

I AM VARDY

Chapter 16 - Ferguson inspection

Vardi spent a night in fear, before he went to bed, he turned the whole house over and over and couldn't find guns and ammunition, so he barely fell asleep.

When I woke up, my spirit was not very good. I couldn't help it. If there was a thunderous fire next door in the middle of the night, I wouldn't be able to sleep for anyone else.

Ignoring the possible secret agent status of the Smiths, they are still very kind and enthusiastic. The breakfast prepared by Mrs. Smith made Valdi appetite, and the coach made him strong, so he really needs to eat this. control.

"I wish you a happy training!" When Valdi left the house, the Smiths waved to Valdi together.

The days passed quickly, and Valdy's life was close to two points and one line. Every day is the training base and the Smiths' home. Even when he rests on the weekend, he will choose to practice at the training base. This attitude has also gained McGinnet's attitude. Recognition.

One month later, although Vardi still had to continue to do basic training, he was allowed to conduct joint training with his teammates, adding a part of tactical training. Obviously, McGuinness believed that Vardi already had such a foundation.

When it came to the team match, Vardi, who was divided on the bench, made the main players scream, especially the defenders, and looked at Vardi with a grudge.

This is also something that can't be done. In the game, Valdy doesn't need to show much at all, just using speed is enough to break the opponent's defense.

Look at the central defender on the main side, Shawcross 193 cm, Evans 189 cm, they are tall and long legs, they have a strong frontal interception ability, but they can turn around but slow as a snail, as long as they hit the ball behind them, they will I can only watch Valdy chase away in the dust, how suffocated.

"You don't have to crush us with speed, we are still good friends!" This is Evans and Shawcross saying the most to Vardy after the game.

Vardi's outstanding performance in the youth team can be seen in McGinnes's eyes. After many years of training as a young coach, he is well aware that he has not received much exercise in the youth team.

Waldi didn't know that several big men at the youth training base are now having heated discussions about his problems.

"With Valdy's ability, staying in the youth camp is completely a waste of time, so now it is best to rent him out to exercise!" McGinness, as the coach of the U18 echelon, naturally has the right to speak.

"No, no, basic training is very important. If he is allowed to play professional games too early now, will he still have the patience to do basic training? Doing so ruins a genius! I absolutely disagree!" Mullenstin, who was responsible for the technical development of the youth training base, immediately took the case.

Mullenstin has watched Valdy's training and competitions, and is more about using speed and explosiveness. In terms of technology, he has not shown too much superiority, and once entered the adult team, speed and explosiveness are not the most. With a weapon, Valdy is likely to lose sight of it.

Therefore, he was firmly opposed to lending Valdi out now.

Kirshaw, the head of the youth training, could not help scratching his head, but he also had a way.

"I will give Vardy's video to Mr. Ferguson, I think Mr. Ferguson will give a very good suggestion!"

That evening, Ferguson received the videotape that Kirshaw handed over to him, which was the performance of Valdi during training and confrontation in the youth camp.

Because he is in the pre-season preparation period, Ferguson's life is not easy, not only to grasp training, but also busy with the transfer of things, he actually did not care about the videotape delivered by Kirshaw.

What are the geniuses of the youth training camp? Is he the head coach of this first team?

The video began to play, and it was an unfamiliar young man, which made Ferguson feel less interested.

is not a few geniuses who can remember his face, and what amazing performance can he have!

It wasn't long before Valdy's dribble attack made Ferguson, who was eating burgers, almost bit his tongue!

Nima, this speed is faster than Irving!

Ferguson had a surprise to pick up the treasure. He watched it busy and earnestly and became more and more excited. He wished to immediately promote Valdi to the first team.

But halfway through the video, Ferguson gradually frowned, and he found something wrong.

Why did this little guy perform well in counterattacks and fast breaks, but did not play much in the offensive position?

is no wonder, is such a fast speed not suitable for a quick counterattack!

Seeing this, Ferguson has already defined Vardy, this is a very good counterattack striker, but it may not be suitable for positional combat.

On the second day, Ferguson, who was busy, came to the training ground of the youth team in person. He wanted to visit Valdi on the spot.

“Mr. Ferguson, what do you think of Vardy?” McGuinness was a little surprised. He did not expect that Ferguson would come over himself. UU reading book www.uukanshu.com

“I think he is a counter-attack striker, can use Irving as a template, but now he is still far away!” Ferguson said lightly.

Next Ferguson instructed McGuinness to arrange another matchup. At the scene, he could see more things.

The young players were very excited because of Ferguson’s arrival, as if they had hit the chicken blood, and no one did not want to be valued by Ferguson and stepped into the sky.

“Mr. Ferguson is here often, but it is the first time to watch the match. I think he must want to bring someone into the first team, maybe this person is me!” Shawcross’s face has already turned red , Longing.

“Nonsense, Mr. Ferguson must have heard of my wonderful performance and wanted to take me away!” This stinky is Gibson.

Although Vardi behaved relatively indifferently, he was equally excited. Even if he knew that he was unlikely to be transferred to the first team, how could young people not dream!

Now that Vardi has established a firm foothold in the U18 echelon, this way, the original main striker Fraser Campbell was sadly reminded and was taken away by Valdy.

The style of this black striker is similar to that of Vardy. It has an excellent speed. Compared with Vardy, there is still a certain gap. Even though his body is stronger than Valdy, he still can't compete with Valdy.

So Fraser Campbell is also the only guy on the U18 team who doesn't have a good relationship with Valdy.

“I will take back the main position, it belongs to me!” Before the appearance, Fraser Campbell gritted his teeth to Valdy.

made Valdi inexplicable, the main position of the youth team, there is nothing controversial, brother I am not here, you can give it to you if you want!
