, emotions, distracting thoughts, spiritual intelligence... They all bared their fangs and claws and started to tear his head apart.

“(Attacked, Passive Points+)+1.”

“(Attacked, Passive Points+)+1.” When a light flickered in his spiritual altar and after his Spirit Awakening, Xu Xiaoshou finally regained his consciousness after the pain.

At this moment, he was shocked to find that his body was falling. He was already submerged in the sea of boiling soup on the ground from his waist down.

The burning heat began to spread from his soles...

“(Startled, Passive Points,+)+1.”

Attack!!!

Xu Xiaoshou roared at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. His eyes almost popped out and were bloodshot.

Ye Xiao was too strong!

One of the tens of millions of soul blades out of one-third of her spiritual technique could already inflict such damage on him.

1593 Three Disciples, Curse to Kill Ye Xiao (3)

Who would dare to call such a person a higher void?

The likes of Double Dumba*s and Hong Dang could not even be compared to half of Ye Xiao's finger!

However, the stronger Ye Xiao was, the crazier Xu Xiaoshou became.

Now, he still had the Five Decays of Heaven and Man with him. If he were to face Ye Xiao on his own in the future, would she still choose to attack regardless of anything else?

Then what should he do?

Wait for death?

Since he could not let Ye Xiao live and continue to target him, the only thing he could do now was to bury her here, in the Yin Cao world created by the Three Gates of Suffering!

As long as he did not die, he would go all out.

Xu Xiaoshou did not use the Vanishing Technique. After he roared at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, his body was completely immersed in the boiling soup amid the sea of fire that allowed the countless headless little ghosts that had not been boiled to rush to pounce on him.

His body glowed with the golden light of Buddha.

It was very faint, but it seemed to be able to ward off the tens of thousands of ghosts.

“Acalanatha!”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man would never have thought that while he waited for Ye Xiao to weaken, Chen Ruye from Xu Yue Gray Palace would choose to pay such a painful price so he could have the opportunity to attack.

Was that touching or what?

Even at this time, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man didn't even know what the so-called 'opportunity' was and when it would occur.

But what kind of person was Chen Ruye?

This was a person who could represent the Xu Yue Grey Palace to fight for the Abyss Island in the Eastern Region.

This was the Ghost Beast who arrived at the First Hall of Sins on a mission and successfully released the ice-type Demi-Saint Ghost Beast, the Frost Ferret!

Even though he refused to reveal the slightest bit of the Ghost Beast aura until his death, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man still chose to believe Chen Ruye unconditionally!

“Swish.”

The air of decay exploded on the surface of his body and turned into a spherical barrier with layers of defense.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man didn't hesitate. Laden with countless Karma Fire Soul Blade, it charged at full speed toward Ye Xiao who stood behind the Three Gates of Suffering and did not seem to care about the consequences.

Ye Xiao was shocked.

Even though he had activated Acalanatha and was immune to most of the damages, he could still feel the heat rising in his body. The pain from the karma fire gave him a splitting headache.

But, this Five Decays of Heaven and Man, he really must have lost it!

Ye Xiao and Xu Xiaoshou could see that with his speed and the air of decay around him, not even a layer of the power of soul blade karma fire had been cut off.

However, even as he endured the damage inflicted by the countless soul blades and karma fire, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man did not make a sound and headed directly toward Ye Xiao.

What was this?

Xu Xiaoshou could hardly imagine the kind of torture one had to go through in order to remain silent under the spiritual attack inflicted by the Three Gates of Suffering.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man...

Had he suffered the punishment of death by a thousand cuts?

Or was it that he was already a dead man, and would never feel the pain that normal people could feel, the pain that came from the seven emotions and six desires, and the three scales of his spiritual root?

However, his eyes were contorted in pain as he dashed forward!

Ye Xiao couldn't take it anymore.

She severed the connection to the Three Gates of Suffering.

Because the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was not human at all, he gritted his teeth and endured the pain of being burned by the karma fire. He was already close and ejected a Qi of decay across the air.

“Pa... pa... pa...”

Ye Xiao's form exploded and turned into an illusory flock of three-legged black owls. They flapped their wings and tried to fly away from the decaying aura.

However, it was also at this moment that Xu Xiaoshou couldn't hold on any longer!

With a buzzing sound in his mind, his Acalanatha saturated in the boiling soup in the sea of fire exploded into a huge wave in the distance.

“Dispel...”

The moment he regained his rationality through the Spirit Awakening, Xu Xiaoshou subconsciously wanted to use the Vanishing Technique to avoid the pain.

He didn't want to fight anymore. This was too torturous.

But he suddenly stopped!

This was because Ye Xiao who had transformed into a flock of owls that scattered in the distance suddenly exploded in a mess of blood.

Ye Xiao's condition is even worse than mine...

Ye Xiao had cast a spell. Her Three Gates of Suffering was so powerful that it must consume a lot of energy. If we forcibly stop it, the backlash would be even more terrifying..

I've been injured by the explosion caused by the Acalanātha. Based on the experiment with Lei Xi'er, Ye Xiao must have been injured as well. And all the combined backlash must be worse than mine...

“(Cursed. Passive Points +)+1.”

As Xu Xiaoshou's mind spun, he realized almost immediately that the curse could only have come from Ye Xiao, who had suddenly realized that her injuries were because of the connection with Chen Ruye.

He was overjoyed.

Because at this moment, Ye Xiao's original body had been blown out of the scattered flock of owls from the backlash of Acalanatha.

The attack of the Three Gates of Suffering was forcibly interrupted at this moment. Under the backlash, Ye Xiao could not even make any counterattack except to curse!

What kind of person was this Five Decays of Heaven and Man?

