

I Am Loaded 481

Chapter 482: Trash Beast Fire, What Can It Do to Me?

“Old Mou...”

Zhang Duoyu tried her best to stop herself from charging forward.

She had never expected that the final result of splitting up would be Old Mou’s thousand-mile telepathic communication.

Sovereign!

That was a Sovereign!

In this world, other than a premeditated encirclement, in a battle of the same level, as long as a Sovereign wanted to leave, who could stop it?

But!

After receiving the message, she came to this place. The last time she saw Zhang Zhongmou was actually his head, forcefully crushed by the two fingers of the huge White Skeleton.

How absurd was this?

Zhang Duoyu panicked.

No one else could exist here.

Since that was the case, Zhang Zhongmou still died at the hands of this big guy.

It meant that the White Skeleton definitely had a true killing move that was completely different from its strength on the surface.

It was a super powerful trump card that even a Sovereign could not escape from!

“But how could such a thing exist?”

Zhang Duoyu still felt that the result was extremely comical.

She knew about the White Cave.

When it was opened a few years ago, it was she and Zhang Taiying who sneaked in.

They even obtained the Sacrificial Carving from this place.

At that time, the White Skeleton was such a weak creature. Other than the redeeming qualities of its Master Physique, what else was there for them to notice?

Nothing at all!

However, the truth was right before their eyes. Zhang Duoyu had no choice but to believe it.

“Run!”

When she saw that she could not save Zhang Zhongmou, Zhang Duoyu immediately changed her mind.

Even if she did not believe it, staying in front of the White Skeleton at this moment was nothing more than a waste of energy.

There was no point in fighting a battle that had a high chance of ending her life. Why would she need to fight?

“Swoosh!”

After gliding in the air for less than half a breath’s time, Zhang Duoyu immediately chose to turn around.

She was still a long distance away from the White Skeleton. As long as she turned around in advance, the creature would not be able to catch up.

“Roar!”

The White Bone Giant let out an excited roar.

The inexplicable death of the ant in front of it had already made it very unhappy.

It had never been expected that this guy would order another dish for it before he died!

He was on the right track!

The ground exploded with a bang.

The White Skeleton punched the ground with both hands and spat out white flames from its feet again.

The White Skeleton desperately shot in the direction of the second prey.

“Little Yu!”

Xu Xiaoshou, who was hiding in the sky, immediately turned around.

Yu Zhiwen immediately understood what he meant.

From the distance between the two of them, she could tell that even if the White Skeleton was blessed with white flames, by the time he arrived, the beautiful woman would probably have already disappeared.

“Don’t worry, the Divine Array has been completed!”

Yu Zhiwen withdrew her slightly trembling hand.

The “Soaring Great Moon” was the strongest Divine Array she could set up at the moment.

As long as this array was formed, it would be impossible for an opponent of the same level to withstand it.

As for the Sovereign...

In a completely defenseless state, it would definitely be played around with.

Even if it could use the Way of the Heavens to spy out the unknown parts of the world, when it regained its senses, it believed that it would be a short while later.

This time had been cut off.

Didn't the White Skeleton still have to deliver a pair of heavy fists?

"Soaring Great Moon."

"Sacrifice!"

Yu Zhiwen's eyes were pious. She clasped his palms together, and the Heaven and Earth path mechanisms in the world immediately began to move.

After the Divine Array patterns that were hidden under the void took shape, they were directly injected into the Way of the Heavens.

It was just like the bounded domain of a Sovereign. In this self-controlled domain, others couldn't see any traces.

"Buzz..."

The faint sound could not be heard at all under the explosion of the two figures.

There was no change in the void at all.

However, Xu Xiaoshou saw that in the nine heavens, a faint mark of a full moon suddenly appeared.

This full moon was too illusory.

Its appearance did not bring about a large-scale change in brightness. It did not even wake up the moonlight. It could only mark such a mark in the nine heavens.

If it was not for Little Yu's low cry, Xu Xiaoshou would not even have been able to see the appearance of the full moon.

"Shadow of the Moon!"

Seeing that Zhang Duoyu was about to disappear into the horizon in her eyes.

Yu Zhiwen shouted again, and the mark of the full moon above the nine heavens instantly became blurry. It seemed as if there was an additional halo of the Moon.

This time, Xu Xiaoshou saw it clearly.

When this halo of the Moon appeared, Zhang Duoyu, who was originally far away from the Divine Array, was instantly enveloped by an invisible layer of clear light.

Under this layer of moonlight, the Divine Array pattern seemed to emerge from thin air, and then suddenly spread out, instantly trapping Zhang Duoyu, and even a few miles ahead of Zhang Duoyu!

"So powerful!"

Xu Xiaoshou's pupils constricted.

The spiritual array had a form.

Therefore, he had never seen any spiritual array that could expand its range after it was formed.

But the Divine Array was invisible.

Its existence was used to steal the power of Heaven and earth.

Therefore, when this layer of moonlight shone down, the Divine Array that had only covered a few miles seemed to have expanded by more than ten times.

Wherever the moonlight shone, it was where the domain was located!

...

“What is it?”

Zhang Duoyu, who was flying, vaguely sensed that something was wrong.

The Way of the Heavens in this place seemed to have been changed by someone?

Was it an illusion?

How could this ability, which could only be achieved by Cutting Path, appear here?

However...

A Sovereign’s intuition couldn’t be wrong!

“Could it be that the White Skeleton’s special ability lies there?”

“It is because of this trace of Cutting Path ability that Old Mou died miserably at its hands?”

Although she did not feel any harm, her intuition told Zhang Duoyu that if she did not increase her speed, she might really be held back by that big fellow.

“Pu!”

Without any time for daydreaming, Zhang Duoyu directly spat out a mouthful of blood essence, and her speed instantly doubled.

“I must leave this place alive!”

After witnessing the tragic ending of Old Mou, Zhang Duoyu immediately used Blood Escape even though she couldn’t see the White Skeleton behind her. There was no room for mercy at all.

“He’s speeding up.”

Xu Xiaoshou couldn’t help but be reminded when he saw Zhang Duoyu was about to rush out of the edge of his perception.

He turned his head to look at Yu Zhiwen.

This girl seemed to be very relaxed as she spoke.

But judging from the temptation of her wet body, it was definitely not an easy task to set up the Divine Array.

Her star eyes didn't move at all. After observing that Zhang Duoyu had completely let down her guard against the moonlight, Yu Zhiwen quickly formed a seal at the moment when the beautiful woman was about to charge out of the domain.

"Late Moon."

Just two words.

There were no changes to the Divine Array at all.

Even Xu Xiaoshou's "Perception" couldn't detect the appearance of any array patterns at all.

But just as Yu Zhiwen finished speaking...

Zhang Duoyu, who was supposed to rush out of the "Soaring Great Moon" domain, actually began to open up in an arc. After a series of large turns, she rushed back inside!

"This..."

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

She had changed the Order of the Heavens without a trace. It was like she had secretly set up a fantasy realm and Restraining Array, causing that beautiful woman to lose her direction?

Xu Xiaoshou was suddenly jolted awake. He raised his eyes.

He saw the full moon mark in the sky. It had unknowingly turned into a half-moon state.

"What a fellow..."

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

Not to mention Zhang Duoyu, even he, an outsider who had been watching Yu Zhiwen from the start to the end, was completely clueless about this move.

"This is a Divine Array?"

"Borrowing and altering the Way of the Heavens to such an extent that even an ordinary Sovereign can't compare to it!"

"No wonder..."

Xu Xiaoshou was enlightened.

No wonder the threshold for becoming a Divine Sorcerer was so high that it was beyond the reach of a Master.

No wonder the position of the current Hallmaster of the Holy Divine Palace, who was known as the number one person on the continent, was unshakable!

After the Sovereign, under the same level, the level of understanding of the Way of the Heavens was the standard to determine the strength of a spiritual cultivator.

However, the existence of the Divine Sorcerer had been using and stealing the secrets of the heavens along the way.

With the growth of such a sub-occupation, how could an ordinary Sovereign be comparable to a Sovereign Divine Sorcerer?

And as time passed.

Even if it was Cutting Path or higher void, the distance between them would be pulled even further!

“The comprehension of Way of the Heavens...”

Xu Xiaoshou muttered in a daze.

Perhaps, under the current spiritual cultivation system, the true favored child of the era wasn't an ancient swordsman who had made it to the top, but a Divine Sorcerer!

After seeing through this point, Xu Xiaoshou looked at Yu Zhiwen with a slightly different gaze.

This was the true origin of a major power.

This was the true master of the most convenient path to godhood in the world... the favored daughter of heaven!

“Something's wrong!”

Zhang Duoyu flew as she realized that the situation had changed.

She actually saw the White Skeleton, which should have been left without a trace, appear from the left!

“This...”

“How is this possible?”

Zhang Duoyu's pupils constricted, and she immediately understood.

“Bounded domain!”

“This White Skeleton actually has the unique bounded domain power of a spiritual cultivator?”

“That trace of Way of the Heaven's transformation was the White Skeleton tampering with the divine secrets and pulling itself into an invisible trap formation?”

“Darn!”

Zhang Duoyu cursed angrily, and she was on the verge of going crazy from anger.

She had never thought that the White Skeleton's special ability would actually be the unique Way of the Heavens' power of a human.

No wonder Old Mou had died here.

If she had not been caught off guard and entered the other party's domain, she would have been split into two.

She could be toyed with to death!

"Bounded domain, open!"

Although opening her bounded domain against the other party's domain was the last resort.

Because of this, her bounded domain would definitely be under his control and would be broken through sooner or later.

However, at this moment, Zhang Duoyu couldn't care about that anymore.

As long as her bounded domain opened up and she broke through the interference of the divine secrets, she would be able to find her way again.

As for the end, even if her bounded domain was shattered, she would only be able to damage some of her future healing time.

Escaping was the most important thing!

Although her idea was good.

However...

"Silent Moon!"

The star eyes observed the situation quietly. They could clearly sense any Way of the Heavens' power on Zhang Duoyu's body.

Under such circumstances, how could Yu Zhiwen not know what the beautiful woman was thinking?

Just as the Way of the Heavens' power was about to gather, Xu Xiaoshou could clearly see that the half-moon mark on the nine heavens had directly turned into the shape of a crescent moon under Yu Zhiwen's command.

Immediately after, the spherical domain on Zhang Duoyu's body only managed to form a blurry outline before it directly collapsed.

It was as if a silence restriction had been placed on it.

None of the Way of the Heavens' power could take shape under the crescent-shaped mark!

"You can suppress her bounded domain power?"

Xu Xiaoshou was greatly shocked.

"No."

Yu Zhiwen shook his head.

"Any Divine Secret is essentially borrowing the Way of the Heavens to change the rules."

“All I did was slightly adjust the Way of the Heavens power beside her, that’s all.”

“The Way of the Heavens is lacking, and it’s difficult for the Sovereign to move.”

“The rules of the White Cave are already damaged. Forcefully using the overly strong Way of the Heavens’ power is similar to the bounded domain power. In essence, it’s possible to directly cause the small world to collapse.”

“But this is only for outsiders.”

Yu Zhiwen paused for a moment before continuing to explain, “For the Sovereign itself, if the incomplete Way of the Heavens’ power is randomly used, it is very likely to injure itself. At the very least, it will fail the formation of a bounded domain.”

“Silent Moon merely magnified this shortcoming, causing the Way of the Heaven around her to suffer even more losses.”

“In that case...”

Yu Zhiwen wiped off her sweat and stopped speaking. She chose not to say anything else.

Xu Xiaoshou was very smart. How could he not know what was going to happen next?

After the Order of the Heavens were greatly depleted, how could the bounded domain that was formed by borrowing the Way of the Heavens’ power really take shape?

“Good fellow.”

“Don’t let my ‘Weaving Expertise’ raise me to the Sovereign Stage. How is this ‘weaving’? This is a direct punishment!”

Xu Xiaoshou’s mind was stirred.

The Divine Secret was too powerful!

After entering the Sovereign Stage, any Spiritual Cultivators began to borrow the Way of the Heaven’s power.

A spiritual technique that could tamper with the Way of the Heavens could decide the outcome at a critical moment.

Not to mention, the Divine Secret and Weaving Technique could be used to directly fine-tune the Way of the Heaven in a small area.

This was simply killing the source of the Sovereign’s power!

“It... failed?”

Zhang Duoyu looked at the shattered bounded domain in a daze.

She had never expected that the small chance of failing to condense a bounded domain in a small world would actually happen to her at such a critical moment?

“It can’t be a coincidence!”

“It can’t be the Way of the Heavens that the White Skeleton altered!”

She shook her head and forced herself to wake up.

“Even if my bounded domain is only half-formed, it’s impossible for that big guy to change my bounded domain’s power so quickly through his bounded domain.”

“So...”

“There’s a ghost!”

“There’s a ghost here!”

Zhang Duoyu was shocked.

Her intuition told her that she might have been thinking in the wrong direction just now.

It was indeed impossible for the White Skeleton to exist in a bounded domain.

This was something that only belonged to human spiritual cultivators. Even if the White Bone Giant had spiritual sources, how could the incomplete Order of the Heavens in this small world allow him to easily comprehend a bounded domain?

“If it’s not the White Skeleton, then it must be... a human!”

“A Sovereign!”

At this moment, Zhang Duoyu finally understood why Old Mou had died.

Under such a pursuit.

There was actually an invisible Sovereign in this place that was not inferior to her...

No.

It was even likely to be a Cutting Path.

Otherwise, how could her bounded domain power dissipate so quickly?

“But I have no business with a Cutting Path, why would they want to kill me?”

“It’s impossible for the Red Coat to be so sneaky. Could it be that the person hiding in the dark is related to this White Skeleton? Are they using a cat to play with a mouse to spy on his prey’s pathetic state?”

“This...”

...

While Zhang Duoyu was in a daze, the White Skeleton suddenly revealed a sinister smile.

This human was too stupid!

She could have clearly run out of her attack range, but she actually started to take a detour?

It was fine if she took a detour, but at the end of the detour, she actually charged at it face-to-face?

Who could withstand this!

If I don't punch her, how could I live up to my title as the White Skeleton God?

"Whoosh!"

As the hurricane whistled, the White Bone Giant clenched its fists and smashed them directly at Zhang Duoyu who was coming at it.

"Darn it."

Zhang Duoyu's face turned pale.

At this point, she had no choice but to face the attack head-on.

"Mysterious Sound Strike!"

With a pull of her right hand, a strange sound wave exploded in everyone's mind like a ghost entering the world.

Even Xu Xiaoshou and Yu Zhiwen, who were in the sky, felt their hair stand on end when they heard the shrill cry. Their minds went blank.

Chi Chi!

As a creature with a spiritual quality, the White Bone Giant found it difficult to resist the attacks of the sound waves. The white flames in its eyes fluttered twice and were almost extinguished.

It covered its head in pain.

How could it not die? This kind of attack had directly hit its vital point.

When the pain eased slightly and the scene returned to normal, the White Skeleton could already see the ant lifting its palm and imprinting it on its forehead.

"Squeak –"

An extremely high-pitched screech sounded like the sound of a ghost being strangled by a flame.

Not only was the White Skeleton powerless to resist, but even Xu Xiaoshou and Yu Zhiwen felt their brains spin and almost exploded.

Blood gushed out of their ears. With such a spiritual attack, a Sovereign Physique could not withstand it, and Xu Xiaoshou, who had a Master Physique, could not withstand it either.

Yu Zhiwen was also injured and almost fainted.

However, as if it was a natural reaction after suffering spiritual damage, Pearl Gem Star Eyes blossomed under such power.

"Die."

Under the Sky Screen, the galaxy flowed.

In an instant, the Way of the Heavens' power was overturned.

The shrill cry reached the place where the stars shone as if they had been cut off halfway and sent into space, disappearing completely.

"Who is it?"

The White Skeleton was an idiot.

Zhang Duoyu's Sovereign spiritual sense would not let go of such an obvious Way of the Heavens' power.

She turned her head. Even though there was no one in her line of sight and spiritual sense, her gaze was still locked onto the positions of Xu Xiaoshou and Yu Zhiwen.

"Darn..."

Xu Xiaoshou came back to his senses and almost vomited.

This shrill cry was simply an enhanced version of the blackboard fingernail sound from a childhood nightmare, and it was the same type as the endless version of the swimming pool.

That scream almost made him soar into the sky on the spot.

"Watched, Passive Points, +1."

A pop box appeared in the information pane, directly pulling him back to reality.

Under his "Perception", Zhang Duoyu had cast the White Skeleton aside and rushed straight towards the direction of the two of them.

"Darn!"

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

Zhang Duoyu who had rushed straight towards them was no longer the Zhang Zhongmou who had completely lost his guard previously.

Not only that, if he were to grab onto such a clear target, wouldn't he die on the spot if he were to be pounced on?

"Sword cognition."

Xu Xiaoshou instantly thought of this.

Wouldn't it be great if Zhang Duoyu were to charge in front of him and split her head in two?

But, what if?

Since this fellow dared to charge at him, she must be on guard. What if she managed to dodge it?

Even if there was no such possibility.

Even if the Sovereign was split into two, would it lose its fighting strength?

Xu Xiaoshou instantly dismissed this thought.

He grabbed Yu Zhiwen, who had just barely recovered, and held onto his Yuan Mansion. He wanted to make Zhang Duoyu miss.

However, just as he was thinking, he saw the white flame in the White Skeleton's eyes that was about to be extinguished.

"Is this guy going to die?"

This strange attack could indeed cause fatal damage to the White Skeleton.

But at the same time.

This fatal attack reminded Xu Xiaoshou that not only was he an ancient swordsman, but he was also an Infernal Elixir Master trained by Elder Sang!

Wasn't the fire-type the origin system?

"Infernal Heavens!"

Without any hesitation, Xu Xiaoshou used the last bit of time to use this move that was almost forgotten by him.

Infernal Heavens. Everything within sight was ablaze!

However, Xu Xiaoshou's target was not Zhang Duoyu, who was charging toward him.

No matter how strong the Infernal Heavens were, it could only deal damage to Masters.

Since everything was ablaze, what would happen to the White Skeleton, which was about to go out of the flame, under this move?

"Hah!"

The white flame rose.

It was exactly as expected. It was like a seedling that was about to die after a violent wind. Under the pressure of the heavy flame, the flame in the White Bone Giant's eyes was ignited once again.

After feeling the power of the same origin, its strength immediately recovered to its peak.

It was not at the end of its tether.

What it lacked was only a little guiding power!

"Roar —"

With a furious roar, the huge guy smashed onto the ground and jumped into the sky at a suitable distance.

He inhaled.

His skull swelled.

“Puff!”

The heaven-toppling waterfall reappeared.

The fury in the White Skeleton’s eyes poured into the nine heavens.

...

“I’m in danger!”

Zhang Duoyu saw that the flaming waterfall behind her was about to catch up.

But she turned a blind eye to it.

To catch a thief, one must first catch the leader.

If this person hiding had a master-servant relationship with the White Skeleton, then no matter how she took on that big guy’s attack, it would be useless.

If the person hiding did not die.

The White Skeleton would never die!

And why would this person, who clearly had the White Skeleton as his spirit pet and had outstanding strength refused to show his face? Yet he chose to do a sneak attack...

Ha!

It was obvious just by thinking with his toes.

This person was definitely not at his peak condition!

With a palm strike, it didn’t matter whether it was the injured Cutting Path or the Sovereign that had slipped.

Death would be the final result!

“Run!”

Zhang Duoyu and the white flame waterfall attacked at the same time. Even if Xu Xiaoshou didn’t want to leave the Sky Screen anymore, he could only run at this moment.

He didn’t even dare to use his Yuan Mansion.

God knew if his Yuan Mansion would be able to perfectly maintain its elegant pebble form under the white flame.

“No need.”

Unlike Xu Xiaoshou’s panic.

Even if the person attacking him was a Sovereign, Yu Zhiwen was still unperturbed.

Xu Xiaoshou glanced sideways.

He didn't know how this little girl, who could only paddle under his wings in the past, could still be so bold at this moment.

However, he saw Yu Zhiwen once again put her palms together, and the secrets of Heaven surged.

"The Moon and the Stars Shift!"

The crescent mark in the nine heavens seemed to have disappeared.

The moment it disappeared, when Zhang Duoyu was about to face her, and when the sky-toppling flame waterfall washed over her, Xu Xiaoshou clearly felt that very familiar fluctuation.

"Spatial fluctuation?"

"Teleportation?"

...

"Boom!"

An explosion sounded in the air.

That small space that was completely locked onto by the energy flow, even if she couldn't see the person, Zhang Duoyu knew that the person was here.

With a palm strike, the space was shattered.

However.

There was nothing!

"Huh?"

Zhang Duoyu was dumbfounded.

This was the complete opposite of her judgment!

There was no time to think about it. Since her attack had failed, she could only settle for the second-best.

She turned around and a round shield immediately supported her. Zhang Duoyu's spiritual source instantly covered her entire body.

"Chi."

Facing the white toad that was spitting fire in the air, she only sneered.

"What can a trash beast fire do to me?!"

Chapter 483: Things That Yu Zhiwen Did Not Like

“Colorful!”

Xu Xiaoshou saw how arrogant Zhang Duoyu was, and the joy in his heart was overwhelming.

This woman would never have thought of it.

