

I AM VARDY

Chapter 1 - I am Valdy

“Pass, damn, don’t you know what a good opportunity this is?”

“Stupid, stupid, shot is weak, have you not eaten for a few days?”

“You stupid pig is back to defense, why are you standing there and defending with your eyes!”

.....

Although he had not opened his eyes, he was shocked by the deafening sound around him, as if the eardrum was about to burst.

Who made the TV sound so loud?

Does let people sleep?

Also, what is this broken TV series, swear words, I really don’t know how to pass the review!

The feeling of a hangover made him headache, but it seemed that being in a noisy market environment made him very upset, so he wanted to get up and turn off the disturbing TV set.

narrowed his eyes reluctantly, and waited until the environment in front of him was imaged in his mind through his pupils, but he suddenly hit a spirit.

Why are you next to the stadium?

Who is and who is playing football?

Who is the guy who yells at the side of the court not far in front of himself?

A series of question marks appeared in his mind, making his not-so-clear mind even more muddy.

Afternoon sunshine is a little dazzling. There is a burning sensation on the body, plus the sultry weather, just like being in a steamer.

Just sleep like this, at least just this dream did not make him nostalgic, because in the dream he did not play on the court, but only appeared on the sidelines.

can't even dream to play the game, this is really not a dream with any aftertaste.

Suddenly, a memory that doesn't belong to him suddenly appeared, occupying about half of the depth of his soul, weird invader = let Dawei's mind have an extremely fierce battle, this is even more so that Dawei I feel like my head is about to explode.

It may be a rivalry that makes the two sides fear each other, but under certain rules doomed, the two sides began to merge reluctantly but desperately. This kind of pain seems to exceed the humans' pain level 12 Definition, although he has not experienced the pain that the pregnant woman can't bear when he was giving birth, he feels that he now definitely suffers a lot more.

Clenched his teeth and silently endured that he was a man and would never cry!

hiss!

ow!

Well, I am really not a tough guy!

Perhaps it was some kind of will that made him overcome the painful difficulty, as if a clean spring flows through his mind, taking away all the smoky smoke, and also moisturizing this messy battlefield. After the pain, he suddenly relaxed and let Dawei He couldn't help but hummed happily.

“Speaking of it, I really admire you. Was it not rejected by the girl? Are you so decadent like this? Actually sleeping on the sidelines of the game, and still making such a disgusting voice, if not staring at you all the time, I really I suspect that you can't help but send a blow to a strong man on the field!” Suddenly, a voice rang in my ears, with ridicule and concern in his tone.

Dawei replied subconsciously: “Cut, what is rejected by the girl, that's how I got rid of her!”

But suddenly his eyes widened and his pupils contracted, as if he saw something incredible, Dawei hurried to the toilet on the side of the court.

leaned against the wall and violently stroked the fierce hand, and the heart beating too fast seemed to be giving him the answer.

Why?

Why do you cross?

What exactly is going on?

.....

Dawei is just an ordinary young man in China in the 21st century. He is unmarried and has no children. He graduated from university without even a girlfriend. He found an ordinary job and lived a life of desperation. The goal is to find an ordinary woman to get married. , And then spent a lifetime in plain life.

His only hobby may be football.

Of course, hobbies are hobbies. If Dawei is played on the field, even if it is a wild ball, I am afraid that others will think of him as a bad technique, and drag him behind, not willing to take him to play.

Which boy does not have a good wish to become a big star, but this life, this wish is doomed to have no chance to come true.

He has imagined that he has become a super star countless times, just like Ronaldo, he is on the court and easily overpowers his opponents half a team. The kind of self-respecting momentum is probably only comparable to the undefeated East.

Unfortunately, he can only dream about it. Fantasy does not break the law, no need for the labor police uncle to catch people!

Therefore, he is just a pure fan, watching the game when there is a game, watching the reviews and news when there is no game, as for going to play, sorry, no!

But he never imagined that after the hangover, he passed through bizarrely!

Dare you talk any more?

As a person who grew up accompanied by a net, how could he not understand the meaning of crossing!

It is nothing more than the dimension of life caused by the occurrence of a bizarre event in the universe, leading to the chaos of time and space. A * traversed from the world A to the world B, or the time went back to the past... Although it has not been confirmed by modern science, But it has already been used proficiently by great web authors, and it can be traversed as much as possible.

So, which one of the omnipotent gods did you inadvertently provoke, UU read the book www.uukanshu.com and then gave yourself such a come out?

Okay, although I don't want to accept it, Dawei sees that he can't go back...

Well, the memory tells me that it seems to be 04 in Yorkshire, England.

And my identity...

Ok?

was Jamie Vardy!

How is this guy?

If you cross into a stranger, Dawei may not care, but now she has become Valdi, how can you not make Dawei excited!

Oh no, Dawei should be called Valdi now!

This is a truly famous inspirational emperor.

When he was young, he was dismissed by Xie Wednesday's youth training system because of his thin body. He was embarrassed by his livelihood. While entering an amateur club to play football, he had to go to a medical device factory to work, and he was once injured at the ankle because of fighting with people. The police installed an electronic tracker and banned going out at night.

At the age of 23, he only played in the seventh level league. After scoring 27 goals in a single season, he joined the fifth level league, and led the team into the English professional league with excellent performance. It is precisely because of his excellent performance here, The Premier League team Leicester City chose to take Vardi into the bag. Until Dawei came through, Valdi has become a hot striker in the Premier League, scoring more than 20 goals in a single season, almost becoming the Premier League golden boot.

Such a legendary experience, such an inspirational resume, the inspirational emperor's counterattack has become the most dazzling part of Leicester City myth.

can be said to be familiar with the inspirational emperor's experience.

Well, from now on, I am Valdi.

Will not have much memory of the previous life, Valdy will be the inspirational emperor who can not help but exclaim?