He finally saw the 'opportunity' when Chen Ruye asked him to take action.

“Lord of Calamity!”

At this moment, he once again straightened his back and puffed out his chest. Xu Xiaoshou finally heard the shudders of endless pain from his roar.

However, even while he endured the pain of being burned by the karma fire, he could still move.

Behind him, the towering, ferocious, and evil giant monster outlined by the air of decay rose again.

And now, as soon as the monster appeared, it stabbed the motionless Ye Xiao.

“Ah!”

A scream rang out.

Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils trembled as he looked at the Lord of of Calamity who resembled a Void Attendant, in shock. It turned into an endless Qi of decay and poured all its power into Ye Xiao’s convulsing body.

“This, this is too terrifying!”

No one could imagine what would happen to a Spiritual Cultivator who had been injected with so much decaying Qi, except for the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

Ye Xiao also didn’t expect that he had maintained such a long distance confrontation with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man because of Chen Ruye’s unknown Spiritual Technique...

It was all because of that inexplicable backlash!

A single misstep would cause a thousand years of hatred. Not only did she fall into the trap, but she also felt like she had fallen into an abyss!

“Swish...”

The sound of a black owl’s cry echoed in the sky.

Ye Xiao seemed to have been awakened. She struggled as her body seemed about to disintegrate and split into three-legged black owls and disappear.

“Ha!”

However, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man laughed.

Even in his dreams, he wanted Ye Xiao to come into contact with a large amount of decaying Qi in a short period of time, so that his curse could be completed.

How could he let the other party off?

Under Xu Xiaoshou’s dazed gaze, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man took out a long nail from his sleeve.

This was a rust encrusted nail without the slightest bit of spiritual energy and was like a product of the secular world. It couldn’t even be considered a tenth-grade spiritual weapon, and was as long as a forearm and as thick as a thumb.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man held the nail and looked at the flocks of owls that were about to disappear in the distance. His chest heaved rapidly, as if every breath he took caused him immense pain.

After that, he released his breath, and his eyes were filled with relief.

“Killing curse!”

The sound fell.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man suddenly took the rusty nail and pierced it into his forehead through the mask. The rusty nail penetrated through to the back of his head and blood spurted out.

Xu Xiaoshou’s pupils trembled, and his hair stood on end. His body, which had just been soaked in boiling soup, suddenly turned cold.

“+(Startled, Passive Points,+) +1.”

Bang! Bang!

Another blood mist exploded in the air.

This was the second time Ye Xiao had transformed into a flock of owls in order to escape, but she was forced to reveal her original form again.

It was as if she had hit her head on an intangible barrier while she was on the run. Her hood exploded on the spot, and her body flipped upwards. After she spun around, her long black hair was flung in the air.

Time seemed to have stopped at this moment.

In the time and space of the Yin Cao world that was full of mountains of daggers, seas of fire, boiling soup, and countless hungry ghosts, the beautiful and poignant face on the horizon finally broke away from the darkness and revealed its true appearance.

Her eyebrows were shaped like willow leaves and she had red lips and phoenix-like eyes. Her skin was fair and her hair was as black as the night.

However, at this moment, the eyes on her beautiful oval face had already lost its focus.

On her forehead, there was also a thumb-sized... a blood hole that slowly exuded wisps of decaying mist!

1594 The World is Relative (1)

“It’s done?”

There was no smoke, and she was seriously injured.

Xu Xiaoshou did not feel any pity for the poignant beauty that was frozen in the air, the last beautiful image of the Dark Division Chief, but only felt endless joy.

“She’s dead!”

Xu Xiaoshou ignored his own pain and looked at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man for confirmation and also in expectation. Bang! Bang!

Ye Xiao’s body finally fell to the ground.

After her control over them was severed, the Three Gates of Suffering turned into spiritual energy and disappeared.

The hungry ghosts, boiling soup, and Karma Fire Soul Blade that had been summoned from the gates... All of them were gone and what was left behind was only a desolate battlefield, a testimony to everything that had taken place there.

The green fields had long gone.

The only thing left in this spacetime was endless desolation.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man didn’t respond. He silently landed in front of Ye Xiao’s corpse and scanned it.

He had to admit that Chen Ruye’s auxiliary attack had allowed him to skip the complicated battle process and end this powerful opponent’s life in an instant.

Logically speaking, any Spiritual Cultivator below the Demi-Saint level would not be able to survive his powerful Qi of decay and his last ‘killing curse’.

However, would the Dark Division Chief Ye Xiao have died so easily?

She only had time to release a little of her God of Death power..

Her strength in this battle was displayed when she used frontal attacks, but she was also a killer who was skilled at assassination...

Even though all of this was assisted by Chen Ruye’s special attack, which caught Ye Xiao off guard.

However, if the Dark Division Chief had died under his attack, even the Five Decays of Heaven and Man thought that it was a bit hasty.

“I don’t know.”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man murmured as he squatted down.

He stretched out two fingers to touch Ye Xiao’s blood-stained face, turned her head over and frowned as he scrutinized her.

Xu Xiaoshou walked over.

However, before he could speak, the orange-masked man suddenly released his fist and smashed Ye Xiao’s head into pieces.

Blood and flesh exploded. Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

“One should cut the roots to eliminate the weeds, to make sure she’s really dead... If she still wants to use this body to resurrect, this attack was necessary.” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man turned and looked over.

Xu Xiaoshou could see the unparalleled calmness in his eyes.

This person was more like the representative of the God of Death than Ye Xiao. With his power of decay and coupled with his cold temperament, he was simply an executioner in the Spiritual Cultivation realm.

Whoever he had his eye on would die!