The real cause of Zhang Zhongmou’s death was not Yu Zhiwen’s Divine Array, nor was it his famed sword energy.

On the contrary.

The existence of the two of them in this battle was, at best, an exaggerated existence.

Without the White Skeleton’s deadly white flame, Zhang Zhongmou would not have been killed.

But Zhang Duoyu did not know that!

Under such circumstances, she thought that the White Skeleton had an owner, so she completely let down her guard against the big guy in front of her.

All of her attention had been placed on the unknown enemy that she could not attack, but she did not know when she had shifted her focus.

“Hide well. We must not be discovered.”

Xu Xiaoshou grabbed Yu Zhiwen’s hand and stared unblinkingly at the beautiful Zhang Duoyu who had lost her chance to escape and was about to be engulfed by the white flames.

Yu Zhiwen’s pale face lowered. When she saw Xu Xiaoshou’s hand, her pretty face could not help but blush slightly.

However, she did not struggle anymore.

No matter how hard she struggled, she would not be able to break free from this fellow’s strange strength.

“There’s no need to hide.”

“The teleportation of the ‘Soaring Great Moon’ was directly carried out through space displacement. Even the Sky Screen in the previous space was transferred over.”

“At that time, the two of them couldn’t discover our existence. Now, it’s even more impossible for them to discover us.”

Yu Zhiwen said confidently.

“Teleportation...”

Xu Xiaoshou calmed down slightly and said in confusion, “Since it’s teleportation, there must be spatial fluctuations. Masters might not be able to sense it, but the Sovereign will definitely be able to determine our position.”

Yu Zhiwen smiled and shook her head.

“That won’t happen. The fluctuations of the Divine Array during the replacement process will also be completely eliminated after the ‘Soaring Great Moon’ is formed.”

“My teleportation is silent.”

Xu Xiaoshou was speechless for a moment.

Wasn’t this Divine Array a little too powerful?

Not only did it bring the two of them to the other side of the battle at the critical moment, it completely avoided Zhang Duoyu’s attack.

Even the heaven-toppling flame waterfall that the White Skeleton was using, missed. It could only lock onto the beautiful woman.

From the beginning of the battle until now, Yu Zhiwen had never used a single attack.

Even so, with the help of the “Soaring Great Moon”, the battle was still going according to its original purpose under his control.

Strong!

The brave ones who charged into the battle were indeed respectable.

But with such a method, while strategizing and winning from a thousand miles away, it allowed Xu Xiaoshou to see the door to another world of battle.

Yu Zhiwen’s strength could clearly only be considered average.

But after a while...

Even if it was the Sovereign Zhang Duoyu, or the White Bone Giant who had killed the Sovereign, or Xu Xiaoshou who had always been by her side, they were all turned into chess pieces.

How the chess pieces moved, how the chess path was broken...

It all depended on a single thought!

...

“What the hell is this?”

The “Spirit Defense Shield” could deflect fire.

However, after deflecting the fire, the absolute high temperature around her that seemed to be able to ignite heaven and earth gave Zhang Duoyu a big scare.

“Pfft.”

At this moment, white flames splattered, and an obscure voice sounded from the spiritual source protection.

Zhang Duoyu swept her spiritual sense over it.

“How is this possible?”

She turned pale with fright.

With the Spirit Defense Shield isolating her, other than those mysterious and unpredictable energies, which one of them could get close to her?

Not to mention this white flame, which only came from the five elements, was the righteous power of Heaven and earth.

This kind of existence was clearly the specialty of the Spirit Defense Shield. How could it not be able to resist and cause the fire to rise?

“Darn it!”

Zhang Duoyu immediately increased her spiritual source output in an attempt to repel the white flames that seeped in from within.

However, as her spiritual source output increased, the white flames also seemed to have been added with oil and became even more vigorous.

“What the hell is this? This thing is specially used to burn spiritual sources?”

Zhang Duoyu finally realized something and wanted to directly cut off that portion of the ignited spiritual sources.

However, at that moment, her energy reserve suddenly felt a pain.

She used her spiritual sense to look inside.

At some point, that burning aura had already flowed along with the spiritual source and merged into her energy reserve!

This time, there was finally a hint of panic on Zhang Duoyu’s proud face.

This white flame could not only ignite spiritual sources, but it could also ignite the energy reserve that was known as the root of spiritual sources and the source of cultivation?

“Could it be...”

“Old Mou was struck by this move, right?”

Thinking back to the ending of Old Mou and his situation, Zhang Duyu couldn’t help but sigh.

It wasn’t hard to imagine that this conjecture might be the correct one.

With this, Zhang Duoyu’s face paled.

The overwhelming Inferno waterfall was simply too bewildering.

Anyone who saw such a large-scale indiscriminate attack would only choose to flee.

After all, it was not a single attack. As long as one defended the next corner, the opponent’s spiritual technique would be useless.

But that was the magical part of the white flame.

Its true attack was not the spectacular flame waterfall at all but the infinite high temperature.

Even if one could isolate space and the Way of the Heavens, it could still permeate space and the Way of the Heavens, igniting everything in its path!

...

Her face began to twitch.

Zhang Duoyu was not Zhang Zhongmou. She did not have the “Dim Sky Shadow”.

At this moment, she was hit by the white flames, and the pain in her body could not be relieved at all.

The only thing she could do was to use her willpower to hold on!

“Retreat!”

She shouted.

In desperation, she chose to borrow the Way of the Heavens’ power.

However, in the next second, Zhang Duoyu was in despair.

The Way of the Heavens’ power that had just gathered had not yet taken shape, but it was ignited by this terrifying fire and burned into nothingness.

“What kind of fire is this!”

Zhang Duoyu was in despair.

Her energy reserve began to tear, and her body began to melt. Unable to contain the pain, she slightly relaxed the Spirit Defense Shield in her hand.

“Boom!”

The sky full of flowing flames was poured all over her head.

This time, not only her energy reserve but even her physical body was ignited by the white flames.

“AH—”

A shrill scream reverberated in the air.

The degree of the scream was no less than the shrill scream of the ghost that came from the “Mysterious Sound Strike” just now.

However, the difference was that the sound waves could form an attack.

At this moment, Zhang Duoyu’s cry could only convey fear and deep despair.

“Huo Huo!”

“Huo Huo!”

After hearing this familiar cry, the White Skeleton finally stopped attacking and began to dance in the air.

This was the normal reaction that the enemy should have after using this move!

Every time he used this move, there was no chance for the battle to continue.

The little swordsman who had escaped earlier was completely unharmed. It was just an accident.

The same was true for the old man.

However, although he could penetrate his strength, he still died due to his wise and powerful moves.

So what if he could penetrate.

The temperature that no one would be on guard against was the true killing move of his white flame!

...

“Hiss –”

“Darn it!”

“This darn thing!”

Zhang Duoyu was like a mad demon.

She had only let go of the Spirit Defense Shield by accident, but the white flame had flowed into her body, and then it was out of control.

Her hands, her chest...

Her head, her whole body...

It had only been a few breaths, but her plump and delicate body had melted until only bits of flesh and bones were left.

The bloody mess could no longer be used to describe Zhang Duoyu’s miserable state after being watered by the white flames.

The white bones were dense, and then even the white bones were melted down, was the truly miserable state after being ignited.

“Break!”

“Break for me!”

Zhang Duoyu used all her methods.

But the moment she used her spiritual sources, it was immediately burned to ashes.

The moment the Way of the Heavens was used, it was immediately burned to ashes.

She couldn’t even use a single spiritual technique.

She couldn't even take a single step forward.

"How could this be..."

The White Skeleton spirit that had given up on struggling, Zhang Duoyu, could only cry.

It was clearly full of tricks and treasures.

But once it was touched by the white flame, it was all indirectly silenced.

It couldn't be used at all.

At this moment, she finally understood why Old Mou had died.

The White Skeleton's white flame was the absolute nemesis of spiritual cultivators.

Even if a Sovereign was ignited, it couldn't avoid the tragic situation of death and destruction.

"It's gone..."

Her naked eyes were completely burned, but even though she was blind, Zhang Duoyu could still lock onto the direction of the White Skeleton.

She never thought that her Sovereign cultivation would end in this White Cave.

Even at the last moment of her life, she had not been able to find out where the owner of the White Skeleton had gone.

However, where the hatred came from, it should go.

"I'll fight it out with you!"

She roared angrily and used all the strength in her body to ignite the soul flame among the white flames. Her entire body turned into a beam of spiritual light and shot toward the White Skeleton's dancing place.

...

"Self-destruct?"

Xu Xiaoshou looked at Zhang Duoyu's swollen white bones and suddenly understood something.

The Sovereign self-destructed?

He could only watch as the space became distorted and then directly disintegrated.

He could imagine that even if the two of them were still some distance away from Zhang Duoyu, once she successfully self-destructed, she would definitely be dragged into hell!

"Is this a nuclear bomb..."

"Run!"

Xu Xiaoshou no longer felt that the sky screen was safe.

He grabbed Yu Zhiwen's hand and wanted to send her directly into Yuan Mansion and then "take the easy way out" to escape.

But at this moment, a faint voice came from the side.

"Silent Moon."

Yu Zhiwen softly uttered these two words.

In the next moment, Zhang Duoyu, who had rushed in front of the White Skeleton and even her bones had swelled to the point of cracking, seemed to have been sucked dry of gas from the middle.

"Chi"

She was deflated.

Not only was she deflated, but even the fluctuations from the Way of the Heavens that were trembling violently in the surroundings had also wilted.

"This..."

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

Only then did he recall that when Zhang Duoyu had wanted to expand her bounded domain, she had been directly interrupted by Yu Zhiwen's move.

Now, even the self-detonation of the Sovereign could be forcefully suppressed?

"That's right!"

Xu Xiaoshou thought about it.

The essence of the self-detonation of the Sovereign was to absorb the Way of the Heavens' power, mess up the fight, and finally blow up one's path, okay?

And all the attacks that involved the Way of the Heavens.

If the Way of the Heavens in the outside world was lacking, how could one's move take shape?

How could fire self-ignite without oxygen?

Xu Xiaoshou glanced sideways and looked at the girl beside him in a daze. For a moment, he didn't know what to say.

"I said, there's no need to run."

The corner of Yu Zhiwen's mouth curled into a smile.

She knew what Xu Xiaoshou was thinking.

It was rare for this guy to be so surprised, so Yu Zhiwen became playful.

She patted Xu Xiaoshou's hand, indicating for him to let go of her. Then, she tiptoed slightly and gently touched the silly head of the young man in front of her.

“I’m here. You don’t have to be afraid.”

“Just lie down...”

Yu Zhiwen paused for a moment, and her pretty face turned red. She seemed to realize that her words might cause ambiguity, so she added.

“I’ll take you and fly.”

“Pampered, Passive Points, +1.”

“Dong.”

The White Skeleton shattered Zhang Duoyu’s remains with a single finger.

Under the white flame, no one could resist.

Even if the other party wanted to self-destruct in the end...

But who hadn’t tried self-destructing?

The White Skeleton God’s proudest moment in its life wasn’t the white flame that it disliked using, but the body of a Sovereign!

Perhaps to other creatures, the self-destruction of a Sovereign could cause a lot of damage.

But to the body of a Sovereign, at most, it was just a bit painful.

And pain...

The White Skeleton indicated that when it was still young.

Pain, such emotion had already been completely tormented by the thing in its head.

“Huo Huo!”

“Huo Huo!”

Although it did not understand why that human chose to self-destruct in the end, this did not affect the White Skeleton’s joy in crushing another ant queen.

It began to hop, jump, and spin.

It kept making weird noises and was very happy.

It was obvious that it was no match for two beings of the same level.

This achievement greatly satisfied its vanity.

“Huo.”

The White Skeleton suddenly stopped mid-scream.

It remembered.

Other than these two ants, the smaller ant that it was chasing was its real primary target.

However, with the addition of these two interludes.

For a moment, he even forgot where that fellow had flown to.

“Roar Roar!”

Feeling extremely depressed, the White Skeleton let out two loud cries as if it was venting its anger before suddenly lying on the ground.

It had released too much white flame.

It was tiring.

It suddenly wanted to sleep first.

Mm, then sleep!

“Huo Kuo Kuo...”

“Huo Kuo Kuo...”

...

Xu Xiaoshou was slightly dazed when he heard the snoring.

He had never thought that the White Skeleton would be so strong.

All he needed was for Yu Zhiwen to coordinate with it, and it would be able to directly kill the two great Sovereigns.

With the appearance of the two fellows from the Zhang Mansion, not to mention the fact that both sides were injured, they might not even be able to deal any damage.

Xu Xiaoshou knew very well that the Master Physique possessed considerable recovery ability.

Therefore, after these two battles, the body of the White Bone Giant might only consume a little of its physical strength and a little of its mental strength.

“Is it sleeping?”

“Huh?”

Yu Zhiwen looked back in shock.

Xu Xiaoshou was startled, then pointed into the distance and said, “I mean, it seems to be tired. Has it started sleeping?”

Only then did Yu Zhiwen recover from the giddy joy of teasing Xu Xiaoshou.

“Oh, I think so.”

“It has a fire. It shouldn’t be cold sleeping here.”

Since when did I care whether it would feel cold or not!

Helplessly covering his forehead, Xu Xiaoshou used his “Perception” to detect the few spoils of war on the ground.

The White Skeleton did not care about those at all but he had been eyeing them for a long time.

That whip, that shield...

There was also a ring from Old Zhang that was not burned by the white flame.

At this moment, they were all sitting not far away from the sleeping White Skeleton.

“You want them?”

Yu Zhiwen finally regained her senses and asked.

“Yes.”

Xu Xiaoshou was not confident that he could run out on his own.

The sky screen is covering them so he would not be discovered, and he would be fine.

If he were to run out on his own accord...

Even if the White Skeleton was currently in a state of sleep, he would probably be able to react in an instant.

No matter what, this fellow was still an existence at the level of a Sovereign.

Even if he didn’t have any spiritual senses or perception, he didn’t have much of a brain.

However, he definitely had a basic consciousness.

“The Sovereign ring... the white flame’s sudden appearance must mean that the old man still has a lot of treasures that have yet to appear.”

“The Zhang Mansion is in decline. It’s even more likely that he brought all of his wealth to the White Cave to look for him!”

“So...”

When Xu Xiaoshou thought of this, his eyes burned with passion.

“Can I?”

His eyes were burning as he looked at Yu Zhiwen.

“Sure.”

Yu Zhiwen nodded her head lightly.

It was the easiest thing to pick up an item within the Soaring Great Moon Divine Array.

With just a small hand seal, the ground didn't even have the slightest ripple before the ring disappeared.

"Here."

Yu Zhiwen passed the ring over.

Xu Xiaoshou excitedly stretched out his hand, but it suddenly stopped.

Logically speaking, this battle had been fought by Yu Zhiwen the entire time. He was an existence that was just paddling in the water.

How could the spoils of war fall into his hands in the end?

Human nature was greedy, but no matter how greedy one was, there had to be a bottom line!

Previously, when he had fought and Yu Zhiwen had watched, she hadn't taken anything either!

"Take it."

"This time, I was just a bystander. This thing shouldn't have fallen into my hands."

Xu Xiaoshou chose to reject.

Although it hurt, a person still had to have some principles.

"I don't need it."

Yu Zhiwen frowned and slapped the ring onto Xu Xiaoshou's hand. "Besides, I only did my best to change the outcome of the battle."

"The damage was done by the White Skeleton, and the person was also ended by you."

"Logically speaking, this ring should be yours."

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

"What you said makes sense..."

He flipped the ring back to Yu Zhiwen's hand. "But I can't accept it. Without your influence in the battle, there would be no victory."

"I don't need it."

Yu Zhiwen stubbornly flipped her hand, and the ring fell into Xu Xiaoshou's hand.

"You need it."

Xu Xiaoshou held her and flipped it again, and the ring fell back.

"I don't need it."

Flipped it again...

"You need it."

Again...

"I don't like it."

"You see..."

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned. "This?"

You don't like it?

Huh?

You don't like it?!

You don't play by the rules!

Yu Zhiwen pursed her red lips and arrogantly ended this meaningless argument.

She grabbed the ring and pretended to throw it away.

"If you don't want this ring, I'll throw it away."

"Hey, hey, hey!"

Xu Xiaoshou was anxious. He grabbed the girl's hand and glared at her. "You're squandering!"

"My family is big, and I have a family to squander!"

"You!"

"So you take it."

Yu Zhiwen's eyes were smiling as she placed the ring in Xu Xiaoshou's palm.

"I..."

Xu Xiaoshou held onto the ring, feeling mixed emotions.

What kind of feeling was this...

He had long gotten used to fighting alone.

All the things and resources could only be obtained by himself.

Even with Elder Sang behind him, that old fellow basically did not have much material support.

On the contrary, the mental torture and the gloriously named training were actually a lot.

But now...

For the first time, he had tasted victory by lying in the water. In the end, the spoils of war were even distributed to him. Xu Xiaoshou could not help but feel an indescribable feeling in his heart.

He finally understood why many young people did not want to work hard.

This feeling of eating the marrow and knowing the taste was too easy to get addicted to.

Perhaps, he would no longer rely on himself and choose to live off another person... cough, choose a partner. Along the way, he would have the support of noble people.

This, was this the correct path that should exist on this long road of spiritual cultivation?

“Little Yu...”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes were filled with tears, and his voice was filled with gratitude.

“Hmm?”

Yu Zhiwen tilted her head, her starry eyes were smiling, and her willow-like eyebrows were arched.

“Do you really not like this ring?”

“Yes.”

“Then...”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the lady in front of him, and then at her peerless face. He pointed at the ground and said, “You probably don’t like those two things either, right?”

“Cursed. Passive Points, +1.”

“I don’t like them!”

She said unhappily.

With a wave of her hand, the two heavy weapons on the ground landed in Xu Xiaoshou’s hands.

“Thank you.”

Xu Xiaoshou received sincere gratitude.

This was the most basic courtesy of a person. After receiving benefits, one would have to thank them and add gratitude. “You’re a good person.”

“... you’re welcome.”

Yu Zhiwen didn’t mind. She only had one goal for this trip.

Any investment at this stage would be a powerful tool to bring away Xu Xiaoshou.

Moreover...

Seeing that this fellow was softer than her, Yu Zhiwen felt a very comfortable feeling in her heart.

She couldn’t tell what kind of feeling it was.

But it was comfortable. That was right.

Xu Xiaoshou liked it?

Gift it!

Xu Xiaoshou wanted it?

Give!

As long as this person followed the Fourth Sword and returned to the Holy Divine Palace together.

Everything would be perfect!

“Now, what do you plan to do?”

Yu Zhiwen looked at the things that Xu Xiaoshou had put away happily.

“Can you walk?”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the sleeping White Skeleton and said seriously, “Can your spiritual array trap it and let the two of us run away?”

“Yes.”

Yu Zhiwen nodded, “Although the White Skeleton’s combat strength is high, its intelligence is much lower than that of humans. Even if the array pattern of the Divine Array is revealed, it wouldn’t know what it is.”

“Trapping it is an order.”

“The main thing is, it is trapped. Which way should we go?”

Yu Zhiwen remembered that Xu Xiaoshou had a target.

If she was not wrong, this target should be this big guy in front of her.

But...

It was unrealistic!

After seeing the real combat strength of this thing, Yu Zhiwen knew that even Xu Xiaoshou would not be able to defeat it completely.

Not to mention taking the fire seed in its skull.

“Let’s go...”

Xu Xiaoshou muttered and fell into deep thought.

The Advanced Infernal Fire Seed was definitely not going to be obtained in a short time.

If he really wanted to fight this big guy, he would have to wait until he found the ring treasure.

At that time, he would definitely let this guy have a taste of running for his life...

So now.

If he couldn’t win, which direction would he run to?

Xu Xiaoshou looked around and finally fixed his gaze on the direction he came from.

“That strange treasure that Qu Qing-er mentioned, if nothing goes wrong, it should be this big guy guarding it.”

“Since this guy is so tired that he won’t even return home...”

“Our next location, isn’t it obvious?”

Chapter 484: His Name Was Wen Ming

Outside the Eighth Palace.

In the wilderness.

The tent of the Red Coat rustled in the cold wind.

The rain poured down.

In recent days, other than the day when the White Cave extradimensional space opened, the rest of the days almost rained continuously.

This place was already quite desolate.

As the White Cave opened, the number of people staying decreased sharply, and the surroundings became even more gloomy.

Hum!

In the secondary tent, a wheel suddenly shook violently, waking up the drowsy Red Coat guard.

It was a middle-aged man wearing a hood. His hands were curled up between his sleeves, and he was drooling.

However, when the wheel shook violently, he bounced up as if he had been electrocuted.

“He’s here?”

The Red Coat couldn’t hide his panic.

Lan Ling, the Red Coat manager of the White Cave, had once said that this “Heaven Origin Spirit Detecting Wheel” was used to detect the stowaways above the Cutting Path Stage.

In a radius of 30 miles, as long as someone above this level appeared, the Heaven Origin Spirit Detecting Wheel could instantly sense them.

Now, Lan Ling, Xin, and the Night Guardian had all entered the White Cave.

Only Lord Black Soul was left in charge of this place.

“Someone, quickly invite Black Soul...”

The Red Coat man only called out once, and the tent’s curtain was immediately lifted by a hand covered in black armor.

“Lord Black Soul!”

The man immediately bowed.

