

I AM VARDY

Chapter 12 - I will definitely surpass these stars

Although Langley believes that Valdy has great potential, after all, he has not received the training on the right track before, and it is already the limit of what he can do to get this salary.

Valdy figured it out in his mind. In England, an annual income of more than 37,400 pounds is subject to a 40% income tax. The weekly salary of 2,000 pounds will suddenly become 1,200 pounds, plus deduction of social insurance, the weekly salary is only 1100 pounds. About this, this figure has exceeded the ordinary working class.

Of course, compared with those real stars, this money is not enough for their fractions, and even people make more money in a night than Valdy one year.

He knew that at this time he was not qualified to speak with the club. After all, he had not proved his worth, so he did not care much about how much he earned now!

Turn to the signing period, and the above mark is also very clear. Four years, that is to say, in the next four seasons, if there is no accident, Valdy will belong to Manchester United.

Similarly, Valdy doesn't particularly care about the signing period. Four years is also average, indicating that the club is optimistic about your future, but there is no lack of uncertainty. If you change to a real genius who is optimistic about everyone, I am afraid that you will sign a contract for 6-8 years. Are normal.

As for the final penalty of 500w, there is nothing to say about Vardi. At least with this clause, even if he really breaks with Manchester United in the future, there will be no future.

There is nothing worth bargaining for, and Valdy happily signed his name on the contract.

“Welcome to join the family of Carrington. I hope you have a good time here. I also hope that Carrington will be proud of raising you as a big star in the future!” Kirshaw seemed very happy. This may be what he experienced The happiest signing is that it is difficult for other children to be accompanied by an agent or their parents.

Valdy smiled perfunctoryly: “It must be!”

It’s not that Vardy didn’t want to have a good chat with the young man in charge of the school, because when he wrote his name, the system’s prompt sounded and he was so excited that he couldn’t get distracted.

“The system prompts: The mission to enter the giant youth training camp is completed, the reward has been distributed, please check it with the host!”

“System Tip: The official version of the big star tease system starts to run, please host to familiarize yourself with the system!”

When leaving Langling with Carrington, Valdy was still in a muddled look. From the perspective of Kirshaw, this young man was absolutely too excited because he signed with Manchester United. The head of Manchester United youth training could not help but doubt it. Can mental quality really perform well on the field?

.....

“Go to my house to rest tonight, and wait for the club to find a suitable boarding house for you. You will move in again!” Langley said to Valdy while driving.

Valdi thought of Langley’s description of his daughter a few days ago—he weighed more than 200 pounds and shuddered instantly.

“Uh, let’s not bother you, it is not appropriate for you to have a daughter at home, just help me to a safer hotel!” Vardy sweated and refused.

Langley thought that Valdy was polite and shy, so he carelessly said: “Don’t worry about disturbing, since I took you to Manchester, I will take care of everything for you before you become an adult. Anyway, the club Opportunity to help you find a boarding house, and I will not bother you even if you want to bother!”

Sometimes, being too enthusiastic is not a good thing, just like now, Valdy doesn’t know how to reject Uncle Sloppy.

“I don’t like getting along with strangers very much. I’m afraid it will cause trouble for you and your family, so help me find a hotel!” Valdi was about to cry, and searched the stomach for such a lame reason.

Langley looked at Valdy seriously from turning his head, and seemed to want to determine whether he was lying.

“If you are really such a character, then you have to change it. If you can’t get along with your teammates, then it’s very difficult for you to integrate into the team. You can’t beat a team alone, even Ronaldo. Need the help of teammates, I think you should understand this!”

For such teachings, Valdy can only nodded and said yes, but he was depressed in his heart. This is just an excuse I found out!

“Well, since you insist on this, then I am not reluctant.” Langley sighed when he saw Valdy’s stubbornness. “Today I will send you to a family hotel near my house. The boss is my friend. He will take care of you!”

Valdy was very happy, at least not to face Uncle Sloppy’s 200-pound daughter.

Langley drove quickly, and the talking car had already stopped in front of a small building. No explanation needed. This is the family hotel Langley said.

“Hey, old man, this guy is handed over to you, but this is a good guy who is new to Carrington. You must leave his signature, maybe he will become a leader like Keane one day!” Lange Lee and the hotel owner greeted each other familiarly, but in Valdi’s frightened eyes, Langley punched * the boss’s chest.

Okay, this way of saying hello is really fresh and refined!

The innkeeper is a middle-aged man with a big belly, and his hair is a little thin, but the person looks very spirited. At this time, he is rubbing his chest grinningly, while looking at Valdy with a curious look.

“Since it’s Carrington’s boy, I’ll treat this place as my own home. I’m Manchester United’s most loyal fan!” The innkeeper patted Vardi’s back with great force, but he was very happy. Beautiful, he bet that the Wuzhishan mark must have appeared on his back. UU reading www. uukanshu.com

“This day is very tired, hurry upstairs to have a rest, and officially start training tomorrow, I will come to pick you up at seven in the morning!” Langley waved, sat in the car, told Valdy a few words, and turned his head again. Roared at the hotel owner: “Must take care of this little guy, otherwise you know the consequences!”

The owner of the hotel raised his * to Langley, who was stunned, and then said cruelly: “If you run fast, you must deflate your tires!”

“You have to know, I will do it from speaking!”

saw the innkeeper turn his gaze to himself, Valdy stepped back quietly, nodded, and gave his thumbs up. He felt that he was still a little better in front of these violent middle-aged people.

walked into the hotel, and the hotel owner took out a beautiful notebook and handed it to Valdi, along with a signature pen.

“There are a lot of Manchester United star autographs, all of which were obtained by Drake for me. Quickly, help me sign a name on it. I believe that his vision, you must be a big star, just like Class 92. Geniuses are the same!”

Vardy carefully opened the notebook, and as he said to the hotel owner, there were many signatures of Manchester United stars. He saw the names of Robbie Keane, Giggs, Scholes and others, and even saw the Go far away with Lord Ferguson and go to Beckham in Iberia.

The most important thing is to sign his name on it, because there is no practice, so it is not beautiful, but this is Vardy’s first signature, how he looks and how satisfied he is.

“I will make myself worthy of your signature!” Valdi solemnly said when he handed the notebook to the hotel owner.

He did not say a word-I will definitely surpass these stars!