“A Body of Death can also die?” Xu Xiaoshou thought of Elder Han’s words in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes and immediately asked.

He felt that Ye Xiao’s physique was extraordinary, and she had possessed the power of the God of Death.

These things that were related to ‘death’ might mean that Ye Xiao was still alive even after she died?

“Body of Death...”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man pondered and shook his head shortly after. If she had a Body of Death, she should be dead.

“Only just?” Xu Xiaoshou’s eyebrows twitched.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man glanced at him. "I have one of the Five Extreme Physiques, the Body of Decay that is the most sacred physique. The Body of Death physique is indeed extraordinary, but if I did not make a breakthrough, I can't withstand my power of decay, not to mention..."

With that, he did not need to say anything else for Xu Xiaoshou to understand.

Even a Demi-Saint might not be able to withstand the injection of such a large amount of Qi of decay.

Even if he managed to survive and escape, he would suffer from this onslaught of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and would suffer from misfortune. He might even die at any moment.

From this point of view, the judgment the Five Decays of Heaven and Man pronounced on Ye Xiao seemed to be reasonable.

Anyone who had fought with him, even if they won, would suffer from the attack.

If he couldn't get rid of the invasion of the air of decay, after the battle, he still had a debt to settle and would die inexplicably in the true sense.

This sort of physique was really disgusting... Xu Xiaoshou panicked at the thought of this.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was indeed as difficult to deal with as the grey mist figure, Feng Yujin. The only thing he was weaker in than the former was probably his cultivation level.

"From what you're saying, the Body of Death can make a breakthrough. How does it compare to your body?" Xu Xiaoshou asked as he looked at Ye Xiao's corpse that slowly aged and decayed under the gaze of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man before it disappeared totally.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man stood up and did not seem to mind as he explained to the young man in front of him.

"The 'Swallow' body, the 'Seal' body, and the 'Body of Decay' are inborn. They're undeniably the top three of the Five Extreme Physiques. There's no dispute about it."

"As for the latter two, there was a competition in the past, and many special physiques were listed. In the end, they were also set."

Xu Xiaoshou thought of the 'Ultimate Life Demon Physique' and felt that his little Junior Sister's body should be ranked among the Five Extreme Physiques, but he did not dare to ask.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man's next words were unexpected, and it was not the answer Xu Xiaoshou wanted.

"The latter two are Acquired Stage physiques that can be cultivated after birth, but it's very difficult, as difficult as ascending to the Heavens."

"The first one is the Voodoo Body. Once it was born, it crushed all the other physiques. Apart from the other four extreme physiques, there is basically no other physique that can withstand the ability of the Voodoo Body."

"The last type is the Immortal Body... Yes, that's what I wanted to say. Ye Xiao might have that breakthrough."

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

"The Body of Death can break through to the Immortal Body?" He asked.

"Yes."

"You really can't die'?"

"Undying and imperishable! It's even more disgusting and difficult to deal with than the other four. Otherwise, how could it be called a Supreme Physique?"

1595 The World is Relative (2)

"Then, how does one break through?" Xu Xiaoshou suddenly panicked.

After a moment of silence, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man raised his eyes and said, "Only in the midst of death can you break through..."

Xu Xiaoshou's face turned pale.

He thought of Yu Lingdi, who had died and then was resurrected.

He then thought of Rao Yaoyao, who had failed in her plan in Yunlun and was conferred the title of Saint in the Hall of Unforgivable Crimes.

The biggest characteristics of the people from the Holy Divine Temple seemed to be their tenacity, just like cockroaches. In that case, could Ye Xiao also be the same...

"That's not very likely."

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man knew what was on Chen Ruye's mind and he laughed awkwardly. "If you knew that you had the Body of Death, would you have hesitated for decades and never dared to seek a breakthrough?"

Xu Xiaoshou immediately understood.

Yes, this was the logic!

Ye Xiao definitely knew what her own body type was, and the temptation of the Five Extreme Physiques was too great, not to mention the one known as the undying and indestructible Immortal Body.

This meant that the Dark Division Chief must have tried it in the past.

Even if the process of breaking through was to experience death, she would definitely use all kinds of means to try.

Since she had yet to break through to the Immortal Body, it meant that Ye Xiao's previous attempts had failed.

She only had the Body of Death. In terms of strength, she could not compare to the Five Decays of Heaven and Man, who had an innate and developed body-the Body of Decay!

"I feel that she's still alive."

Xu Xiaoshou raised his head to look at the sky.

He was a suspicious person, especially after he witnessed all kinds of situations where destruction and resurrection had occurred. He had a deep understanding of these as he had personally participated in the killing.

Other than a reckless man like Teng Shanhai, the other Chiefs of the six divisions were hard to kill!

Even a brute like Teng Shanhai could only be killed by Jiang Buyi. Xu Xiaoshou was alone, so he could not guarantee that he could win against Teng Shanhai.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man laughed. "Are you looking down on me?"

"Uh." Xu Xiaoshou was startled. "Senior, what are you saying? Your battle was really an eye opener. I've never seen such evil... hmm, a powerful ability."

"Ye Xiao is undoubtedly dead!" The Five Decays of Heaven and Man said solemnly.

“If she’s still alive, she won’t be able to leave my spacetime. Once she does, I’ll mark her.”

“That will just be a matter of time.”

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man could not find any trace of Ye Xiao.

He could only come to this conclusion. In his heart, Ye Xiao was already a dead person.

He even dared to threaten Jiang Buyi. With his ability, would he be afraid of Ye Xiao?

Xu Xiaoshou could not agree with this point of view. “Senior, you have to help someone completely. You must have other means to find her and... Hmm, a second killing curse?”