“What’s the matter?”

Black Soul was a man fully equipped in black armor, and his face could not be seen at all. His voice was deep and powerful.

The Red Coat that was worn by others was draped over his shoulders.

The coat that was long enough to drag the ground barely touched his calves under his tall and muscular body. It fluttered in the wind.

He lowered his head and entered the tent.

Four Red Coat men entered the tent one after another and stood to the left and right.

With a rumble, the silver snakes in the nine heavens danced. The rain became even heavier.

“The Heaven Origin Spirit Detecting Wheel has moved!”

Red Coat Shen An looked at Lord Black Soul, who was two heads taller than a normal person, and his heart settled. He pointed at the wheel, and his voice stabilized.

Black Soul’s eyes, which were hidden under his helmet, looked over, only to see that the wheel was extremely quiet.

“Are you sure that it has moved?”

He lowered his voice again and Shen An felt his legs go soft.

“It moved. It definitely moved once just now. I couldn’t have seen wrongly.”

“What were you doing just now?” Black Soul turned around.

“I...”

Shen An’s face immediately turned red.

He had been sleeping just now.

Because he had been worrying day and night, he had been afraid that this thing would move.

So, what he saw was an illusion?

“It can’t be an illusion!”

Shen An said seriously, “Although I was in a state of dozing off just now, but...”

“Dozing off?”

Black Soul’s tone became a little higher.

The Red Coat attendants behind him raised their eyes at the same time. The cold wind outside the tent blew, directly sending the murderous intent that filled the sky into this small space.

Shen An's strong outer shell directly shattered.

He sat back on his seat with a thump.

But when he thought of Lord Black Soul was still standing, how could he sit down?

He jumped up and took a step forward. His hand supported the back of his seat, and only then did he stand up straight.

"I'm certainly not mistaken!"

"The 'Heaven Origin Spirit Detecting Wheel' has moved, and it caused a huge tremor. In other words, more than one Cutting Path may have entered the White Cave boundary."

"At this moment, the area within a radius of 30 kilometers should be searched carefully."

"It's my fault for dozing off, but I should also be punished after the event."

He forced himself to stick out his head.

However, his tone became weaker along with the cold killing intent in the air.

"Are you teaching me how to do things?"

Black Soul did not move. He directly walked in front of Shen An and lifted his neck. Only when the person in his hand was flushed red did he say in a cold voice.

"You people are spoiled by Lan Ling."

"Such a good Red Coat organization has grown into such a lazy and exhausted state. What a disgrace!"

With a bang, the spiritual power in his hand struck out. Shen An flew backward like a cannonball. He spat out a mouthful of blood in the air and then smashed into the barrier of the tent.

"Pu."

The human body slid down.

Shen An felt as if his throat had been crushed as he spat out blood again.

"The power of a Red Coat is not used to hit our people!"

He coughed twice.

Shen An raised his head once again with a resentful expression.

Although it was difficult to speak.

His tone was a little more forceful.

"This is the reason why you, Black Soul, was dismissed."

"If Lord Lan Ling was here, she definitely wouldn't have attacked so indiscriminately!"

He was furious in his heart.

“Attacked...”

Black Soul sneered.

“Reward those who deserve it, punish those who deserve it.”

“You almost made a mistake, yet you want to make up for it and punish those who deserve it later?”

“If there is such a good thing in the world, wouldn’t the people who did harm be forgiven by Heaven and earth?”

“Ridiculous!”

His finger gently swept across the Peeping Tom.

In the dark space, Black Soul’s gaze was so cold that it could devour people.

He bypassed the few people beside him and arrived in front of the wheel. He stopped and started to ponder.

“The Sovereign’s perception can’t be wrong...”

“Although Lan Ling has been doing nothing, there is nothing to say about the Way of Spirit Array...”

“So, Cutting Path or higher void...”

Black Soul placed both his hands on the wheel and injected spiritual sources into it.

After a moment of buzzing, a light screen was projected from the void.

“Three people!”

At this moment, everyone’s line of sight was taken away by the three figures on the screen.

However, before they could see the faces of those people clearly, the screen shook and disappeared.

Even the wheel that was trembling violently returned to its calm state.

“They sensed it?”

Black Soul’s heart trembled.

Even though they were so far away and the Way of the Heavens was acting as a cover, those three fellows were actually able to sense the existence of the “Heaven Origin Spirit Detecting Wheel” with such keen senses!

“I already said that there was someone...”

Before the overjoyed Shen An could finish his sentence, Black Soul’s gaze swept over him and he was instantly silenced.

“Shut up, you derelict!”

The rain fell, and the entire place fell silent.

“Lord Black Soul, what are your plans?”

The four Red Coat men behind him couldn't help but speak.

Although the Red Coat men had come from the White Cave, each of them had their faction.

However, when faced with a place like the White Cave, where accidents often occurred, everyone had to stick together at a critical moment to solve the problem.

“The three Cutting Paths...”

Black Soul immediately assumed the worst-case scenario.

If it was the three great Cutting Path, then he could only withstand two people at most.

If the remaining one was left to the dozens of Sovereigns here to deal with.

He reckoned that even if he could succeed in the end, countless people would die.

Black Soul's heart settled. He raised his head and said to the four people in front of him, “First lock down all the space in this place to prevent people from sneaking in. Then open the protective spiritual array in the Eighth Palace. The rest, come with me...”

His voice suddenly stopped.

“Where to?”

The four Red Coat men were stunned.

Why did he stop halfway through his words?

“Just that scene just now... Lord Black Soul, could it be that you have already figured out where they are?” someone asked.

“Yo!”

A high-pitched voice suddenly came from outside the curtain.

“How long has it been, and we still haven't found them!”

“Not to mention your Lord Black Soul, even you silly fools should know where he is now.”

“Who!” The Red Coat man turned his head in horror and shattered the curtain with his spiritual force.

However, there was no one outside the door except for the pouring rain.

“Here.”

A high-pitched male voice appeared inside.

The four Red Coat men looked sideways and saw an extremely slim man in a red dress half-squatting in front of the Red Coat man who was lying on the ground and slowly extending his orchid finger.

“Get up, the ground is very cold. I'll give you a hand.”

Shen An was so frightened that his entire body trembled twice.

He was clearly already in front of him, but he actually waited until his voice came out before he completely discovered this person's existence!

Cutting Path!

It was definitely a Cutting Path!

This person's comprehension of the Way of the Heavens might even have reached the peak of Cutting Path, and was an existence on the same level as Lord Black Soul!

With a bang, the floor under Shen An's butt exploded, and he was about to fly towards Lord Black Soul.

At this time, how could there be any Red Coat faction to speak of?

To be able to let him live, he was the best leader!

However, before he could fly far, Shen An felt something grab his clothes and pull him back.

"Why are you running?"

"Did I scare you because I don't look pretty?"

When Shen An came back to his senses, he realized that he had already sat on the thigh of the man in the red dress.

The man in the red dress was very tall.

As soon as he sat on the chair, a pair of beautiful long legs appeared in front of everyone.

Shen An could only touch it with his buttocks, and he could feel the absolute heat of the male hormones underneath.

Coupled with the delicate sound by his ears...

He could not control himself at all. Goosebumps rose from his feet to his head.

"Hehehe, are you afraid?"

The man in the red dress covered his mouth and chuckled. "Don't be afraid. With me around, no one can hurt you..."

His voice suddenly paused. His gaze fixed on Shen An's face, and he seemed to be in a daze.

"Brother, you're so handsome..."

"TSS—"

This time, Shen An felt as if not only was his body covered in chicken skin, but even his soul felt as if it had been touched by ice water, and he almost ascended into the sky.

"Darn, get lost!"

Shen An struggled with all his might, but he realized that the power in his body was no longer usable.

It was as if his soul and body were separated.

He could only watch helplessly as his body became softer and softer as the other party hugged him tighter and tighter, sinking bit by bit.

“What the heck!”

“What had happened?!”

“Black Soul!”

“Lord Black Soul, save me –”

Shen An roared.

But in the end, he realized.

No matter how much he tried to cry for help, nobody else could hear his voice!

“Black Soul...”

He was desperate.

Way of the Heavens!

This was the isolation power of the Way of the Heavens!

Under such absolute control, his cultivation at the Sovereign level couldn't even resist at all.

This was a true Cutting Path expert.

A peerless existence that could not be resisted by numbers.

“Lord Black Soul, Shen An he...”

The four Red Coat men looked at Shen An in the arms of the Red Coat man and were completely shocked.

From the moment the red dress man approached, Shen An flew up and into that guy's arms, everything was smooth and natural.

They even suspected that Shen An was a spy.

He was the one who called the man in the red dress.

Black Soul did not respond.

The four of them realized that something was wrong.

“Lord Black Soul?”

They called out again, but Black Soul still did not respond.

This time, everyone panicked.

“Alert!”

“Enemy attack –”

The alert and the cry for help instantly resounded through the void.

However, in the past, as long as they shouted, there would definitely be a response from the Red Coat camp base.

At this moment, there was no sound at all!

The four people’s hearts turned cold at the same time.

The person who came this time was actually not an ordinary Cutting Path expert.

Instead, he was an existence who had used the Way of the Heaven to its highest level.

Such a person, let alone a Sovereign.

If an ordinary Red Coat Cutting Path expert came over, he would most likely be courting death!

At this moment, they could only place their hopes on Lord Black Soul in front of them.

“Lord Black Soul!”

“Black...”

“So noisy! So noisy!”

The red dress man was helping Shen An wipe off the saliva on his face that had yet to be wiped off. He rolled his eyes at the noisy fellows.

“Your Lord Black Soul can’t even take care of himself. How would he have the time to save you?”

He waved his hand, and the void isolation was unlocked.

The four Red Coat people were shocked at the same time.

Above Black Soul’s head, a dark dragon head that was thousands of feet in size was currently at the top of the tent of a demigod.

The dragon’s mouth opened wide.

Below it was Lord Black Soul, who had been submerged by endless saliva.

“This...”

From the looks of the situation, didn’t it mean that once the dragon head closed, Black Soul’s head would be separated from his body?

The faces of the four Red Coat men instantly turned extremely pale.

What kind of existence was this?

Even Lord Black Soul had been taken down unknowingly?

Was this still Cutting Path?

Could it be that the person who had come had already reached that supreme realm?

Higher Void?

“Brother Black Soul!”

The red dress man finally turned his gaze towards the armored man in front of him and softly called out, “Long time no see.”

“Storyteller...”

Black Soul’s heart sank to the bottom.

He expected the strength of the person who came before.

But he did not expect that the person who came was actually a Saint Servant who had stirred up trouble in the central region at that time!

The nine Saint Servants all had extremely high cultivation.

And the Storyteller in front of him was ranked seventh.

How could he contend against such an existence?

Even though he knew that the person in front of him had yet to reach the higher void stage.

But how could the gap between two Cutting Paths be so narrow?

At the very least, he did not dare to touch the Nine Death Thunder Calamity before he reached the higher void stage.

Just by looking at this comprehension of the Way of the Heavens, the Storyteller was probably not far from the final tribulation!

And for him to appear here.

This meant that all the Red Coat people in the tent couldn’t have the chance to come over and support him.

But...

Black Soul was confused.

There must be one of the three figures he saw in the wheel.

But why could someone who was dozens of miles away be teleported to the Red Coat tent without triggering the alarm?

Was it the same person!

Or was there a spy among the Red Coats?

“Brother Black Soul, stop guessing.”

The Storyteller held Shen An and shifted his position. Then, he pointed at the wheel and said, "Open the projection for me first. I want to see where my brother is."

Black Soul was so angry that he was trembling.

He felt humiliated.

A moment ago, he thought that he could take on two people by himself.

Now, he felt that he was completely out of his mind.

How was this an existence where he could fight against two people by himself?

This was something that he could not do even if he went up and pulled a strand of hair down with him!

"Open it!"

The Storyteller tugged at his red dress, allowing his jade-like legs to be exposed to the light. They were shiny and pleasing to the eye.

Black Soul tried to struggle, but the moment this thought flashed through his mind, the man in the red dress in front of him spoke again.

"Don't think about finding him!"

"Your White-clothed helpers haven't arrived yet. At this moment, you're like clay bodhisattvas crossing the river. You can't even protect yourselves."

"If you don't cooperate with them, they'll strip them one by one. They'll strip you too and tie you up here until the Red Coat men come out to rescue you."

He paused for a moment and said, "Don't worry. My brother said that we can't kill people, so as long as you cooperate, they won't die."

"But if they don't..."

"Hehe!"

The Storyteller covered his mouth and chuckled. His gaze moved around the Red Coats, revealing an exciting glow.

Black Soul remained silent.

He carried the dragon head on his head and slowly took a few steps forward, reaching out to touch the wheel.

The Storyteller took out an ancient book from his chest at the right time, placed it on Shen An's face, and looked at him with a smile.

Black Soul hesitated for a moment.

"Shua!"

The light curtain appeared.

The patter of rain entered the tent again.

“Whoa!”

Only then did the other Red Coat men feel that they had been released from another space. They panted heavily, and their faces were still in shock.

“Smart.”

The Storyteller praised and lowered his head to look at Shen An.

Shen An felt that he might as well not be released.

The moment his soul returned to his body, he felt the heat coming from the pair of jade-like legs below him, almost scalding him.

“I...”

“Brother, you don’t have to speak.” The Storyteller caressed his face.

“Hiss!”

Shen An had not moved when the four Red Coat men in the distance shuddered and sucked in a breath of cold air.

This...

Fortunately, the red dress man did not fancy the four of them!

This was really... was it something worth celebrating or not?

“Ta-ta-ta.”

After the image appeared clearly, a soft sound was heard.

Everyone turned their heads in unison and fixed their gazes on the wheel.

In the next second, everyone’s faces were filled with shock.

They saw that there were still three people walking on the barren ground!

Other than the Masked Man in the lead.

Following closely behind was an old man with a small ax at his waist, as well as...

A man in a red dress!

Everyone tilted their heads in disbelief.

This man in a red dress was clearly sitting in front of them. Why was there another person in the picture?

Faced with such attention, the Storyteller seemed to be shy and covered his pretty face with his orchid-like fingers.

“Why are you looking at me like this...”

“Do I look good?”

“Hiss!”

They turned their heads away at the same time and did not dare to take another look, afraid that they would attract a crime in the next second.

Black Soul stared at the scene and could not speak for a long time.

The Chief Saint Servant!

The fourth chief saint servant, Cen Qiaofu!

The seventh chief saint slave, the Storyteller!

If this lineup was placed in any forbidden grounds in the central region, it would be enough to cause a world-shaking wave. How did it appear in a mere White Cave?

Was the Fourth Sword so attractive?

And...

He stole a glance at the man in the red dress who had already touched Shen An’s chest.

“An avatar...”

“Isn’t this a technique that only demi-saints can master?”

...

“Brother!”

“Brother, we’re here! We’re here!”

The Storyteller pointed at the collapsed gate of the Eight Palace ahead and excitedly held onto the arm of the Masked Man.

“How’s the situation?” Cen Qiaofu asked without turning his head.

“Brother, the Eight Palace should be ahead. We’ve been rushing for so long, and we’ve finally arrived!”

“Are you happy?”

The Storyteller bent his body slightly and raised his head, looking at the Masked Man with stars in his eyes.

The corner of Cen Qiaofu’s mouth twitched, and he said while holding his breath, “Storyteller, let me ask you, how’s the situation?!”

“Come, come, come. This place had collapsed. It doesn’t look like it was struck by lightning. There must have been a fight earlier.”

“And there...”

The Storyteller pointed into the distance. "They saw the location of the teleportation array."

He slightly tightened his grip on the small ax on his waist.

The Masked Man moved his hand backward to stop him.

"How's the situation on your side?"

The voice was so hoarse that it sounded like it had been sawed by a chainsaw. It was so piercing that everyone outside the scene felt their scalps go numb.

"It's pretty good. We're watching us chatting!" The Storyteller smiled sweetly.

Cen Qiaofu finally could not hold it in anymore.

"Storyteller, can you talk about people..."

The Masked Man suddenly raised his hand.

The scene fell silent.

"What's wrong?"

Cen Qiaofu was shocked.

"Brother, what's wrong?"

The Storyteller said worriedly.

"Nothing."

The Masked Man put down his hand. "You guys are a little noisy."

Cen Qiaofu felt lonely.

"Yeah."

"Brother, you're so bad!"

The Storyteller clenched his fist and was about to hit the Masked Man's chest.

The latter flashed and disappeared.

When he reappeared, he was already at the remains of the Eight Palace's gate.

"Aiya, Brother, wait for me!"

The Storyteller pinched his elbow, raised his orchid finger, and sprinted over.

Cen Qiaofu saw everything and gritted his teeth.

Even the veins on his neck were almost bursting.

"Don't look, don't look..."

"Don't be angry, don't be angry..."

“Huff.”

“Suck!”

“Old Woodcutter, you’re badmouthing me again!” The Storyteller suddenly turned around in the rain and said in embarrassment and anger, “We’ve been watched!”

Cen Qiaofu almost chopped off the face of the red dress with his ax.

“Shut up.”

The Masked Man spoke again.

He squatted down and picked up a stone on the ground.

“What’s wrong?”

This time, the two of them did not dare to act recklessly.

The chief must have noticed something by his words and actions.

“Sword energy...”

A hint of a smile appeared in the Masked Man’s turbid eyes. “He really came.”

“Who?”

The Storyteller keenly hugged the Masked Man’s hand and was filled with jealousy. “A man or a woman?”

The Masked Man pulled his hand away and moved his feet. He said, “A man. You should like him. A very handsome young man.”

“Oh?”

The Storyteller’s eyes immediately lit up.

“Who is it that can earn my Brother’s appreciation? I want to go and see him?”

He paused for a moment and said, “But brother, don’t worry. I’m just going to see him. I won’t make you jealous.”

“It’s okay. You go ahead. This is also part of the plan.”

“It’s best if you can bring him back completely.” The smile in the Masked Man’s eyes grew wider.

“Oh?”

This time, even Cen Qiaofu was surprised.

Sword energy?

Young man?

He immediately thought of the hedgehog he bumped into when he barged into the Tiansang Spirit Palace that night.

It was the first time he had met a person who could make the Chief reject such a kind invitation.

So, that guy was also a swordsman?

However, there was only one swordsman in the world who could catch the Chief's eye!

That hedgehog...

"Bring him back?"

The Storyteller's loud and clear voice pierced through everyone's eardrums.

He could not believe it.

Bringing him back meant bringing back the Saint Servant.

So, the little guy that his brother had taken a fancy to had already become so outstanding?

"What's his name?"

Even though they hadn't met, the Storyteller felt his heart beating faster.

"Let's go in first. When the time comes, we'll split up."

The Masked Man said and looked at Cen Qiaofu, "We're not going to use the teleportation array. Let's just kill him!"

Cen Qiaofu nodded.

The Storyteller wasn't happy. He grabbed Cen Qiaofu's hand that was pulling the ax.

"Brother!"

"Tell what's his name first?"

Cen Qiaofu's face darkened. He felt as if he had been defiled. He bounced away as if he had been electrocuted. "Storyteller, don't touch me with your dirty hands!"

"Hmph, I'll touch, I'll touch!" The red-dressed man angrily grabbed the Old Woodcutter's hand.

"Get lost —"

"I'll touch, aiya, it's so rough!"

"Me! I'll cut you!"

"Come on, chase me!"

The Masked Man had a headache.

This was the consequence of the Storyteller suddenly running over.

Two people who did not get along together always gave people a headache.

“What’s his name?”

The Storyteller ran and ran behind the Masked Man again. He grabbed his shoulder and exhaled beside his ear.

“Say it, say it!”

His eyes were filled with anticipation. The Storyteller urged him, “What’s his name?”

The Masked Man finally could not help but react. As if he was using a shield, he blurted out, “Wen Ming, his name is Wen Ming. He is very outstanding. You can go and meet him!”

Chapter 485: The Person Riding on Aje

In the White Cave.

Two people of similar height, both very short, walked leisurely on the road.

“Aje, Aje, when do you think we’ll reach the end? This White Cave doesn’t have a map, nor does it have Xu Xiaoshou. We have no direction at all!”

“...”

“Aje, Aje, you know Xu Xiaoshou, which is also your Ma Ma. Where do you think he’s at?”

“...”

“Aje, Aje, why aren’t you saying anything?”

“...”

Aje finally twisted his head slightly.

“Ma Ma...”

Mu Zixi sighed deeply.

She had never thought that the teleportation portal inside the White Cave would be a random teleportation array.

This wave directly separated her and Xu Xiaoshou.

For a moment, she didn’t know where to go.

It was a coincidence that she met Aje on the way.

This fellow was like a fool. He didn’t say anything and just silently crossed his arms and stood on the spot as if he was obeying some orders.

Beside him, were scattered white bone fragments and a bunch of broken weapons.

It was thought that even Aje had suffered a lot of attacks after entering the White Cave.

Mu Zixi was different.

After entering the White Cave, she seemed to have some mysterious guidance. She had seldom met any enemies.

Moreover, every few hours, she could see an illusory spatial crack in the distance.

It seemed to be transmitting a thread of thought.

It was nothing more than for her to take a look.

But Mu Zixi didn't dare to?

When this kind of inexplicable thing came out, she thought of the so-called "Source of the World" that she had swallowed.

