

I AM VARDY

Chapter 5 - Will he teleport?

There was a cry of exclamation in the stands, and even the players on the bench couldn't help jumping from their seats, watching the shocking scene.

The wind roared across his ears, trying to turn into a resistance to intercept Vardi's charge, but at this moment, all the laws of physics seemed to be transformed into nothingness by Valdy's sprint.

In his eyes, only football, and the goal of the opponent!

rush!

Let yourself fly into the sky!

No one can stop!

Let the previous life and this life dissipate, all together become the starting point of the foot!

This is the beginning of my dream!

rush!

In the terrified eyes of everyone, Valdi Ben has already accelerated like an F1 car again. In a few breaths, he has ran from the midfield position to the opponent's hinterland, and suddenly he and the opponent's two central defenders were on par.

"I rely on, why is this guy so fast, is it drugs?"

"I finally know why the other party sent this guy, and this guy is even sprinting!"

“Fart, I didn’t practice sprinting so fast. The hundreds of meters in our college will not have this speed. If you let them see this scene, it is estimated that they have no face to see people!”

Langley on the sidelines was no longer the same as the one sitting on the Diaoyutai, impulsively stood up from the seat, and even nearly hit the railing because of excitement.

He thought that Vardy’s sense of persecution and the speed of inadvertent display had been a very big discovery, but now he only knows that compared with the speed and explosiveness that Valdy shows now, nothing can be considered at all.

This time I really picked up the treasure!

Langley secretly ecstatic in his heart, he has made up his mind, immediately invited the little guy to join the Manchester United youth training camp after the game.

Although running fast does not necessarily mean that you can play football, but looking at the age of this little guy, the childish face is certainly not younger than 18 years old, and there is a great prospect for training.

After all, he has been able to play in the amateur league. Even if his skills are rough, he will not be a layman. At the speed of his horror, he has been training in the youth training camp for several years. When he is in his early 20s, he will definitely be able to play in the top game. Get a foothold.

It’s early to become famous. Everyone knows that it’s like Rooney. He was promoted to the first team at the age of 16. The 17-year-old first team made his debut and also entered the national team, but it means that being a teenager is the only way out. Everywhere, not to mention, becoming famous at the age of 20 is not a late achievement!

Although his mind was full of changes, Langley stared at Vardi on the field as if he was admiring peerless treasures, and he also wanted to know what kind of surprise he would bring to himself next.

The exclamation of the players on the sidelines did not actually arouse the vigilance of the two defensive players. After all, when they first came back, they saw that the score was clear. Even the opponents who were closest to them were very far away from them and there was no threat to them. .

It is precisely because of this intention that they swallowed the bitter fruit of failure. If time can be repeated, they will not ignore the little guy who was ridiculed by them when they played.

The expression of the local goalkeeper in front of the line of sight has become frightened, and he is preparing to shout to remind them to be careful, but the two defenders are still light and breezy, as if walking on the court, and also proudly made an OK to the goalkeeper. Gesture, indicating that they can do it!

These two idiots!

The goalkeeper shouted in his heart, and now it is too late to remind. Looking at the appearance of the two idiots, it is certainly not up to expect. The only way to do this is by himself. Thinking of this, the goalkeeper resolutely gave up the goal and chose to attack.

Looking at the strange behavior of the goalkeeper, the two defenders suddenly realized that something was wrong, but at this moment, there was a wind behind their ears, and a figure suddenly appeared between the two, which suddenly surprised the two.

There is no need to doubt, or even to turn around to see, they also know that the coming person is not a teammate, otherwise everyone will never be this reaction.

The reaction of the two defenders was surprisingly consistent, that is, the two leaned against each other at the same time to close the door, blocking Vardy behind, and then disposing of the ball.

But before their body receives the command from the brain, their closing action has already been declared a failure in advance.

No why!

Because Vardy has been frightened with fear and even can only use the speed of despair to watch from the middle of the two through the past, yes, the eyes of the two defenders reveal infinite despair.

From three people to Vardy alone, even the time used is not enough to measure in seconds. Things in a flash, so that people are in a trance!

Can't help but have doubts——

Will he teleport?

Vardy came out from the middle of the two, and touched the football for the first time after coming off the bench. He has completely fallen in love with this sense of power.

Then, continue to rush!

He didn't stop and didn't slow down, UU read www. The two defenders of the opponent behind uukakanshu.com are still putting pressure on themselves. The opponent's goalkeeper has also attacked. Getting the ball is not the end of the action, but just another start.

Gently moved the ball forward, although the speed inevitably slowed down slightly, but remained in front of the other two central defenders. At the same time, the goalkeeper was getting closer and closer.

Obviously, in the case of interception before and after chasing, Valdy is unlikely to get rid of the defense by changing the direction and then send the ball to the goal. Since that is the case, why not change it!

When he touched the ball for the second time, his toes rubbed directly under the ball, and with a slight effort, the ball suddenly rose, following the trajectory of the parabola, and flew towards the opponent's goal.

The opponent's goalkeeper looked at Vardy's gaze as if he could kill him, and he rushed to the front, but he suddenly found that Vardi came with a kick and even though he tried to make the effort to jump up, he still couldn't touch it. When it comes to the ball, what is more annoying is that just after crossing his own hands, the ball began to fall and fell directly to the goal. Under his gaze containing thousands of emotions, he finally flew into the goal.

Everyone's eyes are moving with the small ball. When the ball falls into the goal, it seems that time is stagnant and the earth has stopped.

When didn't score, Valdy felt that he would dedicate his life to celebrate his first goal, clenched fists, roared, and even flew on his teammates, like a lunatic.

But when he scored a goal, he didn't seem to be too excited, but there was only a voice in his heart telling himself that he would succeed, this was just his own start!

When he looked at the opponent player, he suddenly realized that he had no desire to celebrate at all.

is very simple, this game is too low!