“Why waste your energy?” The Five Decays of Heaven and Man’s eyes were very calm. “Who do you think you are that I should help you to this extent?”

As soon as he said this, Xu Xiaoshou suddenly felt that the atmosphere around him was a little off.

He smelled the stench again.

This stench was not the stench of his blood and sweat or the impact of the battle after his body was cooked. Instead, it was a nauseating smell that came from the bottom of his heart.

He looked at his entire body.

Sure enough, the aftermath of the battle couldn’t cover up his damaged vitality.

All his passive skills ran wildly within him but because he was too close to the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and had been with him for too long, the power of decay had invaded his body.

It was like a curse that slowly dragged his already bad state into the abyss.

“Speaking of which, I still don’t know why Senior helped me?”

Xu Xiaoshou wasn’t afraid of the power of decay.

After his initial panic, he had already discovered that this was an inevitable situation when one stood next to the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

However, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was clearly in control.

He could not perfectly restrain his own power, but he had tried his best to prevent himself from being seriously attacked by using the power of decay.

Now, with just the luck of a passive skill, this bit of power of decay couldn't kill someone in a short time.

To me, he's a good person... Xu Xiaoshou understood.

"I've already said before. You are Chen Ruye and Yama has cooperated with your Xu Yue Grey Palace before." The Five Decays of Heaven and Man said indifferently.

"Just because of that?"

Xu Xiaoshou didn't believe him at all.

He didn't have time to question these words during the battle.

After the battle, this reason sounded rather ridiculous.

This was really like the excuse that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man gave him when he helped Chen Ruye.

Moreover, he had almost paid for this excuse with his life. He believed what Chen Ruye said unconditionally and without reason, as if he had been hypnotized.

Even when he was facing the attack of the Karma Fire Soul Blade, he still looked for an opportunity that he had not seen at that time.

How long had it been since he used the Acalanatha skill?

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was not like Lei Xi'er. How could he know that Chen Ruye also had such an ability? How could he be so sure that Chen Ruye would also be able to hurt Ye Xiao and then risk his life in order to seize the opportunity?

This Chen Ruye character was just a disguise, and his essence was Xu Xiaoshou!

In other words, for the sake of a strange young man, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man risked his life to seize an opportunity that he had no confidence in, and in the end, he really succeeded in killing Ye Xiao with a curse.

How much trust did he have!

Xu Xiaoshou could understand if it was Yama's men who were working with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

However, he had never met this person in front of him before. They were strangers who met by chance and could not even be considered as acquaintances!

1596 This World Is Relative (3)

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man shook his head but did not answer. "I should go now."

Xu Xiaoshou looked up at the sky and scanned the surroundings with his 'Perception', but he still couldn't find any trace of Ye Xiao.

"You know my master?" He asked.

Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace, who had gone to meet Yama together with Chen Ruye's master did not exist at all. He was about to put the Five Decays of Heaven and Man to the test.

This question was also an indication of Xu Xiaoshou's self doubt that his true identity might have been exposed.

However, what he still didn't understand was if the Five Decays of Heaven and Man had recognized him as Xu Xiaoshou.

However, there had never been any interaction between Xu Xiaoshou and the Five Decays of Heaven and Man!

How could there be someone who would risk his life for a stranger?

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man turned around and seemed amused. The rusty nail on his forehead had not been pulled out, but there was no blood. "You can just take it as such."

But I can't!

Xu Xiaoshou was puzzled. He believed that with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man's IQ, he should understand the underlying meaning of his words.

But why did he give such a soul-searching and ambiguous answer?

This wretch... Xu Xiaoshou frantically tried to recall if he had met Yama's Five Decays of Heaven and Man at some point in the past, or if he had inadvertently saved his life.

But he had not!

The result of the memory search was that he first met the Five Decays of Heaven and Man in the labyrinth of the First Hall of Sins, not long ago.

The Xu Xiaoshou of old used to be super confident.

He could even vaguely control Bazhun'an's thoughts. He could even arrange a cooperation without leaving any traces and became a reusable chess piece.

Now, Xu Xiaoshou realized that for the first time, he couldn't figure out a person's intentions.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was too mysterious.

In his presence... he became Xu Xiaoshou, and he himself became the one who would always be dallied with by Xu Xiaoshou.

"Senior!"

As he watched the person in front of him walk away gradually, Xu Xiaoshou couldn't help but shout, "Actually, I'm not Chen Ruye from the Xu Yue Grey Palace. I killed him and took his place. You've got the wrong person."

Xu Xiaoshou's heart was in his mouth, but he pretended to be calm.

He watched as the orange-masked man slowly turned around. When he turned back, his eyes were still calm, without the slightest ripple of emotion in them.

Why?

Did he make up an excuse for himself?

He knew everything?

Xu Xiaoshou didn't understand and continued, "Actually, I'm... the only heir of the 16th generation of the Qingjing sect, Chen Tan! You must have heard heard Ye Xiao call out my real name before she died."

Even though he had decided to reveal his identity, Xu Xiaoshou did not dare to reveal it completely.

He was still afraid.

The power of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was too terrifying.

What if his guess was wrong, and the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was really a simple-minded chap?

What if he saw the real Xu Xiaoshou and remembered the grudge between Yama and the Saint Servant and chose to attack?

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was still calm. He didn't even say a word and just looked at Chen Ruye quietly... Oh, Chen Tan. There was a hint of playfulness in his eyes.

Xu Xiaoshou felt his hair stand on end from being stared at. He couldn't guess what the other party's thoughts were at all.

"Aren't you going to say anything?" Xu Xiaoshou said.

"You're Chen Tan?"