In the beginning, she was indeed tempted by the call from the depths.

After all, that might be a power that could allow her to directly transform.

However...

"Continue to move forward."

Another voice would appear in her mind from time to time to annoy her.

As long as she had the impulse to change direction, that fellow would definitely appear.

This was a female voice.

It was the complete opposite of her style. It was filled with a charming and mysterious flavor.

"Sister?"

Mu Zixi tried calling out in her heart.

However, ever since this mysterious consciousness awakened, she had only spoken to her a few times.

The rest would only appear occasionally when she made a major mistake.

"Who are you..."

Mu Zixi was depressed.

She had never thought that there would be a second consciousness in a body.

Fortunately, that consciousness didn't seem to disturb her.

But this seemed to be gradually changing over time.

Strictly speaking, after swallowing the Source of the World last time.

The other party had become even stronger.

Or, it couldn't be said that it was the other party, but her.

"Open!"

Mu Zixi's eyelids, which were hidden under the bamboo hat, lifted.

Suddenly, a black and white fog surged out of her eyes, which were supposed to be innocent.

One was Yin and one was Yang, one was good and one was evil.

When these eyes appeared, Mu Zixi could clearly sense the Way of the Heaven's aura within a radius of dozens of miles.

She had clearly not reached the Master's level yet, but in her heart, she had a feeling that a Master's level was only so-so.

The little girl clenched her fists.

After her eyes changed, she felt that her body had been divided into two parts.

If she used the white power, she could feel that the spiritual energy in the world seemed to be used for her own purposes.

If she used the black power...

Mu Zixi didn't dare to touch this power.

Because the moment she touched it, she felt another consciousness awakening crazily.

She seemed to want to occupy all of her!

"God Devil Eyes..."

The little girl murmured.

This pair of eyes was called "God Devil Eyes", which she learned from her memory.

When half of the "Source of the World" was absorbed, she would be able to completely control this power.

And if she guessed correctly.

The first awakening of this power was when she was in the Tiansang Spirit Palace, when the blind man attacked her, she had a high fever...

After that high fever, she seemed to have broken the Dean's confinement.

At that time, she must have used the power of the 'God Demon Eyes'.

But...

"Why?"

Mu Zixi couldn't understand it.

Why did she have a high fever?

And why could she break the Dean's confinement?

Also, that blind man...

Mu Zixi fell into deep thought.

“Do I have a relationship with him?”

She couldn't be blamed for thinking so much.

It was because when Ye Xiaotian was confined, the black and white fog in his eyes resembled his “God Demon Eyes” at that moment.

“Xu Xiaoshou...”

Mu Zixi cried out in disappointment.

Aje was too boring.

She needed Xu Xiaoshou to come over and quarrel by her ears.

If there was a chance, it seemed that he could solve her problems?

“Continue moving forward.”

The voice in her mind appeared again.

As expected, she got a negative answer?

Mu Zixi was stubborn.

“I want to talk to him!”

“Continue moving forward.”

“I don't want to, I want to go to the left!”

“Continue moving forward.”

“I'll retreat!”

Mu Zixi took a step back.

“Ouch.”

The next second, she immediately hugged her head.

It hurts...

She's acting like a demon again...

SOB SOB SOB SOB, Xu Xiaoshou, I've been bullied, where are you...

...

“Bang Bang!”

From time to time, explosions could be heard in the distance.

Mu Zixi, who had activated her “God Demon Eyes”, wanted to see what was going on, but her strength was too low, so she couldn’t use much of the power of these eyes.

In front of her, other than the White Skeleton, there was a wasteland.

“Such a loud explosion, it should be Xu Xiaoshou...”

“The loud explosion earlier was also caused by him, but it was too slow...”

Mu Zixi was very sad.

The last time she had rushed there, there was only a huge pit and countless traces of explosions from the battle.

From the looks of it, it must have been caused by Xu Xiaoshou.

However, it was too late.

“Aje, let’s go and find your Ma Ma!”

Mu Zixi calmed down and no longer cared about the sharp pain in her mind. She patted Aje’s shoulder and walked towards the explosion in the distance.

“Ma Ma...”

Aje lowered his head and looked at the shoulder that had been patted. A red light flashed in his eyes and his hands almost stopped hugging his chest.

However, he remembered Xu Xiaoshou’s warning:

“First, if anything happens and I’m not by your side, you must not act rashly. Just hug your chest and wait for me. Unless someone else makes a move, you must not start a fight. Otherwise, I will ignore you.”

“Second, my friend, who you often see, even if he touches you, you must understand it as a joke. You must not act rashly. Otherwise, I will ignore you.”

“Third, don’t call me Ma Ma.”

Aje vaguely remembered that he had used the word “Ma Ma” to confirm Ma Ma’s request.

Ma Ma, on the other hand, was holding her head with her hands on her forehead. She looked as if she was talking to a cow.

He had actually remembered it.

Really.

...

“Aje, Aje, quickly follow me. We are going to meet your Ma Ma!”

Mu Zixi was rushing ahead. When she turned around and saw that no one was following her, she immediately waved her hand.

“Ma Ma...”

Aje muttered and suddenly put down his arm. The red light in his eyes shone brightly and directly shot through the straw hat.

“Aje?”

Mu Zixi was shocked.

She also recalled Xu Xiaoshou’s exhortation to her and Xin Gugu:

“If we get separated in the White Cave, try to avoid Aje if you encounter him without me. Just remember his location and wait for me to arrive.”

Mu Zixi wasn’t afraid.

Aje had always been very obedient.

However, his abnormal behavior at this moment was somewhat unexpected.

“What’s wrong?”

She asked as she walked to Aje’s side.

“Ma Ma...”

Aje looked at her calmly. He suddenly turned his head and looked in the direction he came from.

“Who is it?”

Mu Zixi looked over vigilantly.

At the end of her line of sight, she saw a little monk that was about the same height as the two of them slowly walking over.

This small monk was wearing a red robe.

On his neck was a string of black Buddhist beads.

The Buddhist beads were strangely big.

Each Buddhist bead was as big as half of his head.

There were a total of eighteen Buddhist beads connected, and they were almost hanging to the ground.

Such a huge Buddhist bead... if nothing unexpected happens, it should be stolen from his master... Mu Zixi thought.

The little monk was still holding a Buddhist monk’s staff in his hand.

The staff was black, and devilish energy seemed to be lingering above it.

With just a glance, Mu Zixi could feel an aura of the same origin.

Half of her God Demon Eyes was also filled with this kind of power.

She continued to look behind her. The little monk's short figure couldn't block the monk's knife on his back at all.

The monk's knife was golden and shone with Buddhist light.

With just a glance, Mu Zixi felt that this item was extremely expensive.

If she were to sell it...

"Amitabha."

The little monk hadn't even taken two steps, but he had already arrived in front of the two of them.

He stopped thirty feet away and slightly placed his feet together.

He lowered his head to take a look and shifted the excess of his right foot back to stand in parallel.

Following that, the little monk swept a glance at Aje and his gaze landed on Mu Zixi.

"Hello, female benefactor. My name is Bu Le."

Monk Bu Le bowed and greeted her.

Mu Zixi heard the old aura that was squeezed out from the young and tender voice and was immediately amused.

"Hello, Master Bu Le. Are you lost?"

"Master?"

Just as Monk Bu Le was about to speak, he heard this title and was slightly stunned.

In the next second, his red lips and white teeth couldn't hide the pride in his heart.

The corner of his mouth twitched, and Monk Bu Le's brows and eyes were so happy that they curved into a line. There were also many wrinkles... Hmm, laughing lines!

"I don't dare to accept it, I don't dare to accept it. I, Bu Le, don't dare to accept it." The little monk tried his best to suppress his laughter, but he couldn't hide it at all.

"You dress like a great master!"

Mu Zixi revealed her canine teeth and couldn't contain her joy.

This little monk was too funny!

He clearly had the expression of someone who would ascend to heaven if he was flattered, yet he still pretended to be so deep.

It was fine if he pretended.

His words and actions were completely at odds with his face full of smiles.

"Female benefactor, don't call me... a Master. I can't bear it."

The little monk stabbed the black Buddhist staff into the floor. He cupped his face and turned his head back. Only when the smile disappeared did he turn his head back with a serious expression.

"I'm not lost. I specially came here."

"Oh?"

Mu Zixi raised her eyebrows. "You know me?"

"I don't."

Monk Bu Le said solemnly, "I am here to resolve your ill-fated relationship."

"Ill-fated relationship?"

Mu Zixi covered her mouth and smiled. "Master Bu Le, May I ask what ill-fated relationship I have?"

"Oh..."

Monk Bu Le's smile instantly bloomed again.

He turned his head once again and used his hand to cover the smile on his face as much as possible. Only then did he turn his head and say, "A very strong ill-fated relationship originated from your eyes."

"UH."

Mu Zixi's smile froze.

She looked at the monk in front of her again and hesitated.

"Who are you?"

"I am Monk Bu Le."

"You don't know me so why are you looking for me?"

"To eliminate the ill-fated relationship."

"Whether I have an ill-fated relationship or not, it has nothing to do with you!"

"I want to cultivate."

"..."

Mu Zixi's face stiffened.

Cultivate?

To cultivate by eliminating the ill-fated relationship of others?

The Eastern Region was the sword God's heaven. There didn't seem to be any Buddhist disciples!

Where did this person come from?

Could it be that he wasn't from this region and was attracted by the White Cave?

“I don’t have an ill-fated relationship.”

Mu Zixi said seriously.

She pulled Aje’s hand.

“Aje, let’s go!”

Mu Zixi could tell that there was something strange about this little monk.

At the very least, just by looking at his equipment, it didn’t seem like an ordinary spiritual cultivator could have it.

Also, ill-fated relationship...

Was he talking about her eyes?

“Ma Ma...”

Aje lowered his head and stared at Mu Zixi’s hand that was holding his arm for a long time.

He suddenly took a step forward and turned around to face the little monk.

The little monk bowed to him. “Benefactor, you don’t have ill-fate. I don’t want to enlighten you...”

Whoosh!

A gust of wind whistled and Mu Zixi suddenly realized that the space in front of her eyes was empty.

In the next second, she saw Aje’s figure suddenly appear in front of the Monk Bu Le.

Once again, a heavy whip kick directly swept down.

“No!”

Mu Zixi shouted.

Having followed Xu Xiaoshou for so long, she also knew Aje’s tiny bit of battle strength.

If this whip kick was used, wouldn’t the opponent end up with his head smashed into pieces?

He was just a cute little monk...

“Boom!”

The expected splatter of flesh and blood didn’t happen.

On the contrary, in the middle of the battle, an explosion occurred where the black staff and Aje’s calves collided.

This time, both of them shot backward.

Aje retreated three steps.

The Little Monk Bu Le retreated thirty feet!

“This...”

Mu Zixi’s pupils constricted.

So powerful!

It wasn’t that Aje was so powerful.

It was that the little monk who had suddenly appeared. How could his battle prowess be so monstrous?

Just as he was about to die, a faint Golden Buddhist thought attached itself to his body.

Subsequently, that monk used this layer of protection and only used a black staff to repel Aje?

“So powerful...”

Monk Bu Le was also shocked.

Where did this fellow come from?

He clearly didn’t have any cultivation level, so how could his physical strength be so powerful?

If he hadn’t sensed that something was wrong at the crucial moment, he would have activated his divine senses, “Power of Will”.

With just the “Empty Hell Magic Staff” that his master had left behind, he wouldn’t even be able to withstand this attack.

In the Eastern Region, there was actually such an expert with the same height?

As expected, this place was the right place to come to!

Apart from the “Fourth Sword” left behind by his master, he reckoned that this trip wouldn’t be lonely!

However...

“A monk doesn’t harm the innocent. The person I want to convert is this female benefactor. It has nothing to do with you. Please leave quickly.”

Bu Le put down his staff and pressed his palms together.

“Ma Ma...”

A red light flashed in Aje’s eyes.

Opponent!

This was an opponent!

He disappeared once again. The next time he reappeared, he was already behind the little monk.

“Bang!”

A punch landed on the body of the staff that had reacted in time.

Monk Bu Le did not deliberately resist. With the help of the recoil, he directly pounced toward Mu Zixi.

“Little Tree, rise!”

Mu Zixi was calm and unhurried.

She clapped her small hands, and the towering ancient tree suddenly rose from the ground.

Caught off guard, it directly pushed the small monk high into the sky.

“Bang!”

The tree crown in the sky exploded.

Monk Bu Le was still in the air. Without any hesitation, he waved his wand and continued to charge at Mu Zixi.

He was unharmed!

“Solid wood explosion...”

Before Mu Zixi could finish her words, Aje, who had reappeared behind Monk Bu Le, grabbed his ankle.

He swung it.

“Boom!”

The small monk was smashed dozens of feet into the ground along with his staff.

“Cough Cough.”

“You’re so powerful...”

This fellow’s body was covered in Buddha’s light. He seemed to be fine as he stood up after patting his butt.

I can’t continue fighting... When Mu Zixi saw this scene, she immediately made up her mind.

She was afraid of strangers, but she was never afraid of fighting.

However, at this moment, this little monk who appeared out of nowhere had such strong combat strength.

There was no need to fight this battle.

Not only would it be difficult, but if Aje got addicted to fighting midway, he would forget to protect her...

If she were to get close to him, she would probably be ignored.

“Aje, run!”

She immediately shouted anxiously, “Let’s find your Ma Ma first.”

“Don’t run, kill him!”

In her mind, that voice suddenly appeared again.

Mu Zixi felt the demonic power of the “God Devil Eyes” surge, almost swallowing her consciousness.

“Shut up!”

She angrily scolded in her mind, and the terrifying power that surged out from the depths of her soul was directly cut off.

“I want to see Xu Xiaoshou, we’ll talk later.”

“I don’t want to fight with him!”

Mu Zixi vaguely felt that her tone was too heavy and explained in her heart.

“Kill him.”

That voice also became weaker.

“Why kill him? He didn’t do anything wrong. I might not be able to kill him.”

“I’ll lend you my strength.”

“You can borrow my strength to run away. When I find Xu Xiaoshou, I won’t be afraid of anything.”

“...”

The voice suddenly disappeared.

Mu Zixi ignored it and turned her head to look at Aje.

“Aje, let’s go first. We’ll fight after we find your Ma Ma!”

How could Aje agree?

In this world, other than Xu Xiaoshou’s orders, who could make him end a battle that had just begun?

“If you don’t leave, Xu Xiaoshou will be angry!” Mu Zixi put her hands on her hips angrily.

“Ma Ma?”

The red light in his eyes suddenly dimmed.

Aje calmed down.

He swept his gaze across the people in the deep pit, and with a flash, he appeared beside Mu Zixi.

“Ma Ma...”

Aje’s tone was somewhat anxious.

It was as if Xu Xiaoshou had to see it. This battle was definitely going to be a fight!

...

“Trying to escape?”

Monk Bu Le in the deep pit didn’t expect the two people who were still aggressive just now to leave as they spoke.

He didn't care about the pain on his buttocks anymore.

He jumped up and directly smashed down with the black staff in his hand.

"Freeze!"

Mu Zixi's "God Devil Eyes" opened wide in anger and shot a glance at him.

She just had a sudden thought and wanted to test the power of this eye.

Unexpectedly...

"Boom –"

Suddenly, the void exploded.

A black hole appeared and countless space fragments flew out.

"Pu!"

The magic staff was sent flying.

The little monk spat out a mouthful of blood and flew backward.

"..."

Mu Zixi was dumbfounded.

She just wanted to see if she could determine a person with a single glance.

She didn't expect that the little monk, who was comparable to Aje in terms of strength, would be sent flying after slightly using the power of the "God Devil Eyes"?

"What's going on..."

No wonder.

No wonder that voice told him to kill the monk.

Was this "God Devil Eyes" that powerful?

The scene before her eyes blurred.

Mu Zixi suddenly felt her eyes turn dry.

She wiped her eyes.

She actually discovered that there was a bloodstain on her palm.

"It's bleeding..."

She felt a faint fear in her heart.

Mu Zixi felt the price of using this power.

If she continued to use it like this, would she lose her sight?

Wouldn't that mean... she wouldn't even be able to see Xu Xiaoshou?!

"Run."

"Run first."

"Aje, Aje..."

The blurry image in front of her made Mu Zixi's voice tremble.

She hurriedly touched the side of her body as if she had knocked down something. Then, she touched some sticky things.

She blinked.

The scene suddenly returned to normal.

It was obvious that she had knocked off Aje's straw hat.

And her hand had already been inserted into this fellow's mouth.

That sticky stuff was...

Saliva?!

"Aiya, I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

Mu Zixi immediately pulled her hand back and picked up the straw hat from the ground. She covered the red light that was devouring people with her hand and then she wipe her hands on her dress.

"I didn't do anything."

"You didn't see anything."

"Ma Ma..."

Aje subconsciously muttered. He clenched his fists and slowly raised them. Finally... he crossed his arms over his chest.

Mu Zixi turned her head away and tiptoed to glance into the distance.

That little monk seemed to have not recovered yet?

"Let's run first."

"Let's find Xu Xiaoshou first."

"This monk is too strange. He's definitely not a good person."

She pulled Aje and was about to fly.

She suddenly realized that her flying speed didn't seem to be able to increase in this boundless flat ground.

"Aje, Aje, can you carry people?"

Mu Zixi rushed over and asked.

“Ma Ma?”

Aje seemed to be stunned.

Before he could react, the girl beside him had already run to the back and patted his back.

“Aiya, you’re so stupid. Lower your back!”

“Ma Ma?”

Aje’s eyes flashed with an unbelievable red light. His hands were almost released from his chest position.

However, before he could move, Mu Zixi had already jumped onto his back!

That was...

His back, which even Xu Xiaoshou didn’t dare to go up to!

“Ma Ma...”

Aje was numb.

He released his hand at the right time. For a moment, he didn’t know whether to attack or not.

“Stupid, hook my leg and fly!”

“Can’t you even fly?”

“The speed you used to hit me. I’ll point in the direction and you’ll sprint with all your strength.”

Mu Zixi took off the straw hat on Aje’s head and turned around. “Hurry up, he’s getting up!”

Ta Ta.

Aje was confused and stopped the person on his back. He took two steps forward.

“Don’t run...”

Monk Bu Le struggled to get up. His face was extremely weak, and black lines were running around his body.

He wasn’t blown up by the explosion.

It was at that moment that the “Empty Hell Magic Staff” released its absolute power after the restriction was loosened by the enemy’s devilish energy and blew him away.

“Who is that little girl? Why does she have such heavy devilish energy on her body?”

Bu Le was puzzled.

Soon, his doubts turned into determination.

“No matter what, I want... I want to convert her!”

“I want to cultivate. My ‘Power of Will’ can increase greatly. I can definitely...”

“I can definitely convert her and save Master!”

“No!”

Bu Le propped himself up, but he fell again.

He stretched out his hand, which was also surrounded by devil veins. However, he still tried his best to crawl towards the direction of the “Empty Hell Magic Staff”. There was a stubborn look on his face.

“No, it’s not me. It’s... this monk!”

He was seriously injured?

When Mu Zixi saw the little monk’s injuries, she suddenly felt less afraid of the other party.

However, as she watched this fellow crawl, the devil veins were gradually absorbed by the monk’s knife on his back, which was emitting a bright Buddha’s light. After that, his face began to turn red.

She then realized that something was wrong.

“This recovery ability is simply Xu Xiaoshou’s number two!”

“Quickly fly!”

Aje bent its legs in a daze and was about to leap up.

“Wait.”

Mu Zixi suddenly pressed down on its head and looked behind her.

“If Xu Xiaoshou is here and the other party is so weak, he will do something...”

Her gaze was fixed on the little monk’s target.

It was obvious that the monstrous magic staff was an extraordinary item.

Mu Zixi suddenly stretched out her hand and turned into a vine that swept away the “Empty Hell Magic Staff” at the end of the unhappy monk’s crawl.

Bu Le was stunned.

He raised his head and revealed an expression of disbelief.

“No!”

“You can’t take it. That thing has devilish energy. If an ordinary person took it, their body would explode...”

Bu Le’s voice stopped.

Mu Zixi grabbed the wand and patted Aje’s head as if nothing had happened.

“Hyah!”

Chapter 486: When the Spirit Fusion Swamp's Array Broke, Treasure Hunters Raced Against Time

"Let me tell you, in the previous explosion, a famed sword was produced, and in the end, it was taken away by an unknown guy."

"This time, another explosion happened, and it was a series of explosions."

"Judging from the scale, it was no less than the time when the famed sword was born."

"In other words, the treasures that appear here must be many famed swords."

"At the very least, there are many treasures of the same level as the famed swords."

"Therefore, follow me is the right decision!"

In the White Cave, a group of people rushed in the direction of the Spirit Fusion Swamp.

The leader of the group, the White-clothed fat man, was in high spirits. He concluded with a confident tone, "In the White Cave, as long as there's an explosion, a treasure will definitely surface. Whoever gets there first will be the winner."

"But Brother Hao..."

Following closely behind was a short youth with shifty eyes. He asked with some fear.

"In the White Cave, as long as there is an explosion, shouldn't the first thing that comes to mind is a battle?"

"Such a loud sound, and it has lasted for such a long time. Likely Sovereign Stage existences are fighting each other."

"If we go over now, won't it be the same as sending ourselves to our deaths?"

