

I CREATED A DUNGEON IN A CULTIVATION WORLD

Chapter 12 12: The Heart Of A Dungeon

"It should be, well we can only continue hunting, and when everyone breakthrough the body tempering, we can start going further into the forest." Arnoux said.

Hearing it everyone nodded and started preparing for the next hunt.

While that was happening, Argon who was floating above them, saw everything. Right now, he was just waiting for someone to die and see how many soul coins he would get.

In addition, earlier when Arnoux and his group enter the dungeon, he also got a mission.

[Mission: Kill all the intruders or defend your dungeon for a day.

Reward: 100 soul coins]

Of course, Argon doesn't want to massacre Arnoux's group. If he killed all of them, who is going to pass the news of his glorious dungeon?

After all, Argon doesn't know that his dungeon created so much commotion that the nearby village saw the white pillar.

As for killing someone, Argon knows that this is a dog-eat-dog world. He needs to steel his heart to survive.

Considering that if the heart of the dungeon gets broken, the dungeon will collapse and he will also die.

Just earlier when Arnoux's group came in, the system told him that there was a heart of the dungeon at the end of the forest that he needs to protect. He didn't go there yet, because he want to see the strength of the wolves first, and then see the heart of the dungeon.

After all, there's no one here that can threaten his dungeon, so he was not in a hurry to see it.

Now, that he knows that the monsters of the dungeon just like the system says, it's stronger than those of the outside, he was relieved, it gives him more security.

Argon then teleported to the end of the forest, there he saw an altar with red crystal floating at the center.

If you look closely at the crystal, you can see that it's moving slightly like a heart beating.

"System, does this crystal easy to break?"

[Yes, the crystal itself is easy to break, but the altar has a shield around it, so it will not be that easy to destroy it. As for now, the shield can only block the attack of the Qi Gathering realm being. For upgrading the shield, the host can see it in the upgrade section of the system.]

Hearing it Argon opens the system, and yeah, he saw the upgrade section. He was sure that there was no upgrade section earlier.

He open it and saw the heart of the dungeon, the only thing in this section. As for upgrading it, he needs five hundred soul coins. That's a lot of soul coins, with that amount of soul coins he can buy a lot of powerful monsters to defend the dungeon.

Since Argon was already done here, he closed the system, then teleported back to Arnoux and his company.