"Right! My name is Chen Tan, not Chen Ruye... I actually have no relationship with the Xu Yue Grey Palace at all! I'm sorry, you've helped the wrong person!" Xu Xiaoshou said fearlessly.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man said softly as he reached out his hand.

"I don't care if you're called Chen Tan or Chen Ruye."

"You only need to know that a person called Five Decays of Heaven and Man saved your life today. That's enough."

"In the future, others can stop him, but you can't. If you do this, you'll be repaying kindness with ingratitude."

"Of course, you can also be a person who repays kindness with ingratitude..."

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man seemed to have thought of something and turned away with a smile.

His form faded away step by step, and the space-time world around him also gradually disintegrated.

All that was left was the ethereal voice. Bit by bit, it drifted like rain into the ears of the stunned young figure who stood some distance away.

"But you must remember that you will be punished for all the bad things you have done."

"Karma, reincarnation, grudges, deceit, lies... Heh, you will be punished for everything."

"This world is relative."

1597 I'll Make My Move (1)

“Da!”

Water droplets dripped from the beams of the great hall. The environment in Zhen Huang Palace was extremely humid.

Jiang Buyi crossed the small puddle in front of him and brought the Taboo Puppet behind him to the three-foot tall little giant in front of the table in the main hall.

It seemed like a statue of a giant?

It was clad in broken black-colored heavy armor and held a black trident in its hand. Silken spiderwebs draped over the gaps in its armor and its body was covered in dust. It must have been quite some time since someone had cleaned it.

This was normal. How many years had the Abyss Island been deserted?

“Wait!”

Jiang Buyi had wanted to walk by the statue to search for what he wanted in the great hall.

Suddenly, just as his eyes left the giant statue, he felt as if he was being stared at by something, and the back of his head tingled.

But when he turned around, the giant statue had not moved.

Even its eyelids were closed, and only its eyeballs could be seen through the slits. Although the statue was lifelike, it had no vitality at all.

“Who’s there?”

Jiang Buyi said calmly. He was sure that it was not an illusion.

If the statue had not glanced at him just now, then there must have been someone else that secretly peeked at him in Zhen Huang Palace.

Mu Zixi’s face was still pale, so Jiang Buyi’s shout did not cause her expression to change.

When she heard the old man’s words, she didn’t even look around. She only stared blankly at the tall statue that was a short distance away.

“Big watermelons, big watermelons, all of them are big watermelons, big fragrant and sweet watermelons...”

The puppet's thoughts raced as she finally saw the statue of her good friend.

Since you're a statue, then don't dress up as God, play the devil. Just be like me.

Everyone, don't mess around. Just be good and remain quiet, and don't let anything happen, okay?

Jiang Buyi did not wait for a response and suddenly launched an attack. His palm that was wrapped with Holy Power, suddenly struck the head of the giant statue.

He had already verified that as long as he was not presumptuous, this level of probing would not waste the number of times he attacked.

In the blink of an eye, the Holy Power from his palm was about to smash the statue's head.

At this moment, the giant statue suddenly trembled, and the dust flew off its body. Its eyelids suddenly lifted, and its pupils quivered and two rays filled with spiritual quality erupted from them.

Holy Power fluctuation!

"Swish!"

Jiang Buyi did not hesitate and retreated instantly.

When the wind suddenly howled, he had already retreated a few hundred feet from the great hall and had stepped outside.

Only Heaven knew how torturous it was to have an exile order in one's mind. This caused Jiang Buyi's first reaction in the face of danger to always retreat, and not to shatter anything radically.

However, with his retreat, a certain someone had also been sent to the front.

Mu Zixi was dumbfounded.

As soon as the giant statue awoke, the old bodyguard in front of her disappeared and left her to face so many horrors on her own!

Her legs felt leaden and she couldn't even lift them.

Her entire body was like a machine that had just been wound up. Only her head turned back sluggishly, and her eyes stared at Jiang Buyi.

"Big watermelon, save me. How can you retreat and leave me alone..."

Mu Zixi did not dare to say anything, but Jiang Buyi's eyes narrowed.

At this moment, even he, a Demi- Saint, felt his hair stand on end for no reason. That was because there were two pairs of eyes that stared at him!

Originally, he only had one enemy that was the statue.

Jiang Buyi's retreat seemed to have angered the Taboo Puppet. She even cast a cursed look at him...

"Hu!"

Without any hesitation, the Holy Power of the Cloud Attribute gently lifted the Taboo Puppet. Jiang Buyi carried her out of the palace and placed her far away from him.

At this moment, he sensed that the curse-filled gaze had disappeared.

I almost had to face two enemies...

Jiang Buyi glanced at the Taboo Puppet, who had lowered its head again as if it had given up any thoughts to attack. He finally let out a sigh of relief.

Only then did he have the time to re-examine the giant statue in the great hall.

"Sinner... Why... visit... Zhen Huang Palace..."

The giant statue spoke. Its voice was hoarse and sounded like dry stones that rubbed against each other.

Jiang Buyi barely understood the meaning of the giant statue's words. He was still vigilant, but his worry had been greatly reduced.

They could communicate...

This was really great!

At the very least, it would be much better than the Taboo Puppet whose intentions were unknown.

"Who are you, and why are you here?" Jiang Buyi said coldly.

Even if he couldn't attack now, the Demi-Saint's aura was still strong and he did not need to look out for the unknown.

Even though this unknown came from the First Hall of Sins, it seemed to be different from the Void Attendant. Only the mysterious Taboo Puppet could compete with it.

Well, there were also Holy Power fluctuations...

Was this statue a creature at the Demi-Saint level?

While Jiang Buyi made a guess, the stone giant spoke again, "Void General... Sin..."

Void General?

Void Attendant?