His words were clearly the worry in everyone's hearts.

The moment he said this, the group of ten or so people following closely behind nodded their heads repeatedly.

"Ah Tai, this is what you don't understand, right?"

Rong Dahao patted Zhao Tai's shoulder and said earnestly, "As the saying goes, wealth comes from danger. Which treasure doesn't have a guardian?"

"It's because there might be a Sovereign war that we can conclude that the guardian has been lured out."

"Under such a situation, wouldn't sneaking into its hometown in advance maximize the benefits?"

Zhao Tai was still a little hesitant, "But what if? Then in a Sovereign Stage war, whether it's a guardian or an intruder, as long as any one of them comes back, can we resist them?"

If we can't hold them off, then run!

If you can't run, then I can!

Rong Dahao secretly rolled his eyes in his heart, but he wouldn't reveal it on his face.

"Are you stupid?!"

"As long as even one of them comes back, we'll immediately stop the operation."

"And under normal circumstances, if the guardian goes out, it'll either be injured or killed in battle. Even if it comes back, I've already gathered so many of you. It's not like I don't have the strength to fight."

"On the other hand, if the intruder were to return."

"Then we will make way!"

Rong Dahao spread out his hands. "He will take the biggest treasure and we will take the others. With such an explosion, there shouldn't only be one treasure, right?"

"It's hard to say. That Spirit Fusion Swamp... the soil there is fragrant."

"All we need to do is dig up a handful and we will be able to grow a towering spiritual herb!"

Everyone was moved.

Indeed, riches were sought after through risk.

If they did not have such thoughts, even if the fatty in front of them had a powerful tongue, they would not be able to persuade so many people to form such a huge team.

"But Brother Hao..."

Zhao Tai hesitated again and stammered, "To be able to cause a war between the Sovereigns, this intruder must also be at the Sovereign Stage."

"Sovereigns cannot enter the White Cave!"

"Those who can get in are either stowaways or the rumors that were spreading outside. This time, the target of the Red Coats — Ghost Beast!"

"Under such circumstances, will he let us go?"

"Will he let us go even after we see his face when there's a possibility of him being exposed?"

Rong Dahao thought to himself, "You have a lot of nonsense to say, and your questions are really sharp."

However, when he saw the crowd at the back of the group nodding like chickens pecking at rice, he realized that he could not just casually answer this question.

"Are you stupid?!"

"If it was a stowaway, would they dare to kill so many experienced people in the White Cave?"

"Wouldn't they be sending themselves to their deaths and put themselves on the must-kill list of the Red Coats?"

"And if it was a ghost beast..."

Rong Dahao's heart palpitated. He pondered for a moment and sighed. "If it's a ghost beast, it's fate. Whether or not we can survive will depend on everyone's luck."

Seeing everyone panic, Rong Dahao realized that he had gone too far.

"But!"

He changed the topic. "We have the exquisite stone!"

"In the White Cave, the exquisite stone is the king. As long as this thing is here, we only need a short time to communicate with the Red Coats."

"That's the natural enemy of the ghost beasts!"

"No matter how bad it is, if you crush the exquisite stone at the critical moment, you can still keep your life."

"As for the ghost beasts..."

He smiled indifferently and said casually, "If there are so many ghost beasts in the White Cave and you happen to meet them, then it can't be helped."

Rong Dahao turned his head and looked at a woman in a clean white dress not far away from the team. He said obsequiously, "Am I right, Miss Mo?"

Although this girl in a white dress holding a small bronze cauldron in one hand did not have a stunning appearance.

But her temperament was definitely the most unique that Rong Dahao had seen during his travels in the five regions.

She was quiet and elegant.

She had an ethereal aura that could not be desecrated like a snow lotus on a mountain.

She was unworldly, yet she was like a fairy from the nine heavens who had no choice but to descend to the mortal world.

It made that face, which should have been forgotten by everyone with just a glance, look extremely otherworldly.

The Rong family had started from ancient times as an investment advisor. Eventually, they gradually became famous throughout the Higher Void Families.

Others might have come to the White Cave because of the Fourth Sword.

Rong Dahao had taken this opportunity to try to befriend this group of geniuses who had been attracted by the Fourth Sword.

Miss Mo who was in front of him was the one he had chosen and was the most worth investing in.

As for the rest of the people in the team, they were just small ants who were used as cannon fodder to drag out the time.

“Miss Mo?”

Seeing that the woman in front of him did not move, Rong Dahao raised his voice.

“Hmm?”

Mo Mo turned her head slightly and her gaze fell on the fair and clean fatty.

“What I said wasn’t wrong, right?”

Rong Dahao stretched out his head in an attempt to obtain affirmation.

“Yes.”

Mo Mo lightly nodded.

Subsequently, she continued to look into the distance.

“Spirit Fusion Swamp...”

“This fatty knows this name, then his target ought to be the ‘Three Days Frozen Calamity’.”

Mo Mo lowered her head, and her gaze descended onto the white bracelet on her white wrist.

There was a very obvious crack on the top of the milky white bracelet.

This was the sealing bracelet.

It was a gift from Xu Xiaoshou.

Of course, when the crack appeared, it meant that its effects became ineffective.

She was still wearing it as a keepsake.

“That fatty isn’t simple. I can feel the aura of the ‘gate’ on his body. He may be from the continent’s negative clan.”

That thought flashed through her mind, and the voice was solemn. “If there’s a chance, kill him first.”

Mo Mo frowned. “I don’t like killing people.”

“But he also wants to take the ‘Three Days Frozen Calamity’!”

The grey mist figure said coldly, “He and I... as well as your target, have collided.”

“It’s only your target.”

Mo Mo didn’t care about the so-called “Three Days Frozen Calamity” at all.

“I wanted you to take this heavenly flame for your own sake.”

“It’s for your own sake instead.” Mo Mo smiled.

“I did it for your own good.”

“It was for your own good to control me, wasn’t it?” She shook her head.

“...”

The grey mist figure fell silent.

Ever since he was beaten up by Xu Xiaoshou at the Tianxuan Gate, he had fallen into a deep sleep.

After waking up, this girl became even more disobedient.

No matter how much he tortured her, she wouldn't change.

Sometimes, he wanted to kill this ghost beast's host body and find another one.

However, how could the “seal” attribute be cultivated so easily?

How could he give up on such a precious body so easily?

“You have a prejudice against me. If we combine, we will only become stronger.”

The grey mist figure gradually walked on the path of persuasion.

He was tired.

The “seal” attribute was too difficult to find. There might not be a second Mo Mo in this world.

“Let's reconcile. I can completely forget about what happened before.” He tried to communicate.

Mo Mo sighed silently.

“Even a mountain can not accommodate two tigers, let alone a body?”

“My desire to die has already...”

“Foolish!” The grey mist figure roared angrily, interrupting Mo Mo's thoughts. “With me around, you can easily reach the peak of this world and control everything you want!”

“Everything...”

Mo Mo muttered.

Her fingers rubbed the crack on the bracelet on her wrist, and the corners of her lips curved.

She raised her head.

Her gaze seemed to once again see the Eight Palace that had turned into ruins under the White Cave's extradimensional cracks.

That was her home.

Those who were crying and wailing there were all the people she was close to.

“Not everyone wants to reach the peak.”

“Some people only want to have a few family members whom they can talk to. They only want to have an ordinary home, that's all.” She spoke out her dream.

“Ignorant!” The grey mist figure roared, “You're simply a pile of mud that can't be helped!”

Mo Mo did not have the slightest intention of getting angry.

She chose to end the topic.

Her gaze once again looked into the distance.

“Let’s go. If you like it, why don’t I help you obtain it?”

The grey mist figure fell silent.

“Miss Mo?”

Rong Dahao got closer, and only then could he see the extraordinary brilliance in Mo Mo’s eyes that was completely different from that of the common people.

Strength could be obtained through cultivation.

A conversation could also be obtained through training.

However, this innate character and temperament was definitely not something that an ordinary person could nurture through acquired strength.

This woman had the potential to become a Phoenix!

“Miss Mo, shall we go?”

“Let’s go.”

Mo Mo smiled faintly and walked forward. “Sorry, I was absent-minded for a while and wasted everyone’s time.”

...

“So many people.”

Hidden in the crown of the Flaming Maple Trees and using the Divine Array to cover their bodies and auras, Yu Zhiwen and Xu Xiaoshou stared at the heads in front of them.

It was obvious that there were plenty of people who were not afraid of death because of the explosions.

Taking advantage of the fact that the explosions were getting further and further away, there were even more people who wanted to steal.

“Looking at this number, there should be several teams, a total of 50 to 60 people.”

“If we include the other places in this Heaven and Earth Great Array, there should be more than a hundred people attracted here.”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at the group of people who were hesitating because of the Great Mist Array. He found it funny in his heart.

So what if there were more people?

This was a great array that even Yu Zhiwen couldn’t figure out even after pondering for a long time.

You Little Spirit Array Casters, let alone breaking the array, I reckon that when the White Skeleton wakes up, they will be unable to move forward.

“Is it done?”

Turning to look at Yu Zhiwen, Xu Xiaoshou asked softly.

Yu Zhiwen entered a focused state again. Her side profile, which was fully focused, was very beautiful.

But this time, she did not spend too much time.

With the experience of observing the great array the last time, she immediately understood it.

Yu Zhiwen wiped the sweat from her forehead. After smoothing her hair, she said in a low voice, “But if I break this array, the Spirit Array Casters here are not to be trifled with. They will definitely notice something.”

“If they follow the clues, they will be able to solve it very quickly.”

“Should we...”

Yu Zhiwen paused for a moment and suggested, “Set up another great array to trap them?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

He did not expect that Yu Zhiwen would have such a dangerous idea.

If they used the great array to trap them, once the spiritual array here was broken, the White Skeleton would be awakened. When that big guy rushed over, wouldn’t there be dozens of corpses?

“That’s a good idea, but not to the extent of it.”

“This ‘Spirit Fusion Swamp’ is very big, and we don’t know what kind of dangers are lurking. If we send these people out, they will be able to scout the way for us.”

Inside?

Yu Zhiwen’s expression changed. “You can see inside?”

Xu Xiaoshou’s expression turned awkward.

Of course, he could see inside.

But if he admitted it, wouldn’t that be the same as admitting that the White Skeleton was also lured out by him?

“Let’s solve the array.”

He chose to change the topic.

Although he had Weaving Expertise, he could solve the array.

But in a dangerous place like the White Cave, Xu Xiaoshou wouldn't dare to try if he didn't have a mighty figure protecting him.

Was Yu Zhiwen a mighty figure?

Yes!

But she was only a mighty figure in the Way of Spirit Arrays.

If they really started fighting and didn't set up beforehand, Xu Xiaoshou felt that there would only be two more corpses in this place.

"En."

Yu Zhiwen withdrew her gaze thoughtfully. Without thinking too much, she waved her hands and began to form seals in the air.

...

"Are there any clues?"

Before the Spirit Fusion Swamp's Heaven and Earth Great Array, there weren't any teams that had gathered together, but there were a total of seven Spirit Array Casters.

These old guys were sweating profusely, but they didn't have any useful information.

Obviously, even if there were Spirit Array Casters.

The Heaven and Earth Great Array was a spiritual array that involved the Divine Secret, and it wasn't something that ordinary Spirit Array Casters could come into contact with.

They had no experience at all.

"It's starting to smell, I'll try again."

The leader of the group, an old man with white hair, said as he continued to ignore the sound of the outside world and threw himself into the pink mist in front of him.

"Buzz –"

At this moment, the spiritual array suddenly trembled and everyone was alarmed.

"There's movement?"

"Elder Zheng's attack is indeed extraordinary. It's only been a few hours and he's already showing signs of unraveling this Heaven and Earth spiritual array."

"That's great. The treasures inside belong to us!"

"This array is extraordinary. I think there must be a universe inside. Elder Zheng's attack this time only allowed us to enter while riding on his coattails."

"According to the rules, if we encounter any treasures, Elder Zheng can choose first."

"That's right. Finally, we don't have to wait anymore. I've been so scared these past few hours..."

“Elder Zheng is really strong!”

“...”

Discussions broke out.

The white-haired old man who was addressed as Elder Zheng turned around in confusion and looked at the other Spirit Array Casters.

“Everyone, have you made any progress?”

“No...”

“No...”

“No...”

“...”

Those who didn't understand what was going on would think that it was Elder Zheng's doing, but these Spirit Array Casters knew what they were capable of.

Without three to five days, they might not even be able to understand the basics of this array.

How could Elder Zheng comprehend it all at once?

“Elder Zheng, you...”

Elder Zheng shook his head slightly and waved his hand. “Everyone, calm down. The spiritual array will be broken immediately...”

“Buzz –”

Before he could finish his words, the pink mist array, which no one had made a move on, trembled again.

After this tremble, the mist had become much lighter.

“This...”

Everyone was shocked.

No one had made a move, but this array had been opened by itself?

“Elder Zheng, you're strong!”

“I didn't expect that you could actually activate the mysteries of this Heaven and Earth spiritual array without forming a seal. This is a stage where you have to completely control it!”

“Yes, I reckon that if I continue to study it, I can use this Heaven and Earth Great Array to defend against the enemy and kill the enemy!”

“That's right, that's right, Elder Zheng is awesome.”

“...”

An obscure awkwardness appeared on Elder Zheng's face.

What the heck, who is secretly making a move!

I haven't finished speaking, can you spare me a thought?

He immediately raised his voice, "Everyone, take a rest for a moment. After I observe for another two or three hours, I will definitely be able to break this array..."

"Boom!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the Heaven and Earth Great Array exploded.

In the next second, the pink mist that lingered in the sky for thousands of feet dissipated with a loud bang.

After the dense mist transformed, several large tunnels that could accommodate five people simultaneously appeared in front of everyone.

Everyone was speechless

Didn't he say that he still needed another six hours?

After everyone was slightly startled, they immediately reacted.

"Elder Zheng is indeed low-key and modest. He has already broken the spiritual array, yet he is still so tactful."

"Brothers, let's charge. While the guardian is not here, we will directly steal its treasures."

"Charge, charge, charge!"

Dozens of figures scrambled to respond.

Facing the huge door in front of them, everyone suddenly disappeared.

"Wait, no, no!"

Elder Zheng finally panicked.

This array was inexplicable. Perhaps, the guardian had not gone out at all as everyone had speculated.

On the contrary, it had opened the door to lure in its dinner for tonight?

But looking at those people who had disappeared, and even the temporary team did not intend to rebuild, what could he say?

In front of treasures, how could there be an alliance?

"What a fool!"

"This array can not be entered!"

As Elder Zheng spoke, he looked at those Spirit Array Casters who were unwilling to lag behind. He immediately waved his sleeves and strode forward.

“Hey, wait for me.”

...

“How do we enter?”

Yu Zhiwen turned her head.

“With my feet, of course.”

Without saying anything else, Xu Xiaoshou flew out first.

What else was there to hide at this time?

Once they were truly inside, no one would care about the two little ants appearing.

On the contrary, when they turned around and saw a few figures who were also trying to snatch the treasure, that should be the normal situation!

Yu Zhiwen immediately thought it through.

She was also frightened by the White Skeleton’s continuous pursuit of her, which was why she only thought of being a fisherman in secret.

However, how could the Spirit Fusion Swamp be a place where treasures would fly out just by waiting?

“Where are we going?”

Looking at the people who had entered the great array and immediately split up to search for treasures, Yu Zhiwen asked again.

Xu Xiaoshou’s perception seemed to be even sharper than her “Star Eyes”.

Every time she found treasures or enemies, this guy would be more than a step ahead of her.

“Head west.”

Xu Xiaoshou said directly without explaining.

He had already used his “Perception” to probe this place.

If he did not go deep into it, it would basically be the same as outside, with not a single blade of grass growing.

However, the White Skeleton’s home was different.

Under that guy, Xu Xiaoshou had seen a few random spiritual herbs.

And those were random!

If he really wanted to find the White Skeleton’s protection ground, he reckoned that he would be able to obtain a large batch of treasures.

“Whoosh Whoosh Whoosh...”

However, it was clear that many people shared the same thoughts as Xu Xiaoshou.

Even if it was a treasure ground, the quality of the goods that could be sold on the outside would always be much lower than those from the depths.

As a result, those who boasted of their strong abilities simply disdained to sell goods on the outside.

Their goal was the end of this “Spirit Fusion Swamp”!

...

They sped along.

Yu Zhiwen’s star eyes soon sensed that something was wrong.

On the left side of the road, a strange icy aura could be faintly felt from a very far place.

The White Cave belonged to the fire-type space.

How could there be any special icy aura?

And among the treasures of the “Spirit Fusion Swamp”, one of them was rumored to be the “Three Days Frozen Calamity” belonging to the cold flame.

Then, it was needless to say what this cold air implied.

“Xu Xiaoshou, that Three Days Frozen Calamity...”

“Remember that direction,” Xu Xiaoshou said without turning his head.

Yu Zhiwen was a little surprised.

So anxious?

He didn’t even want the absolute treasure that might appear in the Spirit Fusion Swamp?

“Someone has already gone over.”

She reminded him.

The small group of people who had been flying inside were not weak, so they could naturally feel the strange cold air.

To be able to feel the cold air in such a hot place like the White Cave, even if they did not know what treasure it was, they could guess that it was extraordinary.

Therefore, most of them chose to change their direction.

“No rush.”

Xu Xiaoshou did not feel tempted at all. He was determined and rushed to the White Skeleton’s residence.

Everyone was blinded by the treasure.

He was the only one who vaguely felt that the ground seemed to be shaking slightly.

The frequency of the shaking was extremely low.

However, it still could not be hidden from his "Perception".

This meant that the White Skeleton must have been awakened by the breaking of the array.

At this moment, he was taking one step at a time and rushing toward this place with all his might.

Time was of the essence!

Xu Xiaoshou did not care about the "Three Days Frozen Calamity" that he did not recognize at all.

He wanted the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed.

As long as he could obtain it, his strength would definitely rise by more than one level.

And the White Skeleton could not kill him at the moment.

Therefore, his goal could only hope that there were other Advanced Infernal Fire Seed in his cave.

According to his memory.

There must be an egg or a baby by the side of such a big guy.

If he dared to get such an item when that guy was rushing over.

Maybe he could get his "white flame" and "Dragon Melting Realm".

"White flame..."

Thinking of the White Skeleton's white flame, which was enough to kill a Sovereign spiritual cultivator, Xu Xiaoshou almost drooled.

Even if he didn't get anything in the future.

He still had to have a dream.

What if?

What if there was an "Advanced Infernal Fire Seed", or a peerless fire-type treasure that the White Skeleton had collected in the white cave over the years?

"Charge!"

Yu Zhiwen saw how determined Xu Xiaoshou was and stopped persuading him.

Ever since this guy had entered the White Cave and slept in the cave, he had completely changed.

From a confused person, he had become extremely clear about his goal.

Turning around and choosing the Three Days Frozen Calamity would definitely be a wise choice.

However, following Xu Xiaoshou wouldn't disappoint anyone.

On the contrary, a miracle might happen.

“Charge!”

Chapter 487: Affair of the White Bone Gate

“Search! Search quickly!”

“But, after walking for so long, why haven’t I seen any high-grade treasures?”

“In such a forbidden area protected by Heaven and Earth Great Array, there shouldn’t be only these things inside!”

“I only found a few eighth-grade fire-type spirit herbs.”

“Me too, only a few scattered medicinal herbs, I didn’t see anything else at all...”

Everyone who was rushing into the Spirit Fusion Swamp calmed down slightly.

At this moment, they were not far from the deepest part of the swamp.

However, there were only a few treasures that had appeared. It was not enough for everyone to share.

Moreover...

“Look at the big footprint on the ground. The guard here must definitely be a tough giant!”

“Is this a footprint?”

One of them looked at the deep pit on the ground and fell into deep thought.

“Yes, look at the toe print on its top. Although it’s too deep to see clearly, the owner of this thing is definitely a big guy.”

“It’s hard to say. Then the scattered spirit herbs here were probably the remnants after it trampled on them.”

“Sigh, what a waste of God’s gift...”

Wing-wing.

The ground trembled slightly.

Those with sharp senses finally noticed this small detail.

“Listen.”

“Could it be that the big guy is coming back?” Someone was surprised.

“It seems possible. The explosion has been over since a few hours ago. This means that the battle has ended.”

“The one who is rushing here now, if it’s not the guard of this forbidden land, must be the one who killed the guardian of this forbidden land.”

“It’s not going to be a friendly one.”

“More importantly, judging from the tremors on the ground, he must be of great size. That guardian is coming back?”

Everyone started to panic.

The guard of this forbidden land must be extremely powerful.

If they were caught by the guard, especially one with such a giant footprint, wouldn’t everyone be crushed by a few fingers?

“Look at that guy!”

Everyone gasped.

Some sharp-eyed people saw that two figures were still flying in the same direction.

Even seventh or eighth-grade spirit herbs couldn’t stop them.

“Are they rushing to be reincarnated?”

“No, they are so determined. Maybe they know some other secrets?”

“Oh? Interesting...”

“Keep up!”

The idle crowd was immediately attracted by the two

Some people sniffed the icy power and moved in the direction of the wind.

However, if too many people rushed to the icy land.

The amount of profit that they could get in the end would definitely be much less.

Under such circumstances, if the two people who were speeding away knew something behind the scenes.

