

I AM VARDY

Chapter 2 - Big star tease system

Just after Valdi just digested the exaggerated fact of passing through, it was followed by the sudden appearance of the golden finger, although the location of the bathroom may not be suitable for solemn inheritance, but who cares!

“Ding: The big star teasing system is successfully bound!”

An electronically synthesized voice rang in Valdy’s mind.

Since all the crossings have happened, there is nothing to be fussed about in the Golden Finger, so Valdy looks calm.

“Ding: During the host’s body and technical transformation, please do not interrupt... Do not interrupt... at your own risk...”

It’s a magical feeling. Valdy feels itchy all over, as if given by ten thousand ants. It doesn’t feel painful.

Passively accepting all this, Valdy’s rough nerve played a huge role, otherwise this time would have been scared to be mentally weak.

“The transformation is complete, please host to try the trial version!”

“System task: Enter the giant youth training camp.”

“Mission Reward: Offensive Feature-Super Sub (Lv1).”

“Warning: If the task cannot be completed within one month, the system will automatically leave the host and look for the next target to bind!”

A series of system prompts “ding ding ding” in my mind. After a closer look, Valdi was a little confused. The system means that the system is not yet his own, only to complete the first task, To stay with you forever?

And what does this “comparative” system mean?

Obviously Vardi has not yet realized the seriousness of this problem, just immersed in the excitement of the harvesting system, maybe he will not be so optimistic when the teaser system is fully displayed in front of him!

My body and technology have been strengthened. Although I don't know what level I have reached, I want to come to the level of professional players. It is not difficult to stay there. It should be noted that the task has a time limit.

Although I really want to study the system, I think that I seem to come to the bathroom for a long time, and I won't go out again.

With an uncertain expression, Valdisch returned to the bench. At this point, he already knew that the club he is now in is the starting place of Valdy's career in the previous life-Stokes Bridge Park. The Steel team, he has just raised the first team from the team's youth training camp, can receive a weekly salary of 30 pounds per month, but so far, he has not played on behalf of the team.

This game is a warm-up match. The opponent is not concerned about Valdy. With the current strength of the team, he will never find a professional league opponent to warm up, even if it is only a professional team in the fourth league. .

“It's been a long time you shit, God knows if you have another meal inside!” said his teammate who just said that he was dumped by the girl. He also used his hand to match his statement. Fanned by the mouth, as if Valdy really smelled.

In Valdy's memory, the **** was called David, and he was his friend in the youth camp. The two entered the first team together, but the difference is that Valdy is a forward, David is a defender, and the two are hard to brother. , Are all fringe figures of the first team and have not yet had a chance to play.

Slipped his mouth, Valdy said carelessly: "Well, it tastes good, the viscosity is moderate, at least proves that I have no constipation!"

David turned around and vomited. He felt a little difficult to parry Valdy's life.

Finally, David watched the situation on the court and said: "The team's strength is really not good, the striker has no sight, the defender will only rely on the body, and the strength of the opponent is not strong, otherwise it will be long. It broke down!"

But his words did not get a response from David, because David was thinking about how to complete the task of system release!

Although according to historical development, Vardy will change from a grassroots to a big star, but know that at that time, Valdy was already 30 years old, and had already passed the best age, and he returned to his own life, should he follow the step by step Continue inspirational?

Since there is help from the system, although I don't know how strong the system is, but at least for now, I definitely have the ability to help myself get to the top of my life. Isn't my past life always looking forward to a good star life? Now, the star Life is coming!

Of course, the premise is that he can complete the system novice task, otherwise if the system is away from himself, then he can really only continue to survive like Valdy in the previous life, which is not what he wants.

"System, is it there? What is the definition of a giant?" Valdi communicates with the mind and the system. First of all, he must know himself and himself, if there is a chance to drill, then he is more confident to complete the task.

In fact, the name of the giants has actually been used badly, even if it is a top-level league, it may also be called a giant, so Valdi must first understand the definition of giants.

If you struggled into the enemy's inside, but was finally told by the system that this club is not a giant, then you are dumbfounded!

"The giants are defined by their heritage and achievements. At present, there are only two giants and one quasi-luxury in England. The giants are Manchester United and Liverpool. The quasi-luxury is Arsenal. Entering the youth training camps of these three clubs, the task is completed. The host has the ability to enter the giants of other leagues, and the UU reading book www.uukanshu.com mission is also effective!"

Systematic answer In the expectation of Valdi, Manchester United and Liverpool are undoubtedly the two most successful clubs in the history of England, and Arsenal just won the league championship with undefeated results.

As for the Chelsea not mentioned in the system, sorry, Mourinho has not yet taken office, there is nothing worth money!

That is to say, Valdy wants to complete the task and can only join the youth training camp of the three giant clubs, otherwise the system will say goodbye to him.

Waldi, who was in deep thought, did not know that at this time, a scout from the pride gate was sitting on the side of the game. He was still entangled in whether to go to Manchester United or Arsenal's youth training camp for training!

"Damn, did you all put your energy on the belly of the woman, bastard, if this game is lost, go back and do all the physical training for me!" The head coach of the steel team turned into a roaring emperor and drooled on the sidelines.

The steel team players on the field couldn't help but shrink their necks, a little afraid.

No way, the strength is not as good as people, is it not normal to be scored, but the coach just looks like he can't afford to lose, does the opponent's coach slept his wife last night? Otherwise how could it be this cynical look!

David next to Vardy couldn't help but stab Vardy with his hand and whispered into his ear: "Your chance is here. The team's stupid big forward is just a decoration on the court. No effect!"

Vardy looked at the stadium subconsciously, observed for a while, and found that as David said, the team was behind, but still suppressed because of poor strength, and could only fight back, and a slow high center was in the counterattack. Actually it doesn't do much.

Then, it depends on whether the head coach will let himself play!