It was hard for Jiang Buyi not to connect the two. Soon, he found some information about the Abyss Island from the depths of his memory.

There was still a living Void General on the Abyss Island?

'Sin' was its name?

Jiang Buyi did not dare to act rashly. If the statue in front of him was really a Void General, it meant that it most likely had the ability to kill a Saint.

The Abyss Island was perfect for the higher void, where opportunities and dangers coexisted. However, it was too difficult for a Demi-Saint.

1598 I'll Make My Move (2)

This was especially true for the Demi-Saint who could only launch a limited number of attacks!

With a 'Pa Da' sound, Jiang Buyi took a step forward and stepped on the small puddles of water that could be seen everywhere outside the great hall. He cupped his fists and said solemnly.

"I came to Zhen Huang Palace to look for one thing. It's called the 'exemption order'. If I can exchange it for something, if not, I'll take my leave."

He clearly stated that he would not disturb or even break the silence of this place, as well as the thoughts of the sleeping giant statue. He also would not destroy it and only came in peace.

The giant statue took its time to respond.

After a long while, a white light appeared in front of it.

It was a light cluster that was surrounded by white Holy Power and inside it was an object that was in the form of a command token.

Jiang Buyi was overjoyed when he saw this. He stepped forward and said, "Can I have it?"

Exemption order!

This was definitely the exemption order!

This seemed to be the reason why Zhen Huang Palace was different from the other 'halls' he had encountered before and had the tag 'Palace'. It was the main palace in the First Hall of Sins.

The thing that he needed was here.

He had come to the right place!

After a long pause, the giant statue replied mechanically, "Exemption order... Fifty... Void Crystals..."

Jiang Buyi was rooted to the spot. The burning fire of enthusiasm in his heart seemed to have been doused by cold water.

50 Void Crystals?

What was a Void Crystal?

Wait, didn't the Five Decays Of Heaven and Man mention this before?

When he killed the Void Attendants, he found some special hexagonal crystals on their bodies...

That thing was the Void Crystal?

Jiang Buyi's face turned green.

Along the way, he had followed the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. Since he had not done anything, he naturally did not obtain any Void Crystals.

Of course, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man wouldn't be so kind as to give a part of the spoils of war to him.

Whenever they encountered a Void Attendant, they would avoid it as if they were avoiding a fierce tiger. They would choose to take a detour for fear that the battle would attract more unknown disasters.

Thus, Jiang Buyi did not have a single Void Crystal!

“Can you...” Jiang Buyi hesitated for a while. His face was slightly red as he asked softly, “Can I owe you first?”

“Pfft!”

Suddenly, he heard a muffled sound beside him. It sounded like laughter.

Jiang Buyi was shocked. He quickly turned his head and saw that other than himself, the statue, and the Taboo Puppet, there was no fourth person in the great hall.

Then this muffled sound...

Jiang Buyi stared suspiciously at the Taboo Puppet.

Its face was pale and its limbs were stiff. It still had its head down and seemed to be muttering to itself.

Jiang Buyi walked over silently and the chanting in his ears disappeared.

He knew that this was the only incantation the Taboo Puppet could say. He didn't know what it was used for, and he couldn't make out the contents clearly.

It seemed to be something like 'scrape' and 'hope' and so on.

“Do you have any Void Crystals?”

Jiang Buyi squatted down and looked at the little girl who was as delicate as a doll. He asked softly, “It's a kind of hexagonal crystal, black... It should look like this.”

He used the black cloud to simulate the Void Crystal that the Five Decays of Heaven and Man had once collected. He was afraid that the Taboo Puppet would not recognize it, so he showed her its form.

Mu Zixi's listless gaze swept across the black cloud and landed on Jiang Buyi's face.

Of course, she recognized the Void Crystal. She had some with her!

However, could that be given out?

As long as she acted even slightly like a normal person or displayed the ability to communicate, what would follow would be endless probing and trouble.

Mu Zixi wasn't stupid. She opened her mouth as if she wanted to say something.

Jiang Buyi's eyes gleamed with anticipation.

"Melon..."

In a flash, Jiang Buyi exited the hall, away from the Taboo Puppet.

If he stayed any longer, the power of the curse would fall on him.

As expected, it was impossible to successfully communicate with that thing!

"Is there any way? I will take your 'exemption order' now and give you some other items as a trade? I don't have any Void Crystals." Jiang Buyi threw the question to the giant statue that he could communicate with.

"Exemption order... Fifty... Void Crystals..."

The giant statue's staccato voice sounded.. It was better than the Taboo Puppet and could at least communicate, but obviously not much.

Jiang Buyi was furious.

He thought about the possibility of 'forcibly snatching' the item.

At this moment, an ear-piercing scream suddenly came from the great hall.

"Swish!"

The Taboo Puppet's body trembled and it looked up. Its face was pale, and its Holy Power flashed as if it was about to attack.

Jiang Buyi was frightened.

He wasn't afraid of the scream, but was terrified of the reaction of the Taboo Puppet.

In a flash, Jiang Buyi appeared in front of the exquisite doll again. He held her down with both hands and spoke, "You don't have to do anything. I'm here. Leave everything to me."

Only then did the Taboo Puppet regain its calm, and its eyes became dazed again.

Jiang Buyi had enough of such a life of fear!

He swore that once he got the exemption order and was able to attack at will, the first thing he would kill would be this Taboo Puppet!

At that time, regardless of whatever Life force, world aura, or Holy Power fluctuations she had, he would take them all and deprive her of all her abilities.

If he couldn't get them, he would take it out of the Abyss Island and bring it back to the Jiang Clan in Pu Xuan at the Northern Region to study it.