Perhaps they would be able to get more if they kept up?

“There’s no time to think. Let’s follow them first!”

The ground trembled more and more, causing everyone dared not to think too much.

At this moment, they could either shamelessly go behind the group of big shots and split the ice secret treasure.

Or they could choose to believe in those two people who had a firm goal and share an unknown big cake.

“There are too many people in the land of ice.”

“Furthermore, those two guys...”

“Their realms aren’t that high?”

They couldn’t see clearly of that man’s realm.

But that woman was only at peak Innate realm.

In front of a group of members led by Master realms, it was not high enough.

“Let’s go and see where they are secretly rushing to and what they are doing.”

“Hehe, I like being the third wheel.”

“Let’s go!”

..

“Xu Xiaoshou, someone is following us.”

Yu Zhiwen immediately noticed that everyone’s target had been split up.

Since they were so determined, someone must have noticed something.

Xu Xiaobei did not even turn his head.

“It’s best that this group of people can keep up.”

“I can already feel the tremors on the ground. That white skeleton is definitely coming back.”

“Once the array is broken, it’s so flustered that it doesn’t even care about sleeping. This means that there’s something good in its nest.”

“If these people follow us, if we really encounter that big fellow, then it won’t be just the two of us holding the fort anymore.”

Xu Xiaoshou chuckled. “With someone distracting that skeleton, we’ll be able to run faster.”

Yu Zhiwen was stunned for a moment.

“So vicious.”

She did not dare to say it out loud. Instead, she quietly followed behind Xu Xiaojie, acting as a beautiful accessory.

“Silently criticized. Passive value, + 1.”

“Suspected. Passive value, + 23.”

“Chased. Passive value, + 34.”

..

“We’re here.”

The scene at the end of his “perception” was the place where the white skeleton had settled down when Xu Xiaoshou was being peeped at.

At that time, he had only been attracted by that big fellow.

However, he still remembered some familiar settings around the skeleton.

At this moment, as he got closer, Xu Xiaoshou could finally see the situation inside clearly.

On the bumpy ground that was obviously trampled by the white skeleton, there was a huge castle made of dense white bones.

Calling it a castle was actually a little too much.

It was only as tall as a castle.

It was a special height so that huge skeleton could be able to live in there.

However, its appearance was really too horrible to look at.

All kinds of secret treasures, weapon fragments, and iron ores were mixed among the white skeleton’s body fragments. They were casually melted together with high temperature, and stacked up to form a huge bone door.

The bone door was more than 300 feet long.

This was a height that even the big white skeleton did not need to bend down to walk into.

To humans, this was simply a white bone South Heaven Gate!

“So tall.”

Yu Zhiwen, who was behind him, was also shocked by this bone door.

Looking at this height, if there weren’t thousands of ordinary size skeletons here, they would not be able to stack up to such a height.

In other words, the big guy must have come through the pile of white bones and death to reach this level.

“Spirit tree?”

Yu Zhiwen moved her eyes away from the bone door and sensed something was wrong.

Besides the bone door, a group of mutated Flaming Maple Tree stood tall.

The dense fire-type spiritual energy was constantly emitted.

At a glance, it was not just a seventh or eighth-grade spirit tree.

It might even be close to fifth or sixth grade.

“There are so many master spirit trees?”

Yu Zhiwen was shocked.

This mutated Flaming Maple Tree was simply a wild fire-type treasure!

And looking at this quantity...

The normally Master level spiritual herbs that were sold for astronomical prices no matter how small they are, were now growing in clusters, and with an abnormal height.

“If I take down this forest, won’t I be rich?”

Don’t Judge Yu Zhiwen by her wealth.

Even when she faced these mutated Flaming Maple Trees, she also had the desire to stay and cut down the trees.

“Xu Xiaoshou...”

Her call had yet to ring out.

Yu Zhiwen’s gaze turned downwards, and a look of shock appeared on her face.

She saw that the ground that was completely ignored because of Flaming Maple wasn’t covered with weeds.

On the contrary, in such a dense fire attribute holy land.

These things that looked like weeds were all fire-type spirit herbs that weren’t inferior to the mutated Flaming Maples.

The amount of them...

How big the Flaming Maple forest was, the number of small-scale spirit herbs that grew on the ground was as much as the size!

“Xu Xiaoshou...”

Yu Zhiwen muttered unconsciously.

Smelling the scent in the air, her pretty face started to blush as if her heart was palpitating.

..

“Emotion ascending flower, grade five pinnacle variant spirit herb, five petals of peanuts, petals of aphrodisiac. It tastes sweet when taken orally, but can not be eaten too much. Effects: impotence, nourishing Yin, tonifying the kidney, lasting.”

“Tide rising Mitsubishi Grade, grade five pinnacle variant spirit herb, shaped like a triangular arrow, can be used to break through realms. The texture is hard, can not be taken orally, tastes bitter, can be put into the soup. The soup’s effect is very strong, it has an aphrodisiac effect.”

“Depravity, grade four peak variant fire-type magic medicine. It has strong fire toxicity. It has a fragrant taste and a crispy texture. It’s hot on the outside but tender on the inside. It’s extremely masculine and not suitable for men. It’s suitable for women and can instantly soften the throne.”

“...”

With a rough glance, Xu Xiaoyu felt that something was wrong.

The information given in his mind was surprisingly consistent for the first time.

Not only were the spiritual herbs around the bone gate all fourth or fifth grade fire-type spiritual herbs but they were also mutated spiritual herbs.

Their medicinal properties were so strong that they might even be a grade higher.

“Doesn’t this mean that they are all Sovereign stage spiritual herbs?”

Xu Xiao was shocked.

If not for his “Culinary Skills”, he might not even be able to name a single herb at this moment.

After all, in the jade slip that elder sang gave him, there were only a few dozen spirit herbs that could be included in this place.

But the quantity here...

“I’m rich, I’m rich, there are thousands and thousands of throne spirit herbs. We really came to the right place!”

“However...”

Xu Xiao was conflicted.

Why the consistency of these spirit herbs was all displayed in their aphrodisiac uses!

Even if it was a useless grade five spirit herb.

In the information that was given in his mind, there was also an ‘aphrodisiac’ or an implicit explanation of the word ‘aphrodisiac’.

“Is this a variant?”

“Could it be that because the white skeleton possessed white flame, his cultivated here causing these spirit herbs’ mutation direction problems?”

“But, if it’s the white flame’s problem...”

Xu Xiaohe panicked.

The jade slip Elder Sang gave him did not mention that the white flame had such side effects!

But if it wasn’t..

He suddenly thought of the old man’s skinny body, as well as the thick dark circles under his eyes that would never be removed.

“This...”

“Could it be...”

Xu Xiaobei doubted whether he should cultivate white flame or not.

“Xiaoyu.”

He turned around.

Xiaoyu’s face, which was emitting red mist as if she was drunk, stunned him for a moment.

A faint fragrance of woman seemed to come from the air.

Xu Xiaobei immediately sensed that something was wrong.

“Damn it!”

“It’s caused by the medicinal fragrance of these damn spirit herbs!”

There were tens of thousands of Sovereign Stage spirit herbs.

Even if they didn’t take it orally, just the fragrance of the spirit herbs alone was probably no less than absorbing a few Innate or even Master pills at this moment.

Moreover, it was an aphrodisiac pill.

“Xiaoyu!”

Xu Xiaohu shouted loudly. Looking at Yu Zhiwen’s faint body that seemed to be about to collapse, he pounced over and hugged her.

“En ~”

“Resisted, passive value, + 1.”

Xu Xiaojie:”...”

Was it that scary?

This was a peak Innate expert!

She had only absorbed a little medicinal fragrance and she was already so affected?

“Her temperature is so high.”

The scorching heat from her palm made Xu Xiaojie panic.

“Xu Xiaojie, i, why do I feel that something is wrong...”

Yu Zhiwen spoke softly.

The moment she spoke, she felt that she had changed.

It wasn’t just her voice, even her body..

She felt weak all over!

Especially the moment Xu Xiaobei hugged her, a special desire rushed up to her spiritual altar, almost destroying her consciousness.

“I...”

“Don’t move!”

Xu Xiaobei held her in his arm, indicating that he could still hold on.

He was a Master.

He had a will that was like steel that had been burned by the ember flame seed.

But all of this was under the condition that the beauty in his arms did not move.

If under such a spiritual medicine fragrance,

Xiao Yu still spoke and moved like this,

Which man in the world could withstand it?

“Hu ~”

The “Breathing technique” had established a miracle.

With just a breath of relief, Xu Xiaojie had unleashed all of the desires and medicinal effects in his body.

He touched Yu Zhiwen’s forehead.

“You have a fever.”

“Oh...”

“Don’t speak.”

“I...”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1.”

Yu Zhiwen finally came to a realization.

This place was very strange.

It was still very strange in that awkward direction!

At the thought of this, her entire face turned even redder, as alluring as an apple.

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head away, not daring to continue staring.

He shifted his gaze away, and with his “Perception”, he saw that the group of men and women behind him were in an even worse state.

There were even some who had already been hugging each other.

“The world’s ethos is declining, the world’s ethos is burning...”

Xu Xiaohe sighed just now, and his face froze.

He felt his waist being hugged by someone.

“Let go of me, Xiao Yu, you have to restrain yourself,” Xu Xiaohe said with his head lowered.

“Uhhh~”

“I can’t, there are outsiders here...” Xu Xiaohe’s face turned bitter.

“Xu Xiaoshou!”

Yu Zhiwen’s voice suddenly became louder.

She seemed to want to resist.

However, after she called out, she seemed even more intoxicated as she tightly hugged the body in front of her that was emitting a fatal temptation.

“Embraced, passive value, + 1.”

“Seduced, passive value, + 1.”

“Seduced, passive value, + 1.”

“Oh my Gosh...”

Xu Xiaobei’s entire body stiffened.

He had never been hugged by a woman in such an intimate position in broad daylight, and it was even more so under the watchful eyes of everyone.

Even though these people were in a daze at this moment, they had no time to care about anything else.

But being hugged, he was really being hugged!

“Wake up!”

Xu Xiaoshi pulled the beauty hanging on his waist up.

Yu Zhiwen’s condition became even worse.

She was like a drunken shrimp, her whole body drooping.

Hearing the call, she lifted her small face.

Xu Xiaobei instantly became absent-minded!

Her eyes, which were shining with a brilliant mist, were like the most beautiful gemstones in the world, shining in the pink mist around her.

Her delicate nose was covered in sweat.

Under the contrast of her pretty face, even her sweat looked crystal clear and shiny.

Her red lips, which were pouting like a little girl after being rejected, were also exuding a fatal temptation at this moment.

“I...”

“Gulp.”

Xu Xiaoshou swallowed his saliva and was speechless.

Yu Zhiwen tilted her head and her black hair fell down.

He felt that the world had lost its luster and only the peerless color in front of him was left.

“Peng peng peng!”

His heart was beating faster.

“THUMP THUMP!”

The earth was shaking.

But not many people could hear it.

Xu Xiaoshou was suddenly jolted awake.

He did not expect that the biggest fatal point of entering Spirit Fusion Swamp would actually be Yu Zhiwen.

“Wake up, Xiaoyu, wake up. This can’t do. That big guy is coming...”

“Ha ~”

Yu Zhiwen, who was lifted into the air, could no longer control her posture. She exhaled like an orchid, and her hands directly hooked around Xu Xiaoshou’s neck.

She leaned his face close to the young man in front of him.

A slightly rapid breathing came at his ears.

On his chest, he could feel the intense heartbeat of the girl in his arms.

Xu Xiaoshou’s words were cut off.

If this situation was really resolved...

Then there was only one way.

“Suck!”

Suck out the deadly poison gas in Xiao Yu’s body using the “Breathing method”!

Then, how was he going to do it?

Xu Xiaoshou hesitated for a moment.

“I’m sorry.”

He did not think for long and quickly made a decision.

He held the woman’s waist with one hand and lifted the girl’s hot face on his shoulder with the other. He stared at the seductive red lips and took two deep breaths.

“This is my first time. Actually, you’ve earned it.”

Facing to face.

He was about to touch it.

“Whoosh!”

The sky suddenly turned dark.

A white bone giant that seemed to be about to cross the sky and earth gradually appeared above everyone’s head.

The scene seemed to be frozen.

“Whoosh!”

On the other side, there was another extremely fast sound of rushing wind. A tiny black shadow appeared in front of the white skeleton.

“Hyah!”

Chapter 488: Xu Xiaoshou! So You’re This Kind of Xu Xiaoshou!

Mu Zixi rode on Aje.

The pink mist array in front of them couldn’t stop them at all.

With just a delay, the two of them directly broke through Heaven and Earth Great Array that was blocking the advance of most people.

The reprimand of the Way of the Heavens’ in the void had yet to descend.

Aje waved his hand, and the Divine Secrets nearby were directly absorbed.

Consequences for forcefully breaking the Array?

It didn’t exist!

“Wait, Xu Xiaoshou?”

After crossing the formation, they continued to push forward.

Not long after, Mu Zixi smelled that familiar, detoxicating, surging vitality.

She lowered her head, and a look of joy appeared on her face.

“Is it Xu Xiaoshou?”

“Aje, quickly stop. It’s your mom... Hmm?”

Aje suddenly braked.

Even without Mu Zixi’s reminder, he had seen the “mother” who had saved him from the dark prison.

Mu Zixi’s words also halted abruptly.

This was not because of the sudden braking that caused her to almost fly out.

It was because of the scene in front of her...

“Xu Xiaoshou, what is he doing?”

He’s holding a woman?

He’s so close to her?

They...

Why were they kissing?!

Mu Zixi’s eyes widened, and her drifting ponytail stood on the top of her head due to the anger that came out of nowhere.

“Xu Xiaoshou!!!”

“Received call, passive value, + 1.”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1...”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1...”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1...”

..

A loud shout in the sky not only woke up the surrounding men and women but also made Xu Xiaoshou’s scalp tingle.

“Huh?”

He subconsciously raised his head.

Only then did he see the two tiny figures that he had completely ignored because of the white bone giant flying through the sky.

“Aje...”

“Mu, Mu Zixi?”

It was as if he had been caught cheating.

There was clearly nothing, but Xu Xiaobei felt as if he had been splashed with ice water from the top of his head. His entire body quivered.

“What are you doing here?”

He raised his head and asked.

Mu Zixi was instantly angered and amused.

What am I doing here?

Good, you Xu Xiaoshou!

When I was not around, you went behind my back and did such an indecent thing. You even carried such a woman?

So you were not a blockhead!

So you liked this kind of woman?

Is that why...

“What’s so good about her?”

Mu Zixi’s sorrowful and indignant eyes locked onto Yu Zhiwen’s body.

Did she look vaguely familiar?

Wasn’t this the woman who greeted Xu Xiaozhong at the Eighth Palace’s entrance?

“What’s so good about her!”

Mu Zixi was about to cry from anger.

Isn’t she just a bit taller than me, prettier than me... and had a slightly larger size than mine?

That’s all!

That’s all!

Xu Xiaoshou, you can’t control yourself just because of this?

How could you do this behind my back and secretly do such a shameless in broad daylight?

And in front of so many people!

“Wait...”

The power of grief and indignation had yet to transform into a sound of rebuke.

Mu Zixi saw that Xu Xiaoshou had reacted and didn’t dare to make a move.

But the woman in his arms seemed to have been forcefully drugged by someone. She was completely unconscious.

After losing Xu Xiaobei’s hands that held her face, her mouth directly pouted at the youth in front of her.

“Stop!”

Mu Zixi felt that she had lost control in an instant.

She actually pounced down from a height of several hundred feet.

At this moment, everything disappeared from her mind.

It was a complete blank!

In her line of sight, there was only Xu Xiao's face that was about to be tarnished.

"Un."

He felt the warm lips pressing on him.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

His raising head did not allow Yu Zhiwen to directly pounce down on his mouth.

However, even though she only kissed his neck, Mu Zixi, who had jumped into the air, froze on the spot as if she had been struck by a bolt of lightning.

The hand that she had grabbed out of thin air froze in mid-air. She felt that the spiritual essence in her body was instantly sucked dry by an unknown force.

She pursed her lips.

The twin ponytails fell powerlessly.

Mu Zixi felt that the world had turned dark.

"Bang!"

Her little body, which had lost control of its strength, crashed onto the ground.

Smoke and dust flew up.

It rolled up in the pink mist.

Mu Zixi was so aggrieved that tears flooded her face.

"Xu Xiaoshou, you did not even catch me..."

"You'd rather have that witch than your junior sister."

"You weren't like this in the past. You wouldn't treat me like this."

"How could you..."

She lay on the ground with her head buried in the ground. She didn't want to stand up at all.

"Sob sob."

"Condemned, passive value, + 1."

"Cursed, passive value, + 1."

"Condemned, passive value, + 1."

..

"Heh?"

Xu Xiaobei felt a headache coming.

What was going on!

What did the hell happen?

Condemnation, disgust?

Mu Zixi, what were you thinking about!

... How could I explain this?

Hmmm, actually, why did I have to explain?

That's not right!

I haven't done anything yet, you little girl. Why are you crying like this?

And...

"Hurry up and get up."

"I just want to heal her injuries. You've misunderstood!"

Xu Xiaoshou hurriedly shouted at Mu Zixi.

However, the other party didn't listen at all.

Mu Zixi, who was completely disappointed to the extreme, recalled that the moment she entered the White Cave, all that was left with her was Xu Xiaoshou's instructions.

She didn't even care about the stinging pain in her mind due to her refusal to obey the orders.

She only wanted to meet him first.

However, in the end, this sudden encounter made her break down!

"I traveled through mountains and rivers for you, yet you were kissing someone else in front of everyone."

"Good, Xu Xiaoshou. So this is who you are."

"So you were just pretending in the past!"

"Treating her injuries..."

"Who would treat someone's injuries with this kind of treatment? !"

Mu Zixi choked on her sobs. Thinking that this kind of person was not worth her being so sad, she stood up in grief and indignation.

However, she saw Xu Xiaoshou still foolishly holding that woman in his arm and standing there like a fool.

He didn't even want to come over and help her up.

"Ugh!"

She almost burst into tears.

But she forcefully held it back.

It wasn't worth it.

Xu Xiaoshou wasn't worth it!

She wanted to be ruthless and immediately turn around to leave. She didn't want to step into this sad place ever again.

But Xu Xiaoshou...

She glanced over at him one last time.

He was still standing there foolishly!

"I..."

Mu Zixi's eyes were filled with despair.

Tears splattered everywhere, and her face instantly turned bitter like a meat bun.

So, the extra one was me...

I should go!

"Criticized. Passive value, + 1."

"Suspected. Passive value, + 1."

"Waited for. Passive value, + 1."

"..."

Xu Xiaoshou realized that something was wrong.

Normally, the little girl couldn't have so many mixed emotions.

What was going on today?

He knew that these negative denunciations that would only appear in the form of curses in the past were just a temporary distraction for the Mu Zixi after she had been choked on her words.

It wasn't a big deal.

But this time, his intuition told him that if he let Mu Zixi run in front of him...

It might cause some serious consequences.

This little girl is obsessed!

I was just trying to save someone, why did you need to have so many suspicions?

With a whoosh, Xu Xiaoshou used "Ascending to the Heavens" and directly moved to the front of Mu Zixi.

“What are you thinking about? Little girl, you’re already here. Where are you running to?”

Xu Xiaobei pressed down on the head of Mu Zixi.

“Let go of me!”

Mu Zixi struggled for a while, punching, and kicking. She kicked something.

She was shocked.

In the past, she couldn’t reach Xu Xiaoshou at all with her attacks like these.

She raised her head and saw the woman in Xu Xiaoshe’s arms.

“Waaah...”

Mu Zixi instantly teared up. “Xu Xiaoshou, you’re here to anger me, are you?”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1.”

“I’m healing her.”

Xu Xiaoshou didn’t dare to say anything else. He directly lifted Yu Zhiwen’s head and was about to suck out the medicinal power in her body.

That was what he was trying to do.

You little girl, why were you overthinking?!

Before he could even speak, an explosion sounded from above.

“Boom!”

The sound that was about to shatter everyone’s eardrums made everyone come to their senses.

Xu Mu and Yu Zhiwen were not the only participants in this farce.

The white skeleton that covered the sky with his huge body had also arrived at this time!

“Bang, Bang, Bang!”

Everyone looked up and saw the white skeleton and a tiny figure in the air exchanging blows. They were evenly matched.

The air current that exploded made the Flaming Maples bent, almost breaking into pieces in the air.

Many rare spirit herbs were even forcefully pulled up into the air as the air current surged.

“What a fellow, evenly matched?”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

This was the first time he had seen Aje meet an opponent of the same level.

But it seemed to be the case.

Even if he had mastered the Power of the Higher Void, the Higher Void still belonged to the Sovereign Stage.

As long as he did not use this special power, in terms of purely physical bodies, this was a battle between two Sovereign Stages, one big and one small!

“Quick, find a place to hide first. That fellow still has White Flames, but Aje should have other tricks up his sleeve.”

“With Aje around, the big guy is no longer a threat.”

“But staying underground is still tantamount to waiting for death. Let’s go first!”

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head and saw the White Bone Gate.

For others, the best choice at this moment was naturally to take advantage of Aje’s temporary hold on the large white skeleton and turn around to leave.

However, Xu Xiashou was different.

