

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 10 10: The Hunt Began (Part 2)

"Captain!!"

Arnoux who was discussing with his team turned around, and everyone saw Zam in the distance.

Arnoux's raised his brows because he can feel that Zam is already a first-layer Body Tempering. Shortly after he arrived, everyone can see his beaming smile.

"Zam, congratulations, you broke through." Arnoux said with a smile, the village has another warrior he was naturally happy.

"Captain, our village will rise! This place is a huge treasure!" Zam can't contain his excitement, everyone was confused. Why this guy looked like he just hit a jackpot, everyone was thinking.

Seeing everyone's confused looks, Zam excitedly recalled all his experiences. When he told them that he killed a first-layer wolf, with a half-step realm. Everyone looked at him like he was a madman, even Arnoux can't help but admire this guy's courage.

Zam then continued talking about how he broke through, everyone was dumbfounded.

"Zam, you're not joking right?" Nox said.

"Why would I joke with this kind of thing, do I look like a person who would joke around in a serious situation?"

"You're right, if Nox said the same thing, I wouldn't even believe it one bit." Eryx said without caring that Nox can hear him, as for Nox, he just whistled playfully like he didn't hear anything.

"If what you said is true, then this is a huge opportunity for our village." As Arnoux said, everyone becomes serious and excited. Who doesn't want to become a cultivator, most of them already accepted their fate that they can't become a cultivator in this lifetime. After all, they were already in their thirties and still didn't achieve the starting point of becoming a cultivator, the Body Tempering Realm.

Now that they were given a chance to become one, they will surely grasp it tightly.

Seeing the eager face of everyone, Arnoux didn't waste time any longer.

"Ok, let's hunt these wolves... But I need to remind you guys that we won't engage if we encounter a pack of wolves. From what Zam has seen so far, he didn't find any other monsters around. So, there might be a wolf den nearby. Then, I don't need to remind you all how dangerous monster dens right?" Arnoux looked at everyone sternly, as though someone poured cold water on them, everyone come back to reality and shuddered.

"We will take it to mind, captain." Everyone said with seriousness, they still respect their captain deeply. Without the help of cultivation practice, he managed to become a second-layer body tempering, such a feat is worthy of respect.

Arnoux's group then started moving, of course, they were only going to engage in a fight, if they think that their group can take it.