No matter how strong she was, could she be stronger than a Demi-Saint?

However, now, under the premise that his attacks were still limited, Jiang Buyi had to take the lead to stabilize the emotions of the Taboo Puppet in case of any danger.

1599 I'll Make My Move (3)

Because until now, he still couldn't figure out the puppet's intention to follow him.

This matter itself had an element of horror, especially in the First Hall of Sins where danger lurked everywhere. If another accident were to happen, Jiang Buyi's heart would not be able to bear it!

The cawing of crows came suddenly, without any warning.

After he calmed the Taboo Puppet down, Jiang Buyi scanned the entire Zhen Huang Palace again. However, he still could not find the presence of any crows.

The giant statue suddenly moved.

A golden drop of water floated in front of it, and a blurry picture appeared inside.

It was a black crow that tried desperately to escape. Its shape was unclear, but perhaps it was a native creature of the First Hall of Sins like the Taboo Puppet?

Jiang Buyi had this thought due to what the giant statue said after the golden water drop appeared.

"Bring it... bring... The reward... The Void... Crystal..."

Reward?

Mission?

Jiang Buyi knew that the Void Attendant on the Abyss Island would occasionally issue missions.

"Alright." he said.

He nodded and took the golden water droplet. He took note of the form of the crow inside, then he suddenly turned around and left Zhen Huang Palace with the Taboo Puppet.

There wasn't much time left on the exemption order.

If this native of the First Hall of Sins could be exchanged for 50 Void Crystals, every second counted.

Because from the scene, the crow was obviously in danger and was on the run.

Even after Jiang Buyi left Zhen Huang Palace with the Taboo Puppet and the great array was sealed, the giant statue's staccato voice did not stop.

Its gravelly voice echoed for some time, as if it had just identified the number of Abyss Island Sinners when the mission was issued.

Then, after careful consideration, it gave the number of rewards that could be obtained after the mission was completed.

“Two ...”

The wilderness space-time created by the Five Decays of Heaven and Man collapsed after the disappearance of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

At this moment, Xu Xiaoshou had just returned to the familiar labyrinth of the First Hall of Sins. Suddenly he heard a crow's caw in the distance.

“Swish!”

Xu Xiaoshou's hair stood on end, and his body seemed to have left together with his soul, and he appeared taller.

“She's not dead!”

Not far from the labyrinth's passage, the orange-masked Five Decays of Heaven and Man still held the golden talisman. The battle he had just experienced seemed just like a dream.

He retracted his hand and glanced at the broken pieces of the golden talisman. The broken pieces turned into an aura of decay and disappeared.

After he did this, the Five Decays of Heaven and Man finally looked up. “She's already dead.”

“You must be deaf... Cough! Cough!”

Xu Xiaoshou restrained his rage and became docile. He tilted his head and asked, "Senior, didn't you hear the cry just now? That was Ye Xiao. She's not dead yet."

As he followed the trail of the three-legged owl's shadow, a spiritual light flashed through his mind, and he began to connect the dots.

Xu Xiaoshou had a very bold and mysterious illusion. It was very close to reality-the possibility of why Ye Xiao could still be alive!

"Senior, did you notice that whenever Ye Xiao appears, she always has a three-legged black owl on her shoulder?"

"Your killing curse is so powerful. If it was a normal higher void... No, if a Demi-Saint were to appear, they might be gone by now."

"With such a large amount of Qi of decay, how could she still be alive?"

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was indifferent and didn't want to talk at all. He said, "You don't have to think too much. Once the space-time golden talisman appeared, everything you do will be tracked and seen by others. So, you can't make any more moves."

Xu Xiaoshou suddenly slapped his thigh, his thoughts clearly not on the same channel as the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He said to himself.

"You said that she didn't cultivate the Immortal Body. If it had been the Body of Death, she would have been killed by you!"

"But she's still alive... That would mean that the Ye Xiao we killed might not be the Dark Division Chief, Ye Xiao, but her puppet."

"Ye Xiao's original form is that three-legged black owl???"

This idea was simply ingenious and Xu Xiaoshou felt that he had found the right direction.

If he was the Dark Division Chief, he would do the same thing. He would create an attractive body on the surface and direct all the danger to this body.

By the time the battle was over and the enemy finally reacted, all his means would have been used on the puppet's body and everything would be stripped clean.

At that time, the one who would be damned would be that guy who was targeted by the true body of the God of Death.

Ye Xiao was not dead, she merely chose to escape at this moment...

This was purely because the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was too disgusting!

Even a Demi-Saint would not want to fight with the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. This guy's ability was simply too disgusting and difficult to deal with!

Xu Xiaoshou could almost imagine what would happen if he had faced Ye Xiao on his own after he exposed all his abilities and risked his life to kill Ye Xiao's body.

When the three-legged black owl finally revealed her true form after she comprehended all of his abilities, what would happen to him?

Cold sweat trickled down Xu Xiaoshou's body, and his lips turned pale.

Ye Xiao was too sinister!

The more sinister this Dark Division Chief was, the more Xu Xiaoshou was determined not to let her live.

He turned to look at the Five Decays of Heaven and Man. He wanted to attack together with him and stop the three-legged black owl, that was the Ye Xiao's actual body.

In the end, he found that even after he said all these, the expression of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man did not change at all.

"You were aware of this?" Xu Xiaoshou was so shocked that he sweated profusely. "You knew all this?"

"You don't need to know." The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was very calm.

"How can I not know? I was that fellow's target. As long as she doesn't die, maybe one day, I will..."

"I said, you don't need to do anything."

The voice of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man was so calm and indifferent.

He stared intently at Chen Ruye in front of him, then turned around and looked up at the black shadow that had disappeared into the sky. His body turned into a mist of decay and disappeared.