Fortune comes from danger.

With Aje holding the white skeleton back, he could take this opportunity to directly sneak into the white bone gate and investigate!

“Enter the white bone gate first!”

Xu Xiaojie was so excited that he even forgot to “Inhale”. He held Yu Zhiwen in his arm and wanted to directly rush into the door.

After Mu Zixi regained her senses, she raised her head.

She saw that Yu Zhiwen, who had lost Xu Xiaoshou’s hand holding her face, had no strength to straighten. She leaned back and kissed the face of Xu Xiaoshou again.

“You can’t!”

Mu Zixi swore that the same thing would never happen again.

Especially in front of her.

She jumped up.

“What now...”

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head around with a sigh. Before he could finish his words, he felt two warm and moist red lips pressing against the side of his face.

“Um...”

“Eh.” Xu Xiaoke’s brain was fried.

“Xu Xiaoshou...”

Yu Zhiwen seemed to have regained some of her consciousness. After her eyes became clear, she muttered to herself. Her drunken red face became powerless and she slid to Xu Xiaoshou's shoulder.

In Mu Zixi's eyes.

Not only did that lady kissed Xu Xiaoshou's face, but she also used her mouth to draw such an obvious red mark!

Was this... a declaration of sovereignty?!

"Dong!"

Mu Zixi, who had just jumped into the air, fell to the ground.

She felt that the world had collapsed.

Countless crystal fragments exploded in her mind and flew in all directions.

It was so painful!

What kind of feeling was this...

Why it was so uncomfortable!

"Ugh, ugh."

Her feet were twitching, and she seemed to be unable to breathe.

Mu Zixi felt like she was suffocating.

She didn't know where Xu Xiaoshou had started to have such an important position in her heart.

But if it wasn't important...

Why did she feel like she was having a heart attack at this moment?

"Look, I said, follow my direction."

The seductive female voice in her mind contained a hint of mockery.

"Get out!"

Mu Zixi shouted.

"Let's go. Follow the direction I pointed out. This kind of person isn't worth it."

"Get out."

"Do you want me to go? Do you still want to stay here?"

"Get out..."

Mu Zixi's weak, sobbing voice came out.

"Make your choice."

The echo of the three words lingered in her mind.

Mu Zixi couldn't reply.

She felt that her existence was superfluous...

Perhaps what she said was right, she really shouldn't have come over.

Alright.

I'll leave, alright!

As for Xu Xiaoshou...

Mu Zixi swallowed her tears.

"Blessed, passive value, + 1."

When Xu Xiaojie saw this 'blessing', her mind was muddled.

What nonsense was this again!

He picked up Mu Zixi in the dirt.

"Wake up!"

"I..."

"Splat!"

With a slap on her face, the dirt in Mu Zixi's mouth and nose finally spurted out.

She panted heavily.

"I..."

"You what?"

Xu Xiaobei wiped the red marks on his face, and a trace of embarrassment appeared on his face.

He didn't say anything more and directly sucked at Yu Zhiwen's head through the air.

A pink mist flew from her head and directly into Xu Xiaoyu's mouth.

"Phew."

He exhaled again.

The detestable medicinal effect that put people in an awkward situation was finally expelled.

"Em..."

Yu Zhiwen moaned as if she was about to wake up.

However, her eyelashes trembled twice. Her body seemed to be very weak, and her face was buried in Xu Xiaoyu's chest, unable to get up.

“She didn’t wake up...”

The corners of Xu Xiaoshou’s mouth curved, and he immediately flattened it again.

At this time, Mu Zixi also recovered from her shock.

She also realized that the reason why she almost suffocated wasn’t that Xu Xiaoshou was forcefully kissed in front of her.

It was because of those mud...

However, seeing this guy in front of her hugging someone else but not her...

Supporting others instead of herself...

Willing to treat others’ injuries rather than caring about...

“In the end, I made a mistake.”

She turned her head and decided to leave.

“Swish swish swish.”

Her footsteps became faster and faster, even creating the sound of wind in the air.

However, Mu Zixi felt that the scenery beside her didn’t even have the slightest tendency to retreat.

Faint pain and suffocation could be felt from her neck.

When she lowered her head, she realized that she had been picked up by someone again.

“Xu Xiaoshou!”

Damn Xu Xiaoshou.

Are you taking advantage of your taller height to bully others?!

“I’m not done with you!”

She turned her head and directly bit down on the hand that was holding her dress.

“Chi!”

Blood splattered everywhere.

Xu Xiaojie was shocked.

He was a grandmaster, when did this little girl break through his defenses?

Her teeth again?

With a merciless bite, not only did it tear through his passive defenses, but it also made Xu Xiao feel that the life force in her body was draining away at a terrifying speed.

“Stronger again.”

Xu Xiaoshou was shocked.

Ever since he was bitten in the last outer court battle.,.

This was the second time he had felt the terrifying life force absorption energy of his junior sister.

And this time.

Compared to the previous one, the absorption speed was ten times faster.

If it was a normal person, once their defense was broken, they would probably be sucked dry in less than ten breaths.

“What are you doing?”

Xu Xiaohe said weakly.

Absorption was absorption.

This little loss of life energy was a matter of life and death to others, but to him, it was not a big deal.

“I will bite you to death!”

Mu Zixi stared at this person fiercely.

“You can’t bite me to death. You know my life energy,” Xu Xiaohe replied.

“I will bite you to death!”

“You can’t finish it.”

“I...”

“Puchi, Puchi, Puchi!”

Xu Xiaohe felt several sores on his hand instantly.

Mu Zixi was like a dragonfly skimming the surface of the water. In the blink of an eye, several scabs had appeared on his hand.

“Are you crazy?”

He quickly withdrew his hand, but he also pulled the sticky object in his hand over. He couldn’t help but curse angrily, “Are you a dog?”

“Yes, I am!”

“You’ve gone against me.”

Xu Xiaoshou vibrated his body slightly.

This time, Mu Zixi couldn’t hold on any longer. Her teeth went numb and she immediately let go of her mouth.

In the next second, she felt her neck being grabbed by someone.

“Let go of me!”

The whistling sound of the wind brushed past her ears.

Mu Zixi knew that she was being pulled towards the direction of the white bone gate.

“Let go of you. Where are you going?”

Xu Xiaowei took one in each hand and didn’t answer her.

“I want to run away from home. I don’t want to be with you. I want to vomit. Vomit! I vomit!”

“Runaway from home? Are you going to deliver yourself as food to the white skeleton?” Xu Xiaobei sneered and looked at her junior sister who was pretending to retch.

“Why do you care?”

“Of course I care...”

Xu Xiaobei sneered and used force to grab two tendons on the little girl’s neck.

“Aiyu!”

Mu Zixi cried out in surprise.

Under such circumstances, she had the urge to laugh. This was not possible!

“Let go of me!”

Xu Xiaojie exerted more force.

“Aiyu, hehehe... Oh, Damn Xu Xiaojie, let go of me!”

Exerted more force.

“Hehehe...”

“Ah!”

“Hehehehe...”

“Wu Wu.”

“Cursed, passive value, + 1, + 1, + 1, + 1....”

Chapter 489: Digging Under the Eyes of the White Skeleton

“Here, this was what happened.”

Xu Xiao spread out her hands and said to the two women in front of her,

“Although the spiritual herbs here are of a high level, they are all mutated products, and the direction of mutation is to aphrodisiacs use.”

“Therefore, hiding in the white bone gate, not only do we have to avoid the white skeleton’s attack, but we also have to be on guard against the floating medicinal efficacy in the air.”

“It’s best if you use spiritual essence to separate it, the kind where the whole body is separated.”

At the entrance of the white bone gate.

Yu Zhiwen’s face was as red as a peony.

She did not expect that after entering this Spirit Fusion Swamp, the biggest threat was not the white skeleton that had already arrived, but the medicinal fragrance of the spirit herbs.

To think that after she had just noticed the quality of the spirit herbs in this place, she had even deliberately inhaled a few more mouthfuls.

No wonder...

She secretly raised her eyes and glanced at Xu Xiaobei. Seeing that there was still a faint trace of redness on his face, Yu Zhiwen quickly lowered her head, unable to say anything.

This was so embarrassing!

Mu Zixi stood at the door.

Although there was already a reasonable explanation, these words came from Xu Xiaoshou’s mouth. Could she believe it?

Of Course not!

“Why am I fine?”She said angrily.

“How would I know that you...”

Xu Xiaobei shot a strange glance at Mu Zixi.

The medicinal effect was extremely powerful. Even he was caught off guard and was about to fall for it.

If it wasn’t for the “Breathing technique”, he might have already turned into Yu Zhiwen No. 2.

But Mu Zixi...

She clearly didn’t have the slightest bit of defense. She must have swallowed a lot of medicinal auras.

However, nothing happened!

“Your constitution, perhaps.”

Xu Xiaobei judged, “The Devouring Wood body might not be ordinary. Your vitality is too strong. Perhaps the medicinal effect has not had time to take effect and it has become your nourishment.”

Thinking about how this lady’s silver teeth could swallow most of his vitality, Xu Xiaobei felt that this judgment was not wrong.

“Your life force is even more vigorous than mine, why...”

Mu Zixi was furious and wanted to say why he was also not affected.

However, when she looked at Xu Xiaoshou, this fellow didn't seem like he was affected.

"Hehe."

Xu Xiaohu knew that this lady was blocked by her own thoughts, so he immediately smiled and said, "So I'm fine too. Do I look like I'm not fine?"

He was too lazy to explain anymore.

Sometimes, a white lie could cut off the trouble of talking too much nonsense.

Moreover, if he really wanted to explain the "Breathing technique", it would be very difficult to explain it clearly.

He pressed Mu Zixi and squatted down together, hiding in the huge shadow of the white bone gate.

He turned around.

Inside was a bottomless hole that was gradually dug down.

It was obvious that this was the white skeleton's resting place.

He wasn't sure what was going on inside.

But perhaps the true treasure that he wanted was inside.

"Stay down."

Xu Xiao didn't act rashly and walked deeper into the pit.

He signaled for the two women to keep quiet and looked outside.

The other men and women who were controlled by lust clearly didn't have the guts like the three of them.

When they saw Aje holding back the terrifying white skeleton, they were startled and immediately fled outside. For a moment, there was no sign of them.

The battle in the sky was still in a stalemate.

Aje and the white skeleton were fighting intensely.

The "Bang Bang" sounds were incessant.

It was obvious that this was the first time that both parties had encountered such an equal opponent.

It was to the extent that both parties had completely forgotten that there were actually three stealthy little ants on the ground.

"I think it can still stall for a little more time."

Xu Xiaoshou immediately deduced.

Aje was too strong.

Even the white skeleton, which even the two Sovereign Stages of the Zhang Manor were helpless against, was just like a slightly larger toy in front of him.

With its petite body, it moved abnormally nimbly. Often, it would be able to smash a few large holes into the big guy on the opposite side.

However, the white skeleton was not to be trifled with.

It had the terrifying recovery ability of White Flames and the body of Sovereign Stage.

Even if it was injured, it would only be a small injury. It could recover in an instant.

The battle had entered a white-hot situation.

Xu Xiaoshou could see it.

Even though Aje had the upper hand, if he did not use other powerful moves, he would not be able to take down this big thing by himself.

As for the other powerful move...

Xu Xiaoshou did not know how to command them!

All he knew was to make Aje transform into a knife or a stone.

If that was the case, he might as well let Aje use his human form to fight with this guy!

“Advanced Infernal Fire Seed, I reckon it will be difficult to get it in a short period...”

“So, should we go in?”

Xu Xiaoshou hesitated.

The three of them hid in this place, but the white skeleton did not discover them.

However, once its nest was invaded, that big fellow might just charge in without caring about anything.

At that time, if there was no exit, wouldn't they be completely trapped?

Although he was not afraid, the two women beside him...

“If it doesn't work, I'll expose my Abrogated Origin Residence and take them in!”

Xu Xiaoshou did not hesitate and decided in an instant.

At this moment, every second was important, and he had to probe a little deeper.

But, before that...

Xu Xiaoshou's gaze looked towards the spirit herbs not far away.

Grade five spirit herbs!

A chaotic place!

Even though these mutated varieties all had aphrodisiac uses.

If they were to be planted in the Abrogated Origin Residence, it would inevitably cause the space inside to appear out of whack.

However, a fifth grade was still the fifth grade. Who would let it go?

“Hehe, do you guys have any methods to collect those spirit herbs?”

Xu Xiaohe turned his head and asked, “Take advantage of the fact that the big guy hasn’t noticed us yet.”

Mu Zixi remained silent.

She pouted her small mouth and was unhappy. She didn’t want to talk to Xu Xiaoshou.

Yu Zhiwen’s thoughts were no longer above the spirit herbs. She shook his head in silence.

“If that’s the case, then I won’t stand on ceremony.”

Xu Xiaojie chuckled and ran outside.

“You two wait inside. I’ll be right back.”

The two girls were stunned. They did not understand what Xu Xiaoshou was going to do.

However, seeing that this guy still dared to go out, if he was exposed under the white skeleton’s eyes, based on his accumulated anger, wouldn’t he rush down directly?

However, the situation was completely different from what he had expected.

The white skeleton seemed to have discovered nothing as it continued to mindlessly rush towards Aje in the sky to vent its energy.

“He can’t See?”

Yu Zhiwen’s starry eyes blinked in shock.

She had been beside Xu Xiaoshou all this while, so she had not discovered anything.

However, at this moment, as she looked at Xu Xiaoshou, who was becoming more and more indistinct, she suddenly closed her starry eyes.

In his line of sight, that person had disappeared!

“Invisibility?”

“It’s not invisibility. It’s something similar to the state of being one with heaven and man...”

“But this level of invisibility...”

Yu Zhiwen’s eyes were filled with astonishment.

Wasn’t this method of disappearing in front of people something that only Cutting Path Level experts could do after they had a deep understanding of the Heavenly Dao?

“Concealment...”

Xu Xiaoshou thought to himself that this was indeed the case.

With ‘concealment’, as long as he didn’t intentionally make a scene, as long as his enemy’s attention was taken away,

Even if he was to casually walk around others, he wouldn’t attract their attention.

And this was only an Innate ‘concealment’.

If he was to advance to Master and even ascend to the Sovereign Stage...

Perhaps, he would be able to achieve an effect similar to Yu Zhiwen’s ‘Sky Screen’.

Even if he were to brush past it, the other party wouldn’t be able to notice it.

Furthermore, concealment was a passive skill.

In other words, his very existence was a moving sky screen!

“Too powerful. I must practice this skill after this.”

Xu Xiao suppressed the excitement in his heart.

At this moment, it was not the best time to level up.

He quietly stepped forward and arrived under the large area of mutated Flaming Maple Trees.

After entering this place, Xu Xiao could finally see how big this place was.

There were tens of thousands of grade five spirit herbs of the weed grade. It was estimated that one Abrogated Origin Residence would not be able to fit them all, not to mention the towering Flaming Maples.

“How do I store them?”

With the previous experience of collecting the Zhang Mansion Spirit Pool.

Xu Xiao was informed.

As long as he covered this area with his spiritual consciousness, he could completely move it into the Abrogated Origin Residence.

But now, the problem appeared again.

The speed at which the Yuan Mansion’s space expanded on its own was too slow.

Even if the “Spirit Mark of Life” was continuously functioning, the area that it could hold at this moment was estimated to be only half of the area of this treasure land of spirit herbs.

It might even be less than half.

“Uproot it and put it into the Abrogated Origin Residence. The spiritual medicine outside will be covered by the primal chaos fog.”

“As for the primal chaos fog that has unlimited assimilation power, even if a Sovereign Stage will probably be melted in a moment, not to mention this unprotected spiritual medicine.”

Xu Xiaojie only hesitated for a moment before making a decision again.

One layer was not large enough.

Then put them in the second layer!

The horizontal area of the YUANFU was indeed a little small.

However, the vertical area was still possible.

That Small World that had already recognized its owner and belonged solely to him only needed to spend a small portion of his attention to maintain it at all times.

He would be able to split the spiritual medicines here into three layers and float them in mid-air in the Abrogated Origin Residence.

“But if I were to collect them like this, the speed would be too slow. It would attract the attention of the white skeleton.”

Xu Xiaobei probed into his energy reserve.

His spiritual essence was almost full.

In other words, he could use it at least three times to “Ascend to heaven “!

Xu Xiaobei calmed his mind.

He was going to make a big move!

All he could see were spiritual herbs.

But even if he couldn't see it with the naked eye, he could cover it with his spiritual sense.

And the place that his spiritual sense could cover could be reached in an instant by ascending to heaven in one step!

“Then...”

..

“What does he want to do?”

Yu Zhiwen looked at Xu Xiaoshou in a daze.

The white skeleton was still there, if he were to collect the spiritual herbs one by one, no matter how fragrant they were, they didn't have the time to do so!

If they were discovered, that big fellow could have given up on Aje and endured a few attacks to capture Xu Xiaoshou in an instant.

“Pluck the feathers.”

Mu Zixi had seen Abrogated Origin Residence before, so she could guess Xu Xiaoshou's intentions.

She didn't feel worried at all.

As long as this guy wanted to make a move, instead of worrying about him, it would be better to think about the consequences of the spirit herbs and what kind of ending the white skeleton would have!

As for Xu Xiaoshou...

Mu Zixi had already gone from being surprised and doubtful to being numb and believing.

..

"Bang Bang!"

In the air, the white skeleton was waving its fists in satisfaction.

It had almost lost itself in the fight!

Normally, there would be no opponents. But now, it suddenly met a guy who was at the same level as it and could hurt it from time to time.

The white skeleton felt that it had met its best friend.

It wanted to stop and dance before continuing the fight.

But the guy opposite it was also very annoying.

It was too small and too agile.

Its reaction speed was already fast enough.

However, in front of an opponent with the same level of throne body, the big guy's disadvantage was unmistakable.

When it waved its fist, it might not be able to hit the opponent.

The opponent casually attacked, but the fist hit the bone.

"Roar!"

The white skeleton shouted.

This battle was very enjoyable, but it should be over.

With a bang, the air currents in the void exploded, and its entire body shot up into the sky.

At such a distance, even if the opponent was extremely fast, they would still need time to react and fly.

And during this period...

"Hiss!"

The white skeleton sucked in its huge mouth, and its skull expanded. It immediately switched from a warrior to a mage.

..

“It’s the time!”

Xu Xiaoshou was waiting for the white skeleton to fly up again, and his eyes shone brightly.

This big guy was too stupid.

If he flew lower, he might not dare to move.

But if he flew higher, he would need time to get down!

“Retract!”

It was stuck in the range of Abrogated Origin Residence.

With a thought from Xu Xiaoshou, he dug out nearly a third of the mutated Flaming Maples, along with the trees, and sent it into the sky of his Abrogated Origin Residence.

This suddenly empty space immediately shocked everyone.

Yu Zhiwen looked ahead in a daze.

She had never thought that Xu Xiaoshou’s method of collecting spirit herbs would be so crude.

He just dug it out?

Was his interspatial ring that big?

No!

Didn’t interspatial rings require to contact to be collected?

Telekinesis could indeed be achieved, but it shouldn’t be done by a mighty figure who had extraordinary spiritual senses and had a deep understanding of the Dao of space?

Xu Xiaohu didn’t match these conditions.

His methods were even more similar...

“Abrogated Origin Residence?”

Yu Zhiwen suddenly remembered that Cheng Xingzhu had lost a Yuan mansion to Xu Xiaoshou.

But that was a ruined Abrogated Origin Residence.

Without a space-type spirit array grandmaster, it was impossible to fully activate it.

Even if it was successfully repaired, there was no supreme treasure that could mend the Way of Heaven Myth.

The Abrogated Origin Residence would be completely useless!

At most, it would be a small interspatial ring.

Xu Xiaoshou had so many resources to perfect that ruined Abrogated Origin Residence?

She, Yu Zhiwen, couldn't even come up with it!

"Space element..."

Yu Zhiwen suddenly came to a realization.

"Ye Xiaotian?"

The shock in her heart had yet to recover.

Xu Xiaoshou's figure flashed, and he disappeared.

In the next second, another large piece of the tall Flaming Maple Trees was missing!

"This..."

The white skeleton in the sky was stunned by the sudden bright color.

Before it could spit out the white flame from its mouth, its gaze fell on the ground.

Vaguely, it saw a familiar figure.

"Shua!"

The third scene disappeared.

The spiritual herb bush that it had painstakingly cultivated and deliberately created a treasure ground for fire-type cultivation had completely disappeared!

"Huo?"

After a cry of surprise, the white skeleton realized something, no matter how slow it was!

"Roar! Roar! Roar!"

Its entire skeleton collapsed.

Its screams were filled with pain, reluctance, and hatred!

After the ground had completely lost its cover, the hateful human that was like an ant actually pointed a middle finger at it!

"Pu!"

The white skeleton couldn't take it anymore.

White Flames filled the sky as they whistled down. The sky-toppling waterfall directly covered the precious fire-type land that it had painstakingly built previously.

"Whoosh!"

Aje appeared in front of Xu Xiaoshou in a flash.

"Mom..."

It stretched out its hand, wanting to receive the flowing flames.

“There’s no need.”

Xu Xiaojie gently patted Aje’s shoulder. He had long been prepared for the white skeleton’s methods.

“Keng –”

The famous sword was pulled out.

Xu Xiaohe crossed Ah Jie and pointed his sword into the air.

“Little thing, my ring treasure is already here. If you only have such tricks, how can you play with me?”

Chapter 490: Explosive Aura

“Modified Sword Style!”

Focusing on the Way of the Sword, Xu Xiaobei once again pulled out the heaven-shaking sword strike that had been enveloped by the white flame.

Even though the white skeleton was burning with rage.

Even though the intensity of the white flame waterfall had greatly increased compared to before.

When Xu Xiaoshou’s sword stabbed into the flame waterfall, the void seemed to have completely frozen.

“Boom!”

The next second, as he turned around and swung his sword, the flowing flame was sent back with the force of water breaking through a dam!

“Roar, Roar, Roar –”

The white skeleton was furious.

It roared crazily in the air, the white flame gushed out of its mouth precipitously.

But even so, it could only block Xu Xiaoshou’s sword that was drawn back.

It continued in this manner for a long time till it began to run out of energy and showed signs of vulnerability.

“This strike...”

Yu Zhiwen hid in the white bone cave. She was shocked.

When she was unconscious, she had never seen such a heaven-defying strike.

Xu Xiaoshou was only at the Innate realm!

If the sword intent was taken into consideration, he was at most a master swordsman.

However, how could the power of a master swordsman deflect an attack that was almost beyond one dealt by a Sovereign?

“Admired, Passive Points, + 1.”

“So strong...”

Mu Zixi was also amazed as she looked at the faintly gray figure in the white flame.

Even though she believed in Xu Xiaoshou’s abilities from the bottom of her heart.

Her heart skipped a beat when she saw that he was trapped in the white flame ring.

However, before her heart could beat again, the flaming waterfall that was about to fall on the entrance was sent back with such ease.

Not a single drop fell!

Other than the scorching heat.

After Xu Xiaoshou blocked it all by himself, the safest place in the world was actually behind him.

She secretly took a glance at Yu Zhiwen.

When she saw the twinkling stars in Yu Zhiwen’s eyes, Mu Zixi’s expression turned bitter.

She pursed her lips and began to curse in her heart.

“Damn Xu Xiaoshou, you’re showing off in front of a beauty again.”

“Cursed, Passive Points, + 1.”

..

“Hide your spiritual source well, don’t use it!”

Xu Xiaoshou shouted loudly.

The same situation had happened before.

But at that time, Yu Zhiwen was still on his body and in a coma, so it was actually safe.

If the two women hiding inside the white bone door used their spiritual source to block out the high temperature or the sneak attack from the residual medicinal effect in the air then, in such a close distance, even if they didn’t come in contact, they still were at risk of combusting spontaneously!

Therefore, he had to remind them.

Fortunately, after all that interactions, the two women were not people who didn’t trust their teammates.

After hearing Xu Xiaoshou’s words, they immediately withdrew their protective spiritual source.

A white flame waterfall poured down.

The people below were unharmed.

“Roar! Roar! Roar!”

The white skeleton was on the verge of a breakdown.

It could not understand at all. This move of its could end the opponent’s ultimate move even if it hadn’t come into contact with it.

Why did it have no effect at all on this small fry in front of it?

He was clearly surrounded by white flames.

Even if he had a counterattack skill, how could he withstand such a high temperature in such a close range?

Even if he could withstand it, shouldn’t the human’s spiritual source- the energy reserve, be permeated by his white flames?

“Suspected, Passive Points, + 1.”

“Stunned, Passive Points, + 1.”

“Ma Ma...”

Ah Jie, who was standing behind Xu Xiaoshou, couldn’t help but mutter as he watched Ma Ma send back a powerful move that could pose a threat to him.

“Dong Dong.”

He patted his shoulder and crushed the white flame that dripped onto his body.

After he realized that even after he crushed it, the white flame did not extinguish. It seemed like it wanted to burn him up.

“Rustle.”

Ah Jie covered it with his hand and a suction force surged. He absorbed it as an abnormal energy to replenish himself.

“Run!”

Xu Xiaoshou finished delivering the strike.

Without turning his head, he dashed past Ah Jie and rushed into the white bone door.

“You two, follow my footsteps. Remember to follow closely. Don’t get separated!”

After saying that, he shot straight down into the darkness of the underground cave.

Mu Zixi and Yu Zhiwen looked at each other. They didn’t dare to delay and immediately followed Xu Xiaoshou’s footsteps.

“Roar!”

The white bone giant went crazy.

What did it see?

If it wasn't for its good eyesight, it wouldn't even have realized that there were two humans hiding in its resting place.

Then, these three people entered it after receiving one of its moves?!

"Bang, Bang, Bang!"

As if the white skeleton had taken aphrodisiac, all the bones in its body exploded.

White flames spouted out from its body and gathered at the bottom of its feet. They turned into white flames and shot into the sky.

With the help of the recoil, its body fell like a giant nuclear bomb, heading straight for the white bone door!

Its treasure was still inside.

How could these three humans go in?

All of them must die!

"Ma Ma..."

Ah Jie looked around in confusion, he was the only one left behind.

Ma Ma didn't give him any orders.

The big guy on top of his head was coming down at him again with such a terrifying intensity..

With such intensity, even he had to avoid the attack temporarily.

How could he avoid it?

Ah Jie didn't even think about it. He turned his head to the the white bone door and dashed in the direction Xu Xiaoshou had headed.

"Ah Jie, don't come in. Block it from the outside!"

Xu Xiaoshou's urgent voice drifted over from afar.

"Ma Ma?"

Ah Jie's footsteps froze. His eyes were filled with disbelief.

Ma Ma doesn't want me anymore?

This..

"Roar! Roar! Roar!"

The white skeleton charged madly and shattered the hundred-foot-tall white bone door.

As the debris flew in all directions, its scarlet eyes suddenly saw the little boy who had turned his head over with a furious look.

“Ma Ma...”

With a swoosh, Ah Jie directly appeared on the white skeleton’s back.

The white skeleton giant did not slow down in its momentum, so how could it react in time?

“Boom!”

Its small foot smashed down.

An earth-shattering explosion sounded.

The white bone door, which was hundreds of feet tall, finally completely shattered.

The white skeleton was caught off guard by the sudden attack, and was embedded into the ground hundreds of feet deep by Ah Jie’s foot.

“Roar —”

The white skeleton struggled to get up.

Right now, it doesn’t have time for this fellow who was on par with it.

It still wanted to capture the three humans.

It could not stay outside!

However, just as it propped itself up with its palm.

Ah Jie landed on its back with a thud.

“Boom!”

Another kick and the white skeleton sank another 100 feet!

“Puff...”

A mouthful of white flame sprayed out from its facial orifices.

The white bone giant was stunned.

How could that little fellow be so strong?

It pushed its hand forward again.

“Boom!”

“Puff...”

The white skeleton was stunned.

It refused to believe it.

It raised its hands again.

“Boom!”

“Puff...”

“Boom!”

“Puff...”

..

“Be careful.”

Deep in the cave, Xu Xiaoshou looked at the falling rocks and soil and realized that even if the cave had endured the high temperatures of the white flames, it would still not be able to withstand the battle of the two muscular tyrants outside.

He led the way.

Even if he did not look at the White Pearl Treasure Map in his mind, he could sense that in the depths of the cave, there was a spiritual energy of the same origin.

“Advanced Infernal Fire Seed!”

Xu Xiaoshou was excited.

This aura was many times stronger than the Advanced Infernal Fire Seed.

It was definitely something that could only be nurtured in the white skeleton’s mind.

He sniffed the Infernal Fire Aura that was emitted from the air and accurately located and descended.

After a long time.

The cave was extremely deep.

Xu Xiaoshou did not know how long he had been flying.

He felt that he was about to touch the Earth’s crust, yet he still could not see the end of this bottomless cave.

Fortunately, the white skeleton was really stupid.

It did not sculpt the cave when it was digging the place.

There was not even a fork in the road, and merely tilted downwards.

In such a situation, he could probably fly to the end with his eyes closed,.

“Something’s wrong!”

After a long time.

Xu Xiaoshou vaguely sensed that something was wrong.

He stopped in his tracks.

“What’s wrong?”

Mu Zixi immediately followed.

Yu Zhiwen also looked over.

“Something’s wrong...”

Xu Xiaoshou hesitated and flew to the side of the cave wall. Then, he reached out and touched it.

“Ore?”

Mu Zixi also touched the cave wall and asked in puzzlement.

“It’s not ore.”

Xu Xiaoshou rubbed his fingers. He could vaguely smell the power of Infernal Fire on it.

“This should be a special mud wall that has been burned by Infernal Heavenly Flames for many years. It’s very hard, but it’s not a spirit ore.”

“That big guy lives here. And it uses flames too. Isn’t it normal?” Mu Zixi asked curiously.

“It’s not normal.”

Xu Xiaoshou’s heart skipped a beat. He seemed to have thought of something and said, “It won’t have the energy to come and burn it every day.”

“Even if that’s the case, the soil won’t be able to withstand the power of the white flames and will only disappear. It won’t melt in such a strange way.”

“It looks more like...”

“What is it?” Yu Zhiwen also touched the wall of the cave, but she couldn’t tell what was amiss.

“A meteorite fell.”

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes were filled with disbelief.

Without waiting for the two women to ask, he continued, “Don’t you think that this pit is too straight?”

“Does that big guy have the leisure to dig such a long hole underground?”

“Even if he wants to dig, does he have the brain to keep the hole that he dug straight down?”

“If he didn’t dig... so it’s a meteorite?” Mu Zixi’s eyes widened.

This explanation was even more ridiculous.

How could a meteorite fall from the White Cave?

“Maybe it’s not a meteorite.”

Xu Xiaoshou pressed his hand on the wall of the pit and felt the soil gradually soften as it moved outwards. He said deeply, "Maybe it's an Advanced Infernal Fire Seed that was placed on the ground and slid down directly."

"The pit is so big, it should have been formed from burning."

"The remaining heat faded away and gradually made the walls of the hole hard."

"But!"

Xu Xiaoshou couldn't continue.

This explanation was very ridiculous.

If an Advanced Infernal Fire Seed had slid down and no one had controlled it, it shouldn't have only created such a small hole.

Perhaps the entire Spirit Fusion Swamp wouldn't be enough for it to destroy.

So..

"Maybe it wasn't an Advanced Infernal Fire Seed, but something similar."

"What could it be?"

Xu Xiaoshou was confused by himself.

The 'Infernal Fire Seed' could not do it to such an extent.

Yet, the 'Advanced Infernal Fire Seed' couldn't do it merely to such an extent.

The power that was mixed within..

"Could it be that there's a 'Intermediate Infernal Fire Seed'?"

Xu Xiaoshou was amused by himself.

Impossible.

If there was such a thing, it was impossible for Elder Sang to keep it from him.

Then, there was another explanation!

"An 'Advanced Infernal Fire Seed' that could restrain its own power slipping..."

"No!"

Xu Xiaoshou came to a realization.

If it could control its powers, it was unlikely to be an 'Advanced Infernal Fire Seed'.

He recalled the white skeleton's anxious look.

Could it be that the thing inside this place was the real reason which gave birth to this Sovereign-level white skeleton?

And the level of it..

Xu Xiaobei's eyes turned red!

The reward of charging into this place may be more impressive than he thought.

"Little Yu, you can't go on."

Xu Xiaoshou turned his head and looked at Yu Zhiwen, with his mind made up.

"If it's something like a meteorite, the depth of this place would possibly reach the magma layer."

"Under such circumstances, I'm afraid that Ah Jie won't be able to hold the skeleton off, or that the area affected by the battle between them will be too big and they will bury the tunnel..."

Mu Zixi suddenly came to her senses.

She had also realized something.

"You want me to bring you up?"

Yu Zhiwen was smart enough to immediately understand the hidden meaning behind Xu Xiaoshou's words.

"That's right."

Xu Xiaoshou nodded. "Is there a way?"

He raised his head.

At this moment, his "Perception" was almost unable to see the surface of the ground clearly.

If he went any deeper, even if he had "Ascending to the Heavens in A Single Step", he would not be able to come out directly.

If he crushed the exquisite stone, he might be teleported to a flat surface.

If he was teleported to the depths of an unknown place and lost his way, he might as well not teleport.

"I can do it, but I don't know how deep this pit is..."

Yu Zhiwen frowned and pondered for a moment before saying,

"I can set up a sub-array here and a main-array above ground. When the two are combined, I can steal the Divine Secret and teleport the two of you out."

"But, there's a flaw in doing this..."

Xu Xiaoshou lowered his head and knew what Yu Zhiwen was thinking.

"We have to return here before we can leave?"

"Yes."

Yu Zhiwen nodded.

“We still don’t know where this pit leads.”

“If the distance is too far, or if the white skeleton comes in, this place will collapse.”

“Under such circumstances, you’ll be buried and lose your direction. There’s a possibility that you won’t be able to find this place, and there’s a possibility that the white skeleton will block you and you won’t be able to come out at all.”

“If you are unable to find this fixed point sub-array...”

Yu Zhiwen’s gaze landed on Xu Xiaoshou. “Even if you have a teleportation, you will not be able to come out.”

Xu Xiaoshou fell silent.

That was indeed the case.

He did not expect that a deep underground area would actually become a problem that would trap him.

And this was indeed the case.

Without reaching the Sovereign realm, one would not have the ability to move mountains and seas.

Nature’s formations were where the abilities of Spiritual Cultivators were limited.

A depth of one to two Zhang wasn’t a big deal.

A depth of one to two thousand Zhang wasn’t a big deal.

But what if it was ten thousand Zhang or several hundred thousand Zhang?

It would be fine if he was trapped.

With “High Spirits”, he wouldn’t die from running out of spiritual source underground.

At most, he would be like Zhao Gao, climbing up step by step.

However, Mu Zixi was different.

She was at risk.

“So...”

Xu Xiaoshou looked at his junior sister.

Mu Zixi immediately knew what this random senior brother was planning.

“I’m not leaving.”

She pursed her lips.

It was not easy to find Xu Xiaoshou.

She was not allowed to leave when she wanted to.

And now he wants to chase her away?

“If you don’t leave, you might be buried to death.” Xu Xiaoshou felt the increasingly intense tremors in the cave and pointed at the falling rocks.

“Are you stupid?”

Mu Zixi retorted, “I only need to leave a few tree seeds every once in a while. Not only will I be able to spy on the situation in this cave along the way, when the time comes, if we want to come out, we can follow the seeds and get us out.”

“Oh?” Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes lit up.

This was a pretty good idea!

Having relied on himself this entire way, he had almost forgotten that this junior sister was actually a wood element user.

A tree seed..

That the little thing that was used in the “Windcloud Competition” and almost ended his winning streak!

“I didn’t think that you would still be of use...”

Xu Xiaoshou happily rubbed his junior sister’s head.

Yu Zhiwen lowered her eyes and turned her head away.

Mu Zixi was immediately furious.

“Xu Xiaoshou, what do you take me for?”

“I’ve already left a tree seed behind!”

“When the time comes, even if the hole collapses, all my tree seeds will explode. In an instant, a spiritual tree path leading to the ground will be paved for you!”

Mu Zixi paused and added, “There’s no need for the Spirit Array.”

Good heavens.

Xu Xiaoshou’s eyes immediately lit up.

He didn’t expect that after entering this place, Mu Zixi would be more useful than Yu Zhiwen?

Eh?

Why did Xiao Yu not speak?

Xu Xiaowei looked at Yu Zhiwen with a strange expression. He saw Yu Zhiwen clenching onto the fabric of her dress. Her gaze was a little erratic.

“This...”

What was going on with these two ladies?

His gaze fell on Mu Zixi. When he recalled her last sentence, Xu Xiaoshou felt a headache.

How could they compete with each other in such a situation?

When he thought of Xiao Yu's introverted personality, he figured that it was unlikely that she would argue with Mu Zixi.

Thus, Xu Xiaoshou couldn't help but remark, "So what if you have skills. Why are you so fierce? You're scaring people."

"Fierce?"

Mu Zixi was stunned.

How am I fierce?

Isn't this my normal way of speaking..

That's not right!

She secretly glanced at Yu Zhiwen and saw that the girl was submissive and unable to speak up.

Mu Zixi immediately understood.

Xu Xiaoshou had misunderstood her words.

But..

Wow, Xu Xiaoshou!

You can't get used to your junior sister's way of talking after carrying a gentle and cute Beauty!

"I'll be fierce to you!"

Mu Zixi was so aggrieved that tears welled in her eyes.

Xu Xiaoshou had changed.

Sure enough, if she was a little careless and let him come into contact with the beauties outside, he would no longer only care about her.

That Xu Xiaoshou that would only treat her well, no matter what wrong she did...

A random teleportation...

And he changed!

"Okay, okay, okay..."

Xu Xiaoshou was troubled. "You're right, you're right, it's my fault."

"How about this."

He did not dare to talk nonsense anymore and immediately said, "Little Yu, set up the formation first, then go out."

“When you go out, remember not to go directly to the entrance of the pit. Remember to go towards the side.”

“Mu Zixi and I will go all the way down.”

“If the two above kill their way down and this place collapses, or if the tree seeds will be accidentally destroyed, we can use the spiritual wood to open a passage leading here and teleport them away to avoid a head-on confrontation.”

“And if they kill their way here and destroy the spiritual array...”

“It’s impossible for the white skeleton to discover my Divine Array, let alone destroy it,” Yu Zhiwen suddenly said.

Xu Xiaoshou was stunned.

He subconsciously felt that the atmosphere was a little austere.

Something was wrong!

Something was very wrong!

He looked around and saw that his junior sister was staring at him with murderous intent in her eyes. Xu Xiaoshou immediately came back to his senses.

Great.

It turned out that Yu Zhiwen wasn’t someone who would just accept whatever came her way.

“Yes, the Divine Array cannot be destroyed.”

He immediately added, “Xiao Yu is also very strong. All of you are too strong. I’m the only weak one.”

“My tree seed has the power of regeneration. Even if the both of them hammer at it together, they won’t be able to break it,” Mu Zixi suddenly said.

Xu Xiaoshou: “...”

Oh My God!

What was going on?

Ah Jie.

My precious Ah Jie, come and save your Ma Ma!

“Subjected to Contention, Passive Points +1.”

Xu Xiaoshou: ???

Information Bar?

Holy shit!

You’re a senseless Information Bar. Why are you seeking attention at a time like this?

Contention?

Contention my foot!

“Good, strong, so strong!”

“Both of you are much stronger than me. Whether we can get out this time will depend on the two of you.”

“I, Xu Xiaoshou, will hug each one of your thighs with each arm of mine, okay?”

Yu Zhiwen: “...”

Mu Zixi: “...”

“Cursed, Passive Points + 2.”

..

“Bang Bang!”

The sudden sound broke the awkward atmosphere.

The situation above seemed to be getting worse.

After a short pause, the sound of fighting suddenly showed signs drawing near.

This meant that the opening outside might have really started to collapse.

“Let’s go!”

Xu Xiaoshou waved his hand and said without hesitation, “Proceed according to the plan and act according to the situation!”

“Let’s go.”

Mu Zixi smiled and went forward to hold Xu Xiaoshou’s hand and was about to take off.

Xu Xiaoshou: “...”

It turned out that this was what this junior sister was plotting!

Yu Zhiwen stared at the spot where their arms intertwined.

It was clearly nothing.

It was clearly just a symbol of the brotherly love between a senior and his junior.

But at this moment.

The calm state of mind that couldn’t be disturbed by mundane things had actually become slightly chaotic.

Ripples rippled.

An indescribable feeling welled up in her heart.

She could not describe what it was.

But...

It was very uncomfortable!

Well, it was not “very”..

But it was uncomfortable.

Even if it was a little, it was still uncomfortable.

“Wait.”

Yu Zhiwen did not know why she had said that extra sentence.

But after saying that, Xu Xiaoshou indeed stopped in his steps.

The ripples in her heart calmed down.

Even if it was deep underground, and there wasn't the slightest bit of light, as she looked at the young man in front of her slowly turning his head, Yu Zhiwen's starry eyes could also see the lipstick on the side of his face that hadn't been completely wiped away.

“Be careful.”

Out of the blue, these four words came out of her mouth.

Yu Zhiwen's face instantly turned red, and her ears turned pink.

She felt as if her feet were scalded, and she could no longer stay where she was.

Xu Xiaoshou had yet to respond, she turned around in a panic and flew straight into the sky.

“Wait.”

Xu Xiaoshou also spoke.

Yu Zhiwen's figure instantly slowed down.

She did not dare to turn her head, nor did she dare to speak.

But in her heart, a faint sense of anticipation could not help but rise.

Would he say, “You too”..

With his hands hanging by his legs, Yu Zhiwen couldn't help but clench her fists.

However, before her expectations could be fully fulfilled, Xu Xiaoshou's voice was transmitted over.

“You haven't set up the array yet. Leave after setting up the array. Be careful.”

Yu Zhiwen:“...”

She indeed had received his concern.

However, why didn't it taste sweet at all!

"Resisted, Passive Points + 1."

Mu Zixi looked back at Xu Xiaoshou in shock.

She also thought that this guy would say "You too" in a sentimental manner.

Curses were already brewing in her head.

In the end, Xu Xiaoshou..

Mu Zixi held her forehead.

Did I overestimate him?

So, that kiss earlier was really a coincidence?

"Belittled, Passive Points +1."