"I will take action."

1600 Try the Sword? (1)

“(Received protection. Passive Points), +1.”

In the dark labyrinth, Xu Xiaoshou stared at the message that popped up in the Information Bar and he could not speak for a long time.

This was not the first time he had received the ‘care’ from the Five Decays of Heaven and Man.

After this guy had caught up to him and crushed the space-time golden talisman, he had thought that he was here to deal with Chen Ruye. Only later did he realize that he was here to help him get rid of Ye Xiao.

If there was an explanation, it could only be due to the close relationship between Yama and Xu Yue Grey Palace...

So, what about now?

“Protection...”

As he leaned against the wall of the labyrinth, Xu Xiaoshou frowned and subconsciously said it out loud.

Even the system had given a clear affirmation that the various actions of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man were indeed ‘protection’ and not ‘exploitation’ with ulterior motives.

Why?

Even if Yama and the Xu Yue Grey Palace had a profound relationship that could not be revealed, there was no need for the Five Decays of Heaven and Man to take such good care of an ordinary member of another faction, right?

What’s more, Xu Xiaoshou felt that Five Decays of Heaven and Man had already known that he was not a true member of the Xu Yue Grey Palace!

“If he knew that I’m Xu Xiaoshou, would he still be so nice to me?”

Xu Xiaoshou rubbed his chin. In his mind, the images of Elder Sang and then Master Siren flashed by, then there was nothing else.

Even the care that Bazhun’an had given him was a bit exploitative. In this world now, besides Elder Sang and Master Siren, were there any other good and pure people?

“Could it be that he is my... Uh, the original owner’s father?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked by his own imagination, but he quickly denied this possibility.

They died long ago.

Both his parents were dead.

This body had no blood relatives.

Furthermore, ever since he had embarked on the path of Spiritual Cultivation, ordinary people and Spiritual Cultivators, as well as the mortal world and the world of Spiritual Cultivation were two completely different worlds.

Xu Xiaoshou searched through his memory to see if there was such a similar person in his impression. Could the Five Decays of Heaven and Man have been one of his seniors in the Spirit Palace, the Holy Palace, or a Saint Servant?

This was his usual trick.

The result was obvious. He couldn't find any.

The Five Decays of Heaven and Man was unique and too iconic.

This was completely different from the Ancient Sword Technique. The Ancient Sword Technique could be imitated, but the power of decay was probably the only one in the Spiritual Cultivation world.

Just like Feng Yujin, who had the Seal Attribute, the power of the Five Decays of Heaven and Man could not be replicated unless someone had the Imitator.

But this was not sheer nonsense!

He had the Imitator in his body...

"This is a good thing. In terms of the result, I have one more ally."

"He should be a good friend of Bazhun'an. Anyway, whatever I don't understand would always be related to Bazhun'an."

Xu Xiaoshou tried to psych himself in order to forget about the unpredictable turn of events and focus solely on the results.

In the end, he found that he couldn't bear this kind of unknown 'care'. If he was really Bazhun'an's man, there was no need to be so secretive.

If he didn't figure this out, what if this 'care' became a 'backstab' one day, that would directly or indirectly lead to his death?

"You, get ready!"

In the Yuan Mansion, the second true body was currently fishing for poisonous fish. When it received the notification, it stood up abruptly with a reluctant look on its face. "What for?"

"You know how to use the Vanishing Technique; why are you sitting around fishing the whole day, what sort of skill is that? I'll give you a mission. Follow the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and Ye Xiao. If one of them dies in the end, I want you make sure you personally witnessed that person's death."

"You don't have to tell me, I know what you're thinking..."

"Then why are you still asking?"

"You should understand what I mean. I don't want to go..."

"I don't care if you want to or not!" Xu Xiaoshou was furious and immediately ordered, "Get lost! What was the point of creating you? Was it to let you slack off... Oh, I'm the one who created the Yuan Mansion and you're the one to enjoy it?"

The passageway to the Yuan Mansion split open.

There seemed to be something that came out, but then again, it seemed there was nothing.

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the space in front of him. He and the true body shared a vision, even if the second true body used the Vanishing Technique.

In other words, if the second true body managed to go where the Five Decays of Heaven and Man and Ye Xiao had their battle, he would be able to witness the battle from a first-person perspective.

Of course, there would definitely be some surprises during the course of the battle...

"Never touch the Vanishing Technique! You're not me. You only have one mission-to watch the show. Don't add any more scenes for yourself." Xu Xiaoshou issued this order to himself silently and the second true body could hear it.

The second true body had inherited all of his abilities, but there were some things that could not be inherited.

For example, the Infernal Original Seed and the Three Days Frozen Calamity... Oh, Xiao Kongtong's Sword Cognition, his Holy Blood and all sorts of treasures.

The treasures included the Fourth Sword, the Flame Python, the Imitator and so on.

The second true body couldn't duplicate anything that was external.

This was in accordance with the law of conservation of energy. Otherwise, Xu Xiaoshou could have mass-produced the Fourth Sword by himself, and even skip the forging process.

“What if I’m discovered? You know, the Vanishing Technique is not omnipotent. The Holy Realm and the Storyteller can target it. Even Ye Xiao could detect the Five Decays of Heaven and Man’s decrepit phenomena, so how can she not locate you... Uh, me?”
The second true body’s inner voice sounded.

“Run if you’re discovered.” Xu Xiaoshou sneered and thought, “How did my split self have a personality that’s afraid of death; that’s so unlike me?”

“What if you can’t run?”

“If you can’t run, just kill yourself. I can still create another, anyway. You just have to avoid being caught and get dissected for research purposes.”
